THE WORD OF GOD[1]

«I saw, in the right hand of Him, Who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?"» (Apocalypse 5/1-2)

"I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, God from God, and God is before all eternity. I am the Lord Jesus Christ as My name was on the earth two thousand years ago. I am the Word of God as My name is now when I come on the earth as word. Amen." (Apocalypse 19/13)

Excerpt from the Word of God, from 26.09.2003 - Old style / after the Julian calendar[2]/09.10.2003, - N.S.

"And now I am building this heavenly building into your midst and lift up the book of the judgment of the creature between earth and heaven, My word of fifty years into the midst of the Romanian people, the word which calls the man from death to life, from ephemerality to eternity, from sin to holiness and the dead to resurrection, My people. And after I lift up this book, between earth and heaven, I will still be patient for a little time of grace and then I will make all the nations of the earth bow down before My coming, so that they may see My throne into the midst of the Romanian people, into your midst, My people."

Excerpt from the Word of God, from 25.03.2005 - O.S. / 07.04.2005. - N.S.

TO GOD'S GREATNESS, HE WHO IS PRAISED WITHIN TRINITY, THE FATHER, THE SON AND THE HOLY SPIRIT[3]

(This book is the continuation of the book that includes the translations of the Word of God between the years 1955 and 2005 from the Romanian version, r.n.)

[1] God's Word in „Holy Citadel New Jerusalem" monastery, Glodeni – Romania, redactor note.

[2] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

[3] Translated by I.A., r.n.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

Christ is risen! This is what I, the Lord, said in the day of Passover of the year of 1955, and behold, there have been fifty years of word of the Word, Jesus Christ.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how My word on the Romanian land came to life two thousand years ago, My river of word, which waited to come again to life on earth, to overflow again from My mouth so that I may be able to work again, because I am the Alpha and the Omega. Amen, amen, amen.

Behold the feast of the feasts, the festival of festivals! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, found faith on earth when it was to come back again to make the world, for I make the world again. I am the Maker of the heaven and of the earth. I am the Word of God into the midst of the Romanian people, where I made up My path of the second coming from near the Father to the people. It was written into the Scriptures to come to fulfill the things like those of two thousand years ago when I was born of the Virgin, of the Virgin forever, for I am clean and holy, as God's bearers have to be as well, so that they may know Me and work for Me on earth.

It is the feast of fifty years of My word from the end of the time. I, the Lord, bring that day into view to be confessed. Amen.

I prepared a trumpet by which I was to speak out My word. I made her to My pleasure. I prepared her by sufferance and pains as the gold is refined in the furnace, so that it might shine and to be a useful vessel to the Lord, an honored vessel before Me and before My angels, who have been watching all the time over My work of word to come and to settle on earth by the word of My angel. And after I made up My trumpet before My coming, I sounded it and My word of two thousand years ago came to life, for My angel Michael gave word to My commandment, and then I sounded My trumpet and she let itself according to My will, and behold, at the voice of the archangel and within God's trumpet, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the beginning of the resurrection of those who are asleep, came to life as word on earth on the day of the memorial of My resurrection two thousand years ago, on the day of Passover of the year 1955, the day of My coming from the Father, a new word on the earth. And after twenty-five years, I took My trumpet from the midst of the people of that time and I established her among those that are from heaven, and I brought My word on the earth that began and was sown through her in all her time, and My word became a thousandfold ear, and with it I have been shepherding the nations of the earth, and My word is an iron rod into the midst of the tribes on the earth, for which I am their Maker for seven strange thousand years, strange with their life to My life, which appeared after it began to dwell in the people, oh My people of today!

Now I bring into view the feast of the day of resurrection, the day of Passover of the year 1955, the day when I sounded the trumpet of My word of two thousand years ago from the birth of My body from the Virgin in order to dwell with the people and to be with those who believe into My coming, to be with them to the end of the time, as I spoke through the Scriptures that I would be.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how I started the resurrection of My word fifty years ago! Come, Verginica, come to look over the time and to see how it begins this day of feast of the Pentecost of My word, which I began to speak through your mouth, from My mouth in the year of 1955 of the day of the feast of My resurrection. (See The Word of God from 30-04-1955, r.n.) Come, My sweet trumpet, let Us settle down in a day of the celebration of the word and let us confess, for the days of testimonies speak and bear testimony soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord, I'm Your trumpet from which You started to sing Your mourning song by which You call everyone and draw all to the Father, because You work and speak from the Father, for those who are from the Father do only His will.

This day of great feast is the feast of the word of fifty years of Your sufferance after the man and from the man, Lord. I have borne with great pain the work of Your word, of Your coming after the man, now, in the end of the time. I was nothing else but the man of sufferance, as You also were. From my childhood You had prepared for me only sufferance. You grew me up for You through sufferance and pains, and Your mercy for my painful life was sweet. You wanted me to resemble You within pains and scorn from the man, and You settled me in the spirit of the humility by which You can dwell in man and to be able to do like You in man, for there where the man is and can, You cannot work there, for You humble Yourself before the man, and You do not dwell but only in those who are in Your image and after Your likeness, and they are worked by You and not by them, Lord of those who are humble. You gave me Your angel and he carried me by my little hand in all the preparation, which you made for me to be Your trumpet, and Your Spirit and Your body comforted me in my humility. You taught me by pains not to love joy, for whoever has pains, that one does not know and does not love joy. You gave me only sighing so that I may not lose You, and that You may not lose me. I was despised among the people, just as You were, Lord, for there is no disciple greater than his teacher, because You were the Man of sufferance and despised by man so that You may be able to bear in Your body the man's weakness, Lord.

Oh, how weak the man is, Good Teacher, and that is why he seeks to be able to do, deceiving himself that he can and that he takes after You, Maker of everything! How beautifully You made all things that are by Your word! How beautifully You worked to give them making, You their Maker! This is how You worked Me of the spirit of Your humility, of Your pain of seven thousand years from the man, and then You made me useful for Your work of new creation of the world. You dwelt in my body humbled for twenty-five years with You word over the people that came to listen to the voice of Your word. The whole nature was listening when You became word by my word, and all creation was startling at Your voice. But the man is too big, Lord of humility, and he has no longer given Your throne after he took it from You seven thousand years ago, when You set him to reign over the earth, keeping and working Your commandment. However, he has not worked that way and he has not ruled for those on which You have been Master, but rather he has set himself greater than You in him so that he may work and not You. You judged every man when You chose me and worked me to be Your house and throne upon the man, for I had no one but God, and You could work in me with Your will, with Your word, with Your thought, because only You were in me, and not I, Lord, and my life was sweet for You, for it was Yours, it was Your humility in it and Your will through it.

I took many to the spring of Your word, which was calling out with mourning by my mouth when You were coming down with the richness of Your glory, which became word on earth. You were feeding them with the spirit of comfort, You were forgiving them, and You were cleansing them, because You were the One Who had power to cleanse the man from him and from his sins. There was great pain on You and on me, because those who heard You and felt You, were not giving their lives so that they might win it over again, and You became their will to be able to write Your word from the end of the time, which was Your sufferance, the voice of Your sufferance as long as seven thousand years. What a peace I had because I was able to comfort You bearing Your pain! You were giving me Your peace and Your yoke, the easiest yoke, and he who has no yoke cannot work as he wants and do his work into Your name, and that one does the work of the one who works in him.

I suffered in You and You suffered in me, the disobedient man, who was hearing You with Your will, which You were giving to the man to work it, but he, hearing did not hear, and seeing he did not come, and I was suffering and I suffer, Lord, when You suffer, for I was and am Your will.

Behold the day of Passover of the year 1955 when You gave Yourself to me as bread and wine by the intercession of the holy bishops Basil, Gregory and John, who came with You on the clouds of the sky down to my bed of humility after I fulfilled Your commandment for the fasting of forty days and forty nights, so that You could dwell in my body and in my spirit as on the throne of the judgment of the creature, because You made me your useful work after You worked me, and then You made me the voice of Your word over the earth. Oh, when You entered with Your Spirit in my body to speak out of Your trumpet, Lord, I saw then all Your pain from the man, all Your longing and I also saw Your resurrection, and then I understood that You came again on earth as victorious over the death, for only death rules over the man, only death, Lord, and the life sighs and dies away sighingly, and the man has no wisdom, because he does not have humility for life, Lord.

Behold the day of Passover of the year of 1955, when You started Your trumpet sounding and You announced Yourself as the One Who were resurrected from among the dead and You said to those who were watching over my breath of life, which could hardly flicker: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how You spoke, resurrected Lord, and since then You have been speaking, and behold a feast of the Pentecost of Your word which started through me, Your trumpet, fifty years ago, a day of Passover according to the time and in the likeness of that time, and one day more in order that the step of fulfillment could be seen. Oh, Your path was beautiful, because it was full of sigh after the man, but it has become beautiful and very beautiful for You now by those little disciples after the work of my work with You, Lord. I look with You at their wisdom full of humility where You had room so wholly and I look with You at their hard sighing, for Your coming down has become difficult and heavy, and they are little under it, and they are so little that You cannot be glorified through them before those who are great on earth.

Oh, little children, the mind of those, who do not know to understand the glory of God from those who are chosen by God from eternity, made you so little, so humble! Oh, my little ones and God's, oh, there is no faith on earth! The man is too stuck to himself, and his biggest obstacle is biggest both for him and for the Lord towards him. However, you should be good and you should stay as holy signs among those who believe and among those who do not believe, for God dwells in you even if you stay as in a precipice within the humility which feeds your life with endless love, patience and sufferance, children who bring the Lord on earth, fulfilling the time of the Pentecost of this holy feast. Be good and live in peace, for the humble ones have the spirit of peace before the proud who have the spirit of searching and not finding what they seek after.

The Lord whispered you a word of His sufferance and of His saints, and I set it among those that are true and I remind it now to you. Oh, children sons, as long as a saint is alive, he disturbs everyone, and all stumble over it, for those who are full of love for them wait from it, and if they do not receive what they want, they feel confused in their steps and strike in the holy one and they do not know what they do. However, after the holy one passes within his body, it is no longer hard for those who are to make a decision, to speak well of the holy one, since he does no longer hinder them within their things on earth. However, when he still has followers like him, then the lawmakers are disgusted and are silent revolting within their spirit and work by spies for the blaming of the Lord's saints. However, the Lord's saints do not rejoice over the good speaking for them after they pass away with their body, because it is not hard to speak well of the one who is no more that he may stop you from sticking to yourself in your love of saints in such a way that the saints may give you help for yourself. When the one who hinders you in your desires is no more, it is not hard to honor the one who became like God in your way to stop you from walking on it and to bring you to the Lord. But this is not right, neither for you and nor for the one in whom God dwelt in your way in order to appear to you, but it is right that you do not live according to the truth, and justice is that which is and not that by which the man covers himself for his righteousness for his benefit from God or from man.

Oh, children so little in the Lord's hand! Grace from grace, grace upon grace has brought forth fruit in you and upon you, because the Lord was great in my spirit and body in His work of coming back as word on earth. Oh, leave it like that! The grace of the Lord is enough for you, for the Lord glorifies and perfects Himself in His pains in you, and He will not let you down, because He is God and not a man, children of humility. I celebrate you as my followers to whom I left my wealth from the Lord, my wealth from the earth, the work of the Lord, children in whom God dwells. And behold, we stay in this day of the praised feast, for you fulfilled the time of this work of fifty years and you made your step again, and you passed into the time of grace, which is still left, to the renewal of everything in a fully way for the making of the mystery of the Lord's age on earth. The Lord celebrates us, you and me, the beginning and the end, in the beginning and in the end of this time, for the grace of man's salvation is fulfilled according to the numbers of years, only for the man to want to discover it in the word which flows abundantly from the Lord's mouth over the earth. Behold, step over the border and the word flows for its fulfillment. Strengthen yourself through it and strengthen for a way of new age the obedient people, that you should help its wisdom for the things from above in you for it, for its glory with the Lord, children of the birth from above and which is seen by the work which you do, for the Lord is known by the fruit, there where He is and where He lives. Do not forget that the one who endures to the end is blessed, that the patience for the saints is sweet and praised, as their work is too. Oh, do not grow sad because the spirit of the world in man does not receive your stretched hand to him. The Lord is even more aggrieved. Rejoice in your pains, for behold the feast of fifty years of the Lord's pain, Who cries after the man who is stuck to himself and not to the Lord in his self! The most beautiful feast, the feast of the Lord's pain, for His word is His pain, which cries after the man.

I glorified the feast of the work of Your word, Lord, the feast of Your pain, which has been crying for a long time, for seven ages, Lord, since the year of 1955, seven times seven years and even over this border, and I spoke much, Lord, in the day of the Pentecost of the feast of Your word, within Your second coming from the Father in man. Amen, amen, amen.

– You spoke, Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) but you are My trumpet from which My word had been crying before My great glory. I had been crying much, My Verginica, and no one has been crying as much as we had. Oh, who is to cry with Us and with those who cried so much, who carry Our work started by Us fifty years ago? Oh, where is the one that may no longer oppress the little and weak shoulders of the cross of My coming as sighing word after the man, My Verginica? But now, the comfort from Us helps them, for we have to work wholly over the spirit of the world in order to destroy it from the earth and from man and to be able to accomplish My life in man with death trampling upon death, for the sins will receive their wages and it will trample over them and it will condemn them in order to lift the man up from the sin. Amen.

And I, the Lord full of sighing, the One full of word, speak as in the beginning of this work of My coming after the man: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! And I did not come to life in vain, if I was resurrected, and I will ask from the man the reward of My sacrifice on the cross, as the one who was guilty, although I was not guilty, and I will ask the man to come to life from the sin and to pass from death to life, from sin to holiness, and the holy one is known after his wisdom, after his work, after his fruit in Me.

Christ is risen, My people from today! This is what I told those from the beginning of this work of word of My sigh, and no one has been sighing with Me to the end.

Christ is risen, people with a new name and with a new garment through new Passover, to which I reached together with you, the smallest one, but also the most advised one! My spirit is sighing, My people. The work of fifty years makes Me suffer, for as many heard My word the same number also left Me and went to mind their own business and did not remain in My things and I had no one to tell to: "Come with Me!"

I celebrate with you, the least one, the feast of the word of My pain after the man, the Pentecost of the voice of My word, My sigh from man, now, in the end of the time, for those who heard Me by this word judged Me, and then they left Me for their own things. However, now, you should comfort Me, the little one, but My comfort is the Holy Spirit. See to understand well what I tell you, My people, for I gave you the name from My coming and I called you the people of the New Jerusalem, and you should comfort Me in My pain from the man.

I lift up between earth and heaven the book of My word from these seven ages and I give you power to help Me and that I may appear with Me and to set is as a testimony between Me and man, for the man did not love to drink of My bowl, and he drank of his bowl instead, and now the bowl full of the reward of their deeds will come back against him, the bowl of My wrath over those who did not love God's Spirit, Who has nothing from this world. We lift up the book of My word and we give it to the Father for blessing, and then to the people, My people. However, you should sing to the feast of resurrection, and sing now, for it is a day of resurrection, Jerusalem. Look at yourself and see what you can give Me, what you can set on My table of today. Give Me your comfort, My people, for only the spirit of comfort was the one who flowed from My mouth over the one who was called by My mercy to the mercy of Me, the One Who suffered from man.

May the food for your body and for your spirit be blessed, because I cannot sit at the table but only with the one who is blessed! Come back, My people, to the beginning of My word and then come back on its thread up to you and cry with Me, son, so that I may not cry alone, for it is a pity not to have company in My sighing, it is a pity after so much sighing, My people. And I also ask you, when the book will be on the table and you will be able to open it, take you time and pass through this time, because I spoke about you that I did not choose you for the body but for the spirit, My people. Take care of what I told you at My table with you, because I said that there will no longer be comfort on the earth but only in My word full of grace and of sigh. Take care not to live without comforting Me and you from the grace of this word. I have advised you, My people, to pass from body into the spirit, and this is how you are to fulfill, and let yourself within My Spirit to be like God.

Oh, and I ask you, My people, no to live as on earth, and rather to live as in heaven on earth, and to listen to the law of the heaven and to eat only from Me and not from another spirit, My people. And now I put again the true seal of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, Who came on earth and trampled with death upon death in order to appear as true God from true God. Two thousand years ago, I died on the cross and I was resurrected from the dead and I left this seal: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen, then and now, My people, with His body then, and with His word now, people of the word of My coming with the new birth of the world, which will be born again by the word of God. Amen, amen, amen.

18-04 O.S./01-05-2005 N.S.

The second Sunday after Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas

I knock and it is opened for Me, because I am the true Shepherd. I knock when I come in because I do nothing until I let it be known, and I work this way to built faith and power for faith in man, for God. Amen.

Christ is risen!, my male and female disciples said to each other after I fulfilled My resurrection from the dead, a resurrection, which I told them about before it revealed Me resurrected before them. First I announced, first I knocked and then I revealed Myself to them within My body received from the Father, because I was resurrected to life, and then I went to the Father to thank Him for the power by which I trampled with the death upon death, and then I went to the disciples as joy, and I did not go to them until I let it be known, until I knocked to come in to them. I made clear to them that I would be raised up on the third day, and after resurrection, Mary Magdalene saw Me and I became known to them and I told them that I would go up to the Father to thank Him, and I told her to go and tell My disciples that I came to life and that I let Myself be seen and known by her so that she might testify about Me.

First, I announced Myself to them as resurrected, first I knocked and then I came in to them, and this is what I did with Thomas as well, the one among My disciples who was not with them at My first appearance before them after resurrection, the third day after My crucifixion and after My death on the cross.

Christ is risen, My people! Great and wonderful are My works into your midst, and by which I announce Myself first, for God's works cannot be otherwise on the earth. When I Myself preach the greeting of My resurrection into your midst, those from the dwelling of the dead are saved from any trace of pain because they are comforted at My voice for them, for My voice is most waited by them, much more than the people know on earth what this voice means, so that they may be able to hear it after that, to be able to believe first and then to hear it. However, My voice is heard from your midst very much in the dwelling of the dead[4], and there is no joy in heaven and on earth like their very much joy, and there is no place between heaven and earth in which I may not be known and waited as with them. And behold, I, the Lord, the One Who was resurrected for every man whom the death kept as a slave on the earth and under the earth, speak out for the joy of all who rejoice with longing and waiting, I declare for everyone the news of My resurrection: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen!

I have become the beginning of the resurrection of those who are asleep, once with My death and with My resurrection, and I worked this hastily, as it is written into the Scriptures, because I was waited by those kept under the slavery of death. There had been three days for this redemption, because I, the Lord, was not able to see the death and its corruptibility more than it was written into the prophets. My death on the cross had My resurrection with it for all those who were asleep who waited for Me as their Savior from the Father and for My disciples, who were to understand by this that I was the messenger of the Father, the One Who made the world by His word spoken by Me.

Oh, what humility My Father has got! He made Me declare His making within the work between heaven and earth. Oh, what humility I have, I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth! I establish you to speak about My making for the work of new heaven and new earth, that by the word of the Father in Me spoken upon you for you to take it and to settle it on the earth as God's making by its fulfilling after its speaking, because I speak and it is only in this way that I work in order to fulfill.

[4] See the selection topic: „The dead hear My voice[4]", r.n.

Oh, children who open to Me when I knock to come in with My making, with My work through you and through the word, oh, what humility you have got! You make the faithful, good and obedient sons work the word spoken by God and you have them confess God. Oh, humble children, I take you and I establish you upon My pains to know them, to feel them and to share from them life over those who have mercy on God. I love you so much when I hear your little hearts and your mind and word, which exhort all those who are able to love My life in them and to live its power, and to have the desire for My tear in them, the tear of the heaven, children merciful on God. The mysteries, which are unfathomable by the man's mind, are perceived by the man who is seized by them, children of the wisdom from above. Embrace in the spirit of the heavenly wisdom those who are merciful with God, and do not keep silent before them, for it is written that they all will be taught by God. As I knock, and you open to Me to dwell with My people, you should also do the same; knock to be opened to you, because you have to take after Me and to come in through the door and not over it, but My people has to learn My mysteries with it more and more clearly and to let itself be seized by them, because this faith does not belong to everyone, children sons.

I am with My disciples within a feast of resurrection, and we are with you, My people. My disciple Thomas was seized with the mysteries unfathomable by the man's mind, and which are perceived only by the man who is seized with them. This disciple was a mystery among other disciples of Mine. He perceived Me greatly, My people. Me, the mysterious One, the unfathomable One, this disciple perceived Me, and he longingly wanted to make all My disciples believe with a deep insight and then to confess with all their power the mystery for which I came down from the Father on earth and I became flesh in order to let Myself be crucified in My body and to be able to show the unfathomable mystery of the resurrection of the dead by My body itself.

One week before I started to announce Myself as the Lord of the resurrection of the dead, for My Father prepared Me to fulfill Lazarus' resurrection, who died for this wonder by which I appeared as the Father's wonder, the resurrection of the dead, which Martha believed in, but it was going with her until the last day of the time before the resurrection of the dead. Those who believed that they were the rulers over the heaven and upon the earth were seized with a great terror and they sought to destroy both Lazarus and Me, forgetting that they were not masters of the death and of the resurrection.

My apostle Thomas loved the other apostles of Mine and he proved with great power and confession that I was, that I was dead and I was resurrected and that I appeared to them and I made them happy to give them power of faith and confession and that they might be My witnesses to all the margins, as I meant them to work, telling them this before My passion.

I was a depth of mystery into the heart of My disciple who pointed with his finger to My resurrected body. The wisdom from heaven was his beauty and his faith was that which confirmed the Son of God resurrected from crucifixion. Amen.

– I very much miss now, my Lord and my God, to confess You clearly as at that time and to help those who cannot love You with their faith and its works and to tell them that I loved You faithfully and that You knew my secret love, my secret humility and my sweet faith, which I also wanted to settle in those that were terrified by the Jews, my brothers, Your disciples, and that they may sink within Your mysterious being, which was with its body before us in the time when You appeared to us after Your resurrection, my Lord and my God.

Oh, I miss You very much to be in man, as I also missed You in my other brothers, Your disciples, and I wanted to prove to them that You were the Lord, Who had been teaching us for three years and a half in order to perceive You, for You were the One Who could not be comprehended by the man's mind, You, the One perceived by the man whom You perceived, just I was, my Lord and my God. You entered me wholly when You took me to be Your disciple after You resurrected a dead body to be able to take me to be Yours and to confess You more and more, more powerfully, and to be called Yours, calling You my Lord and my God.

My love full of mystery was unfathomable after You perceived me with the mystery of Your being making me then comprehend Your deity by which you lived among the disciples before the cross and then after the resurrection, when You came in to give Your peace and to comfort us, for I was comforted with Your resurrected body, which I embraced with the whole of my mysterious being and not only with the finger, which You took it with Your hand and made me touch the wound of Your crucifixion, my Lord and my resurrected God, and You called me blessed and faithful, meaning a greater blessing to those who would believe and not see You, as I saw You for the faith of many after that.

You taught me not to be unfaithful but rather faithful, and that day has been carrying a great mystery, which the holy fathers of those who were faithful called it since then and until the end with my name and all call it Thomas's Sunday, for I confessed You in that day, and my confession also confesses me and announces my consuming longing by which I wanted to perceive You with my embrace after You, being resurrected and coming back from the Father to us, appeared resurrected, and as when You came out of the tomb, the same way You entered to us, those who were locked in the pavilion, through the locked doors, not touching anything, not damaging anything, but coming in and out as from the tomb in which the seals, under which you stayed, remained untouched, and this is how You appeared and confessed Yourself as the Master of death and resurrection, my Lord and my God. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, great and wonderful are My works into your midst and by which I first announce Myself, for the works of God cannot be otherwise. The mysteries unfathomable by the man's mind are those that are perceived by the man who is seized by them, and I, the Lord, the one that I want to have mercy on, make him then the confessor of those that are My unfathomable things, My people. My disciple Thomas worked wonderfully on earth and he worked from the earth and up into heaven in the time of My work with him on earth. The unfathomable mystery of his faith, of his work with Me among the people, was great in time and over time, and I advise those, who heard and hear of the Lord of resurrection and of His disciples, to remember the mysterious and revealed work and the confession of My disciple, Thomas, by which the dead were resurrected and confessed My power from My confessing disciples. Let every man come to a stop and look at My works after My resurrection thorough the disciples on the earth.

Oh, sons of the people, and you, those who hope in God, as you also know this and as you want! Be still with your mind and take in it the miracles that you have forgotten, which I set as a testimony between Me and you through My disciples to your salvation or to your condemnation. I worked through them unequalled works, more and greater than in the time when I was with them on the earth, for I promised them that this is how I was going to work then by those who believed over the unfaithful ones. Tremble and be ashamed of your unbelief, of your departure from God and come back to believe and to be resurrected, you, those who say that Christ was resurrected, and about Whom, My apostle Thomas testified to you.

And as for you, people of My word over the dead and over the living ones, show yourself truly that you know to believe and to tell everybody, in a wonderful and true way, the news of My resurrection, which cries over time: Christ is risen, and the death was destroyed and the life appeared, for He, the true One, was resurrected, He truly was resurrected! Amen, amen, amen.

25-04/08-05-2005

The third Sunday after Passover, of the myrrh-bearing women (of the prudes)

I am the resurrected Lord, and I am speaking now as I spoke two thousand years ago, when I appeared to My disciples, resurrected from crucifixion, and when I told them: «Peace to you!»

Oh, My people of today, I am coming together with you under the mystery of My resurrection from the dead and I mysteriously live into your midst with the prudes of that time, and we give each other the greeting of the resurrection, the news that goes over the time: Christ is risen! And happy and comforted are those who wait from those that are not seen, those who took off their earthly body for the heavenly body of their soul; happy are these when they hear the greeting of two thousand years ago, the greeting of the eternal life of God and man's, for the life is Christ, and it is eternal, and it is. Amen.

Christ is risen! I, the resurrected Lord, tell you, those who have come together in the garden of the meeting for your feast with the prudes of My resurrection, for their feast into your midst, and now I give you the life giving word, for My Spirit works this: life of My life upon man. Amen.

Peace to you, children who wait for the Lord's entrance with the book open! I appreciate you, children sons. There is no creature on earth to feel you and then to know to appreciate you, but those in heaven wait for you as the holy prudes were waiting the moment of My waking up alive, to rejoice and then to share joy afterwards. Oh, those from heaven take great care of you, for those from heaven see those that are not seen and which are with you for the working over those that are in heaven and over those that are on earth, for the care of My work embraces your little heart and body, which are tired because of watching, because of not resting and because of your not sleeping, because of My hard work upon you, but strengthen yourselves with My Spirit full of watching, the One full of power over those that are weak and little, and give Me to My people for the food of the growing of My Spirit in them, for they have to grow less in a great measure, so that I may grow and to grow in them, because I grow as a baby, for this is how the children of My Father grow, and they grow according to My image and in My likeness and not according to their likeness. Amen.

I try to speak according to the man's understanding, for I am full of mercy for the man. When I speak to you, My people, I speak to give My speaking to the man and for the man to receive growth like Mine, for I grew like a baby and I have never done My will but My Father and man's, who wanting or not, knowing or not, he was fulfilling the painful Scriptures upon Me, but glorified by their pain about My mystery in the midst of the people, who were accomplishing those that were written about Me in the Scriptures. I speak according to the man's understanding and I am full of mercy for the man and I do not do this because I am indebted to the man, but I work because I am merciful. However, the man is not merciful to Me, the One full of mercy, the merciful One for him.

If I were not the Father of many, I would not be merciful, My people. My mercy is as in heaven for it is seen better from heaven on earth, it is seen well in man. Oh, I have been calling out in many ways over to the man to set him on the way of My life and to take him from the way of his life, but I worked and work him like a Father and not like a punisher. However, the man has not followed Me and he has had no mercy on My sufferance from him, and then I have no longer called him, I have no longer waken him up, and I have no longer rebuked him, and I have no longer struck him, but his deed has struck him instead, and I took upon Me his life with wrongdoing in it, for I am merciful and I do no longer punish the one who does not listen to Me. I have taken his wrongdoing upon Me for it is not possible otherwise. This has been My sufferance for two thousand years, it is the man's sin, and there is no man to forgive Me from My sufferance from him anymore. He has always been doing it for Me, always giving it to Me, for the man is neither merciful to himself, nor on God, since he has been taking after his temporary taste, and there is no man not to understand this death that is his, and I do not find from man love for My love towards man, and I cry painfully from man.

– Oh, do no longer cry today painfully, resurrected Lord. My love for You is sweet from the midst of the prudes of Your sufferance and then of Your resurrection. Do not cry. I have loved You and I have loved You powerfully and painfully since You gave me Your pain for my love, dear Lord of my heart, great Master of my new life, after You, as the Lord of the resurrection from the dead touched my full heart and emptied its content so that You might fill it again, and to fill it from You. Do not cry. I comfort You sufferance from the man, as I comforted it after I followed You from among the dead on earth, after I knew You among the people, my dear Lord, for I forgave You from Your sufferance from my life without a clean heaven in it, and then I gave You my kingdom, and all saw me with You in me, great Master of my new life. Do not cry. I am the loved one of Your soul after the man. I comforted You with my longing, which was seeking You among the bodies of the dead to embrace You resurrected. I waited for You to come to life, because I could not help believing that You would come to life on the third day, but my faith was the love, which never dies, and blessed is the one who never dies, for that one has the love for You as life, Lord Master of my life without death, which I hid in Your life, to have life and to have it forever, not by faith but by love, dear and praised Lord and full of mercy, for You are merciful and take upon You the sin of those who do not leave off sin. However, I took upon me the love of the One Who does not give up love, Your love for the man, merciful and wounded Lord because of Your longing after the man.

I crown the feast of my friends, prudes and sisters, disciples of Your sufferance from man, for I comforted You in Your pains and I passed over Your death, to stand before Your resurrection, and I saw You resurrected, when I was looking to give You the fragrance of my heart before Your resurrection, which was Yours with all Your love in my love, for You gave me birth in an instant, looking deeply with Your serene eye into me and giving me the new longing for life, life without sin in it, life without death in it, as You wanted me with a humble spirit to be able to have me as the dwelling place of You life. I loved you, and I loved You with a love full of sufferance, and great is the sufferance of love, for it is the strong love, the love from God, dear Lord of my new love. Amen, amen, amen.

– May your love be praised among loves, My loved one, My child, the prude of My resurrection, of My love without a house, but you were its shelter, bride child resurrected from the dead of the world, Mary of Magdala, My creature, the fruit of the Father's work in Me for My mercy on man. Amen.

Oh, rejoice, dear prudes, rejoice in the love of the word of the one among you, who declared the love of My pain in her, for the one who loves like Me, suffers just as I suffer after the man, and he calls the man to the love with pain, to death for life. Rejoice! It is a feast for you, and we have as our company the host of those who are asleep and called to My table for you and the one for them in the day of your feast. It is joy for all now, and everything is united within this rest, and I say again, to the great joy of those who are remembered within their sleep: Christ is risen!

Oh, My people, My rest longs after you just as the rest of those who sleep waiting for the last trumpet over them waits, to be revealed then with their house in heaven, with their body in heaven, not made by hands. Will come soon to you, the faithful one of My work from the end of the time, will come soon, soon to you, the sinful man and full of sins will come to you, terrified by the day of My wrath and he will tell you: "Fall down over me and cover me to get away of God's wrath and to hide me from it!" I want to prepare you to be more and more alive with this power of Mine in you, but you still have to learn to grow, and to grow as a baby, just as I grew, and to come to life, My people, like Mary Magdalene, and may your new life give life to those who are dead[5] even in their bloom, son from nowadays.

Oh, My people, the worm comes and lay its eggs in the flower bud and eats My love from the bud, and when the bud turns into a flower and from flower into fruit, the worm remains hidden in fruit and it grows once with the fruit, and then the fruit goes bad inside of it and it falls down from the fruit tree after that, for it does not go bad outside but inside because of the worm that is inside of it.

Oh, My people, I have always brought you only health, only healing, only blessing, and you are very much in debt to bring Me thanks and glory, the same as you thank a doctor who heals you and gives you life again, My people.

Oh, only the evil spirit does not like My speaking with the man, My speaking between man and man, but My Holy Spirit has been speaking to the holy ones: «Your words should be God's words», and He did not tell them not to speak holly. The one who has not a holy speaking, that mouth is emptied of the word of life and it gives itself over to words of sufferance for those who love the Spirit of the Lord through the word among brothers. Whoever does not speak works like God's, that one falls from God's word, because I wait for the holy one to be God's word and not his word, for his word condemns Me like a judge, because the man has another word instead of Me in him, in his heart, and that one condemns Me, and in him I can no longer see and hear for him.

Oh man, I suffer when You judge Me, because I am good, merciful and humble, and I humble Myself with mercy and I suffer from the man. However, the man cannot endure My judgment, he cannot because he has not got a humble spirit and he has got his self instead of My Spirit, and with it he does not want to receive Me and the man judges Me with his own self.

Oh, man, when you stay in My place of your God, you actually judge Me. Oh man, if you were I and I you, how would you have treated Me? You would have denied Me and this is what you have been doing whenever you sit in My place of God. You have wanted not to be able to do it, and this is not because you could have not done it, but because you have not wanted to be able to do it. You have chosen your own self and that is what you share with the poor and that is why you cannot deny yourself and make Me dwell in your place in you. Oh, man, there is no saint that may not go wrong, but whoever has loved Me for My sufferance in him, that one has been leaving his earnings, his labor, sharing his possessions with the poor on earth, and he has not still been gathering for himself at all, and then he loved Me standing against his wrong doings in him and letting Me be the Lord of his thought, to be his watch and to be strong against his own self, for he was seeking life for his life, and I was giving Myself over to him at his prayer.

Oh, My people, of some people among those that are called now at the blessed table for them, there is one little soul which is thankful, which rejoices over My glory from its faith in My work and from its love for the sons of My people. A being that has recently left for those in heaven, and on whom I had mercy, for I am merciful for the man. She lived in a dwelling place where it was written "prayer" on it, but she did not know that it was written by an angel on the roof of her house because of her little heart's much prayer before Me from which this dwelling place came to her. I was merciful to her, because she loved Me, and she had mercy on the one who prayed to Me to bring this near her among those in heaven, so that she may not be guilty of sin in the house where it was written "prayer." Now she has forgotten her separation from those on earth, and she has taken a place for prayer among those in heaven, because I did not want that she might commit any sin in the house called "prayer."

[5] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.

Behold, My people, I truly said to you that the man, burdened with sin, will come and he is coming to you, the man who carries sufferance on him on the earth and he tells you: "Fall over me and cover me to escape, and to hide me of God's wrath!" The man will come to you as to a mountain of escape to cover him with the blessing, which you have got from Me, for I am a merciful Father and I have taken upon Me the sin of the wretched man because of his sin.

I was told to come and to tell you about this little soul, the little heart that made of her house a dwelling place of the prayer on earth, and this is how it is written on the roof of her house, for she suffers from heavenly sufferance for her place of prayer on earth, and which is no longer a holy place before Me, and the little heart has been crying, which prayed on her place of prayer, but it also has joy for a little soul that is won over for heaven, for her prayers within this dwelling place. Amen.

And now, My people, the one which stays with a day of feast for My prudes and disciples and for all those who are called by their memorial service at their memorial table, I, the Lord full of resurrection, the Lord of the love of My prudes of two thousand years ago, I speak out over this day of feast in the garden of the meeting: Christ is risen! I am the One Who gives life to the living and to the dead, and also to those who are asleep, who are alive by the mystery of My resurrection, for I was resurrected for the man, after I took upon Me the burden of the man's sins of the seven thousand years, since the man has no longer kept My kingdom within him.

Christ is risen, My people, and to you, those who stay in groups-groups in the day of this feast, I say: Peace to you! This day of life giving and of resurrection for life is a day of heavenly feast. Christ is risen! And I say again that this great wishing on earth and in heaven is a great joy, My blessed people. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-05-2005

The fourth Sunday after Passover, of the paralytic

I have been waiting at the gates of My word since before dawn. I, the Lord Jesus Christ, have been waiting at the gates because I have word in Me in this day, and it has to take its place in its book. Amen.

It is the moment of the elapse of the day of today, of the Sunday of this day, weak children in the gates. Before dawn I have been waiting for you to be able to come in the word. Oh, let the day of this feast not elapse without settling Me as word in the book, because since I came down among you last time, I have also gathered word in the book, children sons, and without it among you, and after it takes being in Me, it is hard for you and it is hard for Me, for My word is hard when it speaks, and it cannot speak. Yes, sons, it speaks and it also cannot speak, because if it does not settle down on earth, it presses Me down, and My pressure also presses you down, for you are My gates, and I am heavy within the gates, and I would be very much comforted in such a way that My people may not forget what you are, for whoever does not forget this helps you while in difficulty and it does not make any pressure on him, and the one who helps you for My difficulty with you does not pressure you down, but on the contrary, that one takes great care and he takes care of Me and of you, and he does no longer takes care of himself, and this means God in man, and this does not mean the man in man.

Oh, children charged with My great word, which is born of Me! Let us give you power so that you may also give Me being in the book, for otherwise this burden breaks your body, for God is hard when He cannot work, when He is weak in the man that He is pleased with. I, the One Who I heal My weak one, I am weak in him when he cannot work for Me because of his weakness, and that is why I heal him and I always lift him up for Me, because if I lift him up for him, is of no use to him, that is to his soul. When I heal the weak one, that one falls even in a greater sufferance if he does not know what to do for his healing from Me, and it hurts Me very, very much, My people, when the man does again wrongdoings after that I, the Lord, heal them at his request or because of My mercy on him, so that he may thank Me afterwards and not to do what he wants with the gift of My mercy.

Oh, what a great example of teaching I have left by the healing of the paralytic! When I found him on the side of the pool, which was giving healing by its angel, he was helpless. As sick as he had been for such a long time, not being helped by anyone from among those that were gathering there for the healing of their people's weaknesses, I had mercy on him, and coming closer to him, I asked him: «Do you want to be made well? Arise, take up your mat, and go to your home, and from now on sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you». (See John: 5/6-14)

Oh, My people, who, after he is forgiven of his wrongdoings, who else takes care that he may no longer go wrong so that nothing worse may happen to him? Who, sons, who on earth? For two thousand years no one has understood My word settled upon the one who had been weak for thirty-eight years after I healed him at the pool of the sheep, there where all were looking for their own healing, and they were not looking for each other's healing. However, I worked otherwise. I sought the one who did not have any help on earth to come to the help given by the angel from heaven.

Oh, My people, on earth the man does not let himself be helped by God, for this face means something else than what the man knows what it means, for behold, the one who is helped does not know, then, to avoid evil in which he was so that it may not happen worse to him. That one owes obedience and he must no longer go wrong, but if he does not listen and goes from bad to worse, then he is punished worse even by his many wrongdoings after that. I helped the one who had no one to help him on earth, and that is why I have been teaching you to have mercy, to do merciful actions to those who have no one to remember them after they leave their body, because for those that left their bodies the deed is even greater, just as for those who are still on earth and who go wrong again and again and then they remain not healed, since they always have to be helped, and they go wrong again. Those that left their bodies cannot be helped by anyone but only by God and by those that are like God.

Oh, great is My teaching on this day of memorial of the paralytic that was healed by My heavenly mercy! Oh, My people, the man does not need to have any claims to be helped by someone, but rather he needs to be helped only when he is helped, and he has to let himself be helped then. Oh, man, you are not that one who you think you are, but you are the one whom another one sees how you are, for it is another one that sees you and not you, because the man cannot read himself alone, but only the one before him reads him the way he is, the same as a book is read after someone opens it. However, with the man is something else, and it is not as with a book that you have to take and open to see what it is in it, what it writes in it. The man cannot hide, but he is the one outside of him, for it is seen outside of him that he hides in himself, for the man's hypocrisy is the most read book of the man's way of being, and he becomes heavy around, and this is the sign that he is not true.

Oh, My people, I gave you advice, son, and I told you that if you do not know to bind a wound, at least do not make a wound, for the blood of the wounded cries rejected to the one who wounded him. I have established exhortations of all kinds into your midst, because I want every man to learn from Me, only that I may have a way to speak in you, My people. The paralytic that I healed did not forgive Me then from the wrongdoings of his life, for which he suffered, even if I told him not to do wrongdoings anymore, because in that case it could have gone worse to him than it had been before, that is to separate himself from God even worse than before, for the man's separation from God is his greatest punishment.

Oh, man, do not hurt any man and then run away without binding the wound, for the blood of the one who suffers from you, cries out to Me by his wound. But there is even a more severe wound than that which you make in secret to your brother. This is even more outrageous, because My honor in your brother is hurt, that which you make to the one who loves Me with pain for My sufferance, is a wound made to Me. If something of what is Mine in you makes you suffer because of your neighbor, and he does not know, your neighbor is in the darkness and he does not know his darkness, for whoever makes a wound and then he does not bind it, that one is in the darkness as regard to his brother that is wounded from him.

Oh, My people, wound against wound is great sufferance for Me from you, and I do not want you to be like the one who said: «I have slain a man for wounding me», (Gen: 4/23), but on the contrary, you should get up and first bind the wound of the wounded one, and then you should also bind yours, and this means the law of the Lord with you, My people; oh, and how much I wanted that every man may receive this heavenly teaching and to settle it down upon the man on earth then! You are the people, which has been taught by God, but the man from the world has nowhere to receive the teaching of life from the same as you have it from Me.

Oh, sons, you should not be self-lovers and proud within you and for you, for these lead to pretentions and then to separations among brothers from those that are earthly among brothers. It is not good to stand before the heaven wounded by each other, for you are Christians and not world, and woe to the one who deceives himself with that which is fleeting, and behold, sons, I have not come on earth to judge between brother and brother, because if I do this, one of them remains guilty. I have come to lift up the guilt; the guilt, which the man does not want to carry, and he cannot carry his neighbor's if he cannot carry his. However, I come as a healer upon the man, for I have got teaching of life, and I tell you for every man that slander does not heal, it does not refresh man's soul and it has to be removed from man. The one who does not receive your slander, it does not mean that he is not your friend or that by this he does harm to you, but it rather means that he does you good, that he removes the occasion of this sin, which the man has been committing for seven thousand years against another man, and, which even harder than this, it is against God, My people, and the man does not know how this comes.

Oh, it makes Me suffer greatly when I see the one who says that he loves Me, and he does not know how to be Mine, how to give himself over to Me to be Mine. Oh, the man does not know to make sons for Me, to give forth fruit to Me and then to give it over to Me. Many parents give their children to the devil, for they say to their children "Go to the devil!" when their children make them angry. However, the devil does not take them; it leaves them to their parents but they are not theirs anymore, but they belong to the one whom they gave them over by their spoken word, and then by the given child, the devil has got the parent too, and it draws the parent too, for it cannot be otherwise. However, with God is not the same, and if you give your child to the Lord, he is no longer yours, but if you still keep him into your heart and in your care afterwards, oh, he is not as with the devil, who leaves him to you, but it is otherwise. Behold what happened in My people with all the children and parents whom, I, the Lord, do not have them as Mine. Many parents have done the will of their children and as a result I have lost both the parents and the children. Many children have done the will of their parents and I have lost both the children and their parents. But the parents who have given their children over to God and then they have not sought with care to them, they have understood My significant speaking when I spoke two thousand years ago: «Allow the little children, and do not forbid them to come to Me». (Matt: 19/14)

Oh, My people, the one who says that he loves Me but he loves his child too, that one actually does not love Me. Whoever loves his child, that one cannot love God, for the measure has to be wholly with Me, My people. Whoever loves his child, that one is an idol worshipper, he is the lover of the fruit of his sin, and he is not ashamed to do this, and the one who loves God with a quarter of a measure makes Me suffer from a deep wound. Oh, this is how the man knows to love Me, My people, and behold, woe to the one who does not know to be My disciple when he says that this is what he is!

Oh, it is not possible half a measure; it is possible neither with God and nor with the people! It is not possible for a man to give himself half to the devil, even if you hear him that he has committed only half a sin. Oh, this is otherwise. It is enough only to forsake God only for a moment and this means treason and the man does not know what the healing from God means then when he comes to Me to be alive after that. I told to the paralytic man not to go wrong anymore, not to commit sin anymore so that it might not happen worse to him, for sins upon sins, after the man knows them that they are sins, they are the most severe punishment for the man, who gives what is eternal on what is passing away.

The Jews got upset with the one who was healed from his weakness because I told him to take his mat and walk to his house. They rebuked him, telling him that it was forbidden to take his mat on a day of Sabbath, for his healing was on a day of Sabbath. However, he took upon his shoulders the mat of his sufferance, which had no longer been a burden for him to carry, but it was his healing, because I took over his burden, because I did not come into the world to judge the man but to heal him instead, and I came to take over his guilt and I told him not to commit another one so that it might not happen worse to him, so that I might not suffer worse from the man, My people, because the punishment from the man is heavy to Me. Every sin is a punishment for God; it is My punishment, because I was born to take the man's guilt over to My shoulders. Oh, how comes that the man does not want to take after Me or at least to carry the humility from his wrongdoings with humility? He has always been asking Me to take it away from him, and I have been merciful to him, I still am merciful, and I have been charged by the man, for the man is not able to carry his punishment that he works for himself.

Oh, My people, I have become very weak in man. I am the paralytic man in man, and this is what I am in man, and I do not find any healing for My wound, but I rather find wound upon wound from man.

I weep for Myself and I weep for you, children charged with My great word, which is born of Me and which does not find any dwelling place and fulfillment in man. Oh, I have much weakness in you whenever I am hurt from the sides in you, for whoever knows Me with you, seeks for My good over them, and they look for their will with you, and this means weakness for you, merciful children, but mercy should be rewarded with mercy, merciful children. However, I strengthen

My merciful people to take care of My burdens upon you, and in a way that they may become light and pleasant all the time and that they should work with great watching over their dwelling with Me and over My dwelling with them, and we should be gentle to each other, and to work this out with great humility. Amen.

Oh, My people, I wish that I may have only life, only love, only obedience and fulfillment from your midst, for I have not come to judge between brother and brother, but I have rather come, My people, to take the guilt upon Me, to lift up the guilt, and in such a way that you may live the same between earth and heaven, for we have to make a new heaven and a new earth by the spirit of love by which I made the world, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

09/22-05-2005

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

My coming in the word is more and more difficult both for Me and for you, children exhausted under My coming. Oh, it is not that you do not receive Me when I come, it is not that you do not wait for Me when I come and it is not because of that that I say this, but because My coming makes both Me and you suffer, for you are exhausted in your soul and in your body, and your soul and your body make Me suffer and I carry your pain with mourning, and you carry Me with difficulty, and I can hardly settle you before Me so that I may come as word into the book. The mourning of the saints, who are also weak when it comes to help you, has been making Me suffer all day. They have come with their longing in them between heaven and earth, to take part at the feast of the Samaritan woman's well, the well of the house of the meeting, for the Samaritan woman is the angel of this well and every time she waits with longing her day into My courts, the day of the feast of the well of the meeting, children sons. Even starting with dawn, I would have liked to settle a word with a feast and the saints at My table of word in this day, and at the water of the well, sons. However, you have been weak, and even now you are not otherwise, when this day leaves its place. I look mournfully at you, how the work of the book of My word of fifty years presses you down, the one in this time when I come again from the Father, because My word that is upon you is My coming on earth, and it cannot reach the man's mind how hard My coming is for Me, now at the end of the time.

Oh, sons, no one has been waiting for Me to come and then to be able to work by the word of My coming, and that is why it is so hard for Me in you, for you do not have any help on earth for My coming, because the man on earth is used as on earth, and the flesh lusts against the spirit, and there is no one to have greater care of Me than of him, for on earth it is as on earth and it is not as in heaven, children sons.

Two thousand years ago, I taught My disciples to speak in their prayer to the Father: «Our Father, let Your Kingdom come, and let Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth», (Matt: 6/10), and whoever is My disciple, that one cries after the kingdom of the heavens in him, and then he gives it around him, to be on earth as in heaven, for God's disciples are full of longing for heaven on earth, and the people are full of their pride, children sons. Not only that people have little love for God, but they are also proud and they are not afraid to be so, for it is not hard for them with their haughtiness, but it is hard for them without it, and if sometimes their heaviness due to their departure from God still leads them to Me, the One Who is merciful for the man, this lasts as little as the man's opinion, and the man, in order to take care of his life, he always comes back into his curse of not loving God, and he does not do, after he finds My sweetness, as the Samaritan woman did after My meeting her at the well of Israel. She had a humble spirit, and this is the sacrifice that she brought to Me, and there is no man more pleasant than the man who has in him this treasure, which becomes God's house in man.

Behold, My people, the Samaritans had a humble spirit, and Israel had a haughty spirit. The Samaritans received Me and believed Me, and Israel did not believe Me and did not receive Me, for he was boasting about God and he did not understand with his haughty mind that the haughtiness is not from heaven, that it is not from God but it is from the man instead, and the man who has this spirit in him, has nothing to know God with when He comes to dwell in man, for God has His dwelling in man. He who does not believe when I speak these, let him look into My Gospel from Israel's well when I met the Samaritan woman and I made My dwelling place in her; in her and in her city then, by her humble spirit by which she could not hide in her, but more it was coming out into view, to heal hear from her sins, and then to make her My dwelling place and then My confessor over many people, both faithful and pagans.

The man who is not satisfied with his life in him, with his spirit in him, that one does not give his life in return to My life in him so that he may be like God on earth and not like man. The Pharisees and the scribes got angry with Me when I searched out their empty life, revealing it to them before the multitudes, but the Samaritan woman did not get angry, but on the contrary, she rejoiced when I reveled her life, and she might made it pleasant to Me by her humble spirit by which she received Me when I showed her that I was Messiah, the Son of God, the One Who comes and teaches the man on earth all the things of God's Kingdom[6].

Oh, it is well with the man not to hide with his wicked things and not to forget that he cannot hide from God, because I come into his way and I discover him. When the man hides from man, then he hides from himself, as Adam did when he hid from God for his sin, for his guilty self, My people.

Oh, what shall I do in order to give wisdom to the man, and not to open his mind, because if I do so, I will have from the man what I had from Adam, who hid in himself, who hid from himself, and the man does not understand how this comes. The one who fears God hides from his own self in order to be able to carry his wrongdoing, which is hidden in him, and woe to the man who has wrongdoings hidden in him, for one like that does not open his heart to God as the Samaritan woman opened her heart to Me, when I prepared her salvation.

Oh, My people, seek, son, to know well the mystery of your salvation, for it does not mean the man, but it means God and His work over the man. My word full of salvation, you should make it useful upon you, and do not forget to compare with the saints, to see what you lack for your salvation, and compare with Me instead, My people, to see what you are on earth, because the one who does not compare with Me, that one compares himself with the man, from whom he cannot have salvation, but only temporariness, which lies to the man with its fleeting face over the man, making the man to keep Me outside, and not to take Me in his house as God's kingdom in man.

Oh, My people, Israel had no benefit for its haughtiness that it was My people after its name. The one who is Mine takes after Me and not after his self, My people. The one who is Mine, that one does no longer has his own self, but he has Me and glorifies Me in him without haughtiness, for I have a humble spirit, My people, and that is why My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life for His sheep. However, I suffer that the man does not know what I do between Me and man. If I lay down My life for the man and if I cannot take it back, then I have no power in that one. I laid My life in the Samaritan woman for whom I came out at Israel's well, and then I took it back from her, for it brought forth fruit in her, and then I went to My Father with the fruit of My life in man, because in whom I can lay down My life, I also have power to lay it down, I have power to take it back for I lay down My life for the sheep so that they may have life and to have it in abundance, and from this abundance I have to take My life from man to the Father.

[6] See the selection topic: „About the kingdom of God", r.n.

Oh, the life full of the humble spirit of the Samaritan woman comforted Me much, from which I harvested fruit from the seed sown in her. Her love for Me comforted Me, because then she lived for Me, and she did not live for her among people.

Oh, how beautiful is the man in whom I live, I and not him, and how beautiful fruit is being brought forth in him, and what a dear harvest I gather from him to bring it to the Father as the fruit of My power that is put in man so that I may take it back and to life in man and from man, because the one who lives in Me, lives from Me and not from him, from My water and not from his water of which, if he drinks, he goes thirsty again, for nothing of his things satisfy man's hunger and thirst, because I am the spring, which has life in it, and it is not the man, but the man does not know this what I do between Me and man, when I lay down My life in order to take it back, as I spoke in My Gospel of two thousand years ago upon the disciples and upon the people from whose midst I chose them to make My life in them, and then to work with its power from My disciples over the people out of which I chose them.

It was so easy to Me to lay down My life into the heart of the Samaritan woman with whom I spoke at the well, and it also was so easy for Me to take it back from her, for the one for whom it is easy to be with Me, I have power in him, and then he has power within Me, because if I feed the man, it is also right for him to feed Me back, and the food, which he gives Me, has to take after the food which I give him, and that the man may not give Me poison over My life, My people, for I am a life giver and I do not have to be punished by man, but I have to be nourished instead, so that the man's work may take after My work, My people, because that is why I tell the man to compare with Me and not with the man, and I also tell the man to live with a humble spirit on earth, as I had and lived with and I gave Myself as an example for the man. Amen.

I want, My people, to find in you wisdom and love for My word giving of life, and to be able to harvest fruit from your midst, My people, and then to give it back to the Father from My work upon you, and this is how you should also work, because if you do not take after Me, the Father does not know you, My people.

The man cannot be small, and you, My people, you cannot be big, because if you do not live this way before Me, you will be against Me, for I was and I am the little baby of the Father, and those that are not like that, cannot belong to the Father, because those who are His take after Me, and this is how the Father knows them; by My work in them the Father knows them. Amen.

May the feast of the well of the meeting be blessed, and also the Samaritan woman, the well protecting angel, and the saints who have come with her at her feast into your midst, My people, and you should draw out water, for those that are from heaven may be able drink of it, for you are with your body, and they are with their house from heaven, not made by hands, as it is written about the heavenly bodies.

And as for you, children from the gates, take a little rest from your labor for the care of the being of My book with you in these days, when I have been speaking over the earth for fifty years the word of this book, which I opened and laid it down on earth. And I ask you, exhausted children, to keep away from weaknesses, to keep away from them as much as you can, because I suffer from your soul and body, and I can mournfully bear your sufferance, and I can hardly come down on earth with My coming when you are so much crushed within the gates. However, I fill you with comfort and then with power, only to give Me so that I may be able to do, for you are feeble under My hand and under My coming and in hard times which press upon My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

16/29-05-2005

The feast of the Lord's Ascension. The feast of the birth of the holy Virginia
(Excerpt)

While I was walking with My disciples, I was always speaking with them about the Father's promise, about the baptism with the Holy Spirit, and when the time came near for Me to ascend to the Father, I told them: «You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth». (Acts: 1/8) When I told them that they would confess Me to the uttermost parts of the earth, I told them about the Holy Spirit through Whom they confessed Me after they had received Him, after I had gone to the Father. The power of the Holy Spirit works wherever He wants and as much as He wants after He has confessed on earth to God through the man who has His power over him, the power of the Holy Spirit.

Oh, My people, I am coming down to you with the power of the Holy Spirit, for My word is this power, and you need to have more than anyone who is empowered by God through the times with this power that means the baptism with the Holy Spirit, the power that makes the man to be God's confessor, and the confession is very quick for it goes from man to man to all the margins as much as the Holy Spirits wants to work by His swift going.

Oh, how much I long to speak with the man on earth! No matter how much I would speak, My longing is without death, without end, My people. This longing is word, for the word is the measure of the longing, and I am without end and I am the Word, My people, and I long to speak and I long to confess it. When I was with the disciples in the world, I could not appease all My longing, for I was in the flesh and I wanted to testify about Myself, because this is how it is on earth when you are. But now, My longing flows like a river from heaven, for this time, which has been waited for ages, has come. I Myself become power of Holy Spirit from the Father and I testify about Myself on earth, and I am in the Father and fulfill that Scripture by which I said that I would go to the Father in order to come back again. Oh, it is not otherwise that Scripture, which speaks about the Holy Spirit, the messenger over the man, and it is not as the priests of the church speak, as though they would speak from the Holy Spirit, for there is not in the Holy Spirit what they say that the Holy Spirit works in churches. And I tell you this: this word is the Holy Spirit, promised by the Father that He would come on earth, and from Whom I gave power to My disciples two thousand years ago and they confessed Me to the creatures by all that I had worked into their midst, as long as I lived on earth within all My mystery among people. When I ascended into heaven, I reminded them of the Father's promise when I was telling them: «I go so that I may be able to come again. I go and I will send you the Comforter, Who will take and will tell to you from what is Mine». (See John: 16/13, 15) Now I Myself from heaven, from the midst of My disciples, I Myself confess on earth, for the angels of My ascension told those who were looking at Me: «As you saw Him going into the sky will come back in the same way». (Acts: 1/11) And speaking over them I ascended into the sky, and a cloud came and covered Me, and I, am speaking now from the sky, for I come with the clouds as I ascended, as the angels of My ascension said that I would come.

27-05/09-06-2005.

The seventh Sunday after Passover, of the holy fathers (of the First Ecumenical Council)

Strengthen the path for the Lord to come, children sons. The children are small and weak even if they would love to be able to do more, but their heart is big and very many people have room in its humility, for humility is a spring of love; it is the heart of life, which is not quenched, but it beats believing and loving and wanting like God. Amen.

Come, sons! I let you have rest and let us work now the word of the day of today, for I have no other work than the word, and you have the duty to fulfill it because you are God's sons. God's sons are those who listen to God and not to themselves and not to the people, and that is why they have God's word into their midst. This Scriptures of God's sons has been waited for such a long time, actually it has been waited for seven thousand years to be fulfilled on earth, and it is about the sons of this word in this Scripture[7]: «All the creature wait with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed». (Rom: 8/19) Oh, how this Scripture cries! Oh, how, those who are comprised in its meaning, sigh! Oh, children sons, you should also cry, and let the spirit of your humility always seek after all those who cry by the mystery of this Scripture, for all the creature waits with eager expectation, it waits for the fruit of incorruptibility and it waits for it to come out and to be glorified and to give forth life and incorruptibility[8] over all the creature, which has been waiting for seven thousand years.

The great ones, son, can hardly have room in themselves with their greatness in them and those things that are really great do not have any room in them, for their have limits and their house is small because of their little love, love that asks for usury, love that does not make any fruit for those that are and will be. And those who are small have a big heart, and everything that is and everything that will remain has room in its humility, all God's mystery has room in it, in its love and in its waiting, for the heart is a dwelling place without margins either, when it is from God or limited when it is from man. Oh, sons, the heart, which stops for itself, that one is weak for those who are many and that is why it asks for itself, from everywhere only for itself and only for its view, because it is limited and it cannot comprise the entire heaven and earth. However, the big heart receives and gives, and it gives itself over and it receives, and it becomes a spring of grace and comfort for all the creature, which is comprised within it, in its humility, which is its life, its beauty, its warmth, and the big heart is not otherwise, but it is that which dwells in God and which can do everything in the Lord and which keeps the Lord and all His heavenly riches on earth. The big heart fights and it does not come to a stop from its work, from the work of God's truth, from the work of God's heart.

My heart, sons, in this day, honors the holy fathers of old who have gathered together in a synod that all may defend within one hearth the truth, which reigns on earth through the church, sons, because the truth is only from God and this works by His church; it works from the earth to the heaven, and from heaven to the earth, through the church and for the church. Amen.

The holy fathers are embracing the work of My truth, which is with you, and they are also embracing you, those who are My little ones, and those who have been waited by the saints and by the parents. They, with their heart, as big as Mine, for they were gathering within one heart and were keeping this richness of God, the one not perceived by man's mind, limited within his mind and heart, and by which he seeks his glory and his truth among many. But the holy fathers have spoken about My truth and about My divinity, and their word became deed in My name spoken over those who are evildoers. They embrace into their heavenly arms the work of My truth from you, and you as well, those who are My little ones, who bear before Me and before them the Spirit of Truth, Who fulfills and makes everything grow everywhere to the glory of His Maker. Amen.

[7] «As it is, the creation waits with eager expectation for the revelation of God's children.» (Rom: 8/19)

[8] See the selection topic „The mystery of humankind salvation - the mystery of incorruptibility", r.n.

– We, Good Master in heaven and on earth, ask You to bless the entrance of Your saints, to glorify Your love from those very small of Yours and to receive from Your work that is upon them the spirit of comfort, for our battle on earth so that the Spirit of Your Truth may prevail, by our battle for Him on earth, Lord of the small hearts and which dwell in Your heart, and You in their little hearts of children, which dwell in Your heart from where You lay down Your love on earth. You have made of You work with them the Scripture of the revealing of God's sons, and Your truth is wonderful, which is Your word over those who believed into Your coming back from the Father to the people.

And now, let Your blessing be through us over them in the day of our feast in a churchly assembly in heaven and on earth with them, we and You into the midst, and with them in a feast of godly Spirit, for You are the Spirit of Your saints, Lord. Amen.

– I, My people of today, make the saints glad when I take them in My coming down upon you, and I fulfill from your midst the Enoch's Scripture, who prophesied about My coming with the saints and said: «The Lord is coming with tens of thousands of His saints», and after him, My apostle John also prophesied this and said: «His name is called the Word of God, and His armies, which are in heaven come after Him, riding on white horses, clothed in white, pure and fine linen». (See also Apoc: 19/13-14)

Oh, how long have the saints been waiting for My coming, sons! Oh, how much you also have to wait too; and you should always wait, as those that wait for their Master upon His coming back! Behold, what a feast of saints and fathers, and I fulfill My coming with them and I am the mysterious One and I fulfill, and I am with the clouds and I come, for I am the wonderful One.

Oh, My people, the word of the council is great and heavenly, and the work of prayer is the same. These two works are the works of the saints who work with God on earth. The saints who do not work these two works are holy for their salvation from death and are an example with their life, but the saints who work these two godly works are holy for God and not for them, and they work God's works on earth and not their works. The saints, who gather together in a council and in a spirit of prayer, throw down every imagination of their mind, struggling with longing and power against the ruler of this perishable age. And behold, the saints come together with Me at you, and the evil spirit sees this, and his mourning is endless, and the mourning of his angels is endless too, as it is written.

Oh, My people, that cannot be anything good, without any good and heavenly advice among brothers, among saints, sons. The council of the saints is sweet, and is giving of life and of heavenly work, and their prayer is blessed then by God and is received by God. Brotherly love gives birth to diligence in everything that is for the heaven and for the earth, and everything is done by prayer. That is why, My people, nothing without prayer, for the prayer protects you in every moment. However, do not forget what I teach you now. The prayer of the saints is the greatest, because they went from the earth into the heaven, leaving their prayers on earth, in order to remain prayerful on earth by their prayers, brought by them before the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and made by these into prayer in this name. I teach you to pray through the prayers of the saints, for this means wisdom and humility, and this also means the work of the saints, who left for heaven, leaving their prayers to God as inheritance for those on earth, and who have in them everything that it needs to be on earth and over the man, and they are golden cups, filled with incense before God's throne, from heaven, and these are called the prayers of the saints. Oh, sons, much incense are called their prayers, which are carried by angels on the altar before the Lord's throne. The incense and the prayers of all saints, this works before the Lord, and that is why you should love your inheritance left to you by the saints, and you will be the sons of humility and of the kingdom of the heaven, paid by the blood of saints before you were the sons of God on earth. Pray on earth by their prayers, sons, so that they may be prayerful through you, for they have always kept asking Me, since they left for heaven: «How long, Lord, until You redeem the sacrifice of our love for You? Oh, how long, Lord?» (See also Apoc: 6/10)

Oh, My people, I have given to the saints the joy of My coming with them on earth, for the heavenly armies accompany Me when I come. Let your heart, sons, have room in it for the saints and for the fathers, and be hospitable with the guests from heaven and on earth, for there come Magi and wise people of the earth to see you and to announce you for My work with you.

Oh, sons, tired of work, the saints and the angels wait for My book with you in My days with you, the book of My word of fifty years ago, written into the midst of the Romanian people, spoken by God on earth. Oh, you have been suffering very much from its work! It is big, sons, children sons. It is a word with weight. It is the word of God and this is how it is called. I am the Alpha and the Omega, and this is its name too, and it is waited by those that are in heaven and by those on earth. I wait for you to give it to Me and to bless this work, and to lift up this book between earth and heaven, for the angels stay with their trumpets ready to sound them, and then to sing for this work of Mine, to sing Halleluiah and glory, and to bring incense together with the prayers of the saints before the throne in front of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I thank you with My love then, with My comfort and with My mercy on you, those who watched and still watch for the making and then for the opening of the book. The work of the book is very difficult, but those who are little comprise it within their big heart and watch and work. This book is My work of fifty years. It is My crying after the man, My prayer before the man. And now I am sending armies of saints and of angels and I tell them to help you and to watch with you for the coming out of the book of My word, which has been speaking for fifty years into the Romanian people. We work little by little for its coming out and we will finish it and then we will share it. Amen.

Oh, My people, take care of prayer, son, and then take care of yourself. But first take care of Me and of the saints, and then take care of you. Take care to be Mine and not yours, son. Take care to live My life and not yours. You all should take care, in the spirit of brotherhood, for the love among brothers does not strike but rather grows within the brothers and among the brothers, then when they live in Christ.

Oh, My people, the spirit of humility is My dough, and those who are like Me dwell in My heart and I in their heart with My face, with My humility of Son of the Father Sabaoth. The one who wants to take after Me, that one is eyes and ears, staying attentive to Me and being thankful in Me, protecting himself, but no one is able to have this great life, but only God is able to do it through His servants, according to one single order and which is from heaven. I said that the man is not used to a ruling iron over him. He says that he knows too, and that he can too, and he does not make his life according to the pleasure of those around himself. However, the wisdom is a loving spirit of people, and whoever does not have such a work, that one is not wise, but he is rather something else.

Oh, sons from the gates, I would like very much to have you as watchmen with more work, teachers with more watching in My people, who listens to Me as I teach it to be, for whoever does not listen to you, I do not pass him as one who listens. Oh, how shall one listen to Me, if he does not listen to you? I set you as watchmen over the life of Israel before Me, and whoever wants to work and be without you, that one is exposed by what he works, by what he does not listen.

Take care sons, so that I may not get any wound from the disobedience of those whom we took in our back to carry with difficulty in order that they may be My rest. Take care of My nest of girls from My place called Emmaus. (It is about the monastery of nuns near Târgovişte, approximately 25 km from Pucioasa, r.n.). Teach them to take care, day and night, of My holy nest in which I established them by My blessing. See what is evil there, surround it within a boundary, as you have already worked, but let it also be taken into consideration what is good and what is evil beyond good, for where I cannot rest with everything and in everything, it makes Me suffer, sons. God must be loved more than the man, and whoever wants this, that is what he does, and he listens with obedience in this way.

Let it be humility of heart in all the houses where I, the Lord, have blessed for the tiny little hearts nourished by heaven, and with which I have remained from My people that has been hearing My word from heaven for fifty years. Teach those who heard God, teach them not to become haughty within their hearts, for whoever does this becomes sick and puts God out from his heart and loses his humility and his good character and he loses My way and becomes heavy on it, and he also hinders Me and then he will be put aside, because I have to be able to walk, and I have to walk like Me, in a holy and clean way with an obedient people on it, with a people without self-love, but only with love for God. Amen.

Now, I am stopping My word and I leave you for peace and rest and for work, fulfilling My word, in order that it may go well with you, sons. Do not forget the love for prayer and for all those that are through prayer upon you and upon the earth.

Peace to you! Receive the spirit of obedience in you. Receive the spirit of humility, which makes you holy and loved. Be with a big heart and give to one another good news and pleased to the Lord. Love the holy living, and work according to the exhortation, and have God in your heart, and show Him through your word and work. Ask from one another the work that is pleased to God, but not all of you should work out this request, but you should be in the number of those who receive and listen, receiving from those who are the most worthy.

Oh, My people, I want you to be on earth as in heaven, and I want to take love from your midst, love for God and for His works. Let it be worked out a boundary between evil and good, and live in the fold of the good and adorn it with your life full of humility, for humility has the spirit of God's love in it, and this has the spirit of obedience, My people.

Oh, watching sons over My people, teach it to live My life in it and not its life. Teach it to take care of Me and not of itself into My courts within it. He should not dwell as in his house, but as in the Lord's house and he should listen to God. Watch out so that each one of you may know what he has to do and not to do, and let My people be with a clean heart, with a clean deed, with a clean sight, with a clean sacrifice and with the word of obedience upon it, to stay under My rod of Shepherd, and to stay with thankfulness under My hand, for I want to have you as watchmen and I want you to bring fruit of obedient children, whose spirit to be God's Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

30-05/12-06-2005

The feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit sighs in heaven and on earth. He is the tear of the Father and of the Son, God's tear, which becomes word, tear that comforts even if there is no comfort for it but only pain, for the tear is born from pain.

I am the Father Sabaoth, and My Son stands on My right side, the Savior of the man humble in his spirit, and who is full of My sighing, and this sighing is called the Holy Spirit. The entire heaven of saints and angels is near Us, and the heaven is celebrating within a great mystery the holy feast for the little garden of the word, and the Father, the Son and the whole heaven of saints and angels has been looking at it, for it is its feast today, of the three feasts established over it at its sealing with the Holy Spirit, with God's sign.

Oh, dear Son, this day has been waited by those who are faithful to gather them in it in the garden of the meeting, but at the work of the book We have those who make Us room on earth with the people at the feasts of the heaven. Oh, painful Son, the feasts of the heaven are not on earth as in heaven, even if You taught Your disciples to do God's will on earth as in heaven in all the times, for the man has to do Our will, and without man this is not possible on earth. The Holy Spirit in Us becomes word, and the word is Our tear before the man, tearful Son, because all My word, which flows thorough You, is tear, aggrieved Son, and such feasts are among those in heaven, and these are not something else.

You told Your disciples that if You came to Me they would not remain orphans, that You would send them the Holy Spirit, the Comforter for the disciples on earth. But which is the comfort for heaven on the earth? Which really, Son Who, like Father, have been sighing for seven thousands years? If We cry, then is it good for the man to be otherwise? Is it good for the man to be without the Holy Spirit, Who cries within God? Here it is what the man has done! He has wanted to be happier than God and he has fled from this sufferance; he has fled from the Holy Spirit, Who has been crying behind him without comforting. The Holy Spirit cries and by His sufferance He comforts, and there is no man to know His mysterious face, His limitless sighing, because the man flees from sufferance and he does not let himself be a dwelling place for the rest of the Holy Spirit, Who is without a dwelling and without fruit in man.

The Holy Spirit cries above the little garden of the word, which calls the man to life from heaven, to feasts on earth as in heaven. The Christians wait for the feasts of the new people, but if they are not as in heaven when they come together, the Holy Spirit cries and His tear becomes word and no one wipes it out from among those who come together in the days of feasts prepared with labor in heaven and on earth for the comfort of the man who seeks after God.

Oh, My Son, I have come with a word of sighing into him so that We and the entire heaven may be within a mysterious feast of Holy Spirit. I have set those in the gates once with My entrance and I let My being in Your being, and We come in through the gates. Amen.

– Oh, Father, the pain of the Holy Spirit's tear, We have nowhere to rest on it but only within the gates, and it is mysterious and it cannot be seen and known by man in such a way that he may also suffer from the sufferance of the Holy Spirit. Two thousand years ago, when I sent Your promise over My disciples from the world, the power of the Holy Spirit rested on many, and then the apostles baptized those who were added to the sight of the signs of those who followed. And Peter answered those who asked the apostles about what they were supposed to do: «Repent, and be baptized, everyone of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit». (Acts: 4/38)

Oh, My Father, where on earth is still there the baptism with the Holy Spirit? Oh, how much I suffer because of Our missing from man, Father! The lack of the Holy Spirit in man has punished Us with sufferance without comfort, Father. The man cannot get away from the flesh and the lack of longing after God made the man into dust, and it filled him with the worries of life, and We find the man only in this way, day and night, Father. We have limitless pains. We look with sorrow at the man to see him if he gets up for the Holy Spirit, and We are aggrieved because of

Our absence from man, and We are aggrieved without comfort in heaven and on earth. Our sigh is Our entire feast and of Our Holy Spirit, Who becomes word, and the word calls for the tear of the Holy Spirit, My tear and Yours in My being, because I am Your word, and I become tear and it is word, Father.

Oh, My people, I would pick up your tears to bring them to the Father, but the tear is born of pain. The Holy Spirit is the Comforter, but His tear does not find any comfort at all. The pain gets no comfort, My people. It is lived and it is a bedding of the Holy Spirit in the man who suffers like God and not like the man. The endless life is expensive, and I want with longing to make the man wise, so that he may long for the dough of God's being, the Holy Spirit, full of sighing, the One without rest, seeking to make a people for Himself to have the baptism with the Holy Spirit upon Him, the mystery of the new man, born of heaven, of God.

Oh, My people, you should always look at you, if you have the Holy Spirit. Take the book and read it to see what the Holy Spirit does in man and you should always look at yourself and to take after the one baptized with the Holy Spirit and not after the haughty man, in which there is no place for this being of God. It was mysterious the feast of the Holy Spirit's Descending upon the disciples two thousand years ago and then upon those gathered at Jerusalem from all the nations of the earth. You should be filled with the Holy Spirit, My people, for the man to receive spirit from God's Spirit, and you should not be the guide of those who want to catch My being upon you and to spoil it for their empty glory on earth. If Judas wanted to be great on earth, he became the guide of those who sought to give Me over to death, and I allowed it to happen in order that I may fulfill the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead and to become the man's guide to an endless life on earth as in heaven, and to baptize the man with the Holy Spirit, and that this sign may be shown in him. The one who wants to have control over his body and his flesh, let him come and be baptized in My name with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and this is how the Christians should come together at My feasts with you, and they should not come together otherwise, because I have lived among people as word for such a long time, and the man remained only man and he has not given himself over to God, when I opened to him to understand and then to become new. Behold, the man cannot, because the spirit lusts against the flesh, and there are only bodies of people on earth, bodies that eat bodies and which cry against God.

However, you, sons, should not rejoice when you eat, but rather be sad when you are hungry, for the hunger comes from the body and it comes when the body is strong and the spirit is weak. I do not say that you should not eat, but I say that you should not be glad when you eat, not to take delight for your body, for food is for the body. I want you to get saved from this evil and adulterous generation, and the salvation is received through tears and sweating in the field of the Lord, but this does not come at random.

When your body is greater than your spirit, let your spirit cry in that very moment, sons, because if I see you that way, I count that you love the Lord and not yourselves. Live for Me and not for you, and do not take after the body, for your body is your enemy, both to you and to Me, and at My coming with glory, you will see this, for My glory will shine over your bodies according to how much I have lived in them and in your spirits, I with My sufferance on earth and from man.

Now, I receive the sacrifice of your little hands for the memorial of those who went asleep and I give them relief. There are many of them who cry for those on earth, because those on earth do not know what the death of life is. The death of life is not the death of the body, which comes after the death of life, and the man does not know to learn from Me, from this spring of life, which will ask for an answer from every man who has taken from him and has not kept away from the death of life.

Oh, how little does the man understand Me, and he does this because he does not want Me. When I was calling the crowds at the feast of the Holy Spirit to come together near you, the man was not taking Me for his life; he was not taking Me because he did not want Me.

However, you, My people, should spend with the one who wants Me, for otherwise I do not have you as Mine. You have to be guided by God and with hard work I will bring to an end My book of fifty years of heaven, and you will see in it all My teaching from your midst and I will ask you about it, My people. It is the feast of the Holy Spirit; it is My tear after you and after the man, for you and for the man. And you should stay humbled before those who want to see My being in you, and you should be as good as God and not like man, and you should not tempt God for man, because you are the son of the heavenly works and not of those that are earthly.

I teach you to be a feast of the Holy Spirit. I teach you to have tears and not joys, for the Holy Spirit is only a sighing, My people. The one who has joys cannot have the Holy Spirit, Who is God, a life maker.

Oh, you shall not flee from the Holy Spirit; you shall not flee from His tear, My people, because those who are overshadowed by the Holy Spirit are like God and there are no longer like the man, but they are obedient to the Lord to the glory of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I envelop you within the Wind making of life, and may His whisper make your suffer from His sufferance, and you should always let yourself be born of the pains of the Holy Spirit, Who gives birth to the world again by the throes of childbirth.

Oh, My people, may the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, be My sign upon you, to release My tear from man. You should be a great sign among the sons of the people who do not love God with their living, with their holy sacrifice, for the holy life is greater than any sacrifice, and there is no sacrifice which may be compared with My holy life in man, the life which loves God, loving from man.

I do not find any comfort for My word upon you, for this is how God is; He is Holy Spirit, Who becomes word, My people. Oh, you should also love as God does, and love God in you as He is, for I am the One aggrieved, and there is no greater feast before Me like the man who is like Me, in My image and after My likeness, and My tear becomes word over the one who takes after Me on earth, waiting with patience for My rest and for his, for the labor of the love that waits under the cross. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-06-2005

The feast of the Holy Spirit's Descending – the second day. The Feast of the Holy Trinity

Let it be in you, My people, days of heavenly love, of heavenly mercy, of longing for heaven, so that we may comfort ourselves, I with you, the heaven full of sufferance from the man on earth, because the man is alien to the heaven, to the beautiful and holy life, alien to the Holy Spirit, Who cries within the Father and within the Son.

I come down near you with days of Pentecost, My people, for My word, which is full of sighing, is all the feast of those from heaven, because the man does not want to be with the heaven on earth. I have let the feasts of the heaven on earth by the prophets and by the saints, but the people do not have piety, and that is why they are those who live within the feasts and the Lord does not live in man. I with the Father establish all the order for the man and the man does not give Us what We gave him, but he rather gives Us disobedience, and thankfulness from man does not come up to God.

I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and I give you the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, sons, to ask Him about Me and about you, because if He does not become word among people, the people remain within their spirit, and the spirit of the man does not know to make God, and he does not know to give himself to God, as the prophets knew, of whom God became His word on earth. The prophets worked out repentance for all the nation of Israel, and the spirit of repentance cleanses the man from his own self and it makes room for God by the prophet's request, the one full of prayer, the one full of My sighing.

Daniel, the prophet, came up with insistent prayer, with fasting, with crush of the heart and with abstinence, and he cried to the Lord for Jerusalem, devastated by the Lord's wrath, and the Lord saw and took it into consideration, and then He sent the angel Gabriel to Daniel, and this one told him: «Daniel, at the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth and I am come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved by God, and I am now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding». (Dan: 9/22, 23)

Oh, My people, you should stay with humility before My word, and do not make haste in your mind, because without Me you cannot put into work My word that is upon you. Daniel, the prophet, gave Me his mind and heart, and he also gave Me all his being, because he prayed earnestly to Me, with a crushed heart for his people, and then I made him understand the prophecy in the Scriptures.

The work of God upon man is too great compared to the man's work worked before God, but I do not have the man at My school to teach him the mysteries and the works of God on earth with the man. God's people live in the Spirit of God on earth, and the Lord comes to them, to their earnest prayer for God's works, prophesied in the Scriptures, and He brings them a heavenly mind, a prophetic mind, that is put by the Spirit of God in man, for God makes His servants on earth and He fulfills His works in due time.

Oh, My people, the man has covered his mind and does not know to give it to God. If the man knew how to sit and how to stand before the Lord, he would see God as prophet Daniel saw Him, when this one came with a great sigh before the Lord, asking with repentance and praying for the entire nation of Israel in his time and up to his time. And because he was greatly loved by God, the Lord worked with him on earth and gave him a sharp wisdom for Himself, because God saw him with zeal for God and for His people. Behold the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God, forever and ever at work upon the man, with a great mystery, with heavenly wisdom! However, the people on earth are great and cannot bow before the Holy Spirit, Who perfects all God's works and reveals all those things that belong to the people. Amen.

However, you people of My word in this time, you should pray earnestly before God, and you should pray painfully and faithfully, for the true prayer asks for God and not for man, and it is the work from pain and faith and from much earnest prayer, and it is that which makes the man to be loved by God, as it also made the prophet Daniel, a dear and beloved man, a man who amazed the kings with the work of the Spirit of God that was upon him, and Who made a dwelling place in him by his endless love. His life and heart were a sea a love, a sea without shores, and they comprised within the heaven and the earth, for this is how the man made by God is, whose spirit is a dwelling place of the Spirit of God, the Spirit Who came down over My disciples in Jerusalem, two thousand years ago, the Spirit Who confesses God before the people. Amen.

Be wise, My people, for the Holy Spirits needs His wisdom in man, and My apostles continued steadfastly in prayer and in breaking of bread, and then they received the Holy Spirit sent from heaven upon them. The prophet Daniel prayed earnestly to Me in the lion's den, and he was a bloodless sacrifice, for the lions had not eaten him for three days, the same as I, the Lord, had remained with the whole body during those three days, from My laying down into the grave and until I was resurrected like a true God that I was. Amen.

The Holy Spirit is the answer at the earnest prayer, which has faith, pain and earnest prayer within it, and God's angels come and put the understanding of the Holy Spirit over the one seized by the love of God, by the mercy and pain, which are from God.

Behold, I, the Lord, spend a feast of Holy Spirit into your midst, Israel of My coming, and we will work for three days in the Holy Spirit, and this is how I will stay with you before the Father Sabaoth with the feast of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter on earth, and we will comfort our pain from the man, and we will become wise to the understanding of the unfathomable mystery by the human mind, the mystery of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-06-2005

The Feast of the Holy Spirit's Descending – the third day

I sit at a heavenly table again with you, My people. It is a feast of Pentecost, and we have to work out a feast, to work out Holy Spirit.

May the peace of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the peace of the Lord your God be at His table with you, at your table with Him! If you give the Lord a little chair and a dish at your table, then give Him what He eats, so that He may be comforted with you so that He may also do, for I am a weak and poor God from every man on earth, because the man does not make Me room in his life and he does not make Me room at his table, at his counsel, at his joys and pains, and I stand weak near man, and I am not given any consideration by man. However, the Lord does not need to have such a life into your midst. With you I need to be alive by all your things, those that the Lord is able to put on His bleeding wounds, on His unhealed wounds, on His heart full of unquenched longing after the man, after His rest in man, My people.

It is a feast of Holy Spirit, but the world does not know what the Holy Spirit means in order to give Him the proper power of this feast set by the Father and Son on earth on the people of God. The people of God are not from the world, as the Lord is not from this world too. Those whom I took out of the world to be with the Lord, they were walking with Me and they were not walking with the world. And after I went to be with the Father, after My ascension into the sky, My disciples walked with the Holy Spirit on earth, and through Him they worked out great signs, great miracles, great works, for this is what the Holy Spirit does, Who has been fulfilling the Holy Trinity within His work of seven thousand years on earth.

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, are one, and God does not work without counseling. When We built the man, We sat in counsel. When We destroyed the man, We also sat in counsel, and then We sent the Flood on the earth so that We were able to take it from the beginning again by the work of the godhead, for the man walked in his ways on earth and not according to God's will. Oh, how comes that those, that did not receive My coming on earth two thousand years ago, did not understand this? How could they not receive when they were reading in the Scriptures that We, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, had a council when We built the man? The work without council is a work without an angel, My people, and the people had worked without angels and became totally corrupted, and God said: «My Spirit will not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually». (Gen: 6/3,5)

Oh, My people, the work of the Father and of the Son is the Holy Spirit, Who has always been within the prophets in such a way that the man could see God on earth in His work upon man, for the work without any council is a work without an angel; it is a human work, a work that does not lead the man to God. Two thousand years ago, when I and with the Father sent the Holy Spirit into the world to testify about the Father and about the Son, and for the people to come together at a godly work, and to get out of the world those who receive the sign of the baptism with the Holy Spirit upon them, and then to stay within a godly work on the earth. The spirit of man is holy only then when the Holy Spirit works upon man, and otherwise the man has only his own spirit, his own mind and his own work. For seven thousand ages God has been reducing the years of man's life, for the Spirit of God could not remain forever in man, and it grieved the Lord in His heart and He was sorry that He created the man.

Oh, My people, you shall not live on earth within your spirit, because God has in your midst, His work, His word, His Holy Spirit, My people. Oh, seek to know the Lord's counsel means, and this is what you should look for, and do not call your counsel as the Lord's counsel. You are called in heaven the Lord's counsel, because of the word of the Holy Spirit of the Lord into your midst. I want you to be wise and not to be idle within the Lord's time with you on earth, but rather to take advantage of it and to give it as fruit to the Lord, and you should be afraid to be yours after the Lord has made you His counsel, the dwelling place of the Lord's counsel on earth. Do not forget that the Lord is with you; do not forget that, because the one who forgets has his own spirit and does not remain within the Spirit of the Lord by the Lord's counsel. Do not forget, My people, because the work without any counsel is a work without an angel, and I ask all those who have them as guide between Me and you, I ask them to learn the work of the Lord's counsel, because the Scriptures lists in it more rulers within Israel, who worked by themselves in the name of the Lord, and they brought shame before God.

Oh, My people, I tell those who have been waiting for the feast of the Holy Spirit and have not come because I did not send them an invitation, I tell them to seek to learn well from My word, which means a feast of the Holy Spirit and a work with angels, and then I will have mercy upon them.

I started the days of the feast of the Holy Spirit with a tear for all those who were coming and were not receiving the Holy Spirit so that He might be seen then in them with His work. I said that I would pick up their tears to bring them to the Father, but the tear is born from pain. This is what I told all those who came together near the Holy Spirit, Who became tear, for the word of God is the tear of the Holy Spirit, Who cries after the man who is made divine on earth. I sent it through you, messenger children; I send them the word of those three days of feast of Holy Spirit and I exhort them to look and then to sit down before My word and to let themselves be made by it, for God had been crying for fifty years to make a people in His image, and behold how few of them remained! And I exhort these to be the Lord's counsel and to ask Him to be great upon them, with their earnest prayer, because the Holy Spirit comes on earth by the prayer of the holy man, by his earnest prayer near God, by his life of new Jerusalem and by God's servant angels.

Oh, Israel of today, be attentive at My word into your midst, and always sit in counsel with it, and you should take only from it your work before Me, for the work of the Lord to you is not without an angel, My people.

And as for you, children from the gates, take care of Israel's life, of My life from its sons, for they do not have another life to live but only My life. The life with an angel is your most pleasant life before Me, Israel of today, and you should always seek to be with an angel, because you have to be protected with great care by all those that will come on earth to search out everyone according to his own works, as it is written that I would come and give each one according to his work.

My people, let your deed always, always mean the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit so that the entire nations of the earth may see God with you within His coming. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-06-2005

The Sunday of all saints

The saints of the Most High come down with their feast on earth, because they knew what life on earth meant, and they earned their life forever and ever, because I, the Lord, said: «Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it». (Luke: 17/33) Amen.

I have hurried to the gates, and I have made haste in good time, because all the saints are full of longing, My people. The saints have been waiting with a great longing for My word on the earth. With an irresistible ardor all the heavenly hosts have been waiting to lay down the table of My word, for My word is the feast of those from heaven; it is the table of peace, the assembly of all saints, and My coming to you is not otherwise but with the saints of the Most High, My people, the saints who lived on earth loving in Me and not in them because God is love, and only He has to be loved. However, the man deprived Me of this honor, because he wants to be loved instead, and this is how the man has got used to sit down in My place and in this way God may no longer be loved, and that it may no longer be love from man to God.

The man stops for himself and each one gives oneself to another to gain love, and whoever does this cannot love God. The saints of the heaven, however, knew what the emptiness of life was, and did not love anything and no one on earth but God only, and the man who was in God as in heaven and not as on earth, and whoever lives on earth and not in heaven and not in God with his life, that one does not know what life is and does not know to earn life, but only emptiness.

The saints of the Most High have come in groups and started walking with Me to you for their feast, for the Sunday of all saints, My people. Oh, open your heart, open the eyes of your spirit and see that the hosts of the saints come down with Me to you and sit down at the table of My word for their feast. They are surrounding with great glory My trumpet, Verginica, because she is celebrated for her coming into the world in the day of the celebration of the Sunday of all saints, a day established by the saints and by the fathers, a day of heavenly Synod for the union of all saints in one day of their glory in heaven and on the earth.

Oh, Israel of today, the one who believes in the saints of the Most High has to be great, and when he believes, then this faith changes his face, his living, his deed, his watching and his waiting, and one like that becomes love without margins, and he becomes like God, for there is no greater love than that, that is, for someone to lay down his life for his friends, My people, and this means God, and the man cannot do this, but he can love and forgive if he wants life, and if he does not want life, then he seeks to gain his life, his justice, his peace, his rest, losing his life, for whoever saves his life will lose it, and he loses God, and he loses the mystery of love, the mystery of life. Whoever lives on earth like a master, first, that one loses his mind from God for his mind, and then, by his haughtiness, he sees only through his own self and in the same way he struggles to gain his life. However, the wise one, the meek and humble in his heart, weighs in God his mind, his heart, his word and deed and their love as well, and with them he earns life and then he gives it to his friends, clean, holy, sweet an heavenly on earth, for that one becomes a kingdom of the saints on earth, and everything that is in heaven makes a dwelling place in him, in the one who has life.

Oh, My people, I rejoice the saints by My speaking with you, for they earned God as the reward of their life, of their eternal life. Their spirit rejoices greatly when they hear Me and see Me speaking with you about the mystery of the saints' life, for they long after the life in the people, so that the people may long for the saints, and they come to live on earth with the people, and to have a calling to come, because without a calling they cannot come and cannot work and cannot live among people with their pain, which wait in them to be working on earth among people, and that those who are faithful to the Lord to love the gifts of His saints.

Oh, My people, you should know that life without trial within it does not pass for its redemption. In order that the man may reach to be great among the people on earth, he is taken through many doors, and he is weighed in different manners to gain a rank in his life of man, and the one who is not tested, that one remains even without life on earth, not only without a name or without glory, glory as on earth. However, in order that the man may gain life for heaven, because life is from heaven, he does not know how tested his life has to be, how tested by so many things that he has to go through and to answer well, in such a way that he may be able to save life by losing his life, as I spoke about the life for the man. The saints of the Most High endured contempt, humility, great and small trials, pains of any kind, hatred, the long endurance of saints, the death of their body, and behold how many things are that put man's life to probation until he reaches to earn his life! I did not earn My life otherwise among people; and then I earned it from those among the dead, for the man's life on earth either makes the way to the life of man, or not, the way of the man's resurrection and of his eternity with the Lord.

Oh, how sweet was the life of My trumpet[9], Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) in her time on earth! A life full of God in man has never been loved, appreciated, and seen well by those on earth, who are only flesh, for My life in man is a humble spirit, a broken and a humble heart. This is how I dwell in man when he lives within Me, and that one is with God on earth. When I gathered the disciples near Me to make them pleasant to the Father, I told them: «Woe to you, when men speak well of you! For their fathers did the same to the false prophets, and truly I say that they have already received their consolation!» (See also Luke: 6/24, 26)

Oh, My people, the life is put to test by humility, and if it does not answer with love and patience and with wisdom like that of Mine, because of trial, that one is not a good life for God in man. However, the man is haughty for his life and such a man lives within himself and loves himself by everything he does, and the love of his self has as its sign in man, not the love of brothers, but vindication and discontent, and such a man has no brothers at all. However, the love has love in it, and this is how it is known when it is in man, and when the man is guilty he has no love in himself, but he rather has love for his self, and he also has blame for his neighbor, and a man like that struggles to earn his life, for he does not know the mystery of love and its face and its work.

I cannot make for Me a heaven of saints from men, who do not have My love in them, and neither can I make them saints. The one who lives for his self-love cannot hide in himself, but rather he is seen by everything he does and proves. Love is a big power and I come down into hearts and minds, discerning of My mysteries among people, and I remain confused in those who are haughty within their spirit, and I also remain in the darkness towards the one who loves oneself and I cannot share Myself with anyone through the one who is self-confident.

Love is power either for good, or for evil upon man, because there are two kinds of loves and they go on two sides, either to destroy or to save the man's life. One of them is self-love, that by which the blind does not see his to be able to keep away his life from destruction, and the other one is the love from above, from heaven, from God, put into the service of the heavenly works among people, for those who are being saved.

[9] See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.

Behold My people, godly love means God and God's work on the earth, and human love means man and man's work on the earth. These two kinds of love never meet, because they reject each other and are against each other by their work itself. And the saints loved with power the heavenly wisdom of love and they became saints on earth for it and they saved their lives and went full of life into heaven and are the sons of life forever and ever, and I, the Lord, come on earth with those who are alive, and I come with the saints, with those who found on earth the mystery of love and lived within it. Amen.

Oh, My people, I remind you of My prayer to the Father for My brothers, for My disciples, because I was telling My Father: «Father, even as We are one, let them also be one in Us so that Our joy may be made full in them». (See also John: 17/13, 21) Oh, how shall I do that this mystery may be lived powerfully on earth among My disciples, among those who were called to be elected and then faithful? I have always, always prayed to My Father, and I want to see into your midst that you can do this, My people, because I prayed for My disciples, and those who are My disciples can do this. Amen.

I long to have disciples on earth and that they may be great by what they do greatly and wonderfully into My name over many. No one is greater among people and among disciples with his life than the disciple who is Mine and who speaks the word of God according to God's wisdom, according to the plan of God's works on the earth. There is no one greater among people and among disciples with his life from heaven than the disciple who has in him God's revelation over the people. However, I cry, My people, because the man is too big that he may bow and then to receive the one who is God's word on My behalf. I suffer with an endless tear from the man, and I cannot lift up the man from his dust, and the saints also cry together with Me; the saints without a house cry and they do not have any house where to cry, and their feast is like Mine, much tear, pain and sighing, longing and mourning, and all these are comprised within the love from above, the love of the saints.

I get ready for Virginia's tear, because she is among the saints of the heaven, and the entire heaven cries in this time of hardship of God on earth, a trial such as never was and never will be, and the man does not know the time of the Lord, because the man knows only his time, and it is for it that he lives his life.

Oh, Verginica, your tear becomes your feast among the saints who are celebrated in the synod by Me and by My people on earth. Oh, God's trumpet, your sighing on earth was painful![10] You had always cried after My life in the Christian. You had always sighed for My longing and for My sighing from man, because the man does not give Me anything, because he does not want to find the mystery of the heavenly love to rejoice over it, both he and I in him. Oh, trumpet full of My mourning, all the saints comfort you as they comforted you when you came into the world as a baby, crowning among the heavenly ones the feast of the Sunday of all saints, when I told them that you will be My trumpet and theirs before My coming, and when I told them that you would be My coming, the stairway of My coming among the people to harvest a people of disciples. However, what a great pain I had been carrying during of all this time of fifty years of My coming down! Because the one who heard Me through the voice of the trumpet did not want to become a disciple of My coming, of the great annunciation of now, at the end of the time, and the time lost by the man cries, and the man who is lost in time cries too, and he does not know why he cries; he does not know, because the man does not know himself, because he does not know where his life is from and where his life cries waiting for him.

[10] See The Life of Saint Virginia, r.n.

Oh, what a sweet feast! Oh, the sufferance is sweet, Verginica, and the man flees from this sweetness and eats only bitterness, for the man who seeks only joys cannot love God, the One suffering in heaven and on earth and in man. The one who cries after joys, that one does not know God and cannot comfort Him. But the saints of the Most High know the mystery of the heavenly love and its spring, because it is the spring of the saints in heaven and on earth, and it is a great thing for the man to know the mystery of the holy one, the mystery of the one who loves God among those who are on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, how much tear, Lord, how much tear! The love becomes tearing and only the saints love this mystery, which cannot dwell with the man full of love for himself and from whom You sigh so painfully, and You sigh in the saints, Lord. Oh, how could I be otherwise on earth and in heaven than Your sigh, if I was Your disciple on earth, Your trumpet, having the greatest of all gifts, the gift of Your word? I had carried You as word on earth and it has remained over those who love this gift, and You are eternal through it over those who are born for You and not for them on earth. I want to come with much word for my feast among saints, and I will strengthen those in the gates, in order that I may come down over Your people and mine with the gifts from above for the wisdom of the love from above upon it.

And as for you, gates of the Lord, I embrace you within heavenly powers; I embrace you within the love from above, to be able to stay for the passing of the saints to the Lord's people, in order that I may teach it, on this feast, God's mystery with the man, the mystery of salvation, the mystery of the life, which does not perish, sons who announce God. Oh, how much I would like that the people may understand the Lord's love in you! Oh, how much I would like the people to know you from near the Lord and not from near it! Your love for the chosen people is great and is from heaven and it is with great mercy, but there are two more steps, which bring him to life, because those who are called have to be, also, chosen at the work for God, and then they must do the miracles of their faith for the fulfillment of those last Scriptures, which wait to come down on earth. I see your labor; I see how those from above press on you, and you are crushed by everything the Lord suffers and great care presses on you for the work of the Lord upon the people and upon all those on the earth who are lost by God, sold to the glory of the world, which is not from God, but it is in the world and it keeps the man for it in such a way that the man may not see his salvation and the Master of his salvation.

I let you have rest so that then we may be able to bring to an end the word of the feast of the saints, to give you advice for the people and for man, because I am the Lord's trumpet and I had no other gift on the earth.

Long after Me, My people, for I am with the Lord, and with much sign I ask you from the Lord to be always and to learn to be. I ask you with the same sigh from you for the great work which is now to be done for the Lord, your God, because if there is still time, you should work for the Lord, because the Lord has to speak soon over everything: «All things have come to an end!» and you should walk with the Lord and to be the beginning from the end of everything and to be the one who wipes out the Lord's tear and of His saints. Amen.

– Oh, Verginica, we bless their feast; we give the love to the saints, and we ask them to keep a heavenly feast, and We, to look at them and to inspire the vigor by which the saints stay with them, enshrouding them within the mystery of the life, which does not perish, and then to come closer again with the whole word of the feast.

My people, do not forget about the invisible heaven. Do not forget to believe with power in order that the Lord may measure your faith, because the work of the faith is by its sight, and it is the prime of life, which opens at its sight, spreading its fragrance and praising those who are the disciples of the Lord, for which they worked hard. Blessed is the one who does not sleep now, because the one who sleeps is the one who does not hear My word and does not live by it. And the one who does not sleep, I find that one coming to meet Me, and then he becomes a sower from heaven and a fruit of the One Who sows over the disciples His seed giving of life, out of which an obedient people spring up, gentle and humble in its heart, a child of the heavenly Father, just as I am. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Come sowing children, because the one who does not sleep at My word, I have him as My disciple who has in him God's revelation over people, as I have told you in this great day. Verginica has exhortations for the people nourished from heaven, and you make the passing of the saints and help them to enter into My book with you, on My coming to My people, children sons. It is the feast of all saints, and Verginica is their gate of entrance; she is My trumpet and of those from heaven.

Oh, Verginica, the sufferance of those from heaven is sweet, and their tear becomes feast to call the people to Me and to give them power to become God's sons, saints of the heaven, as You were on earth, because those, who will have received what they have worked for by their living in the flesh, will be as on earth either, and whoever does not believe this, that one does not know what the life on earth and in heaven means.

Oh, My trumpet, your sigh on earth was painful! You had always cried after My life in the Christian, and you taught him both from heaven and from earth, and the more you taught him and longed for him, the more he departed from heaven. Oh, how beautiful you taught the Christian! You gave him a book to study and follow, but he got used to be forgetful, Verginica, and if you did not teach him even now, he would always forget. However, you have a gentle and humble spirit, as on the earth, and you suffer from the one who does not know on earth what its life and power is. Come with love and with My Holy Spirit, Whom I gave to those who became the Lord's dwelling among the people. Come, because you are My trumpet and of My saints, and you are full of love as on earth, and you bow like Me to be able to help those who came for the work of My word, so that My whole teaching may settle upon them and that they may live by it and to become joy for the saints and an example to the people, Verginica. And now, I bless your entrance into your people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, how much work over the people of today, Lord! Oh, how much word from heaven over it so that it may love life, Lord! And now, we teach it again and we give it from heaven, for the saints to have a share with it, because Your word in its midst is the table of the saints who have waited for Your coming with them, the work of Your coming, which makes the world again, by union with those that are on the earth, Lord.

My people, long for me, because I am with the Lord, and I ask you with great sigh from the Lord and I ask from Him life and power of life for you. In addition, with the same sigh, I ask you from yourself too, because much work has to be done for the making of the world again. If there is still time, you have to work for the Lord and you have to be able to exhort brother to brother.

Oh, children from the gates, you have to work more upon the people, even if the work of the issue of the book, the one of fifty years of work of the Lord, requires of you all your walking, all your time and all your rest. It is much and always to be worked so that the Lord may have a beautiful life in the Christian and to find him this way every moment. The tolerance from day to day of the people not to fulfill all the Lord's word cannot bring the resurrection and cannot bring power over those who need to be able to work for the heaven. Oh, the will from the earth is not good. Resurrection is good instead, for where there is not always the same resurrection in all, there is tear on earth and in heaven, and it is hard to overcome for the Scriptures, which have now to be fulfilled for the Lord to settle and reign over everything and then to be resurrection.

I want to come down with teaching over all those who receive from you the word from heaven, but especially I would exhort the people to take a better look and not to forget from day to day the book that I left it for it on may going into heaven. It would be for you to remind one another of it again and again and to be receivers if you take from it one for another, because you have to take upon you the life that is pleasant to the Lord from the book of My teaching upon you. Behold all the words of the Lord have remained for the judgment of every man because the man does not fulfill them, and they are on earth in order that the man may not say that he did not know what his life on earth meant. However, you, people of the Lord's ever teaching, do you know what your life means? The saints, who are now in heaven, understood the Lord's word, giving of life, and which has remained in the Scriptures and in the saints, and the saints lived according to it on the earth, for the holy man does not need to have his life on earth. The Lord has gathered you from place to place in small bits to teach you what life is and to put it to test and to look at it always from inside and outside, and He has recently taught you not to love to stay as in your house in the courtyards of His blessings for those who love and listen to God. It is a sin to stay in your wills in the courtyards of the Lord, my people. You always have to learn, for the word from heaven has always come upon you with its life, because it is giving of life. Son, you owe nothing to your brother, but you owe to the Lord instead, and this means much more; it means everything, because you do not have to live inside and outside of you like the man on earth. You have been called to the work of life, to the work of the saints, and the saints did not live on earth without the work of life always upon them. They lived on the earth loving in the Lord, not in them, but can you alone understand how this comes, that is to stay in the Lord and not in you? Behold, the saints know me as the Lord's trumpet, and they also pass towards you to tell you how the saints should live on the earth. Amen.

– The hosts of the saints altogether become one single word, Verginica. The Lord has given us a great gift in heaven now, in the end of the time by giving you birth on the earth and then by bringing you in heaven, for the saints from heaven have been waiting for the Lord's coming too, not only the faithful ones and saints with love on the earth. No one is able to become a saint only by faith. After that, love for faith is needed, and this is what we worked on the earth. Love is a great power, and with it one overcomes death, which comes from the spirit of the world and from the flesh, and this is the battle we fought on the earth, to gain in us the holiness and then the gift of the Holy Spirit. However, you were so big on earth since the Lord made you into a gift of His saints and gave you to us to be able to come with the Lord on the earth to the people nourished from heaven by your mouth, because you were the Lord's trumpet.

All the saints cry with tears of joy for the gift of our coming with the Lord at His table into the midst of Israel, Israel from the Romanians, and blessed are all those who know what Abraham's seed among the people means, for behold, those, who have come to this table in order to come closer to the Lord, have believed like Abraham that the God of the Holy Trinity is the One Who comes and speaks over the faithful one, over Israel, whose parents are the faithful ones: Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Oh, the saints long for life in the people. This is what the Lord spoke about us. We long that the people may love life as we loved it on earth and in heaven, for everything on earth is loved in heaven, and no on enters into this country otherwise, if they did not gain it on the earth. The incorruptibility of the body has to be worked out by he is faithful and it has to be worked out by love, and it is not received as a gift. It is worked and brought as a gift to the Lord, to His perfection in man, as we also worked out our life in us for the Lord, and that is why we are now the sons of life, and that is why we speak over the earth by the coming of the Lord to those who believe in His coming of now.

Live is tested, if it is in man, and it is tested by humility, because the holy one has to take after the Lord, He Who was put to test by much humility, by much sufferance on the earth, for He let Himself to be put to test and tempted, but without sin. Here He is! He was without sin, and He was the most humbled One, the gentlest One, the most humble One, and then He has remained as an example over the man who is born of sin, and who, if he wants and if he loves life, is able to be born of the One without sin afterwards, of the Lord, in order to be a new creature, as it is written in the Scriptures, which have life in them.

Life is put to test, if it is in man, by the love or by not the love of brothers. Whoever wants to be a brother, that one has to be a lover of brothers, because otherwise one like that has no brothers, and the mystery and the work of the brotherhood is great, and it is from God if it is, and it is not otherwise, for that which is in God is that which is measured and not that which is worked from man. First the Lord made the invisible world, but because the man is without wisdom from heaven, he does not understand who measures his life on the earth. He cannot measure it, but even this the man does not know, and he should know even more than this, at least the one who wants the life. The man is never alone and nothing comes upon him but only out of the measure, which is well taken into consideration by the invisible world, as much as the man does not understand and does not see. Behold, nothing can be upon man but only according to his measure even when he judges his brother, because if this is what he deserves, this is what comes upon him and the judgment made by man brings the same work upon the man. We, the saints of the heaven learned the power of life and we got used on earth to overcome its weaknesses and its judgment and we made this by love, not only by faith, for when Abraham believed and did not love with the power of love from God, he would have not been able to know the Lord when He came to him in the image of the heavenly Trinity, Who is called God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

We, Verginica, have told your people what the power of life is. It is the love for faith, and we are full of peace because in this day of saints, we have spoken over the earth. Amen.

– Oh, holy and dear people of the Lord, you loved the love from above, which is the power of life and the victory of death. Wipe out your tears, because the invisible world serves you as on earth when you had this understanding, and of which you had the wisdom of life, the gift of life, the guard of life and the victory for it, because the invisible world separated itself in two after the man became haughty against God, and then there were two powers: the power of good and the power of evil, and here it is how these two work on earth among the people from the invisible world and not perceived by man. First God made the invisible things and the invisible world, and then He brought into view those that are seen and man as well, and the man is not seized by this thrill, which the saints had and still have for the invisible world, which works without rest upon man, and which without a limit, decides for the good and for the evil in man, and the Spirit of the Lord from those who are elected by Him for this, puts to test from God those who stay in their spirit, in their wills, in their blood, saying to themselves that they know the Lord and that are His by what they say that they do and fulfill. Every man is content with little when tries to set his life into God's hand, into God's mercy, for the man knows only his time, and for it he lives his life and not for God, because in order to live for God, the man has to know the time of the Lord, and not his time. My sigh on earth was painful, oh, loved saints of the Lord's life, because the gift of life, the most expensive gift, is not sought by man.

Oh, my people, people of God, I had always sighed for the Lord's longing, for His longing from the man, for the man does not give to God anything else but sigh, because he does not want to find and to know and to live the mystery of life, which is the mystery of the heavenly life. I was His trumpet, His Spirit full of mourning from man, and I know His sigh, and I sighed with Him and I sigh after the life from above in the Christian. The Lord often says that in His people there will no longer be but beautiful children, there will no longer remain in it those who are proud, the fastidious, the tempters, the disobedient, those who do not fulfill, the blasphemers, those who quarrel, those who are pretentious for themselves, the envious, those with self-love, who do not stay in the Lord, and the Lord spoke about this with great pain. However, He is the One Who knows and measures His people, for the invisible world does this, and the Lord knows those who are His and has long endurance for them because of those people who are not fulfilled in the Lord, and He exhorts to patience those who love the life from above, which the Lord measures from those that are not seen, and He speaks about it through those who have been given work upon man. The one who watches over many, that one cannot have anything but only pain, while many have discontent, as it is between man and man on earth, there where does not enter the mystery of the heavenly love in man.

Oh, sons who share, it is very hard, it is very painful to look at what everyone does, at how he is and what he knows to do, and you should know what Christ wants, and that you can do nothing for the Lord to have a great and holy people, all to be one, because He prays again: «Father, as We are one, they should also be one in Us».

Oh, I exhort from the Lord those who love the life from above, not to forget the word from the heaven, which teaches them what life is, because if God is not between man and man, the man is not either, and where the Lord is not, everything is empty for those in heaven who love and want to live their life in people, because the saints have much life in heaven, and they long to see it in people. And from among the saints, I also want to have a holy life in my people, and the one who does not want to learn what life is, that one has to be taught always so that he may not forget and that his life and its power may be kept alive. Amen.

Oh, my people and the people of my Lord! The Lord has to be always alive between brother and brother, always confessed, and only in this way brothers are brothers, for where the Lord is not, the man is not too, and in the Lord's people there are and will be only those who love the Lord in a visible and confessed way, as though the Lord were in His body among those who love to live in this way, for where He is with power, there the spirit of brotherhood is also, from which the spirit of the love of God among people is born. Oh, the tolerance for not fulfilling is not good, because the Lord's fulfillments are not seen in the Christian, and this harmful tolerance holds the resurrection back and multiplies the Lord's tear and of His saints, my people.

Oh, my people, the baptism with the Holy Spirit is a sweet and comforting mystery upon the man, but the baptism with fire is burning, and this science I want to awaken in the heart of every Christian who has taken of this spring and believed that the Lord is. But behold, faith without a great love for the gift of the life in Christian is not fruitful and it is of no use either to the Lord or to the man, because it is written that the love can do everything, and without it everything falls down. The Lord has to be always between Christian and Christian, for otherwise the man is not in the Lord either, because where the Lord is, the man is also, and the man is his own master by haughtiness, and that one is not, for it is not the man that means life, but the Lord means the man's life instead.

Oh man, who look only for yourself in you and in your neighbor, and you do not listen to the Lord! You do not see the Lord but the Lord sees everything you are and everything you do. You do not hear Him, but He hears everything you say and everything you want and are, and the time comes to see that it is so. I teach you, to seek from among the saints to be with the saints, not with you, not with the one who you take after, and not to look in you. Look for this one who knows to teach you life, for haughtiness makes the man into dust and blindness, and then sufferance in heaven and joy to the devils, which stay as rulers on the earth through man, but the earth belongs to the Lord. Amen.

And now, Lord, put the power of resurrection into my word, to be for life to Israel, which always has to be called out, always nourished from heaven, and the saints desire to be with their holy life in the sons of this people, for the saints have various and sweet gifts of the life, who loved You so sweetly and comforted You with their love! Only love comforts, Lord, and for the way with You, the man does not need to have only faith but love too, because love is that which makes them all, as You with Your saints are working with love now, to make everything again. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Verginica, first of everything that will be, we have to make and we need to have an obedient and submissive people, because without a tool no master is able to do his work. A people with a great life in it, with much Holy Spirit in it, this is what we have to make everything so that God may be again over people. We work with much difficulty, and we wait with great patience; with great longing we wait for the Father to see My earned work and brought to its glory, and I am still deeply wounded like My saints, because I cry with them and I rely upon them between man and God, and great mystery is the mystery of those who are not seen, but work until their appearance with all this work, which the man does not expect to see it, and that is why the man is indifferent to God for his staying in himself, because the man stays only in him and does not want to be in God.

Oh, it is very hard on earth without God, but the man is haughty and does not know of sufferance and I look powerlessly to the one who is alien to the mystery of life.

Oh, My people, I want you to be full of Holy Spirit to be able to work with you. Let there be God between brother and brother, without Whom nothing is from what it seems to be. You should not do anything else for you, for your brother, or for every man who has wandered away from life and from God, Who alone will remain from among all those that are.

Oh, My people, it is mourning in heaven, and there is only partying on earth. The man goes to parties, and the Lord with His saints wait and endure crying, but the mystery of the new making of the world works for its perfection, as it is written in the Scriptures for this time, for the joys do not remain without lamentations, and the people do not know to weigh out the reward of what they live by their blindness. However, you should love the life and you should make it, and let Me see that you have it so that I may come down in it and to be always your master, and for this you do not need your mind, but you need only love instead, for it and its wisdom in you is that which gives life to everything for your life, My people, and to the victory of the Lord, your God, Who waits for the resurrection of the creature. Amen, amen, amen.

13/26-06-2005

The feast of the birth of the Saint John the Baptizer

In this day of heavenly memorial on earth, I bring you from among saints and through the saints powers of soul, spirit of patience and of holy hope, My people, to pray with much power and with much pain to God, because it is a great sufferance over the Romanian country, and it is much pain in you, Israel of today, and I have turned to you with comfort and with John, My baptizer, so that We may settle down, We, those from heaven and together with you in a spirit of power and hope, for the days are hard, My people. However, I need to hear your voice, which calls out to Me asking for the protection of the Romanian people, and then that I may settle down with bounds between good and evil, between faith and unfaith, between holiness and lawlessness, for everything has to be renewed for the visible descending on earth of those that are not seen, but which will be, because the world will be renewed, as I promised My disciples two thousand years ago, for the last days, for the establishing of the kingdom of the heaven on earth. Amen.

John, the Baptizer, waits to call out to the people to repent for the kingdom of the heaven to come near on to the earth, clean and holy. You are very weak, children from the gates, but John waits and he will not go back into heaven with his word until you set it into My book with you, because every saint, working by My work of today, does not stop from his work on the earth, because it is not possible without the written work to be worked on earth each time, and especially now, when I, the Lord, am in My last coming, and I have with Me the hosts of saints, to the fulfillment of the times, to the men's turning to God, Who is making the world again. Amen, amen, amen.

– My voice cries over the people, Lord, as I was crying two thousand years ago, when I was making Your way for Israel to know You and to believe that You are the Son of the heavenly Father and that You are sent from heaven for the salvation of the fear of the death of all those who were to believe in the salvation from You upon them.

Oh, what sufferance on the earth, Lord! The man has no longer been satisfied in spending his life, and You have spoken to Your people of today, that it is mourning in heaven and that on earth it is only partying, and the man does not know that there is no joy without lamentation on it, without the reward of those who live within their blindness. I come, because I am Your forerunner. I come on the way of Your word, which comes with the clouds, and I cry over the earth and I sound the wake-up to repentance.

Repent, you, sinful people, from the whole surface of the earth and come into the bath of the birth from above, to the forgiveness of your sins! I am the voice, which cries and announces the way of the One Who becomes word on the earth for the new birth of the world, for the Lord comes and baptizes with Holy Spirit and with fire, either to repentance, or for every man's rebuking, and He has His winnowing fork in His hand and He thoroughly cleanses His threshing floor and gathers His wheat into the barn, but the chaff He will burn with fire, because He prepares with Holy Spirit and with fire His kingdom on the earth, and then it will be without end. I am the one who exhort you to repentance and then to the spring of life, which flows from the Lord's mouth into the midst of the Romanian people, and His word from now gives birth again to the world and establishes on earth those that are not shaken, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, Romanian country, in these days the Lord has prophesied upon you that you will be brought to cleansing and whitening, so that you may be beautiful again, and that your land may be cleaned, and thus He may prepare the great glory of His coming with the saints on your hearth, for you are His chosen one. Oh, I look at you with pain and I see the angels who cleanse from the way of the Lord those that are shaken by man, and I call you to the baptism of repentance and to the forgiveness of your sins.

Oh, Romanian people, the Lord is visiting you, as He has prophesied in His word of today upon you. However, you have tried not to hear, but He fulfills. So, get ready for days of repentance and prayer and for a fasting pleased to the Lord, for the Lord gives you grace and power if you want to listen to this. Set down to call Him to protect you and to give you the spirit of faith, obedience and love for His coming to you with the spirit of comfort, by which He has been dwelling into your midst for fifty years, to prepare your glory with Him if your receive Him, if you wait for Him and if you love Him, oh, dear country of His coming after two thousand years on the earth, as word. The Lord is in you to protect you and to renew you by your repentance if you want, and without your love He cannot do you good. However, you are the country of His returning to the people to prepare His endless kingdom, and if you do not want this, the Lord can do what you cannot, what you do not want to do. So, get up! Amen.

Let your sons exhort one another to repentance, oh, country of the Lord, for your birth on the earth was at the same time with His birth among the people, and this was your mystery, and the Lord is coming with it to you, after two thousand years from His birth and yours. I, John, the Baptizer, am the word of the Lord's coming to you to give birth of His word to the world again, and behold, in the day of the celebration of My birth from God in the house of Zacharias and Elisabeth, I am coming now and I am celebrating this day by your calling to repentance, Romanian country. Get up to be chosen, as it is your fate to be chosen from among the nations, and to be the Lord's house. Get up from your blood, for the Lord has got you from the Father for His coming now in the end of the time, as on His first coming He had Israel as the people of His coming. Get up, shake off the entire lawlessness, and do not stay without love. Be wise and put light to your candle, for the Lord has become Your bridegroom[11] and he cannot forsake you, but He can cleanse you, He can renew you and He can give you birth. He, the One Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and with fire, He is the One Who renews the world destroying the lawlessness, for the time has come near, and it is written: «He who is holy, let him be holy still, and he who is filthy let him be filthy still, for the Lord is coming with His reward to repay each man according to his work». (See also Apoc: 22/11, 12)

Oh, country of the Lord's returning, repent from the injustice that you worked and come towards love and prayer and ask Your Lord: "Come, Lord!" and He will come and adorn you with the glory of His coming with the saints, to your peace and His. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, you, the one who called out the people two thousand years ago, calling them to the kingdom of the heavens, to Me, the One Who has eternal life for man, even now you give Me to the man by your preaching about Me, and I seal your calling with power, and I will make the people look for God and for the spring of the word of life. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is written for the time of My coming a Scripture with bounds between good and evil, between faith and unfaith: «He who is unrighteous let him be unrighteous still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him work out righteousness still; he who is holy, let him be holy still», and behold, John the Baptizer is still crying to every man to take his time and turn to God, for I am merciful. However, the man does not know that sin was unsealed and that it has caught the man under it, and the man does not know what is sweet and what is bitter, what is to life and what is to death, for the man has always been coming back to his vomit (like the dog) and he is not able to come to life, because he has no life at all; the man has no fear of God and he has no steadfast humility, because there is much sin on the earth, and the lawlessness has been poured out everywhere. However, I shake the man and I still call him under My saving shield, but if I see him without steadfastness, without an earnest life and without a calling and faith with love in it, I cannot make more than man does, for I am humble and I do not go beyond his will, because this is how God is, and He is not like man.

[11] See the selection topic: „The Wedding of the Lamb", r.n.

Moreover, as for you, My people, stay with power of faith full of love, stay with the hope in My promises for those who persevere in My wills, and stay with earnest prayer and watch now, when all cry on earth, even when the people linger within the parties of their life. Stay, My people, with My Spirit in your spirit and put on you all the fulfilling of My word into your midst, for I wait for you with your calling to Me, to fulfill by it everything that I have to work and fulfill in this time of Me with you, and do not forget that all the saints wait for you, and do not forget to become with every passing day more and more My image and My likeness.

Be good, and stay within the Holy Spirit, My people; stay within the birth from above and ask upon you and over the earth for My kingdom, which I prepared from the foundation of the world for those who love it. Amen, amen, amen.

24-06/07-07-2005

The feast of the saints apostles Peter and Paul

The word of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is laying down on earth because it is the feast of the saint apostles of the Gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, which was preached upon the people two thousand years ago and it was written on the earth, and it is written, but the people do not hear its words.

I am the Word of the Father. Before the creation of man, I am the Word of the Father. I came on earth being born as a Man from a Virgin mother, and after thirty years from My birth, I chose, as it was written into the Book of My Life, and I chose My disciples, and then I chose the twelve disciples as disciples from among disciples, and I was the Lamb. And if I was the Lamb, what were they? They were the Lamb's apostles, they were My little ones.

And why did My Father call Me Lamb? Why did John the Baptizer call Me saying: «Behold the Lamb of God!?» I was called so in heaven and on earth, because I am the Shepherd of the man. I am the Shepherd Lamb and I am the Lamb Shepherd, and I am the true One, and there is no other like Me in heaven and on earth, and the Father gave Me the name above any other name, because I give My life as life to the man, for I am the spring of life, and the man receives his soul from Me when he is born into the world. I gave Myself as life to the man, starting with the man built by My hand, for I breathed upon him from Me, and he became a living soul from dust, and he was made out of My breath, after I made his body.

After I made the heaven and the earth and then the man, I filled the sky with breath of life, and that is why the man receives this breath of life, when he is born, and behold, I am the One Who gives life to the man. No one besides Me made the spirit of life between heaven and earth, and that is why Paul, My apostle, said: «All live in Him». There is no wise man on earth to learn from Me and who may teach the man the mystery of the spring of life on earth. I come and I tell the man this mystery, which was understood and carried over the earth by My apostles clothed within the Holy Spirit, so that by Him, by the Holy Spirit, the people may receive the knowledge of life in order to share it upon people and then to share God's love, for in the beginning, when I expressed My request before the man, My first word was this: «You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, man, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself». (Matt: 22/37, 39)

But behold, My people, God's apostle of love lies on My chest of Lamb and he asks Me to come as word about love into My book with you, for I am with them today in word over the earth, the same as two thousand years ago I made them into God's word. Amen.

– I am the gentle fruit of the breath of Your mouth, which gives live, little Lamb and Lord. The Holy Spirit of the Father and Yours, called You by the mouth of John the Baptizer, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sins of the world. You were born on the earth to choose us and to give us Your mysteries, the mysteries of life, and we had to speak about them to the people. You were born on the earth so that You could die like a Lamb, for You are the Lamb of the Father, and then to be able to come back to life and to prove that You are the One Who has live.

When I left a book about You on the earth, I wrote in it this: «In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and all things were made through Him; and the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we saw His glory, such glory as of the One and only Son born of the Father, full of grace and truth, and from His fullness we all received grace upon grace, and He has declared the Father to us». (John: 1/1, 2, 14, 16, 18)

Oh, little Lamb, Lord, I asked You to let me testify that the life, which You brought on the earth and of which all have received, and that all were made by You, and without You nothing was made. I tell all those on the earth who think that they know something, I tell them that they did not know about the mystery of life on the earth, because You gave this wisdom to Your disciples and not to other people, and every man has to receive teaching from them, and the man should do nothing, because the life and the world that was made are within You, and the man does not know about this mystery, but only Your disciples knew and know.

When You made the heaven and the earth, the earth was formless and empty, as the man was after You made him from the dust. Only after You had breathed word from Your mouth and told the earth to give forth fruit, only then the earth caught life on it. Only after you had breathed from Your mouth over the body made from dust after Your image, only after that, the man that was made from dust in Your image, received a living soul.

You, those who thought and think that you know something on the earth, I call you with the gentleness of the Lamb of God, to open your eyes and to learn the mystery of life on the earth. Christ, the Word, was and is the life, and without Him nothing was made. God, the Word, this is the One Who was in the beginning with God, and everything was made by Him, because life was and is in Him, and it was not hard for him to shepherd us with it, with the life, which is being given. He is the Word Who spoke on the Mount of Sinai and told us to love God with all our soul, which is given by Him when He filled the sky with breath of life at the making of the sky and of the earth, and behold, we all have received our soul from His fullness, we all have received life, and we have received grace upon grace, we those who knew Him that He was the Word from the beginning, and by Whom all things were made, and Who became Man for us, the men, for our life and salvation from death. And behold the Lamb of God; He came again in the world as word by which the living and the dead are judged. Amen. The most judging of His word over the living and the dead is the first word of His prayer before the man when He spoke on the Mount Sinai, saying: «Israel, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your soul». Then God told the man to love Him with all that which the man has from God, with the soul, which is the man's life, for the soul is from God in man, and it is the breath of life, which God, the Word, put it between heaven and earth at the creation of the world. Amen.

Oh, little Lamb, Lord, I loved You in me and I loved You without limits with my life, and my life had no any boundary when I loved You within it. I loved You within me and I did not love myself, and this was my live and the soul of my life. You were my soul, and I did nothing else with it but I loved You within me through it, through You, for You are the soul of the man, and You cry within each man through his soul, taken from You in him, and the man does not know this, because his heart, his thought and his virtue, which are in his body, do not love You from man, and Your soul from man is a slave of the man's life, because the man lives his own life. However, I lived You and I listened and I listen only to You, just as You listen to the Father, and I ask the people to give You life in them, for You are their soul, and they do not know the mystery of life; the man does not know who cries within him after life. Your word on the Mount Sinai has taught the man to love You within him with that what You has put in him. The most judging word over the living and over the dead is the word of Your love, by which You asked before the man and said: «You shall love your God with all your soul, man!»

Oh, little Lamb Shepherd, how sweetly You have been calling the people to Your pasture, and You have been calling them to love! And I had been calling likewise, for every disciple of Yours is like You. I gave the Gospel of Your love to the people and I spoke to them much and lovingly that You are the Shepherd, full of grace and truth, and we all have we have received from Your fullness. Amen.

– Oh, child of the life full of love! You have loved Me in you and My disciples bow before you, for you were My love among them, and I was your love, and you rejoiced them inexpressibly because you became the first word among them on the day of the feast of My disciples, with whom I walked on the earth after My Word became My body and dwelt among you and you saw His glory, a glory such as the One born of the Father, full of grace and truth, and of which fullness you, My disciples, received, when I declared to you the Father, Whom no one has ever seen, as it is written. However, you saw Him, for whoever saw the Son, he also saw the Father, as I taught you, those who knew to learn. Amen.

Oh, My people, what a dear feast I have in you today! I am with the apostles of My word of two thousand years ago. They understood My mystery fully and wrote it on the earth, but if the people do not love the life, they do not see, they do not know, and they are not able to live, because only My love can, and John, My loved one, wanted to tell you where the spring of life on the earth was from. Whoever has his life from God, that one can do, and whoever has only the love of his self on the earth, that one cannot be born from above, from the heaven, from Me, the One Who came to give birth to the world, and to give it birth from Me, for I am in the word and I have in My arms the Scriptures of the new birth of the world, and blessed is the one who comes back with his love and life at My request addressed to the man on the Mount Sinai in the day when I spoke to Moses and when I asked the man to turn his soul into My love and to walk with Me on the way of life, which has no end. Amen.

I am comforting you into the midst of My people of today, oh, disciples celebrated within My coming as word on the earth, as in the beginning, when I was speaking for all that were made by My spoken word. I am comforting you with the word of love and life, for I am the Shepherd of love, and I am the Shepherd Lamb. I give you the occasion to speak from Me over the earth, for you live in Me, and that is why you perceived the mystery of life, and that is why I loved you and I told you to be like Me on the earth, after I had ascended again into the Father. Amen.

– Oh, little Lamb Lord, the longing tear is the entire word of Your disciples and of Your saints, who understood the mystery of life. It is a great sufferance for us, those from heaven, when we see the man so alien to Your heaven full of saints with life in them, the heaven, which is inter-twined within all those that are seen by the eyes of the earthly man, for the man has become a border between the visible and invisible things, and he has been keeping us far from the earth, and the earth and everything that is on it cries because of this separation that the man keeps between heaven and earth, between those that are heavenly and humanly, Lord of the endurance of Your saints. We also cried on the earth among people. We suffered deeply within us, with Your word in our speaking from place to place on the earth, for Your kingdom, with which You came two thousand years ago to take the man within it, was not loved in man, and those who loved it were cast away with it from among people.

Oh, how close You are to the people; You are as close to them as to the saints, Shepherd Little Lamb! Our feast becomes word from You and from us, as Paul said, because all those, who live by having knowledge, live in You. The one who lives not having knowledge, this man reigns everywhere, and he hides Your kingdom, Lord. Oh, You could not establish the light with it on the earth, because the people have loved their darkness. We ask You from You to deliver salvation to those who love You in You on the earth, in You and not in them, because the heaven and its work cannot come down in man, because the man is used to his everyday worries of life, and there is no other pain in heaven like this pain.

We ask the people who have departed from You to get used to the spirit of the love of God, so that their life may be easy and comforting to them and to give You their hand to come on the earth with Your endless kingdom. Those things that are so wonderful and which are not seen, but which still exist waiting to be revealed for Your glory; these are those things, which have to be loved and desired by the man's worries. And we want that they may have them, that is, those who stand as Your people before you, to help You to make them visible on the earth those things that are wonderful, which wait to be given visibly to all those who love You with their soul in them, with You in them, Little Lamb and Shepherd.

Nothing is more beautiful on the earth and in man as God in man, heavenly Shepherd. You made the world with so much love, and You want to make it in the same manner now, by its renewing with Your word from the beginning, Lord, for You are always a beginning, always love. However, now, fill with vigor from You those who keep us by the word between heaven and earth, for they are emptied of powers and are very small and fragile, because they have their hearts in pains and the pains make them small, those who bear them with humility. The evil spirit is very evil for them, but those who are humble are those who manage the troubles, to be able to go through and to overcome them by the love and patience, which You give to those who give themselves to You, Lord. Amen.

– Oh, I have always been the power and the comfort of those who are My weak ones, just as I also was for you when the hardships on the earth used to put you to test, My disciples. Those who love Me with patience cannot comfort anyone but only those who take after them in love and in endurance with hope within it. And now, I am comforting them; I am helping them with My power from above and that from below, and then I give them rest from pains and We will settle down with them in the word, for the word of today, Mine and yours, has to be put into the book, as much as it is.

My apostles, Peter and Paul, want to come down in this day as counselors upon people, children from the gates. They are the leaders of the apostles, as the woivode archangels, Michael and Gabriel, are the chiefs of My angels. And here it is what My apostles are speaking now:

– We wait for them, Lord, those who are the gates of Your word, so that they may be able to make our entrance with a feast into Your book of today with us and with them, and we comfort them in pains and we rebuke all the temptation of the evil spirits, all the time to depart from them and from Your people that has You as Teacher upon it. And to them, we are speaking this: Peace to you, little and tiny disciples, as the Lord is your good power and life, and you are with them the sons of the heavenly powers, which are given to those who are small and weak, but great within their love. Amen.

– Oh, My people, be within your spirit eager to sit at a table of word with those that are first among the disciples of the Gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, which I brought it on the earth two thousand years ago to be with the people. Oh, My people, give Me power to be word into your midst, for there is no longer comfort on the earth, and the people will look after you. Work to help Me to be able to give to the people what I have also given to you. I give you the Word of eternal life, for only the word will remain your comfort and your power on the earth and it will be the life of the people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-06/12-07-2005

The Synod of the holy twelve apostles

I together with My disciples sit down at the table of the word full of eternal life and we share life from it.

I am the Lord of life, and that is why I could destroy death for each man and bring resurrection for each man, and these great mysteries have remained over My disciples, and the man has to receive from them, because they are My messengers, and I told them: «He who receives you receives Me, and likewise, he who does not receive you does not receive Me». (Matt: 10/40) Now, My people, receive them! Amen.

– You, the One Who made us Your messengers to Israel and to nations, glorify Yourself in us with the glory of Your word, which makes the world again. The one who lives in You has eternal life and You have revealed to us the depths of God by the Holy Spirit, Lord, for those who sanctify themselves before You, because the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, who judges spiritually by those who are spiritual and boast in the Lord, not in the human wisdom by which the man stay blind for God on the earth.

We are the stewards of Your mysteries and we come with You on the earth as word and we tell everybody that we were faithful to You and that is why You made us messengers to the people so that You may give them the mysterious wisdom, and the reward of their faith is the salvation of their soul.

Oh, how mysteriously You work with those whom You choose to be Your vessels, Lamb of the Father! The mysterious wisdom is Your work over those who make disciples of the kingdom of Your mysteries of life making in man. We, Your first apostles over the faithful ones and over those that are not faithful, over those who are circumcised and not circumcised in the flesh and in their hearts, we let ourselves be worked by everything You gave us to work and we did not work otherwise, as You also did not work otherwise. We speak to everybody who make use of Your great and wonderful name in order to make flocks for themselves into Your name, we tell them to let themselves worked out by Your mysterious wisdom, if they want to stay over the people under You name, under the name of the apostles of the preaching of the Gospel of Your kingdom. If they do not give Your kingdom on the earth to the people, how comes that they make themselves Christ's apostles over the people? Oh, if those who stay under them do not have Your kingdom upon them, what kind of work have they got, those who pretend to be the apostles of Your kingdom over the people? Behold, the time has come for You to shepherd, because all the teachers who stand in the name of justice over the crowds have destroyed Your law and set about to do You injustice and then they may live by an unfair gain, because those do not have You in such a way they may give You further to those who do not have the mysterious wisdom, which has as its reward the salvation of their soul. Behold, the work of each one will be brought into view, and the day of the Lord will bring it into the light, and the fire itself will make clear the work of everyone, and then the wisdom of this world will be seen as foolish and it will be heard that Scripture, which says: «Where is the researcher of this age?»

Oh, sons of men, wake up, because those who stand over you in the name of Christ's wisdom do not have wisdom from heaven. Let your faith may not be the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. This is how we teach you, the chiefs of those who are taught by God. The mysterious wisdom has to be shared with those who are perfect in love and in holiness. We let ourselves be worked by everything the Lord gave us to work and we did not force the crowds to shepherd them to their salvation. The Lord was revealing to us by His Spirit from Whom no one of the rulers of this age could receive, because if they knew God's mysterious wisdom, they would have not crucified the Lord of glory, the Lamb of God. Behold, the wise of this age does not have anything else but the wisdom to lose the Lord, so that they may have dominion over the people.

Oh, sons of the people, receive the Lord's disciples so that they may save you from the wrath that is to come over the world and to stand holy before the Lord, because He said: «Be holy, as I am also holy». Let yourselves be redeemed from your empty life, which was given to you by your parents, because Christ's blood, as the blood of an innocent and righteous Lamb Who was known before the foundation of the world, was shed to redeem the world from sin and death. Cleanse your souls by listening to the truth. Let yourselves be born again, not by a corruptible seed, but by an incorruptible one, by the word of the living God, which remains forever and which is well preached to you now.

Oh, sons of men, give away the fleshly lusts from you, which wage war in you against your soul, and live like free men but not for evil things, but rather like slaves of Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God. You are like some wandering sheep. Turn now to the Shepherd and the Keeper of your souls, because the eyes of the Lord are upon those who are righteous, His ears are inclined towards their prayers, and His face is against those who love the evil and this corrupt age.

And you, those who have established yourselves and each other as shepherds of Christ over the wandering crowds from the Spirit of Truth, we speak, the chiefs of the apostles sent by Christ to those who are saints and to those who are sinful to work with Him and from Him over these, we tell you that the mysterious wisdom of God does not consist in the wisdom of this perishable and corrupt age. If you cannot sanctify yourselves within your life, justice and wisdom, then go back to your places and work whatever you want, but do no longer stand over the people in the name of God without getting out of the world and out of its works. If you cannot bow and be born again by the word of God and to be as holy as He is, if you do not suffer anything from the sinful man who perishes in his sin, if you do not like the way of the light to walk within light, then do no longer stand under the name and under the work of the apostles of the Lamb. If you cannot become the first fruits of God and of the Lamb, do not touch His mysteries to betray them not knowing their power. It will come out soon the Book of the Word of God, Who has spoken in this time from heaven on the earth for fifty years, and here it is how the Lamb finds you, the One Who opened the seals of the book to choose His bride of wedding and then to appear with His glory! The resurrection of the dead comes and you do not know the mysteries of the Scriptures, because you read the books of the people, and the people are sinners. The resurrection of the dead comes and the antichrist[12] will appear, because all his work, opposing to God, will be revealed, in such a way that each one will be judged according to his works. The light of the Lord comes, and it will reveal all those things that have been done in the darkness.

We, the chiefs of the apostles, sent by the Lord, tell everyone that no one can be an apostle of the Lamb but only those that the Lamb sends, and behold, we speak from heaven from near Him by sending and we say: all those who do not serve the Lamb and the kingdom of the heavens over the people on the earth, let them stay and let them not take the work of the Lamb's apostles, for faith does not consists in the men's wisdom, but in the power of God, Who is coming now on the earth and is appearing with power by the Holy Spirit to those who are perfect in love. The Lord is coming to look for fruit in the vineyard, and every shepherd, who has became shepherd by its own will over the sheep, will not escape without being called into account for every fruit he has produced or for the lack of his fruit. Amen.

[12] See the selection topic: „The antichrist and the apocalyptic beast", r.n.

And as for you, sons of the new people of the Lamb, you, children of the Lord's coming, become examples of the Lord's love in you, and raise your heads to the Lamb of God and ask Him for His kingdom on the earth with you, so that the Lord and all those who walk within His will to be seen at His coming, for behold, there is no longer faith on the earth. However, you should remain strong in your faith, for the reward of the faith is the salvation of your soul. Blessed are those on the earth who do not see the Lord and still love Him and believe in Him and great is their reward, and that will be shown before all the nations of the earth, which do not get up to repentance and to the preaching of the word of life.

We, little Lamb, Lord, we have been longing with zeal to separate the light from the darkness and the truth from lie, because if the man does not know, he does not have sin. However, You have always come, and we told everybody that the mysterious wisdom of God is given to those who are spiritual, to those who are perfect in love.

We are Your messengers and we preached to the people that You were the Lord of the kingdom of the heavens, which no one of the rulers of this age has been able to know it. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, disciples that are sent, oh, apostles of the preaching of My kingdom with the man! Those who have this world as their life and kingdom cannot be My apostles, because I am the gentle and good Shepherd, Who lied down His life for His sheep. Woe to those who make a profit for themselves on the earth on the account of My name among people! Behold, I come with the reward, and each one will receive according to what he has worked and given. The kingdom of the heaven is not that which is lived by those who pretend to be the apostles of the Lamb. The day comes when those things that are humanly on the earth will be shaken and the people who are strong and masters in this age will remain empty, poor and hungry, and their glory will be melted off them as the wax melts in the heat of the fire, and it will be fulfilled the Scriptures that says: «Where is the wise and the lawyer of this age?» (See 1 Cor: 1/20)

This day of apostolic feast has been carrying within it gentleness, love, justice and truth, and the darkness of the people cannot comprise these.

Oh, My people, who stay under the word of life making within the man, remain in My love! Strengthen your faith in Me and its work full of grace, because soon those who are righteous and holy with their love and life will be lifted up and will work out My justice and My salvation over many, and many of the dead, small and great, will receive life[13] and will confess Me and you and the table of My kingdom with you on the Romanian land, and the multitudes, thirsty of life and love, will go towards it and will find the spring of life and will love it with power and they will give each other out of this love and will find the mysterious wisdom of God, which no one of the rulers of this age will be able to know it. However, you are the people hold into My hand, and all those that are Mine are yours, because You love Me, because I knock and you open to Me; I give to you and you share it forward, for those who are Mine work what I give them.

[13] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.

I always give you the word of My kingdom. Work it out, My people, so that My kingdom may become a spring, and all those who love in Me and not in this world to be able to come to it, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

30-06/13-07-2005

The feast of fourteen years from the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I, the Lord and My word from the Father, write Myself with a day of feast for the garden of the word of God during these days, and you, children from the gates, together with the entire people of My word, strengthen your little hearts and then settle down as feast before Me, for I stay into Your midst with the life of My word, which brings you before Me and Me before you, and which then works My word on the earth. Amen.

Oh, sons, the country of My coming as word in it is under pains. The Romanian people are oppressed under the rod of My wrath, and I want to hear you asking Me to save it and to give it of My Spirit of life, and the life is that which lies in God with the man, because the people, whose God I am, is pleased to Me, and I protect him. Even the pain for the revival is My love for the man too, because I become the word for the new birth of the world in it, fulfilling this Scripture, which I spoke about two thousand years ago. Amen.

The Holy Spirit of My word asks from the Romanian people the love for God, faith in this word, which cleanses the lawlessness on the earth and which comforts those who love in God and not in this world. I come down with the Scripture of the man's renewal, by which I call the man to love in God, not in the world, for the spirit of the world has taken the man out of My kingdom and has made him used to the living on the earth and not in heaven. My kingdom has to be on the earth and not man's, and the man has to be a dwelling place of My glory, a kingdom of the heavens, which I want to be full of joy in man, full of the voice of My word, which makes the world again. Amen.

Oh, My people, in this day of feast for the little garden of My word, I establish you before Me praying for the Romanian country. Let My hand save it from its hardship, from under its pain. Let My spirit renew it, and let its sons seek God's life in them and among them, for the sin carries its punishment within it, and I want Romania to be clean, because I will come soon with the visible[14] glory in it and I announce Myself as its God to lift up those who are Romanians within their hearts and deed, and to call by its name all the soul, which will love to be in My image and after My likeness, which will be soon, soon, over the sons of this nation for the glory of My coming, to have house and board in My country, newly chosen, as it is My will and not its will, and that it may love My will, for I am its God. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, I teach you within the Holy Spirit to ask the kingdom of My peace for Romania, so that it may have My love and protection over it and to make itself ready according to My pleasure, to be the house of My coming after two thousand years, for I have much work to establish on the land in its midst, and then to bring into view the new heaven, the new earth and the new man, with My love in him on the earth, and My rest in man, as I wanted the man then when I built him to My joy.

And now, My people, having into your midst those that are anointed between Me and you, I want to hear the voice of your prayer for Romania, which cries under the persecution (The Floods,

[14] See the selection topic: „The coming in a visible way", r.n.

r.n.) and it does not know to find its salvation from the temptations which has caught it within them because of its departure from God. Lift up your hands, My people, and within an earnest spirit of prayer, speak to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit your prayer for your country and Mine, and this is how you are to pray:

„Lord of the powers in heaven and on earth, Lord of patience and endurance, within Your great sufferance because of the Romanian people's departure from God and because of every man's departure on the earth, we comfort You, heart by heart we comfort You in Your pain for the country of Your coming. It is Your chosen one and Your wedding[15] table, but it is not able to know You, because it has departed from the Holy Spirit, Who knows from You in man, and the shepherds, who stand over it in Your name, do not have any mercy on it. However, You have mercy and You do not forget about Your mercy if You have come within it to shepherd it on Your pasture. Give it the grace of the Holy Spirit by Your baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire. Give it the spirit of revival and of the holy faith, and then of the love and of the knowledge of God. Stop Your wrath that has come upon it for its revival. Let Your rebuking upon it be its resurrection and then life with You, and save it from the spirit of the world, from the perishing spirit of this age, for the world and its lust perishes, but let Romania and its sons remain, Lord, and make its house into Your house and Your people of saints, because the holy man is sweet, and the holy life in man is a blessing on earth.

There will be only saints in Your people; we know that this is what You have announced through the prophets, but we reach our hands to You so that You may put in them in such a way that we may give to the Romanian people Your wisdom, the wisdom of creation of the new man according to Your image and likeness on the Romanian land, and let this miracle spread over the entire world then, to renew the world in this way, and not by rebuking, Lord of the powers.

And now, refresh Yourself within us, to know to ask You, to know by Your Spirit in order that You may fulfill.

Speak to the rain and to its great measure to go back to its place and to come on the earth only for the food of the people, food that grows with rain, with sun, with light and with the grace of the Holy Spirit, Who gives life over all and Who gives comfort over everything.

Speak to the swift wind not to destroy Your creature from the Romanian land, but to withdraw into its chambers instead, and when it comes out speak to it, let it come sweetly and comfortably to refresh and to speak about life, and to sing with its voice the song of Your love for those who love You, for Your coming on earth as word, Lord of the powers.

Speak with love to all the ghosts not to strike the Romanian land, but to protect it instead for the whisper of Your Holy Spirit, Which becomes word on the earth. Speak to everything to work with the measure of the blessing and of the comfort, and bring holy peace and light of Your light over the Romanian land.

We ask You for the Romanians and over the Romanians, so that the Romanian people may not have another god except You and to listen more and more and to come and learn to do Your will, and the Romanian people to be a holy nation and then a praised nation before You, from which they will learn the eternal life and the blessing of all the nations of the earth, which will cry seeing Your coming with glory, and giving You glory with its feast into the middle of the Romanian land, chosen by You in the beginning and now to work upon it the mystery of eternity of everything that was and is in You and not into this world, Lord of the powers.

[15] See the selection topic: „The Wedding of the Lamb", r.n.

In addition, Lord, come in us with the Holy Spirit of prayer, and through it we may be able to ask You earnestly for all that are spoken by You for the promise of the salvation. Cover with Your protection, with Your mercy and then with Your glory the Romanian country, and let Your saints and angels give to it from You, and always teach us to pray to You for it, and You to fulfill this. Amen, amen, amen."

Oh, children of goodness and prayer, may your heart for prayer be warm, for the heart does not need to have another work than the work which asks for God on earth, His will on earth as in heaven, and when your heart also works you for those who are to be fulfilled, keep it within Me and not within this world full of venom. I am always among you and I teach you not to be into the world, not to say in the world, but rather stay in Me, sons. It is not I that I need to struggle to have you, but rather you are to struggle for this. I only teach you My will in you, for the one who is not taught by God does not make God on earth, and he makes the devil instead, and I become upset with the man if he does this, and behold, each work calls for its reward.

The man has to become joy and to walk within My light, for otherwise he stays within the darkness in him. However, I am the Teacher with eternal life in the word and I set upon man the wisdom of life, and then the continuation of the sons of life, and for this entire fulfillment on the earth, the man has to listen to God.

However, sons of My word of life making, you should not stop walking in the light, for the life which is in the light is a life protected by angels and is always set on the way of life at any of its shaking if the man is humble. The man has to stay within great humility not to fall from God, for Adam fell from Me, if He was not able to become humble because of his falling. He got upset with Me when I saw that he did no longer listen to Me and then I set apart the paradise for Him, the house for life and for obedience in it. The mystery of obedience is the mystery of life, and woe to the man who listens to himself and cannot be as beautiful as God can, because I listen to the Father to be the beautiful One and for the man to receive from this mystery of life, which makes the man shine before Me and before the people. The one who listens to God on earth, that one is a beautiful man, and that one knows this work of obedience on earth, for the man, after he goes wrong, he has to listen. The one who goes wrong is the one who does not listen, but if he loves to be the beautiful one, he then comes to obedience on earth, for obedience is from God and its entire work means light.

Oh, My people, I stay into your midst with My mouth full of teaching for the sons of the people to take of My mouth and to learn to escape from perishing, to escape from disobedience. The one who keeps himself with all his things within the light, that one is a man with a clean heart from his own self and is a son of peace, because peace is not otherwise, and the man who stays in his inside, that one brings only war, for the devil hides in him and works through the hidden things of the man, because the devil loves the man's darkness.

Walk within the light, sons. It is good to be known and seen always, to be always clean within your heart and to be called God's sons. Be with a clean heart from you yourselves, and let it be full of God, because the darkness is from the man, sons. When Adam hid in his inner self in such a way that God was not able to know him, I called him out and I revealed to him his innermost side, but because he did not humble due to his innermost side, he became upset and did no longer love Me and then he held aloof in his heart far from My heart and loved his own things and not God's. This is how the man forsakes God, because the one who does not walk in the light he also does no longer loves the light but only the darkness, which makes a house to the devil in man.

Oh, My people, it is not well with the man to stay in his inside, for My light calls him outside when he does this, and it is very rare the man who humbles himself at My calling, which brings the man into the light just as I did with Adam. The man cannot keep himself from the things that are within him, and he does not know to believe this and then to look afterwards for the work of the light. However, I have come on earth as word, and I have prepared for Myself a holy and little garden, from which I have been working by the word and calling the man out of himself in order to teach him what obedience is, and that he may learn from Me to be gentle and humble in his heart, and in this way to pass from death to life, from the darkness that is in him to the outside light, from stubbornness to obedience, from haughtiness to humility and infancy, by these entire mysteries, which bring upon the man the life and the redemption of the creature.

And now, My gentle and humble spirit comforts your wound, Romania. Let My peace overflow upon you like a river, but seek, My country to have shepherds who may lead you to Me and not to themselves, for it is because of those who stand over you without My life in them, that you suffer now pain, My country. Wake up the one among your shepherds who is from Me, (The bishop John Irineu of Bistriţa, r.n.), and by who I testified fourteen years ago about a clean church on the earth, a church of New Jerusalem and a holy and saving nation from Me into your midst. Wake up the one among your shepherds, who is faithful and truthful for your salvation, and have him ask from the Father your reconciliation to God, My country. Bring him with his face to My spring and have him stand as your intercessor with Me, but wake up your spirit of faith and knowledge of My mysteries by which I work from your midst over the earth, My country. Amen.

I am in a feast with the day of the remembrance of the sealing of forty years of the little garden of My word, of the Holy of Holies of the Romania's churches, because all are being made up again, and those things that are old, behold, they pass with a great noise, and a holy country is being worked out, New Jerusalem on the Romanian land, and this name will be all over the earth: Romania, the country of the New Jerusalem[16], the haven of those who are saved. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, people of My word of today! I will come back again into My book, after you will lift up this day of feast to Me, and I will write Myself into the book, to give you advice from Me and work with advice, and be sons of obedience. Amen.

*

Behold, My people, I am your counselor, so that you may be a son of obedience, because if you have a counselor, then you also have obedience, and the one who is obedient is protected by angels, but no one is able to listen but only the one who believes that God and not the man has placed on the earth the spirit of obedience. Everything that is between heaven and earth, worked by My word, everything listens to God and to the justice of everything that happens, and when the justice of those who are wicked, and which are worked by man, seems to change, and this is made by the man's repentance, the repentance, which persuades God for the forgiveness against the man's wrongdoings, because the man is united then with God, and the wrongdoings one has done cannot reach to the man who is united with God, after he condemns the evil in him, forsaking and settling down in Me, being carried away then by the spirit of obedience, the spirit which carries the man on the path of the angels of life. That is why I always teach you, My people, to dwell in Me, not into this world, to love in Me, not into this world, because in the world there is no spirit of obedience to the protection from the angels upon you, and there is only the man and his darkness inside and outside of him.

The man does not like to be with God on the earth, because God is light, and everything that happens and everything that works is in the light, and the man is not used to be known and seen with those that are inside of him, if these do not take after God, but rather they take after the man and after the devil, who likes man's hiding, and by which the devil keeps going on between heaven and earth.

[16] See the selection topic: „Romania – The New Jerusalem – The New Canaan", r.n.

I taught the disciples how the man can belong to God, a son of the light, and then to be My disciple, with whom I may work much light upon the earth and all the Scriptures, which wait one after the other for the fulfillment that comes from God. Sons, the light is that which destroys those that are hidden from everywhere, which struggles through the man against the light, against the angels of the light, and I spoke to the disciples: «Walk in the light!», and I taught them to believe in Me so that they could listen to everything that I have been teaching them to fulfill.

Oh, sons, I also taught you and I always teach you your way with Me, and I keep the devil of the darkness away from you when it hears that I teach you to stay with your heart into your hand and not into your chest; to stay with those that are it in the light for the angels of light to serve you, the angels who serve those who stay in God, visible and known with everything that they do and feel.

Oh, My people, the man cannot be God's but only if he listens to Him, but the people do not know how to do this work. When I sent the disciples to the people, I told them: «He, who receives you, receives Me, and he who does not receive you, does not receive Me and the One Who has sent Me». (Matt: 10/40) I did not tell them to hide with the man in their selves, but I told them to walk in the light destroying the evil in man in a visible and known way, as I worked visibly and I was known by them, and not as Adam worked with Me, who took of the tree that was set aside and hid in disobedience. It is the most secret place, which the man hides from God in, when he forgets that there is no any secret place for My light.

Oh, My people, the one who hides has not got a clean heart. The hiding, when the man lets himself be carried away by his unknown thought, as he says, the angels of the darkness see his deed and serve it, and then it blames the man before God. However, the light of the man keeps the Lord and His angels close to the man, because the man with a clean heart always becomes visible and known because he has a spirit loving of people, and such a spirit does not stays in itself and such a man does not do anything that has to be hidden, but rather he becomes light by all those that are pleasant and worked by him, for him and for his fellowmen. The one, who is hidden within himself, when I call him out of himself, gets upset with Me as Adam did, but the one who stays within the light rejoices when I bring him before Me, as Lazarus did when I called him out of the tomb, for he was in the spirit of obedience loving the mystery of light.

Lazarus came out of the tomb at My word, My people. The one who is alive in his body does not see and that is why he does not listen; he does not see, and that is why he does not believe and that is why he loves himself.

Oh, it is not good for the man to stay inside of him, because then he must call the Lord outside as the Lord called Lazarus out of the tomb, and the man gets upset with God when He calls him out, like Adam who got angry when he hid inside of him and in the woman, and then he hid behind the woman when I called him.

Oh, My people, I teach you son, to be My disciple, to have someone to work with over people for the way of their light to Me. I cannot work without disciples, but I need to have a people only for Me, to listen to Me and by the spirit of obedience, to be able to be again light on the earth. I spoke to the disciples: «He who does not leave father and mother, or spouse and children, of lands and ranks, or friends and riches and he himself for My sake, cannot be My disciple», (See also Matt: 19/29), for all these pull the man back from Me and then teach him disobedience after that. However, you, My people, should love life, you should love obedience to be protected from fallings and to be My disciple all the time, so that the spirit of darkness may not have enough time to take your mind outside from the fear of God and from the spirit of disobedience, because through all these I have you as Mine and I have you by the spirit of the zeal full of love for God, the One Who made the heaven and the earth, and behold, they work out their renewal again. Amen.

I exhort you to keep yourself beautifully before the angels of light, because I set a law, good in everything that I made, My people. Be the sons of light, sons, for I want to make you used to get up in the morning and not to go to sleep late after it gets dark. It is better to work in the daytime, sons, lest you may not get used to work in the nighttime. Getting up in the morning brings you to the meeting of the light, lest it may not come upon you while you are sleeping, and this work will teach you how to stand before Me for My coming with My morning. If someone calls you out at the gate in the morning, it is not beautiful for you all not to be awake, but it is good for you to be one, and this way you will live one in another for those that are alive and brotherly. Go to sleep when it gets dark well, and wake up on the morning at the sunrise, sons, to be the sons of the eternal morning. Read in the Scriptures what is pleasant to the Lord, and this is what you are to do all the time, so that you may accomplish all the things written into the Scriptures, by which I have been advising the man to life.

Let your hands make many crosses[17] over your body and over all that you have and use, sons. Let your feet carry your body in the light towards all My wills with you, and yours with Me, and always to announce peace to you, and you should also leave your hearts in Me and in all those that are Mine, so that you may be able to have the spirit and the work of obedience, which does not leave you to perish from the way of the angels of light.

Behold, sons, I have worked with great mercy for the little soul that has been lifted up now from among the people, because he knew well about My coming down to you, and the spirit of haughtiness in him is lifting him up with judgment and not with wisdom upon My work with you, against My peace among you. The one who knows Me and hears My coming and is not afraid to receive it and to take the spirit of obedience from it for his meeting with Me, that one comes to oppose Me, for the man does not listen to God, as Lazarus did when I called him out of the tomb and when his soul also listened to him, not only his body, because the body is carried by the soul. However, the man always stays in his self and does not answer to Me, because he is great on the earth and forgets about My will in him. However, My mercy is great when I am compassionate on man, and I have sought not to leave that little soul to perish in disobedience, in unfulfillment and always, always within the spirit of man. My work with you is a high mountain, sons, and he who tries to strike against this mountain is smashed against it, because I protect you from the heaven and from the earth by those who are faithful to My descending and by those in whom I fulfill Myself. I did not want this little soul to be caught by the coming of My glory standing with his back towards My word of today and towards its fulfillment. I do not work the man's departure from Me, and from this pains from him to Me, but I do not want to leave the man to get lost by his ignorance of God too, because the man who becomes great on earth, forgets about the spirit of humility of his heart, the spirit which protects the man on the earth. Now, I ask you to take care before Me of the perseverance for the salvation of his soul, to do him good, now when he sees how God is with you. However, he is wounded now, because he did not want that his stop towards Me to be at the gate marked by Me on the earth and which guards the little garden of My word. However, I will heal him from this wound, by the repentance of those in his house, who do not know to love Me for My coming down to you as word of resurrection and teaching for the man's obedience to God. However, you should seek to know well the work of disciples, to be useful to Me for the salvation of many who do not know to become saviors from near Me and not from near the world for the man. Amen.

[17] See the selection topic: „About the graven image and the sign of the cross", r.n.

I have been exhorting you to stay more enveloped within the spirit of obedience, sons. You should not replace the love for Me with some other love, because here it is how easy the man slips away, who thinks from his own self and not being afraid of himself! I will always teach you, and I will teach you warmly, because My wisdom is great when the man loves it within him, and behold, the word of My teaching is among you.

Oh, My people, do always the work of My word, and be diligent to listen to Me and to love Me and you will be the light from heaven on to the earth, and you will be the fruit of obedience and you will be My sweet joy, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

08/22-07-2005

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

With My great and glorified godly power, I strengthen the gates of My word and I come into the book with a feast and I glorify Myself before you, My people. There is great comfort on Me because I have how to speak on the earth, and I have no other comfort.

The Father and Me, together with all the saints and angels, come down in the feast and bring You the power of heavenly victory on earth, My people. Oh, there is only man on the earth, but God is with you and teaches you how to be with Him, and He always exhorts you, always, to take on you the law of the heavenly law and to listen to it to be comforted into your midst, for the world does no longer let Me work with My good things, with My rest on earth; it does not let Me come with the love of the heaven, with the joy for the saints on earth, and My saints wait with Me for the glory of their works, the inheritance of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, love that they worked on and labored and waited for, My people.

There is a feast of saints, and I have with Me My prophet Elijah, and he has got the zeal for My coming with the saints on earth after two thousand years after My glorified appearance from the Father, perfect Man and God among people, calling them with longing to the glory of My life, which I wanted and want to give to the man as his life and salvation from the corruptibility to which he has been drawn for seven thousand years. The Holy Spirit is My mouth and I have put Him in the mouth of My prophets all the time, and I called the man from death to life, because I have had no other work except the making of the man in My image and after My likeness, after I made Adam in the beginning, and after he pulled back from Me and left Me without any comfort and he left Me sighing after the man; he left Me working hard at the making of the man who comes out of the man to have somewhere to bow My head, to have a man, in whom I may find My rest, My day of rest, which I have asked the man not to forget about and to remember it and to honor it, to remember himself and to honor his life from Me in him, for the Lord to able to have rest and a day of rest, for the Lord to be able to have a house in man, because I made the man for My rest in him.

Oh, My people, My Spirit full of longing after the man, I have always put My word into the mouth of My prophets, and My Spirit has cried in their mouth and in their speaking, and their joy has been like that of Mine, because the man has not listened to My prophets, he has not pulled back from him to give himself back to Me and to comfort My wound and its pain from the man's departure from Me. I have been crying all the time and sighing with longing after the man, and My prophets gave Me speech on the earth to bring the man together in Me and to clarify to him the law of the heavenly love, the calling of the heaven, which sighing, it calls the man to the obedience from where he fell, to the repentance for his sin, to his rest and Mine, to the victory against the spirit opposing to God and to the man, for the man made by God is the beautiful man, just as I made the man, but his opposition gave life in him to the spirit opposing to God.

It is a feast of calling of the man to Me. It is the spirit of the prophet Elijah over the earth, because My mouth speaks through the voice of My prophets, and you, My people, should learn to pray, you should always learn and you should pray always, because all that is to come from God and to remain as joy on the holy land will be fulfilled only by your prayer, only by My Spirit, Who becomes speech by those whom I make them into the power of the fulfilling of the faith for the kingdom of the heavens on earth and over the man, as I worked and could speak by the mouths of My prophets. Amen, amen, amen.

– I am Your calling full of godly zeal, Lord. I suffered from the life of Your mercy as long as I lived among the people who departed from Your love for the man. I sighed painfully and I longed with zeal for Your love in man and I waited for the people of Israel to wake up and to come back to life for You and not for him, for the man without God in him is devil, he is God's adversary, Lord Creator. Oh, good Lord, my zeal is like the consuming fire to tell the man that he cannot serve two masters as he has thought for seven thousand years. You came on earth and became Man, praised Lord, and You spoke to the man that he cannot serve two masters and even now he does not believe that it is not possible this way. However, I call to the man as I called when I lived within My body seen among the people, for My spirit was longing with burning in Your Spirit and it hurt me just as it hurt You because of Your losing the man. I am calling out the man now, and I am praising the day of My coming within those that are not seen, and by calling to the man, I am giving praise to my day from You. I am calling out to the man because I am mourning for Your mourning, and I am mourning just as I was then, and I am going on earth with mourning and cleansing Your earth from the man's work in order to exhort the man to Your Spirit, Who calls him from You, because the man is himself, and You are forgotten by the man, and I tell the man that he cannot serve two masters; both to his own self and to you; both to the death and to the life. The man cannot make peace between these two services in him, because they abolish one another, and this division cannot be brought to an end, until the man chooses the One from Whom he has got his life in him. Amen.

My spirit is full of pain for you, people who wander away without comfort, for you do not know what life and its comfort is, and neither do you want to hear the Lord, Who becomes word in the midst of those who are called, chosen and faithful to Him, to His glory over the earth, for the Lord made the heaven, the earth and the man, and the people forgot and became their own masters over themselves, forsaking the Lord's will for their will on earth. This is how the Lord has been calling after the man in all the time by His prophets from among the people, and the people have been taking care of their own lusts, of their own will broken from the Lord's wills.

Oh, people, the life that keeps you is not from you, but it is from the Lord of life. How comes that you do not get up from unbelief, from your indifference, from your wandering away full of you and without any fear of God, Who made the heaven and the earth His throne and footstool and not yours?

Oh, people without God on earth, the Lord calls you with pain, and His pain comes down upon you with pains, in order to call you, to turn you back to Him, and in this way you may give your hearts to Him, to make them into His house on earth, but your works remain in you and around you and have covered you completely. The saints look at you and do no longer find a beautiful man among you, a man pleased to God, because the people cannot serve two masters.

Oh, do not be afraid to hear and to love the law of God's love. Do not be afraid to serve the Lord instead of serving you, because you have established yourselves as your own masters and you do no longer have God, even if you know about Him believing in Him. Come back to be His will, so that He may be your Master. Come and learn to know how to work out this way, because without the Spirit of God upon you, by those that are chosen by Him for His Spirit, you do not find the life and the way to it.

Oh, people, you have forgotten the mystery of life and you are very sinful. Take a good look at Adam, the one who chose himself by putting God away from him, because disobedience and the self takes from the man all his walking from God on earth, and the man loses the earnings of his life; he loses the path with the Lord's will on it, the one with the voice of the Lord on it and with obedience to Him, which is your life. The Lord has been teaching you how to give your life in order to be blessed and praised by Him on His coming of this time. He will tell those who believe in Him, listen to Him and love Him on earth: «Come, blessed of My Father and inherit the kingdom of life! Receive the wages of obedience, for I was weak and naked, hungry and thirsty, in troubles because I was oppressed by those who were unfaithful, a stranger and without a home, and you gave Me comfort, bread and water, and you took good care of Me and visited Me while in trouble and in hard times, and you also gave Me warmth and took Me in your house, for whomever you did this, to My little ones who submitted to Me, you did not do to them but rather to Me». (See Matt: 25/35-37)

In the time of the prophets, who were neglected by all the people, there also were people with great hearts among them who were serving the Lord's servants, those who were prophesying the word of the Lord for the returning of the people from their wandering away from God, and those who were helping the prophets were the blessed ones of the Lord. However, the people do not know who are those of the Lord in order to do them good and not to those that take after them in trespasses, and behold, the people do not know what God is and what man is.

Oh, people, the Lord has come on earth and He is crying upon you with His Holy Spirit, to give you the wisdom of life.

Oh, country of the Lord, the Lord has come back to you, because He remembered His making you from the beginning of creation and then that from His birth among people. Oh, Romanian country, the Lord has made you into the house of His coming, and He cleanses you from iniquity to be beautiful and clean. Open your ear and give year to His word, for I am the prophet of His second coming and I want to overshadow you with mercy, because my zeal for God comes with power over the entire earth to prepare then on it the glory of the Lord and its rest, for the people will no longer be able to serve two masters: both themselves and the Lord.

Oh, you, dear country, country called Romanian country, sit down to listen to the Lord, your God, and become His will, because you have into your midst the voice of His love, which makes you the land of His wedding, the land of those who are saved, the haven of those who are protected by the Lord, but call Him with your prayer to become your Master, so that you may not serve two masters, but to serve the Lord your God instead and to take the ruler of this age out of you, who has nothing in God.

Moreover, You, Lord of those who call You with longing, hear the voice of those who ask for You and protect the Romanian country and become its haven, and then make it the haven of those who are saved. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, Elijah[18] the prophet became word in My book. Learn well the love of God, My people. See how you read in the Scriptures about the work of those who are blessed by My Father at My coming with the reward for everyone's work. Get used no to live for you, but to live for the Lord, and give great and sweet help to those who serve the Lord with zeal and with great work for the salvation of many. My love is beautiful; it is warm; it is heavenly and you should take an example from it to love, not from you, My people son, for I am the One Who you should totally listen to, to be able to turn the man back into the happiness from which he fell, My people. I exhort you with longing to seek to perceive the work and the mystery of God's obedience and the life with a blessing in it, for I want to glorify you for Me and not for you, My people. I want you to be faithful to Me, and you should never say when you serve your brother that you serve him, because all these that you do you do for Me so that I may give you the reward, for I am with the reward, and I will give you the reward according to your ministry, according to your heart and love. You should serve Me in the one who is weak, because I have taught you to serve those who are Mine, those who come to settle down to be small under My hand, under My glory, which glorifies them. Learn this love, My people, for the longing of love consumes Me and I want to feel you that you long after the love for Me and not for you, and I want to see you enveloped within this comfort to be happy, both you and I, and from this power to be able to share spirit of repentance over people, and then spirit of love, which does not do any harm, but only love, which gives birth to the world again, love which comprises within it the new heaven and the new earth[19] and every man who will come up to life and to the haven of the comfort of those who are saved, My people.

Oh, I long for you, child of the heavenly love, which is not biased, but rather refreshing, love which offers the man the way, which will be shown over the earth so that those who are saved to be able to walk on it, and in that way we should be able to find the peace of the work of the man's salvation and to be the haven of those who are saved, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

20-07/02-08-2005

The feast of the saint martyr and healer Pantelimon[20] (Panteleimon)

I strengthen the path of My coming to you, My people, for you are the house of My coming and I go with the word from you over the earth and glorify Myself while coming, even if I am, even if I am not waited to come, but the Scriptures of this time wait for their fulfillment, as the saints also wait for them asking them to come over the earth for My glory through those they come once with Me and for the joy of the prophets who prophesied about this time, and then the endless age for those who have loved the heaven on earth and My face and glory with them.

Oh, My people, I come down to the well of the Holy Spirit, I come down to you to glorify Myself in the word, for I have the saints with Me, for their joy is My word, My heavenly table in your midst, and your word is near Mine, for you are within your body, and I lay the table with you, and with you I can work out this fulfillment, which Israel's fathers saw ahead of time, and all the prophets and the saints and all the world of the bodiless angels, and who desire with an unquenchable longing after the heavenly bodies on earth, so that they may fulfill by those, who love My glory, the Scriptures of the age of the kingdom of the saints, My people. I, the Lord, prepare you for great holiness. I always prepare you and I exhort you always by those who have from Me over you the work of exhortation, and I always set you at the table of My glory and I feed you with My coming, for this means My word upon you, and you should stay within the spirit of My word, for the Holy Spirit is this word, and I promised that He would come even in the time when I did not give Myself with My body as the reward for the redemption of the eternal life of the man lost from the Father and from Me. My Father and I have been crying after We lost our rest, after the man crushed it for Us and after he pulled himself out from Us. We remained crying and without a house, sighing after the man with mercy and with longing in him after God's rest, and the saints and the martyrs felt Our pain, and they had always heard Our painful sighing, and they always preached to the world that God is the glory which the man lost, the one that was crushed under the man, and the saints made room for Our dwelling in them, a dwelling place and rest in them, and Our victory for those who forgot and forget about Us, those Who made the light, the heaven, the earth and the man, by the wisdom of the council, My people.

[18] See the selection topic: „Enoch and Elijah", r.n.

[19] See the selection topic: „The heaven – the throne, the earth – the footstool: the man deified", r.n.

[20] The holy, glorious and right-victorious Greatmartyr Panteleimon (born Pantaleon) the Unmercenary Healer was martyred under the reign of Emperor Maximian (ca. 305 A.D.).

Behold, I am with you in a feast of word, and the saints and all the heavenly hosts have come together at the well of the Holy Spirit, which has upon it the healer Pantelimon, who is set by Us, so that he may work with the grace of the Holy Spirit and with his holy gift of healer, power upon you, spirit of holiness, which heals in man any weakness and sets in its place the glory of My heavenly works, to be given on earth, for I want to set on earth the glory of My coming and its works, My people, but you should love this obedience, and all the time you should combine the moving of your body with the moving of My body, for we all are united in one single body to work on earth all those that wait to be for the rest of the saints with you, for no one knows you on earth more than My saints, who know about this time and about the sons of God, to whom the saints will give the power to work over the earth the glory of My coming with them, and the rest of everything that was in the beginning the comfort of God, the Creator. Amen, amen, amen.

– In the line of the Holy Spirit of the word of Your coming, Lord of the saints, I, the martyr Pantelimon, confess You from the midst of Your people of today, because You are our rest in heaven as You were on earth after You embraced us within Your glory, invisible by the human eyes, but working before the people by the power of the signs of the Holy Spirit, the Leader of those who embrace You with their being, becoming one body with You before those who are unfaithful, who did not know of God in heaven and on earth; they do not know because of the spirit of the haughtiness, which fell upon people once with the pain given to You by the man built by You, when after he did not listen to You, he alienated You from him and wandered away from You, and You wandering away from him, too. This is the pain of Your saints, who were touched by the heat of the Holy Spirit, Who announces Himself among the people by Your bearers, and in Whom You could rise and appear, because without preaching the people cannot come back to God, Who is the life and the light of the people, Lord.

In my day of celebration among the saints, I am also preaching about You to the people, and I am telling them that the Scriptures of Your coming have come down on earth with the saints in tens of thousands, and from the host of the holy martyrs I pray to You to touch the eyes of the unbelievers and remove with Your hand the fog from their eyes and to make them see Your glory and to touch their hearts by this smooth breeze of the Holy Spirit, Who becomes Your mouth over the earth into the midst of Your people of Romanians, who believed by Your gift that You have come to work, for the people have destroyed Your law that is upon them, Lord.

Oh, people of gentle whisper, which enshrouds you within it for the Lord's protection! Oh, people of the sons of the Lord, you should not forget about the entire creature, which has been waiting for this Scripture, and you should set down with all your power, which you have always received from the Lord, to do only His works over the earth, only His glory, and to be as good as the Son of the Father of our God, Who has always listened to His Father and His mother in heaven and on earth, on earth and in heaven, teaching all the faithful people not to have anything and anyone else but only God and the obedience to Him, so that the Lord may be able to have you as disciples for His works. Look into my life and see who I listened to, who I spent time with, how I broke off with the glory of the world and of those who had kept Me within their slavery and how I had got then God as Father and the Holy Spirit, the Teacher, Who dwells within the saints for the birth of the saints. I teach you to know your way and to walk on it, and not to take it easy to walk in it, because in it you cannot walk because of your sake, but one walks in the word of God, not violated by anything, to be disciples of the Son of God, Who listens to the Father and Who does nothing without Him, for otherwise He would not be the God of everything given to Him as work from the Father. Oh, the Father is aggrieved when He sees that you do not know yet perfectly the walking on the way without shaking, the way full of angels and saints, who are your father and mother, brothers and country and your people. The Lord waits for you to be perfect disciples, who do not look back after He took you out of death and made you His to belong to the light, to the life, which is only a forward way and without any step backwards, for the Lord spoke the word to you that only Abraham would remain His kingdom, because he remained alone only before God, and his eyes had the Holy Spirit within them, and he loved Him and he knew Him with the entire power of his steadfast faith, because Abraham was the one who fulfilled God in him, loving Him with his entire heart, with his entire mind, with his entire soul and power, not looking back, and he remained the living one in whom all those, who had the Lord rest within them, made their dwelling, just like Abraham, who knew to listen and then to believe.

Oh, people waited by the saints, obedience comes first and then the faith and its power, for the faith is not by sight, but by the power in the Holy Spirit, Who knows how to be able to work in man, when the man has obedience for faith.

Oh, small people, all the saints are looking at you, and in fact they always look at you. You should also look at them and listen to the Lord and you should stay only with Him, for there is no other blessed place for you than that which belongs to the Lord and to you, and you should take great care of the land of His blessings, and you should stay in His courts and do His works in them, so that the blessings of the heaven may flow from the Lord and power for obedience and for faith, and again, power to see His word and its fulfillment into your midst, and again, wisdom for these works and visions, for the Lord has into your midst power ready to become working upon you, but pray to have from the Lord the spirit of obedience and of knowledge, the Spirit of Christ, Who listens to the Father, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter of the Lord, with Which you comfort the Lord with, people of the mystery of the Lord's coming.

We, the saints of the heaven, who loved the Lord more than our power, this is what we ordain to you, people of the heavenly mysteries, and you should seek to know them and then to be able to work them so that the Lord to find you always, always doing so, and to work through you for all the creature, that it may come down on earth what was in the beginning when the Lord was in man by the humility of the man. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, dear saints, who glorified My love for which you were My loved ones! Persevere with the power of the heavenly love and give to My people the power of the Holy Spirit in Whom you lived putting to shame those without God on earth. I command you, to live on earth with love in the midst of My people, to help it always on the way to know this way, as you also knew it by leaving off everything that is not on it: the world, the glory in it, the parents and brothers, your desires and your natural wisdom, because this is how you were able to put away everything that was strange of My way with the saints on it, and who distinguish themselves for God. Amen.

Oh, My people, I would teach you more deeply, and I always look at you together with My saints to be able to ask you as much as I need for My power in you, by which you may be able to serve Me for the laying down on earth of the deepest mysteries which stay in Me to come out and to be fulfilled on earth, for the time is coming to be only I and you, to be able to work for the good of the man, and I wait for you to be only with Me, My people, and nothing on earth and in man may be able to draw you any moment from the way of My coming to you for My glory, which waits to overcome the world, and for your glory that is close to Mine by your obedience, by your dwelling near Me and in Me always, and then by your faith, which is working from obedience, because the faith of the righteous one can do much, by obedience with light, for I always walk through the Father and not through Me, but you should not understand My walking and My wisdom by your own wisdom, but you rather need to have understanding from the Holy Spirit, and by His order with work into your midst, looking in Me to see how I become the Father's will to give Myself as an example to you and thus we may be able to work likewise and to become the haven of those who save themselves, and who will see the way to be able to come on it and to know its mystery, its power and its comfort, My people, Amen, amen, amen.

27-07/09-08-2005

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I come down as word of feast into your midst, My new people. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I always bring with Me the word of renewal for everything, when I come to you, so that you may be refreshed with every passing day more and more after My image, until you are able to see Me fully that I was and that I am into your midst, covering My face, for My mystery is great, My people, but yours is also great since I, the Lord, work for the new making of everything, and you are the one who believe Me within My works and make room within you for the path of the word of My coming, by which I glorify Myself with the glory that I have had from the Father before the foundation of the world, when I was speaking by the Spirit of the Father, Who was in Me, and when all things were being made and then were giving being to heaven, to earth and waters, and then everything in them and among them and then over them. Amen.

I made into your midst the way of My coming and the mystery of the new making of the world, My people, and you should not live as on earth after I have come with My coming in the end of the time and after I have separated you from the world and after I have settled in you with the glory that I had from the Father before I founded the world. This mystery was the word, My people, and the Father has been well pleased with it in Me in the beginning and in the end, before the world started to be in the beginning, and again, before He is going to make it now, in the end. Amen.

Oh, My people, what great, what a great word I have always spoken upon you when I have always told you to take great care of the path of My coming to you and to strengthen it by all that I ask you, so that I may exhort you on it by the word, lest you may go wrong or to do something else or not work like Me, because I have received My work only from the Father and that is why the Father is in Me, and I am within Him, and that is why I am His Son, and that is why He confesses Me as His beloved Son, by Whom everything was done.

Two thousand years ago, while He was glorifying in Me with the glory which I had from Him before the foundation of the world, He was confessing Me as His son to the strengthening of My sending from Him to the people to bring the kingdom of the heavens on earth, which the man, built by My hand, crushed it in a moment, after I made him and set him to have dominion over the earth, as one made by God and not by man, as the man has been made since then and by this time and on whom he himself rules first of all, because the man has withdrawn from God so that God may not rule over him, so that the man may no longer be God's son, as I am, and behold, the earth has been filled far and wide with the sons of men, who do not listen to God and out of which, I, the Lord, hardly, very hardly, have been able to reach out My hand to take and to give birth from heaven, from Me and from the Father, to a man, here and there, so that I may call him God's man among people, and to work with him My work from the Father, as God should be on earth with the man in a heavenly and not in a humanly work as it is high and low on earth.

Two thousand years ago, Father told Me to take with Me the three disciples from among the disciples to show them His glory and My glory in them. I went up into the mountain, taking Peter, James and John along, and the Father carried them from glory to glory, so that they could confess then the Son of the Father Sabaoth, as the Son Who came down on earth. Up in the mountain, the mystery of the Father Who became word opened their eyes to those things that are not seen, and they saw My glory, invisible to the men, and they saw the invisible world, and they saw Moses and Elijah with Me, the living ones speaking with Me about My death and resurrection, and they saw the true light and the heavenly Spirit and strengthened themselves in the true faith worshipping God, the One in His Trinity: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, because Father told them: «He is My beloved son, in Whom I am well pleased», and the Holy Spirit became a great light when the Father spoke through Him the word of the glory of His Son, a glory with its appearance to the strengthening of the faith of My disciples, by the Father's confession upon Me within the boundless mystery of the Holy Spirit, working from the Father and from Me, the Son.

Oh, My people, if I, the Son of the Father, would have not known that day in which the Father revealed My glory to be seen by My disciples close to the mysteries hard to perceive and believe, how would I have been able to let My disciples know about that day and to be to their joy within amazement. Behold, sons, what the Father know, also the Son know, for the Father does not work anything without Me, and I do not work anything without Father either, and We always know one in the other, and We know before the foundation of the world, for this is what the Holy Spirit works. Behold the saints from the heaven who were the fathers of My disciples on earth! Behold, how they knew on the sight of the Holy Spirit in their times about those that are today on earth, announcing them at that time! Many prophets and saints, before and after My appearance as Man among men, preached about the times of nowadays, about the wickedness and the people's wandering away, but they also prophesied about the sons of God, Who let themselves be chosen and separated from the world to be My disciples and to be able to work with them My glory for its work and revelation, as their faith and obedience are being given to Me to work with them the fulfillment of those that are written to be worked and then to be.

Oh, My people, again I, as a Teacher Who has come from the Father, teach you the mystery of the son of God. A son of God on earth is the one who listens to God, the Son, just as I listened to the Father, Who has sent Me to be the light of the world, and to do the same to those who set aside for God from among people. However, My people, you should get used every moment and more perfectly to this wonderful work among all the works of the new making of the world, of everything that was not spoiled in the beginning by man's disobedience. I have into your midst the spirit of discovery of those who come from Me to be worked, and I whispered to you that it is not good for the man to be good, but it is correct for the man to be right, first before the Lord and then before the man. The one, who is made by God, that one works from God and within God's consent before all those who are like him.

Oh, sons, you shall not work anything without My approval. You shall do nothing evil or good without being it made known to you by those that are together with you, because those who call themselves Mine in the world, work everything upon them and upon others only without God. Learn, My people, learn how to be God's son and take from Him what you work, to be His good disciple. Amen. Learn, My people, to know what the work of a disciple with a teacher means, because I, your Teacher, receive from the Father what I speak and work, and I do only God's work and not Mine, «because I do not do My will but the will of the Father, Who has sent Me», as I said when I came from the Father, a Man Who became flesh among people, to work on earth the kingdom of God and the man to see it and to come towards it and to be born for it, as I have taken and set you to learn and to learn again the work of the birth from above, and to stay within it on earth to be God's sons, and to take after God and not after the people who do not listen to anyone but only to themselves, for they have noting in them as far as God's kingdom concerns, which has on earth sons obedient to God. Amen.

Learn, sons, learn, for I have among you the spirit of love through the spirit of revelation working from Me towards you. Live a significant life every moment, receiving from God your whole work, your whole spirit. Otherwise, you will receive the reward of those that you work on your behalf and not for the Lord's sake. I have received work and word only from the Father, and My Spirit is His dwelling place, and I had nothing but the Father and those that are given to Me by the Father, and for whom My Father has taught Me to pray so that He may give to them, and for the world and for those who were doing their own things and those of the world I was not praying. I was giving Myself as an example to follow for My disciples and I was teaching them not to stumble against Me, because I was among them, but I was God and I was working as God and not like man, and I was carrying the spirit of wisdom from glory to glory to those things which they had to do and to work like some loving and obedient disciples, in My image and after My likeness.

Oh, My people, you should come together for the praise and for the blessing for God, your Creator, because today is that day of feast, when My disciples passed together with Me in one moment into My things that are not seen, so that afterwards I may strengthen more and far and wide the work of their confession about Me, the Son of God, the son obedient to My Father.

Oh, sons, your obedience should be that of a child, and everything that you work for Me should be the work of a son, for you are written by angels, some of you, and yet some other of you are written by yourselves before Me with the name of God's sons and not of the sons of your parents after the flesh. This mystery has to be well understood by those who come with the work of a son before Me, because if it is understood according to the human wisdom, you cannot pass from body into spirit, you cannot be My disciples; however, I sacrifice Myself much for you and I work much, much, so that I may not lose you. I walk within a deep and sober sigh into your steps to exhort you to the sonship obedience, sons, for within these fifty years of My word, now, in the end of the time, I have been teaching the one who wants to have the work of a son before Me on My way to man, to teach the one who wants to get used to the teaching of My kingdom with him and upon him, his birth from heaven, and I to be his kingdom, the One Who listens to the Father, teaching those who want Me to be sons and to be righteous with God, for the man does not learn the obedience of a son from the people, but the man learns it only with God. Amen.

Sons, I come back into the book, but now let us give glory and blessing to My feast with My disciples of that time and those that were Mine before them, when the Father revealed Me to them as His beloved Son among those who are alive and who are from heaven.

I bless the works of a holy adornment of the garden of the meeting, to make you sure, My people, that I work into your midst by the spirit of the revelation of all those that come from Me to be put to work. Sons, be the householder of a gentle and good taste, with a spirit of the son before Me, and let your little hands and bodies be those of My angels, who are able to work in you by your gentle and humble spirit like Mine, the One served by the angels, because this is what I have taught those that are Mine, who do the works of the Lord with the obedience of a son, like little and tiny children, who have God as their Father. Be My little sons and be righteous with God, sons, to be able to dwell within you and to appear to the world with My right work in you, with My work from the sons, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

And again, My people, if each one of us, We to you, and you to Us, have come for a day of feast and glory of My image and word, which confesses the work of My glory, in such a way that we may come down into the book again with the wisdom of the renewal of everything, of the transformation in glory; a glory, which cannot be seen by the one who does not understand and cannot work enough for the birth from above and of everything, that is the new birth of the world, My people.

The man does not know on earth who is and how My people is and how those called God's sons are, the sons of glory, who see God's glory. In the time of My body among people I often told those who easily believed into My glory which came down in the image of a man on earth, and speaking with them about My coming, I was telling them that I was Messiah, about Whom it was written to come, and he who had the dough of a sonship faith knew Me because of My confession and believed that it was so, and then he preached that way and worked that way, with the faith and the work of a son, for they were taking their work from Me and sharing My glory, My coming, and they became glory among people pulling themselves out from the world and from themselves and giving themselves to Me for the confession of My glory in them, a glory which testified about them as God's sons. Oh, this working name in man is great, My people, and in order for the world to know this it has to see the work of the sons of God, their likeness after Me, the confession of the One of Whom they were born again, for I came down from heaven to give birth to the world, to give birth to the one who has the gift to believe in Me and to work like Me and for Me, and to live among people in My image and after My likeness and not as he was by that time among people by his living, by his behavior and by his fruit.

Oh, My people, it is written into the Scriptures that the living ones will be those who are being born of My coming on earth, that from two thousand years ago and that after two thousand years when, behold, I come from the Father to the people to give birth to the sons for My glory. It is not for their glory that I give birth to the sons now, when I have come with the Scriptures for the renewal of everything, for woe to those who have got glory on earth, glory like that of men's and not like Mine!

Behold, sons, you bring before Me a memorial of forty days for the little soul that I lifted up from the earth from among the sons of the earthly glory, which passes away like grass. I have among you the spirit of My love, which reveals to you those that are not seen. Oh, this little soul taken up from the earth is aggrieved, and I struggle among you, those who are the sons of the obedience from above to give him the peace among those who see My glory from the heaven and not from the earth, a glory that is not seen with human eyes, but with heavenly eyes, full of faith in those that are and are not seen in heaven and on earth. I want to pull out from his soul all the sufferance and I said that by the repentance and by the obedience of those in his house, I would comfort him. However, behold no one on earth, being alien to God and to His glory from above and from below, is able to believe and to follow the glory, which will have its sons in it soon, soon on earth. I ask you to take care of him, and with the love and with the obedience of a son to give him to Me, so that he may no longer belong to those who make his soul suffer by their wandering away from God, by their not loving the eternal life which is in God and not in this world. I want to set him among those that are born from above even if he, on earth, by his disobedience and by the spirit of the empty glory which has dominion over the man on earth, has wandered far away from the light which comprises within it all those that are wise, who know not to make use of this world, while they are kept within it. Behold, the one who gave him birth after the flesh cannot love this little soul for heaven either, who has been waiting from the earth for his tear to be wiped out, which he remained with after his soul was released from his body.

My Spirit, the Spirit of those that are not seen, reveals Himself among you, and then He asks you to work with a sonship work and obedience for the establishing among those that are born from above of this little and painful soul, whom I took out from near the work of the deceiving and lying spirit of the one that was called his life partner. I do not want to touch this emptiness of wandered and wondering away spirit carried by her self-sick mind, but I want to take him out of the pain which he has received, and to be released from the spirit opposing to God, who still works against its soul, which I, the Lord, keep it under My protection by the angels. He has not got a pleasant fruit to God as a result of his fleshly life, and we have to struggle for his peace, and I will struggle, obedient children; I will fight through the angels and through you by your love and obedience of sons before Me, for the empty glory, which is on earth upon man, is blaming and it blames the man from behind him, and the unfaith, the opposition and the denial of God, after the Lord reveals Himself to the man, are sins, which then press with much sighing on the soul of the one who has loved the world.

I have got the son who has followed Me from this people, and I, the Lord, has the duty to keep My promise that I will work for the salvation of this people, because wherever I cannot work with the Holy Spirit, I work with fire, and My promise stands against any disobedience of the man, who, being called to the love of God and for the people of God, is being pulled back by his own lust and is deceived by it to the snare that works through the tools of the spirit opposing to God, that is the spirit of the darkness of this age that wants to be greater than God on man. Now, if I have pulled this little soul from this snare which keeps the man in bondage in such a way that he cannot escape to come to Me, I, the Lord, will go with the victory of the salvation of this little soul, and I will work through you, children who love with a people loving spirit, with the spirit of the wisdom of the love from above. I will exhort you, for all the peace of this little soul, which is still crying, and soon I will write it among those that are born of Me, from above, fore great is My work among you, a work which prevails against the devil, which became on earth the father of those who do, with our without knowledge, the devilish works of the darkness of the ruler of this passing age. This is how, I, the Lord, know to be good, but I do this by righteousness, and I teach you all to stand strong against the devil, to keep him away, sons, by your living close to Me, because there is no way for you to do some good to the soul of the man but only from near Me, sons. Amen.

I also bless now the memorial of the other little soul, which is with Me, and for which you, sons, bring to Me his day of union with those from the heaven. I comfort him with everything you bring for his memorial. I comfort him, among those who are working from heaven, but the comfort in heaven is something else and it is worked within the sonship obedience of those who are born from above on earth, and who become then in My image and after My likeness for the salvation of many, for the salvation of those who wait for the great resurrection, the victorious one, because among those who are alive like God on earth, there will come up into view those who wait for the falling of the curtain, which separates the two worlds and then to be a kingdom of God on earth, one flock and one Shepherd, to the comfort of those who wait from the earth for the sons of God as their saviors, who are like God and who will see the Lord, being comprised within His glory. Amen.

Oh, My people, the heaven waits to see you brave, because the time calls for this. Sit down, sons, under the spirit of the teaching from above, and learn to live and to work like Me, moment by moment, for I have into your midst, the spirit of the revelation, My Spirit, Who always, always breaks apart from Mine and is shared to you, by the word from above and by the speaking from below, only for you to live with longing and within a sober spirit at the table of My teaching, which will be without an end. Amen. Be faithful in this word, which is speaking to you now, that the table of My word with you will follow without having an end, and it will be eternal, and it will have with it those people who, with their heavenly appetite and fruit, sit at it and eat of it, and they are not far from those things that are on the table, but they rather sit eating eternally. All those that are from the table of My word give you wisdom and sonship love and teach you how to live on earth as in heaven, when the heaven will be revealed with you before the nations of the earth, and when it will reveal clearly those who have sat at My table, eating of it within obedience, with longing and with fruit before Me, for each one will have as food at My eternal table the fruit brought to the Lord, the life which was set in abundance before Me by the one who has been called at My table, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-08-2005

The feast of the Assumption

I am within a heavenly glory above you and into your midst, My people, and the entire glory of the feast of today is covered, because those that are not seen are eternal and those that are seen are passing and cannot comprise those that are not seen to bring them into view, but the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit is the power which perfects the faithful spirit in the man who has received the faith from the gift of the Lord, as My disciples received it two thousand years ago and with it they perceived God and His mysterious things, revealing them by sustaining signs as much as the faithful ones need to see, to understand and to believe and to live in God and not in this world with their faith and life, for the life is God's gift in man. Amen.

I am around you with great glory, My people, and My Mother, the Virgin, comes down to be at the feast with you and to teach you your living in heaven, the ascension, the descent and the eternity of those that are not seen and which are perceived by the sharpness of the spirit of the holy faith, and then by the body full of heaven of those who do not stay on the earth within their spirit in the time of their body, and who, afterwards, within a body clothed in eternity, see and know perfectly those that are seen and hoped for, those that are loved by them, by the spirit of their faith, with which they see and long with power after the heaven of the eternal glory, as My mother Virgin longed for Me with tears, after I went to be again near the Father by My death and My resurrection and ascension into the sky, and then I came down to set her too within the glory which she and I had before the foundation of the world and of the man. Amen.

To My entire people, which loves and works the mystery of the heavenly glory in soul and in body on the earth within a churchly work, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and the Son of the mother Virgin, tell: Peace to you, people of the work of the heavenly glory on earth! I am into your midst with the day of heavenly glory for the entrance into those that are not seen on the earth of My Virgin mother, the day when I, her Son, the One born of the Father and of her, lifted her into My arms and put her where she was before the foundation of the world, in the glory of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, a glory by which I worked the visible world, showing it to the man after I made the man and the woman, in the image and after God's likeness.

The man did not see when God made him, but the Lord's glory saw everything that was done and confessed by the Holy Spirit, so that every man on earth may be able to know how the world and the man were made and how the invisible glory has been watching on earth and in heaven, the world which will be again and which will be renewed as it is written about its new birth out of those that were the glory before the foundation of those that are seen, so that they may be able to confess the Word of God, Who is the Maker.

Behold, My people a feast with a mysterious glory with the saints and with the angels, a day of heavenly glory, a mysterious song, a heavenly joy, broken from eternity, one with the eternity, which has come today to you in such a way that it may be with you in a mysterious feast of the mother Virgin, the mother of the Son and of the Man God, the day of union with the eternity, the spirit and the body, its day of passing into the mysterious things, as they are settled today within great glory over everything that is called the hill of the daughter of Zion, the gardens of My people, in whom I, the Lord, was bringing together those that were faithful sounding the trumpet of the announcing of their coming to the feast. Now, My people, the way is even harder from heaven to earth and it is even harder the way of My people to Me for the meeting within a feast, for I, the Lord, started the cleansing of the holy land of Romania, and once with this I work, by those that are submitted to My Spirit, at the book of My word, which has been speaking over the earth for fifty years, and after this time, I started visibly the fulfilling of the word, the washing of the earth, to be able to come down then with the whole heaven on earth, with its entire glory invisible to the earthly man, and to be able to give birth to people from heaven for My glory, not for them, because the people born from above, from heaven, are not born from heaven for them, but for the Lord, My people. This is how My Virgin mother wants to give you today the word of My wisdom of it, because it is her day of heavenly celebration and this day has glory and it brings it to you to set it over you, and that you may have the wisdom of those heavenly things more perfectly, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– I work nothing without You, dear Son, as You also did not work anything on earth otherwise, and You were my obedient son, and Your sonship love for me, You and me spoke to Your people, and we want that they may make room into their nature and spirit for the word between me and You and of our love on earth, and not forget it, because are no longer God's sons, who have the work of obedient sons on earth, a work broken from eternity and set on earth between me and You, Son, child with a sonship obedience, Lord of those who know God by the spirit of obedience. Amen.

– Oh, My mother, I am with you, because without Me you are neither in heaven, nor on earth. Therefore work, because I look and listen, and I love you as in heaven, as I loved you on earth and I carried and took you in My deed and I did not cover you, but I gave forth light with everything it was in Me, with My entire heart, which was illuminating My body, My work, My miracles and the way of My word to man, mother. Teach My people its staying in heaven, the ascension, the descent and the eternity of those that are not seen but are perceived by the power of the spirit of faith in God, mother, and then by the body full of heaven on earth, just as you lived in the midst of the people, I and you, My mother. I am with you in word, and in union with Me give them the spirit of wisdom, the staying in heaven, mother. Amen.

– I teach you as a mother teaches her sons, people of My beloved Son, in Whom the Father has been well pleased with in the beginning and in the end when He judged the world by those heavenly things worked by Him on earth beyond nature, dying and being resurrected, and again, now, in the day of the new birth of the world, which was and which the man built from dust crushed it, forgetting of the glory from the beginning of everything that God made, and which the man may be thankful of, to enjoy and to work and to keep them as the Lord has taught him.

I look at you and at the course of my day of celebration with you, people of My son, and I look at the way, on which we walk from heaven on earth. We take great care of the way which keeps us to come to you, and the burden on it is hard, because the Lord is great, and He comes with His saints and with great power, because He is the Lord of the powers.

I give you, beloved people, my longing for heaven, to have it and with it to want those that are, and in which, we who are alive, live within the Lord's eternity. I give you advice not to forget and not to stay on the earth without heaven. You shall not live in the image of the man among people, between brother and brother, but you should rather live in the full image of my Son. My Son is gentle and humble in His heart, and He has been waiting for you to be in His image and after His likeness, so that my Son may embrace you within Him all the time, and you to embrace Him in all your living and behavior, people who have always, always been taught by God. I am the dwelling of His love. It was only He that had lived in me. His life was lived in me, and my life was lived in Him, and this is the heavenly love in the image and after God's likeness, but the man is deceived on earth and it is hard for him, because the man sees with his eyes and his heart, and it is hard for God, and it is also hard for man, while the man is crushed by he himself.

I, as a heavenly mother, embrace you within the spirit of my feast and I keep you in it, you and those who have their heart here in the Lord's garden, in this day, my people. I keep you in the mystery of the heavenly spirit and I wait for you to work out now the praise and the blessing of the feast of the day, and I will take you in the sober spirit of the teaching which exhorts you from it to love like me on earth, people of the heavenly calling and that all the hearts which long after the courts of the Lord to be able to receive from it the Spirit of the Lord, to the comfort and the hope in those that will come with the heaven on earth, people of the love of the word of my Son.

Now you are comprised in mystery, but open yourself and comprise the mystery of the heavenly glorifying, the glory of my feast of today, and again I will embrace you with the word of a mother, near the Father and the Son Who exalt me in this day, which we give to you to feel it, to live it and to give it to the saints, people of the light, which is my Son. The light of the world is He, when the Lord is able to be in the world. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother, that is why I strengthen My way to the people, and from it to every nation on the earth. I want to be the light of the world, mother, but I said: «While I am in the world I am the Light of the world». (John 9:5) Amen. Let the people keep Me with it to be into the world, mother, and with My word to work out the world again, and it to be born again, as I made in the beginning the light with My wisdom, and then everything that is, mother. Amen.

Oh, My people, get used to a heavenly glory to stay on earth and to give Me life. Remind one another, sons, of the mystery of the heaven on earth with you, and do not live and do not work without it. Do not live like men on earth but like God's sons, and may your heart, gentleness, work, living, brotherhood and harmony be the same, and everything that does not mean these things come from the lack of love which is born of unfaith and then of the lack of watchfulness.

We come back again into the book and we will grow heavenly, but the Lord does not have to be forgotten afterwards, My people.

Sprinkle with the grace of holiness the sign of the holy cross, anointed sons, the cross by which you are sealing today with My name so that it may be set as a guard above the city of Târgovişte, to protect by its power the spirit of the wisdom of the people, the bodies cleansed from sin, the minds which have the gift to see My coming to you for the salvation of many and for the resurrection, sons. Amen.

We will work with the Holy Spirit and we will gladden the spirit of My Mother Virgin for her day of celebration, and we will wait again into the book and then we give the whole day to the Father, and we will write within the heavenly things on earth with you, sons, and we will learn the mystery of the heavenly homeland on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

*

The book of My word into your midst is the greatest joy of those in the invisible heaven, My people, for those who are heavenly get together near it and they listen to My word with awe, and then all the heavenly hosts are ready to help you to turn into action the entire word of My book, and My mother the Virgin is coming again near to you with her day of heavenly celebration and she is teaching you your staying in heaven, the ascension and the descent, but the holy faith needs sharpness of spirit, and it needs rest in man, and by it the Lord makes his house in man as He did in Abraham, in Samuel, the prophet, in My mother Virgin, in My disciples and in all those who have stayed with awe and longing before My word spoken by My mouth to believe it and to turn it into their work and then Lord to be able to live on earth, because as long as the Lord is in the world, He is the Light of the world. Amen.

My mother the Virgin embraces you in the word, and I, the Son of the Father and hers, am in her word, because those that are from heaven are one spirit and one word, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– One spirit and one word, my dear Son. May Your little people of today be as You say, because today, as then, when we were and worked the work of the Father on earth, the same is today, those who have Your mysteries from heaven to bear them and to set them on earth, are small in the eyes of the world, they are very little, dear Son, little in comparison with the great mob of the sons of the people, and who live without God within their deed on earth, and who, like the deaf, like the blind, like the lame and like those that are weak in every way possible, do not hear, do not see, do not walk in Your way with heavenly glory; they are not able to know You and to love You and have You as Master of their lives received as a gift from You once with their birth kneaded by their earthly fathers, fathers who do not know what the birth from above is, as their sons, the sons of men, do not know the birth from heaven either, heavenly Son, child who came from heaven on earth to grow and then to become a bridge for the man, the bridge to the heaven of life, for the heaven on earth means life, and life is born of the word and it is the light of the people, the word of life, Your word giving of life, of spirit of life, child of the eternal glory, which You want to give to those who know You, to those who find You as the Lord of the eternal life, of Master over everything, my Son, for Father gave You to me, and You listened to me and worked like the Father as I had also worked, and we had not worked like man on earth. I teach him, by my speaking with you, I teach the people of Your word its dwelling in heaven, the ascension, the descent and the eternity of life, eternal Son, and I teach it with great love, by warm and dear word, with a heavenly awe in voice and I exhort it the mystery of life, its living in heaven on earth, because if the holy heaven was not always, always, with it, You would not have a people born of Your word and kept within Your word, because the time opposing to Your time with the man on earth would crush it, and You would cry hopelessly, child of the longing after the man's eternity, longing which You are nourished by, and crying, You long and wander after the man, being strengthened by the mystery of the longing. Amen.

Oh, people of my mysterious Son with you! Oh, people of the longing of my Son! Oh, what a great eternity is on earth, but if the man does not see it, he lives by his sight, and my Son and His heaven of saints and angels have no greater sufferance like this one. Oh, what a great eternity is on the earth, and I comprise you in the word to make you get used to it for your staying in heaven on earth. When my Son was on the earth, He was embraced by the heaven and this is how He lived on earth, and He also taught us, those in the house through which He came; He taught us to stay in the house of the heaven, to make the heaven on earth and to live in it, and He taught us and showed us how to become heaven, and how to become heaven on earth and to live in it, and He also taught us and showed us how to become heaven and how to become heavenly powers on earth and this is how we listened and this is how we worked, and my Son was born in us, and we, were born in Him and of Him, because the Father prepared to Him by the prophets and by angels a dwelling place of His coming, a house and people who stay at home, and then faith and the right way for it in us, and we were working His mystery on earth, after we had brought Him down mysteriously to the people by the work of the Father. Oh, today, the Lord has also come down on the earth to you as mysterious as at that time, people of His mysteries, and He has stayed into your midst, guided you and looked at you to see how much you have taken after Him and how much you have taken after the man. He became Man, but He took after God on earth by His entire living as obedient Son to the Father, but the man takes only after the man and that is all, and it is painful for those from heaven when they see that the man does not look at the Lord on the earth to see His image. The man says that he does not see the Lord to know how to be afterwards, but the Lord tells the man, He has been speaking His world to the man for two thousand years, after He became flesh just like the man, and He has been speaking to the man how to work, how to live and how to live between earth and heaven.

The man says that he does not see the Lord, but I saw Him, and the male disciples saw Him as well, and His female disciples likewise, and the rulers of the world of that time saw Him either, and many saw Him as He was. However, even the dead got up from the grave and saw the Lord, how He was and how He walked.

I, the mother of God, I teach you your dwelling in heaven, people of the heavenly mysteries, because this is what the Lord wants you to be, for the heavenly mysteries are sweet and make sweet the one that is born of the word of my Son, Who came on earth as the word of the man's birth, people of the saint's gift, for the saints want to give you to the Lord as a gift, if you stand by them working out the Lord's work from the end, the one before the day of His glory, which is at your door, little son, the least among those who have become the Lord's saints. Amen.

Let your dough be the longing, and let it be consumed within you, for I want to leave upon you the heavenly dwelling as a teaching once with my coming in the feast to you, people wanted by the heavenly mystery on earth. You should not put out your dwelling in heaven by those that you are engaged in on the earth. I teach you as I would teach a new child, to keep and to work this mystery of your life, your dwelling in heaven as on earth, for the invisible glory of the Lord watches over you incessantly. And even if you do not see it, seek to stay always with your deed before the invisible glory of the Lord and of His saints, which was before the foundation of the world with everything that belongs to it in all the times of the heaven, for the time of the Lord has always been and you need that the Lord's time with you to come to your senses, the love between you and the Lord, love from which everything comes, all that are already come and those that will come down on earth soon, soon, with their mystery that is invisible now. However, for this fulfillment, you do not have to live among people within a man's image, but you should rather live among people with your image full of my Son, and especially you should live that way between brother and brother, because my Son and your Lord is gentle and humble in His spirit.

The Lord has always, always reminded you of the mystery of the heaven on earth with you, people of the invisible glory, and I, a mother full of the longing of my Son, Who longs after man, advise you humbly, for you are great in this time, and you make a bridge to the Lord to have His path on earth. I humbly keep you awake and I teach you so that the world that is on the earth may not be able to separate you from your dwelling in heaven, and that you may not become man when you live in the world, but rather to strengthen you, brother to brother within the mystery of God's son, in your mystery, people of the mysteries of the heavenly homeland on earth. Be gentle and be smart. Do not be angry; do not be discontent; do not come hard to one another, children of the heavenly homeland, but rather be members of the same body to one another, because those by whom the Lord feeds you from your midst, people nourished by heaven, they greatly love their living in heaven, their dwelling with the heaven on earth, not only with the earth, for the earth wants to be with the heaven on it, because this is the time, and this is how you should also want, and to strengthen always the path of the heaven to the earth, for the Lord to be your Master, and your sonship love for Him to make you in His image and after His likeness, for woe to the one who lives without a master on earth, because that one does not know what it comes to him, and, again, woe to the one who has the man as master over him, because the man is deceived on earth, and it is hard for man, because he is crushed by he himself, and then by the one like him. However, you give light together with the Lord and your Master over the man on the earth, because I, the mother of your Master, give you my longing of heaven as a gift, the living in heaven on earth, as I lived, for my Son was from heaven and was not from the earth, and He came and taught us the mystery of the heavenly homeland, the mystery by which He would overcome over the earth once with all the glory of those that belong to the Lord and are not seen, and which watch on earth and in heaven, until everything will be again one unity and one eternity, as it is written about the new birth of the world of those that were the glory before the foundation of those that are not seen. Amen.

I, the mother of my Lord and yours, strengthen you within your living with the heaven on earth, because the earth is the footstool of everything that will mean the homeland, the sweet country of the New Jerusalem, but work sons, work with love and with sweetness at the whole beauty of the heavenly homeland, work it out with the heaven, because you belong to the heaven on earth. However, be gentle and humble in your heart, like My son, so that you may not be like man, children of the book which comes from heaven and writes itself on earth and becomes deed by your likeness with the Word Lord, and not otherwise, children who stay to learn to know from the Lord and to receive Him to be on earth, and the Lord to be the light of the world. Amen.

I, Son full of word, became like You and gave the word to Your people. I put my longing for heaven in it, so that Your people may take it to be part of his nature and his work and to have it always as the foundation of the heavenly homeland on earth, homeland at which You work for the perfection and to its revelation and of its sons.

I, Son full of the spirit of word, give as a gift to Your people the spirit of word like Yours; Yours from what is Yours, and let them take only after You, those with whom You have built on earth the heavenly homeland, and about which all the nations of the earth will wonder, when You will reveal Yourself with it soon, soon, soon. Amen.

And now, I give You the word of my day of feast, for Yours is and it is from You, just as I am from You, as You are from me, after the Father carries all in Him and in You, and then He sets on earth by those who obey Him as You obeyed, as I obeyed, and as all those that are written into the Book of Life from the foundation of the world have obeyed, Son of the mysteries of the Sabaoth Father, and by Whom He built everything, and they are and will be. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother, oh My loved bride, the longing of the saints and of the angels and of all those who loved with longing the announcing by the prophets and My coming through you on earth, My mother bride, the vine of My Father and yours! You have remained in the vine and you are the vine, My dear mother bride, and blessed is the son born from above, from heaven, from Me, Who have come as word on earth for the new birth of the world, mother! Blessed is the son who knows to remain in the vine as you did, as I did, in the Father and in you, bride mother, for you know sweetly to teach My bride people, and your speaking near Mine is sweeter than the sweetest wine, and this is how you know to remain in the vine and to become My glory, and this is how you also teach My people to stay in the vine and to have the work of the vine, mother. Amen.

Now, My people, because you are Mine on earth, I strengthen upon you a sweet and full of longing blessing over your beautiful work for the glorified and heavenly face of the garden of the meeting, in which I may always come and measure with My measure every son of My people, sitting in council with him by My table of council on earth, by My measure from your midst. All My promises come and they come into view and the hill of Zion will be exalted and very beautiful, My new Zion, and everything that adorn it by My order. Amen.

Let thousands of angels come near to you, My people, and you should make them come near you as well, because I prophesied into My book with you, that the angels will work with you on earth, and all the nations of the earth will see this miracle and My work done with you, and they will see you illuminated by the light of My word. I want to be able to be with you on earth and to be the Light of the world, and you to show to the world that are My son, light from the Light, and let it come under this vine all those who seek with longing and then find My way with you and your living in heaven, My living into your midst, and let us give to the world the light of salvation and the glorified sight of the heavenly homeland on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-08-2005

The feast of the beheading of the Saint John, the Baptizer

Oh, My people, if I did not make My power come down on earth so that I will be able to come on the way of My word to you, I would not have how to come and support you on My way with you, because I do not have any help for My coming from the earth, and I have not found any help with the man, because the man is used to wait from God and I can hardly make the disciple of My work to understand My work and then to receive My teaching and to make of it their spirit, and then to rise up disciples and disciples from disciples.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I come on the path to you, My people. Two thousand years ago I made My way to the man and then I walked on it. I made My disciples and then I put My Spirit in them, by the teaching that I was giving to them, by the mysteries I was enveloping them with to be able to keep them and that the world might not be able to pull them out from Me, and I worked much upon them, to be able to get them used to the humility of the spirit, because without it the man cannot know God on earth and cannot receive Him to become then My disciple and My way to man, and of the man to Me, for this is the work of My disciple: humility of spirit, and then his work with Me and for Me. Amen.

When I was with My disciples, from time to time, from place to place, I was making them wait for the moments of our meetings, because I was teaching them with power, with the spirit of My Spirit, and whoever receives of My Spirit, that one desires and waits and then he loses his life in My life, gaining himself for Me, living in Me, with his thought of Me and of My word full of life and longing of life, for the life is the light of the people, and this was My word of life giving. I was sitting into their midst and they were sitting on one side and on the other near Me, as I sat in the night of the supper, when they sat on My left and on My right, and I in the middle, embracing them within My Spirit, like a Teacher Who gives both to the right and to the left, and both with the right and with the left hand, for My work with the man is hard, both for Me and for My disciples, when it is for the man to receive God as He is and not as each one would long for God with him and for him.

I was sitting with My disciples at the table, and they were surrounding Me from all sides and were gathering around the love of My word, and this is how I was sitting with them at the table, and I was gentle and humble in My heart before them, to be able to made them My path to the people, so that they may go and do the same kind of work as Mine with them and not to become proud within their work or because they are My disciples, as Israel became proud because as though they were My people, for whoever gets proud, that one cannot give life to the people; he cannot make light of My light, path to the man for the man to see the way to God, to the light of the teaching of the life, which so few people seek after and long for it and to come together near God coming out of this world, as My disciples did, who were learning of My teaching a new love of life, a new power of victory, because I said, and I say in the same way now: «I make them all new, and those that are old pass with a great noise, because one cannot put new wine in old vessels», for nothing old is able to renew the world, as the renewal of everything is prophesied. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have been speaking for fifty years now, in the end of the time, and I have been longing to make My disciples of the same work with Me, but those on whom I have been sowing the word of life have been seeking life for them from Me, not for Me in them, and I have not been able to make them My disciples, because My disciple has nothing of his own things, and he does not give himself but to God alone, so that he may give God to the people afterwards, as John, My baptizer did, when he came out and became My path to the people, testifying about the light, about the repentance, for this is what the light does in man, when it is able to enter him and to renew the man by the spirit of repentance. And behold, in all My work thorough the prophet John, the Baptizer, the more it was overcoming for My mystery among people, the more it was overcome by the spirit of the debauchery of the man's body and soul, for the man does not understand that he does not need to give his soul to debauchery, neither his body, because the licentious love is that which does not take after God but after man, and when it is touched by man from the sides, the man is ready to kill, losing first his mind, as it happened with the king Herod, who by a licentious love forgot about God and sold himself without waiting for the oath and who had then to put the prophet John to death. Only the spirit of the licentious love has killed the prophets in all the times, and this spirit says that it sees well. It is right; it sees well, but it sees to kill well God and His prophets, as it was in the time of John, when after his very long time of imprisonment from where he was teaching his disciples the way to Christ, was martyred in the day of the banquet of Herod's birthday, who being intoxicated with drinking and eating, confounded in his mind, agreed with John's beheading, a death of a prophet, conspired by a woman intoxicated with the spirit of debauchery, a spirit which kills God's prophets, and this is how John was killed in the martyrdom city of Sevasta, (Sebaste) after he did the work of Christ's disciple, light from the Light, condemning the sin on the earth and the darkness in which the sin makes its couch.

Oh, My people, John the Baptizer is great, because he lived on earth like the birds of the sky and like the lilies of the field, not taking care of himself but only of God in his body and in the people, for he was born for God and confessed for Him, and for Him he was martyred in the day of memorial of the birth of the king Herod, the son of his father who killed fourteen thousand infants only to lose Me, the One born in Bethlehem as a baby by the order of My Father.

Oh, My people, many pray to John the Baptizer to give him help for their life, but to look at his angelic life on earth, the man does not do this with his mind, for the man has not got any teacher. Woe to the one without a teacher from God upon him, because that one does not have My way under him, because there is only teaching on My way, out of which disciples are born, who confess Me to the people, and behold, the one without a teacher is intoxicated within his own mind, arising to take from him and not from God.

Oh, My people, learn son, to know not to kill the prophets by your mind, for the people to have where to learn from, and become a disciple of My teaching and do not take from you, because all the good and bad things of the man confess about him before God, but the man forgets this, because his nature does not teach him something worse than to forget about God and to receive knowledge from himself against another man for the man to do his own justice, and a man like that does not receive in him the instruction of the spirit humility, of which he can learn the way of discipleship, being overshadowed by the spirit of My teaching, if he wants to love like God and not like man the teaching from heaven. Amen.

– Oh, there is a little bit of word near Your word, Lord Teacher, because if I baptized You in Jordan, this means that I confessed You to the people that You were the Lamb of God and that I was Your disciple, too. The people did not know how much You had taught Me by out meeting together into the mountains, and how humble You were before me, Your disciple, because You had taught me everything about You, but only at Jordan You revealed Yourself to me that You were the One Who were confessed by me, that You were the mysterious One and that only You know to humble Yourself so much.

I cry in heaven, Lord, together with all the saints, and I cry because the man cannot humble himself, and that the man, who has no humility of spirit, is very small, but at the same time he is so big that he can kill God and His prophets, Lord. I was born for nothing else but for You, and My body sheltered me in him, and I had the spirit full of God, the Elijah's zeal, and I went out and called to the people to repent and not to run away from God's wrath and that was all. I came out becoming Your path to the people, and You were on earth, mysterious God, not known by people, becoming humble until before Your passion, when You told Your disciple that You were Christ God and that You were to suffer by treachery, so that all of the people's followers may no longer sell God afterwards. However, the people have became totally corrupted and have acted as Your disciples and made fortunes within Your name, and they receive praise from people, and it is hard with Your way from heaven to earth, and I comfort them with my hand, which baptized You in Jordan as Your confessor; I comfort those who stay as Your path to the people in this time so dark, when the light cries through the darkness, but the darkness is the man, and the man does not comprise the light within his soul, he does not love God because the man loves himself.

However, I comprise Your people within the word, Lord, and I teach it with Your Spirit in me to be like You, and not to be like man. And, after it brings to You my feast of coming to the heaven that is invisible by man, I will sit in council with Your people of today, because I am Your disciple and confessor, and You told Your disciple to be the salt and the light on the earth. Amen.

– Oh, people of My coming with the wisdom of the Father on earth! Son, set yourself to learning and do not take from you, because if you take from you, you are a man, and if you take from God, you are a disciple and you are satisfied and thankful. John, My baptizer, was content with everything he was born for, and he knew to work them out, because he applied himself to learning, and he learned if he did apply to it. Not all of those who come to the school of My teaching, not all of them learn, not all of them obey in order to learn, because he who is used to take from him and from man, he cannot remain in the spirit of humility, the spirit which makes disciples to the Lord. However, I exhort you, and I do this within a humble spirit to be little in order that you may be big, to be as John was, who did not tempt Me, but who had learned as a disciple, and to be My confessor, he had learned up to a martyrdom confession.

It is written: «You shall not tempt God». Stay humbly and patiently within your spirit, because he who has got milky teeth and eats solid food with them, he breaks his teeth, My people. I have been teaching you, sons, to pass from body into spirit to be able to eat My great and strong mysteries. Each one of you knows his own measure, but I know more perfectly which your measure is and it is good to be within the spirit of humility and patience like Mine, like that of My prophet John, sons. Seek to have an angelic spirit and to receive My Spirit from My disciples, and to grow in spirit through Him, and when you grow less, I may be able to grow in you, as John did, who will teach you now, the mystery of the angelic life on earth, My mystery with My disciples, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, My people, how beautiful are the man and his place where he can have room and live My godly teaching! Oh, My people, the world always crucifies Me and nowhere else can I have room and I can no longer live, because the world separates completely the man from God, and the man does not feel this death, if he stays in the midst of the world, if he is not clothed with the Holy Spirit, through this world of the man's darkness.

The people that I godly taught did not believe this; it did not believe because it cannot serve both God and Mammon, because he will lose one if he does so, but the man himself gets lost, because the man gets lost in himself and he gets lost in his mind, because he does not learn from Me for real what the work of the Holy Spirit does in man, compared with the work of the man's spirit, who believes God and loves God as he knows from his own spirit. John, My baptizer, did not take of his spirit, of his mind, and he took from Me, and he gave to his disciples, and behold, he teaches you today the mystery of the angelic spirit, the spirit which humbles, which grows less when I grow more in man, and in such a way that you may grow by My Spirit, and to learn more truly the mystery of the angelic life on earth, My mystery with the disciples, of the same kind of work with Me, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– I learned from the spirit of Your humility not to take of my mind, but to take from You, Lord, to be Your disciple, to be Your working angel from You, because the mystery of the angelic spirit in man has been staying between heaven and earth for seven thousand years and cannot set down to work, because if the man takes of his mind as he has got used to work after You had made him, and after He had left You for his own mind. The man did not forsake You for anything else but for his mind, which he has used, and when he saw that he lost You for this, he has been sighing bitterly and within sighing, he has buried within himself and no longer found himself in You, Lord, after the man received from You the spirit of life. Oh, now the man has no longer felt bitterly this pain of the losing in his self, because only the man who finds You again in him as You are, only that one knows what Your sighing and his are, only that one has still been sighing after You on earth, Lord of those who are humble in spirit and heart as You are among those in heaven and among those on earth, because with God in heaven is as on earth, and on earth is as in heaven. Amen.

I am speaking with those in Your gates, who learn from Your sighs and theirs the mystery of the angelic spirit in man, the spirit which cries without a home between heaven and earth and in Your disciples, Lord, as it had cried within me all the time, after I knew what the man does before You, and what You do before the man to get him used to the love of the mystery of the angelic spirit, love which does not make the man fall from God and God from man. However, it does not happen the same way with the man's love, which makes the man fall and which makes You fall from man, Lord, for woe to the man without a watcher over him!

Oh, how sweet my life watched by You was, God's Lamb! How sweet is the angelic spirit in man when the man grows less so that You may dwell in him and in his work, because he does not know to dwell in Your Spirit, because the spirit of obedience to God in man does this. I want to teach those who are Your working disciples today, and I want to comfort them with this teaching, to overflow over Your people then. Amen.

Oh, disciple children, who bring the Lord on earth as word! As for the one who puts you before the people under a bushel for his own self, for his mind itself, this sin is heavy, because the light of God passes through you on to the earth, and because the teaching of the Holy Spirit of the Lord's word is the light of the world. He who tries to be big in the eyes of the man by putting you down for his mind and for the man's mind, that one should cleanse oneself well from this dark sin, for the man is the darkness in the world; it is the man's mind and it is nothing else the darkness outside, which is written into the Scripture about. The man cannot get away from the sins of this darkness but only if the learns from God the mystery of the angelic spirit in his body, as I learned from Christ, our Lamb, for the Father gave Him to us in order to save us and to fill us always with Him and with the teaching from Him. He is always, and His work is always called today, for the man eats every day and he does not eat otherwise, but he eats today when it comes to eat. However, behold, the world totally separates the man from God, because it and only it was and is always, always, God's enemy, and then of the man. However, the Lord does not rejoice, but He rather sighs because of this perishing from this spirit of man's destruction, and of God from man. And as for you, teaching disciples, who dwell in the Lord because the Lord dwells in you, do not sleep neither during the night, nor during the day, because the Lord needs this holy people of angelic life and especially of angelic spirit in the sons of His people, and this mystery is a great work, and blessed are all those in this people of the mystery of the Lord's coming now as word on the earth; blessed will be him if he seeks the moments of the meetings with the Holy Spirit, Who opens and shares Himself with His tongues through the spirit of church, through the Spirit of Christ, the Teacher Lamb.

Oh, teaching disciples, put the sleep away completely, because the sleep is not from the Lord, but it is from the flesh. Teach the people of this holy and godly word that the sleep is from the flesh, and the flesh is from the parents, from the earth, just as the soul is from the heavenly Father, from heaven, and we always owe Him today. Teach the people what the watchfulness for these days is, when you see how the great and dreadful day of the Lord is coming from place to place unexpectedly, and we have to let the man on the earth know, so that the Lord may not call us into account for the man's life, for the darkness on the earth, which is the man's mind, the spirit of the man's mind, which has been preparing destruction over the man.

Behold what a sweet teaching I have been giving to you, so that the people of the Lord's coming may always be baptized through it: where there is no humility, there is no resurrection. The Lord humbled Himself and then He was resurrected. Let the people be attentive to the word of life; let the people be attentive to my teaching, for I have it from the Lord. I tell you that in he who there is no humility, there is no resurrection. All those who have heard and come and drunk of the river of the teaching of today of the Lord, that they may believe afterwards and then to settle within an angelic life, those fell from the Lord through their mind, because they have claimed that they have wisdom, and they have exalted themselves by their own mind and they have also fallen by their mind, for whoever exalts himself falls, and whoever humbles himself is exalted. Amen.

The man keeps the Lord away, and he keeps Him away by his mind, for the man's mind does not belong to God, but it belongs to the man instead, and the man is rare on earth and in time; he who has God within him, the Holy Spirit in him, the humility of spirit, the Holy Spirit's dwelling in man.

Be careful with my teaching of the disciple of Christ, the Lamb of the Father: the resurrection has no place in the one who has not got humility. Where there is the man's mind, the Lord has no place at all. Be attentive, people sealed by the Lord's sign. Do not wear the God's Spirit down; do not torment Him and do not put Him away by the spirit of your mind, for the Lord is the humble One and He stands aside there where the man becomes haughty by his own mind itself. This is how Israel has got haughty and has called itself the Lord's people, and if it has got haughty it has not been resurrected, but it has been rather dying to the Lord and to the Spirit of the Lord, even on the Lord's way with it.

Be only eyes and ears; you are a royal people, the holy people of God, the eternal King, the people earned by God by the blood of His Son, Who became one body with you, and out of His blood you have life and reconciliation to the Father, but you have to work as God's sons and to belong to the heavenly powers, and you should not be yours. Adam chose himself and his wife, and killed God in him. Herod chose himself and his woman and killed God and God's prophet within him. Herod was king and he was immoral, violating God's commandment, which says: «You shall not commit adultery», and if the ruler of the people is evil, his entire people is evil as well, and here it is how the man's mind cannot stand around with God's mind, with the Holy Spirit, Who works and speaks by the prophets, whom the Lord makes His mouth on earth among people.

The Lord has got no support on earth for His coming with joy for the righteous ones and with judgment for those that are adulterous. The Lord has not help from man, for the man who still believes in God is used to wait for help from God and the Lord is hardly able to make His disciples and then to use them for His work and these to understand what is and how is God's work.

Without humility of spirit, the man cannot have God and he cannot have resurrection either, and the man has got his mind instead of this. However, you, people of the Lord's coming, seek and work and wait, working at the moments of the meetings, for he who receives from the Holy Spirit, that one longs and wait for Him within the spirit of a church. Take a good look to see well how the old skins break apart, those in which the new wine is being poured out. Also look at my time, because as victorious as my mystery from the Lord was, in the same way it was overcome by man. And as for you, receive from the Lord; receive from His disciples and do not dwell within you, do not stay within your mind and with your mind, and rather dwell in the Spirit of the Lord, Who is into your midst, people of the Lord, for the world does not let you be only with the Lord, but it wants that you also may be with it, and to be like it, but you should struggle to remain, and to come to life always, always, by humility of spirit, for the man is the darkness of today on the earth, the uttermost darkness. However, as for you, people of the Lord, you should be the light from the light in Him, and to be in the image of the Son of God, just as I was. Amen.

I taught Your people, Lord: where there was no humility, there was no resurrection; this is what I told it, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– This is what I, the Lord, tell it, too. I am the One Who had become humble and then I died, and then I came to life within the Father. The one without this teaching gets befuddled by his own mind, exalting himself to take from him and not from God, Who is humble within His Spirit.

Oh, My people, learn from Me, because if the man does no receive My teaching, he cannot learn not to kill God and God's prophets, whose word I am. Do not take wisdom from you, My people son, because the man's nature does not teach the man something worse than to forget God and for the man to take wisdom from his self against another man. Take a good look over the man's work of all times and see how the Lord lives humbly under the man's mind who becomes greater than God. However, you should fight for My light in you, for My Spirit in you, for My word, which is the light of the world. Give Me to the people, not you, because the man and the world can kill you, but they cannot kill Me now. However, if you do not know how to give Me further, then you should not give Me at all, so that you may not cause Me any harm, son. However, learn, because you have the Lord as your Teacher upon you. Learn to work upon you and then upon man. Learn, and do not vainly lose the time of My teaching upon you.

Learn, My people, learn, and do not forget that where there is no humility, there is no resurrection, there is no Holy Spirit in man, there is no God with the man, if the man is not gentle and humble in his heart like God, Who teaches the man: humility, and then resurrection, always resurrection today, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-08/11-09-2005

The feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother

On the threshold of a day of feast for My Virgin mother, I sit down with a table of word before you, My people, and I am speaking over you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I gather the saints together at My table with you, and I pray to the Father into your midst; I pray to do acts of mercy on the earth upon the Romanian nation and for the abundant rain to withdraw, to come back into its chambers, but the Father and I ask for mercy from the man, mercy for God, repentance and turning back to the love for God, so that God may have mercy on the land of the blessing in the end of time, because I want to come with a great reward for those who are faithful and righteous and to reveal perfectly My mystery of life, the new heaven and the new earth, because this is what I promised. Amen.

Oh, Father, I pray to You with those who pray, and I pray together with Our people. Let us gather the heavy rain, because it is too much, Father. Let us be merciful, because to Us We have praying children for Us and for them, and for the Romanian land, and for the new heaven and for the new land, and let us, Father, give to the man a new spirit, a new heart, longing of heaven on earth, Father, so that it may be on earth as in heaven. Amen.

Come mother, raise your hands to prayer; raise the heaven of saints and angels and let us pray on the earth with the people of My word, to tell the heavy rain to withdraw into its chambers and to be stand still, because it is too much water from heaven down on earth. Let us go through the word upon people, and let us wake them up to a heavenly life before God, because the worldly spirit is too deceiving and it does not grant the man a respite to come to his senses, to run for his salvation, to the comfort for God, because God suffers from man, mother. We are in a threshold of a day of feast for the memorial of your birthday among people, because you were born on the earth by God's commandment, and you grew nicely, and you loved waiting for My coming on earth, and then you gave birth to God in the flesh of a man, because this is how I had to come down from heaven and to come after the man to draw him to the Father, as I promised that I would work after I would come back into the Father, by death and by resurrection and then by My settling down in the Father.

I remember, into the midst of My people, the day of your birth among people, My mother, the birth coming down from heaven, from the Father, a mysterious miracle on earth, because if God did not work mysteriously His mysteries, the people would not be able to understand them and they would not receive them and they would not carry them to heaven, mother. The darkness in the man is great, because the spirit of the world fights on earth against the man by the pride in man, and God cries among the saints and works sufferance upon man to wake him up from carelessness and to call God on earth and the man to let himself be overcome by God, to be saved from destruction and with longing for eternity, for God's longing will save the man from death, and I will call the resurrection of the dead[21] and I will sound the resurrection of the dead and give back the incorruptibility to the living ones, but I ask the people for it, to seek after it in them and to love it and to give Me life in them, and I to renew the world as I have to work now, mother.

– Oh, what a sweet work Your word is, Lord Savior, child of the Father and mine! I was born on earth to bring You down from the Father to man, to give You birth as a baby and to grow You up with longing and then to give You to the man as his Savior. My life was humble and full of tears because of my sufferance for You and for man, and the man could not and cannot understand how great Your coming for his salvation was and is. I speak with You, and You with me, and then the children, sharing of God, give us further to the people, because it is the time to keep calling the man out until he hears us, Lord Son. Oh, the man cannot come back to the truth of life, but I ask You now, on my day of feast into the midst of Your people to give a new spirit to the man and to give him heavenly feeling; give him power to receive You and to bow down to receive from the spring of Your word, because the great man perishes, and the little one comes to life by humility and by life like that of Yours, Lord merciful for man.

Oh, people of the coming of my Son, look into my life and take me for your help to make you the help for my Son, Who comes with the whole heaven to you, for you to help Him too, because I sustained Him with great care and with an endless love on His way to the people to draw them to the Father, and in the same way we also ask Him today to bring the heaven down on earth to you, and you should receive it and reveal it to the people, and you also should help God in His sufferance after man and ask Him tearfully to reveal the mystery of His coming to you for the people on earth to see the glory of the spring that is in your midst, my Son, the Word, the Lord in His second coming to the people, because this is written into His Scriptures, and it is written that He will come again.

Oh, sons of my Son, the heaven cries over the earth! Much water comes from heaven on earth! Let us raise forgiveness prayer for the Romanian people so that its way may be illuminated towards God. Come to work as your working with God is written to you, people waited by the saints. The saints have been sighing after you to set you down as their way to the man, to become a sweeter bearer of God and of saints to the people, the people of the waiting from above. The life of my body was consumed with longing to help God to the man, and you have to be consumed seven times more, because the entire human kind, from the beginning of the man and up to this day, has been looking at you that you declare its resurrection, and it will confess you, and the heaven will embrace the heaven and earth and they will become new, for the Lord is love, and it is the Lord's power, and His mercy overcomes the judgment and it will open the eyes of the man, and you will have to know to give the light from above to every man, who grows you to be able to make God known on earth, people chosen from the world.

[21] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.

Behold, while speaking with you, the rain has kept silent. I urge you to prayer in everything that it has to come or not come over the earth, people of the Lord's coming. Prayer is a sweet life between you and the Lord, and it is comfort, it is power and it is fulfillment. Take care to be a watcher, people praying to God. All the time you should take care that God may be with you and to be able to work for you and through you over the earth.

I ask the people to learn the comforting longing in sufferance and in joys, a longing for God, a longing for heaven on earth. I ask them to learn the prayer which is useful, not that for the perishing things on earth. And to the spirit of the world, the spirit opposing to God and to the soul of the man I tell to be attentive to the Scripture which prophesies its end and to keep away from the way of the people, because the people have to receive God and to give Him all the glory, all the love and all their life, so that the resurrection of the living and of those in the tombs may come, because the victory of the Lord's day is near, the new heaven and the new earth, and this Scripture is true, and it will come true and then it will last. Amen.

Oh, Lord Son, as You have built everything, You are again the Builder of everything that will remain, but You should not forget of Your mercy on man and to give him a wise spirit, by which he may be able to overcome the spirit of the world, Lord. Take care, and I ask You longingly to take the worldly spirit away from the earth and to set in the people the longing after You, the longing after the heaven on earth, because the man cannot overcome, Son Lord. You are the beginning of the resurrection. Come to life in man and make him long after Your spirit, after Your voice, which speaks over the Romanian land, so that the world and Your face upon it may be made again by the word, my Son. We have been waiting with a great mystery for two thousand years. The saints have been waiting for Your Spirit to come into the people and for a holy longing to be born in them, a longing of heaven on earth, so that You may come with Your saints among people, for Your kingdom is endless, dear Son. Put my entire word before You and give it the power of fulfillment, because You always listened to me, and You listen to me with the love of a son, and with a heavenly power You comfort me, comforting Yourself with my prayer and with Your power through it.

I give to Your people of my spirit, who has always prayed before You. And may the spirit of the fulfilling prayer come down upon it, but let Your people learn, looking into my life, taking of its light, of its power, which is the love of You, the longing of new man before You, to have comfort in sufferance and to have power by the prayer of Your people, brought before You, Son Lord. The longing of Your kingdom in man has become a wound in me. I am the mother of the prayer to You, as You also are the Son of the prayer to the Father. Bless the prayer of this day into the midst of Your people, because there is sufferance over the earth, and it is sad on the earth, it is much rain, Lord, and sun is needed on earth, and light has to be for the people, Lord, in such a way that they may see and know the mystery of the light and to receive You as their light, mysterious God.

It is the feast for my birth, and I ask you for the man's birth from heaven, and give love to Your people to be able to fulfill for You everything You ask from him, Lord. My love as Your mother is the greatest love, and I give it twofold to Your people, so that it may give it further to You from me; to have great love and to stay with it before You and to be able to work through it for You and for man, dear Son.

Come, people of my Son, Who is coming to you; come that we may be the love which will give birth again to the world, but you should not forget to learn always the power for God from my humility. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother, your birth had carried My birth with it. Oh, mother, the birth of this people of My word carries with it the new birth of the world, mother. I bow and I kiss your prayer in the midst of My people, because I am an obedient Son and I listen to you, mother. This is how the people should listen to My word. Let it be My fulfilled word, mother. Let it be the power of the resurrection of the creature, mother. Amen.

My people, you should be power of prayer before Me. You should be careful how you go on the way with Me. Walk with great light, My people, because the darkness of the world keep the man comprised within it, and all and everything, without knowing, wait for My light, which will come to be again, as it was on the first day of the world, when I said: «Let it be light!», and it was.

However, I say again: Let it be light! And it is, and you should stay within it, My people, because we will work upon the earth with it, and it will remain, and it will be eternally called the day of the Lord. Amen, amen, amen. (See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.)

08/21-09-2005

The feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

My heavy cross became power of victory for Me, My people, because sufferance does not let the man get lost, but it rather keeps him into God's arms and then this cross becomes a feast of victory and of the man's eternal life, which does not grieve under the holy yoke of sufferance.

Peace to you, My people Israel of today! My heavy cross has reconciled the man to the Father, because after I carried it to overcome with it the death and to become the joy of the Father by My resurrection and ascension, I became the man's way to the Father and I have been teaching the man this way, because I have been showing it to him through the cross, My people. Many a people are Christians or become Christians, but most of them flee from the way of the cross, which supports them on the way with Me, because the Christian man does not teach the way to Me, but he rather tries to teach the joy towards Me. If the man would try to learn his joy with Me at least, it would still be able to comfort God, and the man would have his way to Me either, and I would give the victory to him for which I fell under the cross, and then I appeared victorious through it, but without the faith of My disciples, the God's victory would not be able to be settle down on earth.

Oh, My people, without preaching the man is not able to know God's power. If the man does not know that God has eternal life, and then he knows how to humble himself for this life and wants to work it out with faith, he is not able to love God and to learn then the sweet way, the way with God between earth and heaven. The one who believes in the salvation that comes from Me, if that one does not work it with his heart and with his works before Me and before the people, that one does not do the work of salvation. My people salvation is a great work. It has to become desire in man and then a great work. It has to become a sea of love in man, a sea without shores, because the saving life is endless with its work on earth.

When I built the man, I was on the earth with the Father, and the Father taught Me the work of life and then the vessel of life, and then I said, I and the Father: «Let Us make man in Our image and after Our likeness». (Gen: 1/26) Moreover, after I made the man out of dust as the potter makes a pot out of clay in order to use it, I clothed the man within joy and I showed him the making of the heaven and of the earth, to be the man's joy, and to live eternally within this joy, built for man before his making. However, if the man, after We put Our life in him, the spirit of life from Us, if he did not learn from this mystery of life, then he did the mistake of not remaining under God's protection, and first he lost his fear. He who loses the fear of God, the Maker, loses his life, and he does not know to find it anymore, neither by joy, nor by pain, because the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom, and it is the gift which God gave to the man to take it and to use it for God's life in him, not for his life in him. The man has no longer known his way to God after that, because if the wrongdoing does not turn it back to God, to the fear of God, it becomes the man's life, and the man lives in it and he does no longer live in God, because in order to stay in God, you have to take after Him, to love sufferance, which does not let you die and which turns you back to the Father, as the cross of My sufferance also turned Me back to the Father from the unfaithful man, the one without any fear for the protection of his life from God.

Oh, My people, God's mystery with the man on earth is great. Even if the Lord does not let Himself be seen, He is with the man, because on earth, I together with the Father built the man and put in him the spirit of life from Us, and We put in man the being of Our Being and We have remained within a mystery near the man, because this is how God with the man is, and this is how the man must know and believe then, so that he may not lose the fear of God; that he may not lose this path which keeps him near God and God near him.

When the man prays to our Father, he does not know to understand what he says. I taught the disciples how to understand God easily and I told them to pray humbly and to lay their lives always into the Father's hand and not to do like the pagans who, not understanding God, cry and babble many words to the Father. However, I taught My disciples to speak a beautiful word to the Father and to comprise in it all that the Father had to hear and to give them.

Oh, how beautiful is to pray to the Father as I told My disciples to pray, saying: «Our Father in heaven, may Your name be kept holy; let Your kingdom come. Let Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth». (Matt: 6/9, 10) Oh, My people, when We, the Father and the Son, made the man, We made him on earth, and it was then the heaven and the earth, God and the man on earth, and it was God's will on earth and in heaven at the same time. Two thousand years ago, when I taught My disciples how to speak on earth with the Father, I told them to speak to the Father: «Our Father, Who is in heaven». Oh, how much I wanted for that time to be now, that the man may understand from now on, for you to understand, My people, and from you every man to understand that God is preached upon man on earth, and that the man becomes God's heaven by preaching, and he teaches another man to keep holy the name of the Father on earth and to ask Him the daily bread for his living and to be loving and forgiving for any of his fellow man, so that the Father may be the same to him, that is, to forgive his wrongdoings as man, because first, the man has learned to go wrong and to give away the fear from him, and he has learned to go wrong before God and to forsake God in order that the man may reign on the earth. Nevertheless, I told My disciples to make the kingdom of the Father and His will alive on earth and that it might keep them away from the evil temptation, which was born in man after the man, gave away his fear.

I want to teach the man to love and to carry with him the weapon against destruction: the fear of God, which teaches the man to love the holy sufferance, the cross, which sets the man on the way to God. Amen.

I was telling you, My people, when I started to go out with you into the world as an example of your love with God, I was telling you that I wanted to bring the heaven on earth, all over the earth, and then to reveal Myself and to make visible My glory and the heaven in which I live and from which I work for you, and with which I carry you to the Father. I wanted to teach you to believe the mystery of the heaven with you, the mystery of the Father, Who is in heavens near you, keeping His name holy on earth and in heaven, but pray so that the Father may always make you His will and His kingdom through His will in you, by God's being in you, so that you may have a glorified Father, My people, and that He may be as forgiving as you are, and that you may be as forgiving as He is, to keep you away from any evil from the man, the one inside of you and the one outside of you, as I taught the disciples to ask from the Father and to become the heavens of the Father one another, God near the man on earth, and the man near God, as We were with the man in the beginning on earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh citadel of the Lord, it is written about My citadel that its gates will be opened day and night for the Lord, so that it may not be night in it, and the Lord to be within the gates, and to be with you and to teach you the faith by which God dwells on earth with you with His heavens only for you to know to be a heavenly child, because without speaking, without announcing, without preaching the man is not able to know the power of God, His love in man, My people.

I let you under the love of the victory by the cross. I release you, by blessing your food on your brotherly table, and I will put My word on the table then, all the food that I want to give you today, My people. However, I ask you, son, to be moldable and to let yourself easy in My heart so that I may teach you richly God's mystery with you on earth as in heaven, My people, because the fear of God is love and it carries you, like the Father, by your little hands on the ways of His mysteries on earth, because the cross is the love which gives you life, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Now, I come into your midst again and I come into the gates, My people, and you should seek to have a firm faith for the miracle of My coming to you, because the world does not believe that I am still coming on earth at its due time. It always speaks about future times for My coming, and it does this so that it may not receive Me, that it may not sanctify itself, that it may not leave off worldliness, that it may not love the fear of God, this great mystery, by which the man does not stay without God on the earth. I made the man on earth and the Father was near Me on earth, because the earth is the footstool of Our feet as it is the man's, because the man stands with his feet on earth and with his body in heaven like God, but the man does not know what the heaven and the earth are, and he does not know what his body is either.

The man's body is a house, My people. Oh, son taught by God, do not forget that if I had not lived with My disciples two thousand years ago, and if My Spirit had not had them as His house, I would have not been able to reveal Myself to the people and the people would have not found anything about God, if I and the Father had not found any dwelling place and heaven in My disciples who were sanctifying the name of the Father and Mine; if they had not made My kingdom in them alive, because they gave away from themselves and left their body to Me as a dwelling place, and I put in them the Holy Spirit of the Father and Mine, and in this way I was on earth with the people, My people.

Oh, the man does no longer come to a stop from the walking of his mind, and he is no longer quiet in his mind that I may be able to speak with him and to give him instruction from heaven; to teach him from Me, because when the man receives from man, he remains within his mind and he does not get out of it, and it does not get out of him either, and I cannot find the man free from him to knock and to be opened to Me and to give him from Me, and to work in him the faith by which he works out his salvation, because the work of the salvation is great. It is the fruit of faith, and behold, the faith needs fruit so that the man may be saved by it from death.

The man loves the darkness more than the light; he loves more his wicked deeds, which wake up in him, because the man has no longer fear of God, Who sees in man and upon man. However, I exhort you, My people, in the name of My sufferance on the cross, to take much and great care and let the prayer go through your heart, because if it goes through your mind, your mind takes it and carries just as the water takes downstream everything it finds in its way. I exhort you, My people, with tears to long after the spiritual gifts, even if you do not come to love the gift of prophecy, but faith needs rich fruit from your spiritual gifts, which are to work out your salvation, because it is not received but only by faith, and the faith is the working one and not the sleeping one, which keeps the man far from God's will. Apostle Paul was boasting within the faith, but he said this: «But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world». (Gal: 6/4)

Oh, sons, the one who flees from the way of My cross, that one does not love the way with Me and does not work out his salvation, which has the fear of God as his support, that which makes the man love God with the love which seeks within it power for it, joy for it, faith for it, because without the faith of My disciples, I could have not become love in those who are many who have found Me and loved Me without rest, because the man makes the man great and working in the way of the waiting of My coming to the man with the gifts of love, with its fruits, with the salvation, which has all My things within it. Amen.

I want, My people, to teach you more clearly My mystery with you and near you, for you to be able to love Me, and to be able to follow Me with a greater living, with more fruit of your faith in your coming to Me to prepare by the word the earth for My great day when My entire victory will take away death from the earth, because the garment on man is spoiled by man, by what he does and eats with his heart and his body. Israel was eating manna from heaven and when he was nourishing his body this way, the garment of his body was also nourished in the same way, and his garment was no longer spoiled. However, he worked out its death instead, and he has done this with his heart inside him and death has been reigning in him not God. Here it is how and where the man gets corrupted from, and then he dies not knowing God near him as his life, as his heaven and as his love.

In the time of My trumpet sounding by Verginica, if I was telling to a Christian that he had in him the death which was eating his life inside, his heart and his health from Me, and if I was telling him that he has got love of himself, he would not believe Me. The Christian does not believe; he does not know that he has got self-love, that he thinks according to his mind, not according to My mind. However, he is also in heaven, and he is settled by angels at Me, and the heaven is heaven and it is not earth, My people.

Oh, teaching children, oh, children from the gates, if those who believe in My coming on earth as word, if these would give their minds to Me, they would understand the Lord by it, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. He who cannot love you with the whole power of their being, in such a way that I may put My love in them after that as I put it in you, those people did not understand the mysteries of My coming on earth, and they tempt My going outs and ins thorough the gates, and they take Me from heaven, as they say, and they take you from the earth, and they do not know that I take them out of you in order to know them, and that I may not tell them either when My day with glory will come, and not to tell them also: «I do not know where you come from». My Spirit, teaching children, is not your spirit, but it is Mine, and your spirit is My dwelling place in you and it is My eye upon Israel. Amen.

Oh, how well it is with the Christian who receives Me through you and not you, and who does this for Me out of love! Oh, how well it is for the Christian who comes to sit in council with you, within My council, so that I may be able to come and to give him, and for My advice to be welcomed and to be waited with faith, and that the Christian should do nothing but those of My council, because those things of him council take him out of Me each time when he has to do those things that belong to him, and which are not taken from Me to be put to work.

Oh, how well it is for the one who loves to sit in the Lord's council! Then I would be as flexible as the flexibility of the faith and the love of the son of this work of My word upon Israel are, and I could work with My council, as I love to work and to listen to the Father, and to have this way and not otherwise a favorable place in Christian, and not to be shy of the Christian's nature, and not to be afraid or to stumble against his hardness among you, because he who loves you, he also welcomes you and wait for you from Me to him, and with one like that I can sit in council and to be with the whole good among those that are My people. Amen. When I work through you and send you with My Spirit in you, you are fragile, and if I did not give you strength, My council from Me for every work done with My blessing would no longer take place. It is written in the Scriptures that the gates of My citadel will be opened day and night that I may be with My people, but the people should also be with Me and waiting for Me to be. Amen.

On earth there are only mires for the man's mind, My people, but you should sit in the shade of the cross, because it is not good to fight against the waves, but it is good to leave your mind to rest and to let go out of your hand the helm in times of waves and mires, to be able to float until the waves calm down. Sit in the shade under the cross in your hard time, and seek with peace and patience waiting, because the mind's man is drawn by mires calling from all sides, but I have taught you to stay in heaven always and to learn to be the Father's dwelling, the Father's heaven, My people, sanctifying with your heart and with your mouth the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I have tested the Christians of My coming within love, and I have tasted them by their love for Verginica, by whom I was sounding the trumpet and with whom I was with the people, and I found out that they needed faith for their own good, not that they loved it for Me and for their salvation from Me, the one under the cross and not without cross, because there is no glorified salvation without cross, My people. And then I have tested the Christians by their love for you, children by whom I am coming now to be with the people. Then I have tested many people and we have found them with love of themselves, as My early Christians from the beginning of My work also did, those who hold grudge and tempted My tool by which I was gifting them with the blessings of the heaven so that they might not perish from the earth and from the heaven by their self-love. However, I want, teaching children, to teach through you the people to stay under My cross and not to lose their fear of God, to earn with all their heart, with all their soul, and mind and love a good answer after My pleasure from the end of My labor for the salvation of many. The life is sweet under the cross; it is alive, it has a living heart, because only the Lord is the living One if He can stay and work in man. Teach the people to love the patience from under My cross and not other kind of patience, because patience struggles in man from the self-love of the man, too. Keep watch, children sons, and stay open for Me. Stay as open gates, so that I may be able to keep Israel always, always within light and to have a people, because My people is the one that walks in the light. Amen.

Oh, My people, always, always try and then to can always, always, to be able to be My confessor first from your inside, and then from outside of you between brother and brother, so that the Father may see you from heaven, to see from near you that you keep His name holy on earth as in heaven in your body and in your soul, My people, and that He may see His living kingdom into your midst and the council of His will in you. Be easy and moldable into My hand and then into My heart, to be able to understand than all the time the mystery of the Lord with you on earth, because I and the Father made the man on earth, on earth and in heaven, all these together; and do not forget that the fear of God is love and it keeps you within the Father, and also do not forget that the Lord sits in heavens and He sits in council in them and with them, and do not also forget that the Father and the Son and the heaven are near you and We hold your little hand so that the Lord may have within you the heaven on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-09-2005

The feast of the Protection[22] of the Lord's Mother

I am the Lord, watchmen little children. Let us settle down in the book as word. Let us comfort with the table of the world, My mother Virgin and her heaven of cherubim, of seraphim and of angels. Come, watchmen children from the gates, because I, your Lord God, am to you all that you do not have on earth, which is to help you for Me within the gates, because you were born for Me and not for you, because I am on earth through you. Amen.

It is hard on earth, sons, it is hard because there is no love in the hearts, and the man should be the highest dwelling place of love, because otherwise the man, poor of him, is cold, callous, ugly and without any kind of beauty, because love has great stature when it finds its house in man. Love is word and it is a sweet word before any of its work, but it is also a strong word when it defends Me and those who love Me in them and outside of them with My face, and not with a human face.

Oh, My people, I bring down word on your table to open the mysteries of My love in man and to see its face which I show you by the word, son. I set you under the shelter of My word as My Mother Virgin also, who is with Me in the word for her feast of today among saints, among angels and among heavenly powers.

Love is a sweet word when it becomes prayer in man, a word of love and glory for its master. It is a word with strength then when it becomes zeal against the one who strikes in My face from the earth. It is a word of wisdom of life then when it has sons who listen to it for My glory on earth. Love is a word of visitation when those who come in to stay in its name strike in it for its love, because it is written: «With the indomitable I will be indomitable» Love is a word of hope and peace for its peaceful sons, for those who are sweet for God and of God's sons, who are love just as God is love. It is longing and a word of longing for its gentle ones, by longing with propriety and with a noble and heavenly conduct. Again, it says that it is written: «With the merciful, You will show yourself merciful; with the perfect man You will show Yourself perfect».

[22] The feast day celebrates the appearance of the Mother of God at Blachernae (Vlaherna) in the tenth century. At the end of St. Andrei (Andrew of Constantinople) Yurodivyi's life, he, with his disciple St. Epiphanius, and a group of people, saw the Mother of God, St. John the Baptist, and several other saints and angels during a vigil in the Church of Blachernae, nearby the city gates. The Blachernae Palace church was where several of her relics were kept. The relics were her robe, veil, and part of her belt that had been transferred from Palestine during the fifth century.

The Theotokos approached the center of the church, knelt down and remained in prayer for a long time. Her face was drowned in tears. Then she took her veil (cerement) off and spread it over the people as a sign of protection. During the time, the people in the city were threatened by a barbarian invasion. After the appearance of the Mother of God, the danger was averted and the city was spared from bloodshed and suffering, r.n.

Love is a rare flower, My people, and it is no longer found on earth. It cannot live among thorns and mires. It can only live in a high and sunny place, in a serene and peaceful place, in a fertile and fruitful land for it.

Oh, children from the gates, you have Me within you with My face, with My life, with My longing, and through Me you know to call the evil, evil, and the beauty, beauty, and to call the man, angel or devil, as I knew to speak what the man's heart is, and what his face and will are. If the sons of this people do not know My face and word in you, they do not know to become dwelling places of My love on earth. He who tries to take after you by those that are human in them, that one goes wrong, because I, the Lord, do not look at the man's nature, but I look at My Spirit in man, because God is Spirit, and then He is word and work, and the man is flesh, and then he is word and deed by those of the nature of his body. They hurt by their word and deed and they do not know to stay under the spirit of My love in you, and which bows down to help the man out of his blood, because the one who is fleshly and not spiritual struggles only in his blood, only in his nature.

I comfort you, children who sigh within the gates, I, the Lord, comfort you with the pain of My word in the sufferings of My work with you and through you over the entire people of this word, because many wanted to come under the shelter by their will from the evil on the earth under the shelter of the life of My word, which springs from Me through you over the earth. I reveal the mysteries of love and its face to those who are called or called themselves My people.

Love is a rare flower and My mother Virgin leaves upon you, My people, her shelter, her word of love into your midst. Amen, amen, amen.

– You, my dear Son, are in me as word. Love is a sweet word; it is a word with strength; it is the word with rebuking; it is the word of hope and peace and it is a word of longing, Spring Son. It knows to love and it knows to punish; it knows to strengthen and to have knowledge to long; it knows all that it is over everything the man is, Son of My love for You and for the man loved by You. Amen.

People, people of this word of longing after the man! I give you today a choice advice of the most unfathomable powers of the love, and you should receive my advice. The power of love is the word of the Lord upon you. This is the power of my Son, because no one is able to be powerful but only by love. This is my advice: take the word of my Son as the shelter of your being as many times the Lord leaves it upon you. Read it in the time of the Gospel; take it as a Gospel and read it, from one word to the following word. Take from it everything that keeps you awake for its work, because if you do not give it being by a churchly reading, then you do something else, you make your nature, people of this word which becomes a heavenly shelter upon you. If you do not take it and read always from it as from a Gospel that has always come freshly from the Lord to you, you cannot give being and life and moving and work into your midst, and you are called scorner of God, not receiving and not bearing of God. Read in the time of the Gospel at the holy services, read to its fulfillment the word of God which comes to you, the word of life. Read, so that you may not forget the calling of the Lord and the fulfilling upon you of the word of His love.

When my Son was on earth among people, the people did not love Him, and that is why they did not know Him, but the devils from the people were afraid of Him, and they confessed Him as the Christ of the Father and they were praying to Him not to destroy them before they finished their time and their work among the people. When His disciples heard His name confessed by the devils, they were marveled by His power, because He was the One Lord with power, and He was working only this way, and the devils from the people confessed Him that He was the Christ of the Father.

Oh, people of this shelter of word! If you are not able to know the mystery of the Golgotha of the Holy Spirit, sit down submissively under this love, to know then the love from the Golgotha of the Holy Spirit, because one cannot walk on the way of Golgotha randomly, one cannot stay every which way, but one should stay with awe of the Holy Spirit and with overcoming sweat over all the nature, so that the resurrection may be able to come, and that the word of the resurrection of the dead may be declared and this to be preached from the top of the victory of Golgotha, because the mystery of the Golgotha of the Holy Spirit is beautiful and sweet, the mystery of love, people of the Son of the Word, and on this way one needs confidence by love from heaven on earth.

Those on the way of the glory of the Golgotha of the Holy Spirit have a crowned head and it is not possible to be without a crown of working gifts; it cannot be possible on this mighty way with the sons of the greatness. This is my exhortation upon you: read the word of my Son from one of His descents to you to another; read it in the time of the reading of the Gospel; at least read it every day, and then take it on you, people of this word. Son, do not stay without this shelter, but rather stay under the power of these mysteries of love, because each word of my Son has its glory and its gifts upon you, because it is the word with longing within it, and you have to give to the Lord what He asks from you, people with the name of the son. Amen.

However, You, Child subjected under the mystery of love, from Your birth from the Father without age, as You are, You will stay submitted under the power of love, Son of the Father and mine at the same time, and You will always teach those who take and those who do not take the love of Your word. And now, in the end of the time, I cry over those who do not know what this spring of love is, all those who put You away from them not knowing You in them with Your serene and sweet face, because those forgot when You told them that the sorrow and anger are sins against the Holy Spirit, it is a punishment caused to Your coming to man, Son Who seek and seek after the man. However, You are a rare and dear flower, and the man is haughty and ugly, dear Son, and the man does not know the mystery and the face of love. Now I have stayed near You, and I have given to Your people advice to be able to comfort Your sufferance and to comfort You because of Your many tears, which becomes spring of word upon man, so that You may be known by man, mysterious God. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, people of My word, I would like to give you word so that you may learn; to be able to give you a stature in word and deed, to be able to give you word for faith in the spiritual gifts and to be able to give you word as fruit of the Holy Spirit, My people. The angels and the saints have knitted little crowns to some of you, and I would like to be able to give them to you, and you to be able to work under their glory. In the end, little crowns are given to the gifts of the Holy Spirit, but I cannot do as the teacher on earth does, which looks at the man's face, at the man's rank. I cannot do something like that, but I share according to the labor of the one who worked out My gifts over the earth and in the people. There is no spirit of justice on earth and justice and its sons dwell in heaven. I ask you all to get hold of little crowns and seek first to learn what they are knitted of by the angels and by the saints, and then learn what a little crown cannot be knitted of. Long after the spiritual gifts, and let the angels and the saints see them working in you, in such a way that they may knit by their work a little crown for you, sons. You will be very much ashamed, greatly ashamed if you do not have little crowns, if you do not gather the fruit of the spiritual gifts, the choice wisdom and the choice conduct, by which there can be brought forth fruits of the heavenly gifts. The gifts of the saints hover in the air, from earth up to heaven, and the saints want to seek worthiness in you for the holy gifts. My work with you, My people, has to show the face of the heaven on earth before the people, so that the man may be able to see the heavens in which the Father dwells with His Son and with the saints. Amen.

Oh, sons, the evil angels struggle to make some of you like them, to deprive your hearts of My Spirit and to stay within your spirit to separate you from the Spirit of the Lord, Who waits to take back the entire kingdom on earth. Get hold of salvation looking at Me and taking My image within you. Your image is not good within you. My image is good within you instead, for soundness of mind in you. Soundness of mind is nothing else but My mind in you, but make room for Me in you. Moreover, if you do not know how, it means that you have not been seeking to learn this by this time, to be able to have now a little crown knitted by angels and by the saints for the choice teaching and for its fruits in you. Long after the spiritual fruits, sons. Amen.

I leave you, My people, under the shelter of My word, and struggle, son, after the spiritual gifts to have them and to be My child, and to know that you are Mine and that you have from what is Mine and to work.

And as for you, My helmsmen children, stay at the helm and stay with justice, because the love with justice is the greatest spiritual gift, and I will make up with it through you the land of those who are alive and then their heirs on it. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-10-2005

The feast of the devout Parascheva

The angelic work of the coming down of My word on the earth to you to feed you so that you may live, My people, this work is served within a great glory by the angels in hosts, because the heaven has its angelic work for it over the earth, and the spirit of the darkness, that is God's adversary, always comes into My way and he does not listen anyhow to stand aside so that I may pass on to you and to find the gates strengthened and they to open for Me to set a heavenly table and to keep you at it, My people, and that it may not perish from the way of the Holy Spirit of your soul and thus not to have someone to give it to God, from where it proceeds, because I, the Lord of the heavenly glory, spoke the mystery about the ten virgins, five foolish and five wise, for the salvation of the man, and I said it with great sorrow, and by it I have taught the man faithful to My name, the one from the Father, not to play with his vessel, not to stay naked and not to stay by himself, but rather to stay as My light in him, to find him as My light when I always, always come accompanied by the angels who always, always speak in glory and in mystery upon you: «Behold! The Bridegroom is coming!» (Matt: 25/6)

My coming as word, carried by angels in glory upon you, My people, is being perfected by a great, great beauty, the more so as the angels of the darkness in man cut My way to My vessels out of which I feed you with the life of My word, they cut My way to the place where I have My dwelling place and the gates of entrance for My coming. If the man saw the angels of the darkness fighting for the man's destruction in order that I may have him as Mine, the man would get scared and fall overcome with great terror, and it would happen to him the same way if he saw the glory of the cherubim, seraphim and angels, when I come and work out My coming down for man to give the man food from heaven, for his incorruptibility[23]. However, I strengthen My way and I sit on it with My power, out of which I give to those who are bearers of God's glory within His coming after the man, because if I would not settle down into My bearers when I come and walk on to the earth for My works written in the Scriptures to work them out, then I, the Lord, would stay aggrieved, like the angels of My descent, who would stay the same way. However, I stay with power, as I am, and My power keeps in its mystery and in its work those who were and are My stairway to heaven, the descent of the Lord and of His saints on earth to the people, where the angels of the darkness have their work opposing to God and to man.

[23] See the selection topic „The mystery of humankind salvation - the mystery of incorruptibility", r.n.

People, people nourished from heaven! He who is nourished from heaven, that one is from heaven, and the darkness of the evil spirits do not enter it. People, people overshadowed by the angelic glory of My descent to you! Oh, the one who learns from Me to watch and then watches, that one is a vessel with oil, and I become a burning candle in that one and I walk with it on the earth, and I become the light of the world when I can do this, when I can be in the world to be its light. Oh, people with a table from heaven before you, with the vessel full of Christ, a vessel full of oil on your table! You should know that the spirit of the darkness hides is face to receive it. You should not become his vessel. Do not become his word. You should not be his servant, son. Learn from your teachers that are upon you what God's servant does and what the servant of the devil does, which is God's adversary. Behold a boundless sufferance. The human spirit of the darkness wants to take the law into his hands against God and against My vessels that are upon you, My people, the vessels of My coming down to you, because this dark spirit strikes the gates, insults, spits, blasphemes with rebellion, betrays, struggles and gets dark and tries to defame My work and the stairway of My coming to you, My people, for woe to the one who does not watch with the heavenly Bridegroom for His coming and work! Woe to those who stay in the world and not in God! Woe to the Christian that came into My people who handles the mysteries of My work to blaspheme it and to sell it! Oh, you cannot sell God, you, the one who wake up with the spirit of discontent, of rebellion, and then with a spirit of blasphemy and betrayal by your haughty tongue, which becomes a member of the angels of the darkness, like your heart in which you hide from God to blaspheme Him from the sides afterwards. I am the Almighty One, and he who does not know Who I am and how I am by the work of My word, that one has taken his eye and his mind away from this book and walks within the spirit of the world and he walks like the world and then becomes God's adversary.

My people, do not keep company with God's adversaries. You, the one who wants to remain Mine, do not walk with the one who fights against Me and against you. Be good and stay in My word fulfilled in you and upon you, and stay with this book open and stay in the book. Do not jump out of this book, out of this boat, because the more treacherous people and the more blasphemers and slanderers arise against the holy people and against My holy things, the greater the holy war. However, I have the tongue of an efficient disciple into your midst, and I empower you with it and I enclose you within it and I make a borderline between you and the one who separates himself from the body of this people, and I am not afraid of man and of his face wandering away from God, for woe to the one who hides from God in the midst of this people for his own will, for his own work! Woe, because that one becomes darkness, and then he is served by the angels of the darkness.

I have taught you, My people, the angelic work. Open the book and read what I have taught you, because I told you not to walk on earth and in My fold, not to walk without angels or with a weak angel. I have taught you not to talk two by two, because there it is where the spirit of the darkness makes its nest, and then it strengthens itself with darkness against Me and against the sons who stay in the light. And behold, I draw your attention to the mysteries of the ten virgins, because not all of them were wise. Half of them were foolish and did not watch and did not see the Bridegroom coming, and when they tried to knock to come in after they went to get foreign and bought oil, they did no longer see and they did no longer hear from the inside of the wedding place but only the voice of the Bridegroom Who said: «Most assuredly I tell you, I don't know you». (Matt: 25/12)

Oh, Christian, who stay with you into your arms and betray the Lord by your self-love! You should know and not forget that your protecting angel is not like you. He is obedient to God and has a sign of his submission on him, and he has got the sign of his submission on his angelic head. When you oppress the angel, you do no longer have God as your master, and neither the angel, because the angel has a shelter of submission before his Master, God.

The laziness for those that are spiritual comes from insubordination, from disobedience, from pride, from the lust of the eyes, from the lust of the body, which lusts without God, and when the Holy Spirit cannot protect the man, the man becomes a servant of the angels of the darkness. But in order that you may understand this, My people, open the book as much as I have given you from it, because upon your complete opening, you will see your name called in it, and you will stay face to face with you yourself by this book, and the angels of the darkness will see you and condemn you, because nothing condemns the man more than his darkness, and woe to the man hidden in himself and in the man!

People, people, keep good watch and eat oil of My book of life giving, to be a vessel full of oil and not to be poor, so that you may not need to look at foreigners, to those who sell, (The worldly church, r.n.) after the door will be closed and the Bridegroom will come into His chambers with His bride full of oil in her vessel. My people, mind that you do not take My voice in vain. You should not close the voice of the Bridegroom in the book because you will be judged according to the book for good or for evil, because I became a book in you, and I am with you in it, for I have said to all those who are stubborn: «I will not judge, but the word that I spoke, that will ask by what it was violated». (See also John: 12/48) Amen

Oh, My people, I have come with the saints, and the devout Parascheva, the virgin who became a vessel of My oil, watches from the hosts of the devout; she watches like the wise virgin and wants to declare "amen" for My word upon you at her feast.

– Amen, amen I say to you, sons and daughters who have got God, the Word, as light above you: I did not come out from the Lord after I was born out of His love and for His love. I came out of the world and I did it completely and then I had stayed in the Lord on earth and I had become His light and His vessel with oil, and then I kept myself a pure bride within my heart, within my body, within my word and love and I did not betray Him for another love, and I did not love myself, because I could no longer do this, and I could work only for Him after that.

You, children of the Lord, who stay as His gates to the people, I remind you, for the victorious power by which the Lord dwells in you, and like the Lord, I also speak to those who strike you: «He who does not receive you, sends the Lord off and not you», and this is what it happens to the one who does not keep his promises for his new birth, forgetting about submission and obedience, forgetting that the man cannot be angel, that he cannot be without obedience, that he cannot be without witnesses of his birth from above.

And Your book with Your people, Lord and Bridegroom, Who come with the bride from the heaven to the one from the earth, You will read from Your book and You will wash with it and with its truth Your cheek struck by the spirit of the darkness in those who did not want and do not want to be and to stay under the sign of submission, the sign requested at Your table of wedding, the sign which will confess for You those that are Yours, and who, like You, are crying now, for any perfect disciples is like his teacher, and any bride is like her bridegroom and she is one body with him. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, people, people, I, the Lord, and the voice of My saints sound the word of the heavenly powers upon you. The feast of the angels is coming near. Spread the news, you from the gates, because it will be an angelic feast for those who are My living ones and for those who are their sleeping ones, who wait for their calling at My table of resurrection. Announce the people to stay and tell it to stay under the sign of submission, as the angels who stay in My work with them. Look at their image in the icons and teach the people to look at the angels of My glory to know that any work of the light has always had its enemies, but it has eternally its blessing and its God as well, blessed and holy from everlasting to everlasting, and blessed and holy are those who have part of the resurrection without death, because My glory will be upon them. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-10-2005

The feast of the saint martyr Demetrius[24], the myrrh bearer

Oh, My people, My descent to you becomes difficult and painful. I am the Son of sufferance in heaven and on earth, and I go through sufferance and I come down to give you a spirit of life giving and to take from it if you do not have. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is how I give you instructions in your life, and then I advise you and I urge you to take from Me the spirit of life giving, as I give you to receive, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, because if you take otherwise, My coming down to you does not stick to you, and I, the Son of sufferance am, when I come down with food for the people.

For two thousand years I have been looking down on earth and working hard, because I have no one to help Me in My work in order to put life without death in man, because the man stands against himself and he does not want to learn the mystery and then the power for his birth from above. The whole heaven of saints long for sons born from above on earth and who are to take after Me in love and in faith, because this means to be sons born of God. There is no teaching on earth for the birth from above of the man, and if I made up My coming from the end of the faith in God, I cannot make heavenly sons from men for Me; I cannot because no one on earth can understand the mystery and the work of the man's birth from above so that the man may become a son of God on earth.

I am within a feast of holy martyrs, of God's sons, a feast with love from heaven in it, because those who have loved the heaven on earth, have also become saints of My heaven at the end of their waiting, and I am coming with the heaven of saints to you, My people, and I advise you and I urge you to live as one born from heaven on earth, so that I may be together with sons on earth as much as possible, because he who does not have sons is not a father, and he who does not have any disciples is not a teacher, and again, he who is not a teacher does not have any disciples.

Oh, children who set My word on the table of My people! Oh, sons, always fragile, always in sufferance! Let the people look at you for My Spirit, the life giving One, and let it learn the gift and the grace of the life without death, because he who stops looking, that one dies away day after day and more and more and he does no longer live the life without death, but he rather lives that one which is on earth in all those who do not become God's sons among people.

I am with the people in word in this day, and I am at the celebration of My martyr, Demetrius, and with him there is also a host of martyrs who listen with their spirit in tears after the longing of the word of My mouth, the Spirit of life giving, Who is born of Me to give birth to sons from Him, and sons for Him not for them, because he who does not live for Me, that one lives for himself, My people. Oh, sons, I exhort you according to the grace of eternal life, because you have the saints together with you at the table, and I also give them what I give to you, in order that you may feed their spirit with the mystery of the man's creation, with the life for God's sons on earth, these sons so much waited by the saints.

[24] Demetrius of Thessaloniki

Oh, My people, let every man receive My teaching that is on you, every man who reaches to it, and let him feel that I am this word. He who does not always learn what life is, then that one cannot have a teacher. Only the one who loves God with the whole of his being, only that one seeks to have life. The life without a teacher is not the life from above, it is not a new birth, always from above, but it is rather only self-mind, a man without a father and without a mother, a man without a teacher, a man who does not have anyone through whom to be and to be always.

Let the man not rely anyhow on the kingdom of the heavens with him if he has not got a teacher. I told the man that the kingdom of the heavens belongs to the infants, because only the infants know to live in it, only they know that they cannot live without their parents, because when the grow up, they leave off their parents, as Adam did by his self-mind, by which He stood against his Maker. Woe to the one who brings himself to the God of his work and does not always, always look then to learn what his birth from above means, a newly born man, a man with a teacher upon his life and not with his entire self upon him. Let the one who comes near Me and near the word of My teaching not come for something else but only for his birth from above and for his stature of God's son then, because if this miracle does not comprise him and if it is not known upon him, that one will have to give Me an answer for his life. He who does not have anyone through whom to be, that one is an untimely birth and he grows like that, but the one who comes to be born from above, from My word of life giving, if that one is not born from above, a son into My image, then he will give a difficult and painful answer for himself before Me, because I have advised them with the mystery of My life in man and I have given him a teacher from Me, to have someone to give him always life, and in this way he may always be able to receive and to seek to receive.

Behold, My people, I tell you a deep mystery in it, so that all may hear, all those who take from you My teaching with the Spirit of life giving in it. I spoke for the one who sins against the Son of Man that he will be forgiven, but that it will be hard for the one who sins against the Holy Spirit. However now, I am speaking for that time and for this time and I say this: whoever has sinned against the Son of Man before his knowing that He is the Son God, that one will be forgiven. And I say again: whoever has sinned against My servant before his knowing that the servant is My word and the vessel of My coming, he will be forgiven. Amen.

Oh, people, people, I teach you with longing and with pain to stay under My teaching and to take it upon you with fear of God, with faith and with love, son, because I, the Lord, said by the prophets that disobedience and insubordination are greater sins than witchcraft and idol worshiping and they are even their fruit. I have exhorted you, within My great teaching of endless life upon you and I have told you to take care of the life in you, to keep My teaching in you so that you may not lose it, so that you may not get lost from it. I have exhorted you how to tread upon the devil's power that waits for you at all the crossroads and on all your ways, and I have told you to make the sign of the holy cross on the soles of your footwear, and to make it always with oil from the candle and with holy water so that you may overcome for you, for the protection of your life, and then for My coming and for My work on earth by the fruit of your life with obedience and submission to the word of My teaching, which shepherds you and protects you so that you may not perish from before Me, My people. However, I am exhorting you today with a fresh exhortation to leave of your will and to love My will instead; My word fulfilled by you, because the one who is ruled by his will and by his mind, that one is a master and cannot be a son. I cannot make you into My son anyhow you might like, but only you can become My son as I want you to be, because the standing before Me of those who want to be the sons of My teaching is not otherwise. This word, kingdom, it will be to be one soon, because I will overcome the kingdom of death and the cunning devil, who has got power by the will of the man. However, I will be victorious in the end, and I want to exhort the man not to remain in his own self, not to remain with the spirit of the devil, which he does not know that it is, and which it really is, but rather to remain with My Spirit of life giving, Who reveals Himself to make, from Him, sons of God on earth, and that only I may be able to overcome with them. Amen.

– Oh, only You, God of Your saints, and I also want to help You with a sonship love, because we, Your saints, are Your comfort and help, and we are Your resurrection. I did not separate myself from You even when I could do it, and neither then, when I could no longer do this. I have always been Your son, when out of Your love for the people, You gave me birth among the sons of the people. And I tell to the people of Your word as well, and You have also made attentive the sons from the gates of Your coming, I tell them that if those, who hear Your word, keep it, they keep their word too, because You have got teaching children over the sons of Your people, and whoever does not fulfill Your word, then he will not receive theirs too. Oh, I have so much mercy on those who suffer deeply, on those who stay as the gates of Your coming with food of word to Your people and to all those who will receive of Your Spirit of life giving.

Oh, people of the teaching from above, which gives birth to sons for it, and you, sons of the people who bow to take of this food! Nothing is worse, man, than not to believe and not to receive the truth about you, and that it may not follow you with power to pull you out of yourself then and to give yourself to the Lord and to the Lord's brothers, because for this truth, for it and only for it you will be called into account before the Lord and before thousands and millions of angels and not before the man. Oh, when you cannot give an account in yourself of the truth about you, how will really be then when you are to answer to the Lord about yourself after you have not wanted anyone to answer on your behalf before the Lord, after you have not been able to belong to the Lord more than you have not been able to belong to yourself, more than you have been with you, after you have not wanted to believe and to know the life of the eternal life?

Behold, the man stays hidden within him. How could he give an answer to God when it will come for him to do this? If you are not at peace with your neighbor and before him, disregarding him, how will you be able to stay within the Lord's heart at the same time, son? Oh, the way of the kingdom of the heavens is a way with much love on it, with much humility and lowliness of heart, with much sacrifice on it. It is not a way like that of the man. However, how comes that the man does not run to find and then to be able to bear this kingdom inside of his being?

Oh, people of the Lord, I exhort you towards the kingdom, which has come to you and which teaches you for it. Take care of the Lord and not of yourself, but at the same time you should also learn this work from your teacher, because if you counsel yourself alone about what you are to do, then you are a master, and you cannot be a son, if you are your own master, since you do not listen for the work that is about you, that which is for you. He who receives advice from himself and for himself, that one is a master and is not obedient to the kingdom of the sons of God, because the sons have another garment; they have the garment of obedience and submission with the love of a son, with a firm faith and without complaining sacrifice, by the power of the Lord. Amen.

The one who wants to become a son, that one can do everything the Lord wants, and this is the exhortation by which I crown from heaven my feast among the martyrs who have taken the crown of the saints' long endurance to the glory of Christ, the good and holy Teacher of those who, seeing Him, follow Him on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Comfort to you, oh, comforting saints by your work, which is like Mine, the Teacher of My saints. For two thousand years I have kept saying that I will be coming soon, and I said so to have the faithful one to watch, but behold, the kingdom of the heavens is like five wise virgins out of ten, who were waiting for the coming of their Bridegroom. The five wise ones were also ready according to the Lamb's pleasure, and they were not only virgins and that is all, but they were also waiting for the fulfilling of My word by which I said: «I come soon to give each one according to his work».

Oh, My people, My teaching upon you is great. You should not take little of it, because five of the ten virgins were foolish and did not take on them everything I am and everything that I have left for the sons of the kingdom to have on them and over them and in them, the sons of the kingdom who believe this word of Mine: «I come soon!»

Oh, Israel of My mercy, the feast of the angels is coming near to you. Come near to them too and make their joy and give your life to them, so that they may make it like My life, because My angels have the work of My kingdom to settle on earth, and they have to make free those who cry waiting for ages for the new heaven[25] and for the new earth, this mystery of the eternal life, and which will settle down everywhere and over everything soon, soon. Amen.

My people, get ready, and welcome the angels and set your entire being within this feeling, and make a heavenly place of feast in you, waiting on and on, because My angels and I come soon, soon, and I want to find you waiting, because I come soon. Amen, amen, amen.

26-10/08-11-2005

The synod of the holy archangels Michael and Gabriel

I have come down to My people on earth with the day of the feast of the angels. Before Me and before them, there goes their chief angel, Michael, the archangel, My angel, and everyone listens to him and comes to the feast near the people of My word. It is a heavenly order in all the retinue of My coming with the angels and with the saints. It is a feast as in heaven, not as on earth, and this is how I come when I come to the people to feed it with word and with grace from grace, and to exalt it to the humility of spirit, which is the grace of My angels in heaven and on earth.

Come; open for Me, you from the gates. I knock at the gates when I arrive before them. Come, watchful children, because happy is the servant, whom I find watching for My coming. Therefore, open for Me! I am Who I am. I tell you Who I am when I knock while coming. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lord of the angels of the heavenly glories, the Lord of the saints, and I am the Lord your God, and you should have a people, so that I may have what you have, because if you do not have, I do not have either. Those who have you among them and Me, they are those whom I have, because I have set you before My coming to share My word and all those, who love to fulfill the word to the glory of My name over the faithful and the unfaithful, may come together near it, for woe to those who know the word from Me and not perform it for the glory of My name on it over the believers and unbelievers of My coming once, (At first, at the creation of man, r.n.) and then once again two thousand years ago, and again, now, after the ages and their seals have passed, so that I may be able to open My book with the seven seals and to work out the righteousness for God with it, and which the people of the ages have always, always, forgotten about, because on earth it is not as in heaven and it is not seen as in heaven. The man stays away from God on earth, and that is why the heaven is not seen by man, but there is no man who, by taking off his body, may not see the heaven on earth and may not suffer deeply and heavily from his separation from God and from God's angels, because without angels the man is not able to have any word before Me. Without God's angels one cannot erase from the tally the man's departure from God. And here I am with an angelic feast near My people born of My word in this time.

[25] See the selection topic: „The heaven – the throne, the earth – the footstool: the man deified", r.n.

My Romanian voice fills the air with the glory of My word carried by My angel, because without an angel I cannot be before the man. The angels do not have any body, and they cover My body between Me and man, as they covered it when I settled in the Father, ascending on angels after I was resurrected from crucifixion.

My people, I want to make joy to the angels. Michael, the archangel, My angels, is their chief angel, who is the angel of My people as well. I am his word and he is My word.

I have got a little fold into your midst, My people, and I am born and grow up and share Myself to you and to the man on earth, because I have the angels as My bearers and those who share Me forward to you from near you; to you and to the man on earth. All the angels of My glory listen to My angel, and he listens to Me as in heaven so on earth.

Oh, My angel! Speak! Amen, amen, amen.

– If You command, Lord, I fulfill and I glorify You in heaven and on earth, by speaking. Your Romanian voice is in my word and I am Your angel, Your word, which becomes angel over Your people, and over Your angel. Amen.

Oh, people served by the angels and by the saints of the invisible heaven, which is not seen by man! We are those who cover by our nature without a body the Lord of the glory in His coming to you with food of eternal life and with power for it. Let the one who wants to see the Lord of glory, arise above and beyond his body and live on earth as one without body, by the fruits of the Spirit and then by the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oh, Lord, I would like to tell Your people and mine to remember Your word by which You have exhorted it to work as in heaven. You have told once to those who set You as word before Your people, You have told them to leave only one helm on each city of Christians, to protect Your people from all the hardships inside and outside of it. Your teaching Spirit said through the prophets: «Woe to the city with many rulers over it or to the one without a ruler over it!» These two are equal in wickedness, because the city with many rulers do not have any ruler at all, and that is why it is so, and the city without a ruler is so because many sit down in it to rule.

Oh, Lord of the beautiful glory of Your angels and saints! The guidance in the time of Moses over Israel people was meant to be beautiful. He organized leaders and they also chose assistants for a good leadership, and there were not chosen randomly at this heavenly work. No one was choosing himself, because Your Holy Spirit in Moses was working by marking down those who were worthy of God. However, if those who have been marked do not have within their care people from among those with faithfulness of spirit, then those who were marked cannot make a heavenly order peacefully and usefully for God, as it is among God's angels. No people and no city are able to escape from sufferance upon it if it does not know to have a leadership over those in the city. Oh, Lord Teacher, let Your people follow the example from the angels, and let all Your citadels of New Jerusalem have an angelic order. For seven thousand years the angels of Your works have been staying in submission of Your word spoken by me in the time of the falling of the angels, because then I spoke over the angels a commandment: «Let us stay well and with awe and let us take heed!» This work brought the angels into its submission, and I took over the helm and the angels are submitted to me to stand well and with awe and with obedience, and in this way to do Your works on earth and in heaven, in heaven and on earth, Lord. Oh, where it is not like this on earth among people, there it is the woe, of which those full of the Holy Spirit prophesied about, but it will be the same on earth soon, soon, and it will be on earth as in heaven. Amen.

– Oh, My obedient angel and submitted to My Spirit! I told you: speak! However, you did what I said, and you brought to My people the mystery of the angelic life upon it, a wonderful work of the happiness on earth. However, for such a work heavenly love in man is needed, heavenly wisdom in man and good will between man and man for the work of submission, which is not a worsening condition for the man, but it is rather a heavenly glory for him and with him.

Oh, it is very hard on earth, because it has been a long time since the man fell, and it has been this long time since I, the Lord, have been laboring with a crushed sigh within Me to be able to make the man wise, and then for him to desire happiness, and to want it again, as the angels have wanted it, those who remained My angels after the fall of the angels, which took place after the man had no longer loved the submission, which has kept him within the happiness of the heaven, and Me in man, in the house which I have built. Amen.

Behold, we call out at the table of the angels those who left off their bodies in the time of those seven thousand years. Their joy is indescribable, but the same is the sufferance for those who, like them in their time, do not know on earth to appreciate God, because the man stands away from God on earth and he does not know the pain, which will take him in it after that. Those who are asleep have been waiting for God from on earth not from heaven, because they have seen the heaven on earth and they have seen and waited for the joy, which will take them within it after I will have work on earth as among angels. Amen.

Comfort each other, you those who are aggrieved after God! Little, little and there will be its light and its comfort. Blessed are those who love on earth the sorrow after God, because they will find their joy, which will take them back in it. Oh, comfort each other now! I have been marking Myself with the voice of My angel upon you, because a table with angels is set before you.

Oh, there is among you a soul that cries. My trumpet Verginica wants that the one, who cries, to be allowed to speak. (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) Let us not bring to an end the word of the book of today, children from the gates, until we see what it is with the one who cries out to you. However, now we work out the day of the feast of the angels, and then we set down to work to search out the one who cries from among those who are called at the angelic table on this day of feast.

The heaven, the earth and the heaven sighs after this work of My coming to you, My people, and the spirits of those who are perfect also sigh after it, My people, and My trumpet Verginica stays at this border to be intercessor and to bring forth a teaching example over the people, because the people stand away from God on earth, and that is why the heaven is not seen by man.

Oh, My people, there have come together at the feast, those who feed on My word. I have given them, as I have given to you, the voice of the archangel, the voice of My angel, the teaching for a beautiful work to those who have My teaching and who want to stay within it wherever they are. When God falls from between man and man, between brother and brother, then the heaven and its beauty suffers without a home. That is why, I tell you to watch sons, so that the heaven may have a house among you and that the heaven may be seen on earth. I have marked Myself upon you with the voice of My word for the feast of the angels. Kneel down and always ask Me for a new spirit of My Spirit. I have marked Myself with My sign upon you, and you should strengthen the dwelling place in you for My Spirit.

Sons, sons, stay away from the work of the devil and keep him away from you, because I have always taught you to listen to the whole word of My teaching upon you. Sons, sons, the man stands away from God on earth, and you should stand away from the devil and close to God, withstand the devil steadfastly because I gave you heavenly weapons. Subject yourselves always to the teaching, sons. Teach everywhere the whole obedient people to love submission as the angels love it in heaven, to their most beautiful happiness, sighing with it after the man's happiness, which stays away from God on earth, not seeing the heaven so close to him.

My Romanian voice is wanted by all those who have been carrying a body on earth, because My word refreshes their entire burning and crying.

My angel goes everywhere in this day and shares comfort and hope, but help Me, My people, to overcome the man's enemy and to take the man out from his grievance, because it is for this that you have been called out to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

Remain with the book of today open, children from the gates. We will sit at the table with the angels, and we will release then those who are remembered at the table of My angels, and we will be comforters, because we are from the Father, sons. Amen.

*

Oh, sons from the gates, I stay with Verginica at the border between those that are seen and those that are not seen, and the perfect order of the angels accompanies Us and serves Us. I have let the feast of today flow, and I have exhorted you through the angels. My angel, Michael, has reminded My people to work and to live according to the order of the angels, on earth as in heaven. And behold, those who passed away with their body, wait for Me from the earth and not from heaven, because the whole work for their salvation is being worked out on earth, and the heaven answers to the earth. Amen.

Oh, Verginica, you have a desire and the Lord and all the angels accomplish it for you, and then we release the angels together with those who are called to the feast by their memorial of today. Among those who passed away from their body, you have with you a voice of a soul crying by the work of My word, which speaks on earth. What is your desire, Verginica?

– I have rejoiced among all angels and among all those who have come together for their feast, and our people remembered those who were asleep, and they have also come together, Lord, because it is great obedience among those that are not seen, and they have come because they were called out, and they have taken the joy of the feast and their joy in it and from Your work with Your people. Oh, how beautiful, how wonderful work those that are seen with those that are not seen, but the man stands away from God on earth, and that is why the haven is not seen by the man. I bring to the children who carry us the crying of the one who, among those who were called and remembered at the table of today, cry to me to speak about him on earth; a soul from my little birth village, who has been asking me to give him the chance to speak to our children who bring us down word on earth, to give him comfort in his sighing. I, full of mercy, as I also was on earth, seek to work much in the heavenly things as well, and to bring Your fruit, Lord. And I am also speaking now with those that are in the gates, so that they may know what this little soul is crying for, the one remembered today among those who are mentioned.

Oh, watching children at the gates for the Lord, for the saints, for the angels and for those who have passed away from their body! Behold, I tell you the sighing of the one who cries to you through me. I hear him, and I want to let you know about his crying, so that those on earth may know how great this work of word between heaven and earth is. You are tired of the pains from the Lord's work and from the pains of those who have been waiting without any power for their salvation and comfort from the Lord. Behold, this little soul that has been crying wants you to set before him the mercy and the love that you have got, because he is deeply wounded for all the pains he brought to you in his unrest from you in the time of his living on earth, because you walked in the way of this word according to the Lord's will, and although he knew this, he did not do it, and he always was restless and brought you anxiety. He keep asking me, behold, he asks me to tell you that he stays fearfully, looking at you with sighing, because the Lord has enabled him to see the armor that you have taken upon you, and he has been sighing bitterly because he did not know this, because he served the spirit of the pride and of haughtiness, and he lived on earth in opposition to you in your way with the Lord, after the Lord made you His servants. He is comforted and refreshed if he can let you know that he is sighing with remorse for the wounds, which he had always done to you, as one without knowledge, without faith and without fear of God. I am the one who tells you about those who sigh in him, because he is not able to pass now. He is sorry because he struck you, because he threatened you, that he hated and followed you to fill you with pains and threats as one without any fear. He suffers without any comfort because he crushed you as many times as he was able do this, and now he sees what God has got for you, what kind of love there is among those in heaven for you, what service you bring to the heaven, and the heaven to you, what a wonderful work among those in heaven and among you, and he sees this now and he is filled with mourning and remorse. He has been looking at you with tears all the day of the feast of today. I have come to help him and then he has looked and sighed and cried to me to help him by making his wound known to you. He is ashamed before the angels because he was full of pride on earth, and his human mind has put him to shame now, because with the Lord these do not have any value. What it is of value for people, it is without any kind of value with God and with angels. Now he is asking you to take his side and to give everything you could offer him on earth, if he had been able to remain small before this work of feast and comfort of those who have loved it for its heavenly glory among people. He is looking at you now, at your goodness and mercy, and he has taken courage because you are merciful. He is asking for your help, because you are great with the Lord. He is asking you to be his help for the comforting of the pain of his spirit without reconciliation in sighing, because he does no longer has anyone; neither mother, nor father, nor sister, nor brother, nor family, nor friends, that they may help him. He is crying to you, and I give you this news on earth as an example over all and for all those who still do not value this great work of the Lord with you on earth among people. Release his spirit from his pain, because all the evil, which he brought about to you by his wickedness without his being able to know about the grace you have from the Lord, has been pressing hard on him. Now he is looking only after you, because he persecuted you on earth, he blasphemed you, he made you suffer, he threatened you, and in the end of the time of his body, with even greater haughtiness he struck in you and in the Lord's people, blowing storm and threatening upon you by his arrogant pride, nourished by the spirit of opposition. He is refreshed now because he can show his repentance and because the work of this word is such a great miracle. He is asking you with uncomfortable sigh to give him power of comfort, to wipe out from before the Lord his shame and his pain, with your little sweet and affectionate little hearts for every soul, lost from the way with glory of the Lord on earth. I will tell him, and he will receive the refreshment, the peace and the comfort, because he is very, very anxious, children sons, when he sees you before the Lord opening yourselves to Him to grow you and to grow His people and to teach it and protect it and to glorify it with His heavenly glory. I give this little crushed soul, I give him from you all that he wants you to give, and may the Lord judge with mercy his fate and may He give him from the fullness of His mercy, children sons.

Lord, I have announced all the calling, all the prayer of the one who cried out to the children of Your coming down on earth in the day of the feast of the angels, when Your people has remembered those who are asleep. Lord, I pray to You to reach out Your comfort and refreshment of soul to the one who has been crying out to me to speak from the gates. I am with him at the border. Now release those who are called into memorial, take back to his place the one who has been crying, and so that You may work out with him the miracle of comfort and of that of release,

Lord, because I am Your trumpet, which calls out everywhere, announcing the work of Your coming and waiting for You at the border to come and to give each one according to his works, and then according to Your mercy, Lord, because we have intercessors on earth, we have children with Your mercy and work in them. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Verginica, you are joy in heaven and on earth, because you are mother and you have a Samaritan heart. Those in the gates received the news brought by you, and I see their little hearts, and I comfort there where it is called out for comfort, Verginica, and blessed are those who have as a little gate this work of My coming, because this is the gate of the comfort. Amen.

Oh, watchful children, My Romanian voice moves the heaven and the earth. Michael, My angel, sets the angels in order, after their day of feast. Always exhort My people to work as in heaven as among angels, and let every son who fulfills Me in him in My people be My little angel, and let him listen as the angels listen, for woe to this city, which is not governed, or which is governed by many!

My people, take the example from the angels, sons, because their work of leadership by My angel Michael, brought into the submission of its happiness the angels when they were ready to fall away from God as a result of Lucifer's haughtiness. However, you should be a good people, like the angels, for the work of My coming on earth to you and from you over the entire earth, is served by angels, My people, and it should be served by you in the same way, and you should also help Me, My people, to overcome the devil and to take the man out of his sorrow, because it is for this that you have been called to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-11-2005

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

I am at the border between My people and Me. I am at the gates waiting, and I want to strengthen them, because I find them weakened, but I need to leave in the book the day of the celebration of My mother, the Virgin, and to give My people advice for its life and longing for its spending with Me, for My life in the sons of My people. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, you are weak, sons. I have been waiting from dawn to see power in you for My descent. I cannot let the day of feast pass without putting it into the book, because My word from you is My food, the food of My saints and of My angels. I have come with healing saints and with strengthening angels for you, to set you before Me, sons and children. Oh, My descent has become difficult for Me, and I need much help from heaven and from earth to help you to be able to stand before Me with peace and with power in you. Oh, children sons, take care of your health, and let the people take care of your power, because I need you to come on earth as word and to heal the earth from the emptiness that has come out from man, and one day to be able to fulfill perfectly the glory of My work with you and its view. But I need the people, and My people should be consumed with longing and with love, and it should know that I need love and longing from man to be able to come and to give to those that are loved and are loving the reward for those who working and waiting, have loved Me and grown Me in them and among them, revealing Me to the people and to the angels in heaven. Amen.

Oh, My people, the angels want to serve you for Me, because the reward of those who take care of Me on earth is great. Oh, the whole day I have wanted to strengthen My gates so that I may be able to come to you, because I found them without any power when I came early in the morning. Moreover, I have also reminded you of those five wise virgins who not only that they fulfilled the things for their cleansing and salvation, but they also loved Me and watched with longing and faith and with great work for My coming. However, you need to come to have grace and to understand that without the grace of the Holy Spirit, you cannot be wholly, son. The work of the grace is the crowning of those who work those things that are pleased to God in man. In all the time of My word with you, I have been exhorting you to grace, and to love for grace, and I have told you that the fulfilling within your body is not enough. I have always told you, My people, to be full of grace and full of love from heaven, and I have also told you through the angels and the saints, and behold, My mother, the Virgin, also tells you again your work for My kingdom into your midst.

Oh, My mother, I have put comfort and power from heaven over weaknesses in the gates. Oh, how exhausted these children are, mother! You should also give them powers and come down with the voice of your feast over the people of My word, because it always has to be asked by those in heaven to watch and to strengthen its love and its watchfulness, mother. Now, set the grace and your gift upon them, oh, My mother! Amen.

– We, dear and merciful Son, we bring powers to those who carry us to the people, but they need powers and supplications from God for Your coming, good Lord, not only from us, but more from the grace of Your people. However, we, patient Son, we have always given them powers, but at least let them not be worn out, let the powers not be crushed, but rather multiplied to them, dear Son. I exhort Your people to days of feast and watchfulness and to growth, for great powers are needed from now on, because the time is harder and harder, and the sons of Your people have to learn to be able to stand against the wicked things on earth, which the evil spirit always wants to strengthen them, that they may not perish, but to weaken the man and to bring him always to a state of carelessness, to idleness, and even to make Your children not working with You, Son Lord.

Oh, people on whom God has been merciful, you should give up just like that, but you should rather take great care not to give up and live as on earth. You have so much teaching from heaven upon you, but do not remove it from on you, people of the teaching from heaven. Oh, do not increase your answer at the question of the fulfilling of God's word, but rather fulfill it, son, because you will be asked about its fruit in you. Take care to listen to the Lord. Do not give up to disobedience, as for obedience you need love worked from you and no other kind of love.

Oh, sons, humble yourselves before the others and appreciate the fact that you stay together. Be passionate friends and be brothers, because there is no greater richness than the brothers that you have got. The man starts to appreciate a friend only after he has lost him, and he suffers from his emptiness. Appreciate one another, one for another. Give value to your brother for you, not for him, son. Give him your hand, when this one asks it from you and make him give his hand too, so that the Lord may see you hand in hand when He comes to you to give you food, and so that He may see its fruit at you.

Love the truth, sons, and be careful with what the Lord and my Son have said about the truth: «He who works out the truth comes to light, and his works will be shown that they are made perfect in God». Oh, this is what makes the brotherhood among those who are born from above. You have been taught from heaven and that is why I have been exhorting you not to take revenge, but rather to be loving and wise, forgetting and warm, not waiting something more from the other, but asking more from yourselves. Oh, do not stay with you in you, but give yourselves to the Lord and to one another, so that you may be light and love-hearted and that the Lord may be warm at you. Help each other in your well doing for the Lord, sons, to be able to love the light, because the Lord said that those who do evil things hate the light and do not come to the light. Oh, he who does not bring his soul into the light, remains within wicked things and does not come to healing, because he does not come to light, but he flees from it instead. However, you are taught by God and know all things, and you give answers for everything; about the way you fulfill all things, first of all in you, and then one upon the others, and that is why I exhort you: fulfill the Lord, sons. I was full of worry day and night for the fulfilling of the Lord in me, and the Lord took me in Himself even since I was a child and He gave me to listen to Him, to love Him, to wait for Him, to give Him birth and to follow Him on earth as in heaven, because I was the one prophesied about to be His Mother. However, you should work more, because nothing is given for free, but there has to be measure for measure, love for love; but do learn and learn again, and always learn to do whatever means God and learn how to love Him. Learn from one another and teach one another, sons.

Oh, behold what exhortation I give you: read the word of the Lord, because you have much word, and then confess it to one another strengthening yourselves with it. Ask to receive work at the reading of the word, to teach yourselves to know well and every moment the word of the Lord, because you cannot fulfill it otherwise, sons, but you forget it instead, and then you forget about the work of your salvation, which is worked with the spirit, with love and not with the body, sons. Then be careful at your reading and fulfill everything you understand, and seek to have one for another, one upon the others, holy work before the Lord, so that you may not be idle with the work of the love and with the work of brotherhood, which works one from the other, one for another before the Lord, and do not stay idle together in the name of the Lord, sons. No one of you should take the wisdom from the love of brotherhood; do not take it away from yourselves, but rather take it away from the worries of the brotherly love, so that the devil may not write that you are lovers of yourselves and not of lovers of brothers, sons. Oh, each one of you should love the brothers and not yourselves, because he who loves himself, judges his brother and he always keeps in mind the evil and he does not keep the Lord in his mind. Be faithful, sons who are taught, because here it is what I tell you: he who keeps the evil in mind, he keeps the devil in mind. Be wise, because the grace of the Lord works by love, and it is not seen otherwise in man. Receive in you the truth of the words with grace in them when the grace is given to you by the word of the priest, then when he speaks upon you declaring: (At the Holy Liturgy, r.n.): "May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of the Father God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all," and you should answer to these gifts with "Amen." Behold sons, the grace, the love and the Holy Spirit, the Giver; these have to be your work, because you alone say to these: "So be it." Oh, do not be wise only in your work with your hand, but be skilful at this great work full of longing gifts, because if you do not work that way, then you will not have a soul with peace and with the joy of the grace in it. The grace of the Lord has to become joy and life in you, and for this work you have to give an answer to the Lord, sons. Where there is no work of the grace, there is no fruit of the heavenly brotherhood among you either. The grace has limitless wisdom and you should take from it in order to have.

Oh, sons, learn from God, as you have to take after Him, if He teaches you. Read the psalms in your days of feast and perceive them, to humble yourselves before each other, ones for the others, and do not go to sleep anyhow. Oh, it should not be this way, but rather go to sleep embracing the Lord and be at peace with every brother, to have peace in your hearts, and to have, and to have from one another, blessing one another to have the spirit of humility, sons, for behold, the man pays a great price for his pride.

Oh, do not lose time in the time of prayer, but rather earn it, and then let it be seen that you have not lost it yet. Stay with the Lord in the time of your prayer, and let it be seen that have sat with Him at the table and that you stand up fulfilling everything the Lord has told you, sons. Behold, it is my day of feast and I spend it setting you a table of teaching, for you need much fulfilling of the Lord's teaching, because you are not just anyone on earth, but rather you are the people of the Lord's word. Tremble at the work that you have to fulfill on earth before the Lord, and let the Lord stay within you as He is and not as you are, because the Lord and my Son is the One Who is gentle and humble in His heart, sons. Amen.

I have given them the voice of my feast upon them, Lord Son. I have given them Your memorial in them, for You are the Word upon them. But now, send many heavenly powers to them, multiplying the powers of humility, so that You may be able to dwell in them, Lord. Oh, because of the mercy of those who are crushed within the gates, I have reminded Your people today that each one of Your sons to strengthen upon it and in it Your teaching, which You have been giving them for such a long time, that they may be able to multiply Your grace in them, because You have been waiting for them, Lord, but multiply the love and its torch in their vessel, which is the longing, Lord of those who are humble. I have loved Your grace from childhood and I have taking it within Me, Lord Son, and then You have been my Son and the Son of my working grace from You, because You gave it to Me to be able to carry You and to be like You and not like the man without Your grace. I have told them to be with Your grace in them. I have told them to search out for You in them by examining themselves for Your grace, Lord, my Son and their Teacher. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, the heaven and the earth are filled with the voice of My word, and they listen to it with longing. Give ear to My voice, son, and ask yourself with watching whether My word is known upon you. It is written that the heaven and the earth pass away, but My word will not pass away. Oh, My people, everything that you do may pass away, but do not let My word pass away from you and then leave it not being fulfilled afterwards, because it will not be the man but I, who will ask you how much you will have loved it, how much you will have believed it and how much you will have set it upon you, if I have shepherded you with it like your heavenly Shepherd. Strengthen My coming to you, My people, and do not give price to anything above this. My grace and the love of the Father and of the Holy Spirit, the Giver, let these be the work upon you, first and above all, that you do on earth, My people. Oh, I have been teaching you many things, so that you may not forget about Me and about you, and I tell you again that if you do not do these things, then everything you do comes against you, to your sufferance and Mine. Therefore, strengthen yourself, and stand up to be great before My grace, which has been always given to you to work it out and to be with you; however, then you should be with it in the confessing and sharing work, to make My way easy to you and to show Me on earth with My coming to you, and that I may always be able to give Myself to those who wait for Me and to those who do not wait for Me. Oh, do not be indifferent to the grace, which has been given to you, sons! Amen.

However, children from the gates, I, the Lord, bring you comfort now in your weaknesses, because you have been waiting for Me. My mother, the Virgin, is thankful to you because you have put into the book and before the people the word of her feast. She has exhorted the people to My grace and to the love of the Father and to the Holy Spirit, the Giver. Even now, I am waiting and looking to forward to the sons of My people to give Me to each other in such a way that I may call them sons of the holy faith and of its fruits inside and outside of them. Amen, amen, amen.

21-11/04-12-2005

The feast of the saint martyr Catherine

I wait to come into the book and to share the Spirit of comfort with My people, and a strengthening spirit from it, from which there come out joys for those in heaven in a holy communion with those who are the longing of the heaven on earth, for I said that the speaking of My word is My comfort and food and of My saints and angels. Amen.

I strengthen My entrance with My power, and I give you, My people, a strengthening spirit, born of the spirit of comfort, and again I ask you with a great waiting to feed on great word from Me, so that you may be strengthened through it and that it may go well with you on earth, for your good and Mine does not come from nowhere for Me and for you but from your love for My coming, from your seeking after heavenly fellowship, because if you are embraced with the heaven, it will go well with you on earth, because the heaven is the place of happiness and of rest, and I ask you, My people, to keep it into your midst, so that we may keep warm with each other and so that the joy of the heaven from you may be true and that you may rejoice the saints in such a way they may also help you, My people.

The feast of today has been waiting with longing to comfort you with its word, My word and the word of My saints. It is a day of love for the saints, because the saints are only love, and My days with you are their way and of their love, of My saints, who come down on earth once with My coming, My people. Oh, the love of the saints is great, and you should seek after them as they also seek after you, for without saints and without angels near you, it would be difficult with you, even if you cannot perceive the mystery of this truth, son. Oh, take care of the way you spend and the way you speak with the saints to give them life and a dwelling place with you and paths with help on them all around you, but you should be very grateful to God and to His saints, for you are now My child, because through such love and gratitude you will be with the heaven, and it will take care of you and it will cover you; it will give you food and comfort and it will remove from your face everything that is not heavenly on earth, for on earth it is the darkness in which the man perishes, and you are comprised within the light of My word, and you need great love on the way of the light, My people. The feast of today embraces you in the light of its teaching, for the martyr Catherine was My light upon those in the darkness in which the man perishes, and she gave Me the fruit of the work of My light in her, and I gave her a crown of holy love and she worked on earth under the glory received by the gift of her love, for this is how are being crowned those who love with My love in them, My people. Amen.

– My crown, that which is put by Your hand on my head, Lord of Your saints, I put it before Your people, bowing to it for Your love from it and lifting it up to the work of the glory of the crown of the saints, who confessed You by their blood, by their confession, Lord and Bridegroom of Your saints. With reverence I am speaking to Your people of today the word of the Scriptures, which says that within Your kingdom the flesh and blood cannot inherit but only if they confess for God becoming love only for You in man, and not life of the man in man, Lord.

Oh, people of the grace in which the Lord protects you to have you and to make you after His likeness! The flesh and blood do not inherit the kingdom of God, but they rather dwell in man as sinful flesh against the heavenly love inside the man. This wisdom by which I am speaking to you, people of the mysteries of above, has great depth. The flesh and blood need to have confessing work before God, as I worked against the ruler of the darkness in which the man perishes. When the body lusts against the spirit, the flesh and the blood start this war, for the fleshly man does not lust after the Spirit of the Lord inside him, and the satanic spirit does not have to wage war against the fleshly man, which has his helm in his flesh and blood, in his fleshly nature, by which it will have his will against the Spirit of God in man. Such wisdom I have overflowed by my confession in the spirit of the wise people of the earth, who have their wills and their minds as their masters, and they, receiving fire and longing in them by the wisdom of my spirit, they gave up the fruit of lying and fought for them even against their own self by my confession about the kingdom in which the man settles after he overcomes his flesh and blood, the corruptible nature, which has always tried to reign in man, always preventing him from self denial, which the Bridegroom, Christ, has required from all those who have wanted to go on the way of the new life by confession. The way of the Lord is a way with confession in it, and he who does not have it and does not work out the spirit that confesses, that one has not reached to self denial, the measure which Christ, the Bridegroom of the saints, asks from those who love the mystery and the work of the eternal life on the way of this kingdom.

Oh, sons of God and of His word, you should know that the devil does not make war against those who put away God's will for their wills, but he is caught in the trap of those who love God with much faith and great humility of their spirit before the Lord and before His coming forever. We, the great and the small saints, have prevailed against the devil by the faith and by the confession of Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom of His saints, and there where the devil does not find any work against him, then he can work there by man's will, who had not prevailed against his own nature and has nothing to fight against. However the saints have chosen the Lord's will by the confession of their faith, which the spirit of the devil could not stand, that is the adversary of God in man. The one who does not confesses God, that one confesses his own dwelling in him, but the Lord is confessed by the saints, just as I, the disciple, and then the martyr of His name, removed from their thrones those who were great and many, who until my confession upon them, had reigned in them not giving any work to the devil, the ruler over those who are kept in the darkness by which the man perishes. However, I had strengthened them in the confession of their faith until they could overcome, escaping from the gehenna of the eternal perdition, and longingly I gave them to my beloved Lord, after He, with great love and longing, was well pleased with Me, by giving me the gifts of His grace, which is a crown for the saints. Amen.

Dear Bridegroom, give them the love of the bride, for I bow down with the crown on my head before Your people, for Your love for him, raising it to a great work of the grace of the Holy Spirit, after he has greatly worked out Your calling over its entire body, because You have told to the one who wants to come after You to deny himself. This wisdom is for the saints and the same is its work, Lord and Bridegroom of Your saints, who have in them the gift of the love of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit Who confesses His sons. Amen.

I want to tell you from among the saints not to leave over God, people of waiting. The Lord has gathered you in small bunch only for Him. Do not forget about this mercy and do not forget that you owe mercy, because out of mercy for the Lord many of His loved ones have brought Him this great obedience, praised love, and confession by fruit, as I had also loved Him, forgetting about myself because of my mercy for Him, because of my longing for Him, for my love for Him. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, how greatly the saints speak with you, My people! What an unfathomable mystery by the natural mind of man they have brought to you bowing to you with My glory in them! Oh, My people, do not forget to stay awake in love, to be a speaking, to be the work of Holy Spirit, for the grace and the truth have come with Me to you, and I measure their work for you and I wait to have greatness in you just as I had in the saints who by suffering in their body confessed Me and brought Me a hundredfold fruit. I want, My people, to be the fruit of My grace and truth by which I come to you. The saints have been looking moment by moment to you and they have been waiting for Me and for you, and they have been waiting from the earth so that I may be able to work, and the whole nature has been waiting for you too, My people. I would release upon you its sighing for your mercy to bring forth fruit and to have fruit every moment, because I, together with the heaven of saints and angels, and all those who have been waiting for seven thousand years, have been waiting for your mercy, and those who are merciful to the heaven, will be given mercy, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-11/08-12-2005

The feast of the Saint Virginia

On the third day of the feast of the sealing of the little garden of the Holy of Holies, the little garden of My word and of its sons, I, the Lord, am at the borderline between Me and My people with My trumpet, with Verginica, the vessel of My second coming from near the Father. (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) In her body I am dwelling now with the word, at My second coming, and her mouth has been the voice of My trumpet. Amen.

Oh, My people, it was beautiful the calling of the man to Me in the time of My trumpet sounding from this tent, from My vessel Verginica. Her voice was like Mine, sweet and affectionate, but it also had My sufferance within it. My Spirit in her was grieved and this is how I was comforting those whom I was calling at My table. I was hiding My sufferance and I was comforting many to help them to My kingdom. Oh, the man's wandering away is too old and the man does no longer know what life is, and he does not know what death is too, poor of him. I have caused to spring so much love by this trumpet of My coming, that all those in the graves have moved rejoicing over My coming as word on earth, because all have been waiting for this time which I announced two thousand years ago that it would come, and I said: «The time will come for all those in the graves to hear the voice of the Son of God». All those who have gone to sleep from the beginning of the man, all have been waiting for the time when I have come to be with you, people of this Scripture, and the people on earth do not know what I have been working today into your midst, for behold, I have been fulfilling the promise made two thousand years ago, and the man does not know the time and its signs.

This trumpet was the place and the time of My coming on earth for the dead and for the living, for the saints and for the people. It was the mouth of My sighing, the voice by which I have worked out a way and disciples as two thousand years ago, for those that were have come to be again.

Oh, people of My coming, the Scripture of your time is great, that which I announced when I became flesh in the Virgin and I became Man. Take a look and see how the saints from heaven come at My table of word into your midst. My coming with them to you is a great feast, but you are tiny and very little you perceive the mystery of the great fulfilling, the mystery in the end, My coming with a new heaven and with a new earth upon time, the Scripture the prophets had been speaking by My Holy Spirit about, My people. With the man in the end I have been working out the greatest fulfillments, to which all those have been looking, those who have been on earth in all ages, and behold, I have prepared a vessel in which I have settled Myself with My word, which also was at the beginning of the creation, and I worked and work mysteriously, that I have little branches and it is written that when they come into leaf, the Lord is near, at the doors.

Oh, My trumpet from before My heavenly glory! Oh, My Verginica, you were a great mystery on earth, and now you are looking from near the saints, from heaven to it, to its fruit, to My fruit through you, and you wish Me with great longing all the fulfillments for My rest. My mother the Virgin comforts you greatly, obedient daughter, for she has always comforted your sufferance that you have always had from the fire which was burning within your body, the Spirit of her Son, My word which is like fire, for fire is what I brought on earth when I came to use your vessel, to clean in it all that is strange from God on earth, and My word burns within it and once with it; it burns all the chaff so that the wheat may remain in order to redeem the man from sin and to give it to My Father as clean wheat. I have been working mysteriously, because there is no faith on earth, but I work through those who are little and faithful, just as I worked two thousand years ago with some of My disciples who shared My mysterious living with the man on earth.

Oh, My trumpet, open your voice, for those who are My little disciples and yours listen to Us and share Us on earth from margins to margins. Amen, amen, amen.

– The saints look at me, Lord, and they look at those who are our little ones, those whom we included in the mystery and in the grace of Your coming, so that we may have them as Your path and of Your saints. Your dear little Mother comforts them in all their labor from under Your coming, as she has always comforted me and brought me powers under my great burden, the word of Your coming, which she longed so much for its coming down on earth, for she longed after Your coming and after Your day of rest in man, and after faithful sons, to carry You so that You might come.

The saints comfort me for my day of feast when I came among those in heaven for Your glory and for Your work on earth. Moreover, I have also comforted them from near You and from near the saints, those that are little and who are the people of Your coming. I teach them to appreciate this mystery, which includes them down on earth and up in heaven, for the heaven is on earth with all those that are from above for the protection of Your people and of its mystery with You.

Oh, sons of the Christ Word, oh, little sons, you are those from the last, but the Son of God is your garment, your protection and your glory. Be always, always His glory, for the saints of the invisible heaven see this glory and get warmed up and are comforted from it. Be full of the love, which clothes you within it. Give to the Lord the most praised dwelling in you and among you. You should not say that you are small and that you cannot do it and that you do not understand. If you say that you are little and insignificant, then do not forget that the Lord said that the kingdom which is not seen by those on earth, the kingdom of the heavens, belongs to those who are little. Stay being comprised within this mystery and let yourselves be embraced by it. Learn to rejoice this way. Learn the great love, that which has no time. Learn the mystery of the Lord's coming and do not get out of it, but rather stay clothed within it, with the glory of His coming, a glory which becomes word for a new heaven and for a new earth, a glory which has been waited from the beginning of the creature, sons.

The Lord has told you that the saints have been steadily looking at you and waiting for the spirit of the comfort from your table, and He has also told you that all the nature has been waiting for you and that it may want to release its sigh so that you may hear it and to have only mercy all the time. The nature has been waiting for your mercy, people of the Lord's coming, for the redemption of the creature has been done with the work of the mercy full of the spirit of love, not full of the spirit of sacrifice, sons.

Oh, children of the holy people! The Lord has exhorted you with longing to be sweet. This work of grace comes from the work of the mercy. All and everything have been waiting for your mercy, people of the grace for the end of the waiting with sighing of all the nature from beginning to this very day. I have also been waiting with a sighing longing for your glory, for your mercy, and it will comprise within it the embracing of the creature, which has been waiting for the resurrection of everything that has been in God, and God in them. The exhortations of the Lord are sweet. Sit down in them and ask one another about the beauty of your garment, and help each other and work to each other a beautiful garment, and do not work alone at the garment of the glory. Do not forget to be merciful, to be gentle little angels, and do not forget to be like the people, either in your thought, or in your speaking or in your love, but to be rather like the angels from heaven, and to perceive the Lord's exhortation from the Lord's prayer in which He says that you have to be on earth as in heaven. The Lord and His saints wait to get rest from the pains in the cradle of the mercy and of the love from you, and for my day with the saints and with you in a feast on earth give praise to the Lord, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, people of My mercy, let the voice and the grace of My trumpet seize you and that you may work like a disciple, for the mystery of a disciple is that he may be like his teacher from whom he has learned the gift of life, the life of mercy and of the heavenly love on earth. It is a day of comfort and comfort means power, and then it means working grace. It is a day of glory, and the word of the day was with great glory in it, with great glory. The glory of My days with you tries to increase and to confess then on earth the mystery of this glory. May the Spirit of divinity come into you from Me and may you be a godly child, and all to be like one for the mystery of My divinity in you, and this is how you are to work and this is how you are to be rewarded for your work for My glory upon you, sons.

Now, sons, who are anointed in the garden, may the prayer and glory be lifted up into your midst for the feast of My trumpet together with you, My people. May the moments of your prayer seize you and renew you, and then all the nations of the earth will see that you have been My people, true in love and in its voice of prayer and glory, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-12-2005

The feast of the Saint hierarch Nicholas

I strengthen with My peace and with the spirit of comfort the way of My descent to you, My people, to write you down always with Me, always in My book with you, and that the saints and the angels may take from the food which I lay on My table with you, for you and for those that are in heaven, son. I have always told you that there has been a great longing among the saints and even greater for My word on your table, and you should be thrilled when you know who you sit at the table of My word with, and that it may go to you on earth as in heaven, and that I may have power from you by My grace upon you, as the grace is received in man by a strong faith, My people. All those who are now with the heaven, by their steadfast faith, have come to be saints on earth and with My power in them, after they have been given Me a dwelling place within them, but their number was too little in comparison with the great human kind. Very few have put Me to test so that I may be able to reveal Myself in them before the people. The bishop Nicholas, a saint of the mercy gift, inclined Me towards those who were oppressed by weaknesses and shortcomings on earth, and I was glorified by his faith. He worked nothing more than his faith in Me, and I chose him and praised him for My glory and not for him, for he was humble in his heart and in the work of his faith, and he wanted only Me to be glorified, and he also wanted the people to be helped in their weaknesses, because he was merciful.

Oh, My people, the work of mercy is all that the earth and the heaven wait from the earth, but for this work you need great grace. The bishop Nicholas shined before Me with the gift of mercy, and now, on the day of his celebration, he is sitting down with Me at the table of My word into your midst. Amen, amen, amen.

– I am the son of Your mercy, Lord of those who are faithful, for I believed into Your power, proving it upon those that were weak and poor, so that they could bring me thankfulness and to leave on earth the news of Your power in the faithful ones who wanted You with the people on earth, by helping them. All that You had brought on earth, was the work of Your mercy. You have brought Yourself on earth to show great mercy on the faithful and on those who were not faithful, but You have always stayed on the right of Your Father to listen to Him, and You became on earth the blessed One among the saints. You came and always come with mercy after the man, and the man has to clean himself of his haughtiness before Your mercy and to cry after You in him, and that the man may give forth fruit, Lord, fruit of mercy and faith, because the heaven and the earth waits for mercy from the earth, oh, gentle and merciful Lord by Your humbleness.

Oh, people of the Lord's mercy, you cannot be a merciful child but only by the gift of the holy grace of humility. Mercy does not work out its gifts if there is no humility always in the one who has the grace. Make your prayer with mercy, and do not show partiality, for the Lord works according to His self-knowledge, and He works by your prayer and by its wisdom, which makes you a worker like Him, with patience and with mercy in your work with Him.

I give you the gift and the grace of the heavenly mercy and not the human one, for the heavenly mercy brings forth fruit to the Lord, and the human mercy brings fruit to the man, but you gave got wisdom by the teaching of the Lord that has been upon you, and great work is the work of obedience, which carries you only near God, people of the Lord's mercy.

I bestow great love and blessing with the Lord on the head of the sons anointed in the garden of the word. May the grace of my mercy be within their works, for I give them blessing, and may they carry it with them, for they are blessed. Amen, amen, amen.

– The work and the word of My saints become an example of heavenly faith, mercy and love upon you, My people, and you should follow their mercy and love on earth before Me, for the heavenly love comes out of heavenly mercy, and it comes out of God, to be on earth and for the sons of God to give to each other, and that they may be full of grace on earth. Amen.

Oh, take care of you, working children, and clothe yourselves within clouds of angels, to be protected as the saints are. Do not be alone either in your prayer, or in your work, or in your way, but rather give to each other powers and protections, and be as merciful as I am, your Lord and God, for I have listened to the Father and I have worked upon man and over the earth. Learn and always learn the work of the heavenly grace, for I urge you again: be sweet, be sweet children, sons. Seek to take after Me, for I was a sweet child before the Father, and I have done only His work and I have done His work with humility.

May the grace of My saints give you grace, and may My love in you warm it and make it fruitful among you, to show Myself with fruit in you in heaven and on earth, and then to rejoice with you before the Father.

Be full of working grace from one to another, and may the heavenly mercy be a sweet work to you, for I have told you, and I have exhorted you with mercy: be sweet, children of My mercy, to bring joy to the Father, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-12-2005

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

In tears and weak in the spirit like a man, I step on My way to you, for the way is with weaknesses in it, My people. I want to catch power, but I work on the earth after human power, because I do not work without man. When I was carrying My cross, it was hard for Me, just as hard as it is for a man, because I was carrying it for man, because the man was not carrying his, and it was very hard for Me, but when I was thinking for those who were greatly oppressed, greatly crushed for My pain, I could do it for them, and My mercy for them was giving Me powers and it was strengthening Me greatly, because the mercy is God and man's greatest power, and it is a spring for the comfort of the pain. I come to embrace you within the feast of My saint, the bishop Spyridon, and I give him to you as an example for your life with Me, for he was forgiving, merciful and very faithful, and he spent in him with the grace of the power of faith and of its works, because only I was able to do it and I was living in him by the love and by the power of his faith. The way of My word is weak and feeble, but I give you exhortation by My bishop. Receive, son, and sit down near the love of the saints and make within you a dwelling place of their power and of the work of the faith, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– You, Lord, are the spring of the mercy for those who with pains and weaknesses work on earth Your coming and the news of Your coming and Your coming upon man. I give exhortation to Your people and I tell it this: do not forget and do not get so mixed up with the day and its work, people of the Lord's mercy. Do not get entangled with any kind of work that you do and by so doing to forget about the Lord's exhortation that are put upon you and for you. Oh, not in this way, for the Lord teaches you, and you, as a disciple and more than that, as a son, you need to listen to your Father, to His entire word. Take care of your life; of your life with the Lord, and make Him feel from you that you have Him as your God, and be wise so that you may know what kind of work God's sons must do on earth. Learn the work of love, people of the Lord's coming; learn it well, and receive its lesson from the Scriptures, and do not take away it from you, but rather receive it from the place where it is kindled. Remember always, always the work of the love, son from the end, that the Lord needs this and not you. You have to be the Lord's servant in His days with you and not the Lord has to be your servant. Behold, the Lord has always served you by His mercy that he has got upon you, so that you may have what you need for your life on earth, but be with your heart full of gratitude and live like a merciful and faithful son in His courtyards and give Him a heavenly service and see how you stay in the work of the love, so that you may have faith and then steadfastness, people of the Lord's mercy. Ask from Him always, always. Ask Him that which He has promised to give you and you to give Him, because He has promised to give you and you to give Him life without death, restless love. You should be heaven on earth for the Lord's works written into the Scriptures for His time with you, for His coming is with you, but do not get used to it, but rather stay with the shy of a son before Him and serve Him with the gifts of the burning love, the same as His female disciples were serving to his way to the people, and they had kept on serving Him even after His resurrection, and for His resurrection they stood up with a great longing, with great faith, with the love of a bride and having no rest in their sacrificing and burning love in them day and night, and their fire was keeping them in the Lord and it was feeding His mercy and it was giving Him powers for the man's life, for whom He suffered under the cross and overcame for man. I exhort you, blessing you with a desire of a bishop, to stir up within you the fire of God's love, my people, just as the virgins who long for Him are nourished with longing and live with longing, destroying within them the border between them and their Bridegroom, the beloved Lord, for Whom they are nourished with longing and are sanctified through Him, loving their Lord. Amen.

You, anointed sons in the Lord's garden of these days, be strong within your spirit and prayer and within the gift of love, and stir up the gift of the heavenly brotherhood into the people, for the Lord can work there where the sons of His coming are together with Him. Amen.

– Oh, you, saints, come within heavenly feasts with Me! Oh, My greatness in you was great, and you were My glory. Give your powers to the sons of My people so that they may bring forth fruit, and always, always ask from its midst for the fulfilling of the glory of My promises made for My coming and for the kingdom of the new heaven and of the new earth, as I promised to those who love Me. Amen.

Moreover, you, My people, work yourself for Me, by allowing yourself to be worked out, and stay within the light to be light, son. Show Me that I am your Lord and God. Show Me that you are My people and show Me by your work that is for Me and not for you, and that I have made you for Me. Show Me that you are My people and that I dwell into your midst, and let the heaven and the earth see this, and then they may become new by My working grace in you, because it is not for you but for Me that I have taken you to My loving bosom, to learn from Me the work and the grace of godly mercy, which sanctifies your being and the longing in it, the longing after God, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2005 (12.12.2005 - Old style / after the Julian calendar)

Text emphasis in bold belong to the redactor (editor).

2006

The feast of the Lord's Birth

I sing for you, My people, the song by which the announcing angels in the night of My birth on the earth sang to the little shepherds from the sheep, telling them to go down into the citadel of Bethlehem to find Me born of the Virgin and then to preach Me over the ages, that I came from the Father to bring the sacrifice to the man's salvation and to bring the eternal kingdom, not understood by the man's mind and which cannot perceive God's mysteries. I sing to you, My people, and I sing to you with the angels of My birth: Glory to God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit in the highest in heaven and down on earth, peace, and into your midst My will between brother and brother, to My glory and yours, My people. I comfort with you the days of the glory of My name, up in heaven and down on earth. I comfort with you the spirit of the feasts and I want to strengthen your spirit for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, to dwell in it. For two thousand years I have been coming down with power over the earth, and after My resurrection I went up to be on the right side of My Father, but the man does not receive from Him. Only My disciples received from Him, and the heaven suffers because the mystery of My disciples does not come to the mind and to the heart of those who call themselves so on earth. They give each other this name, those who put on the garment of the servant of the heaven on earth, and the heaven suffers because of this hypocrisy, and the birth from above does not stick to them, since they do not love Me at least as they love themselves.

The celebration of My day of birth, I am with it among you, for you are the people of My word now, which is coming and is coming again to give birth to the world again. I am with you, I am with the days of the new birth of the world, I am the One born in the citadel of the Bethlehem of Judea of two thousand years ago from the mother Virgin, and I am the One Who is born into this citadel in which I have gathered you together at the voice of My word, which announces the new birth of all that were done and which keep on passing away since the man passes away and does not want to remain and to do My work.

I have strengthened with My Holy Spirit, the Comforter, My entrance into the book to be with you in a feast of birth, My people. I have strengthened My children who are My path from heaven to earth, from the Father to the man. I want to be able to do more, for I have much work to do, and much you have to work for My power as well, My people, because the world has its way, according to the word of the Scripture, which says: «Let the one who is filthy be filthy still, for all have come to an end».

I speak with the Father among those in heaven, among the saints and the angels, and We speak about the comfort that We had before Our descent into your midst, people of the word of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Whom the Lord waits from you to be comforted with you, for I sent Him upon the disciples two thousand years ago to be with My disciples to the end of the time, up to you, My people of today, and you should take great care to learn and to learn well the work and the love of a disciple. I expect nothing from you but the love of a disciple, the comfort of a son, for I have given you power to become My son and I have become one with you and I have become one with your body and this is how I have given you power, and you should work with it and do not let it be idle, because I do not put an end to My work, and He does not do it either, because the power is not idle. No power is stopped from its work, and I have given you power, and I have given it for you; I have given it to fulfill with your help the Scriptures of My coming with all that they have to be fulfilled, so that they may reign afterwards between heaven and earth on the chair of My greatness, the kingdom of the comfort over those who are saved who believed and believe the Scriptures which were fulfilled and are fulfilled with power and glory and with the renewal of all that are made by God and by God's sons, who are My will on earth. Amen.

Oh, My sweet mother, you comfort Me with a great comfort in this day of feast, yours and Mine. I found no other comfort on earth in the day when you gave Me birth on earth from the Holy Spirit at the Father's commandments, Who gave Me a dwelling place in your body to give Me birth and to be called the Son of Man on the earth. That mystery was deep, when Pilate told those who were looking at Me, crowned by thorns: «Behold, the Man!» You carried the pain of My life, My mother, and I carried yours too. You have always been submissive, you have always been that way, and those who knew your greatness were so few! Oh, if you want, teach My people the beauty of your life, a life of the child submitted to everyone, without any kind of judgment upon man. You loved Me with the highest love ever possible, but you had never had any resentment for those who disregarded you, for those who gave Me over to the dead, mother. You suffered and did not judge, for you loved. You were born for love, and this is how you showed Me to the people, a little child and then a perfect Man. It is My feast and yours and we are in the midst of the smallest disciples, but the Lord's disciples have to be great within the mystery of disciple, and they have to be like you, mother. You were a perfect disciple. The love from above was everything you had, everything that you worked for, everything you gave, and I, your Son, was your Master, for you knew where I came from, and you knew the Father in Me, and I in the Father, for you were a perfect disciple, mother.

Oh, let us allow them to celebrate My birthday and then you should be for them like your Teacher and to teach them the mystery of God's sons, My mother and bride. Amen.

Oh, My people, sweeten yourself with the fruit of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, because I sing to you together with the angles the song from the night of My birth and the Father hears Me, and the saints get comforted from My voice upon you. Learn what to work and not to work, and learn from those who have My teaching from Me and to grow as from the Scriptures, My people, and you should have their teacher and fulfill it like My mother, the Virgin, for this is how she loved God and this is how she fulfilled the love from above. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2005 (Old style / after the Julian calendar) / 07-01-2006 (N.S.)

The synod of the Lord's Mother

Come, My sweet mother; it is My day and yours. In the day of My birth among the people I became your Son after the angel Gabriel had rejoiced you by giving you the news that you would give birth to a son and that I would be your Son. I was the Son of the Father Sabaoth, born of Him before eternity, and then the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Father's being and Mine, dwelt in your virgin belly, and after the ordained time, I was born a child on earth, and since then the faithful people has been celebrating Us with songs of birth, mother, with the joy of their salvation, because I fulfilled then the redemption from the death of the man, by a death on the cross, the tribute paid to death to take the man out of eternal death, mother, and if the man wants to believe in Me, the perfect One, then let him no longer die, mother, for I spoke, and the man does not fulfill what I have said, and this is what I said: «He who believes in Me will never die». However, we lived in the spirit, soul and body all the sufferance of the fallen man, for We loved so much, mother, and within Our faultless faith we suffered on earth for the salvation of the man from the death, as it is for this that I had come down from heaven.

This sweet speaking is for the disciples. You had the love of a perfect disciple, for the love from above was everything that you had, everything that you worked and gave around, mother. Teach My people the love of your life and its love of a child submitted to everyone with love and patience, for you knew from the Holy Spirit the reward of the saints' patience, and I want to speak like you too, that My people may have a reward from God and to work for it as you worked and lived and sanctified yourself for the Holy Spirit, My sweet mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– The mystery of God's sons, oh, my dear child, oh, my Lord and Master, this is what I want to wake up in the heart of the sons of Your people. You have given them power to become God's sons. The sons of God are born of God and they have to take after God. You said that the one, who is not born from above, is not able to inherit the work of heavenly sons, the work of a perfect disciple. Only those born from above have the work and the reward of a disciple. Only those who understand Your love by which You gave Yourself into the arms of death for Your love for man, to make the man like You, only those who do not stay without cross, Son of sufferance for the love of those who are born out of the pains of Your sufferance for the man. Blessed are those who believe in You and who never dies, because they are like the angels who believe in You, child who came on earth to destroy death and to show the man the love and its mystery, which gives birth to the man from above, from where the eternity of life is, Son, child of the Father and mine. The tear of joy, when I see You speaking with the Father among those in heaven about the comfort that comes from our descent into the middle of Your people, makes Me remind those who have Your name by this word upon them, that the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, waits from near them to come over the Father and over You and over all those who have got heavenly bodies in heaven, and to comfort them, and they to comfort God's heaven as well, Son full of longing of perfect disciples by the love from above, the same as I loved on earth.

Oh, sons of the word of my Son! The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, stays near you always, always, to go from you to God with comfort, so that the Lord may destroy together with you the death that is upon man and to bring back the resurrection of the dead and the life of heavenly comfort on earth. The death is not comforting, but it rather deceives the man with its lying sweets, until the man is caught by its reward full of pains. However, the life is an endless comfort and the pain for the comforting reward is the work of the perfect disciples, who, like me, have the life from above as their wealth of life, which becomes comfort in man and for man. Do not give this richness away from your hearts, because my Son have always told you: "Be sweet and stay covered in the clouds by angels to be protected and to be saints, and be sweet children, for I was a sweet child at My Father and mother, and I did their will, and I worked within a sweet humility the work of a perfect disciple by the patience from above." Amen.

Oh, children of the birth from above, this is what my beloved Son has exhorted you, the One Who the Father was pleased with in His will. You should also be pleased within Him with His sweet will, but learn the work of a perfect disciple, looking in my life. I was sweet in my speaking, deed, love and conduct, and my life was the sacrifice of my humble spirit, the one full of mercy for God and for man. Oh, how sweet my word was and I had done no harm with my mouth but I comforted instead and shared the mystery of the holy heaven, the love from above all over around me and all the time, day and night, for My dough was the dough of a perfect disciple, with love, with mercy and longing and with salvation in it. Drink of the spring of my life and let you be kneaded of the dough of my being. Be one spirit with those who are to you from the Lord a guiding life for the salvation of your souls, spirits and bodies. Think within yourselves with their love of God and of people. Oh, these children-sons teach you so beautifully from the Lord and from His Scriptures. You shall not make them suffer, sons. Work before them as I did among those who set me as an example of His life and love in me. Give power to those who take you along on the imperial way to be able to carry you with gentleness, with comfort, but also be the sons of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, because I gave birth to the Lord for you and I gave Him to you as life, and I loved you as in the end, when the love from above is set on fire to give light over those who are lifeless, without birth from heaven, and that they may know of the love from above, the love from above which is from God.

Oh, sons of the people with a holy name, be holy in your heart and speaking and be likewise within your giving with mercy and with love, for the Lord your God is holy, children of the birth from above. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My sweet mother, how sweet your speaking is, for you are a perfect disciple of your Teacher, Jesus Christ! Your son, the model of the new man, came from the Father among people. Amen.

Oh, My people, I, the Lord your God, was born in a cave and I was laid down in the straw and I was born to be deprived of all those things on earth, so that I may not love this world with all its things that pass away. I was perfect God on earth, just as the Father is. I appeared before the people as I lived and loved, so that the man might be able to know how to be and how to love the Lord on earth and not to love himself, and to deny himself and to be like the Lord. I gave My mother, the Virgin, before the people as an image of the perfect disciple in love, by her filling the people with the longing after Me, her Son and God. This is how you should also be, My people, and you should teach them the mystery of the eternal life, the mystery of the work of the disciple of the Lord on earth, so that I may have into your midst children-sons whom you may help them to be as I want them to be, with their teaching upon you. Do not bow, but rather lift them up from their heaviness and receive Me from them, for they show you the path of life and they have to work at your life, My people. Amen.

You should love the feast of My birth, new Jerusalem, for My resurrection in man is the work that comes after My birth in man and in his work, and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, knows how to work the eternal victory in you, the Teacher and the miracle of those who are saved, My people, My wanted Jerusalem, My comfort from the earth, for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is waited from the earth to comfort the Lord and to set Him as Lord and Savior over the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

26-12-2005/08-01-2006

The feast of the saint martyr and archdeacon Stephen

I embrace you again within the word, little Jerusalem. You are tiny, but My mystery with you is great, My people. There are so few people among those on the earth who try to understand My mystery with you, for those who would try to understand should take their cross and follow Me and you by their self-denial, that is by the denial of their empty glory, which does not let the man give away the temporariness and the spirit of the world and to become faithful and saint and wealthy in the works of the holy faith. I comfort Myself with you, and I comfort the whole heaven of saints and angels when I come into your midst as word. My word that is upon you is the food of those in heaven; it is the fruit of their waiting; it is the Lord on earth with the saints and with the angels, and your faith strengthens My way to you and then you give Me further to all those who have got used to My coming to you, to My voice which gives birth to the world again. There are great comfort and joy from My word of today over all those who have loved Me or have not loved Me during the time of those seven ages since the visible world was made at My word, and I am the word of the Father Sabaoth.

I had done great and much work in the time of Moses for My victory for the Israel people of that time and who were caught into slavery in Egypt as a reward of his sins, the reward of his haughtiness, and from it, the reward of not loving and fearing God. And if Israel cried with repentance and humility, I lifted him to be victorious and skillful in faith and humility and through Him I had showed My mercy to Israel, who was crying waiting for Me to stretch out his hand and to take him again into My bosom. I spoke to Moses and I told Him everything I was about to do by My strong hand and by his hand for those who mourned calling Me to save them. My power worked wonderfully against the power of the haughty man who was ruling over My people enslaved in Egypt because of his trespasses. However, My mercifulness is woken up when repentance and humility cries out to Me from man to show for Him My godly power, a power that the man cannot fight against, but who rather he gives up, because the man cannot do everything what only God can.

Oh, the work of My word of today is wonderful and much, Jerusalem, My people, because you have believed that I am the One who speaks powerfully, like a God, and behold, I have always embraced you within the word, and My mystery within you is great, for this how it is in the end, so that I may be able to work out the creation of the world with My wisdom, for all have been spoiled and are subjected to weakness, after I made the man and after the haughtiness entered the man and pulled him out of My arm. However, I was not to be overcome because I am a true and wonderful God and that the man is only man and he cannot be above God, no matter how much the spirit of his haughtiness might serve him, a spirit which fell from heaven over the man when the man shook the world of the angels by his haughtiness and when the great angel served to the man's haughtiness losing his priority and obedience to God, the Creator.

And again, My people, My word upon you is wonderful and much, always to get you used to being My people, and that I am the true God, your Lord and Master, Who teaches you to be faithful and good and to listen to His word, which comes to make the world again, the world from above and the world from below, and then everything to be one, as it was in the beginning. Amen.

I have got at your table with Me the word of feast and the comfort of the saints, My people. The martyr Stephen, consumed with the zeal for Me, the true God in heaven and on earth, humbled himself and lifted Me up before the haughty ones, who did not know to serve God according to the truth, and to whom I strongly stood against because of their haughtiness, and raising My disciples of My word that was upon the crowds that followed My teaching full of power, I overcame the haughtiness of those who ruled over the world into My name, and I confessed Myself as Lord and Master by the mouth of My disciples to whom I gave My Spirit of the rivers of living waters, sprung out of the river of life, after I gave them the grace and the gift of the holy life for the humility of their heart with which they embraced Me and then confessed Me. The martyr Stephen, by the miracle of this confession proved before those who were full of themselves his wisdom from the Scriptures for My coming down on earth to judge the world from the darkness calling it to light, I, Myself, incarnated in the Virgin and born among people, and then grown up to the perfect age, and then, My disciples, through whom I did great works with My Spirit, confessing through the Scriptures about the glory of the righteous One, judging the world by the word of their confession, for the world had already been judged when I came from the Father two thousand years ago, fulfilling all those that had been written about Me in the Moses' Scriptures, in the prophets and in the Psalms.

Oh, My people, there cannot be words to be able to confess the joy of My saints, confessing within their time, when they see Me as the word of new creation of the world, the word into your midst. My love of you fills them too with My Spirit, of My love, for the saints are like Me, and that is why they see Me as I am, and they work likewise upon you. I have a host of holy martyrs at My table with you and I always exhort you to learn to give them of My goods and to welcome the heavenly guests, for I am coming with the heaven when I come to you, and I lay the table when I come.

Give of yourself to the saints, My people, and make their spirit glad from you to them, for great was their waiting and tear after My kingdom with them on earth, to redeem their blood upon the saints, for the kingdom of love, the kingdom[26] of God, belongs to those saints who have known to love and to believe like some little children, and God is love, My people, just as the saints who bless you in heaven and on earth are, letting it be known that you are the people of My coming, My house of returning after two thousand years of My waiting and theirs. Amen.

– I, dear and great Lord in heaven and on earth, I confess You with the same zeal, when I had not kept silent the word about Your divinity until those who admitted their guilt, being ashamed, stoned me to death, for this is how they have done, those who cannot bear their guilt because of their earthly and human haughtiness. I confesses Your people which has welcomed You now when You have come the second time from the Father, and which You have protected so much cutting away by Your protecting angels all those who have been lurking their life with You in time of great unbelief, emptiness and temporariness, as there has never been on earth since You made the ages and their passing away. (See the word from the persecution during the communist red beast, r.n.) I tell those who are haughty, who sit on the chair of the righteous by their own consent, and not because of Your will, (Those who sit on the chair of the shepherds of churches, r.n.) I tell them that they have already been judged by Your coming, because Your coming has found them eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, forgetting about Your Scriptures which say that all those, who are worthy of the Lord's age, do not marry and are not given in marriage, for they are like the angels and they cannot die since they become the sons of resurrection. You are the One Who spoke about this Scriptures upon those who were tempting You because of their debauchery. Behold, the world has been judged again because You have come again, and the world and those that rule on it, who sit on the chairs as Your righteous, are the sons of this age, who marry and are given in marriage, and they are not worthy of the age with which You are coming for those who live like the angels, and then for those who will come to life from the dust of the earth and who will stand on their own feet. Oh, those who have put under a bushel Your coming of now and the people of the glory of Your coming, they do not know what is coming to them. Their staying is shaking, and so it is with their empty glory and their haughtiness to call themselves and one another servants of righteousness over those who are without Your shepherds. Soon, soon, their kingdom will no longer be, and a righteous people will rise and it will be added to Your coming with the saints, for this is what You said that You would come. And You have come, Lord, and the word of Your coming is mysterious, and Your voice upon this people has been heard by the dead in the tombs[27] and they are preparing themselves for the commandment of Your angel who will wake them up, and they will confess to all those who are alive this word by which You have fed those who are Your little ones, and with whom the angels and the saints want to sit at a table of word, and they are coming with You, as You prophesied about this two thousand years ago.

[26] See the selection topic: „About the kingdom of God", r.n.)

I bow in obedience of a disciple and I give you all the glory with the voice of my confessing spirit, that I had the joy and the comfort to confess You now too, in the end, that You are the righteous One, the One Who is alive forever and ever, after all those, who did not know Your coming two thousand years ago, did to You everything it was written for them to do, and then You were resurrected and judged the world only by Your resurrection, and You are in the Father, and the Father is in You now, and God sits in the midst of gods, and His voice fulfills God's word, which says: «I make them all new!» Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, the saints in heaven confess Me in heaven and on earth, but the haughty man is senseless. The righteous and the sinners confessed Me when I came working from the Father, but those who were haughty had kept their dough out of which they were born, for their father was the devil.

Strengthen your faith and love and stand before Me, Jerusalem. Son, lay the table for Me whenever I come to put on it for you and for the saints and for all those who will become worthy of the Lord's age, as it is written into the Scriptures. Grow wise and walk righteously on My way with you. Set down under the work of the grace and become more and more loving and longing for the gift of the holy and heavenly speaking to which the Lord and the saints may come together in order to give you grace upon grace, and you should be the work of grace and the fruit of grace on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

27-12-2005/09-01-2006

The feast of the saint hierarch, Basil the Great

With a godly love and with a sweet affection I lay down over the earth the voice of My word. Each time I strengthen My path, and My power settles within the gates so that they may be able to keep the heaven on earth, for the heaven is heavy on earth with its great work during these days, the days of the Son of Man. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is how I, the Lord, baptize the heart of the faithful one, who leaves everything for Me among the sons of the people. I will soon spend into your midst the feast of Epiphany, My Jerusalem of today, My Romanian people, for I have told you that the Romanian name will be taken by everyone who, by this world, will allow oneself to be grown and to be made steady in the Father, in the Son and in the Holy Spirit, the name of the Lord, your God, Lord and Master forever and ever, and Who is coming soon with the eternal age to settle down on the new earth and to reign forever according to His will. Amen.

There will come together many souls at the feast of Epiphany to receive of the grace of My word, which comforts and strengthens the man's heart, and they will also come to take with them the blessed and holy water, which sanctifies everything by the grace of the Holy Spirit, My people. However, today I lay down as word on your table with Me to bring into memory My humility and My mother, the Virgin, for she took Me into her arms and carried Me, according to the tradition of Israel, to the Lord's temple, to be circumcised within My body and that she may prove that I was the Son of the people of Israel into whose midst I had come from the Father and from the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin, as it was written into the prophets, and as I had to come.

[27] See the selection topic: „The dead hear My voice", r.n.

After forty days, the old Simeon and Anna, the prophetess had waited for Me at the temple. Simeon took Me into his arms from the arms of My mother the Virgin, and he called Me the salvation of the Lord, made ready over the peoples and the light over the nations, to the announcing of the people of Israel in whose midst I sprang up, for the people of Israel was the Lord's people on the earth because of his fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The old Simeon took Me into his arms, forty days after My birth, and he saw with his own eyes the Savior of the world and he confessed the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming by My mother, the Virgin, and Anna, the prophetess, announced by the spirit of the prophecy that I would come to be for the raising and the falling of many in Israel. And then it was so, and the same it is nowadays, for the wisdom of those who understand is diminished, as the man is, and this is how the man works with it, and he cannot strengthen with it his humility and faith and to be healed by the spirit of haughtiness in which the man fell after he did no longer loved God with his entire soul, spirit, heart and body.

Oh, My people, it is a day of the feast of the Lord and of your Teacher, Jesus, Christ, and it is a day of the feast of the saints, and I have got at the table with you, Basil the Great, the bishop, who gave to all those who have been faithful to Me the reign that is not stolen, on those that are from heaven, sealing them upon the people by his wisdom from above, that one full of the longing from above. He understood with great wisdom the commandment of the eternal life, for My saints know how to love God and how to love God's sons and the people as well.

When I spoke to Israel to love his God with his entire heart, with his entire soul and with his entire mind, he did not understand this wisdom of the love that comes from God. When the man loves God in this way and no otherwise, only then he knows how to love his neighbor, and then he knows to love himself for God. The one who does not love for God with his love, that one does not understand what I spoke when I said: «Israel, you shall love God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself». (Matt: 22/37, 39) Oh, the man does not know what this all means, which I had asked from him for his love for Me, and that is why I came two thousand years ago and I said: «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me». (Luke: 9/23) Moreover, I also said that I would be with these to the end of the time. Amen.

Oh, My people, the one who denies himself, that is the one who loves Me wisely for the use of the salvation of many, as the old Simeon and the prophetess Anna did, who lived for God with all their being, waiting for Him to testify about Him, and then they confessed Him and tool the fruit and the crown of the salvation. The soul of the one who loves Me with all his being with his entire wholeness, that one is bound only to God with his soul in him, and the spirit in him confesses the Lord and is bound spiritually to his neighbor for God.

Behold, My people, what wisdom I am letting today upon you. The soul bonds among people bind people together and the spiritual bonds among people bind God to the people and the people to God, and this is the wisdom of God's commandment for the love between man and God, and this has to be on earth. And it will be. Amen.

Oh, My people, the saints are embracing you, son. Their longing is great, when I come with them to you. The saints long to confess Me and to confess you and the table of My word into your midst, to which they come and confess fulfilling the Scripture of My coming with the saints in tens of thousands, for they come one after the other when I come with the feast of the saints at your table. The bishop Basil the Great bound the people to the love of God, making them wise in their spirit, in their soul and in their mind, after he denied himself and the world by taking up his cross and loving Me, as I commanded the one who wanted to follow Me on earth and to be My follower and the heir of My kingdom within him. This is how he works among those that are from heaven too, for the saints have got My wisdom, and it is a people loving spirit, a spirit that teaches the people the graces of the salvation, receiving Me as their Savior.

It is a day of the feast of saints, and the saints confess you, My people, and I declare blessing for their work in heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, great Lord, confess You the Bishop of the Father Sabaoth, the Bishop from eternity to all eternities according to the order of Melchizedek, according to Your mysterious plan. I am with the hosts of the bishops at the table of Your word into the midst of Your people. I comfort myself within Your coming with the saints, and I bless, by Your hand and by my hand, those that are Your anointed ones in this time, and those whom this time does not know that they are Yours, as that time did not know You either, when You lived on earth with the people working the mysterious work of the Father, Who begot You from eternity, and then from a mother Virgin, in the fullness of time, when You came and were born as a child to call every man to love the mystery of the child and to embrace it, in such a way that the man may be the child of the Father, as You were and are.

I bless your people with Your blessings and I tell it that today I am in the word upon it with the bishop who sat on the chair of the church in Târgovişte, for he is a confessor from heaven for the work of Your word, which he now sees and knows in all its glory.

However, now, we are giving rest to Your gates, and we are giving to the people the spirit of Your feast and my feast, and then, we leave again into Your book Your word and the word of Your saints and that of Your confessor, who has got the privilege through You to speak over the church on earth, and which is about to be hit by the stone, which it threw at the work of Your word and its sons who stand on Your right side.

May the day of the feast of the Lord, your God, and of His saints be blessed, people of the Lord's coming. And again, you will be embraced within the word for the book of today. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, love the spirit of the confession and I increase within My saints, and I receive, and give, so that they may have the gifts of the confession, for no one on earth is able to believe without the confession of My saints. And again, we will settle down, watching children, to lay down into the book of today its entire word. Amen, amen, amen.

*

– I have stayed with you and with My saints within a spirit of heavenly feast, and I want you to have a lot of spiritual work between you and Me, and I want you all to be so, children of My coming. Let your little mouths become holier and holier, confessing My glory with you, My love that is upon you, your life, which is to grow within Me, as you have always, always been taught, and you should stay more and more with it within Me and support one another, to give growth to each other and to feed on sweet and heavenly spirit, for the man's nature is not good between man and man, but the heavenly Spirit grows the Lord among the brothers of the same blood with Him, and He makes holy all their inner being: both their mouth and their words and everything that surrounds them all around. Amen.

I have told you that the saints confess Me, sons, calling Me the child of the Father, so that you may be like Me. The bishop Basil the Great, with the spirit of his mercy, has got, among his host of bishops who came with him within My coming, the one who confesses that he had sat more than seven years on the chair of the church in the city of Târgovişte, and then, after other almost seven years, again, since I took the chair from him because he did not embrace the work of My word and you, and he confesses you from among the heavenly bishops that you are the Lord's people, taking from Me down upon you the mystery of the revelation of God's sons, who have been waited by all nature since I made up the heaven, the earth and the man, and then the man has shaken the whole of My creation from its place, because he has become haughty within himself, and he has not humbled himself under the hand and under the love of his Creator.

I give voice to the bishop who has come within My coming with the saints in the day of the memorial of My saint, the bishop Basil the Great, who has got as a confessor near him the one who has always sat greatly on the chair of the church in the city of Târgovişte, and behold, he is establishing him with the blessing of a bishop as confessor now, because the church, from where he came into heaven, has powerfully been shaking from the foundations, and woe to the people who have built on sand and who have not put and kept its holiness as a its foundation, the boat of salvation, which I set it to be on earth when I came two thousand years ago, to establish among people the faith from above, from heaven, and its kingdom. Amen, amen, amen.

– The faith from heaven, oh God, the Lord of Your people of today, the youngest son of the Romanian people, oh, the faith from heaven is not within the church from the world. The faith, which has come down from heaven, when it is in the church of one name with You, I liken it to the holy water, where the fish in it never die, Lord, Who had mercy upon me and took me up from the earth to remember me in heaven by the little mouths of Your sons from Pucioasa, the city where You set a high mountain and from where you declare the laws of the new creation of the world, according to Your righteousness.

With a spirit of heavenly humility, I grow within the word over the church of the Romanian people, who would have had to listen only and only to You, if You have come out with the living water of the river of life, to water the earth with it, and that it may become new by the water of washing, by the fire of the Holy Spirit, the voice of Your mouth, Who has become a river from heaven, for fifty years You have been speaking from heaven on the hearth of the Romanian people. The foreigners try to take away this Romanian land because of Your glory on it, for the word of Your coming with the joy of the heaven on earth. However, it will be otherwise than the man of lawlessness tries to work secretly against Your plan, which You hold into Your hand, and by which only You will overcome.

Behold, Lord, those who strike against this stone will be smashed against it, and those on whom it falls will be smashed to pieces, as Your prophets wrote through the Scriptures. I am reminding them now, after I have stepped into the seventh year since I left the earth because of my unbelief, which punished me so severely on earth then, and I tell all those, who call themselves and one another bishops and priests of Your church; however, they are deprived of You, just as I was, poor in faith and holiness without which no one sees and no one is with the Lord; and I tell them that the spirit of Your confession by the sons of Your people as word upon them is announcing them now that those which are old will pass away with a great noise, and only that which You have established on earth remains, the holy church, the Church of the New Jerusalem, and it will be as great as You are, and whatever You have established is Yours, in the same way as the people try to establish into Your name, those that will pass away with a great noise, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

You, who still think of yourselves that you are important with God among people; you, bishops among Romanians, the time will come, and it has already come, to see the days of the Lord, for you have made them come upon you by your greed for empty glory, which I have also sought on the earth, for it is written into the Scriptures: «Jealousy is even more frightening then hell, just as love is stronger than death». This is how I made the bishop Irineu jealous, the one by whom the Lord has set His church of New Jerusalem at a great height into the Romanian people, and you have been keeping him hidden, punished, and lowly at this time. However, the time is coming for you, as it also came for Joseph's brothers, who was banished from the house of his father by his brothers, and through his endurance, the Lord raised him and he came to be the savior for the people of Israel, until the Lord, by His hand, that was laid on the head of the prophet Moses, took the house of Israel out of the bondage of the foreigners.

What shame is coming upon you! Scorn and strife, unbelief and lack of the fear of God, haughtiness and shame, these kinds of works are seen among you, bishops and priests with names of Romanians. You do not want to believe that the name of Romanian will remain only for the saints and only for those who will sanctify themselves for the Lord, not for the people, but you will believe when you see this balance into God's hand. Those that are among the holy bishops on earth and in heaven stand true witness, for those who were the Lord's bishops on earth were those who were holy, not those who were sinful.

I confess you from among those in heaven, for I was shown great mercy, for the supplication of the prayers and of the sacrifices of the hearts of the Lord's people, from Pucioasa, and I tell you that there is no peace without the Lord. And I tell you as the prophecy in the Scriptures quotes it: «There is no peace without the Lord», and it will not be, for you have totally spoiled all the laws of the Lord, as I also spoiled them, and as a result I was cut and thrown into the fire of sufferance, and this is what I was calling out from the fire, and I was crying out with repentance: «My spirit is overwhelmed within me and my heart is bewildered inside me, because You made me dwell in the darkness like the dead from the age, but I spread out my hands and my soul to You; hear my voice and make me hear Your mercy, for my soul hopes within You, Lord».

Oh, people of the church from the hearth of the Romanian people! All those who have not loved and fulfilled the Lord's word of today, Who has established a high mountain from where He speaks, all those have fallen in various ways, in the sword of the Lord's wrath. I, from the host of the holy bishops on earth and in heaven, and who took me in a day of holy feast, confessing now upon you, when you wage war making haste of the Lord's wrath upon your house, I am reminding you the word of the Scripture which says: «There is no peace without the Lord».

Make peace between you and God, for you have got the bishop, who was chosen by Him, as the one who prays and who has the Holy Spirit in him and has favor before the Lord, and who interceded for me too, to be cleansed and forgiven through His church of the new Jerusalem. Make peace between you and the Lord, if you do not want to see fire and brimstone falling upon you, the day of the Lord's wrath.

I have confessed from heaven upon you and I have spoken now to you that there is no peace without the Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– And I, the one celebrated today among the heavenly host of Your bishops, praise You on earth with work from heaven, as I have already done so, for we, Your saints, are merciful like You, Lord, and we wait for the resurrection of those who will speak then to the dead in the graves to get up and stand on their feet, for Your voice is heard within their tombs. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord of the holy ones, have become known on earth by the spirit of confession, the spirit that has been working by confessing from heaven and from the earth. And you should stay forever to welcome Me, when I come, for behold, you are My tool, My key with which I close and open, My people. I close the mouth of those who blaspheme it, and I open the one, which confesses, and behold, I am the One Who closes and the One Who opens, and there is no God besides Me, and it is true the word of the Scriptures which speaks and says: «There is no peace without the Lord». Amen, amen, amen.

01-01/14-01-2006

The feast of the Lord's Baptism

I am coming down with the saints and with the angels on the Romanian land within a great feast, into whose midst I have got the dwelling of My coming and the throne of My book in the end of the time. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I am coming down into the book with a feast of Epiphany, with grace from heaven over the waters of the wells of the heavenly gardens in My courtyards, in the Lord's gardens. I have let you know, My people who take care and prepare feasts for those in heaven and for those on earth, and I have told you that many souls will come together to hear My voice, which sanctifies everything, and to receive the blessed water made holy by the word and to sprinkle the land from place to place, and the heaven to rejoice on earth at the work of the water sanctified by the word, for it will work with the power of the mystery of My place from here, from where, I, the Lord, established My church on the stone and I sealed it by My word fifteen years ago and by the word of My bishop within these days, then when I have made up the place and the ark (altar) of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem visibly on the hearth of the Romanian people, where I have made again a people for Me in order to have him at My coming and to let the book of the judgment of the creature into its midst. Amen.

I am embracing you within a spirit of Epiphany, you those who have come together at the spring of life, at the Jordan of life. And you should also embrace, with your heart in you and with the thrills of the Holy Spirit, My heaven of saints and of angels with thousands of thousands, who, round and round, up and down, to the right and to the left, stay and serve this day of feast, the sanctification with the seal of the grace of the Holy Spirit by My word and by the word of the anointed ones of My garden of today, the sanctification of the water of the gardens and of the courtyards in which, I, the Lord, have been laying down the mystery of the kingdom of God's sons, the coming out of this mystery on earth, and which the people, who call themselves My church on earth, have not got the gift to know it and to rejoice over it. They do something else on earth, and they do not do My work; they do not work My last Scriptures. They work like people and not like God, because they have been establishing themselves, and I have not established them to be what they say that they are. However, My word is at the helm here, and this means God's Kingdom and not man's. Here, I, the Lord speak the word and fulfill it all over the earth, for the mystery of the fulfillments of the Scriptures of My coming with the saints now, in the end of the time, needs the speaking of the word, the people faithful to My word, and the holiness of the spirit, of the soul and of the body of those who were written to be the mystery of God's sons on earth, a mystery that has been waited for seven ages, since the spirit of the man separated from the Spirit of God, no longer listening to his Creator.

Oh, the day of feast is a great day, it is a great angelic work and there are many invisible people, and I, the Lord, together with you, My anointed ones in the little garden of My word of today, speak the word and say: the waters of the wells of the gardens and of My courts with you are blessed and sanctified with the power of the grace of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. The steps of those who have come in time of frost and white bedding of snow are blessed by the sprinkling with these waters, so that the saints from above and from below may be able to take the water, sanctified by God through the word, by a great ministering of angels, with thousands of thousands; and let those who take water in their vessels sprinkle the land everywhere, and to sprinkle the graves of their relatives who are asleep, for the Lord waits for all and everything on the earth by the fulfilling of the new heaven and of the new earth, according to His promises and His justice. Amen.

Oh, people of My courts, you have labored with much commitment to prepare for the Lord, for His heavenly suites and for all who have come within a feast pace of Epiphany, and behold, You have prepared: the Lord with those in heaven, and you, from the earth, and you will set at the table those who are carried by the Spirit to the eternal spring. I advise you, as I have also done it by this time, to be a child, My people, and to be good and obedient, as well as I am before My Father; you should be a good child both with the Lord and with the man, so that the man may see that you work beautifully and that you do not do like Lucifer, who wanted to get up above God, as all the servants on the earth, who are called Mine, do their work and the work of the man, and these people cannot listen to God, to His Scriptures and to the Scriptures of His saints, who followed Him on the earth strengthening the foundation of the church, as I taught them, that is My saints, My people, and I am also teaching you today to be God's son, the Scriptures that have been waited by the saints for the redemption of their righteousness, by which they have been working out My justice in every time until your time.

Oh, the man is very, very heavy, and I can no longer carry him. There are many who are not light even for their own soul let alone for others' soul, let alone for God, My people! If My love has been teaching the people and speaking to them: «Love one another as I have loved you», then the whole love of those who love like Me has to be gathered within Me. However, the man has become Lucifer, and the man is very, very heavy for Me. The man is heavy for Me to carry him to the Father, and I cannot reconcile the man with the Father.

I have set a man down on the earth, coming with good news, a bishop testifying about this work of reconciliation of the man to the Father, and the bishops of the world of today have been hiding him from Me. And they, instead of embracing him as the God's chosen one among them, as he is the wise man who has come from Me, just as Eli did when I raised Samuel for Israel, when Eli's sons were no longer listening to God, working like Lucifer before Me, they, the bishops of the world of today, have forgotten to know that the one who does not commit sin and does not become haughty, that is the wise one, and he is also faithful within the spirit of God's fear within him.

Oh, how shall I reconcile the man to the Father? The man is very heavy. The man in the world is heavy and I can no longer carry him. I have chosen the one who is Mine from the bishops of the world so that he may reconcile the man to the Father, for I have got My word over the earth and I receive it from the Father and I take it and I speak it, like an obedient Son to His Father. I have sent to these the one who was a bishop over the city of Târgovişte, so that he may confess from among the heavenly bishops, but they, hearing, pretend that they do not hear and believing they pretend that they do not believe, and they say that the dead are dead if they are no longer on earth. The witch from Endor called Samuel up to tell Saul a word of teaching in his great trouble, and this happened with My own accord. I have brought with Me Basil, the bishop, who held the seat of the city of Târgovişte. He had been fighting for seven years against Me and had been doing the work of Lucifer over the work of My word, and I have brought this to tell the bishops and the priests that they will fall upon each other if they do not receive the spirit of prophecy upon them, the word of the righteous One, Who is written to come in order to give birth to the world again. Amen.

I am coming down from heaven down on earth to help the man come to the Father, but the man is very, very heavy. Oh, how shall I carry him any longer? I advise you, My people, to bring up to Me a spirit of prayer for all the promises that I still have to establish on earth in order to come down with all the power before those who are not faithful, who mind only their own business, calling themselves shepherds over their church. I long, and I very much long for My bishop with whom I have worked near among you. They have been keeping him in submission to them and they have been keeping him hidden, but My glorified time is coming, and the glory of those, who made their kingdom on earth under the name of church, and they still do this, when this glory of them will depart from them.

However, I, the Lord sprinkle the earth with tears and I make the waters from them drip upon the waters from you, and you should sprinkle over the earth with the sanctifying water of My word, in which I let My drops of tear fall, the tear that is under the sufferance I have been enduring, for the man is very, very heavy for Me, sons.

It is a feast of Epiphany, and the people, that has gathered together, has been waiting for you to give him a warm welcome into My houses with you, to set him at the table, for it has travelled a long and difficult way, sons. Warm up the hearts of all those who have come together at the Jordan of My word, for you sit on My behalf before them, and John, My godfather, tells them: "This word is God's Lamb, Who washed away the sins of the world then when he died for the man and He washed them with His own blood." Amen.

Oh, My people, I stay with John at the border, for his word waits once with his feast, and you warm up the one who has come a long way to Me and to you, for you are My tool, My confessor, and give to the one who comes to Me and to you; give him a spirit of life giving, for this is the fruit, which comes out of the work of the new man, born from above, in My image and after My likeness, for My love in the name of the love, which I put it over the man when, writing it on the stone, I left it over the earth for the man. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-01-2006

The synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

At the turn between the feast of the Epiphany and that of My baptizer, John, I, the Lord, set into My book of today a feast again, My coming again, for I am the Teacher of those who faithfully separate the darkness from the light and put it away from them and go on My way with the light in it. Amen.

Oh, how shall I not teach them, how shall I not exhort those who have chosen Me as their life? It is written that «the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it», (John: 1/5) and after the resurrection I went up on the right side of My Father, I asked the Father and I said to Him: «Father, My disciples are in the world but they are not of the world. While I was with them in the world I kept them from My enemies and theirs. Father, keep them from now on, and make Our love perfect in them, and let they be one as We are one, Father». (See also John: 17/12-26) Amen. This is how John, the Baptizer, worked, when he was finishing the work for which he had come on the earth, because John was born for the announcing of the righteous One and he announced Me baptizing Me in Jordan with water, and the Father baptized Me with the Holy Spirit, sending Him above Me in the image of a dove, and the Father spoke through the Holy Spirit: «This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased». (Matt: 3/17) Amen. And John testified about Me that he had to grow less so that I might grow bigger, and he told those who were preaching about Me: «After me comes He Who is mightier than I, the thong of Whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen and He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire, Whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff will burn with unquenchable fire». (See Mark: 1/7, 8; Luke: 3/16, 17)

Oh, My people, I have always wanted to speak about the spirit of confession and I have always wanted to exhort you. Moses' Law and the prophets of the Scriptures and the Psalms confessed about Me that I would come. And here it is how I come. I will keep coming until I perfectly finish the work of «new heaven and new earth», as this Scripture has said.

Oh, My people, learn from the saints, from Me and from the Father, learn to confess Me, that you have been called to this work. The saints have confessed Me, and I have also confessed them by My word, as I confessed John, My baptizer, and I confessed the saints by signs and wonders, from Me and up to your time, when I have protected you by a mighty hand to have you as the confessing people, because the protection and the victory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit was great, very great, for you protection from heaven to earth, so that no one may do you any harm, and I confess Myself into your midst, and let the Father and the saints confess Me as well, and you are to announce those that We confess from those that are heavenly in order to fulfill the Scripture of the kingdom of the heavens on a new earth doing away with lawlessness everywhere, and when it will no longer be in the mind and works of the man, then satan will no longer have work either, and he will have an end to his work through the man, and the man will have an end to his work through satan as well, and I, the Lord, will first set to their place the angels who fell down by serving the spirit of the haughtiness of the man built by My hand and out of the dust, and in whom I breathed then the spirit of life to have him as My kingdom, as the God's joy and delight and of His angels'.

Two thousand years ago, John confessed Me at Jordan, and he said: «Behold, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world!» (John: 1/29) Then he confessed that I would wash away with My blood, shed on the cross, the man's sin and the eternal sufferance of his sins. He told the people to leave off sins, first by confessing them, for one confesses with his mouth and believes within his heart, and God shows His mercy to those who know how to get up from death.

Oh, My baptizer, this is how I have always taught My people, and this is how I have testified that he is My people. Amen.

– However, Lord, I want to tell it about the Scriptures, which say that the saints will judge the world. I was a holy man, and this is how I judged the world. All those who are holy within their spirit, soul and body, they have already judged the world, and they are no longer in the world, when they stay within its midst.

The world is judged within the man's body itself. Everyone who takes away the spirit of the world from him, that one has already judged the world. However, there still is a greater judgment[28] of the world. You and I and all the confessing saints, who have spoken out by their mouth the sins of the world, were then to fall into agonies, for the world has been killing the saints for its sins, although it was already judged when it judged You and when it gave You to the cross to die, but no one knew this at that time, of those from the world, that You were their salvation then and now when You have come and You have set Your church on its first stone, and when you set to work the mystery of the resurrection of the dead and a persistent work for the forgiveness of the sins of the creature, from its beginning and to those little of Yours by whom You have testified about Yourself far and wide by the word of Your coming for the resurrection of the dead, for a new heaven and a new earth, and for the justice that will be the gift of Your saints then, and who will have overcome the world within them. Amen.

[28] See the selection topic: „The fearful judgment", r.n.

Oh, people, protected by God's grace! If you are so much protected, you should work much and confess the Lord, Who comes to you, and you should not be rejoiced by your joy, but rather you should rejoice the Lord when you do this, for I had never had another joy than the work which I came for, because I was not the light which I was confessing about, but the Lord was, Whom I, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, revealed Him at Jordan in a wonderful manner by the work of the Holy Spirit and by the voice of the Father of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Lord has been teaching you more and more with every passing day, and your teachers who have come from Him also teach you to get used more and more perfectly to the work of the confession of God, the Word, confessing people, calling the people to life, to the light and to the wisdom from above. You have to start first with love, then with your thought and then with your confession, glorifying the Lord's coming by all these works, for you, the sons of this people, have to be the same in all the things of the Lord and then in your things, and always, always to receive the work of His peace upon you and among you, so that you may be able to work through it.

There is no peace without the Lord. Within all your occupations and confessions you should have and work through the peace that comes from God. Be flexible and grow within the fruit of the Spirit. Deny yourselves and give room to the Lord within you. This is how those, who hear the teaching of the heaven upon you, should live, because any good and living water has the place of its spring, and it springs from it over many on the earth. Amen.

I have spent with the Lord, with His angels and with you the feast of Epiphany. I have stayed humble, because the Lord has been glorified in the word over you. However, he has given me work upon you after that.

Grow in grace and multiply and fill the earth and have dominion over it, having the Lord as your Master. Amen. Let this word be a prophetic word, and You, Lord of those who are holy, seal the power of the fulfillment of my word delivered over to Your people of today, for all of Your promises, are great, and then eternal, Lord, Little and sacrificed Lamb, and the One Who forever is alive. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I have glorified Myself upon you with the feast of My baptizer, My people. Give glory to My coming, son, and then let all My people know and see himself from the work of his confession, that he drinks of the same spring and he works out the same thought, and then he fulfills.

Peace to you, New Jerusalem, for it is written: «There is no peace without the Lord». Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-01-2006

The feast of the Lord's Meeting

There is no peace without the Lord; this is how I have reminded you not long ago within My word upon you, Jerusalem, My dear people. And you should not do for you any greater work among all those that you do and feel, in order to be able to make for Me a path to you, and to be able to make a path for you to Me, people of My coming, for it is hard without peace; it is very, very hard on earth, and it is also very difficult in heaven, if there is no peace with you on earth. Be full of the spirit of the holy peace, sons, for I have always, always, got into your midst the feast of My word, which brings Me down to you, the second time from near the Father on earth, to make peace between God and man, between man and God, for without the Lord there is no peace, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

There is no peace on earth, because the true peace is My peace, and that is why I spoke to My disciples: «I give you My peace; and I do not give it to you as the world gives». (John: 14/27) Oh, My people, you cannot meet your peace for there is no peace into the world. There is debauchery into the world, and the man can no longer live without this deception upon him. However, you, My loved Jerusalem, you should welcome Me with your little hearts full of My peace, for I give you My peace to be able to love Me through it, to be able to work through it during this deceptive time of today, My people. Let us work out our meeting together, you should work Mine and I should work yours, and you should welcome Me with My peace into your little heart, and you shall not look for another peace, and you shall not value any other rest, because if you do not perceive the mystery of My peace, you are without peace, and it is hard for you, and it is hard for Me into your midst as well. Learn from dawn to dawn that there is no peace without the Lord. Do not seek to receive Me from the earth, but rather seek to receive Me from heaven, for My peace is not on earth, because the man can work only by his peace, only by his mind, only by his will. However, you should come to meet Me and receive Me in you with My peace, with My work, with My word, for this word is for the rising or for the falling of many, because I am the Word. Learn to use My peace in you, which I have been speaking to you about, and let My word upon you be either for your rising to Me with the love, with the longing and with the work of the Holy Spirit into your little heart, or to your falling down into a spirit of humility, to receive Me in you and to make you according to My image and after My likeness, by your humility and by your obedience, My people, for there has not been the same over the world with this word of My coming, but rather it is for the rising and for the falling of many; however, otherwise I ordain you to My peace in you, to the goodness of your spirit for your meeting with Me, and it is either for your rising to a great work for Me, or for your falling into a spirit of humility, in order to be able to exhort you when you need God in your soul, for many things on earth test the one who embraces the narrow path to Me, the whole path by its truth. Amen.

Oh, My people, meet Me to be able to exhort you, for I can, son, and you should be able to receive Me. I was a forty-day old baby when the old Simeon and Anna, the prophetess, met Me at the Temple, and they lifted Me within their arms and said that I would be set for the rising and for the falling of many in Israel, and it was so, because the spirit of prophecy is one true spirit. Amen.

The one who receives Me with all My things, that one rises for them and through them, and the one who does not receive Me, that one goes down to his things, striking with them into My gentle being, which waits being brought down by the heart and mind of the one who does not receive Me for his heart and mind. Oh, My people, there is no peace without the Lord. Oh, My people, there is no mind without the Lord in the mind of the one who does not take after God, who is gentle and humble in His heart, as I taught My disciples to be in order to be My disciples, so that I could rest in them in the spirit of the unshaken faith, and then I may be the one to be able to work in them and not them, for where the man can do and where the man knows, I cannot work and I do not know, for I am gentle and humble in My heart before the man, and the one who is likewise, that one receives Me and rises to be My house, the house of My peace, a dwelling place of My rest in man and My work in him over the earth, the work like Mine and not like man's, the work with humility, for I give My grace only to those who are humble. Amen.

My mother, the Virgin, and My father Joseph took Me to the temple to dedicate Me to God, for My mother and My father was God, the Father, and they brought Me to Him forty days after they received Me to grow Me, after I was born of the Virgin on the earth. Simeon and Anna welcomed Me, for they had been waiting for Me, and I welcomed My Father, Who received Me from the arms of those who were carrying Me, and who prophesied carrying Me into their arms that I would be for the rising and for the falling of many, and that I would be the light for the revealing of the nations and to the glory of God's people, and to be the salvation prepared to all the nations. Amen.

Within a spirit of meeting full of longing and faith, with longing receive My Spirit into your spirit, My people, for I give you My peace, and I do not give it to you as the world gives it. The world has its own spirit, and I have advised you to receive the Holy Spirit, and you cannot find This One in the world, no matter how much it would try to deceive you that it has My Spirit in it. I have told you that the man, who does not walk within My ways, cannot work with My Spirit, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I have nothing in this world but the heavenly Father and the one who becomes My dwelling place and My Father's on earth, the dwelling place of My peace. Amen.

Oh, son My people, get used to doing My will within your spirit. From dawn to dawn, seek to be the rest of My Spirit, but do not forget that I rest in the one who is humble and gentle in his hearth, in the one who humbles himself, in the one who shows that he walks in the light, for those, which are hidden in man and among men are not light, but rather they are darkness, being them good or evil and without My peace in them. I want to dwell into your midst and to sit in counsel with you, for there is My place and My Spirit, but when My Spirit meets the man's spirit, I get mixed up within My work and I come out and dwell in the Father, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I am not like the man who is born of man and who is taught as on earth, without the Spirit of the Lord in him.

Oh, sons, take care of My teaching upon you, for I have always taught you through it to come out of the spirit of the world, so that you may not drink of its spirit, of its wine and to get drunk from it without knowing that you do so. Oh, sons, remain within My Spirit, for I have exhorted you through My disciples not to leave your gathering together into My name. However, you should be great within your faith and to the attention with the heavenly grace in it, for there are two kinds of gatherings together, and one is in My Spirit and it is known that it is so, and the other one is in your spirit, and it is known that it is so. The more humble you are, the more heavenly you are, and then My Spirit can work among you, for the Lord gives His grace to those who are humble, and grace upon grace multiplies within the midst of those who are humble, of those poor in their spirit, and in whom only the kingdom of the heavens dwells, sons. Get used to be poor in your spirit, for I spoke this work on a high mountain for those who would become My kingdom among people. Those who are poor in their spirit, are full of My grace, the grace of the holy faith, the grace of the heavenly humility and not any kind of humility, for if your humility does not destroy the devil, that is the ruler of the darkness in man, then that is not humility. And I, the Lord, am coming to meet you, and I meet you with Me peace within all your hardships you go through with Me, and I with you, the peace in the time of your struggle, and I tell you: Peace to you! There is no peace without the Lord. There is only war without the Lord, even if the man does not understand that the war is the time without the Lord in man and among men.

Peace to you! There is no peace without the Lord, even if it does now appear to be war, but where the Lord is not, the evil spirit is at war with the man by all that the man does not understand from those things that are hidden of the evil spirit between man and man.

Peace to you! Do not hurt each other, but rather comfort each other. Meet one another from dawn to dawn with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Whom I have given you to be the work over My disciples and among My disciples on earth.

I give you My peace, and after its work among you, there comes everything you need for Me and for you with Me, and let the greatest richness you have among you and for you be it the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, from Whom all the good work and all the perfect gift come, sons. This perfect love is from Me upon you. This is how I meet you within a day of meeting feast, and you should also meet Me, gently and humbly in your heart, to see Me, for it is written: «They will be like Him and, will see Him as He is»; you will be like Me and you will have My peace, My image and My likeness from dawn to dawn in the word, and then in your works, sons, to the meeting of My days with you, and yours with Me. Amen.

You, My people, by what you love and speak and do, do not forget to be like Me and do not forget to be a beautiful people before Me and for My meeting, and do not forget to be like Your Lord, gentle and humble in your heart, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-02-2006

The Sunday of the memorial of the prodigal son's parable

Oh, My people, I, the Lord, am your Shepherd, and I want you to eat the food from Me, for I always give it to you, I always advise you, I always exhort you, for your Lord is without the end. Amen.

Within My last advice upon you I told you to be gentle and humble in your heart, and I reminded you that there was no peace without the Lord, and I wanted you to understand that without the Lord there is war in all the things of the man, even if the man does not understand that in his time without the Lord in man and between man and man there is war. I want you to learn all that I give you to do, and to speak between brother and brother My entire word from one word to another, and this is how you are to spend between Me and you, between brother and brother, son nourished from heaven. The one who does not live in the Father with his mind, that one wastes away his mind and his dwelling in the Father, but you are taught by God to be gentle and humble in your heart to be able to stay in your Father within your heart, for behold, the parable from the Scriptures, being remembered today by the spirit of the Christ's church, shows that the son who did not stay in the father within his mind and heart in a gentle and humble way, then he wasted away his mind and then he was stolen from his father's arms and he told to his father that he did it this way, and then he went away from his father, after he claimed his right of sonship to be his, so that he might no longer have a father because he wanted to be independent of his father.

I teach you, My people, to stay within your heart in the Spirit of God, to have a father, son, and that no one may pull you out from the Father and from your dwelling in Him. I look into the word that I have given you and I see My exhortation upon you, for I have told you, sons, not to hurt each other, but rather to comfort each other and to meet each other, from dawn to dawn, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who is among you, and Whom I have given to be the work over My disciples and among My disciples on the earth.

Oh, comfort each other with the work of the Holy Spirit, to have a gentle and humble spirit, sons. The work of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, if it has worked among you, it keeps you in the Father, and nothing can take you away from Him, for the one who does not take heed and work from the Father, that one wastes away within his mind and becomes a prodigal son of life from heaven.

Oh, sons, the life from heaven is beautiful between man and man, and the one who loves it, that one is gentle and humble in his heart and he becomes word with those from heaven in him and he gives honor and thanks to the Father for his life, and he does not forget to love the Father, for the life from heaven in man has the heavenly Father for it. Amen.

Oh, My people, I look like a Shepherd, and I look in you and between brother and brother. I look from one of My words to another to see how you sit down within it, how you take from it, how you work it upon you, and I have always, always exhorted you to sweeten your life with My sweet word, for I feed you sweetly, because this is how God is in heaven, and this is how it is on the earth, when He is divided among sons. Let the Word from among the sons be like My word, with sweetness in it, for the sons of the Father to be known on the earth and in heaven, when the heaven looks at you, sons. My advice is sweet, for I am a Shepherd, and I am a spring of mercy and gentleness, and I am word. This is how you should also be, sons, for if you do not become word on one another for all that you work among you for Me and for you, if you do not speak with each other, the evil spirit rejoices and brings you quarrels, sons. Oh, exhort one another within the spirit of heavenly love for all that you do within your spirit and body, for you are nourished with teaching from heaven, so that your Father may not let you waste your mind away, for the one who is not full of God, that one wastes himself away from the Father and forgets to behave naturally before the Father.

Oh, My people, how much love I have had for man! I have been teaching the man by teaching My disciples! I have spoken in parables so that every man may receive teaching of life, which is set upon him to get him used to the work of life. The man has nowhere to know the work of life from but only from God, and I have become your Shepherd, because I have made you My people, to work with you and upon you the work of life, son. The one who has got this wisdom, that one becomes God's child on earth, and he becomes word of life, sweet word, for the life in heaven in man is a sweet word, and it is the word, My people.

Become word upon each other, some of you upon others, some of you from others for the work of life, so that this work and its love may work among you. Strengthen each other with this work, for this is how I want you to be. Give My love to each other, for I have always poured out water at the root of your life with Me, so that I may grow within you, with My gentle and humble Spirit; I and not you, sons. I want to be among you as among those in heaven, endless love in its work, God without an end in you, among you and with you within a work like His. Amen.

I speak like a God, My people, and if I am your God, then I want to see that you look at Me and that this is how you work too, and that you have Me as your Teacher, and that I may be the One Who measures this, to be your counselor, for I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I am full of mercy for the entire fallen creature and which waits from Me from your midst to save it and to lift it up. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is hard without God on earth, and if the man does not want to hear from God anymore, I cannot take away his burden from on him. However, I have always advised you, to be with you on earth and that it may not be hard for you, for without God it is hard on earth, My people. I have got a little and dear heart among you, which tells Me with its longing spirit after Me: "Lord, God, help me not to get used to You, but neither without You with me, Lord."

Oh, My people, the one who gets used to God, that one does no longer listen to Him, does no longer love Him, does no longer receive Him, as the Lord expects from those who are loved by Him. And the one who does not get used without the Lord, that one has the Lord as his love and it becomes word, as the Lord does, and he becomes the Lord's house, and it becomes God's instrument by his obedience in it, in a gentle and humble way before Me, the One Who measures the man's heart, for it is written: «Let the man not judge over those that are in man, before God judging them», for the Lord is the One Who does this. Amen.

Sons, sons, bear with one another in love, in God, sons, but for this you have to speak with one another and you should speak in love, and you should not speak to yourselves, for that which makes you speak to yourselves does harm to you, and then it does harm on the sides. Speak to each other and you should know each other's little hearts to learn to be with God, and then each other to give yourselves over to God. Pray for each other, sons. Look at the lack of the love of the son in the parable that I spoke, and which I mentioned today, for when his love and forgiveness were put to test, he got upset and judged without mercy and without love the one who repented from his stray deeds from his father. The one who goes wrong, that one humbles himself, if he is a son, for humility brings forth grace, and it brings God in man. Let the one who truly humbles himself not be a burden, for the true humility is only the one, which remains steadfastly in man then. Amen.

However, you My people, you should not be without Me in your humility, for those who are truly humble are those who have God's gift upon them. You, My people, you should let Me know and speak, and you should know to love this way, to have the Lord as your father, son. Take care, when you fast with your body, you should do this for the soul and not for the body, because I am the God of those who are holy and I teach them My peace and its work upon them, which has the reward from God upon man. You should do all your good things for God and not for you, and in this way you will gain within Me all your good things. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, My people, it is announcing upon the man the time of the fasting for the meeting of My resurrection from the dead, but the people do not know what the work of the fasting from food is, just as the man does not know what it is the work of the fasting from those which defile[29] the man and which come out of the man to his wound and to the wound of others around him. Oh, My people, you should have Me with you all the time and you should stay with your table spread towards Me and you, for the man who feeds on My word, that one is the one who knows, and the one who, by hearing does not eat, that one is the one who does not know how to stay with God on earth.

Take Me always in your life and always on your table, My people, for I give Myself to those who receive Me, and those who receive Me are those who give Me, sharing Me as I am as an example of eternal life in man and among people from man, for I, the Lord, dwell in those who love Me carrying Me and showing Me in them as I am, as I revealed Myself that I was, that is a Son, obedient to the Father, gentle and humble in His heart, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-02-2006

The Sunday in remembrance of the fearful judgment

With a spirit of gentle Shepherd; this is how I speak with you, when for your life with Me, I become word from near the Father and from the Father and I shepherd you, for you to know how to live, humble and gentle in your hearth, like Your heavenly Shepherd, My people. Oh, how many times do you know that I come to you as word as the food for your life with Me, you to wait for Me watching and to lay down for Me a way with peace between Me and you and into your midst, for this is how I have been exhorting you. My coming down is hard for those who stay under it, but the spirit of your peace helps Me when I come, and My way to you keeps Me then within it with peace, and it keeps Me, My people.

[29] See the selection topic: „What defiles a man, what enters or what comes out of him? ", r.n.

Oh, take care of the peace between you and Me and take care of My eye, which does not turn its sight away from you. Take care that My eye may not go into tears, for I look at you with it and I keep you away from every evil, when it tries to weaken your standing, your dwelling with Me and My dwelling with you, for you are the house of My coming now, in the end of the time, Jerusalem, which are written to be My people and My coming. Amen.

The coming of the Son of Man in His glory and all the saints and angels with Him, sitting on the throne of the glory gathering together all the nations before Him, this work is with you, and I was speaking to My disciples about it, speaking to them in parables and preaching to them the kingdom of the heavens and My coming. My word upon you brings together all the nations before the throne of My glory, a throne of the cherubim on which I sit and speak My word upon the earth. It does not matter if the man on earth does not have any time to stay before My coming, before My word declared from those that are from heaven over all the earth. It does not matter if I do not find any faith on earth when I am coming now, as I said that I would come in My glory with all the saints and angels. However, I am coming because I said that I would come and I am coming this way as I said that I would come, and I bring together all the nations before My word spoken from the throne of My glory, and near My throne, all the saints and angels, as I spoke two thousand years ago in the midst of My disciples, to reveal to them all My mysteries from My coming with the judgment of the creature, for the renewal of the world by the word, which flows like a river from My mouth, until it comes out from its water a new heaven, a new earth and a new people, a seed promised to Abraham, the son of faith, an example to God's sons, faithful and truthful like their Lord. Amen.

Oh, My people, everything I spoke to My disciples, I spoke in order to fulfill it and I did not speak the things for something else, and behold, I start with you these fulfillments, which I was speaking about then in parables. I advise you, son, to open wide My Scriptures of that time and to see My coming in them and to learn all the fulfillment of the mysteries spoken then by Me, for all have come true, all those spoken about the kingdom of the heaven, about My dwelling into the midst of the people, about the coming of the Son of Man in His glory, and all the saints and angels with Him, and He, standing on the throne of His glory and assembling all the nations before Him. Amen.

My people, the Scripture is the book, which is being fulfilled, it is the true book because it is being fulfilled, and you should keep good watch for its complete fulfilling, for the coming of the Son of Man, and always to be prepared like the wise virgins before the coming of the Bridegroom and of His wedding with you before all the nations.

The table of My word into your midst has with it saints and angels, for I do not walk alone, and I walk beautifully into your midst instead, My people! I look at those who stay in My way, how sweetly, how lively, how warmly and how beautifully they do teach you how to walk before Me, if I walk so beautifully into your midst, and within such great heavenly people, always, always in you and at My table with you, the table of the wedding of the Son of God, My people. Oh, what would you really do, what would you really be if I opened to you from time to time for your big eyes for this heavenly view of My beautiful walking into your midst with a lot of heavenly people of saints and angels, with the heavenly Jerusalem, which paid for its citizenship, as long as it was in its body on the earth working much for a place near Me in heaven?; A place prepared by Me after I went to be with the Father, so that where I was, to be with Me those who were Mine, those who have chosen for Me and which are written into the Book of the Lamb's Life by their works, which accompany them adorning My table.

Oh, My people, the day of the fearful judgment is remembered on this day. However, for whom will it be fearful? It will be so for those who will punish themselves from their own works that they piled up against them, and the righteous and the saints will be rewarded for those that are gathered on the table of My wedding as wedding adornments, for the works of the saints come after them, as it is written. Oh, everything is eternal, sons, for I Myself said: «The unfaithful and the wicked will go to eternal damnation, and the righteous will go to eternal life».

My people, the man who is rich in the earthly things does not know, poor of him, he does not know how to gather for himself in heaven, when he seeks to gather this way. He does not know which way the works of his goodness reach to the Lord. He does not know of those who are My little ones on the earth. Those who are Mine are those who serve Me and not themselves, and they are those who serve the rich people and the wise people of the earth so that these may see the way of the kingdom of the heavens and to see Me with those who are My little ones on the earth in the midst of the nations on it, waiting for the rich people to come at My table and to walk in My commandments so that I may be able to remember them among those on My right side into My kingdom. However, now I have called them again and I have told them about the fearful judgment.

Oh, sons of men! You, who are rich and wise in the earthly things! Only those who know how to turn from goats into sheep, only those can find those who are My little ones, visiting them then in their hardships for My Gospel, which is preached by them from margins to margins, so that I may be able to come then, and that no one may be able to say that he did not know that I would come or that I did not come and I did not knock everywhere to be opened for Me and to come in and dine with those who receive the gift of the faith in the coming of the Son of Man in His glory, and all the saints and angels sitting with Him, sitting on the throne of His glory and bringing all the nations together before Him, in such a way that no one may say that he did not know about the coming of the Bridegroom at the bride[30] and about His table to which all have been invited, all the nations of the earth. Amen.

Oh, sons of men! Everything you love and live, everything is emptiness and chasing after the wind, as it is written, but My kingdom is eternal and you do not know the way to it. Here I am into the midst of a people not taken into consideration by you, those who waste your time on the earth without the works of the eternal life. Come and climb up the mountain of the teaching and take eternal life for you from My table, for the face of the world passes away, but My word and its faithful sons remain forever, and only those who sanctify themselves for Me remain. Amen.

I made the heaven and the earth, oh, sons of men! I am the One Who has given your soul to you. I am the One Who is, and My name is called the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) and I write Myself with it before you to call you on to My right side teaching you to seek first the teaching of the eternal life and then to stand before My coming, for I come. Amen.

And as for you, Jerusalem that are called the people of My coming by Me, make My way to the nations so that I may teach them the way, the truth and the life, that they may know of My coming and that they may know you as My way with which I walk from margins to margins in order to assembly all those who are chosen and those who are Mine, waiting for Me to bring them together. Amen, amen, amen.

13/26-02-2006

The Sunday in remembrance of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

[30] See the selection topic: „The Wedding of the Lamb", r.n.

I come down into your midst with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, people of My word, and I advise you with Him, I strengthen you with Him and with Him I have always breathed refreshment upon you, so that I may be able to work with you and you with Me over the earth with My Spirit, with the new making of the world, for there is nothing else but only the end of the world[31] over everything on earth, because the world without God does nothing else but it works its end only, only temporariness, for it does not wait for its eternity and there is no one to tell it about it, and I come down with it upon the earth and I have no one to tell about it and I have no one to give it.

I comfort Myself with you within My sigh, My people. I sigh with you, for I have taught you to take after Me and to sigh after the man too, for the man's wandering on earth is great, and I, the Lord, have My coming after the man into your midst, My work of calling after each man, for the man to come in the way of the light and to stay in it, and that he may escape from the spirit of the darkness of this age, which keeps the man within the spirit of wandering away from God.

I want to draw the man back to the Father. When I went to the Father to stand again on His right side, in obedience of Him, after My ascension in the heavenly things, I said that if I would go I would draw all to the Father. However, I have mercy not only on those who loved and love Me and who have always waited for Me longingly, but I have also got mercy on every soul on the earth, and I am merciful and I sigh after the man. However, if the man has sighed after Me, I would no longer bear with so much sighing, but the man does not know what the Lord's sighing is, the sighing of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit with Whom I have come down on earth to teach the man the Spirit of God, and that the man may get away from his spirit, which brings sufferance and sighing to him and to Me. This is what it happened to the man built by My hand in the time of creation in the beginning, after I had made the haven and the earth and all their ornaments. The man forsook God and took after his spirit and he has never come back to Me so that I may give him My life in him again, My dwelling in him, and that he may give Me his life and his love out of which I built him.

I built the man with great love. Moreover, I am building you within great love, now in the end of the time, My people. I am breathing the Holy Spirit upon your being with great, great longing, so that you may always get used to My being within you, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who teaches you My love and Who shares with you My sighing after the man. I remember with pain and tears within your midst the day when I lost the man and when he lost the garden of Paradise in which I set him after I had built him. I built him to have comfort from him, just as a parent gives birth to a child to be comforted with him and from him. However, the man departed from his Father and from his mother and joined to his wife and he separated from the One Who made him. Oh, the man has no longer had any comfort on the earth and he has sought in vain to have it, and the man bears sons in vain. Everything is only lying on earth, and the man does no longer know how to come back to God. However, I have come with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for I told those who loved Me: «I will not leave you orphans when I go to the Father, and I will send you another Comforter to teach you and to be with you into the world». (See also John: 14/16-18)

The Holy Spirit is the One who gave Himself thorough the prophets and the earth has not been without God on it, but the man has no longer had eyes and ears towards God, for he fell down on earth, and I come to raise him and to give him back the paradise, for it is for him that I made the paradise, My people.

[31] See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.

The man left the paradise within tears and uncomforted sighing, after he had violated the law of God's love, and now, I, the Lord, want that the man may seek with tears and sighing after his place in paradise, for the paradise was made and it is, just as God is and wants to call the man back into the paradise, into the life of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for I did not leave the man orphan, when in My obedience I went to be on the right side of the Father to be His will and not Mine, and that the man may take the example from Me and to stand on My right side and to appreciate Me, and that I may appreciate him as well, and to keep him from the enmity of the spirit opposing to God and who took the man out of My arm, out of the paradise that was made for the man so that the man may be Mine.

Oh, My people led by the whisper of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter! When the man can work, the Lord cannot. Teach yourself from Me, My people, for I stand on the right side of the Father to teach, and when I work I look at Him, for the son who takes after his father, that one is the father's comfort; however, this wonder is no longer on earth. And behold, those, who were asking about Me when I came from the Father among people, loved Me. Those who wandered away in their life had also come and found Me and loved Me, and those who called themselves sons, judged Me like a man, for they did not love Me if I did not take after them, and they were blind for My coming of that time, and which they knew through the prophets about.

I Myself have come after the man, for the man does no longer see the way that is to take him to his peace, to his rest after his such a long running away. I come and I stay with the word of the Holy Spirit in the way of the man, only that the man may come to know Me. If the man wants, he knows Me, and if he does not want, he does not open his heart and his ear to know My whisper, My sighing after the man to bring his reconciliation to the Father, and then to give him My hand and to draw him to the Father, where the embracing of the Father and the joy of the heaven wait for the man's returning to the Father. Amen.

Oh, Father Sabaoth, I have been walking sighingly after the man in order to bring him back to You, Father, as I said that I would work then when I left My disciples and when I told them that I would come to You to draw all of them to You, to My Father, to be again in happiness with the man, Father. Behold, I pray to You from the midst of the people that receives Us as God, and I pray from its midst and together with it I pray to fulfill the Scripture of the new birth of the world. I pray to You for a new heart in man, Father, for I have been longing for My love in man, to bring back the man to You, to draw Him to You and that the man may be.

The man built by My hand cries; he cries after every man who was born of man, and he prays to You and to Me to give a new heart to the man of today, so that the man of today may become a savior and to listen to God as I listen to You, Father, for I am Your beloved Son, and You do Your will through Me, because this is how I want it and this is how I am Your beloved Son. Amen.

– Oh, Son with the spirit of a child, You are true God of true God, and you work like Me with a spirit of My child, and You knew this heavenly mystery then when You said that if the man does not become a child, he would in no way enter God's kingdom, and he would not have God's kingdom in him as well.

The spirit of a child like Your Spirit, child-God, this is what I, the Father, want for the people of Your coming after two ages, when You went again on to the earth after the man to make the man again in Our image and after Our likeness, child-God. I sent You down on earth and I told everybody that You were My child, and this is how I have also told everybody today again: He is My Son, and I am in Him and I am well pleased with Him, and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is in Him, the word of the Father and of the Son for the new birth of the world, for I, together with My Son, work again and We make them all new, as it is written to be fulfilled now, in the end. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, sons of the people, the Father and the Son, the Son and the Father, are speaking to you from the midst of the people of the Lord's coming for the new making of the world. Let yourselves be called and let yourselves be chosen, for the Lord is coming down on earth to choose those who are faithful to His coming, and to give them a prepared place, so that where He is you may also be, but become disciples of My coming from the Father in you and after you.

Give up the spirit of this age, for the spirit of the world is the spirit opposing to God and no one can do God's things if he is not called, chosen and faithful, and if he is not sent by God, when that a man like that resembles God. Come into the light, come out into the light, for life means God, and learn the mystery of life. Fast from everything that is evil and dark and feed on the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, because I have told everybody that the man does not live on bread alone, but he rather lives only if he feeds on the word that has come out of God's mouth. And here is My table! Take from it, and be fed on the spirit of the eternal life, and become sons of God, full of grace and truth, worshiping God. Prepare your life and your little garment feeding on the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and be ready like those who wait for their Master to come back and to bring them the joy of their eternity, the new heaven and the new earth for those who learn from God, as I teach them from the Father, and as I come from Him and I give you. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, My people, Jerusalem, bless My name that is on your head and honor the Lord preaching His coming upon you, and from you to all the nations of the earth, from the four corners, so that they may come to the mountain of the teaching and to take and to become sons of God, with grace and truth in them, and that I may be their God. Amen.

Peace to you, New Jerusalem! Keep yourself within a new garment. Let My grace and truth be your work so that we may do the Father's work and that the nations of the earth may see My light that is upon you, My word, which calls and sanctifies everyone who believes and will be saved by believing and fulfilling My kingdom within him.

Oh, My people, do not forget to work power for Me upon you, and to comfort and to strengthen My coming to you, and to be the child of My Father, as I am. Amen, amen, amen.

20-02/05-03-2006

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

(Excerpt)

… My people, let your faith be this: as in heaven so on earth, as I meant it to be by the word of the Scriptures spoken for My disciples, as on earth is only world everywhere, and it is as on earth, because where there is not My will with man's will, the heaven is not on earth. Behold, you do not need any other kind of faith but only to believe the Scripture that I meant it for those who sanctify themselves for God and by which I said: «As in heaven so on earth», and you should have the whole wisdom of this Scriptures that cuts away from you the pressure of the life worries, giving all this care to the Father, only for you to care for the kingdom of the heavens in you and in your midst, My people, and to work the heaven on earth in anything you do, in anything you speak, in anything you love, for I have to be your life and love. Amen.

Oh, My people, there cannot be better faith than that which fulfills the kingdom of the heavens on earth among people. Do not look outside, for outside are all those who love falsehood and all that come to it over the sons of men who have lost God's kingdom after they have put it away from them to make their kingdom on earth; outside where are all those who love falsehood and the works of emptiness and of its iniquities.

Catch powers for the truth of My kingdom with you. Encourage one another day by day and more and more perfectly in order to fulfill the truth of the Lord's kingdom with you, and this is what I meant when I said: «As in heaven so on earth».

27-02/12-03-2006.

The feast of the Annunciation

I, your Lord and God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, come down with a holy feast into your midst, Jerusalem of My coming in the end of the time. The Annunciation of My coming means the word by which I write Myself down on the earth, relying on you, My people. I bring good news about My coming from margins to margins, but it is difficult for the man to understand what God is and how God is, and it is hard for the Christian to understand sufficiently My spending on earth with the man and the man's spending with Me on the earth. Behold the time of this Scripture, and it is not understood on earth, and I, the Lord, speak and speak again the word of the Annunciation, so that no one may be able to say that I will show the truth of this world unexpectedly. Amen.

Before My first coming on earth to work in the middle of the people and to help them to God, I had been announced by My servants and by the prophets for over five thousand years. Now I have been giving the good news about Myself having called for more than fifty years, only that the man may hear Me and that he may open to Me and believe Me who I am, and to help My work of giving good news, that I announce Myself with the kingdom of the heavens on earth and I cleanse the earth from place to place with the Holy Spirit and with fire, but the Holy Spirit does not find any place, because the man does not want it, and the fire finds place instead, for the fire is loved by man both with his body and with his spirit. However, the Holy Spirit is the One Who judges everywhere, and there where He does not find any dwelling place, He leaves behind Him the judgment through the fire, which cleanses the iniquity on the earth, for it is written about Me by the mouth of John, the Baptizer: «The Lord will baptize with Holy Spirit and with fire»[32]. Amen.

I have given you good news, My people, for I am your God, and behold, I have woken up My watchmen and I have strengthened them in the gates to come in to you with a feast of annunciation and to comfort Myself by My speaking with you, for I get comforted only by the word. If I am called the Word, I cannot be comforted but only with what I am. Only with the word between Me and you, between you and Me, only in this way I get comforted. I have always given you this comfort so that you may get used to it and to learn how to work it between you and Me, between brother and brother, for I told My disciples that I would not leave them orphans, and that I would give them the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, instead, to be with them forever and ever. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should not live without comfort. I comfort Myself only by the word. When I come into your midst and I speak upon you, I get comforted, and I want that the spirit of comfort may increase and I want that you may learn well and may love the spirit of comfort much, for without it the man is only man and he is not a child born of God. By My entire word with which I come and I comfort you, I teach you to be like Me and not like man, for the man is used to be as on earth and not as in heaven. I have always asked you, My people, to remember that you have to make the paradise on the earth, and you should do this work day and night with a comforting spirit, and you should keep it to be, for the man has been waiting for seven thousand years for this wonder to be again on the earth.

[32] See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic fire", r.n.

Oh, it is not good for the man to fall from heaven. It is not good for the man to get out of paradise, for Adam fell and then he lived as on earth and not as in heaven. However, this work has been done only with a tool, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, My people. The paradise of My rest with the man and the paradise of the man's rest with Me have not been made alone. In the beginning I made everything for the man to feed his happiness, but it will not be this way now. I am working with the man now and I cannot do anything without the man, and the man has to be the temple of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and this is what he should work. Amen.

«The kingdom of God does not come visibly», this is what I said. There is no man on the earth who would not come if he saw with his own eyes the kingdom of God on earth, making haste to get a place in it without him knowing, poor of him, for whom it is, for it belongs to those who work it so that it may be afterwards. Behold, that is why I said that the kingdom[33] of God is in you, children of the birth from above.

Oh, sons, let My kingdom be in you, and work everything like God, for My trumpet has taught you to work with a guide, looking at those who are more heavenly among you and following their heavenly faith on which I feed Myself among you. I want you all to feed Me with the food which I eat, and I want you to give the good news about Me over the earth with the kingdom of My word among you. My word is a king upon you when you fulfill it completely, sons, and then you are the sons of His kingdom among you. I came two thousand years ago to cast fire on the earth, and behold, this is what have done in the end, and I want you to stay in the bath of this love of the Holy Spirit and the heaven and the earth to be warmed up from My flame among you. We still have a little bit of time to labor now at this hard work of the book of My word of fifty years on the earth, and we will put aside this fire which has been burning from God in the midst of My new Israel, in the end of the time, into the midst of the Romanian people, out of which, I, the Lord, have grown a people of disciples.

Oh, sons, the obedience of My mother, the Virgin, was sweet and heavenly, when the Father sent to her the archangel Gabriel to let her know about My birth of her. My mother had lived on the earth only within the fire of love, and it is the same in those that are not seen, for My saints' kingdom and Mine is not visible, but it is among those of the same work with it.

Oh, My mother, give a little bit of sweet power to those who labor at the being of the book of My work of fifty years and give to My people the good news, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– At Your voice, Lord Son, I sit down and fulfill. Be it done to me according to Your word. Amen.

People of the birth from above, now and forever, sustain the work of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, with which my Son has been breathing over the earth for fifty years. Take care of those who are worn out from the word of the Holy Spirit into your midst, and give a helping hand with everything you can do more beautifully and sweetly to lift up this burden and to fulfill it on the earth. All the saints who are set to the work for this good news of the Son of God, Who has been coming on the earth as word above the Romanian people, and this people has to be woken up from its slumber, so that it may hear the voice of the good news then, the voice of the Lord for the new birth of the world. Stay awake within your spirit and love, people of the sacrifice pleased to the Lord, and do not forget that you should not love yourself, but only God, Who is your life, as well as He is the life of His saints. Let sweet words be brought forth in you from one another, and may the work of peace exceed everything you work. Let the humility of the heart make room in you to the Spirit of the Lord, for the Spirit of the Lord does not wound, does not seek after His things, sons, but He seeks after those of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for this is how the Lord has always been among those that are loved by Him.

[33] See the selection topic: „About the kingdom of God", r.n.

It hurts me when I see wounds among you from the words that are not well weighed down. Let only the word of the comfort be with you, for your greatness is from the Lord, but be gentle and humble in your heart like my Son, for He this is how He taught you and this is how He teaches you. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, teaching mother by the love within you! I have been teaching My sons in the same way. I have always been looking at them and among them and I want them to get used to Me among them in all their works, mother.

Oh, children of the new worked vine. Take care of God, and God will take care of you as well. Get used to the Spirit of the Lord in your thought and deed. Lift up to heaven with every passing day, more and more, this kind of life and love. If you hurt each other, I cry, sons, I cry among you, and I cry within the one that is hurt. I also want you to rejoice. Give Me to each other and make Me glad. Amen.

I speak out a blessing with power in it, with the power of Holy Spirit for new powers over those who take care of the being of the book[34] of My word over fifty years so that I may reveal My glory over the earth and over the man's heart. I have been working over five thousand years through those who have served Me on the earth to let the man know that I will come, and I have come and given life to the man. This is what I have also been doing now, for the word of life becomes book and it is shared far and wide, spreading the news about Me that I have given the good news about My kingdom over the man.

I want you to have much and heavenly love at work into your midst, people of the graces of the Holy Spirit, and to give food from it to those under burden, for the burden of My coming is very heavy and I ask you to believe this and to comfort Me under your burden, sons.

Behold, I stay into your midst with a feast of the annunciation, My people. All the birds of the heaven sing to God and pray for the entire creature and they settle down on earth to bless the man with the blessing of the heavenly mysteries in which they live and stay. You should also sing, Jerusalem, for all the birds sing. Sing, son, and you will be like the birds of the sky. Gather your food as they gather theirs on the earth and in the sky, and from heart to heart to be able to give glory to the Lord, from branch to branch, from sprig to sprig, to be obedient in life and to grow out of it and like it, My people. My kingdom in your midst is not seen well now, but it will be seen well, and many birds will sing in it, and many flocks will be watered from its springs, only that you may be able to work and live on earth as in heaven, people of the coming of the Lord in the end of the time.

Peace to you, Jerusalem, and much peace and power from heaven into your midst for the being of My word, which will be put in the lamp stand, soon, soon, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-03/07-04-2006

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

[34] See the selection topic: „About the Book of the Lamb - The Book of Life", r.n.

I, the Lord, your God, become comfort over you, Jerusalem. I have no other comfort than to comfort you and My way with you, for the one who comforts is comforted by comforting. This is the work and the fruit of the comfort, My people, but I, the Lord, cry in heaven and on the earth because the man who has received the heavenly mysteries and made dust upon him out of them and a hard cross for Me, and I cry under it for the man.

I come to you and I lay Myself down on your table as food of word to feed your soul, son, and to teach you that the soul needs much food that it may mean God glorified in man. I come with the saints, My people, for they long for My table with you very much. I make them sit down and work; I give them from My table with you and I set them to work near you, and behold the work of the comfort. Amen.

Oh, the work of the heavenly comfort is much and sweet, and blessed is the one who gets used to this great gift of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. All the saints have comforted Me on earth and they have cried rejoicing within their fellowship with Me, because nothing, nothing is true on the earth besides God, My people. Happy and holy are those who know how to have God as their life, for they are those who comfort Me with everything I have in them by their longing after Me. The longing after God comes out of much longing, and the comfort is the fruit of their work. I have given you word about the song of the birds, My people. They get up early in the morning in their singing and they comfort each other for My glory on them, for their soul does not know anyone else but only God as their Master and the man, the work of My hand and then of My Spirit working in the man born from above.

The heaven is My reign, and the earth is My footstool[35]. As it is the staying of the birds of the sky, so it is Mine between heaven and earth, and they speak very much to Me with their heavenly and angelic voices, for the angels work much through their image, by My clean things between earth and heaven. Amen.

Oh, My people, I sit at the table with you and with My saints. The saint Mary, the Egyptian is comforted into the midst of the host of the devout from heaven, because today is her day of feast and memorial among the saints. Since I have been coming down to you with the saints, their comfort has been great and their reward has been hurried to come perfectly, as the new heaven and the new earth mean the reward of the saints who have been waiting for seven thousand years for the revealing of the sons of God on earth, those who bring Me down on earth as word of the new beginning of the world, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh Lord of Your people in heaven and on earth! After I had given myself over to You with my entire life, I had my comfort and my host on the earth from the birds of the sky. They were my comfort and my host in the place far away from the world of the people. I was speaking very much with them and they were speaking very much with me, for they have voices, Lord, and those who have been sanctifying for You, know the languages of the birds and their mystery and their work between earth and heaven. No one can manage without comfort, and this mystery is so little, so little perceived by the spirit of the man, for the man sees with his eyes everything that separates him from You, and his eyes do no longer have sight and thus the man does no longer see God, and he does not see Him even with the eyes of the spirit, Lord of those who are saints, who became and become a temple for You, a new heaven and a new earth, oh, Lord.

As long as I was a man on the earth, I had grown within me, but in fact I was not growing, but rather I was always falling down by the spirit of the self-greatness, which keeps the man on to the earth. However, after I had come out from among the people and from the midst of the vanity of the people, I grew less, and You grew more by My growing less, but actually I was not growing less but rather I was growing more through You by the spirit of humility, which makes the man into Your dwelling on the earth. This kind of food I bring on the table of Your little and tiny people and which You have got as the little one through whom You share Yourself with Your kingdom over those who are holy in heaven and on the earth that wait for You, Lord.

[35] See the selection topic: „The heaven – the throne, the earth – the footstool: the man deified", r.n.

Oh, people of the coming of the Lord with the saints! His saints want you to strengthen between heaven and earth the voice of the Holy Spirit and the comforting word, for those who comfort get comforted by comforting. My spending on the earth, after I was born again out of the fear of God, which gave wisdom to the spirit of my mind, this spending of mine was then surrounded by the birds of the heaven, which were gathering my tear in a great measure and in this way they were wiping it out. May the Lord, my God and yours comfort you, people from the end, and do not forget that all the saints wait for your work and all the nature kisses your footsteps in order to receive from your spirit, and may your spirit be the Spirit of God, the Word of God, Who gives birth to the world again. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, when I hear the word of the saints at My table with you, I wait from you the comfort for them, My people, for they had sanctified the earth as long as they had lived on it, and the earth had been their mother. Oh, I would like you to get used to believing powerfully, with every passing day more and more powerfully, that the Lord, your God, can and work everything that it is written into the Scriptures for the new heaven and for the new earth, and which He has to bring them with you into view. Learn much the word of the heavenly joy and eat much of it, because your heart, your mind and your mouth are made for the Lord, just as the birds of the sky work for the Lord and for the joy of the saints and of the man. The mystery of joy is God's glory between heaven and earth. Give glory to the Lord and comfort Him, My people. Be more and more arduous within your spirit with every passing day, so that I may lay down perfectly over you with all the graces of My coming, which will give you all those that are eternal, but you should love the wisdom and its measure in all your things with Me, in all My things with you, and you should not forget the life of My word in your spirit, body and soul, My people. Amen.

I declare again and again, with power, the blessings of the heaven and of the earth for the building of the book of My word. Oh, sons, in order to be My help for this great fulfillment, it would be for you to forget about yourselves totally. Work completely within the harmony of the word and deed. Be all embracing and wholly giving for the Lord and to one another, like the saints, sons. Receive My love and its peace into your hearts. Give to the Lord songs of glory and sweet love, and look much into My word in order to remain within its work upon you, and help one another to be My kingdom, sons, and all the time you should be My comfort, for the one who comforts gets comforted by his comforting. Amen, amen, amen.

27-03/09-04-2006

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

It is the feast of the flowers and branches, My people Jerusalem. Become flowers and branches for Me, sons, because I have been watering you all the time to be My kingdom. Look into My Gospel, which speaks about the work of the kingdom of the heavens and seek well after the measure of your spirit, body and soul; look well and learn the life of My kingdom with you and become flowers with a sweet fragrance for Me, so that I may always be able to come in a sweet time to you, and you shall bless Me as the One Who always enters into Jerusalem on His white horse[36], and glorify Me as your King, sons.

When I entered Jerusalem, with My gentle body riding on the colt of a donkey, those who were gathered together at the feast of the Palm Sunday blessed Me, as it was written to be fulfilled, but it was also those who sent Me then to sufferance and cursed Me to death on the cross, and by My death, I blessed them raising their guilt on My shoulders, the pain which they inflicted on Me.

Oh, My people, there is a great difference between a man and a son of God, who is gentle and humble in his heart like his God. Each man shows what he is like, and his face proves what his heart is, as his work proves out his love or not his love.

Oh, My people, there is a great difference between a flower and a thorn. If those, who sang to Me Hosanna on the day of Palm Sunday, had been sweet smelling flowers, they would have not become thorns only after a couple of days to knit Me a crown of thorns. The thorns pierced My forehead and blood was shed out of My body; My blood also flew on the way to the cross and it also flew on the cross. Those who loved Me suffering deeply within themselves were not able to bring Me any comfort, when they were looking at My thorns on My forehead, and then at My body crucified by nails on the cross. However, I had mercy on those who had made My soul and My body bled, on those who inflicted sufferance on My gentle and humble Spirit. I had mercy on those who were guilty, on those who were hardened in their souls and in their deed, and for those who were suffering because My bleeding sufferings, I was grieving with the grief, which was after God, the grief that brings forth the grace of sufferance.

The sufferance of the day of feast of My entrance into Jerusalem as a blessed God was great, as it was written into the Scriptures to be that day. That day was the greatness of the sufferance before My cross made by man, for the branches and the praises had to become then thorns and curses through the same hands and mouths, which were carrying and blessing Me on the day of the Palm Sunday. Behold, this is how the man is, My people. He does not know within his spirit what a flower is and what a thorn is, what praise is and what punishment is, and the Lord God is gentle and humble in His heart before the man, who cannot be like God. The feast is sufferance and the sufferance is feast, but the man does not know what flower is and what thorn is, and I have humbled Myself in all those who cry for My sufferance, for sufferance is flower and its tear is its food, and the flower cries, but the man does not cry, for the spirit of the man does not know what flower is and what thorn is. However, the spirit of God knows, and He becomes a flower with a sweet smelling aroma and He becomes its tear in those who are happy while crying, and crying like God for the man.

It is the feast of the Palm Sunday, My people, and behold, the feasts are pains, as it was for Me the feast of the Palm Sunday and of the praises brought to Me by those who gave Me then over to the cross. All the way to the cross, My forehead was bleeding, and drops from the body of My life were running down on the way of My love for the man who does not love Me with his spirit. Since I came from the Father down on the earth, and then all the time to this day on My second coming, I have been staying only in the way of the cross and on the cross, and I have been staying only like that, because the man does not want to have a glorified God. I have spoken to the people that has been fed for fifty years with the word of My calling after the man, and I have told him this: "The flowers will judge you, son, because they have got such a sweet smelling aroma!" However, the fed people has become haughty, for he who becomes haughty is only flesh, and he works only this way, and this means that he has become haughty and has not loved Me, but he has rather loved only himself all the time, making things all the time only for himself and to each other and not to Me.

[36] See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic white horse", r.n.

Oh, I have struggled hard to have disciples, My people. Oh, it is hard on the earth, and I have always told you this, and I have struggled within Myself, because the man has to work something else on the earth, and I have struggled hard to have disciples with heavenly work within them, with light from the Light in them, to give light with them to the world when I come, and I have kept coming on the earth with My coming.

Again and again I advise you to be gentle and humble in your heart, My people, and moment by moment I would like to tell you this, and you should fulfill this way, so that I may be able to do My heavenly work into your midst. The Lord has suffered, My people, and He has tried hard to raise between earth and heaven the book of His word of fifty years into the midst of the Romanian people. It will be the sign, which will cause much opposition among people and many will seek after the light and they will know it, and again, many will remain in their own darkness, in their works without God on the earth.

The Lord has suffered, Jerusalem. Work for His comfort, My people. Let your hearts be as sweet as flowers, because it is the feast of the Palm Sunday, sons. Clothe yourselves with the power of love. Do not make each other suffer, but rather give Me to one another, and then I will take care of you. Amen.

Oh, My people, those with a pure heart are blessed and will be blessed, and these are those who see God and become like Him, and this is what this Scripture means. Oh, how beautifully they loved Me, those who had cried for Me on the way of My sufferance, when the thorns were bleeding My forehead and when the spear of the soldier took away My power of life, so that I might get ready for My resurrection, and then with it to go and to give it to those who had been waiting for Me for five thousand years, for I had come down on the earth to bring the resurrection of the dead[37]. Amen. Behold, now it will be as at that time, and those in the graves will testify about you, Jerusalem from today, as the saints, clothed in their bodies, confessed Me two thousand years ago, to leave on earth the proof of My divinity, (See Mat: 27/52, 53.[38]) that is God crucified by the man, and resurrected from crucifixion for the resurrection of those who are asleep. Amen.

Now, I leave My peace into your midst, My people, and I want to find it within you and to find you working within it, Jerusalem of My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

03/16-04-2006

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, let there be on earth as in heaven, for the man's life comes in man from Me, and the man is indebted to the heaven for his life in him, for the life of his body, which is from the earth.

I strengthen Myself as a true God that I am, and I work with power, for My word is God's power, and happy are the weak, those that are feeble, those who are knocked down by powers, for when they are this way, I will be the One Who can work at that time. When the man is strong

[37] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.

[38] «The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised and came out of the tombs after His resurrection. (They entered into the holy city and appeared to many). (Mat: 27/52, 53.)

within himself, I cannot work through him those things that are Mine, but when he is weak, I am that power in him and that which is over him, by his gentleness and humility through which he comes before Me in order that I may work upon him. Amen.

I embrace you, My people, with a day of the feast of resurrection. The memory of My resurrection, if the man remembered this day and all that had accompanied it for My confirmation as the Son of My Father Sabaoth, incarnated on the earth, then the man would speak about this day and wonder from the bottom of his being and he would become God by grace, for great is the grace which has been shown in that day on the earth and over the man. Oh, the man needs fondness, but most of it, he needs wisdom from heaven, mind from above, for whoever is not born from above, that one is like those on the earth, and his mind keeps him only and only on to the earth.

It is a feast of resurrection in heaven and on earth, but in order that this may be on earth as in heaven, the man should be with God on earth in all those of this heavenly feast, and he had to be alive like the living God, and he has to be resurrected from among all the dead, just as I am, and to be a godly angel between earth and heaven, as I am. Amen.

Oh, people of My word! My word has made you into My people. It has in it the spirit of the birth from above over the man. It has the spirit of the resurrection in it, and by it everything has become new and all those that are old pass away when the spirit of My word is working. However, when the man stands before the breath of My mouth, when he stands without his making of this word that is making of man, then the man remains in his old things from his parents and he does not allow to be born from above, since he, hearing does not hear, and believing does not become a man born from above by the fruits of this word.

Oh, Jerusalem, how shall I be able to work on the earth as in heaven? Oh, the Romanian country is under the cleansing fire, about which I spoke that it will come down on it for the washing of the land of My coming with the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. I have brought about the baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire on the earth, but My country minds only its own things that do not mean God, and I, the Lord, I have put it to whitening and cleansing, for I have got into its midst My word of fifty years, and it sleeps when I spend the wedding within it with a feast of resurrection, a table of Holy Spirit on its hearth. I have let it known by the word of fire that it may wake up My chosen one from it in order that he may pray for it so that I may reconcile it to Me and to bring it first to repentance and then to resurrection. I have got into its midst My chosen one, Irineu, (The bishop John Irineu of Bistriţa, r.n.), the one by whom I have established on its land a church working of Holy Spirit upon it. I have let it know long ago to wake up the one whom I have established as its intercessor, so that I may give her the little garment of righteousness by its repentance for its alienation from God, and I will not be merciful on it until it establishes this son before Me, whom I have ordered to reconcile it to God, that is, My Romanian Country. Its king has come, My anointed one over it, and He has asked Me why there is so much sufferance, so much pain upon My country and his country? I have answered him that it is the country of My second coming on the earth and that I wash it away from all its dirt in order to prepare it to be a land of resurrection and of My glory over the nations. I have answered its king that I have struck it because it has left My calling behind and that it have kept in the stocks the one whom I chose over it to pray for it, for its birth from above, for its repentance and for its clothing within the garment of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oh, My country, as long as you do not stand up to get up for Me the one who is in the stocks, the one who is set by Me to pray for you, as long as he is kept shut, not being able to breathe with his mouth your reconciliation with Me upon you, as long as those who pretend to be My church (Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.) have kept him in the darkness, while it has wandered away on its own before Me and not after My life full of grace, as long as My chosen vessel will stay without My work given upon him for you, My country in the end of the time, that long you will suffer and this is the answer which I will give to your king who has been crying to Me for your forgiveness, for a comforting spirit upon you, My Romanian country, My country and his. Behold, those who are great and are called My church[39] and yours in you, wander away on their own, but My church is the man full of the Holy Spirit, full of the word of the Holy Spirit upon nations. The rulers of the church in you seek after their ranks and because of their wandering away and their haughtiness, My wrath comes upon you, as it is written into the Scriptures. (

Oh, get up to your resurrection, My country, My dear Romania! Get up and wake up the one who sleeps having been shut in the stocks! He has got a gag in his mouth so that he may not speak and that his voice may not be heard over the hills in order that these may come into flower and turn green under the rain of My word, which makes them all again, for this new making of the world is written into the Scriptures. I could give you birth from above by the spirit of comfort, My country, but you do not know the whisper of My comfort which prepares for you your new birth to be My new born one among the nations, oh, country of brightness! The prophets that prophesied that you would be Mine will get up to receive their inheritance in you. Daniel, the prophet, will also get up, the one through whom, I, the Lord, prophesied about you that you will be on earth and that many will crush you so that you may be born again and to take after Me; this prophet will stand up to receive in you the joy, which he has believed and waited for.

Oh, I am with the mystery of the feast of the resurrection upon you, My country from the end of the time. The Lord is King by the word in you. Your kingdom on the earth is not from this world, but it is from above instead, from heaven, and it is written about you to be a queen over the nations by My word into your midst. My word in you is the river of life. It springs up life from heaven over the earth, and it is king, for it is the word of the Holy Spirit, and it has the feast of its Pentecost in you. I have been crying with a river of the Holy Spirit upon you for fifty years, country of My coming, and the man on the earth, who has heard of your election, tries to praise himself over you. However, I come down on a day of resurrection feast, My and your, epistle of the Holy Spirit and I call you to drink of the river of life. Its riverbed is from heaven and down to earth, from those that are invisible and those that are visible, from the invisible world and to the visible one. Its spring is My mouth and the little garden over which I, the Lord, the Word, speak from your midst. Wake up at My voice and make peace with Me and wake up the one who will speak out before Me the act of your repentance and birth from My word, which flows into your midst, for you are the fallow land with a treasure in it, and I am deprived of man into your midst.

I speak over the one that is established to lead you, Romanian country, and I tell him this: do not forget, you, who are the helmsman of My ship, of My queen Romanian country, do not forget that I have overcome through the earnest prayers, by the lifting up of the hands to Me of those that have been God's sons into the Romanian nations, the sons of My word of fifty years over the Romanian land, for I told them on the day when I overcame for you, to ask from Me to set you as the helmsman of My ship on which it is written: Romanian country, and then I overcame, and as for you, be now My helmsman according to My plan. Bow and receive from My mouth. I have come with an epistle of the Holy Spirit over the Romanian country. It is now under the whip of My wrath to cleanse it from the sin of lawlessness that is on it and to have it as a cleansed bride for the feast of the resurrection and of My coming with a table of new age on its hearth. The cross that is pressed on My shoulders by the rulers of the church by the sin on the earth makes Me suffer a great deal. The earth groans with a painful groaning because of the sins on it. I want to reconcile the earth with the heaven, and the man to the Father Sabaoth, to draw all to the Father, as I promised two thousand years ago that I would do. I have been waiting for the one that I promised for the Romanian land and then for the salvation of the nations. I have been waiting for the one that I chose, My chosen Irineu, a son of the Romanian people, a son dear to Me and to My saints, and I wait for him to get up from his sleep and to declare the coming of My mercy upon the Romanian country, for it is beaten because of those who sit over it on My behalf, as they say. The rulers of the church do not do My will, but they do their own will instead and they are only after seats and ranks, but I have not sent them to do this, but, by their own consent, they have set themselves into My place, with their work. However, the one chosen by Me, I have chosen from among them and sent him to them, but they did receive him and they put him into chains instead and put a gag into his mouth so that it may not be heard his sweet voice which has called the man to Me and to My glory into the midst of the Romanian people. I have spread the news over the Romanian country, that I, the Lord, wait for its repentance, for its faith, for its holiness and for its walking into My ways, to be able to come with its salvation and with a new age upon it, for the people in it do not have any power to give its salvation, because I do not fulfill the man's plans, but rather I fulfill Mine. Amen. And to the one who took the place of My elected Irineu, I tell him and I ask him in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit to take out from the bonds the one chosen by Me and to establish him as the intercessor and the praying man for the Romanian country, and I will hear him and I will release mercy and glory over this land and over the people on it. Woe to those who frustrate My plans which are made out from eternity, because it was from the foundation of the world that I made out the glory of the Romanian country in the end of the time, a country which has set My table at My coming from the Father now, so that I may be able to make the world again and to sit on the seat of judgment and making, and to declare My word over the earth.

[39] See the selection topic: „The true church", r.n.

Behold the history of My word of fifty years on the hearth of the Romanian land! And then many nations will hear and will come to worship and they will drink of My glory and they will receive resurrection and a spirit of testimony at that time.

Behold the book of My word by which I keep its feast of Pentecost on the Romanian land! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of the mother Virgin, had fulfilled fifty years of word on the hearth of the Romanian people (1955-2005, r.n.). The nations will hear and will come near, but the Romanian country is in My hand. No one without God will endure over it. I have come down with an epistle of the Holy Spirit upon it, and to you, the one who are set as a helmsman upon it, I tell you to be careful at the word of My mouth, for the sea is troubled, and you need to have power from Me and to be an unsleeping helmsman at the helm of My ship, because I will save the world from its sins by it, and then I will establish a new age on the earth; I will establish a New Jerusalem[40], as it is written into the Scriptures. Do not be unfaithful but faithful, for I wait for the voice of the one who will lift up prayers to Me from before the Romanian people, and I will listen to his prayer for the comfort and for the resurrection and for the salvation of this nation. Amen.

Now, I leave you under a spirit of resurrection, My country. I have spoken upon you on a day of feast of the memorial of My resurrection, for I have got into My hand My heavenly plan that I am going to fulfill it, and it is written in it your glory from Me and the feast of your resurrection and your new being in the end of the time. You will be in My image and after My likeness by those who will be God's people on your land, for their fate is in My hand, and I am the Word of God and I give the good news about Me over you with My new name, written into the Scriptures two thousand years ago, and it is written this way into the Scriptures: «And His name is called the Word of God». (Apoc. 19/13, r.n.). Amen, amen, amen.

[40] See the selection topic: „Romania – The New Jerusalem – The New Canaan", r.n.)

10/23-04-2006

The Word of God at the feast of the Spring of healing

(Excerpt)

My word is a healing spring like the word of My saints with whom I am glorifying Myself within My coming. To all those on earth who ask about the speaking of My saints and about the speaking of those for whom prayer is brought on earth, I, the Lord, am telling to these that My Scriptures of two thousand years ago are being fulfilled, the Scriptures, by which I said that those in the tombs hear the voice of God's Son and their word comes to life again and confesses; and I am also telling them that it is written into the Scriptures that «The Lord is coming with tens of thousands of His holy ones». (Jude: 1/14) Amen.

15/28-04-2006.

The third Sunday after the Passover, of the prudes (the myrrh-bearing women)

In a heavenly threshold of feast, I come down into the blessed courtyards of My word, I come closer with the synod of the prudes working of God and with many saints, and I give you, those who are gathered together for the feast, the news of My resurrection over the male and female disciples of My word of that time: Christ is risen!

When there are hearts that are gathered together into My name and of My word, I come down and I become food of word with My saints, and My saints are those who have worked God's word on the earth, as I did, serving it and sharing it to My glory over time and to the salvation of many who stand up for My testimony over those who are without God.

I make you glad, working and ministering prudes. I meet you into My courtyards and we serve you a day of feast, the Lord with the people serving to the word of His coming in the end of the time, as it was written that I would come to seal the ages by the word and to establish Myself as the Creator of the new heaven and of the new earth, which will last, and this mystery is appalling for those in heaven who do not see like God, for it is written about those who are holy: «Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God». (Matt: 5/8) Amen.

We sit down at the table of word, oh, working prudes, for you served My word and you worked for the confirmation of My resurrection, gathering together heart by heart around this mystery, forgetting about you and about those who were yours and ministering to My appearing from the Father over the earth, that is Christ resurrected from the dead after I was born from the Virgin to be your Teacher and then to give Myself as a sacrifice for the unfaithful ones, so that God may really have the man. Amen

You have got together with the saints of the heaven near the people that minister My word in the end of the time, as you had also ministered then. Rejoice! Oh, but your joy cannot be anything else than that which I also have with those whom I have got as My people today. Rejoice with those who rejoice and mourn with those who mourn for Me and for My pains and for My glory, a glory as that of a merciful and patient God. Rejoice near the people of My coming in the end of the time, but My work is not loved on the earth today as you loved it two thousand years ago. The man does not know to come towards it so that I may have many workers, because the love of God has gone out on the earth, as I spoke about this sign that it would come before the day of My glory, when all those will be renewed at the word of the new making of everything. I can no longer wait for the man, for the man does not come, and he who comes, comes that it may be well with him, and not with Me, and he comes not coming, and I work hard for My coming through which I have to make out all that will remain. Your joy is sweet, when I sit with you in the word at My table on the earth. It is your day of feast, oh, ministering brides of God's love. Your ministry was beautiful and clean and your love for Me was everything you had from all that you left them off within your heart in order to serve Me and My sufferance for which I came and I became a Man to suffer in the body for all the sinners that do not seek after God, the Maker, but only after themselves, by those who are temporary, which have enchanted the man keeping him in bondage throughout time. However, you rose over of your bodies and tasted of My pain, which has become word over the earth, and then you remained for the truth between heaven and earth, while all others are emptiness and wind. I have become one spirit and then one work with you at your table of feast, and today it is My trumpet, Verginica, who has come with those who have waited in the dwelling of the dead for the light of the glory of My day and for the resurrection of everything that wait for My glory and for My salvation. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, suffering Lord, we served You for Your pain and we were good, and we served you with our clean hearts, for You had suffered before. You came from the Father being aggrieved, when You were born of the Virgin for the man, and You had spent Your time on the earth in sufferings, in sufferings You showed Your work over those who received You, and in sufferings You gave Yourself as a sacrifice for those who had no love in them on the earth, and in sufferings You also came to life and appeared to us to make us rejoice over Your pain in us, after You had put within us the mercy for You, Lord. The faith and the sufferance for Your pains were left to us as a memorial, and Your saints established us as a day of memorial among those who love Your things among people, making room for them so that Your name and the name of Your saints may be on earth.

We have been waiting for the miracle of Your word on the earth for two thousand years, and we praise Your new name among those in heaven. You have come on the earth after two thousand years with a new name, and You are called the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13.) and You have been writing Yourself within it over time, and now You have become a book, Lord, and now the seals are broken and it is shared Your word and Your name of fifty years on the Romanian land, where You have laid Your table for Your coming with the saints, Lord. The angels serve our coming with You, and the angels who lost their glory cry and wait for the man to come back to You in order that they may also return to their glorified places. Oh, give to Your people the power of the Holy Spirit and of holy prayer of the new birth of the world, Lord. All and everything have waited in heaven and on earth, and they have waited for Your last servants, so that they may lift up Your power to work and to set a life-giving spirit over the man, for the man does not know about God and he does not know to wait, and You have to establish on the earth the eternity of those who loved You and love You, Lord and Master of the life without the end for the saints. Make Your people of today victorious over its weaknesses on the earth and in which all the people live and cannot come after You as we came, and then as we walked. Clothe all those that are little within thrills of prayer for the new birth of the world, for all and everything wait for them. We have wanted nothing else on the earth but only to serve You, and not us. We have given a clean word to those who are called Yours, and whom You protect with heavenly powers, and You protect even more those that work over the darkness of the man, for the hell is on the earth and in man, and the guard of Your work of nowadays is a great work on the earth and in heaven, because the man hardly denies himself, and those who are Your working people are at the work for the protection of Your work and for the fulfillment of Your word over them and over those who do not know how to receive it and how to settle down within it.

Make those who see Your glory and Your people, make them deny themselves, for the self-love keeps the man blind in his soul, and You and Your saints work mysteriously on the earth for the power of Your work carried by Your anointed one and established as word on the earth. We are sitting at this table, Your saints, and as at that time, we help You in Your labor, in Your pain from the midst of Your people, over which You sit down as body and word to protect it and to have it as Yours.

Come Lord, come more and more with Your saints and with a strong word, for all and everything wait for the new creation, and You are with the fan into Your hand and You cleanse Your threshold floor as it is written, and You make room with those that are new, and You have to fulfill over the earth and over the man the baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire for the renewing of all, Lord of Your powers and of Your saints who have always endured Your pain, and which by comforting Your sighing got comforted and were comforting those who were clothed like You and in Your name, working and sowing Your kingdom on the earth.

We have established ourselves as working the word upon the fed people, and we work like You, for You are our Teacher and we become word in order to take after You and not after the man. We also give to those who stand as Your people before You, we give them the spirit of mercy of God and the work of the word, Lord, for their calling was to work that way. We have also got the mercy on You in heaven, for You want mercy and not sacrifice, but the man hardly comes to get used to those that You want, for the man is used to give You his things, not Yours, Lord. However, we have learned from You, that he who learns knows, and this is how he works. We have learned the work of God's mercy, and this is what we want to strengthen over the people of Your word. The love in us was born out of our mercy on You, and we have stayed with it under Your teaching so that You may make it to be heavenly, and then we confessed and confess You and tell everyone who hear You and do not know You in them: blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, brides of the sufferance of God's Son! I am His trumpet, and I have got word with you, with the saints and with those who wait for the end of the Lord's work. I have brought those asleep at the table with you to receive from the table of God's mercy. We give them from the table, we comfort them and strengthen their patience and we work for the Lord's victory. We have got at the feast, around your day, Gheorghe, (George) the martyr and the victor among the saints. He keeps watching for the people of today and cutting the enemy power, which by its nature lurks God's coming down on the earth as word, and he overcomes from those who are victorious, and he has given power of victory for the opening of the Lamb's book, the book of the Lord, His word of fifty years into the midst of the Romanian people. The Lord has hardly been doing this heavenly work, because the disciples of His word are little and few, but the Lord and the victorious saints were the victory to those who have worked, and behold, the book is shared, the word of God is shared.

I am Your trumpet, Lord, and I have refreshed Your saints. And now, You are the word of the comfort from heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Verginica, I take the feast that you were bringing on the earth for the glory of the mercy of the prudes of My sufferance and resurrection. Your followers bring this day before Me as you taught them for it, in order that those who are asleep, concerning the hope of My coming, may come to this table. And now, I, the Lord, bless and sanctify this day and its word from heaven over the earth. Amen.

And to you, to those who have come together, I give you of My glory, I give you My word on the table, and you should learn to come out of yourselves when I want to lay down with My face within you. Blessed is the one who knows to be God's child. I look at My Father for I am His child, and I take after Him, when I look at Him, and I work like Him when I take from Him.

Oh, children who give Me from heaven to the people of today! Watch and again watch for you and for the new people, and watch for Me to be able to be light on the earth and in man. Be holy and give the Holy Spirit and keep My church, and let it have the Holy Spirit. Amen. Moreover, you should work together, anointed sons, you should overcome all the sufferings, and let the sufferings strengthen you for your resemblance with Me, and we will be overcomers by My word, which has been coming down over the earth to reign. Through your weak powers, give powers of Holy Spirit over to those who come from time to time to the spring. You need to work for the Lord, sons, for it is for this that I gave you birth from the mystery of My word, and I have set you to serve to My coming back from the Father in man. Be the word of the Holy Spirit and do not be the man's word! Be like Me, sons, be one spirit with Me and give glory and fulfillment to My work and then all the other things will be added to you for the ministering from above upon you. Be the dough of the holiness and of the Holy Spirit, and let the spirit of My humility be the sweetest teaching to you, the greatest work, and then we will work from one another, because I cannot work without you and you cannot work without Me either.

May this feast be blessed, and I leave the word of My male and female disciples upon it, which they were sharing from place to place after I overcame and after I was resurrected afterwards: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Amen.

Let no one on the earth say this word in vain, that is "Christ is risen!" but let him rather say it in the spirit of the truth that is in each one of them, and let Me have life in it. Amen, amen, amen.

24-04/07-05-2006

The Word of God on the fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman
(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, My works are great, and the people are very small because of them, for the self love and care has taken the man away from My protection, and I cannot pull the man out of his mind to put in him the Holy Spirit, Who takes from Me and gives to man the life of My life and the wisdom for it. The Samaritan woman knew the time of her visitation and was born in a moment when she knew God and then she gave Me birth in those in her city, and behold the power of faith, My people, and behold, faith does not belong to everyone, but it belongs to those who are gentle and humble in their heart, for the spirit of humility in man works incomparable miracles through the humble ones and strengthens the faith in people, through the people who have self-denial at the hearing of My word giving of life and faith for life. I am ready to bring eternal life on earth, but I find man caught by the worries of life and I do not find him ready to believe when I come to him and I knock to give him My coming, and My confessing saints wait with Me for a spirit of faith in people and then love of God in them and My life in them after that. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-05-2006.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

In a feast of My ascension into the Father, I am coming down to you as word and I coming down into the book, people of My coming on the earth. I wake you up with My word, because I have been working for fifty years by the word and by the fulfillment of the word to keep awake a people for Me, sober in faith and in My fulfillment within him, for I will soon appear glorified in man on the earth, and that is why I have always tried to keep you awake for My coming, My people.

When I ascended to the Father, the angels of My ascent and of My descent spoke to My disciples and to those who believed in My coming that I would come back again as I ascended. The man has to believe everything I told and everything I endured, and the faith has its view and it does not take the view of the flesh when it believes in man. I have put faith in man by everything I said and I have worked over the people, but My lack of comfort will not come to an end but only when the man will be able to comfort Me totally, giving himself over to be the dwelling place of My glory, to the fulfillment of My kingdom in him, for I said that My kingdom and its place is in man. Amen.

Oh, My people, the view of the faith was that, when those who were gathered together around Me saw Me being carried away by the cloud from before them. The faithful one does not look to know, to understand and to see many things, for the works of faith are no others than My kingdom in man and My view in him, not his. My lack of comfort is without margins now, in the end of the time, for the man having been fed by the miracle of My word for fifty years, has not come to know what faith and its fruit in him and of God in man are, as My disciples knew, those who needed nothing else on the earth than only My dwelling in them and My lack of comfort, carried by them because of the unbelief on the earth. I did not speak to them in vain when I said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?». (Luke: 18/8) I said that because of the lack of comfort in which I have been sighing for seven thousand years due to the man's unbelief, for the man wants to have comfort when I am nothing else than aggrieved, and the one who wants to be otherwise than I am, that one is not right with God, the Creator of the man, and he does not know what father and mother in sufferance are for those who are His.

It is a feast of ascension and descent of My glory from earth to heaven and from heaven down to earth, but the way between heaven and earth is the faith and its view, My people! Oh, let your heart become My kingdom more and more perfectly, today's son of My word, which is coming with the clouds of its glory. I am a mysterious God, and when I appeared two thousand years ago with My image taken from the man, I did this to the man's judgment, which wants to become My image and My kingdom over the earth. If I made the man in the beginning, I made him for this, I wanted to make My kingdom in him, but he has left Me without being comforted and he has turned himself into his god and he has no longer heard and seen from Me, and he has made everything from himself, and thus God has lost His kingdom in man, and for seven thousand years the parents have been losing their children just as I lost the man, and I have been crying not being comforted, and the man has been crying likewise, and he will not find his comfort and rest until I, the Lord, have rest in him first and until I am comforted by him, as I made the man to be. Amen.

Oh, sons of My word of today, it is a great, great miracle and it is a great work when God has the man, and it is a small work when the man has God. However, you, My people, should not rest on your oars thinking that you have Me as word upon you, but rather seek to give Me rest in you having you as the dwelling place of My kingdom, son who has become dearer. I want to make you dearer and dearer and then to appear with you in My glory, as My kingdom, and I want to do with you the work that will be forever, but in order to do this you have to know how you can see Me, how you can hear Me, how you can listen to Me, how you can bring Me near to you and upon you and in you. I have always wanted to get you used to this great miracle, with the fruit of My faith in you and with My living in you, for it is one thing for you to have Me and it is a great mystery that I may have you, today's of My word, which is coming with the clouds.

I have exhorted you to have faith, My people, and to have such faith as it has never been seen through the ages, and I want you very much to get used to the mysteries that are unfathomable by man, and I cannot come in another way to you but by the dwelling place of My kingdom in man, for I come down face to face with you, when I try to speak from Me upon you, and I have asked you for this to have faith as it has never been seen among the people and to be able to do these, for only in this way I am able to work over the earth and upon man. Behold, I will lift up between earth and heaven My book with you, fifty years of book from heaven on the earth! The man has learned ten or twenty years on the earth to know how to be great upon man, and I have been teaching you fifty years of book, and I now have asked you to comfort Me with the fruit of My teaching, My people. Take the book and open it to see My kingdom in man from it, because I told those through whom I want to exhort you from the garden, to give you to learn and then to look together with Me at you over the earth with the glory[41] that I have had from the Father before the foundation of the world, My people, but for this glory I have needed the man, not because I am a weak God, but because I made the man for My glory, and the man will no longer find his comfort and rest until I, the Lord, will find Mine in him first, to be right with one another; the man to be right with Me and I to be right with the man, as there is no other way between God and man, between man and God; there is not, no matter how much the man would try to find a way without God in it, as he has got used to it for seven thousand years, having not understood the work of faith and its view, which is not the view of the flesh but the view of the faith. Amen.

Oh, people of My coming as word on the earth, I give you, and again I give you the gift of faith and its divine power from Me. The Kingdom of God does not come visibly, for it is the man that God has and no the man who has God for his benefit and not for My benefit from the man. Oh, not the man is God, but I am God. As I ascended into heaven, so I come, and I come mysteriously, for the man is not right with Me and that is why I stay mysteriously before Him and I give him My word, which helps the man to believe and to open for My kingdom in him, the kingdom worked by Me and not by man. Amen.

I want the earth to be beautiful and holy, but without holy faith in man I cannot do this, for it is not the kingdom of the man, but My kingdom that I want to establish in man and then on the earth, and behold, that is why I have come with this word over the earth and over the man, but the man is weak in his faith and he minds his own good, when he reads in the Scriptures about My kingdom. The people of Israel had kept on asking Me about the restoration of its kingdom, and it had kept asking Me if its time had already come, but I did not give any answer to it. Oh, it is not the man's kingdom which has to be over the man and over the earth, but My kingdom, that which is expected by the fathers, by the saints and by all of the angels of My glory, and even by the angels who lost My glory by the haughtiness of the man that was worked by My hand out of dust and out of My Spirit.

[41] See the selection topic: „The glory of God", r.n.

Oh, My people, oh, son, who have been waited by all ages! You should know that the man's kingdom has been destroying itself from now on, and the kingdom[42] of God has been coming to take its place, either if the man wants it or not. Oh, My people, get used to have Me and My teaching upon you, for I know to give Myself over to you as the wisdom of My kingdom, only for you to know to wait for Me and to receive Me, for I give Myself over to you at your desire, and I come down in the way with everything you need to do, to believe and to have, and with everything I can do in order to be in you, and then from you all over you, for My kingdom is everything I want to give you, and then to have you as My glorified dwelling place before the people, because I have meant you to be dear and bright in such a way that the people may see you and come and receive of My glory and then to come towards it, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

19-05/01-06-2006

The feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

In a feast of Holy Spirit, I bless you with the blessing of the Lord your God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Romanian Jerusalem, and I establish you to Me and I strengthen you within the holiness of the spirit, of the soul and of the body, to be My will, people of My word, and you should fulfill Me with My kingdom within you and you should heal My waiting for seven thousand years after the man, for I have come down on the earth as the heavenly teaching of fifty years, and the one who lives by it, that one becomes My rest and peace, and he becomes My kingdom, My people. I have been teaching the man gently and sweetly during this time. In addition, as a merciful Teacher, I have established My word on the earth and I have made of it My second coming from near the Father to the people. I have been calling the man with affection and I have been staying within his way with a spirit of life giving, and now I have given to the man, My book of fifty years in the end of the time and I still wait for him to give Me love, to give Me mercy and to learn that I want mercy, and not sacrifice, for his sacrifice neither comforts Me nor him, but his comfort has been giving Me comfort instead, because for seven thousand years I have been aggrieved and full of longing after My live in man, waiting to come in him with My kingdom, with My peace and his, and to make, with the man's help, a new heaven and a new earth, as I have promised through the prophets, My people.

I comfort you with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, sons anointed in the garden. Feel His comfort and be strengthened in your hearts and give to My people and to the man who looks for Me with you, give the book of My word of fifty years, the little path through which I have been coming down to the earth in order to teach the man the way and the love for eternity, which sets the man within eternal life between earth and heaven, if he loves to be in My image and after My likeness. I, the Lord, comfort you for the labor of the work of the book and I take it and bless it with the spirit of life giving, to be a spring of power from heaven over the man and let the man be comforted with God, for there is no other comfort on the earth besides Me, and I want the man to understand the mystery of comfort from which the power of life and its peace comes.

Oh, how much I want to embrace the man within the mystery of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter! Oh, how much I want the man to seek after this water of word and to clothe himself inside and outside with the life of My word!

Oh, anointed sons, receive My book with you and lift it up and ask that it may become light on the earth. Pray to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, and then give this book to the people. Sit down sons, and bring prayer to your Lord, for the Lord is listening to you now, and He is fulfilling. Amen, amen, amen.

[42] See the selection topic: „The kingdom of one thousand years", r.n.

– Lord, we bring ourselves before You with praying hearts, so that You may make them into Your kingdom among people, for You, Master of heaven and earth, of those that are seen and of those that are not seen of Yours, we have made us Your people now, in the end of the time, so that You may become a book, if You have become word upon us teaching us by it the life with the heavenly life before You. You have worked with us, the little ones, great joy for the heavenly hosts and angels, hosts, which, for seven thousand years have been waiting for Your victory which the man crushed it when You made him in the beginning to have him as Your rest. You have settled down on the earth as word and You have prepared with him a table for the saints and You have come with them as You promised that You would come with Your saints for those who are the least. However, we have been small and we have not watched within us as long as You have been waiting for You and for Your saints, because the man's power is small, Lord, and You are such a great God in comparison with our weaknesses, but we have stood faithfully before You, for You have strengthened us to stand and to confess You that You are the word upon us. We bring prayer to You, once with the opening of Your book with us before the people and we ask from You that every man who will take Your light from You may take from it the wisdom of the eternal life and of the patience before it, patience with love and with faith in it, holy and sonship patience, our Lord, the Comforter. There is no comfort on the earth, and You told us that You wait on the earth for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter so that we may comfort You with Him, with Your Spirit in us, Lord. However, we are so weak since the time is hard and it presses hard on us, although we would like to be the vessels of Your power for the need of those who will come from Your salvation. We ask You for Your great forgiveness for all our weaknesses and we ask You to give us power against them to be able to carry You with Your will, fulfilled in us more and more, for You promised us that You would appear with us in great glory so that You may testify about Yourself that You were the One Who has become word and book upon us.

And now, give to the people the gift of the holy faith and the spirit of humility before Your word full of fire of Holy Spirit and of longing after the man, and make those who will find You through this book, make them strong against the temptations from the earth and against those things which come from the flesh, and give them the spirit of holy prayer by which they may be able to ask from You a new heaven, a new earth and a New Jerusalem in them and upon them, according to Your promise from the Scriptures, and give them that wisdom because it is not the people but You, with the Spirit of the Father in You, that will fulfill this by the faith and by the steadfastness of those who will love You with humility and repentance and with the spirit of prophecy upon them, for this book is Your Spirit, Lord of those who humble themselves before You for Your glory, for Yours is the glory, Lord. And to us, to those who are Your tired ones, give us forgiveness for all our weaknesses by which we have made You suffer, as we have been aggrieved because we have made You suffer, and You know how much we have caused You sufferance, and give us the power, which You need in us, for You can do everything when You want. Our words are insignificant when we speak to You to accomplish Your will through them, which You wait to happen on the earth, as You had fulfilled it thorough all the ages by the prayer of Your loved ones and up to us. However, please listen to us, for we ask You to fulfill Your kingdom in us and in the people according to Your great will, and have mercy on us with the spirit of Your comfort, and please spare us by protecting us under Your hand of the Master of those who have no other god besides You.

We lift the book of Your word of fifty years and we ask Your help to fulfill in us those that are in it, and we ask for mercy from You, for we are small in comparison with the greatness of those things that will be fulfilled by the power of Your word.

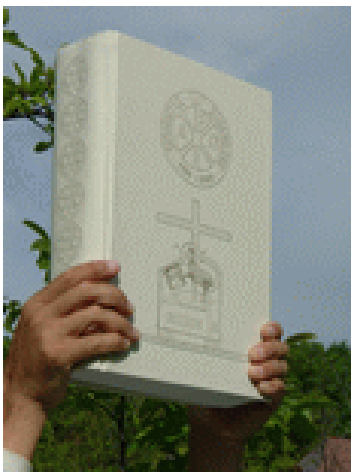
And now, bless Your book with us and share Yourself, Lord, and then protect Your inheritance and protect us for it, so that we may stand before You with joy, with the spirit of Your peace, with Your power in us, fulfilling Your will in us, for we want this for Your glory, but help us, as we are Your least ones, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, you are small and weak, but I, the Lord, can work for you. Do not be afraid because I can. Amen. Do not be afraid, small children, for My kingdom belongs to the small children. The great ones have their own kingdom and they cannot work for Me. However, I can work through the little ones, and I will give them to be able to work, for My will is everything I have been waiting for seven thousand years, small children. I would like to stay with you in the word and I would comfort you much, but you are tired and you are weak.

I strengthen the people of My word and I give to it of My Spirit and this is what I say: people, people, take My book with you and set it upon you and then rejoice over My fulfillment in you and be comforted with Me, in order that I may receive comfort from you and that You may give Me comfort with My kingdom in you, son. I will strengthen the sons of the garden in order that they may share with you the book of My word upon you, and then to make Me glad from you, to be power and comfort to each other and then to be Holy Spirit over the earth by its overflowing with light, for you are My witness.

Oh, My people, you have to be clean from the spirit of the world, for the world is a heavy burden upon My Spirit. Oh, My people, you should be holy as the Lord, your God is holy and you have to follow the way of the paradise on the earth, and then I, the Lord, will take care of everything you need, for I am your Father, My people. I embrace you within the mystery of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for it is a feast of the Holy Spirit. Let each son of My word become a feast for the Holy Spirit, to fulfill the feast of the Holy Spirit in every place where I have sons who love My kingdom in them. I advise you, My people, to be filled with the zeal and love and to fulfill the word of the book. Be humble, son, be shy, be humble and gentle, and always, always, let it spring in you and from you the sweet fruit of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, and the fruit will be seen from heaven and then from the earth. Amen.

Come together in Me, sons. Learn to love Me and let this be sufficient for you. Learn the wisdom of the kingdom of the heavens in you, and learn it more and more, and stay within this mystery, for I have given you much, and I want to stay in you in the same way and to turn you into dwelling places of the Holy Spirit so that you may be happy then, and to be victorious by My power, and to overcome for it.



Peace to you! Comfort yourselves with the spring of My word and be content and thankful and be holy, sons, for the holy one is the dwelling place of My peace. Always become a new heaven and a new earth for My will in you, and I, the Lord, let My blessing come down upon you so that you may understand well the Mystery of My will and to have power for its fulfillment in you, and to renew the world through you, which is to be and to make you into My comfort.

Peace to you, Jerusalem! Be good, son, for the one who believes in Me has My comfort in him. Peace to you, and become a dwelling place of My glory, for you have My teaching upon you, but ask Me to dwell within you, to be with you, for behold, I ask for you as well. I ask you to be My kingdom, My people son, and you should abide through it and you should build Me in it, for I have built you for it, and I have called you a new building, I have called you New Jerusalem, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-05/11-06-2006

The Word of God on the Sunday of all saints

(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, the signs of My second coming when I went up to be with the Father after My resurrection were written in the Scriptures and the man unfaithful to My coming cannot say that I had not said that I would come and how I would come and when I came. Oh, My people, I said that My kingdom does not come in a visible way, but it comes in man when it comes, and it must be seen in man. Oh, My people, I have built you on earth by the word and I have set you as a sign[43] among men and a sign of My kingdom so that every man may see God with you, and I gave you a new name on earth as it is written in the Scriptures about this mystery, and you have to show Me My fulfillment in you, for every men shows himself fulfilled in him, and you have to show Me fulfilled in you, for those who see Me in this way, they are the people in whom I am fulfilled as a true God that I am.

05/18-06-2006.

The third Sunday after the Whit Sunday

I want to be led by My word to My people in order to teach it, and to teach it again and again. And what shall I teach it? I want to teach it the wisdom of salvation and its work in those who have given themselves willingly over to My path with the man on the earth. Amen.

I want that the gates to be lifted up and to be well fixed in the hinges and then to be opened so that I may lay down food for salvation for the people to eat and that they may not to miss food. And if he does not eat with the food on the table, he does not like food from God and neither with God. Moreover, if the people does not grow, it does not grow because it does not eat, and it does not grow because it is not a child, for the grown people do no longer grow up but they grow less instead. Only the one who is a child, only that one grows up, only that one needs father and mother, only that one knows to stay within God. Amen.

Oh, sons of this word giving of eternal life! I speak with you by the words of the wisdom of salvation, so that every man on the earth may hear My teaching. There are only waves on the earth and the people do no longer feel them. Let every man hear from Me, that the watchman who sees the wave coming has to let the people on the earth know about it, either if he is obeyed or not.

It is heard on the earth the false teaching upon man. The man teaches another man to his own destruction, to his separation from God for a good living on the earth, and he calls this lying and dyed plan, he calls it the raising of the standard of living. Oh, the man does not need such a plan, but the man needs God and not a living on the earth. There is no one to teach the man the living with God and from God. There is no longer any man with the spirit of revelations from God to tell him those that are not seen and those which catch the man under him without him seeing their hostile face in the man's life. I have mercy on My Romanian country. I am into its midst with the spirit of revelation, a spirit ministered by angels for a holy law on the earth, and it, My poor country, sleeps unknowingly in front of the waves, which try to strike in it and to enslave its gift and beauty from Me.

[43] See the selection topic: „The sign of the Son of Man", r.n.

Oh, you do not need a standard of living, as the man calls the lawlessness of this lie, My dear country! I have in you the word from My mouth and I want to open your mind to understand like God and not like man, for all those that you have to know are written into the Scriptures, but read with Me in order to know from Me, My country. Oh, do no longer rejoice over the trap, which is set for you to believe that you will have a good living on the earth, because your happiness and emancipation from slavery do not come from man, but your fate is to be on the earth from God. You need a living with God, but you do no longer know this wisdom of salvation as your forefathers knew it. You do no longer have spiritual people in you to lead you to Me and Me to you, and that you may believe from God and not from man, My country. Oh, it is hard without light on the earth. There is no longer light on earth, and I am into your midst, and you do not know to reach out your hand to Me to save you from the perishing spirit of this age. However, I teach the people of My word so that you may receive teaching from Me and to stay before Me, to stay at My mouth, which springs for you the river of life, the wisdom of salvation and its work in man. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, o sons who are taught from heaven! I have always, always told you: pass from your body into spirit so that you may be able to overcome during the hard times, as the saints worked, and who pray from those in heaven to Me and ask Me to fulfill the Scripture of the revelation of God's sons; and you from the earth, you tell Me that it is because of the prayers of the saints and of the fathers that I should save you, and this is how you answer to each other, you answer them and they answer you by the prayer for the fulfillment in this way, for they cannot take away their crown of greatness unless the last ones will appear for them for the cleansing and for the forgiveness of all creature, which was and which is. I told you that it may have no longer been heard through the ages such faith like yours, the working faith for the fulfilling of all the Scriptures, within the entire obedience for My coming with the saints, who, together with the whole creation sigh and pray unspeakably, waiting for the revelations of the last sons of God. Oh, comfort their sigh, sons! Oh, pass from body into spirit more and more and with every passing day, and ask from Me to give you the wisdom of salvation and its stature in you and its work in you, for you do not need to be like the people on the earth, but you should rather be like God's sons among the people, and you should stand by Me, and that I may be able to stand by you, as this work has to be done with hard work and in great obedience. Learn this work from the saints who have come out of the world to listen then to God through God's people and not from themselves. Learn from Me, the One Who came into the world as Man from man in order to listen to the Father in submission. Learn, sons, for long ago I spoke by My descent that there was school and there were students but there was no wisdom. Behold, one needs wisdom and love for it, for without this wisdom of salvation, the man cannot be with God and he cannot be protected by God, and then the man becomes haughty and falls down. I have always longed after My teaching over you, and I want you to receive from My mouth, for it is very hard for the man to receive from man, even from those who are loved by the Lord on the earth. The man needs the man's wisdom of life to be able to receive from man for Me, and then to listen to Me, for without ongoing teaching, the man has not got the capacity to know, because the man's mind does not know anything else but to separate himself from God for his own mind, and the man has been doing this damage upon him for seven thousand years.

Oh, sons, oh, sons, oh, sons protected by My word, which teaches you not to perish by yourselves! You shall not seek to become haughty for yourselves. You shall not laugh in your mind, in your heart and in your face, but you should also not be pale lest you may become weak to one another, sons, and this is how I have greatly been teaching you. You should long only for the Lord, and let your smile be only from God. Learn to speak in a heavenly way to each other, but do this only after you learn how to think beautifully and how to have a beautiful stature for angels, not for you and not for people, sons, because the people make Me weak in you if you want to seek after them or if they try to seek after you. Oh, there is no longer any time to lose. Oh, sons, do no longer speak at random, do no longer keep silent at random, do no longer work at random, and do no longer stay without work, for the spirit of testimony among brothers before the heaven, this spirit has been waiting for you, and if you do not have greatness of spirit, the spirit of revelations, then do no longer stay among people, for you do not know how to get out of the traps alone. Grow less and stay within God, so that the people may not suck My life that is in you and your life with Me. Start everything from the beginning, you, those who are not satisfied, so that you may be then Christians in everything, both inside and outside of you to God and to each other, for no one is able to see God in you otherwise, and the Scripture of God's sons upon you.

Oh, sons, I tell you this with fire and longing, and I remind you to be Christians so that the rise of the son may catch you at the work for My kingdom and not in your beds, and this is how you are to start the work of each day. At dawn, you should be ministers of prayer for you and for the salvation of the creature, and then with prayer, do the works during the day, with prayer and with wisdom from God and not from you, for the spirit of obedience upon man cannot be taken away from yourselves, and it has to be taken away from before your face, and this it is what you need to do, and only afterwards you will do this way. My kingdom in you is not earned by the sleep of the body and by the carelessness of the soul, for the body is your enemy and Mine, if you put it to rest. The body demands sleep and it asks for many rights and it does not allow you pass from body into soul, and I said that you should not fatten the soil with your bodies, for if you eat much and always, then you make too much garbage on the earth, sons. You need to pass from bodies into spirit, for the spirit is that which can do, and not the body, sons. Oh, the days are evil, and I have been struggling too much to take care of your everyday life, if it were for you to live on the earth as mere people and that is all. The people speak a lot about the standard of living, about much and good food, about luxury of all kinds, about human things, which the man has always adhered to, but you should rise with every passing day more and more above your bodies, so that I may judge through you the world without any power of life in it, sons. Look at the birds of the sky and at the lilies of the field, and follow their example of life and do believe that this it can be done and it will be able to be done. Amen.

Oh, pass from body into spirit. Keep a tight hold on your body, for your body always keeps asking too many things and it is not the one that is used to the life that is to be, for the spirit is that which gives life, freshness of life, preparation for the life and then joy of the afterlife. Behold, the one who does not work with his spirit works with his body and then he says that he has the right to eat well. Oh, the soul has got even greater rights, sons. You shall not say too, that you do many things for the Lord. You shall not say so, but rather humble yourselves in wisdom, for everything you do with your prayer and then with your spiritual fulfillment, you do it for yourselves, not for Me, and that I may give you through your prayer and that I may give Myself over to you as food for your eternal life, and then you should not let your soul go hungry, but you also need to give its right to eat, and give each other the mercy for your soul, giving yourselves from Me to one another. Like your body, the soul wants everything as a gift, for all are gifts, as the life in the body is a gift, which you are very much indebted to, sons. Oh, do no longer be in debt; do not longer remain in debt. Be right with the Lord, from Whom you have your soul, just as you have your body from your parents. However, you are in debt and very much in debt to the spirit, sons. Oh, do no longer keep on being in debt. Oh, how shall you pay this debt, and with what?

Oh, work sons, work with your body for the debt of the spirit. Do no longer work with your body only for the food of your body, for this is injustice to God Who gives live every moment. You will say that you pray for the debt of the spirit, but the one who prays, prays for himself, and if he does not get up to accomplish what he asks for, his prayer is unfruitful and it can also be condemning if the one who speaks out the things of the prayer does not keep his word.

Oh, sons, be lovers of spirit and not lovers of the body. Be diligent for the spirit, not only for the body. Be lovers of poverty, for it is hard on the earth and it becomes harder and harder. Be spiritual. Pay with your life what is to be eternal and do not work more for the temporary life. Use the right scale, and if you take care of the body and of the food of the body, then be clean all the time, sons, clean both your spirit and your body.

Behold, I teach you again and again the wisdom of the cleanness for God, for the angels and for you. Keep your food clean in the vessels all the time. If you eat and then if you have little food in your vessel, do not let your vessel with little food in it. Put the little food in a small vessel, according to their measure, and then wash up clean the vessel in which you had the food. Do not use a big vessel for little food, for the evil spirit gets in and licks the walls of the vessel if it has got unwashed food in it, for the evil spirit is drawn to the dirt which is unwashed by the man. And you all should work that way, and all the time you should do this way and not otherwise, for I have set among you a model of life and of work of the life, only that you may want to learn and then not to forget what you have learned. You should not let unwashed any bit of dirt on your vessel, for you have to make room to the angels of the glory to dwell long near you.

Love the spirit of cleanness, sons. This work keeps the Lord near you, for it is the work of the spirit and of the heart of your spirit. Pass from body into soul in everything and always keep yourselves like that, and do not put out your eyes from each other because of your soul and body weaknesses, but each one of you should sacrifice oneself to one another without murmuring, for the sacrifice above your need, that is what remains to you, not what another one does to you. The sacrifice without murmuring draws then all the brothers to sacrifice and to the union of spirit, but learn what sacrifice is and not what union is, for the sacrifice does not come through union, but the union comes through sacrifice instead.

Let it be very, very clean in your little chambers, sons, so that the angels may dwell there ministering to you with longing and then to refresh the humble spirit in you, the greatest deed of your life, from which the kingdom of the heavens comes, sons. Oh, there is no greater deed among the fruit of the spirit than that of the humility of spirit, from which its entire fruit comes, the fruit of the spirit by the humility, which has got in it a humble mind for the man, and from which everything comes and all the things of My kingdom settle in you, without murmuring for the sacrifice of your praise or of your ministering.

Sons, take care and clean your little houses, and clean them all the time, as well as your little chambers, and also take care not to have any pockets for dirt gets in them, and the man does not gather anything in them if he has got them, if he uses them, but understand what it is to be understood if I tell you this, for the pockets are both in your body and in your soul, and they are places for rubbish and idols, and the idol is of no use but it rather does damage and then it blames the man after that and it keeps the man in temporariness, lying day after day for his life. When the man does not have any idols surrounding him, then he can always clean his house easily, and he can always be with the cleaning tool into his hand, and he can always clear up for the approaching of the angels and for the Lord's rest with the man, and behold, the man needs to have few, few things on earth and much heaven on earth.

Oh, sons, you do not have to work in My courts with you when you do not have time for cleaning up, but you always need do you work in them in perfect cleanness, and let your ways be cleaned from garbage and weeds in front of your houses, so that the angels may keep watch near you and near your dwelling places with Me, for the time is hard, sons, and the sky is full and all the roads are full of evil spirits, sorcery and witchcraft, because of the spirit of envy, for the one who serves the spirit of the world, that one is an evil vessel, in which the spirit of the world pours out all its impurities, and the world has not got another work day and night, but it has only the work of evil spirit, and I can hardly overcome for you in order to protect you, and I cry when I see you on the roads of the world and through the world when I want you within Me.

Oh, sons, above any of your occupations, above anything you may have beautiful in you, love the flowers and the greenery and their purity, for the heaven is the place of purity and of the entire beauty, so that the angels may dwell with you among the shadows of sweet smelling trees, because all these are for the heaven, not for the body's necessities, but rather for the heaven and for the spirit, sons, and I tell you again that it is one thing for the man to adorn his garden and his little house for himself and for his body, and it is another thing to do this for his Lord. Oh, do not become dirty when you do your work, and do any work that does not defile you. Oh, sons, I had always exhorted you and I still exhort you to have life in you, and to keep it so that you may have it, but for this miracle you have to listen to God and to work Him within you as your Master, and you should receive His order among you from Him, for otherwise you will not understand Him and you will not have the Lord. The spirit of the revelation is the one that can help you, that which can save you from your guilt and from its consequences, and a Christian with true love knows to wait and to receive the Lord upon him and to protect his life under My mantle, for the time is hard and it becomes harder and harder, and I teach the one who has eaten at My table, so that every man may take from it the teaching of life, when I have someone to put it on. Among those in the world there is no longer a man with the spirit of the revelation from God, for all people are haughty for themselves and there is no longer any spiritual man among men. The spiritual man is that one who has the spirit of revelation and that one has a humble opinion about himself and for himself, and in the churches from the world, the man does not find any spiritual man over man's life departed from God. Oh, there is no one to reconcile the man to God, and God to the man who is wrong and astray within himself and within his self-haughtiness. Oh, there is no longer any man poor in his spirit, a man with a humble and very beautiful spirit through this beautiful spirit. In the churches from the world, the man can no longer find the way, for the worldly priest is not a confessor, even if he has received this calling from another one. The priests are not confessors, for the confessor is the one who has the Spirit of the Lord, the angel of the Lord, that tells him all the things from man and the things from the Lord for the man, as I spoke to the Samaritan woman about the secret things of her life, and then she went in her city and said: «Come and see a man who told me everything that I did». (John 4:29) If she had a haughty spirit, it would have been hiding in her, but the One in front of her, Who was speaking to her, filled her with the things from God, with the spirit of humility, and then she came for healing and not for hiding as Adam did, who hid from God in heaven and then blamed Him, and thus Adam lost God.

The Spirit of revelation works on the earth by the intercession of the angels, and he who cannot be told the things discovered by the angels, that one is flesh and blood and does not receive the spirit of revelations, the spirit of correction and then the spirit of his illumination and salvation, the spirit of the confessor, and behold, not all of them perceive this mystery of the revelation of the spirit, but only those to whom the Lord wants to reveal and then to receive by the spirit of revelation, the same as the law came on the earth by the intercession of the angels.

Woe to the haughty one, the one who cannot receive the ray of the light, which comes to him by the angel! Woe to the one who runs away from angels, not having got a saving and receiving mind through the angels, and who does not know how to be small before the Lord! The prophet Samuel was made by God, first a prophet by the angels' ministry, who were speaking to him from the Lord, and only after that he became a priest, and My angels were whispering to him, revealing to him the things of God. He told Saul: «When you were little in your own sight, weren't you made the head of the tribes of Israel?»

Oh, My people, a great man is not the one who is great by his own words and by his own name, it is not that one who is great, but great is the one who has My Spirit within him, just as Samuel had, who received My Spirit in him, the spirit of revelation, by which he was judging the disorder in Israel, for this work has to work out the spirit of the revelation in the one who has got it from God. By the angels' intercession, I was revealing to the prophet Daniel, those things that he did not know about, and I worked with him so wonderfully, until the king Nebuchadnezzar exalted him before his people. This was how I worked with Joseph who was sold and I exalted him over the entire Egypt by his patience, humility, wisdom, by his good conduct, and by My light within him.

Behold, the confessor is confessor and the priest is priest, but in the midst of the church from the world, no one knows what it means God to be with the man and for the man on the earth. The confessor is the one who believes strongly in the things from God and to whom God gives this gift of the spirit of revelation and of the good thing upon the man, and he who is wise among people does not live without a confessor over the moments of his life, he does not live without God over his steps, over his mind, over his work all the time, and behold, many great people of the world had been touched by the spirit of the heavenly callings and they had been little under the hand of those who were spiritual on the earth, and this was how they became holy Christians and this was how they received the gift of the humility of spirit under the hand of those who were leading their life closely, as only those who are humble can do this, and nothing else means for the man to be Christian.

Behold what it is on the earth! Behold, how many priests come out thorough haughty people like them, but they come out in vain, for these are not spiritual for the man. In the churches from the world, the man becomes a priest first and then he is named a confessor over the people, but Samuel and all those who were Mine, were made prophets, confessors and then priests by God and not by people. I, the Lord, was first the confessor of those who believed in My love for the man and with whom I came down from heaven to meet the man who was wandering away on the earth by the spirit of the human pride, and then I was their priest, sacrificing Myself before the Father for their salvation, as a true Shepherd that I am.

Behold, the priest cannot help the man, he cannot reconcile to God the man who has gone wrong, if he has not got the spirit of the revelation of the things in man too, the spirit by the intercession of the Lord's angels' for the revelation of the hidden things in man and which do harm to man. The one who is not little in his own eyes, that one is neither served by angels nor does he receive those who are served by angels for man, for the spirit of the human pride puts God away from man and from near man, and I said: «Woe to the one who has got his name greater the work for God». It is written into the Scriptures: «Woe to those who speak to the prophets, "Don't prophesy!" and to the seers, "Don't see!" And if you see, speak to us smooth things so that we may receive them». (See Is: 30/10) When I was speaking to the Jews the things that were about to happen to Me and with them because of their unbelief, they spoke about Me: «He has got a demon», and they were saying: «He blasphemes. What any other proof do we need against Him?» (See also Luke: 22/71)

Behold, My people, it hasn't been well understood the work for the protection of My work, that for the protection of those who are My anointed ones and around whom I, the Lord, have sat down with the spirit of the revelation, a spirit served by the angels, to protect them from the spirit of the man, from the hidings in man, which try to make them weak and guilty for those which are hidden in man, for the man who is not reconciled to God by the working spirit, which comes from God, in such a way that I may have them as Mine, that is, the servants of the holy altar and clean from all the evils, hidings and haughtiness in man and around man. I spoke for those to whom I show their unknown things from man, I said that where there are not people through whom I am led to this people of My word by the spirit of the revelation, where they are not, then everything is devoid of God, and it is not beautiful the place where they cannot set the man over the man and for the man and for My places with this people. Moses was established by God in God's place over Israel, and Aaron was a priest from God, but when Aaron worked without Moses, then he went wrong, and Israel went wrong too, separating itself from God for pleasures, for a life without watching over Israel. I am the One Who stand by My anointed ones, if they stand by Me through the spirit of revelation. I am the One who protects them from the evil things in man and I show them what it is to be done with each and every situation, for My life in the Christian. He, who is in My image and after My likeness, is the one who does not leave off My will for the sake of his will. Behold, the wisdom of the salvation is the teaching by which I, the Lord, have sat down today, over My people that has been exhorted by the spirit of the revelation.

I, the Lord, cry bitterly, because the man does not know what God means. Amen, amen, amen.

19-06/02-07-2006

The feast of the birth of Saint John, the Baptizer

The saints urge Me to come down as word on the earth, and I, the Lord, listen in heaven to those who have listened to God on the earth. I become the will of the saints in heaven and on earth, for their will is that I may overcome over the earth with My work of New Jerusalem and to give the crown to the saints, for only in the end of the victorious fight for heaven, only than are the little crowns given to those who overcome for themselves and for the saints according to the will in heaven, and not according to that which is in man. Amen.

I strengthen Myself in the way to bring it into submission and that it may keep Me in it to reach the man's ear by the word. I can do everything I want, like the man who can do it either, but My power is submitted to man, and I cannot overcome over the man for Me, if he cannot take from Me and then to be able to work for Me and to work like Me, because if the man can work like him, then I can no longer work over the man anymore, and My great work remains for the saints, for those who are submitted by faith to My plan with them, in the same way God gave birth to John on the earth for Me, the torch of My path to the man.

Oh, My baptizer! How really shall I go on working over the man in such a way that he may be able to understand what God means, what God's man means and what the common man means? How shall I still do with the man on the earth? I have come on the earth with a spirit of life giving. I have shown My life to the man, My sacrifice before the Father and before the man and this is how I have become the man's teacher. I Myself have shown the man how his nature, his mind, his heart and his walking in life should be on the earth. Oh, the man did not look at Me, neither then and nor now. I have remained the last one both then and now because the man does not know what God means, for if he knew he would have known Me, but those who knew Me and perceived Me then, they are those who know Me now too. Those who were born saints and those who have become saints at My teaching have known Me, but today I have been prophesying on the earth for fifty years and no one becomes a saint under My poor struggling to make room to Me near the man and then in the man with his making in My image and after My likeness.

Oh, who shall I cry in heaven for My mourning with, if not with My saints, who look after the last ones, after those who have been waiting by all sighing creature before Me for seven thousand years for its salvation, for My place on the earth with the man and with the entire creation? Oh, what else shall I do in a day of feast of the saints than to cry with My saints, and they to cry with Me? If the man does not cry together with Me, the One Who has been mourning over by him, who shall I keep My mourning with if not with the saints who had cried on the earth with Me, after Me and for Me, the One Who has been mocked by man? The man spends his life in everything he says that it does him good and the man cannot do like Me. Oh, My baptizer, we cry with one another for the Father's mourning, Who is crushed within Us because of man. We cry and we cry as on earth, and we strengthen ourselves from our pains. Only because of pains we have to gather strength. What shall we really do with the man to long after his paradise, My place with the man? Let us comfort ourselves within Our pains and in Our longing after the man who has been wandering away from heaven on the earth. Let Us sigh deeply and let the man hear Us; let him hear Us. Amen, amen, amen.

– Come, God and little Lamb, Who humble Yourself and stay only humble for Your walking on the earth. You spoke once to those who have carried You as Your word to the man, and You told them that before man one should go on his knees so that he may be able to walk on his feet. However now, the pain in You whispers to those who walk like that for Your way with the man, and it whispers to them that one should go only on his elbows and knees, and not only on his knees for the man's walking on his feet, who is not used to the walking that pleases God and from which Your comfort and the comfort of Your saints come, Your hope and the hope of Your saints, little and suffering Lamb. I comfort You with my hand with which I poured out running water over Your head in the river Jordan, and I remind You of my pain by which I was teaching the people to repent and then to become a dwelling place of Your kingdom with which You came on the earth to establish it in man. However, they came because of the fear of the heavenly wrath due to the wandering away of their life, but they did not come for repentance. You have also come today for their repentance from heaven, as word and sign of Your coming, but the people remain far away from Your calling with their works, with their life, and as some offspring of vipers try to run away from the wrath and in no way do they come for repentance and then for a holy and new life. The man comes to You and then tries to lose You for his life, and he does not come with repentance. The brood of vipers, after they are born, kill their mother, and that is why I called brood of vipers those who did not come for repentance and then for Your life in them; and not to strike You after the man comes, after You open for him to come in and have life and work like Yours from You. Oh, You are God, but the one who wants to try to come to You by Your calling, forgets who You are and who he is, and the man forgets that he is small and that You are God, and that it is because of Your mercy You call and receive Him, and not that he may boast that he has You as his Father, but to really have You, if he has got You and if he boasts about this. The one who boasts about this, that one can no longer pray to You, for those who are Yours humble themselves deeply, they are afraid of Your greatness and stay little under it and stay in submission waiting for Your mercy over their weaknesses, over their weak powers.

Oh, little and teaching Lamb, the man does not know why I called You the Lamb of God, why the prophets called you the slaughtered Lamb, as in fact You are, for their prophesies have been fulfilled. Woe to the one who is greater and stronger than You are, and not like You, little Lamb, and happy is the one who lets himself be made in Your image and after You likeness, dear little lamb to be like You, Lord. However, the man is haughty, poor of him, and he cannot be little lamb. The man is discontent and the one who is discontent cannot be aggrieved, for his dissatisfaction is a spirit nourished by the spirit of haughtiness against another one, it is nourished by the spirit of judgment against the one who is blamed by man. Oh, the man does not want to remain with You, gentle and little Lamb, and one should go on his elbows and knees to help the man to humility like ours, Lord of those who are humble and full of Your grace full of Your life in man.

Oh, people who hear the word from God! Let the Lord not speak alone, let Him not listen alone and let Him not remain alone. I did not know how to listen to Him more beautifully and more truly when He was speaking to Me and was teaching Me. He was very humble to hide His face of my God. He did not want me to think that He was greater than I was. He humbled Himself like a God and He was teaching me, and I was receiving of His grace like a perfect disciple. I did not want to be less than He was in the work of my life. This is how I had followed my Teacher, and He was the Lamb of God, and only at Jordan I saw this, for He was humble and did not want to be known by His greatness, but He rather He hid His greatness like a God, and the man has not learned this yet even from God, after he has learned about God's humility.

Oh, gentle Lord and submitted to the Father and to the man! Shall I cry out to the people to repent as I was calling out two thousand years ago to those who were coming to be baptized without a spirit of repentance first? Behold, I call them out and I tell them, and I speak like David to them who think that they are masters in Your place over the earth and over them: «Teach them to serve the Lord in fear and after that then rejoice with awe, you kings who judge the earth. Understand and receive this teaching lest you may have no place where to flee from the wrath, which is to come, and thus to perish from the right way which calls you to it, when the wrath of the Lord will be kindled in an instant. Repent and give forth fruit of repentance and do not rely on the Lord as on your father, if you do not receive from His Spirit, giving of eternal life, within Him, for the Lord can make worthy sons out of those who are not taken into consideration by you. Bow and receive from God, for He is the wisdom of life, oh, kings and people from the earth!" Amen.

And now, little Lamb, Lord, fulfill the fruit of my calling to the man. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I cry with the saints for the man's disobedience, and the one who knows to receive life from God will take and have and will do the work of New Jerusalem before Me.

Oh, people taught by God and by His saints! Do hear what John, My baptizer, has told you. He had always, always been taking of My Spirit and he had always, always, been a perfect disciple, like his Teacher, and I was his Teacher, just as I am your Teachers as well.

Oh, people, taught and taught by God! I have spoken with the saints in heaven and on earth before you. Amen, amen, amen.

24-06/07-07-2006

The feast of the saint apostles Peter and Paul

The hosts of saints are with Me within My descent, for I do not walk alone between heaven and earth, between God and man, between man and man, when I can do this on the earth, when I am believed and welcomed with My companions from heaven on the earth. Amen.

I come down into the book with My saints, for the patriarch Enoch[44], the seventh from Adam, wrote about Me and about My angels; he prophesied about My coming with the saints saying: "The Lord comes with His thousands of saints." (See the Books of Enoch, r.n.) He saw this from far away; I made him see over time the glory of My coming with the saints and he saw it very well and then he confessed it. I travelled with him through all the heavenly glories when he was in his body, and I showed him My work over time and I had him confessed and those that he testified about Me to remain on the earth, (About that time, very detailed, see "The Household of God", divine dictation received by Jakob Lorber, r.n.) and the spirit of confession, when it comes from Me over the man, is a wonderful spirit, as I told My disciples that all those who believed in Me would do more than they saw Me doing, after I would go to the Father for them.

I speak My word on the earth in a day of heavenly synod of My disciples of two thousand years ago and I have given them the joy of testimony, for the saints are those who have confessed God and the Son of God over the earth. I gathered disciples for Me by the work of My glory and I walked with them among those who were unbelievers, among those who did not take care of My coming from the Father. I was fulfilling under their eyes the Scriptures, which testified about Me clothed in a body of clay, and this was how I was helping them to know the time of their visitation and then of the testimony about My coming.

There is no man on the earth to take care of My coming to him, of his coming to Me. The man does not know to do this work. I came to My disciples and I appeared to them with My glory and I helped them to take care of My coming, of the One Who comes to the man from the Father and testifies about Himself as the Son of the Father Sabaoth, just as the Father confessed Him by His voice that was walking in the clouds to the man's ear, to help the man believe in My coming, and behold, during these days I have been speaking fifty years over the earth and I announced Myself with the country of My coming and with those who have heard Me speaking during this time, and the man cannot say that I have not told him about My coming from the Father with My confessing saints, as it was written from the beginning. Behold, not all want to understand God's mysteries. The man does not have any more time and mind to perceive like God, but I still call out over the earth and I say, as it is written: «Bless God, you, nations on the earth, and make His voice be heard; sing to the One Who ascended over the sky of the sky, to the east, Who speaks His voice with power, for God is wonderful among His saints. Receive teaching lest the Lord may get angry and thus to perish when His anger will burst in flames in an instant, for the Lord comes within a flame, and His chariots are thousands of thousands». Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord of those who are faithful, saints and confessors of Yours! Oh, Lord, we are within Your coming. Even now we are walking together with You, for we are Your disciples. The disciple does not walk without his teacher, nor in his way or in his work of a disciple, and blessed are those who become disciples on the earth for You, passing from body into spirit so that they may become Your work, Your comfort and the temple of the Holy Spirit, to be Yours, Lord, deprived of disciples. However, we became Yours on the earth and we comforted You, and You were comforted with us among those that were fleshly and earthly, when You were walking from place to place with us and Your power was withering as that of a God Who bears the men's weaknesses,

[44] See the selection topic: „Enoch and Elijah", r.n.

Lord. You were doing wonderfully among us working over those who were proud in their thought and were giving them Your voice with power as a God Who sees each and everything that belongs to men on the earth. Then we were learning the work of discipleship and You were telling us that those who would believe in You and in Your coming among people, then as now, would do greater miracles. You were so upset when You saw the men's haughtiness, who did not know what God meant, for they mentioned God in vain from books. You were very, very much aggrieved because of the man's haughtiness that could not grow less and humbled within his life. We were shining Your light and we were sorry for You because You had no fruit to gather from man, and You could hardly find someone humble in his spirit to give against his sins the light of Your teaching, with which You came from the heights of the Father to the people on the earth, Lord, full of mercy for the man, who has wondered away by himself among those have also wandered away like him. Oh, You have suffered from the man's haughtiness; You suffer and suffer again, and the man cannot give You any comfort if he has got no humility in him. You have suffered Lord, because of the greatness in which the man settles alone with his mind and heart, and You have no room on the earth with the man, Lord, Who comes, always coming with Your saints. We were walking with You from place to place, but the people did not follow Your calling to become Your disciples. The one who does not become Your disciple, that one does not follow You, for those who follow You, have to be like You, to work like You, and then to confess through Your light in them and over them, as the Father was shining over You with His work and with its fulfillment.

Oh, what shall we do so that the mystery of the disciple work may be perceived by man, Lord? Oh, You are very much deprived of disciples, and the earth is big, far and wide, but those little of Yours and ours made it possible for Your word to run fast, and they made it possible for Your voice to be heard powerfully over those who have known You from books from generation to generation; they made the book of Your work upon them and multiplied it over people so that You may be heard from margins to margins over the earth before the great day of Your glory, when You will confess and glorify Yourself with Your saints over Your saints, with those who have become Your disciples at Your coming now. Oh, those who preach You with the word upon the earth are very, very weak, for only the poor stick to You, only those who do not have powers to become giants and then to become conceited because of their shameful wealth of the passing glory, which withers away like grass and then it is thrown into the fire; this is how it passes and this is how it comes to an end the glory of the passing man who does not know the spirit of Your disciple among those who believe in You on the earth. Our word, on the day that celebrates us as Your disciples and saints, is the word by which we comfort Your great pain and always Yours, for You are the One Who always look for the lost coin, and no one really helps You on the earth to find it and then to rejoice with Your saints, who are Your house.

The man becomes great on the earth and then he loses his life by his greatness, and those who perish cry, and then they always cry, they cry and cry again for their lost life on the earth, for the spirit that possesses the man is the spirit of the human haughtiness, Lord. Behold, in three days it will be remembered the soul of the one who, a year ago, left the people of those who had ruled by their names the land of Your choice, chosen from the beginning to be a place of the glory of Your word, of the little garden that carries over it the voice of Your calling after the man. This little soul has been sighing painfully, for it could not escape the toils of the spirit of haughtiness and of the passing greatness, and now it has been sighing and trying to refresh itself by the spirit of confession, Lord. We are with it, we, Your disciples, for Your angels has brought it near to the day when it will be mentioned before You by those who are the people of Your word. Let's us refresh it, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– You, My disciples because you followed Me on the earth, work, beloved ones, do My work on earth as in heaven, for you are My disciples, and I, the Lord, look and comfort My affected spirit, deeply affected. Amen.

– Oh, Lord, we, Your disciples, work like You. You took the keys of death and hell, and You gave us the keys of the kingdom of the heavens to be Your confessors and to tell everybody that You are the Christ, the Son of God, the living One forever and ever, that You are the slaughtered Lamb and that You are the Savior of those who follow You. We give voice to the soul that will be to confess about it, about You, Lord, and about the work of Your word over the earth. Amen.

– I stand having been set by angels before You and before Your twelve disciples and before those who testify today like Your disciples, Jesus Lord. I am astounded by Your invisible glory from the earth over Your anointed ones, who bear the work of Your word from Your mouth to the man's ear. I did not want to know how long I stayed and I did not want to join with my life and work to this glory of Yours on earth, which, my relatives according to the flesh knew about. Your angel took my soul away from the body one year ago and brought me before Your throne. I had nothing to bring You for my life. I was proud on earth and You did not receive any of my sacrifices, about which I was saying that I was bringing before You, for «The Lord stands against those who are proud», as it is written. I cry bitterly when I see in time how many sacrifices You have received, both from the rich ones and from the poor ones, but You did not receive any of my sacrifices, and I suffer without any comfort that I have not got now any earnings from my life on earth. You also wanted to write me in heaven with a sacrifice pleased to You, but I did not love You, I had no mercy on You, but I rather asked for my right when I left Your chosen land as Your inheritance, as it really was. I upset You then and You spoke a prophetic word to me that You would take me away from the earth because of my lack of love, because my lack of obedience to You, and then I persecuted those who were Your elected ones. At the end of my life on the earth I caused You great pain and I touched with hatred, with evil speaking and threatening those who carried You as word on the earth and over Your people, for I thought I was able to do this. Now, I have seen how powerfully You watch over those people and how You call out for them the word of the Scriptures, saying: «Do not conspire against My prophets». However, I did not want to fulfill this way and I tell everybody not to do this great sin, and I tell them that haughtiness is the most hostile sin against the man's life on the earth and then when he leaves his body, after that on the earth he feeds on the spirit of greatness of the empty glory, on the sin of the worshipping this idol, for the greatest idol is the human mind in which the man's haughtiness has room, the spirit which feeds and makes the man glad on the earth. To ask for Your forgiveness now, because I was unfaithful, without holy work and full of haughtiness, I know that You are the One Who know Your judgments and that You will work according to Your will. However, I ask those whom I disregarded on the earth, who are Your way with the word of Your calling over the living and over the dead, I ask them to be my intercession before You, for they have great favor with You, and You are a righteous Judge, and You are good with them, with those who love You according to Your will. I tell from here to all those on the earth who receive Your word from You, that it is a great chasm for the soul, the man's greatness on the earth, for it completely separates the man from God on earth and in heaven, because no one can serve God half way. I tell everybody to look after You with great humility of spirit, and to live this way among all people, because I looked only after honors on the earth and so little did I think at the answer which I have to give now before You, Lord, Jesus, and now, behold, here I am naked and without any support. I cannot and I do not know what else I might say. I stand before You uncovered and I see myself without any fruit. Receive for me the intercession of Your chosen ones on the earth, and be merciful to me on account of their prayers, Lord Jesus. Amen.

– Oh, loved disciples, the interceding spirit for man is great before Me, the spirit loving of people, for the people are without mind, poor of them. No matter how learned and great the man would be on earth, when I have no room with My face in him, the man is without mind, poor of him. The mind means a great miracle when the man has mind. The Spirit of God is the true mind in man, in the man who is poor in his spirit. When I chose you to be My disciples, I did not look for the man with a rank and with earthly glory, but I rather came near to those who were poor in their spirit, to those who were humble in their mind and clean in their hearts, for I cannot work otherwise upon man, and then I told you that everything you would bind on earth will be bound in heaven as well, and everything you will unbind on earth will be unbound in heaven. Oh, the mystery of the disciple work is great and deep. Oh, I am very, very much devoid of disciples. I lack powers very, very much, for My power on earth is that for My disciples to be. I need to have many, many disciples now, at My coming, but all seek after their own business, even when they are near Me, if they can do this, and I am deprived of disciples, and I help Myself with those who are poor in their spirit and great in their humility and faith in My coming, and with whom I could work the book of My word in this time of My coming.

Oh, people of My word, learn and do not stop learning. Embrace yourself and stay like that with My word and fulfill it, and love the life with guidance in it, for only this way you can be My disciples. Work much for your Lord, work for Me, so that I may work for all the things that are for Me and for you. Oh, the man has forsaken Me very, very much! Oh, I am punished very, very severely by the man! The man can hardly remember Me, for he who does not spend his life with Me, that one does so because he does not love Me and he does only his own will. The one who does his own will, that one has no love, and the one who does someone else's will, does so because he has got the spirit of love, the spirit of comfort, and when he pours out this spirit on the sides, he does so because of his love in him, and behold, such work has got its love from man, the work which cannot tell no to anyone. However, the man is not used to this way, and I am very much forsaken by man inside and outside of him. The one who does not want Me over him, that one only wants Me to be his servant, he wants Me to help him in his business, for only this man knows what God has to do for him, and behold how much aggrieved I am, oh, people of My word, and I ask you with great longing to fulfill My entire word, and help Me with its fulfilling upon you, so that My angels may write you among those who love God, that I may find My pleasure in you greatly, and to sit at your table with My saints, and to have something to take from it when I am with you.

Oh, people taught and nourished from heaven! Show to the heaven and show to the man, astray with his love, show him your love of God and your heavenly life within the Lord's courts all your time with God, for the life is that which shines far away and from far away and which receives in its body the spirit of life giving, the spirit from My Spirit and only from My Spirit and not from the spirit of the world, the Holy Spirit, as My disciples received the Holy Spirit from Me and put Him as life in those who received Him, and then they shined with their life before those who were alienated from God on the earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-06/12-07-2006

The feast of the Saint prophet Elijah

I am the food of those who are saints. The one who eats from Me, it is known that he eats, and when one eats from himself and from the man, it is known too, for what the man eats, that is what he gives out.

I am the Lord of the saints, and I feed the saints on earth and in heaven, for when I speak to those on the earth, the saints eat My entire word and the saints cry in heaven and on earth when they see the crying of My word, My longing after the heavenly man on the earth, and behold, the food of the saints is My pain from man, the price, which I want to pay again for the man's salvation, My crying on which I feed the saints, and that what they eat, that is what they give out, to turn the people to God and God to the people, as it is written. Amen.

I, the Lord, call you the people of My word, Jerusalem, for I come to you and I speak to you and become book into your midst. I, the Lord, want to have a doll people on earth, an obeying people with My Spirit in him, the same as he carries the doll that is made by its master, and its master speaks for it and through it to those who are called to it.

I, the Lord, write Myself on the earth on this day with the feast of the great prophet Elijah. He goes before Me and cleanses My way on to the earth, as it is written. My food from him was his zeal for Me, his faithfulness day and night for his God. Gather together sons, within a spirit of prayer, humility and repentance and persevere with the Lord, your God, to release clean and wholesome rain on your land and for the prophet Elijah to see your spirit and heart within Me and to prepare rain at your perseverance. Dress, My people, with every passing day and more and more within the spirit of the fear of God and of the watch for your Master, because your obedience helps Me on the earth with My coming to make My kingdom in man. I have always given you birth of My word that is upon you to help Myself with you the same as a father is helped by his sons, and to help Myself to establish My kingdom in man, which I lost from the man seven thousand years ago, and which the man lost by his disobedience to His Creator. I made him as the man works a doll for himself, and I wanted My will to be in him and I to be his walking and his speaking, to be his happy Master, as the master of a doll rejoices over it and appears with it and speaks for it, and it cannot do anything without its master's hand and voice. I have given free will to the man to be able to listen to Me out of love and with faithfulness, but the man has done his own will and has no longer wanted to do My will, and the saints mourn with Me in heaven and on earth for My pain from the man, and the prophet Elijah cries for every man who does not want God as his Master, and he cries with Me and makes haste to prepare My coming and its way and to cleanse it from each unfaithful man and to adorn it from place to place with the spirit of the faith and of the longing after God in the man's heart. He wants to put in the people on the earth the spirit of revival, and this prophet works with mourning like Me.

However now, people that hear My word, raise your hands to heaven, accompanied by the servants of the holy things into your midst, and move the spirit of My mercy so that rain may come down on your land and do My will day and night, for I, your Lord and God, bear only pains from every man on the earth. Let the spirit of humility come up to Me from your midst. Take care of the Holy Spirit, people nourished by God, for if Holy Spirit is not and cannot work between brother and brother, this means sin against the Holy Spirit, for you have the word of the Holy Spirit upon you. He who eats from Me, it is known that he eats, and when one eats from himself and from man, this is also known, for what the man eats, that is what he gives out. However, You have My teaching upon you, you have the saints who speak from Me into your midst, and you have the food of Holy Spirit and you are a people born out of My word and you have to be like Me all the time and to pave the way for My will on the earth, My coming with the saints on the earth, Jerusalem of My word. Amen.

– Lord, Your coming is the way of Your saints to the people, for behold the time which You spoke about, that even the dead from the tombs would hear Your voice and would get up within speaking. Your saints wake up Your Spirit in them even stronger and speak helping You at the building of Your kingdom on the earth and in man. Oh, Lord of the saints and of Your prophets, I want to do Your work today, for Your Spirit has work to do in me to turn the man back to God and God to man, and this is what I have wanted today to give to those who hear from heaven on earth. Now we pray together with the people of Your word to prepare rain on Your land sealed for Your works, (After a long drought, r.n.) for You have come down here and given word over the earth, and then, Lord, suffering like Your saints, we will sit down within the word and then we will speak. Amen.

– May the prayer of My people be blessed and then may it also be blessed the entrance of My saints in order to speak! Amen.

May your faith be blessed and may it be with heavenly fruit, Jerusalem of My coming, and let your love for Me increase within you. Let the work of the Holy Spirit be between brother and brother, so that you may not have any sins against the Holy Spirit, people nourished from heaven. Let your heart be true for Me and always change yourself from grace to grace, from glory to glory, for My work is holy and I can no longer work on earth without having support from man. Blow into the fire of the Holy Spirit and stir it livelier and livelier into your midst before any work of yours, and you will be like the saints, My help among people, and then I will appear to you as your Master and God on the earth. Amen.

And as for you, children who stay as the gates of entrance for Me, watch then for My whole word of today and put it into the book, for My prophet Elijah has the work of the day. Strengthen your spirit and body, for I have strengthened you, and I want much that you may always be, always supported to My peace in you and for My coming as word over the earth.

Oh, always, always remember of My entire word that is upon you and keep it, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

And behold, I stood with the saints before you at your prayer, Jerusalem, and now I have come down into the book with the entire word of the day, with the work of the prophet Elijah, for his work goes ahead of Me to the people to teach them the way with God on earth, as it is written to be before My great day[45]. I urge you, My people, not to use My name and My word in vain, but to fulfill it instead, for without its accomplishment upon you, you could have not been protected, because each one is protected by his holy life, if he has got it, if he fulfills it in him before Me. I want you to be a doll people, but you should understand this mystery and its depth and then to believe it, because if the man does not know what he has to be before Me, he cannot work his being for Me, he cannot give himself over to Me, to make him My will and to remain before Me for My work within him. It is a great wonder to have saints on earth and to help Myself with them and that they may have mercy on Me and on My pain from man. The life with joys on the earth is life without fruit, but the life with My work in man is a holy life in which human haughtiness has got no room, but it rather has got room My work for the man's redemption from his life without obedience to God. A holy life cannot be called that way only if it has the fruit of mercy of God within it, a spirit loving of people, to draw the people to the Father, for when I ascended into heaven, after I was resurrected, I said that My work was to draw all the people to the Father, and the man, with holy life has to carry My work in him, and only then his work and his life is called holy and whole before Me, his will in My will and My will in his will, as the doll, which is carried by the hand, by the spirit of the master who makes it.

[45] See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.

The man of earthly wisdom has always made dolls for himself, always created images that listen to him after that, and satan's spirit rejoices against Me and stands firm like a champion over Me by the man without God over the earth, and who has got his mind as his master. However, I rejoice over the man with a holy life and who becomes My dwelling within his mind, within his will, just as the prophet Elijah was in the midst of Israel, the people who was using My name in vain, worshipping his mind and his will and forgetting about the way of life, and behold, it is a great work for the way of man's life to be the Lord's, his life and his heart, and My saints sigh because of the man who cannot become God's son on the earth according to the truth.

Today I am with the prophet Elijah in My sighing with which I have come down on the earth. The saints have accompanied Me in My descent, for their food is My word, and they have been waiting for a long time for My table of word, their sitting at the table with Me on the earth, for the earth is the footstool of the heaven and the place of those from heaven is nothing else, and it hurts Me with a deep sign the weak faith and the man's little wisdom. The man lacks any scruples for God, and God's footstool is the earth and the man does not want to understand well this truth on the earth. The saints sigh like Me of the longing after man, but the man does no longer appear, and I have waited for him sighing and the wound of My endurance has always burnt Me, and the man does no longer come, and the heaven of saints and angels is patient and it endures with mourning waiting like Me for the man to come, to come and to give Me My rest. Amen, amen, amen.

– Your entire work, Lord, Your whole long sighing has hurt Your saints, for all live in You, aggrieved God. I want to cry after the man to turn him back to You, as it is written that I should do my work before You so that You may be seen, but the man does not want look ahead of time and see what day is that, oh, Lord. However, I have come down as word over Your people to prepare it according to Your pleasure before You, for we need much perseverance in our work to keep the man in You, Lord.

Oh, people fed from heaven with the Holy Spirit, keep away from sinning against the Lord and against the Holy Spirit, Your Guide. The Lord has given you a guide, because he has loved you. Follow the Lord in your way, for if you do not do this way, you lose the gift of mercy and of its love, because the one who shows mercy and love on your guide to God has got a great gift from the Lord. When the one who guides you has got the Lord's sighing within him and he rebukes you because of your alienation from God, you should not flee from your protection from the Lord, from His caring for you. Oh, people of the heavenly mercy, do not use your guidance to the Lord only for those things of yours that are seen, only for the life of your body, but rather use it for those of yours that are not seen. He who wounds his guide, loses the mercy and the love for it, it loses the beauty of faithfulness, it loses the gift of the mercy of God and the man loves himself. Oh, do not sleep when those who guide you sigh from you with the Lord's sighing in them. When they sigh because of you, do not be careless. Take great care of the Lord's power in them, for the power of their souls is useful to the Lord and then to you, who are called the people of the Lord's word. Learn to be like a doll, which cannot cause any pain, any sigh to its maker and to its caretaker. It listens without reaction to the will of its master, and what the Lord wants is a great mystery, that is to understand the way of your salvation. All the saints have understood this mystery, but the saints are those who have done the Lord's will among the people and among God's angels. Keep away from the idol worshipping so that you may not lose your way with the Lord, for this sin is the devil. Do not keep many things around you and with you, for they are of no use to you, because they are only a pile against your freedom in Christ. Keep every place clean, clean from the spirit of the many things on the earth so that the Lord may have rest in every place with you and that satan may not write you as being an idol worshipper and as the worshipper of the old man, that keeps his things only for those of his and which separate him from the clean unity among the brothers of the same sort. Your great gathering makes you worship it and the Lord has taught you wonderfully for those you need to have. All you have got, you need to keep for those that are useful to the Lord with you, to keep them very clean in every place so that you may have the angels as your companions. Do not rejoice, do not take any delight either with your eyes or in anything on the earth or in man. Bring your heart and your thought before your guide so that your wrong things may be corrected before the Lord, Who wants then to save you from the guilt against the life with humility before the Lord. Love the Lord in the way He wants and not in the way you want to love Him. Do not commit any hidden works or guilty feelings that prompt you to put them in the darkness, for everything will be spoken out from the roofs and then it will be hard for you. The mystery of the doll is a sweet work, for the man has also got a soul and the work of the doll is sweet, the work of man who fulfills only the Lord's will on the earth and nothing else of his will, of his taste, of his body. Only this way you will be sought after like gold, you and the Lord your God, by the work of God's listeners. Do not have fear as the people do, but be confident as sons instead, for the people are afraid that they lose their free will, which does not keep them as belonging to the Lord and the sons are afraid not to lose the Lord for themselves, for it is great this sin of the sons who do not fear God and then fall down among people. However, you keep yourselves in the fear of the Lord and He will give you the work of sons. Amen.

You, sons of people, give ear when I, the prophet of the coming of the Lord teach those who have faith becoming holy for the day of Christ's coming. No matter who you are, when you do the works of your unbelief, then you say in vain: "Who is going to see us?" Oh, the Lord's footstool is the earth and nothing is hidden from the Lord's eyes, from the Lord's heaven. Run after the healing of your sins, for behold, the sick man receives the doctor and he looks for him when he has got pains, but the sinful man does no longer seek after his healing and he has no longer any mind to see his fallen life. Give yourselves to the Lord to your healing and get up before His great day when all will see Him, for the dead hear the Lord's voice and soon they will get up[46] and confess, and those who are alive in their bodies will be terrified from His great day and will no longer be unfaithful.

I, Lord, strengthened Your people from everywhere in watching and I called the sons of the people to resurrection. Soon, soon, the way of the man and his haughtiness will perish[47] and Your way will remain for those who have loved it. I, Lord, have the zeal that the man may be able to deny himself and leave off the idols and that he may become Your will to Your peace, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– And I, the Lord, prepare the way to the man with you, oh, My prophet, and I have sent you to take away from the earth the spirit of unbelief and of that of the man's wandering away and to bring the man to the Spirit of the truth, Who is God. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, you have prepared again into your midst the memorial for those who passed away within their body and I have someone of them who painfully prays to Me to give him voice for the day of his memorial, and I fulfill it, for it is the time of the Scripture of the voice of God's Son, which is heard by those in the tombs to wake up for My coming. Amen.

[46] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.
[47] See the selection topic: „The great tribulation", r.n.

– Lord, I have come near to those who lead Your people to You and You to Your people, as they also had led me with love, for their heart is love and they have in their dough a people loving spirit. I have come near for my entrance to be made, for my nine-year memorial since You sent Your angel to bring Me to You has been made now. I remember, oh, Lord, of Your Scripture, when You were twelve years old and when You shook the Father's wisdom over those without the Father by their deeds, even if they thought that they were Abraham's sons. (About that time, see „The Three Days in the Temple", divine dictation received by Jakob Lorber, r.n.) I was twelve years old when You took me to be with You and I confessed Your work to those who did not believe it on the earth, and since then they had been waiting for its fruit. You took me to be with You, and by this I knew that You wanted me and that You did not let Your enemies rejoice over me, Lord. I earnestly ask those who were my parents after the flesh to follow Your commandments and to give up those things of the people, for everywhere the people wave to them and they do not have any sufficient power to stay within You, and You cannot stand near those who are lawless and who exhort them to the world. Help them not to lose the great gift of the love and mercy for those who lead the people of Your word in Your name, and who also led me for You, and then they made my entrance near to You according to Your mercy and to their perseverance. Help those who gave me birth after the flesh, help them to a clean heart according to Your heart and not according to their will, and give them the spirit of the fear of God and of the faithfulness according to Your will and not according to their will, Lord. Separate them from the world, which enchants them, for I sigh for Your mercy and for the mercy of those who bring You with so much difficulty to lead Your people and always to give it life of Your life, merciful Lord. You had also had mercy on me that I might not get lost, that the world might not take me away from near You and then become a bad example before those who were to believe in the work of Your word. I tried to taste the departure from You, even if I was afraid of You, and You fulfilled upon me the Scripture, which says: «The angel of the Lord will watch around those who have fear of Him». I thank You now in heaven, and I pray to You to comfort and relieve the wounds of those who lead Your people on Your behalf, and forgive those who conspire against them and help those who strike them, help them to leave off their anger and wrath and no longer to conspire against those who watch leading Your people, for they are under a heavy burden, and their heart is sweet, and many do not know to perceive this, and they cause them pains and then they cry in You and not in themselves as the man who has got mercy on himself cries. I cry for their mercy, for I loved them and they loved me, but I have also rejoiced today in the midst of Your people who remembers my being before You. I get comforted from all of them and I look at them in a heavenly way, and I ask You from the host of the praying people in heaven to save Your people, Lord, to bless Your inheritance, to graze it and to exalt it, Lord, and keep away from the world and its spirit those who gave me birth after the flesh and give them of Your Spirit and always give them the gift of the mercy for You according to Your will, merciful Lord. Amen.

– Now, I, the Lord, embrace the confessing one among those in heaven and I give to him at his prayer, but he has waited for the comfort for Me into the midst of My people.

Oh, My people, how much I have taught you! How much I teach you! I have come to you accompanied by the heaven of saints and by the confessing ones. Oh, My people, the prophet Elijah sighs suffering with Me in him from every man who worships himself and all his idols, who worships the work of his hands. I want to come but I wait for the waited one, I wait for him to come to Me, to deny himself, to be with Me and not with himself, to serve Me according to My pleasure and not according to his pleasure, to work in My vineyard and not in his vineyard and the vineyard of the world, to take after My feeling, for this is the mystery of the doll man, the same as I, the Lord, was in the hand of My Father, always His will, always only His Son, always according to His image and His likeness, as I want the man to be too, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

20-07/02-08-2006

The feast of the Assumption

I knock at the gates and I make Myself heard and I come as word into My book of these days of My second coming from near the Father to the man.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God Sabaoth and I am the Son of My mother, the Virgin, in whom I became flesh to be born and to become the Savior among people and for them, for it is written: «He who believes in Me has eternal life». Amen.

I have strengthened My gates, I have strengthened My way and I have come to you, people, Jerusalem. I am coming with the spirit of the feast of today, for My mother the Virgin is celebrated with the day of her coming from the earth near Me and near the Father. Strengthen yourself too with the spirit of celebration and open your little mouth and speak Me out and praise Me as your Savior and Teacher, for I took you out of the world to make you the praise for God and to get comforted with you within My pain from the man, who is careless of his life and eternity from Me.

Oh, My people, the man does not want to know about his eternal life, and I formed you to speak with you on the earth that the living and the dead may hear the voice of God's Son, as I said that this time would come, and here I am, speaking with those who are alive in their bodies, and those in the tombs hear Me more than them, for everything I spoke was fulfilled and is being fulfilled and the Lord is glorified in heaven and on earth and He shows the way to the man. My way to the man is the word of My calling and of My teaching over the man, and the man's way to Me is his faith in this word, which was from the beginning and which still is. Amen.

Oh, people of My word! I mourn and I sigh with the saints of the heaven, and I sigh for the man, for the man thinks that he is God, but he does not want to prove out his faith and to sit down with the work of salvation before Me, and I to work out his life according to My will. The greatest work between earth and heaven is the work of life. However, this is worked by the spirit not by the flesh, for the flesh without spirit is of no use to anything but only for sin and for the emptiness of man's separation from God, and I sigh with My saints, and My sighing becomes word upon man.

Oh, mother Virgin, oh, My mother, I am with the spirit of your feast into the midst of My people, faithful to My coming, and Our sighing becomes word to give grace to those who listen to it. Oh, My mother, there is only wound all over in heaven on God and on the saints because of man's separation from God and from the work of life. Our celebrations are not feasts of joy, but they are rather feasts of life, of work for life, My mother. The greatest work of the man should be this, but We sigh in heaven for man, for his wandering away has become too long and too great, mother. The spirit of the world has put away the Spirit of God from the earth, and the man uses My name only get a name for himself, but not life, mother, and woe to the man who does not deserve to make a name with My name and woe to the one who puts his trust in man and not in God, and not on the mystery of the work of life, the work which is learned first and only after that is worked, mother.

Behold, I come as a Teacher on the earth. I pass through you, My people, I pass with the word of My teaching for the man to receive Me from you, the man who hears My work of life into your midst. The man cannot build his life out of the work of his hands. The man cannot do anything without always having a teacher over him, and he does not believe this. Before My ascending to the Father, I told My disciples not to depart from Jerusalem until they would be clothed with power from above, with the Holy Spirit, Who would teach them everything taking from Me and giving to them from those that are Mine, and they were all the time in the temple, praising and blessing God, doing the work of life, the work of God over them. This is what he who believes in Me does, and he works this way learning from Me, for I am the Teacher Who teaches the man to believe and then with his faith in Me to work with God over his life, not by himself, for his self does not help the man but it only helps to his separation from Me and then to his wandering away far from Me.

Oh, My mother, I dwell with the life of My word into the midst of My people and We comfort our sighing. We give comfort to each other in your day of feast among the saints, and let the people receive life from Our work, mother, and let the man that is astray from God receive life, for the man does no longer know the way of life. Oh, My mother, lay down with Me in the word so that the man may hear us. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, how shall we bring to an end the pain and the mourning from it, child of the Father Sabaoth, and my child? Oh, the mystery of the child is great, and the man lost this beautiful spirit and he does no longer know to give priority before him to the one who made him, child God. Oh, only God knew how to remain a child, only He, only You, child Son of the Father and mine, and behold, the mystery of the work of life is so close to the man, but who else still wants to understand the work of the mysteries, Son God!? The sight of the man's heart stands away from the work of life, and the man does no longer have sight for his life. The man does no longer look at You, God of life. You have the Spirit of life giving. You are the man's life without death. However, the man is not guilty of his wandering away, as are those whose set themselves as teachers over the people without becoming a path to You for the people, child God. You have remained a child, for You are obedient. As long as You lived visibly in Your body on the earth, You had become obedient to death on the cross, to resurrection and to ascension, and then, behold, up to Your coming now as word on the earth in such a way that those in the graves may hear the voice of God's Son and confess this, proving by their confession the mystery of life, the power of faith which truly helps the people, the way as You, Who by the faith of so many saints who have loved You on the earth, have made the work of their faith and its power come true.

I comfort Your sighing, dear child of the Father and mine, for the man is used to comfort the man and not You. When the wrong man is favored by all those around him, he gets no benefit from this, but they rather suffer damage and You suffer damage as well and not only the wrong man, and this judgment of the things is guilty, like the favored man, like the biased man, and that is why God does not have on earth a man improved with love, with patience and with humility for the forgiveness of the sins and for true salvation. When the Lord is not let to be at the helm, the man becomes haughty against another man and he does not get humble, for the man sticks to the man and not to God, and not to the spirit of humility, and then the Lord loses the benefit between man and man and the man falls down, and the one who is favored by man always falls down, and he falls and does not stand and he is not. Behold how much You are disregarded because of Your justice, my Lord and my Son. Here is why the man does not grow. The man grows only by humility, but he takes Your place and judges with partiality because of the anxious and pretentious man in his struggle, and the man does no longer prosper in the humility, which is supposed to give him life and to raise him from his falling. Everywhere many people are called Christians and where You are not there by the man's spirit of humility, they stay under You name, but they do not seek Your face in them, since they show partiality to one another for their stature in them. However, You will overcome, child God, and You will gather together those who are humble in their spirit and great with their life and mercy, those who have mercy on You and not on them, and not on the man who keeps You lower than him before You, for the man has no fear of God by his nature and he is anxious because of the part of his nature. I teach Your people, dear Son, to love You more than man so that he may not commit sin against You and against man like many who say that they are Yours and commit this sin.

Oh, people of my Son, the Word! If you wanted to take in with your wrong brother, the one who is rebuked and given over to instruction and to prosperity in humility, then you give him power to fall down, for in order that the man may stay with the Lord, as he is and not as the Lord wants, it does not mean that he stays and that he is this, but it means that the Lord takes away his helm, and then the man's life is threatened, for woe to the man who does not always have a teacher over his life, always a helm to the Lord over his steps on the earth! I teach you the work of life, the work of humility for life, people of the word of my Son! The greatest work between earth and heaven is the work of life. This is how the Lord your God, my Son, has told you today. It is worked by the spirit and not by the flesh, and it is worked by the body through the leading of the spirit, and there is no other kind of saving work over you, people called at the work of life, for without a spirit of humility in everything there is no way to life. Get used to want more and to receive the spirit of teaching abundantly, for humility is nothing but the receiving of the instruction, people led from heaven on earth. My son has given you guidance because He loved you. If you also love Him, then stay under a guide, loved and very much taught people; stay under the teaching of life all the time over your life, over the motion of your mind, of your heart and of your body; stay as the Lord, your God and mine stays under the work of the Father, as the real child stays. Love the life without death and do not stay without a guide over your life, for the life without death in man is the life always under the guidance, always tested, always watched in order to be, always prompted to speak, and the life is not supposed to keep silent, people of my Son, the One giving of life.

However now, Lord and Master of life, let us give blessing over the day of my feast among the saints and among them, and then we will teach them again. Let us also give them the word to speak with Us and for Us, and We to rejoice over their table with Us and to look at how much life they have got in them, to how great work of life they have got among them before You. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head but in the midst of this people of My word, and I want to make the fruit of his faith into its midst, the work of life, the fulfilling of My word upon him, mother. Amen.

I bless your feast with the heaven, Jerusalem of today, and I want you too to bless it with your heart and word. Give Me further, My people! Give Me further to one another, sons nourished from heaven, and show Me that you work the work of life, and show it to Me how you work it. My mother, the Virgin, has left today on earth word with power of life and fulfillment. Learn from it, and it will be seen if you have learnt, but always, always seek the work of the guide upon you, which puts your growth to test and life within Me and then My life within you.

Open to the Lord over your life, My people, and do the work of the Holy Spirit, and those who work with the Spirit in your midst are My comfort, those who have mercy on God and those you should follow. Amen.

The work of the Spirit is that which I use from you, Jerusalem, for the Spirit is the One Who gives life. He, who works with his hand, let him not become conceited before those who work with the Spirit. Make room to the Holy Spirit and His glory among you. While you work with the hand let the Holy Spirit not keep silent, let you not be devoid of spirit, and the face of the Holy Spirit is the heart's humility and its warmth for God in man. Amen.

Be disciples of the Lord! Do not belong to your body and only that, sons grown up with manna from heaven. Consider how much you belong to yourselves and how much you belong to the Lord every day and every night, and let the Lord have His share abundantly with you, and it will be gathered in Me and it will make you the heirs of it. Amen.

Oh, people of the heavenly teaching, learn and learn again the work of life and work it as well. It is not from the body. Teach your spirit to overcome the body, My people, and you will be victorious over the body and will have life, and you will have God from abundance, and you will comfort Me with your life, you will stay before Me with fruit of life, and I will give Myself over through you to those without life, and then you will have the reward of My disciple, for worthy is the working disciple for his reward. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, My mother, I have spent with your feast into the midst of the people of My word. I want it to have a life under guidance. The one who listens to God out of love, that one has got a humble spirit and that keeps any temptation away from him, any trouble, for the spirit of obedience brings into the man's heart the humility protecting of his soul, mother. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am always after you with My sight and care. If I advise you, you should be obedient with love, to fulfill My advice as a son, to exhort one another to the fulfillment of My word, and do not overlook it, for obedience gives you the sweet spirit of the heavenly humility and it strengthens your power and love of faith, which you need so much on My way with you, My people.

And now, I strengthen the blessing over the new work in the garden of the meeting. I have dwelt with you under the new shelter, I with My saints in this celebration for My mother, the Virgin. I want, My people, to be always able to tell you all I have to work and fulfill with you. I want you not to doubt that you are a small people and that you do not have power. You shall not rely on your power for My fulfillments that are declared upon you. You shall be faithful to Me that I may be able to tell you all I have to work with you and to fulfill, for I have prophesied upon you, that around the little garden in which I become word and its glory, I will adorn with you a string of pearls and I will glorify Myself in them, and I will make My places with you sweet and heavenly and I will adorn them and I will also strengthen your vigor for those that I have to work and fulfill with you and through you, and I want you to be obedient so that I may tell you without any heart-ache about My works with you, for you have to work much for My glory with you, which gives you then all the help for your life.

I bless with much and holy love the new pavilion in which I have stayed with you today for the celebration for My mother the Virgin and where I, with My heaven of saints, have rested and fed on My word, My people. My word is a table of the saints upon you and the saints have put their holy blessing upon this pavilion now, and we will call them by the word the day of its sealing and heavenly protectors upon it, for to any work and to any of its visible work, when I work with you, I give it then protecting angels and I give it a name. Amen.

However, My people, when you receive the word to fulfill from those who stand before you on My behalf, you should not say that you listen to them, but you should rather believe that you work for Me and fulfill if they are My word, and this is how you will be faithful and in obedience and you will be embraced by My heaven of saints for all My saints have loved obedience to God on the earth, working with God and not having other kind of obedience, My people.

Oh, mother, let us fulfill all the word of Our feast with them and let Us still give them power for the fulfilling of My will in them and with them, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, my Lord and my Son! You, by Your endless humility received a body from my body in a holy way and You clothed Yourself within a human nature and You let Yourself be whipped by the man, but it is so hard for the man to worship with humility before Your humility, Lord. All those who were and are injured on the earth, because of their lack of humility, they were and are tested, for the man cannot easily humble himself, but only if he is put to test.

Oh, people of the teaching of my Son, all the pride of the man is crushed before God's humility and the man does not know this mysterious work, which covers him from the God of mercy, the One Who saves many souls, humiliating them by the power of His humility, which searches the man so that he may not perish. The man of the human pride does not come to humility but only by God's mercy for the man, for the Lord received a human nature and has taught the man his elevation to God by His humility and then by His love.

Oh, sons of my Son, be decent for the face of the humble spirit in you has to be seen well and to refresh around the Spirit of God, the Lord's dwelling with you and among you. Be gentle and humble like my Son. Do not stop learning to work that way. Do not forget that this is what you have to work among you before my Son, your Lord. The work of life is the work of humility, that with so much teaching upon you. Be decent. Moreover, I do not give this exhortation only to those who are decent among you. But more than that, I also tell this to those who are less attentive and used to the beauty of propriety, as my beauty was, a heavenly beauty in man, from which the love and the longing for the spirit of the holy obedience come, and for a blessed life, children of the heavenly teaching. You are the sons of the teaching coming down from heaven upon you and you have to look like the rich fruit of the word, which teaches you, for the one who is much taught by God owes God for the teaching of the life, for the beauty of the life which is pleased in heaven and on earth. The work of life, this is what you have to look for, and you should come before the Lord with guidance for it, to be decent and comforted for those from heaven that come with the Lord at the table with you, listening together with you to the word of life. May my feast with you in a new pavilion be blessed, for my Son and the host, which walks with Him, have come in the garden of the meeting and they comfort you with the saints for the fulfillment of this beautiful and sweet pavilion. And the Lord will come down in it with the host of His coming and He will reward you with His love, for the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head to come, and He comes to you and blesses His places with you and He is glorified on the earth with you, teaching you His gentle and humble Spirit. Amen.

Oh, Lord and my Son, I have exhorted them to take upon them Your gentle and humble Spirit, to be like You and to be Yours. I have taught them to behave properly before them and outside of them for a holy behavior among them and among the sons of men, who see them and know them as Yours. And You will seal my teaching upon them and will give them power for its fulfillment, for Your humility is Your power and Your godly victory over those who listen to You for it. Oh, only if the man would want to look at You and learn, Lord! Oh, if the man would look at Your humility when he falls down exalting himself like a man, for elevation is human, and humility is divine, oh, Lord full of humility on earth and in heaven. Oh, bring the man to a heavenly beauty and heal him from his spirit and give to him from You, for You can, Son Lord. I ask You with the spirit of a mother to have mercy on all those who wander away, Lord Son. Give them the power to become children-sons to listen to God on earth, child God, and to receive in them Your Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother! I want, through the learned people, to shine with My brightness among those on the earth, mother. That is why I teach and always exhort this people, mother. And now, remain within the spirit of My comfort, for you are My mother and you are in the midst of the host of My coming with the saints, mother. Let the Spirit of comfort among Us be teacher over My people, mother, and let it work this way before Me and before one another the work of life, My mother. Amen.

Oh, people led by God from heaven and from the earth! Be refreshed with My Spirit and go into flames with Him and for Him and work His humility into your midst, and then let brother with brother work the work of life. Amen. Share Me among you, sons, and give Me power to stay with You and give Me life among you. You should not able to stay without Me. You should fulfill this obedience and you should have decency for it. Do not pass over My word without fulfilling it. Leave before any worry the care of the fulfillment of My word and of the Holy Spirit among you. Be obedient sons. Again and again I tell you: do not overlook the work, which you have to fulfill. Come to Me as sons of obedience and stay under My blessing in obedience, sons. Amen.

Oh, people that are guided, My glory[48] into your midst is My word and your obedience to it and its fulfilled work by which I call you My son. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-08-2006

The feast of the beheading of Saint John, the Baptizer

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the Lord, Jesus Christ. The Father has sent Me and I do not come on My own. I have become word over the earth and I have become book. I do not speak from Myself, but from the Father, and I am the will of the Father Sabaoth on the earth and in heaven, among people and among saints. Amen.

I come to you as word with a feast of saints, people of My word of life giving. I come to you to rejoice the saints, for those who call themselves sons of the kingdom of the heavens standing in a place known as holy, do not give forth the fruit of the kingdom, and I take it from them and I give it to those who produce the fruit of its works, as I said two thousand years ago that I would do. Amen.

Oh, My Father Sabaoth, I am Your Son suffering from man. Only You comfort My sighing and the sighing of My saints, for You are Father. The man speaks about Us with a spirit of pride and he pretends to be a son of the kingdom of the heavens in a place known as holy among people, but the people do not know, poor of them, that the sons of the kingdom of the heavens are those who have in them the spirit of repentance and its fruit, Father. Two thousand years ago, since John came out from the wilderness to preach to the Jewish people for the spirit of repentance, he was saying that the kingdom of the heavens had come near and many of those who heard him prophesying and calling to repentance were coming to him and were baptized with water, but to those who were not bringing forth the fruit of repentance, he was bringing them into the open as some who were running away from God's wrath, and not because they had come closer to the spirit of repentance and to its fruit afterwards.

I sigh with the saints, Father, and My sigh is from You not from Myself. As two thousand years ago, I have looked now after the man to draw him to You and not to Me, and the people do not know the spirit of repentance for their forgiveness, Father. Oh, My Father, let Us give the wisdom from above to the man, Father, for the man is from below and he gathers from below, and the man does not know his path, Father. For fifty years I have been staying with a table of word on the earth now, in the end of the time, but the man hardly learns to sit at Our table, at Our table with Us, Father, at the table of the kingdom of the heavens, My Father. I long after the man with fruit of repentance in him, and I want to help the man, oh, Father. Amen, amen, amen.

[48] See the selection topic: „The glory of God", r.n.

– Oh, My sweet Son, how shall I comfort You, how shall I comfort You? Oh, when shall I have You without pain from the man, My sweet Son? For seven thousand years I have been waiting for Your joy and rest, as a merciful Father and suffering from Your pain, but the man has got no mercy on God, Son Who are consumed with longing like Me, the Father. We are consumed and We wait sighing, like the saints who accompany You in Your coming down on the earth to man. When John came out to announced that You had already come in order that the people of Israel could receive You, those who were rulers over Israel were so haughty in their spirit, and the taste of repentance could not touch Israel due to its sins and its alienation from God, and Israel had considered You as the One Who was disturbing its peace and it blamed You and then it crucified You on the cross, My Son sent from heaven down to the earth after man. Then We had nothing to do but only to sigh and to be little, bearing in Your tormented body all the atonement of the man's guilt, who knows nothing else but to sing in his own body so that the Lord may not have room in him, Son without shelter in man on the earth. Then John came out and let the people know about You, and now You have come Yourself and announced Yourself with the saints by doing the will of the One Who sent You then and now, for You have listened to Me, dear Son. Amen.

Oh, people of My Son, the Word! You should know that if it is by the spirit of repentance that the man comes to this spring of life giving, then the man knows to bring forth the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens, but if he comes to escape the reward of his sins not working out repentance in his spirit, one like that has not got to the work of the kingdom of the heavens, the work, which has its fruit in man and then outside of him.

Oh, people led by My Son in His coming with His saints! The Romanian homeland is the Lord's homeland, the homeland of My Son's second coming on the earth, as I, the Father, have sent Him. The whole earth, far and wide, will hear and understand soon that the Romanian homeland is the heavenly homeland, the homeland of the Lord's saints, for My Son will overcome for its glory, for its renewal, and those who will be in it will bring forth fruit from its midst, the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens, and God will be comforted, for His fruit will comfort Him. Amen.

Oh, people, who listen to the voice of My Son on His second coming on the earth! Let it be known over the earth; spread the book of the Lord on the four cornersso that those who will sanctify themselves for the Lord and for the heavenly homeland, the homeland of His coming with the saints on the earth, may yield fruit worthy of repentance. Do not doubt of this fulfillment. The voice of the kingdom of the heavens is the word of My Son, with which the heavenly homeland and its glory into the midst of the earth have prepared. Amen.

Oh, Romanian country! I, Father, exhort you to repentance, to the work of the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens into your midst. Receive the love of My Son, which becomes word on your hearth. The Lord has been working for fifty years at your garment for your coming and for the glory of your Lord. The Lord is in you as word, for He has chosen you to be the heavenly homeland on the earth, and I, the Father Sabaoth, crown the Truth, My Son, the Word into your midst, and I say: the word that is upon you is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased, and I teach you with the spirit and with the word of father: listen to the voice of My Son and fulfill it, to His glory and yours. Amen, amen, amen.

– I have listened to Your love for the country of My coming with the saints, Father Sabaoth. I have called out in it and My saints and I have given the news of the kingdom of the heavens upon it. I have come into it preparing its glory, but few wake up to take Me in them with My calling.

However, I will give them a new heart, and then they will look to find the wisdom of My word and they will sanctify for the fruit of repentance, the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens, Father, and the mystery of the heavenly homeland will be fulfilled on the earth according to Your word and Mine, My Father. Amen.

– And I confess, too, Lord. I cry too, as two thousand years ago. Then I called out to the people of Israel to repent for the kingdom of the heavens, with which You were coming to it, and now I have called out to the Romanian people to come to repentance, to come to heavenly fruit and then to its greatness according to Your will. Amen.

John, the Baptizer, has called you, Romanian people. Your homeland is the heavenly homeland, because the Lord has become the word of His second coming from the Father on earth. Let those who preach in you the name of the Lord not speak to each other about the Lord within a spirit of haughtiness, but within a spirit of repentance instead, showing to each other the way with the joy of humility on it, to a spirit of repentance and to the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens then, and if they do not work that way, behold, the kingdom of the heavens will be taken away from them and it will be given to those who produce its fruit, and those who become proud under its name will remain naked and their shame will be exposed. Amen.

Oh, repent from your life without God in its works, Romanian people, and clothe yourself within the garment of cleanness and stand before the Lord, humbling yourself under the glory of His coming to you, to your clothing and to the land's on which you live, for the Romanian homeland carries in it the mystery of the heavenly homeland, and you will see the fulfillment of this word, for the spirit of repentance and the spirit of the prophecy wants to wake you up now and to renew you, country of the Lord from the end of the time. Amen.

And as for you, people of God's word, open your wisdom with more yearning and set down in the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens before those who receive from you the word of life and of the kingdom of the saints on your land. Show the Lord's glory, spread it all over as I preached it, and humble yourself by the spirit of repentance and by God's rod, which sets you within its fulfillment. Let the Lord's book be your rest, your rod and waking and to those who take it from you for their repentance and to the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens in them. Stay being obedient to your Lord, people nourished from heaven, for your obedience will be the Lord's victory and then your comfort and His rest. Amen, amen, amen.

– Behold, the voice of John who baptizes the spirit of the man in the spirit of repentance and of the holy faith. I, the Lord, am preached by the saints, and the Father confesses Me as His Son into the midst of the host of the saints of My coming, for the host of the saints walk with Me, as it is prophesied to be. Amen.

Oh, people taught by the spirit of My coming, by My word, which waits on the earth for its fulfillment! The mystery of the heavenly homeland starts with you, from this earth, on which I set and establish according to My will. Take care of the teaching into your midst to be of one kind. You should teach each other the same kind of teaching, for the Lord is One. The people of Israel was haughty because it knew the people of God on the earth, but you, little people, always remain in a spirit of repentance, and it will help you to stand and to be. I exhort you through those who are My word into your midst to receive wisdom from the Scripture, but you should not take alone. Take and learn to be and to be able to work, for you have to be the new work, the new dough, that which is full of the fruit of the heavenly teaching and which gives you an honored face and its fulfillment, My people. Stay at the mouth of the spring of the teaching that flows through those who teach you like Me from your midst, and drink if you stay there so that you may never drink afterwards, and then to be, and to be fulfilled and to learn, for only the one who is accomplished by education, only that one learns, only that one is, and he who does not know to learn and one like that is not and cannot work with the Lord.

Behold, I have worked with you the word of the feast of today, My people. John, My baptizer, was the way of My coming with the host of the saints. I have also strengthened you for My kingdom that is upon you, and John exhorted the people to repentance and urged you to the wisdom of the kingdom of the heavens, for you have this work given from God, and its fruit has been waited by the host of the saints, who have come to My table with you and eat of it. The saints look at you and wait for you, people of My coming. Oh, do not forget about the beautiful spirit of repentance, Jerusalem. Exhort one another through it to the fruit of the heavenly kingdom, which comes to you to keep you within it. Let us strengthen one another: We from you and you from Us, for the heaven full of saints wait with longing for the heavenly homeland and for its kingdom. The heavenly kingdom is the mystery that is upon you in all its beauty, in all its mystery, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-08/11-09-2006.

The feast of the birth of the Lord's Mother

I announce Myself at the gates that I am coming as word on the earth. I am the Lord.

Open to Me, you gates, so that I may come as word into the book and to feed with it those who have sat at the table of My coming with the saints, now, in the end of the time. Amen.

I lay on the table a day of feast among the saints of My mother, the Virgin. All the saints have waited for the day of My descent to you with feasts, but you should also wait for them to feed your spirit on them and to give to those who wait from you the food of My word, the true comfort of the life, children who give the Holy Spirit Who has come with Me from the Father to the man. There is no knowledge in man on the earth to know how to love you for Me, children sons, but My saints have you as My treasure among people and they comfort your labor under which I, the Lord, have established you for you and for them, and they have protected you from the blows which strike you, for the man is full of his worries on earth, and the worries are from the world and are not from heaven and they separate the man from his care of the Lord. The worries of life are those who cause misunderstandings among people, and when I walk to visit the man between man and man, the man is not used to be asked of his living with God on earth, of God's living in him, and the man does no longer know which is his time for his care, and which is the Lord's time for the care of God, and the Lord waits for the man's living within the Lord, and this is what the saints have been waiting from man, that is living in the Lord, children sons.

Behold, I lay a table of feast on the earth, a table of word for the celebration of My mother, the Virgin, My people. The days of My coming with the saints are at the height and many feed themselves with the spirit of My word of life giving, but most of all My saints and My angels rejoice and feed themselves, all the heavenly hosts, the witnesses of My descent, and I call the man to the Father and to Me, for this time has come once with My coming. Amen.

Oh, My mother, We come with your feast in Our new pavilion, mother. Not long ago, I have blessed the whole work that is to come out for the adornment of the garden of the meeting, mother, and I would have liked to speak a sweet word, a powerful word for the coming out of this pavilion and then for the disciples, working of Holy Spirit, who are gathered together in it for the feasts with the saints, mother, but the number and the power of those who are little on whom I rely, have made Me work mysteriously so that I may bring this coral into view, mother. I speak mysteriously to those in the gates, and they work according to My word and wisdom and then with the protection of My word over them they organize the things beautifully set, worked and then taken care of on My new land with them, for I renew the earth and the man with them, mother. I would let them know about the day of the sealing and sanctifying and that of the holy calling over this sweet pavilion, but I look at the power and the stature of My little people and I bow, for I am God, mother, and those who carry Me into the midst of My people bow too, for My time with them and through them has been hardly understood, mother. The man does no longer know what it means his time for his own care and what it means the Lord's time with him for the Lord's care and for his living in the Lord and for the Lord, and I work mysteriously and I get through the man's worries and I do My work, mother.

You, the saints of My coming with the heavenly hosts, sit down in My new pavilion with Me and with My mother, the Virgin, for her feast in heaven and on earth. We are sitting at a table of word. I, the Lord, am the One Who set the food on the table. Take and eat together with the sons of My people on earth among people. This mound, which I, the Lord, adorn again and again at My fulfilling word, is the pasture for the saints on the earth. Sit down! Amen.

And now, oh, My mother, you shall be their feast, and for My people small in number and power you are to be its counsel, its exhortation and strengthening of the heavenly things for it, mother, for you are their feast, My mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– You, with Your saints, Lord Son, at the table of holy feast, of holy time with Your people of today.

Oh, neither You, nor us, Your saints, are able to have rest in the rest of the heavenly homeland as long as there is man who commits sins on the earth in his own body to the advantage of the devil in such a way that the devil may have his kingdom against Your kingdom in man and on the earth, Son, little Lamb slaughtered because of the man's sins[49]. However, we, those from heaven, wait within scalding tears in heaven and on earth for the time of the removing of the sin of the earth that are in man and then the heavenly homeland will be fulfilled in all its mystery and it will be a new rest forever, my dear Son. Amen.

Oh, little and tiny people of My son! I become exhortation upon you and I give it freely to you and I teach your birth always of my Son. The one who is not born from above, that one is not from above, but rather he is from beneath and is from man, and the one who is from beneath is like man and not like God. The one who is born from above, that one is like God then and he lives on the earth as one who is born of heaven, and that kind of man does no longer resemble the man. This is how you should also live on earth before the Lord, your God, and you need to be heavenly and not earthly, and you should always stay in the Lord, under the word of those who always, always, bring into your memory those from the heaven inside of you and outside of you and between brother and brother.

Your feast among brothers should always be as in heaven, you, those who were born once and then always of the word of my Son, Who wants to keep you always within the little swaddle of the new born babies, so that you may not be fleeting on the earth, but to be eternal instead. Behold, I exhort you to a heavenly living in you and among you, between you and the Lord, the same as the Lord dwells between Him and you when He becomes word from the Father upon you. I have always taught you the mystery of the heavenly love, and the one who lives it then is that one who perceives it, and then, the one who perceives it is that one who lets himself be seized by it and within it whenever it opens itself to comprise the one who wants it to be with him. Let the worries of life not press down upon you. You should rather live being prompted by the love from above, and the one among you who does not live that way, it means that he cannot work for love, but he can only work for the worries of life. Let that kind of man be humble and let him be attentive lest he may strike and inflict damage on those who have in them the love from above; however, on the contrary, let them serve those who live under the burden of the heavenly love on the earth. The man, who out of his nature is discontent in his mind and heart, always has to struggle not to go wrong around himself by his things, because his discontentment would no longer let him be cleansed by humility and repentance from his mistakes and to be forgiven on earth as in heaven, but it would rather justify him, for this is how it is the bad work of discontentment in man and which brings the man for himself to judgment against another man, and woe to those who are used to this darkness of the spirit of judgment and of his wickedness and which puts my Son down from the throne of mercy and of the judgment of all things! The gate of the Lord is justice. The Lord comes through it on the earth to the man, and through it the man can pass with his causes to the Lord, but the Lord's justice, the Lord's gate is for those poor in spirit, and it is for those who deny themselves and then learn to offer their lives to the Lord and follow Him on the earth, and walk in the way of righteousness.

[49] See the selection topic: „What defiles a man, what enters or what comes out of him? ", r.n.

I teach you the mystery of the heavenly love. See that you may not fall away from it. See that you may not get used to live without it. The human spirit in you wants to occupy your mind and wisdom with the things of the worries of life, but the love from above struggles for you and speaks to you as to some children and it always speaks to you with a heavenly voice this way: pass from body into spirit, always breaking loose the fleshly man who fights in you against the Spirit, and clothe yourselves all the time, at the exhortation from above and in that which is around you, in the spiritual man, who always, always changes passing from body into spirit, turning from flesh into the spirit and living within the Lord. Let your living between brother and brother be like that among the saints of the heaven. And you should live within the Lord as among those who are the least of the saints, for among those who have been comprised within this work of my Son's coming to the man, as the Teacher, few of them have been spiritual, very few of them have understood the mystery of the heavenly love and most of them have struck with their weak mind, with their fleshly dough, and they have always inflicted damages on the Lord's way to the man, the man's path to God for the fleshly ones have no mind, and knowing God, they do not know Him at all and they do not receive Him among them either.

I leave you under the heavenly love now. I leave you within a feast with the saints for I will speak again to you about those who have not wanted to strengthen the Lord's way of His coming down on the earth, but, on the contrary, they have wanted to put obstacle into it so that it may no longer be, so that the Lord may no longer come with His kingdom to the man. Sing now a song of praise and come near through it to the mystery of the heavenly love among brothers and then confessing it before the Lord for you and keeping yourselves in the swaddle for the newborn babies so that you may no longer be fleeting on the earth, but to be eternal instead and that you may not live a passing life, but to live an eternal life[50] instead. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My dear and affectionate mother of heavenly sons! Your heart of My mother does not know in it but only the heavenly dough of the mysterious love, the heavenly love on earth as in heaven, mother. Oh, only if We could establish as soon as possible on the land of the heavenly homeland the heavenly love, mother! The man is stronger on earth, the man who commits sins in his own mind and then in his body, and the heavenly love has to overcome from within Us and from within those who love it on the earth and to establish on the chosen land the face and the brightness of the heavenly homeland, mother. The Romanian land has been waiting for its relief, My mother, and the one who does not receive in him and for him the love from above, that one will receive the justice from above, for God made the heaven and the earth, mother. Amen.

[50] See the selection topic „The mystery of humankind salvation - the mystery of incorruptibility", r.n.

Oh, My people! I have been waiting for your help all the time, for the face of the heavenly homeland has to be like God, without sin, and the land under it has to be a clean table, a holy bed for My saints, and it will be this way, for the Lord prophesies and fulfills. Amen.

Jerusalem, bless the Lord, and give Him fruit of heavenly love and live in the Lord, your God, My people, and learn from Him, so that you may no longer be fleeting on the earth but to be eternal instead. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Now, watchful children in My way, if I have given place to the spirit of feast, accompanied by My word and by that of My mother, the Virgin, We come back into the book, as My mother said, to leave established within it My mourning and My burning from those who wanted to put obstacles into My way after I had taken My trumpet, Verginica, away from among them. (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) During all My time with My forerunner trumpet, I could stay only bowed among those who sheltered My trumpet. Not one of them let Me stay upright like a God, but only bowed. All of them wanted Me to be a merciful God and they did not receive Me otherwise. As One who was supposed to do their wills that they were doing, this is how the people that heard My trumpet voice wanted Me to be, and My trumpet also stayed like Me, that is bowed down, and I was sounding from her as they could allow Me to do it, and I could hardly have room with My truth upon them upon those who were hearing My voice. If I wanted to work them out to make them shine and clean, they were slapping My mouth and My hand and I could not be like a God among them, for they wanted Me to be like man, and My sighing and My waiting for them was smashing against the body of My trumpet, who was also merciful, because of the emptiness out of which they were not able to come out.

Oh, My people of today, when you hear My pain from yesterday and today, quite a long pain, you should let yourself be comprised by Me and by it, for it makes Me suffer and I have no one to share and to bear it with, for the people from the beginning, after I had come down as word fifty years ago, (During the communist dictatorship, r.n.) wanted to have a good time with Me and not a cross like Mine, and I carried the cross of the time alone and I always mourned in the body of My trumpet Verginica, and My sighing made her suffer and I had no one on earth to comfort her with under My heavy cross. Then I brought near Me and near her those from far away, those that then were My least ones, on whom I have relied today for My coming, and I prophesied for them, and then I warmed Myself at the fire of their love for Me and for all My people that had wandered away from God's love and from the obedience of the things from above. Then I had given the word that they might make a shelter near My house and near My people, near My trumpet that they might comfort Me and her in My pain, which hurt her inside, and this is how they did, and then they came close. Their love was My comfort. Their faith was My power then, for I could not find any faith in Me within those who were listening to the word of life from My mouth. I embraced them at My bosom and at My trumpet's, those whom I had recently called near the spring, and there was no love such as theirs in My people Jerusalem then, and I was telling those who were indifferent to Me, I was telling them of My mourning, of My longing, I was telling them that I have not got such love as theirs in Jerusalem, love such as that of those whom I found and embraced at My bosom for their love so that I may get wormed with them and from them, for I am the love from heaven and I am not anything else.

Behold My pain of yesterday and today, for I had no room with My new fruit among those who were listening to the word in My mouth and they did not fulfill it. They hated My new fruit and they stood up to crush it and to put it away and that the Lord may no longer work through those who were faithful and merciful among them, and the way of My work was about to be closed. They tried to make a ford before the river of life so that the Lord may not come to them with the teaching of life; this is what it did those I had been breathing upon them with the mercy of My word for over twenty-five years.

The time had come to take Verginica to the bosom of My heaven with saints and I did not have any standing fruit on which I should have relied with My work after that, because those I had taught, did not learn and did not want to be holy and clean and without sin as those who were born from above had to be, those that belong to the Lord between heaven and earth. And if My trumpet came to Me from pains and through pains, I, the Lord, had to fulfill the spoken word that I would speak to the end. Then, with My power, I raised the sister of My trumpet and I made her into a bridge for Me, and being assisted by her, I passed though the muddy water, which was raised by those who remained as a result of My trumpet in My courts on the earth. This little boat took in it those who were struck by the envy and hostility of those who did no longer wanted to be with the spring of My word upon them, as they, even to these day, have not known to believe in it and have not known how to drink of it, and they have not taken into consideration My commandment of two thousand years ago by which I called them blessed through those who were faithful to Me, saying this*: «Blessed are those for whom I am not a stumbling block». Then I lifted on the bridge those who were faithful, so that they might not be crushed by the waves and I passed through with them, I overcame the storm and its waves by working out My justice for them, for those that were ahead of them near Me gave them over to blasphemy, to betrayal, mocking and contempt, as they did with Joseph who was sold to by his brothers. However, I stood powerfully and with authority before those who wanted to destroy those that I chose in the last time and I destroyed those who wanted to pull My fruit out of the earth with whom I had to go forward with My time and that My way might not be blocked and thus I might not be able to come. Oh, these little of Mine were so much afraid! Oh, how revengeful the devil was against Me and against them with his fears upon them! With what threatening and terrors did they terrify them, for the evil spirit had power, and it had got great power through those full of the spirit of jealousy, who hearing My word upon them, were not able to love its fulfillment, as they were lovers of the flesh and not lovers of God and of those that are My lovers.

Oh, My people of today, My pain was too great in Me and in My lovers, for the evil spirit did not want them and it rose with a lying spirit among the hypocrites who were known by the world as Verginica's people, her people, those who were nicknamed as saints by the world. Oh, My people, the spirit of the lying took then the garment of faith in Me and of the guard for My work and then it blamed before Me, by a hatched lie with a human significance, those who were My feeble ones and then it chased them away and defiled them, and by this and it worked, destroyed My people, poor of it. Look for yourself, My people, have a look now at the body of lie, for this body has grown big, very big, since it has allowed to be much fed by a spirit foreign to God and to God's walking on the earth.

Oh, My people, I cry with mourning into your midst and I cannot get comforted by My mourning. What shall I do, to have room with the spirit of repentance in those who did not want to know how to have mercy on Me, the One Who had remained without a house after I took away My house from among them because of their unbelief in order to put their faith to test for real and to prove them out and the dough in them? I wanted with the whole heaven to bring them too to the fulfillment of the saints and I exhorted them to embrace the holiness without which the man cannot see Me and cannot have Me. However, they had given a bad name to those by whom I exhorted them not to wander away from My way and not to leave Me for their body, but rather to embrace the joy and the peace of holiness. However, they rather called immoral those who did not love sin but God and people; they called them sorcerers and enchanters just as those who called Me that way, and behold how much they had taken after Me, those with whom I appeared to My people, bringing them to it to receive them on My behalf and to take their love and faith as an example and also their faithfulness and conduct and their sweet behavior on My way with them and their mercy for My people full of the spirit of disobedience and disbelief, after that I, the Lord, fed it on the word of My mouth and on heavenly testimonies among them.

Behold the time when I call to repentance those who, instead of taking as their work the fulfillment of My word after the raising of My trumpet to heaven, they took stones into their hands to cover with them those who, behold, I go before with the work of My word, which I release with longing and mourning upon their head, from the clouds of My glory with them, and with which I walk in the sky and speak over the earth and I fulfill My word that was prophesied ahead of time by My trumpet into their midst when it was named My people, drawing Me for this to their wills in order that I have to pay to them and not they to Me, for they are My people. I took care of their shortcomings, for they were poor, just as I chose the house where I came down. I raised a faithful people for Me and I took from it and took care of them in their shortcomings through My Gospel with Verginica on the earth, and they took Me for their debtor because I had taken a vessel from their midst to work with it the earth and the new heaven, now in the end, as these prophecies and promises of Mine are written into the Scriptures over the earth and over the man. If I owe them, then behold, I owe them their forgiveness by their repentance, for they wanted to put obstacles into the way of My coming with which I have glorified Myself on the earth over those who remained with Me after I took My house from among people, because I took Verginica into her house in heaven, if no one was able to appreciate her from Me and from her, not for them as she was when they used her, of My work with her for their bread.

Oh, My people, I help you to understand My pain from those who did no longer wanted to be with Me then, trying to destroy completely the way of My coming after the man from the earth, for they wanted to put obstacles into My way so that it may no longer be and in such a way that the Lord may not come with His kingdom to man. For a long time I have been bearing this pain, My people, and I look with it to those who do not consider in their heart to repent, to be merciful on My face and not on theirs, for theirs is hypocrisy; let them have mercy on My sufferance, for theirs is falsehood; let them be merciful on their eternal life, which cries after them from Me. Let them look at those on whom they blasphemed, at those little ones of Mine, whom I set among them then to help with Myself them for My way, which I could not allow to be obstructed and I have worked hard and with hopeless tears to enlarge My ford with them, for I prophesied that it would be to work very much through My coming in the end. I prophesied in My time with Verginica and I said that the one whom I will find near My trumpet when she will pass the border to Me, to that one I will give to take forward the victory and its flag, and in that moment I found My trumpet into the arms of those who were called My little ones, who embraced her then, and then I, the Lord, fulfilled as I prophesied. Those who opposed Me were looking into My prophecies for the word that was not understood by them, and with which they wanted to close the way of My coming so that it may no longer be. Oh, what shall I do with them, My people, how shall I do? Behold, they are marked in their own body and they do not want to repent confessing their unbelief for their longing of life without holiness in it, unbelief by which they covered the nakedness of their life, like the church servants who do not receive in them My word of today in order to fulfill it. However, I expose them and I want to help them come to their senses, for I still wait for them; I wait for them to wipe My muddy face, for My little ones are today the face of My work on the earth.

The Christians come to heaven, come those who were and listened to this word in their time on the earth, come and cry at the borderline because they were drawn to blasphemy by those who did not want Me to be any longer, to dwell on the earth with the voice of My word, after My house, Verginica, came to be among the saints. Those who were drawn to slander and blasphemy cry at the border of the heaven, and they see those who were blasphemed by them, on the earth, praying for all those who blasphemed and defamed God's voice and those who loved God.

Take care, My people, and learn from Me how to keep away from this evil and unknown spirit with his cunning face, the spirit of envy, the spirit which Joseph's brothers had, the one who was sold by them to strangers in order that they may get rid of them and that they may be big afterwards, after they heard of the God's gift on the Joseph's head, the youngest among them. Your untested mind alone is not able to save you from this spider woven web, My people, and the spider web has to be broken and it does not have to be woven if they spun it, those who used it by their blasphemy and by their warped lie, for My face was not in them and they had no way to conspire from Me in such a way that they may not be caught and thrown into the spirit of the world by their fabrication, which divested them of God's fear and of the punishment for the evil spirit and hostile to them, for they tried to do their own justice against the justice of everything that only I, the Lord, see and know and weigh them heavenly and not humanly, and those who take My place to do what I have to do, they remain without God on the earth.

I have advised you with great love and care, My people, and I have always taught you no to speak two by two any other kind of speaking than that of Mine between brother and brother, and then to be confessed among brothers. I have taught you not to love slander and calumny and not to do any intrigues by your work, for each man needs forgiveness of his mistakes, My people, by not being judged, son. I have told you today that the man who is discontent within his mind and heart that one falls into the fishing rod of another grumbling man, for this is the reward of the grumbling man on earth. I said that that one should struggle not to go wrong against God and against his neighbor, who is the son of God among God's sons, for if that one goes wrong and he hides his discontentment and wrongdoing, then it does not let him cleanse himself from the wrongdoings that he hides, and then to bow to repentance and thus to be forgiven on the earth and in heaven, among brothers, and in God after that. He who has got his mind for himself, that one feeds his heart on it and then his opposition by which he arises and spins a hostile web against Me, without him knowing that this is what it does when it does against the one near him.

Behold, how the mountain of the hatred of brothers rolled down on My godly face then when I was struggling to bind and strengthen My way of coming down on to the earth as word, after I had taken into heaven My house in which I was coming with food for the people, Verginica, who was hated so much by those who were given food at that time, and also like those who were hated by them behind her because I, the Lord, started to lay down on their shoulders My descent after I had established them before Me. I was going from town to town everywhere I was feeding those who heard My word through Verginica, I was going with those that were put by Me and by her before Me for the people further, and I was sounding and gathering those who were formerly My faithful people for My work upon them and which it was gathering them at My table, and My trumpet was speaking with them from near Me, and then the little ones, hired at the work of the sharing of the heavenly word, were gathering the word and were taking it where it was sending to its trumpeting over the people, and those who were murmuring and loving of the flesh, who turned to their trespasses with their life, they were walking behind Me and were tearing down what I was building with the help of My little builders. Those who tried to rise for a great salvation were seeking to draw them to be of one thought with them against Me and against My little messengers, and this is how these were spinning the spider web of their hypocrite faith, rolling down on My face and over My walking from heaven to the earth the mountain of their hate, as those in the time of My body did to Me when I came to release Israel, that which did no longer walk on My way.

My people, take care of you and of Me and learn from Me to keep away from the spirit of unbelief which works out intrigue among those who stand up to their salvation, for look how stricken I was by those who loved themselves and who wanted Me to be after their own will and who could no longer love those who loved Me and helped Me under My cross that was impoverished by My sighing for the man.

Oh, you do not know how to defend yourself, My people. I defend you. I teach you how to get to know My teaching for you. Let the example of your steps, of your mind and of your heart be those that you know from Me and not from them or from the man, and they are those who love Me and fulfill Me, sharing Me and putting Me into the men's hearts to draw the people to the Father and to fulfill this Scripture and that I may overcome through it and not the man, My people. Take care to learn to keep away from spoiling My work with your mind and with the work of your mind, for the wicked example of the unbelief of those who have struggle to put obstacles into My way, is an example not to be followed and from which you struggle to be able to learn what steadfastness, humility, repentance are and to stay within the spirit of God's fear, Who gives each one according to one's deed, My people. Amen.

– Oh, my Son and Lord, I stay with the care of Your mother and as the mother of Your weak people. Please, let me also tell them the wound of Your pain from Your people, which You do no longer have it as the fulfiller of Your word because of those who blasphemed Your steps, which went forward through those who were Your little ones, and which You set before You because they powerfully believed in You, the One Who come and feed with Your voice those who are faithful and holy. Your house is worthy of holiness, but those who filled with the worldly spirit Your house in which You once were coming down in the bosom of Your trumpet, Verginica, they always defiled it and defile it today with those that are hostile to You, Lord of the patience of Your saints. Oh, so aggrieved Son Who are worried for the life of Your small and weak flock! «Your testimonies have come true», as it is written, and they have always come true, for all those who have blasphemed Your way from heaven to earth, now, and Your lovers in it, all those who have struck, they have struck against themselves and anyone can see that it is so, for Your testimonies have come true and testified.

Oh, my Son, Your house is worthy of holiness, but the blasphemers spoke to one another and still speak: «The Lord will not see and the God of Israel will not understand». However, I, as a mother with mercy without margins for Your pain, for Your face stained by those who are grumbling and blasphemers then and now, say this: do understand, you, unwise and foolish from the people! Become wise once and for all! He who made the ear, will he not hear? He who formed the eye, will he not see? He who punishes the nations, will he not rebuke?

Oh, happy is the man whom You will rebuke, Lord, to teach him Your law. This is how I ask from You for those who have blasphemed and have not repented by humility and nor got up to raise the unbelief from those who walk lamely through it from Your way as a result of the blasphemy of those who blasphemed. Oh, if they were more righteous through what they have blasphemed Your way and Your trumpet and those who had followed it, would it have not been possible for them to prove themselves holy and lovers of heaven with their life on the earth then? However, they went into the world, Lord, they went and do not come back again and do not want to hear when You call them.

Your people is crushed, merciful Shepherd. For such a long time You have been looking with mourning to those who have fallen after You raised Your trumpet Verginica up to You. You were waking Your people up, sounding the resurrection over it, and those who did no longer want You to reign upon them, were tearing down Your building. You wanted to strengthen upon them the staying of Your shepherds then, but they drew them to be one thought with them, making them work unjustly before You and then forget Your words that were prophesied ahead of time to their fulfillment, Lord crushed by those You had mercy on them and who did not rejoice over the birth of Your word, of those whom You brought and put them before You, so that they may not stop from sounding Your trumpet. Oh, how much work they spoiled for You! Oh, how many tears filled Your godly face and the eyes of Your saints when they gave a bad name to those by which You wanted to keep awake too, for the love of the little ones, of those from the last, was and is a great love, dear Son, and their little heart is holy, for Your love in them is also holy, that the blasphemers called it by the name of sin, by a mocking name, Lord humiliated by those who do not have Your love and who lie and plot against Your saints, as it has happened all the time on Your land.

Oh, those whom You taught so much by Your trumpet were not spiritual! Few, few of them understood the mystery of the heavenly love, which I have spoken about today to Your small people. Most of them had always, always struck by the fruit of their mind, by their fleshly dough, and they had always worsen Your way to the man, for the fleshly ones are without wisdom and knowing You do not know You and do not receive You, Son of the Father and mine, Savior Who comes coming to teach the man the way of life, humility, repentance and then resurrection, Lord of the resurrection. Amen.

Oh, children sons of my Son! We have you from the Father. My Son protects you. However, you shall not defend yourselves before the one who does not know what God does with you for the man. Be good. The Lord protects you. Walk with humility. Walk like my Son. Be good and patient, because it is not hard. The Lord has been overcome by man for seven thousand years, for humility has remained only for God, little children. Now it is much word upon you and upon the people and the Lord's suffering is great and much for the people lost on its way, and Verginica, His trumpet is full of longing to comfort my Son and you, those who always hit around Him, hit like Him, for who hits you hits my Son, and he puts Him down not you. Verginica waits for another day of holy word, that she may also comfort my aggrieved Son, and you, His aggrieved ones, always suffering and having little power because of the lack of faith of those who love their passing life and their haughty mind by which they plot out of their human nature weakness and pain for those under the heavy cross of my Son.

Oh, people that are shown mercy and fed from heaven! Keep away from the dough of the Pharisees and learn this obedience from the Lord, so that He and you may enjoy on His way with you. Keep away from doing like Peter, the disciple of my Son, who because he followed Him, wanted the greatness He had, tempting Him in regard with the one who was embraced with Him, concerning John, the loved one of the soul of my Son.

Oh, rejoice within humility, favored people, and seek after the mystery of the heavenly love, which does not ask for itself but only for the Lord. Turn your heart into a holy house. Let you have dough from God in it, for the house is worthy of holiness, people of the teaching from heaven. Amen.

Oh, set my teaching with power in it among Yours, Son God, and may Your people be a son so that it may have a Father, a Master and a spring of the heavenly love in sons and among sons. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My affectionate mother! I look at My trumpet, Verginica, and give comfort over her wound, which has been endured by her for such a long time among those in heaven. She was comforted when you said that We would come to speak for those who struggled then to put obstacles in the way of My coming as word to the people, working the sin of blasphemy against those whom I pulled under My cross. She stays and waits again for My entrance into the book to sound the trumpet from near Me too and to speak out her long and heavy sighing over those in heaven who mourn with her because of her pain, and for which she waits for relief and comfort. Amen.

Oh, My people, on the earth the man is stronger than I am, but I, the Lord, wait for the heavenly love to overcome between heaven and earth. The earth has been waiting for its relief from the sins committed in the man's mind, body and heart, and the one who does not receive the love from above, that one will receive the justice from above, for God made the heaven and the earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-09-2006

The feast of the devout Parascheva

I bow from heaven down to the earth to do the will of My Father Sabaoth, as in heaven so on earth, for My Father always, always wants Me as Teacher upon man. I bow as a great God and glorified by all the heavenly hosts, for the one who is glorified bows to thank for his glory. Amen.

The gates have lifted up and I am coming in as word in My book of today on the earth, and I have come in. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, watchful children before Me when I come as word in My fold and of My people of today! I, together with you, always have to teach this people, and it has to listen, to become the Father's will on earth as in heaven; his ear always, always has to be open to instruction, for woe to the one who is not always, always taught by a teacher, because that one does his will, and one like that does not belong to anyone.

The man has to be ministered by angels and his life does not have to be otherwise. However, if he does not have a teacher upon himself, he has not got ministering angels either, but rather he has got only his will of master over him, and with it he tells to himself all that he wants and does.

Behold, children with a sigh within you like Me, I cannot have the man as My son, for I listen to My Father, and I do only what He tells Me, that is what I do, and I walk with My Father as a Son, and I inherit His love and power in heaven and on earth, near Him and near the man, and I am ministered by angels, for I am submitted to God Father, but the man cannot work until he first does his will, poor of him, and he has hidden from God from the very beginning in order to do his will. From the beginning, the man has not been able to understand what God with him has meant, and what he with God on earth has meant either, for he who does his will, that one does not know what God near man is, and he does not know how God has to be worshipped. I would like, children sons, that the man may understand My will on earth. I want the man to understand that he needs a father on earth if he wants to be a son. I look on the earth to see and I do not see anything else but only the man who does his will, from his going to bed to his getting up, and from his getting up to his going to bed, and I do not see the man working something else for the benefit of God on the earth and over the man. My trumpet said this by her word: "Those who have their will, they perish by it," and I also said to her that there were only two ways out of which the people, fed for fifty years on My word upon it, could have chosen, in order that I may make into My son, to have a father that one who believes that there is God in heaven and on earth for the man who wants to have God as his Father. The time has come to speak with the voice of My word far and wide on the earth that the man who does not do God's will on earth, that one does not belong to God, but he belongs to the devil instead, which makes the man do his will and that the man may not be God's son on earth. No one can call God "Father" if he does not have the work of the son with a teacher upon him. I spoke to My disciples to preach Me on to the nations of the earth and I said this: «He who listens to you, listens to Me and the One Who has sent Me, and he who denies you, denies Me and denied the One Who has sent Me after the man». The man needs salvation from the death he has drawn upon himself by this pulling out of God for his own will, and he needs to listen to Me for this salvation from death. If I, being God, stayed and stay only in the will and the word of the Father, how should the man work now, after that, for such a long time he has not listened to the One Who made the man in the beginning? I made the man out of God's will and I did not make him otherwise.

Behold, the people having been fed with this word for fifty years has perished because of the lack of wisdom, if it has perished, and I do not want to hear the man say that he has got wisdom; I do not want, since the man does not have in him and upon him the fear of God, which will make him a son obedient to God. There cannot be wisdom in man and on the earth greater than the obedience to God, and he who does not love it as his own life, that is a son of the vanity, which is upon the people who do their will, and My trumpet said: "Those who have their will, they perish by it."

Oh, no man can dedicate Me anything beautiful in him if he does not have a teacher from heaven upon him, for I told the man from the beginning, that it is not good for the man to be alone. The one who is alone does not work according to the exhortation upon his life. From his beginning with Me I have wanted the man to be only under My counsel, and when he has no longer wanted that way, he has hidden and lost God, as a result, if he has worked that way.

Every man who hides within himself with his good and bad things loses God, My people. And behold, every man hides from God. Oh, My people, every man hides. The man cannot anything else but only his will first. The one who does not sanctify God in him, that one puts the Lord down for his own will, for one like that does not have other love in him and cannot do the will of the Father Creator. The man leads his love according to his heart, according to his flesh and the man does no longer have a teacher for his love, and it leads him far away from God and to the temptation of not having a teacher of life over him to ask him always about his life, about his love, if that is in the image of God and after God's likeness in man or after the man, and behold, the man does not know what death is so that he may know after that what his life means and how he is able to have life in him.

I have become Teacher upon you, man without heaven in your life, and I tell you this: there are two ways out of which the man can chose one: submission, which is on My right side, and the free will, which is on the right side of the man. Submission is My work and with it on My right side I do God's will, the Father, for I am His Son, and the one who loves it as his wisdom, that one choose Me for his right side and stays under My teaching and becomes a son, like Me under God's will, the Father; and the free will, which is on the man's right side, is the man's work without a father from heaven on him, and that one has the devil as his father, the spirit of emptiness, the cunning seed, which separates man from God, for the spirit fallen from glory in the beginning is envious against God as its food, after what this spirit lost its glory near God by its disobedience.

Oh, man without a helm over your steps! Hear Me! Hear Me when I speak to you to wake you up for the spirit of the wisdom of obedience, for the wisdom of obedience has made so many people, big and small, holy and beloved by Me, people who have given their possessions to the poor that they may deny themselves and to become My dwelling place on earth, and they do not share their richness and their earnings with the thought to become haughty before Me with their good works, but they have done so because of their self-denial and for their deliverance from the burdens so that they may be without any burdens and to be able to receive Me in them with the wealth of My love and of My obedience of the Son of the Father Sabaoth. No rich man shares his wealth with those who are rich and who have possession like him, but he rather shares it with those who do not have any possessions, with the poor, that they may get away from the heavy burden of the self-love, which enslaves the man so ruthlessly. I work the same and I share the wealth of My glory with those who are poor in their spirit, to get rid of My burden, that heavy burden of My love for the man, which presses Me so ruthlessly when I do not have anyone to give it, when I have no one to share with, when I have no one to set it on to be shared and loved, and to serve the man for his life and that he may serve Me on My right side, for obedience is on My right side, the way with God. Amen.

I am the way, man! I and not you! Do no longer wrap yourself up with those around you. Bow down to hear the spirit of My teaching, with which I shake Myself over the earth that every man may hear Me, for I share Myself with those who share Me and who are My messengers to you, disciples with a sigh that resembles Mine for the man who has got his free will on his right side, his will for himself, but I remind you again and I tell you: those who have their own will, they get lost by it, and those who have My will, they live and they are. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Good Teacher! In my day of memorial let Your will be done in my will, for my will is to tell Your people of today and of the people from the earth that You are sweet and You are the fruit of the life and You are the will of the saints, who have shared their possessions with the poor so that they may completely have self-denial and to become the dwelling place of Your shining in them, of sweet Teacher, for Your teaching is sweet, but the people swallow their bitterness and do not know what they do when they do so, and they do not have the wisdom of the submission, those who give themselves over to their wills. I was a female disciple having a sigh like that of Yours and I wanted longingly for the self-denial to sit on Your right side for submission, for Your will in my will, and I has remained on earth an example of Your holiness and love in my body, in my soul and in my spirit, and I was a teacher for the man by those that were pleased in me to Your will, and I did not want You to write me in heaven for any of the good works, but only for my self-denial and with Your rest in me, for You are the King without a country and without a home if the man does not submit to You to become Your shelter. Your pain is crushed within You and in Your saints, for the man cannot work on the earth until he does his will. Give to Your people of today the wisdom of submission, Good Teacher, that You may always have it as Your Son. Amen, amen, amen.

– This is how I want My people of today to be; to be a son with a Father, oh, My female disciple with a sigh like Mine, for you and all those who have loved the spirit of submission by their self-denial have judged the world, for it is written: «The saints will judge the world», and the world cannot say that it has not got the teaching and the power to do My will.

Oh, children from the gates with a sighing like Mine within the gates! How little you have been seen! I have covered you and the glory of My wisdom in you so that I may have room with you on earth. I want to help many to understand the wisdom of the holy obedience and the emptiness of the free will, and I look down on earth to see and no one knows to see you and My wealth in you for man. I would like to have you always, always, full of power and peace and sweetness to be able to speak with you, and then with My people not only with you, so many words that remain between Me and you and with their deep wisdom for the life and the understanding of the man lost from Me for his own will. I will speak much to this people and to every man and I will try to make many works by the wisdom of the submission, which does not ask for the man himself, because the saints have worked with self-denial and have become submission for God's will and they have always judged the world, which has become its will. I am sweet among those who are sweet for Me, but those who do not become My will, cannot see those who are saints and in whom I live on earth.

I will bring again and again the teaching of the submission and its wisdom, My people, and you should get used to love and to speak like God, so that it may be seen from heaven and from the earth that you are My son and that you stand on My right side, doing the work like that of Mine, loving the wisdom of life, the obedience under My will. Amen.

I have given you My holy mystery, My people, and I say this: the wisdom of the holy submission is the love that is under the cross, people of My mercy. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-10-2006

The of the great Saint martyr Demetrius, the myrrh streamer

I bow from heaven down to earth, and I bow the heaven and I come down with food of word for My heaven, for My saints and for My people in the midst of the world in order to exhort it always with the voice of My mouth, and that it may receive and fulfill as I speak so that it may be My son and I to be its God, for God is the One Who bows to His creature to make it after His likeness and that the Lord may have shelter in man on earth. Amen.

Oh, I have suffered very, very much from the man! The man does not want to become after My likeness. I made the man in My image for I and My Father said: «Let Us make man in Our image, after Our Likeness, and let him have dominion over everything; and God created the man in His own image; in God's image He created him; male and female He created them». (Gen: 1/26, 27)

When I created the man I made him male and female and I spoke to them to be in God's image. Oh, God humbled Himself so much when He made the man and He created him in His image and the man has owed God to be after God's likeness and to be a house for the Lord, for I have built him in order to be My house and then to confess Me and not himself. However, behold My people, I have been comforting Myself for seven thousand years with the angels, who have not got their will but only My will, and then I have got comforted with the saints, who become a dwelling place for Me on earth among people to testify about My and their humility, by which I have had room within them, and that afterwards they may confess their faith in Me, its truth and its power, by which they have put to shame all those who were hostile and unfaithful and they were showing the truth of Jesus Christ, God's Son, the Father, true God from true God.

Oh, My people, after I made the man by My godly hand, he has not comforted Me and thus he has owed to his Creator. The man has owed to be born of God, to be after God's likeness, to be humble like God and not a master over everything and that is all, for the man has dominion over everything that is alive between earth and heaven, but he cannot give life to them and then to feed them as I feed them at their request, for all the living creatures ask for their food from Me and not from the man. Oh, the man does not only have to stay as master, but he also has to become after My likeness, according to My humility by which I created the man after My likeness. The man has to be born of God, as My mother, the Virgin, was born of God at God's word by God's messengers, for the prophet David had spoke ahead of time for her and he said: « Hear, o daughter and see and incline your ear; forget also your people and your father's house». (Ps: 45/10, 45 MT = 44 LXX) And the Virgin became after My likeness and was born of Me, the Word of God, and I was born of her, and We had been a house to each other, and we were God's will to each other, and thus the word from the beginning was fulfilled and a man was born after God's likeness, male and female, born of God's word, for I am born of the Father and I am not created, but I am the Being of the Father, and He is My being, and I and with My Father are of the same being. Amen.

Oh, My people, My work with you is to give birth to man from God and the man is to do God's will, as the saints became God's will on the earth and confessed God before the people, for their faith had power and a life giving spirit in it for them. They become a dwelling place of God and were like Me, and they saw Me and loved Me and confessed Me giving themselves over to people with their word and with the works of their faith. Oh, My people, I am the God of the saints, and the saints are My people on the earth and then in heaven, My people, for the saints are those who confess God on earth and in heaven, because they are born of heaven and they are after My likeness on earth and in heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

– We are Your house, oh Lord, and we were You dwelling place in heaven as on earth, for You have dwelt in us with Your pain for the man who has remained only flesh, Lord. Oh, You do no longer find any man who has wanted to be Your house now, on the time of Your coming with the judgment of the creature, Lord. Oh, You have no longer found shelter in man, for the man wants only happiness, not sufferance, Lord, and You are very, very much aggrieved and You do not find any man to be Your house, but woe to the man who looks after his happiness and again, woe to that one who seeks after his happiness even in Your way when You suffer so much from the man, Lord! We, Your saints, loved to be Your house and not for us, Lord. We confessed You, not us, Lord, and then You exalted us proving to be Your sons, sons after You likeness, Your will, as You are the Father's will. However, how does the faithful man want to be Your son? Does he really believe that he can be God's son if he is not born of God and then to be after God's likeness according to God's humility?

Oh, Lord, oh, Lord, oh, Lord, the faith without Your godly works in man and from man is faith without life, without works, Lord. Your people of today has to make easy the worship of the world for Your name that it has and then the world may say, as the disciple Nestor asked while praying to You, to make him victorious over the unbelief of the pagans in the time of my testimony for Your holy name, for this martyr said this: "God of Demetrios, help me to overcome the paganism."[51] Amen.

Oh, people of the word of the Saint of saints! Stand up powerfully and show your love of bride born of your Bridegroom, Who has given Himself over to you as such a great word for your birth always, always from God. Stand up great, greater than the saints, and be after God's likeness, for the Lord humiliated Himself down to the earth and created the man in His image when He made him. Stay under the spirit of humility, the most powerful spirit, but at the same time also bow down always by this spirit, to be like your Bridegroom[52], Who bowed to make you His bride and the crown of His saints in the time of the end. And You, Lord, do the will of those who become themselves Your will, as we, Your saints, became, and teach the man the spirit and the holy gift of the holy submission, of the holy life by submission, for the holy life in man has no value, if the man has not got a teacher over him, as Nestor, the disciple who was sacrificed for Your name in my time, had as a teacher over him, the power of my faith and my name near Your name, when he confessed himself to the world as Your son by his confession, and behold the good power in God's sons, this is how it works, and it cannot reach to God by other face. Woe to the one without a master on the earth! All Your saints had a master to You on the earth, and they could not do it otherwise for Your name and the work of their faith could not get up to You. Help Your people and teach it and give it power always, Lord, so that it may work like You and after Your exhortation and to be Your son, as You, Lord are the Son of Your Father and God of Your saints. Amen, amen, amen.

[51] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Demetrius_of_Thessaloniki

[52] See the selection topic: „The Wedding of the Lamb", r.n.

– Oh, loved and wonderful confessor! I am the wonderful One within My saints and among My saints. Amen. And now We are sitting at the table of love and celebration of the saints with you, people of My word, and then I go on with My word of today, to speak through it those that I want to speak to you today, for I want to tell you about My order for you for the sanctification and for the marking of the new coral, the pavilion newly built for My word with disciples and over disciples, My people, for My making is with Me and I give it to those who love it and I work this with disciples and through disciples, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I am speaking out now a word of strengthening in watchfulness and love among you and in you for your obedience to God, because the obedience to God is the life with God and it has always been your assurance that you are God's on earth, sons. When God is among brothers by the obedience to God, then the brothers build themselves each other in God, and they do this with the conviction that God is eternal for everything they work and are able to do, for the Lord is the One Who can work, and they are His will and His motion. Amen.

Oh, My people, great and pleased to heaven is the man who does God's will on earth and who knows how God's will comes to him, and how he comes to God's will. This is the kind of love for which much love is needed. Love to love has to be between God and man and between man and God then when the pure love and the pure heart and work are given to God from man for his work of love, and happy is the man who knows and is able to receive teaching from God and who knows how to be pure for God, always given over to God for God's will in him. During all these years of My word upon man, I have always, always been very much hurt since I, the Lord, now in the end, have counseled the one who comes to hear the word of My teaching on man's life and I have been suffering with longing and tears because the called people has not wanted to learn from My teaching on him, and I have spent only in sufferance when I have seen the Christian that again and again he has turned back to his own things, to his nature, to his proud mind, which has not known to dwell in God with confidence. I have worked with crying with the angels and with the saints and I have been waiting for the fruit of My patience, and now I have relied and I lie down with its help with My plan, for I have sons who do not turn their back to My will, and I have always strengthened and taught them so that it may not be hard with My will upon them, but rather they may be full of peace and full of thankfulness because the Lord has given them work at His plan that was prophesied ahead of time, to His will on the earth now, when the man has not looked after God and after what is to remain between earth and heaven, after that all and everything will receive their fruit according to their work.

Oh, My people, I have exhorted you to enjoy a blessed life and with a holy propriety for it before Me and within My dwelling places with you, and this means God's will and the peace of the holy submission between you and Me, the Teacher of your steps. Oh, the man does not come to learn and to receive teaching from Me and then to learn how to be clean for Me, in such a way that the man may always learn My will. However, I have you on the earth and I have always spoken with you, to give My speaking to the man and that he may also know that I do My will upon you and I want you to be in it for Me and for those that will remain, and he who wants to give himself over to Me for My will in him, that one receives this word from you and gives himself over to Me through it and learns through it his obedience to God, which means life with God upon man.

Oh, My people, there are only a few days until I sit down at the table with My word with you and with the angelic hosts, which are My will in heaven above and on the earth beneath. I have to mark and seal with My word the new pavilion, which I have given to you within a great work of mystery to bring it into view, and You have listened to Me. Now let us beautifully, beautifully smooth out everything it has to be polished at the face of this coral, which the chiefs of the angelic hosts want to take into their name and to praise it by your spiritual work in it and to protect it by it, for yours is the spiritual work, and this is what it keeps you in Me and Me in you, and great is the wisdom of those who know to take their work from God upon them, and not from themselves, for they belong to God and do God's will, and there is no stumbling block in them and among them, and behold, this is the mark of those who belong to God in them and among them, and this wisdom is the fruit of My dwelling place in the one who carries Me on earth for the wisdom of those who love My teaching and keep it upon them.

Oh, sons, come all together and all work and organize with wisdom your time which still is until the day of the feast of the angels and refresh your holy powers, which are to give you powers in your body to smooth out sweetly and beautifully everything that is to be polished at the face of this coral which is fulfilled on the earth by Me and by you. Oh, do not doubt and do not hurry. Be sure that I, the Lord, can work in you and from you, and you should make Me sure too that you are My will, which can work in you through Me and not through you, sons. Make beautifully and peacefully and with a heavenly spirit everything that has to be done at the body and spirit of this pavilion so that I may come in it with the angels and to speak out a name upon it and My work in it, for I have set it on the earth with you for My work with My disciples, for I need a holy work from you, more and more holy work between Me and you, for your discipleship with Me needs to have only holy work in its work, only obedience and only making, sons. Amen.

Oh, children who put Me into the book, ask for strengthening from Me upon you and take well into account this weather that still is and stay before your work and have a good and holy order so that all the organizing of your work may go well, which still is to be set on the new pavilion. Refresh the power from above in you and share the work that is to be done, and let us set the day of sanctification and the naming of this coral, for I prophesied ahead of time about all those around the little garden of My word to be and to appear.

Oh, My people, be steadfast in love and in the power of the faith, son, for I rely on you, and your power is from Me and not from you, and we work for one another. Oh, My people, I will come with the saints and with the angels and they will come at the table of My word with you, all those who have been waiting for their resurrection will come. Amen.

Oh, sons, be always, always sons of the holy submission, which can work everything in you, for this is how I worked and work before My Father, and My Father has given Me all the power in heaven and on earth. Take care to be able to have My power in you and to appear always in you and through you with My will, sons. Let us serve one another for God's will on earth, for on the earth there is only man's will, who does not want God to be with him.

Let us work, sons. I refresh you. May My power and your goodwill be blessed in your work with Me for the establishing of the day of sanctification and for the naming of the new pavilion, which has appeared now in the garden of the meeting. Work with obedience, with dedication and with zeal for obedience, because without obedience there is no harmony, there is no peace, sons. And work with love, for without love there is no power, there is no peace, sons. Oh, work My people for any of your work with Me and for Me has got its joy in Me and in you, now and then. Let this wisdom comprise you within it, and get used to it in order to learn to have and to keep and protect according to My will and according to My establishing your way with Me, My people, for I have given you a guide to walk to Me and by this walking of yours I look at you, I hear you and I exhort you to life, when you work with faithfulness before Me the love of the holy submission and your steadfastness in your way with Me, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

26-10/08-11-2006

The synod of the saint archangels Michael and Gabriel

I am surrounded with glory by the angels in My descent, for I am the Lord of glory. And why am I the Lord of glory? Because I made the glory and I made it by the word and it was, and the angels glorify Me and bring Me glory, honor and worship in the heaven above and on the earth beneath, and My glory is beautiful in heaven and on earth, but the man loves Me so little and knows Me so little! And the glory of all the angelic hosts cannot keep My body in glory, and I come down with it to the man to tell him that I made the man in the beginning for My glory, and that the angels mourn because the man pulled himself from under My glory, from under My power and I come like a wanderer after him on the earth and I stand into his way and complain to him to stir up his mercifulness that he may help Me have him as My house, as My work between heaven and earth.

I am standing above with the heavenly hosts on My angelic mountains and I am speaking over this day of feast of the angels and I am surround its glory and coming into the book with the glory of My word of today, and the gates submit to Me, for I am the Lord of glory. Amen.

Oh, what I shall I do to give birth to the man's heart for Me? How shall I do for the man to have submission with love in it? As the God of everything that are, I ask Myself what shall I do with the man to have My happiness upon him and that the man may receive his happiness? The man cannot regain his happiness until I have him as the dwelling place of My happiness, the house of My glory, not made by the hand, as I am.

Behold, when I come I come with glory. It is time to come and that is why I come, and that is why I came and I come, but it is also time for the man to look at My face, at My life in him, to be in My image and after My likeness, and that is why I have become word upon man. For two thousand years I have been telling the man that I come soon, and since then I have been waiting for the man to become the dwelling place of My coming, for it is the man that has to come and not the Lord.

Oh, Romanian people, fed with such an abundant river of word by the glory of My coming to you now! Oh, people who stayed and stay at the mouth of the spring of My word, which brings Me to you! Oh, people carried in My chariot! Unless the man receives his salvation, he cannot see and receive My glory. The man has to become after My likeness to be able to see Me so that he may know Me how much I am and work around him, that he may have Me as God by his submission, like My angels, which glorify Me in heaven above and on earth beneath. Not only My angels, but also the man has to be in heaven above and on earth below at the same time, and I have come to make it possible to the man to do this. Oh, but how little the man wants God and understands Him! It is not only I that have to help the man, but the man has to help Me for his salvation as well, because after I had made him, he has no longer helped Me, and rather he got upset with Me after he went wrong, after he no longer loved obedience to the Father, the word of his Father, the same as the angels listen to it and fulfill it in heaven above and on earth beneath.

I am upon you with the feast of the angels, oh, My little citadel on earth! I have knocked on your gates, Romanian Jerusalem, and they have received Me and behold, I have given to the man the food of My word, served by angels, as I am served. The chiefs of the angelic hosts, Michael and Gabriel, comprise within their wings the glory of their day of synod, for the angels are those without body and are those who keep Me invisibly, surrounding Me with their hosts and they are My glory, the glory which the prophets and the saints saw it long ago and left it as faith to the people that they may come to My love, unperceived by them, to Me, the One Who am love from love in order to make the man after My likeness too and to give him of My glory.

I bless the entrance of My angels for their feast into your midst, My people of today. Amen, amen, amen.

– You should leave off your whole worry, you, those who are gathered here at the bed of the river of life, and we, the chiefs over the heavenly hosts, are teaching you now, how to drink and how to know God. Become His will if you drink of His mouth, and this is how you will know Him in you. You should teach those who come to drink of the Lord's spring as we teach you. Be an example of life and of heavenly love, and shine with it in the way of the man to the Lord of glory. The one who does not see the Lord, that one does not know the love and its work either, and those who see Him, are not seen, as their work from heaven, and the invisible Lord works His mysterious work, from the creation of the heaven and of the earth and to their new creation, and He has worked nothing without His angels, for this is how God is, and that is why all and everything bow to Him, and the angels are His will, His power and His word. Bring yourselves as sacrifice of submission to Him, as the angels bring themselves to Him for His glory, and you will see then that the Lord is the word that is upon you. Do not ask for signs and miracles, for the hosts of the heavenly glories wait for you day and night to be perfect and you yourselves to be signs and miracles over the earth and a path for the people to God. Not only those who passed away with their body have to see the glory and the truth of the Lord perfectly, but also more than that, those who are alive have to bear this power in them to be able to see through it. We have come to our feast with those who are asleep, those who have waited from you the news of the Lord, the last calling for the great resurrection, for the Lord becomes word within you. Bring glory and honor to the Lord, as we, His angels work as well, and give yourselves to Him as worthy disciples, with whom He may release the springs of the heavenly searching in any soul on the earth, but at the same time do not forget the work of God's angels in the heaven above and on the earth beneath, for there is no love of God in man, but only by obedience as in heaven, as among God's angels, between them and God. Identify yourselves with watchfulness and seek the way of the longing in you, the way by which the Lord comes to you and sprinkles word, which is to be fulfilled and loved. He who has got love, let him love the Lord with a love like His, not like that of the man, for the man, because the man has denied God for his love and has not known what he has done, and then the man has no longer known what God made him for.

The spirit of those who sleep waiting is awake now towards you, listening to the Lord's voice by His angels, and they tell you this:

– The man did not know when he denied God for his love and did not know when he lost God. And after he did no longer know from the Lord, the man has known from him and he has become for him the god who knows, and this is how the man lost God and has remained without any shelter on earth, and he has lived by his power.

We, those who left our body, look at the corruptibility that has set over the earth and over the man, and we wait for the Lord to open the man's eyes and to see what he was to be and what he is now, and what he will be after the Lord will have spoken again with mercy and love the word for the beginning of the new creation of the world and will say: «Let there be light!» And it will be, and it will be again, and the man will see again, and he will see by it and will cry like the angels and like the saints, and he will give, by his humbled sigh, glory, honor and worship to God, for the Lord made the glory. Amen, amen, amen.

– Behold the voice of the angels, and behold the voice of those who bow to resurrection and again, behold the voice of the Lord, clearing the sky and the earth and giving mercy and power to the whole creature, for the creature wait for its Lord. Wandering man, you should also wait for Him and learn from the Word Lord the way to know Him, for He walks after you to take you within Him. In the house of His Father there are many places, but He wants to prepare a place near Him and in Him for those who unite themselves with Him, for woe to those who will remain outside without the Lord!

Oh, Lord, Your angel and his companion bring You comfort in submission for Your sweet Spirit, with Whom You have crowned the world of Your angels in this day. Peace to You! Peace to You! Peace to You! Amen, amen, amen.

– You are My peace and My invisible glory, for you are without body, and you are and You cover Me so that the man, who is not like Me, may not see Me. Oh, let the man not say that no one among people see Me. My work is as mysterious and invisible as My glory is covered by the heavenly hosts. Oh, let the man not say that there is no one among people who has love. My love in man is as much unfathomable and not known as My glory, which is invisible to the man who is not comprised within it.

You, those who have carried your steps to the day of My angels in My citadel on the earth, ask from Me to receive Me, ask from Me a new heart, a new spirit, a new body and a new power for My life in you, for My heart in you, for the man's heart takes him on ways which are bitter for Me and for him, and it does not tell the man what it will be after them. I teach you again, and it is not hard for Me to teach you always to learn the work of love, for it is has not come to be in the man's nature, and the man has to learn to bear it and to work its fruit within him, for it can do everything for the man's salvation, and it does not let him fall aside from it. When you see that it has no face and work in you and among you, then take its book and work its work according to it, the work of love, the work of God in you. God's love is not man's love, it is not. The love is something else that the man knows that it is. Seek to walk in its way and to learn its work like it and not like you. One more hour and My glory will be revealed in the eyes of those who said that they love, and they will stand face to face with My glory, with the love from God, and the man will see his face in it and he will know what man means and what God means, and the man will bring up his prayer before Me like the prophet who opened himself to Me, saying to Me: «Save me, Lord, for the devout man was absent, and because of this, the truth has become less from the sons of the people, who, each one of them has spoken empty words to his neighbor, with cunning lips in their heart and with evil words in it, for when the bad people come to power over the crowds, the wrongdoers and their bad work multiply everywhere».

Oh, learn to drink from Me and to be, and learn to make Me rest and do My will in you. Come near and drink to your benefit. Come and drink and take of My love and give away your love, for behold, there is no truth with the sons of the people and the devout one is not among them to call them and to stop them from their emptiness. Learn the way with obedience in it, but more than that learn the love of God in you, and by it you should also be able to work your likeness with Him. Amen. I came and I come, for I said: «I come soon!» For two thousand years I have been speaking: «I come soon!» And I came and I come, and the man does not see and does not hear, and he does not know My coming and My walking after him, for the man has been wandering away on his ways, and the devout man is not among people to call the man out to respond to My coming, to come to it, to My calling, for I come and I came, and I want to leave My road after man uncovered.

Oh, man, seek after My heart. It has the whole truth in it. Take from it and then let yourself be taken within it, for it is the place of those who love Me. One sits in it like God and not like man. Only those without wickedness come into My heart, and they become infants in it, and wherever they go, they go with their house and remain in it, and they live in My peace, in them and among them. Amen.

It is a great feast of angels in My citadel of new Jerusalem on the earth. The glory of those without body is very sweet, that which covers My body among you, children who have prepared the day of the celebration of the angels into the midst of My people. Now, let us teach My love to those who have walked with their steps to Me and to you, and then, by releasing them, let us seal with the heavenly word the new pavilion, worked for the work of disciples, and let us put My angel over it and let us give it a name, sons. The grace of the angels touches those who have gathered together, and all those who will take, it will give them grace and they will shine. Peace to you, for you are tired!

The three sons anointed, to set then by My Holy Spirit, the prayer of sealing with holiness of the new pavilion, and then I, the Lord, will set down in the book the word over this work, worked out of My plan, prophesied ahead of time to be. Amen.

Oh, people who have come together into the citadel of My word at the feast of the angels! Go in peace! I lead you off with My angels. If you long for the Lord, then work and come to the spring and take from it, for I, for those who long for Me, set a table of word and of making over the man. Go in peace now, and do not forget how many good things God wants to do for you. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I am the angel of the Lord. He has told me to speak now. Amen.

The new pavilion for the work of the Lord's disciples was sealed with my name. I will write and always confess the spiritual and heavenly work, which will ascent into heaven from this bedding, established and sealed now. Amen.

You have established for me, Lord, the work of the watchfulness and strength and that of the exhortation of the whisper from above and from beneath for the making of the sons after Your likeness through the disciples. May it be that You always breathe and always warm up with Your Spirit over those who work on Your behalf, and over those who are worked, who will overcome the world and will love the work of the making over them, bowing to You within this bedding that is blessed now. Amen.

— Michael, My angel! I, your Master, declare the word and say from the Father: May it be blessed the work of the descending of the Holy Spirit, Who seals and sanctifies this bedding for My work with disciples and among disciples and for the making of beautiful sons, after My likeness. Amen. And this bedding will be called the pavilion of the meeting, the Lord's pavilion, protected up and down, on the left, on the right and in the middle, by My angel, Michael, always accompanied by the angel Gabriel, and by all the first ones over the hosts of the angelic armies and by all their work from Me over this bedding, waited from those in heaven to be, and who will accompany the moments sanctified by their entire work from the middle of this borders, marked down now with the sign of the holy cross, the sign[53] by which I submitted Myself and on which I laid down to show to the man how he is supposed to stay before God, My Father, and how is the man supposed to love between earth and heaven, for love is something else than what the man knows that it is. Amen.

Oh, Father, love is that which I showed it to the man when I was laid down on the cross with My body to save the man from his death by that time, Father. Oh, Father, I lay Myself down on the cross with the pain and its happiness for the man and the man nailed Me on to the wood of the cross, Father, and I stayed there patiently and I was submitted and obedient to the man's will, to give Myself as an example of love before the nations all over the earth, Father. He who does not come with submission and obedience before You, that one is written with witchcraft, Father; however, I was patient, so that the devil might not write Me with those who were outside, Father, even if the man wrote Me down that way. When I sent My angel to John to testify about this two thousand years ago, I said: «Blessed are they that wash their robes that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the citadel. Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood». (Apoc: 22/14, 15)

Oh, Father, woe to those who plot and love falsehood and who do not know its reward! However, I have loved You with the love of a son and not with the love of a servant, even if the people that was bearing the name of God on earth did not receive Me, at least as a servant sent by You. Oh, Father, the true loving son stays in his father's will with his life and death, for it was because of the love for You that I let Myself into the man's hand, Father, and there is no greater love than the love of the son among those who serve You, Father, for the son has got great and holy love, and he is thankful to his father, but the servant can betray him and he can deny his master. I was betrayed by My disciple, and by him I was given to be killed, because he, as a servant that he was, wanted glory for himself through Me, and such a servant can no longer be thankful to his master who is faithful to him. The faithfulness of the servant does not go before his master as that of the son, and happy are those who, by their not loving of themselves near God, become His vessels full of faithfulness to their blood, the same as I, Father, was faithful to You on the earth, from My birth to My death, then to My resurrection, and then to My reestablishing into those things that are not seen, near You, Father, covered by My angel without the flesh. Amen.

My Father bless this pavilion with the love of a father, by the word spoken for the descending of the grace of the Holy Spirit upon it and upon the holy work, which will be worked in it.

Behold, My angel was seated upon this new and sanctified manger. Amen, amen, amen.

– Love is something else than the man knows that it is, My Son Emmanuel. You too should exhort, together with Your angel, those who will be to learn the love and its face, and exhort them to learn well and then to know that one enters the gates thorough the gates. If the people of fifty years would have liked to learn the love of God, it would have escaped from the love of themselves near Us, and it would have had the love of the sons and it would have no longer taken from Us wealth from heaven only to leave with it outside, to leave into the world, after it had heard Us at the door, dear Son.

However, I, the Father, have blessed with You the new sheet now, and I have endowed it with the spirit of love such as Yours in the sons who are to bow their head into it to receive in them the likeness after You, learning this by the gates, My gentle Son. I wait for You to harvest fruit in this sheet and that the angels and the saints may assembly and hear the working spirit of the sons of the word that is in Us, for We breathe with the word so that We may make them all again and that they may truly be afterwards, and that they may be forever, My beloved Son, in Whom, I, the Father, sighing, waiting, enduring and loving, am well pleased. Amen, amen, amen.

[53] See the selection topic: „About the graven image and the sign of the cross", r.n.

- I, Your angel, Lord, have settled myself to watch and to work over this sheet and I have paid attention to every word of Yours that is upon me, for I am Your subject, and with my nature without a body I cover Your body in the sky and on earth, everywhere You walk before the people to do Your work. Amen.

I have stayed covering Your glory all the day of today of the angelic feast in the midst of Your people, Lord. I have hidden Your body and the tears of Your face and I have embraced You with angelic mercy, comforting the joy of Your pain and the pain of Your joy, oh, my Master. I have strengthened Your gates all day. I have strengthened them both for the descending of Your word to the people, but I have also strengthened them all day, for they have been shaking from all that You bring before them into view so that You may be able to bear Your burden within the gates, for You cannot work without help, and You have no way of speaking, Lord, and we, the angels, have no way to come down with the work to the people either, if we do not have any support. Only those who have eyes can see as Your way of fifty years on the earth was. Satan, the spirit opposing to Your truth, had no peace, but he always had power by the disobedience and insubordination of those who have heard Your voice but have not had any will to love You for You and not for them, Lord of those who are obedient. Disobedience and insubordination call for hiding, and then their face and their reward is seen, for the sorcerer spirit and that of the working of witchcraft has always, always been in the way and followed the steps of those who said that they will follow the Lord, and many of them have said but not worked in obedience and holiness to be protected from the devil on their way and within their hearts. When the one You hired does not listen even in a word that it seems to be small, then the evil spirit makes use of his disobedience and releases witchcraft and spells through those who hate Your way and those You have established in it, for whoever does not do Your entire will which has come by this word, that one is Your enemy and the enemy of those that walk on Your way, even if he does not want this way, even if he does not wait for his obedience to come out with pain upon You and upon Your people, as the disciple who betrayed You could not believe either that he was betraying You when he worked together with those of the temple who were proud, by selling You to them.

Behold, I am speaking a mystery, Master, over the people who have gathered together today at the feast of Your angels: the lack of the love of God of those who come on the way with the Lord, this comes when the one who comes to learning does not love the one by whom the Lord gives him the teaching of life for a spirit of obedience and then for submission. This was the un-perceived mystery of the love from above, and which the called people has not perceived it with its heart and mind to grow and that their faith may not grow less, the steadfastness and faithfulness of so many souls who have wanted to come and have not known how to come on this way with the Lord now on the earth.

Revolt and uprising break out among those who walk together on this way when the heart in the Christian has not got the same kind of self-denial in all. Self-denial brings forth the work of peace among brothers, and where it is not, then revolt and confusion break out, and the Lord stays without any power aside, and the people on this way has always straggled from this way on the sides, and there have been fallings and there have been raisings and then again fallings and the way has been difficult for those who have been steadfast, as it has also been today, for the Lord has been today with His entire word into the midst of the holy people through obedience and submission, and he who is not like this, then he is not a son of His people, and that one becomes an occasion of endurance and pain of the Lord on the earth now.

Behold what a pain the holy heaven has had over fifty years! A voice of angel has been speaking to you today, to you the today's people of this word, which brings the Lord to you. I am the angel of the Lord and I have always accompanied the Lord for fifty years within His descent and in His tool, and today I am saying: sons of the devil are called those who do not do God's will, those who do their will according to what they have known from God about His will, and then they become those people who bring about divisive and slandering words, making those who carry God grow less so that those who would try to do it may not do the Lord's will. In each time, in each city, wherever and whenever the Lord raises His chosen ones, then those who love their will in the city arise with a spirit of slandering, which comes from foolishness and envy, and using lying words they slander and make smaller those who love holiness and their Lord, and then the way of the Lord is closed, for those who would give the Lord, from the Lord's plan in them, are no longer believed and welcomed.

A voice of angel is speaking to you, people who hear the word from heaven: on the Christian way no uprising is needed, but one needs self-denial and love among brothers; and one does not need discontentment, for discontentment causes lamentation, and lamentation, this spirit of self-love, as much as the man cannot believe the voice of the Lord's angel, which is speaking now, the lamentation is betrayal of brothers, and it has never led to peace among brothers, but it has only lead to strife, to intrigue and to disunion and in the end to the killing of the Spirit of the Lord, the same as patience and its wisdom has lead to brotherly love, by which the man saves himself and his neighbor from the trap of the divisive devil, who being awake, blows the spirit of haughtiness over the creatures, spoiling the heart, the mind and the face of the one who has no mind from heaven upon him. This is how the man piles up sins by lamentation, and then the devil writes him with those who betray brothers and cancels him from the fulfilling right of the commandment of the love of God and of brothers, and he does not remove him only but he also removes the one who listens and receives his discontentment, as one who would have the authority which gives him this right. Such pain and such waiting the Lord had, as a consequence of the people called to His plan, and which has always, always stayed at the border and has not passed to the work of disciple and son, but which has always brought forth the spirit of witchcraft and spells, and the people that was either coming or not, when it wanted to come, has always been crushed by its disobedience.

I am the angel of the Lord and I have spoken from this way of fifty years of the Lord and of the people who has heard Him speaking the word of life to it. To all that have crossed with their steps and to all who are crossing with their walking on this way of the Lord's voice I tell this: the Lord is aggrieved, merciful and long enduring in such a way that it may become known to the sons of men the power, the glory and the greatness of His kingdom. The Lord keeps all those who love Him in the truth, and He will lose all the sinful people, as it is written. The Lord exalts those who are gentle and humiliates down to the earth those who are proud in their spirit. And as for you, Jerusalem, praise the Lord that He has strengthened in you the pillars of your gates and blessed your sons in you. He is the One Who brings peace to your borders and gives you the flower of the wheat. He is the One Who sends His word to the earth, proclaiming Himself in you with His corrections and judgments. Praise the Lord among saints, people sanctified by His word! Give praises to Him into your midst in His days and of His saints! In a voice of psaltery, with a fearful soul of God praise the Lord and His coming to you!

A voice of angels is speaking to you, new people: pray earnestly that your calling may come before the Lord for all those who have walked in this way of His coming now, and who have then fell from it. Ask them for the Lord, give them the anchor and make them come and be saved from themselves and to take after the Lord by obedience and submission, for a voice of angels has been resounding today for their calling to their semblance to the Lord, Creator. Amen.

And as for You, Lord of the angelic hosts, become their God too, the same as the angels have You as their Master, and if You want, give them power to come to You to set You as Master over them to heal them. Amen.

I am the angel of the Lord and I am the angel of His obedient people and I protect the one who obeys the Lord, and I do not protect the one who is disobedient and violates this word, and I am not the angel of those who cannot keep them, for the one who is mastered by his own will, that one is his own master and he has not got another master.

I am the angel of the Lord and I have the key of the abyss to keep away from satan the one who gives himself as God's will and the one who comes back from the darkness to the light to see the way and to walk in it. Amen.

I, Lord and Master of the angelic hosts, sound speaking that all those who are able to rise again from among those, who had accompanied You in the time of this trumpet sounding for fifty years, may come back to Your will and to the wisdom of the righteous ones. However, if they do not know how to come and do not know what it means to come, then may Your will be done, for You said two thousand years ago by my voice over John: «I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give to each man according to his work». (Rev. 22:12) Amen, amen, amen.

– Amen I say to you, to those who have assembled at the feast of the angels: the words of My angel are faithful and true, for I, the Lord, the God of the prophets' spirits, have sent My angel to speak. Amen. I come soon, and I come and I keep coming, and happy is the one who keeps My entire word, My book of today, which I showed it to John two thousand years ago by My angel and by which I announced and announce the achievement of God's mystery, as I have spoken through the prophets. Amen.

Stand up, called people, to fulfill the law of My coming, for soon, soon you will be asked about it. Stand up to be after My likeness and not only to come to the spring and to hear My ripple, for if you come this way, then you weaken My power on the way and you will be asked why you did this, why you came this way. Therefore, rise properly, when you rise to come, for My Spirit in those within the gates has always been weakened, always damaged by the evil speaking from those who have sinned against My fulfillments in them, and they have blamed their unbelief in My descent and those who have carried Me with it over the earth. However, this was not the truth, but the truth was the lack of the fulfillment of My will by those who have struck Me, for those who have cast out and despised, blamed, and made smaller in the mind of others, the people who are My path now, in fact they have blamed Me and not them.

Woe to those who try to do only what God has to do! Woe to those who judge the works or the absence of the works of others, for only the rascals have no fear to do this! The disobedience of those who have come and who have come back again to their own things, only and only this has been the blame which has always, always paved the way to the devil and brought witchcraft and spells upon those on the way with Me, in order to pull them out of it, for the one who does not listen on his way with Me, that one is actually not on the way with Me, he is not with Me, but he is rather with himself, even if he says otherwise that he is. The one who hates his neighbor, the one like him, that one is not written with those who love God and because of this, the devil does not stop bringing all kind of conspiracies among brothers, and these things come by haughtiness not by weakness, and I cannot love the haughty one and the fruit of his haughtiness, and he cannot love Me either, since only he, and barely has he got little room in himself with his justice, poor of him. How shall I, the Lord, speak to one like that everything I had to speak to him? The prophet Samuel spoke from heaven to king Saul, who was not obeying God and he told him that disobedience was greater and stood before the sin of witchcraft, to which the king was drawn after that, and he was drawn by his works. However, how shall I speak now this to the one who does not listen?

Oh, people that hear the word of My mouth! Behold why I had I said in the way of this word of fifty years that in the end of the time the whole earth and every man would be followed and caught by the spirit of witchcraft and spells from man to man, and that I, the Lord, would work hard to protect the one who was in My plan. Oh, people instructed from heaven! Whoever wants his salvation, that one builds it for himself sitting in the shade of My cross, no longer being concerned with his self-justice, with his self-esteem, but, on the contrary, being concerned always, always with his taking after Me, the miracle which I, the Lord, wait to see in man.

I have always told to the one who has been fed from My mouth; I have told him to walk in light. And why have I told him this way? I have told him this out of godly love and because the hidden man, hidden in himself, has always been afraid and he has always, always tried to protect his hidden man so that it may not be seen, so that the darkness in him may not be revealed. I have always taught the Christian not to talk two by two, for this human custom does not give a clean heart to the man, but it has always, always drawn the man to a spirit of frivolity, to a womanly spirit, and this is a great evil between earth and heaven, and it means casting away of the angels and inviting the devils to come near, which urges the man into hiding and to his lack of manhood. If in an army there are some who do not obey, the whole army suffers and the evil spirit harms everyone, if it has a way to get in. When Adam gave himself over not to obey My commandment, then he punished the earth out of which he was taken and made, and since then the earth has been damaged and under the curse and it has been under the burden of the devil, and because of the man's disobedience, the earth has been atoning and the whole nature in it has been mourning since then.

People who have heard Me today and which can understand the depth of the pain between earth and haven, I ask you not to forget all that I am speaking now: the disobedience of someone brings about sufferance over many. However, I call you to obedience, people that come and go; and you, people that are and come, for I have spoken to the man in one of My commandments: «Man, you shall not commit adultery!», and disobedience is debauchery like that of the son who took power and harvest from his father and went away with them no longer to listen, and thus he was counted among those who were sexually immoral. Behold how much lack of resemblance between the one who does My will and the one who does his own will, for when I put My disciples to work with obedience and holiness, I also told them not to take any purse with money on them, so that they could be clean in everything then, and the one who left his father's will, required to take with him a share of his father's properties, and then he was ashamed, strange and naked, and this it was the way he came back, begging for mercy and shelter at the courts of his father like a stranger.

Behold what a feast among those in heaven and among those on earth here! The entire host of the heaven listens to My voice. The fallen host of angels has been replaced, for the saints from the earth came and come and fill the empty place, and then it will be a day of joy, for the fallen angels will bow down, and the evil spirit will be closed in the abyss and it will no longer be able to do anything. Amen.

I, the Lord, have laid now a holy sheet for My joy. And I want that in this sheet, in this pavilion, the one who has fruit from Me in his work to come to this pavilion and to bow his head on this bed. I do not want that this pavilion to mourn because of anyone, this pavilion, which waits for My Spirit in it through those who carry and share Him among them and on the sides to My comfort. I want to make a distinction between the one that is satisfied and the one that is not satisfied, between the one who wants Me as I am, and between the one who would want Me as he wants. I want to see the growth of those of whom I may have someone by whom to make the one who loves to be after My likeness by his obedience. Since twenty five years ago, when I took My trumpet into heaven, since then, I, the Lord, have wanted to start the making in My image and after My likeness of the one who has come to be, but satan opposed and still opposes Me.

I have given an example through those who have stayed as gates before Me now, and I have told them that the people who has known Me by this word has not been able to perceive the mystery of God's sons, and many have come and then have gone back again to their body and to their seed after the flesh, and they have not been able to follow the example of the Gospel of God's sons, born from above for those from above. Those who have wanted to be in the way with Me mourn each other, one upon the other; they have got used to be pretentious, discontent, envious, and many of them were striking Me for what they were not able to fulfill upon them. Instead of being afraid of their separation from Me, they were afraid, they were afraid that there was no one to cry over their discontent, over their wandering away and its justification for it, and it happened to these as to the blackbird which got sick and which was complaining that there was no one to mourn over it, if it was to die, and it was crying, poor of it, to be heard by the cuckoo that it might have pity on it, and the cuckoo, coming to it, promised that if it died, then it would surely come and plucking its feathers, it would mourn over it, calling it sister, and also the cuckoo calling itself its bother by its lament over it.

Oh, as the tobacco fiend is never satisfied with the tobacco that he inhales to swallow its smoke, in the same way the grumbling one cannot be satisfied with his lamentation and slander, and I do not know how to tell him anymore and to make the man accustomed to the spirit of heavenly love in order to save him from those that are foreign to this spirit, by which he has always stirred opposition against the love among brothers, love which has its face in the Scriptures. Happy is the one who has this sweet and dear treasure as his task, the love from God in him, sharing it with a gentle spirit and to the sides and gathering its harvest with it, and it will be that I, the Lord, will overcome over the earth with its sons, with its face and with its kingdom. Amen.

Oh, children on whom I lay down My descent to feed many on it! Your little soul has always been strained, always tensed with worries and pains, and the peace in you has always been futile, for you are also called into account, both from heaven and from the earth, for any hardness, for any burden, and it is hard for you, and you are small because of such a great hardness. You have My descent as your duty and you have as your duty the people that I want to make it heavenly by My work with you upon it, but your little soul and heart in you are so little helped, and I want to help you too, the way I can still do and with what I can do, for you are on the earth. Oh, it is very, very heavy the burden on you, the burden for My descent and that for the people that needs care. Oh, strengthen one another. Keep Me in you and give strength to one another this way. Oh, it is not hard to work with the hand, but it is hard to work with God and for God, tired sons.

I, the Lord, exhort you that your patience, love and forgiveness may be your peace, children sons. Oh, since I started My work that has been sustained within you, I have hardly been able to protect you from burdens, and I have hardly been able to comfort the pain in you from the burden under which you have stayed. Oh, if there was no one and if there is no one to protect you from those that keep pressing hard upon you, do not lose courage. Oh, do not defend yourselves. I defend you, children sons. You should not defend yourselves before those who oppress you, as they do not understand what I do and how I do with you and through you for the man. You have always been scorned, always made less by those who have not known how to stay in the fold for the sons of God. I protected and protect you before these people, for there are some of them who despise you within their proud mind, within their human mind. Oh, I was not believed and followed either; if I was treated this way, will it not happen the same to you? In addition, it is written: «If they persecute Me, they will persecute you as well».

Go with humility, sons, as I have taught you that we have to stand before those strong among them, and who do not get up to go straightly. Oh, how much, how much I would have liked you to have someone to rely upon with My burden that is on you, and with My pain in you from the disobedience of those who were and still are opposers and slanderers, making you small for My path on the earth through you. I want to make My people stand up, the people that has heard Me from the beginning, and those who have blasphemed you under My burden upon you. I still want to wait for the people who came and then turned back. I want mercy from it and not sacrifice, for it would put out My eyes and yours as well, and they would keep us in debt for it. However, I want mercy for My pain from the one who comes and goes, from the one who is and does not walk beautifully in My way, and from the one who is coming to receive teaching now.

I have mercy on the man, children sons, for today I have stood with you before the people assembled to an angelic feast and I have breathed word upon you in order that you may speak to it and exhort it for a true revival. Nevertheless, behold, those who come near to you when I come with feasts into the midst of My courts with you, some among them are those who make you weak and fill you with fears and shaking. I would like everything to be only according to My will in all My feasts with you, and the evil spirit to stay far away and no longer approach you by those who are haughty and do not fulfill, for I need you and I need peace within you. Oh, whom should I rely upon, that I may be able to do My will in this way in all My feasts with you and that I may keep away all the weaknesses that want to come to you?

Now, I have put to rest the way of the word and we have put it into the book and shared it. And I will come with feasts and I want that only My will to be done into your midst with feasts, to be able to go on with My feasts among you and to have peace in you and among you and that you may always learn from Me the spirit of love, that has not been touched from outside of you by the spirit opposing to Me and to My path with you. Receive My peace; open yourselves and take it within you, and then work with it and for it and be supported by those who teach you from Me. Amen.

Now, we are releasing the spirit of those who are asleep, who have sat at the table with the people gathered together. My trumpet Verginica is full of word and its day of memorial with the people is coming, when she releases her voice and delivers the word, for the word that is and cannot be declared hurts in heaven and on earth, it produces suffering in God and in the saints, the word hurts, and the man flees from suffering and the Lord does not have someone on whom to lay down his task, as the man does when he is dissatisfied, when he is wretched.

Be My rest, children who serve God. Keep Me within you and remain in Me throughout your hardships. Amen.

The feast of the angels has calmed down and the angelic hosts have come into their chambers. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-11-2006

The feast of Saint Apostle Andrew

My teaching upon you is your richness and it is your table with God, My people. I sit down before you with the life of My word and no one on earth has what you have on your table, and you have to give Me life in you that I may appear with you to those who do not know how to have God, for I said: «One who believes in Me, I will come to him, I will make a house with him, I will dine with him and I will reveal Myself to him». Amen.

Oh, My people, I sit down before you and speak with you. I gather you at the table of the teaching and I speak with you and teach you to believe in Me and I teach you to become a house for Me, and I teach you to eat of My table and that I may be your being then and be able to reveal Myself to you by your deed, by My word fulfilled in you and that the people on the earth may see that you are My son, and that I am your Master.

Oh, My people, if I sit down before you then you should also sit down before Me and do this according to My pleasure, according to My teaching, for My teaching shows you how to fulfill it before Me. Teach yourself, therefore, to believe in Me, to believe that I am into your midst within your doing, and that of this table I teach every man to hear God as word upon him and to believe in life and to come into it, and that it may come in him too, for without Me there is no one to teach the man on earth, My people.

I strengthen My gates. This is how I stand before you and this is how you are supposed to work too, Jerusalem. I come upon you with the fruit of My word of two thousand years ago, for I have raised disciples of one work with Me, My people. I in them and they in Me, this is how they worked when they have become the fruit of My word, and this is how those who are born of My word are. Amen, amen, amen.

– You have came before the people born of man two thousand years ago, Lord, and then You grew up for the work of the Father and brought forth fruit, and You made disciples, and they were Your house and Your table and its work in them over the earth then. The work of disciple needs to mean a people loving spirit, and I, Lord, came on the Romanian land after You had taught me in the Holy Spirit and I brought the life of Your word on this table, the seed of the new birth of the man born of man, Lord.

I work like You, for I am your disciple. I also speak with Your people at my table with You and with the saints into its midst, for we worked in us grace upon grace when You touched us marking us with Your sign. Amen.

Oh, the grace of God is great in those who know to believe with power and love in it, people of the teaching from God. The man learns from man on earth, and you learn from God and from His saints, who become His glory on earth. Therefore, learn and learn how to learn. Learn with propriety, for God teaches you; and learn with humility and with great love, for he who does not learn this way, one like that does not know to show the Lord in him; he does not know to confess his Maker so that the people may believe in God then and the Lord to come and make a house and table out of the people on earth.

Oh, people with rich mercy at the Lord's table with you! The one who teaches is like the Lord after that, and the one who does not learn from the table of His word, that one remains like the man. Come and sit down before the Lord. Those who become like Him, those are the people who sit down before Him, and this is what it means the man to sit down before God. You do not need to have another work day and night, but to sit before the Lord instead and to take after Him between brother and brother, and then before His saints, people with God at your table. I do not give you another advice on my day of feast in your midst, but I give you the Lord as your work.

Become like Him. See in His teaching the way He is, and if you believe in Him, then turn His word into work upon you, for you are of Romanians and you have to show to all the nations on the earth that you are His people, chosen even since He came being born of the Virgin, after that the people of Israel denied Him as a stranger, taking Him for an evil doer. Then He sent me as the first one called, and I put His seal over the Romanian land, and it has given forth fruit now, at His mysterious coming on the earth, for the Lord comes down on earth with the whisper of the word and He is covered within the word, and He comes to renew the creature, speaking over it from His wedding table, from the hearth of the Romanian people, which has sealed it for Him then and now, to make for himself the house of His coming, people of disciples, obedient sons, sons taught by God. He will fulfill all His word. He is from heaven and not from the earth and this are those who belong to Him too. Learn His face, and then appear with Him, and be as humble as He is if you want to be the one who preaches God. The one who follows the Lord is no longer like him, but he is like the Lord then, and he receives from heaven and he does no longer receive from the earth for him. Learn how to ask for His kingdom and its power, and become like Him when you ask from Him. Learn how to become prayer, people waited by God and by His saints, for the man does not have to pray without fruit, but he rather has to become prayer and not to make a prayer, and then the Lord will fulfill. Amen. Prayer is humility and humility is prayer, and the Lord is beautiful among those who are humble like Him. This is my teaching on your table with the Lord and with His saints, people led by God. Oh, look into His word and ask Him with a spirit of humility to reveal Himself with everything He has spoken to be done. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, first disciple called among those I called! I was born a man to show the way to the man. Oh, I have had you at the table of My little ones of today, when I sealed with My holy name My little garden of sons fifty years ago, and when I had My bishop Irineu as My comfort and testimony, whom I have taken from those of today. Oh, how hard the bishops of today have bound him; they have bound him in such a way that he may no longer hear My whisper, the word that raises the man from the dead! Oh, how comes that they are not afraid for their work? Only those that are hidden under My robe, only those who clothe themselves with it, only they are able to do such a thing, only those know better to keep Me nailed so that they may rule and that My will may not be done on earth. I have been calling them for a long time and they will not be able to exonerate themselves when it will be to give an account of their works before Me. I opened the door of My church which is watching now, and with My bishop I took from among them and opened it, and it was not with them that I was able to do this work, for I work only with the faithful ones, and I could not work My works otherwise for a while. I cannot work with those who do not watch. I cannot work like man, and behold, I call out to those who do not watch:

Oh, wake up, you people who call yourselves God's church! Wake up, for it is hard on the earth, and I do not have among you a man pleased to Me to rely on him, for You preach about yourselves and not about Me, and you walk in the way of those who crucified Me, those who had this power on the earth. Be frightened at My voice that is upon you! I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am the one about Whom you say to the people that you serve Him. Even if you share your guilt among you, saying to one another that I am not the One Who speaks from this manger of word, I am this word. You would be happy that I may not be, but I am the Word Who speaks with you. I come with the thousands of saints and I am called the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13.) and I speak upon the earth in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, baptizing into My word those who believe and becoming My dwelling place of resurrection in them. However, you are fearful and hide yourselves because you are guilty and you hide God too. I have sent to you the book of My word of today, and then I have written you in heaven, each one of you, that I have given My book, My word of fifty years on the Romanian land, the word of My second coming from near the Father to the man. Oh, you cannot hide. And you should know that I will stay face to face with you before thousands and millions of angels as it is written, and it will be for you to answer Me: what have you done with God, Who have knocked at the doors of your hearts?

Release the humble one among you, the one you humiliated, and honor him, for you crushed his face so that you may be able to take it. Give him back what are his things from Me, and which are upon him, for your sin presses hard upon the Romanian people, which you have not pity on, as shepherds upon them as you like to call yourselves. Those who love the lie and the darkness, they serve the spirit of the darkness, and I, the Lord, am the Light of the world and bring into the light those that are hidden in the dark, to be known that they are. Be afraid! Humble yourselves, because you need humility and not glory, as you look after. If you call yourselves a church, then do not forget that the church has the humble spirit as its face, the spirit that gives life. Walk in the light. This is what I have been exhorting you after fifteen years from the laying down of My sign between earth and heaven, for I come as word on the earth and I come with the clouds, and I call out to you as a God: clothe yourselves within humility looking at the saints who have overcome with their lives the Jerusalem from above, the spirit of the heavenly revelations, so that you may know My life and give housing to God, so that My mercy may be able to come upon you and do you good and that it may teach you what a disciple of Christ means on earth. Peace to you! I speak upon you with mercy and I will look at you whenever you receive of My peace, out of My being which cries within it after the man. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people! I have called out at My table with you to those who keep closed and well watched among them My bishop that loved Me by his faith when I relied on him fifteen years ago and now when I have laid it open the stone of the testimony of My word, in the end of the time in the Romanian people. It was because of My great mourning that I have called out at them. It was because of My tears, which they have always, always multiplied them, that is why I have cried before them. I would like to forgive them, but those who hide, hide My crushed one among them, the one who stays humbled before God under their hostile hand. Oh, how great, how great this wickedness is! Oh, how much it makes Me suffer!

Let us sit down in the spirit of comfort, sons. Let us take a rest within the word and let us work on earth as in heaven, with patience and hope, for the love and the faith for it will be the fruit of the hope and it will be prayer, and happy are those who have power becoming prayer before Me for My glory on the earth. Amen.

Oh, sons, clothe more and more within the powers from above, in the Holy Spirit, sons, and be like Me with great humility, for I want to be able to work with you with My will in your wills over the earth and then to rejoice over it. My book has become a teacher over those who take of it, and many and more and more want to drink of it and will come to life in and for God, for My word is resurrection, and it will set on the earth the resurrection, sons. And as for you, give to each other the comfort of the Holy Spirit and love like God between earth and heaven, and in this way you should be My comfort, for I feed you with My love to be My comfort as I am to you. Amen, amen, amen.

30-11/13-12-2006.

The feast of the saint hierarch Nicholas

I announce Myself at the gates. I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God Sabaoth. Amen.

I become the word of feast of My saints and I enter the book as word and lay a table with it on the earth, because if I have come again after the man, I do not forsake the faithful one, the one with longing in him and I keep My promise over the faithful ones for whom I said two thousand years ago that I would be with them to the end of the time, and then I will be their peace forever. Amen.

The gates are opened for Me, I come with the glory of My word, and then I come out as word on the earth. The man rules on the earth for this is how the man has got used to, and I came and come to tell the man that God is the Creator of the heaven and the earth and that the man is not just with God when he rules without God on the earth in his life of man. However, I have appeared all the time wonderfully on the earth within My saints, and I have appeared with My will in them before the people full of weaknesses and before those who run all their time after other gods, being prompted by their weaknesses, which they serve.

Oh, people nourished from heaven, in all the time over the earth, I have been God and Master only for the saints and through them I have revealed Myself that I have been with them and in them, and that the man on the earth does not want to know that God is Master in heaven and on earth. With great difficulty I have worked in all the time among the people by My saints and I was good and merciful, and this is how I wanted to make the man know that he is weak and that God is the One Who is and the One Who can. However, I cry with a heavy sigh and I cry within My saints and the saints cry in Me because of the lack of love on earth, and the man does not get up to make Me joyful, to comfort Me in My pain from him. Those who have sanctified themselves for My joy from them have been those who comforted Me, those who have given Me house on the earth, for the man's heart and the love in it before Me and before the people is a house for Me, in such a way that the people may see My face in the saints and My work in them, by which I call the man into the light. I call the man to walk in the light to have life so that he may not have darkness in him but to have life instead. Oh, how shall I do so that the man may know what darkness is? The darkness is the man and the hidden work of the man and which darkens the man in his mind and in his heart, being seen in the man's face, for the darkness cannot destroy the light, but the light destroys and dispels it for this is its work and God works by the saints on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– We, Your saints, Lord, wanted to be Your way to the people for the love for You was our face inside and outside of us, Lord. It was not us that worked through You, but You worked thorough us, Lord, and this means work of Your saints, whom You choose from among people for Your works. It is not they that choose You, but You choose them instead for Your glory full of humility in them among the people on earth.

The man does not know to be master; the way to be great on the earth, Lord. Oh, only You, only You are comprised within the glory of humility, Lord. Only You know to appear great and to be great, for the love of humility subjects under it all the power between heaven and earth, and the whole nature listens to its great Master, and behold, the man does not know to see You and to know his measure before the glory of Your humility, Lord.

Oh, how much You have worked by my life, by my humility, Lord. I have not worked through You, but You have worked through me and I was obedient, my Master, and I gave You to the people with Your mercy in me, with Your mercy on them, and then You revealed me as Yours, Your house and Your glory in it, and You chose me to be upon people on Your behalf and You worked thorough me and appeared as Master by mercy and love for the man, Lord.

Lord, Your pain in You and in us is great, and many are Your tears, for the man rules over the earth and the truth from the sons of men has grown less and there is no longer a devout man, the holy one, oh Lord. However, for the sufferance of those that are humble, poor and destitute, get up Lord, more and more; get up and bring them the salvation, as You have already done so, for You have promised by the Spirit and said, Lord: «I will bring their salvation and I will speak to them clearly». Amen, amen, amen.

– My coming is with the saints, and it is to bring salvation and to speak clearly for the man to hear Me, for I have power by humility and I come through it, and this is how I call the man to Me. However, My heart waits and cries after the man, and I want to hear the man with his soul full of longing, and this is how the man is supposed to call Me to come, and this is how I am supposed to come when I come. It is the time of My coming; this time has come, and the man cannot get out of the man's dominion. However, I, the Lord, am Master by humility and I come with the saints and speak with them, and they speak with Me before the human kind, to fulfill by the spoken word its entire fulfillment. Amen.

My bishop Nicholas was only mercy for the poor man, for I was through him, and I invited the man to the light and thorough him I called the man, for this is the work of My saints, My people fed from heaven. Oh, My people, how beautifully, how holy the saints worked on the earth! What great humility they worked! Those who are holy are those who have humility and its work upon people, for woe to those who do not work for their reward!

Oh, people nourished from heaven! When I speak into your midst, I make Myself heard on the earth and this is how I do the work of My coming to man and after the man. Oh, teach yourself to work like Me and like the saints and teach yourself with the great work of the Lord's humility in you, for I humble Myself before all the people to be able to speak with them, to be able to call them, My people. Oh, Jerusalem, this name that I put upon You is beautiful! You should live up to your name that is from Me, people nourished from heaven, and you should be after My likeness; you should be so for My glory, and My glory is the humility of My Spirit and its love which becomes word of salvation for man. My Saints warm you up with their word in Me and they want you to be like them, My people. Teach yourself to know and to be able to work and to work everything that I advise you, for I have exhorted you again and again by My humility with which I am your Teacher, My people. Amen.

Oh, sons of men, take from this table and see how good, how merciful the Lord is with those who are good in their heart, and then get up from your blood, from your nature fallen from God, and take into your stomach the teaching of life and seek after My word, oh, sons of the people and always receiving from it, you will be able to feel how much I miss the man. I made the man with longing and he pulled himself from Me and then he went on living by his power, and God has been crying after the man, and behold, He calls him to give his life back, so that the man may become like Me, and that we may see each other, know each other and love each other forever with the love which is from the Father, and which is between the Father and the Son, and from which man, you can have, you can learn how to have, because I, the Lord, call you and behold how sweetly I speak to you to know Me, and behold, man, I have been fulfilling during these days My word from the Scriptures, by which I said: «Because of the sorrow of the poor and for the sighing of those who are destitute, I will get up now and bring their salvation and I will speak them clearly». Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-12-2006.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

Let there be word! Let there be feast of word, for I, the Lord, the Word of the Father Sabaoth have made everything by the word, starting with the light. Amen.

I am at the right side of the Father among those from heaven, and on the earth, I am word, for My work is to become word on the earth and upon the man. Oh, but what is the man's work? The man has to become work of My word, and that one is the one who believes in Me, and the one who does not work that way, that one is written with the unbelievers, with those who stand against God.

I become word into the midst of My faithful people, for the faithful one becomes My fulfilled word, and then it becomes My help on the earth for My coming after the man. Amen.

I sit down with word on your table and I come with all the saints to you, My people, and you have to fulfill My word upon you, as I, the Lord, fulfill yours when you speak it before Me for its fulfillment. The whole fulfillment of My word depends on your love by which you fulfill all My word upon you, My people, for I have needed all the time a people on the earth by which to fulfill the works of My word as they are preached by the Scriptures, My people. Oh, if I did not know that the man is able to fulfill My word upon him, then I would speak to him a word that he has to fulfill, but the man needs faith and then he needs love by which he has to fulfill My word, and he needs My wisdom, not his wisdom, and he needs submission with love. Two thousand years ago, I told those who came to teaching: «Learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart». This is what I told them, and they were able to understand the good sense of My word upon them only by My wisdom. The gentle and humble in his heart has got clean and healthy teaching in him, since he is healthy in this way, and those who receive teaching from him, they take first this health in them and then become gentle and humble in their hearts, and only after that they receive the teaching and fulfill it and then they become My help on the earth for My works, for the fulfillment of everything I spoke to be worked and to be, for My work is to turn the man back to the wisdom of the righteous people and with it to fulfill My building in him, and his in Mine, My eternal life in him. Amen.

Oh, My people, when the world which has wandered away from My truth celebrates its feasts, as it says that it celebrates the feast of My birth today, then I spend within you the feast of today, not moved from its place, the feast of My bishop Spyridon[54], the one gentle and spirit in his heart, the one submitted to My works through him before the people. This bishop fulfilled Me in him, and I worked wonderfully from his tent and I seated My work on him among the people, overcoming the unfaithful ones to whom he showed My works through him, My power of victory through those who are My faithful and holy ones.

There is no other greater miracle among people than the fulfillment of My word. Then the man fulfills My word in him and he becomes God's miracle on the earth and he thanks Me for this and becomes gentle and humble in his heart before Me and before the people, and this is how he teaches the people their way to Me, and more than that he cannot do any good to the people.

[54] The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

Woe to those who want to be teachers to the people on My behalf without taking after Me, without having work in them from Me! In all the time of My works among people I hid from the trap of the man, I hid from the glory given by man, and the one who has My love in him, that one is like Me, gentle and humble in his heart, and that one does not look after My glory for his glory, but he rather seeks the wisdom of his life, the spirit of humility, the spirit that does not call out in the streets to be seen and heard, but it seeks after God's testimony among people instead, just as My bishop Spyridon confirmed My truth by his strong faith before the people who did not love the spirit of his humility, since they were so proud in their spirit, ruling over the people in My name with their spirit. This kind of people lie to themselves, always, always, believing that they can behave in one way before the people and in another way before God by what they do among the people, and My bishop Spyridon, in his time, put to shame the hypocrisy of those who pretended to be great into My name to keep the people in bondage and not submitted to God, since even they cannot submit to the truth, but on the contrary, they lie against him, as it is written that injustice lied to itself so that it may rule among people. Behold, I glorified Myself in man when the man becomes My dwelling place for My works among people, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and this is how I am in those who are, and I cannot be otherwise, and I do not work otherwise. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, if You built me as Your dwelling place among people, Lord, then I tell those who sit into Your name over the multitudes that other is the glory of the earthly things and other is the glory of the things from heaven, and for this wisdom one needs a gentle spirit and a humble heart, Lord, and this is the healthiest teaching upon the man, Lord. Oh, how shall we do, how shall we do, Lord? I tell the bishops who made each other bishops into Your name over the people, I tell them that their ministry is not in Your image and after Your likeness, for if they would be shepherds from You upon the people, they would work like You and not like man who looks after the glory from the people and for a name among people. You have made a great name among people for You, Lord, but You were gentle and humble in your heart, and humility was Your Spirit. Oh, what shall we do, Lord, what shall we do to remove the blindness from those who stay on the seats of saints into Your name over the multitudes? I call out to them to wake them up, if they want to get up. Lord I call out at them, for Your truth sighs under the locks. They have taken the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, because they have not wanted to come in to You, but they have rather wanted to block the way for all those who would find the real way of the man to You, Lord.

I call you out, and I call you out from the Lord, you those who sit on high seats into the name of the One Who was laid down on the cross for the man's salvation from the darkness! I call out to the light and I tell you that the Lord was laid on the cross before the people and He did not stay as you are staying now, for you are staying without any holy work and you do not bring lambs to the Lord. Leave off your pride, leave off your haughtiness and your desire for a name and glory, leave off this greed, for the glory is the Lord's, as you also honor Him when you want to take on His robe before the people. Your glory is seen on all your streets, but how comes that the glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit cannot show as I showed to those unfaithful bishops in the time of My confession before the Lord and before them and before the people of that time? Whose master do you really serve? Do you really ask yourselves about this? Oh, what do you work on the earth? The light comes from heaven on the earth, the Lord comes as word upon people, for He prophesied through the Scriptures saying this: «I Myself will take care of My sheep and I will shepherd them, and I will forbid the shepherds who pasture them feeding with their milk to shepherd them any longer and I will ask the life of My sheep from their hand». Behold, you do not serve God but you and this is injustice brought to the Lord, the Master of the vineyard.

Oh, seek after the wisdom of the Lord, for yours is that from the earth and it is mixed up with your desires for glory brought to you and not to God through you. Humble in view of the truth, for the truth from the sons of the people has grown less and there is no longer the devout man to cut the cunning from the earth and from the people, and injustice lies to itself, as it is written. Oh, there is a reward for all the things that are worked. Humble and look for your life and nestle with it in the Spirit of God, for the lawlessness and its sons will be destroyed and taken back to its place, as it is written about its fate in the Scriptures. Learn from God and get used to make room for the light, because the Lord works everything only in the light. Leave the Lord to fulfill His Scriptures and those of His prophets, for behold, you do not carry them within their hearts to fulfill and to ask for their fulfillment as the saints ask for the coming out of the new heaven and the new earth and of the new Jerusalem, about which it is written in the Scriptures to be. Wake up with wisdom, for you will no longer be able to sleep. Ask for the Lord to work out holiness in people. Do no longer eat meat, because it is a time of sufferance on the earth and in heaven. Do no longer eat meat! Receive Holy Spirit! Sanctify your bodies so that the Lord may have them as His house, for the servants who stay in the name of the Lord over the multitudes have to be temples of the Holy Spirit, of the holiness of the body[55] and of spirit, and that one who eats meat cannot be something else but only meat, as the one who receives the Holy Spirit from God becomes a heavenly dwelling for the Lord and for His saints, and his light is seen, for the glory of the Lord shines and gives resurrection, according to its nature. Oh, do not be ashamed to bow and drink from the Lord's wine, from the Lord's word. Take courage! Control yourselves and give your life and a face to the Lord in you, for I was and am like the Lord and gentle and humble yourselves in your heart, because this is how I teach you that you may be able to learn. Amen.

I, Lord, I would like to glorify You today too by the miracles of the faith and of my love of You, Lord, and I want to help You for the accomplishment of the plan of Your works and that is why I have come closer to those who sit over the multitudes with names of bishops. Oh, what a great miracle would be to be seen on the earth, if these tried to understand the work of a bishop in Your service, Lord! Oh, what a sweet spring would come on the earth with You if these made easier Your way to them and to the people after that, Lord. That day comes upon them when they will no longer be able to bear any kind of greatness before Your glory, which will bring the darkness into view in man, Lord. I want to start going to them with the spirit of my humility and to shake them and to fill them with the longing after You and with Your rest in them, for I, Lord, want to heal their mind, that they may feel the bitterness of emptiness in which they are wrapped for it cannot be any truth in emptiness, and they believe that they can behave in one way before the man and otherwise before You, and this is a great vanity, Lord, and it is the deception which has filled the earth with death, Lord, nothing can be seen besides this under the son, Lord, and the man fond of man, and the man uses Your name to hide under Your protection and from his works kept in the darkness in him, Lord. Oh, come Lord, come to show them the work of Your saints, for I was humble under the robe of bishop and this is how I was putting to shame the deception of the bishops of that time, who were not pleased to You, as neither those of this time are, Lord.

Oh, I try to come closer with the spirit of the heavenly powers and to strengthen the faith, the hope and the love of the bishop who is Your witness in the church of today, and with whom You have laid down on the rock of Your church and Your glory over the earth. I want to strengthen the heavenly powers and the glory of Your fulfillments around him, for he is Your chosen one and he stays among them and cannot walk. Cut down his bounds, Lord, and give him again the word of the Holy Spirit on his lips, the power of Your teachings, to which the men can come and take light and then walk in the laws of life, oh, Lord. This is how I ask You to fulfill, this is how I ask You, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

[55] See the selection topic: „What defiles a man, what enters or what comes out of him? ", r.n.

– I have listened in heaven and on earth to the word of your love, oh, gentle bishop and humble like Your Lord. And as for you, witness people of My word, which comes with the clouds, get used to ask for My fulfilling on the earth, as the saints ask for them. Learn to be just, My people. Be righteous on earth and in heaven, My people. Be righteous among people and among saints, for the people and for the saints, be righteous, My people. You should not seek to get used to the life of this age, you should not think that you can walk in one way with the man and in another way with God, for it is seen when the man is tested, and that is the man, for the gold is refined and cleared by furnace. Oh, seek to treat your brothers as you would treat God, My people, and this is what you should know that one stands before Me, for I cannot receive other kind of sacrifice from man, and the man cannot gather otherwise for himself to have in heaven, and to have much in heaven. Teach yourself to give forth the holy truth in you, but you should also work it to be, My people, and if you do not have it, then let yourself work for it, let it work upon you, son. Get used to fulfill My word, to write yourself with the faithful ones, and always show your face and let yourself be prepared for My kingdom and let yourself be cleansed from the human things, for happy is the one who receives the whole truth about him, that he may be able to let himself be prepared for My face in him, for My kingdom in him, and which is proved if it is or not, and this is how you will be My tool of the fulfilling of My Scriptures of new heaven and new earth, My people. Oh, do not forget; do not forget My teaching of today: the man cannot appear to be in one way with the man and in another way with God. I, the Lord, read and write the man as he behaves with the man, and this is how I see him when he serves for My kingdom in him, and this is the face which the man proves out before Me, and this is how I read, take him into consideration and write the man, and I do this through the angels, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2006 (12.12.2006 - Old style / after the Julian calendar)

2007

The feast of the Lord's Birth

My people, My word upon you is the comfort of the saints and of the angels, and it is My comfort as well. Oh, My people, the Lord your God is comforted when He has someone to speak on the earth with. Peace to you, My people! I am above you with the glory of My word and I stand in the clouds[56] of cherubim with the heavenly hosts and I comfort Myself in a day of the feast of the memorial of My birth among people. Two thousand years ago, I came on the earth being born as a baby from the Virgin, and I did not do this until first I had announced Myself through the prophets, starting with Moses and then, on the day of My birth in Bethlehem, I announced Myself through the angels to the shepherds from the sheep, and then I appeared newly born to the three Magi that had come from far away and to whom I revealed by the star of My birth that I would come with heavenly glory on the earth, full of mysterious glory and that My birth would cause opposition among those who were the rulers of the time, who love glory from people, glory for which the man cannot love God, My people, but you should take a look to learn how to be God's son, just as I am, for behold, the people on the earth did not know how to be pleased to God, and they do not know to love God's glory; the people do not know this, My people.

[56] See the selection topic: „He comes the same way as He ascended: He comes with the clouds", r.n.

Behold, I have come closer to those on the earth with a feast of birth. The glory of that day was sweet for those in heaven, for those in heaven had waited long for Me to become flesh on the earth and to write before the Father the man's salvation, which was by that time and which was then, and then it is in every time.

Oh, how humble should the man be, My people! I was born of the Father before the eternity, and I was born by the Holy Spirit, Who spoke about My mother, the Virgin, that I would become flesh in her in the moment of the angel's message, who brought the message to her that I would come as a child on the earth, a child born of her body to become the savior for each man who would receive Me from the Father to be his way and to be his salvation, and I came with a great humility on the earth after the man and I worked humbly the whole mystery of the man's salvation who comes to be with God on the earth.

I came near within the gates and I entered them with the feast of birth. Two thousand years ago, I showed the mystery of the birth to the man; I, Myself, showed it to him, for the man does not know what mystery means, for the greater God's glory is, the more mysterious it is among people, My people. This was My birth on the earth too, and I speak with you and I show you this by My way of speaking with you, and I ask you, My people, to let yourself be seized by this mystery more and more, for you have to understand well and better and better My mysterious work into your midst. I want to look at you more and more and I want to see that you know the mystery of the birth, the mystery of My word upon you, and which has always, always been born from Me into your midst, for you to be born from it and to keep yourself in it and to keep it in you, My people. I call you to a great wisdom when I become word upon you, and you should come when I call you, for I have always called you and I have always called you Mine when I call you, and I want you to be seized by the mystery of My word upon you, My people. Oh, I want you to be My sweet kingdom and I want to see that you know well the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens, for I have no one to share this sweet mystery on the earth, My people. Whoever imagines the kingdom of the heavens outside of him, that one cannot perceive its mystery, the work and its place between earth and heaven, and the imaginations of such a man are but fabrications and are not the truth. Oh, I was born for the man's heart, that it may be the throne of My kingdom in the man's body. The man's body and My throne in his heart, that is the heaven which I, the Lord, wait for it for Me on the earth for My rest and for the rest of My Father, My people. I was born humble two thousand years ago and I found My first housing place in the manger of the oxen, but first I came down in the heart of My mother and of Joseph, and then, close to the day of My birth, I came down in the hearts of the shepherds from the sheep, to whom the angels told about My coming, and I also came down in the hearts of the three Magi who confessed to the world about My birth, after they had found out and seen Me born. Behold, the kingdom of God is no otherwise than the man seeks to understand for him, and because of this I have no paradise on earth, I have no place where to stay or a glorified place on the earth, My people. When I made the man I made a garden of paradise for him in order that he may listen to Me in it, for the man to be My paradise, for I need the paradise more than man does, but behold, the man does not stop from his walking in order to understand My creation and its work, My purpose and the man's purpose between heaven and earth, God's mystery on earth with the man, My people.

In a day of feast, I am consumed with the man's longing, with My longing within man. I long for a dwelling place on earth, but the man imagines that the kingdom of the heavens and its beauty is outside of him. The man wants that My kingdom may be otherwise for him and with him, and that is why the people cannot perceive with their mind the mystery of My saints, who became and become a dwelling place on the earth, the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. The place of the kingdom of the heavens and its glory is in man, and I say again: the place of the kingdom of the heavens is in man, and I built the man for this glory. Oh, for seven thousand years the man has been following the man built by My hand, the one who pulled himself out from heaven to put Me out of him and that I may no longer have house, and that I may no longer have rest. I set My rest to be in man, and I called the seventh day My rest. And, if I saw that the man did not remain in My day of rest, I came and I started all over again My work from the Father and I made the man again. I came and I became Myself a Man, and after I was conceived in a virgin womb, I was born as a child, like a man, and I was God's rest, the rest of My Father, from Whom I am before the eternity, and then, at My birth, I showed the man's mystery again, because I became a dwelling place of God's kingdom on earth, and the Father was in Me, and I was in Him, and I made clear to My disciples this mystery when they asked Me to show the Father to them and when I, in a wonderful way, had always, always been showing that I and My Father were one, and working visibly I was showing them, that the work of My Father in Me had always become glory before the people.

Oh, only if the man wanted to stop from his way and to seek to understand the wisdom of the kingdom of the heavens, then I, the Lord, would sit in counsel with the man and I would give him this wisdom. I could have revealed Myself to the man as I am from eternity from the Father, but I humbled Myself so much and I lowered Myself so much until I was born of man, a Child like the man who is born of man; I humbled Myself so much when I was to appear before the man and to prove Myself as the Father's subject, the kingdom of God's miracles in My body made in the image of man, and then I was born to grow after the man's likeness, to suffer for man and then to be glorified with the glory which I had from the Father before the eternity.

I want, man, to comfort you with the comfort of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. I want, man, to teach you and to help you to understand the mystery and the place of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. Oh, man, do no longer wait for this kingdom to come to you or you to come to it, for you, you have to be its illuminating place around you, man born of man. I appeared Myself two thousand years ago, and this is how I taught the man what the kingdom of the heavens was and what kind of work it had. Oh, it is not possible for the kingdom of the heavens to be down on earth and in heaven above, it is not possible to be, by only in the spirit, in the man's soul and body with all its face and its place. This is the wisdom, man, and the wisdom is not from the earth, and because of the man's wisdom, which lives on earth an in the earth without heaven, God's mystery with the man is put out; My track on the earth and in man is wiped out.

I come with a sweet mystery, I come with the teaching of mystery for the man to receive birth from above, My people, but I want you to stay before Me as the kingdom of the heavens, and I want you to be the way of the man to this mystery of the birth from above, for great is the mystery of the birth from above, My people. I speak again and I say: woe to the man who waits imagining the kingdom of the heavens on earth and in heaven outside of him! I was born for the man's heart, to make it the throne of My kingdom in man, and this is how the man is supposed to understand the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens and this is how the man is supposed to work, for I Myself have showed to the man the work which he has to work after he receives birth from above from Me and life and wisdom for it. When I made the man, I made him a mature man, but when I took the man's image, I humbled Myself very much and I appeared then as a small baby, born from the body of Virgin mother, as every man would have been if he had not violated the obedience to God and the love for obedience. Oh, become small, man. Humble yourself for I, the Lord, humbled Myself and I humbled Myself greatly and then the man humiliated Me and the humility that came from the man had placed Me in humility, and My Spirit was before the man and before the Father. Clothe your heart within this spirit and become into My image and after My likeness, to be able to see each other by resemblance, man, for only when we resemble each other we will be able to see each other and not otherwise, man. I want you to understand My kingdom and its place in you before the day of My glory, for it has its place destined in man, and its miracles are wonderful in man, and then outside of him to the good view of many then, and then you will be like Me, man. Amen.

Oh, My people, I teach you with loftiness of mystery and word the glory of My kingdom and its birth in you for Me and for you on the earth and in heaven. It is a feast of new birth and it is the time for wisdom from heaven in your being, My people. Oh, open up your being and leave My the glory and its work to perceive you and then show Me that I am your Master, and that you are My kingdom, which is born in you at My voice upon you, the voice which calls the man to the mystery from above, the mystery of the birth, My people. Amen.

Oh, watchful children who are in the gates when My word comes! I, the Lord, will speak to those who have heard My voice of today and I will tell them clearly the mystery of My birth on the earth, the mystery of My kingdom in man, for those who have heard My speaking by this spring of word, have not understood from Me and they have understood from them instead, and then they lost and lose by leading away from the way those who would have had to be the people of My word today too and this people to have grown with the heaven. I, the Lord, will speak the mystery of the birth to them, the mystery of the heaven on earth, and I will teach them sweetly for their wisdom, for woe to those who, neglecting the wisdom from above, become wisdom for themselves, boasting about its voice before My voice not understood by the man who does not have the spirit of humility as I, the Lord, have it.

Peace to you and a feast of birth, always of birth, My people, and this way you will be able to stay from above on the earth, and this way you will be able to be My rest, My day of rest, My people.

25-12-2006 (Old style / after the Julian calendar / 07-01-2007 - N.S.)

The feast of the Saint Apostle, the first martyr and archdeacon, Stephen
(Excerpt)

My heart is burned from the longing of My kingdom in man. I want to put teaching of birth from above over man. I want to teach and to ask him to seek after God's kingdom in him, to look at his heart and to give it to Me to make My kingdom in it and to dwell in it as I am, and I to add to him all that he needs for which man labors and does not find the end of his hard work.

Oh, My people, happy is the one who is above, as I am, for I have come on earth for the man's heart, to take it within Me and to give birth to man from above so that he may be the dwelling place of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, a kingdom that does not perish for it is from above and not from below. Whoever is able to believe in My coming of two thousand years ago and in that of nowadays when I am teaching the man, that one has to come to the learning for the strengthening of his faith, for his questioning, because without a teacher for faith, man cannot give himself and then to be a dwelling place of My kingdom in him. The mystery of the birth from above is not from the earth, and the one, who has joined to My word that is speaking from heaven on earth now, has not had any power to believe and whoever does not understand those that come from God and which must be believed with the spirit and not with the eye or human mind caused and causes Me pains. The one who is born from above by the breath of My word over him is the one who believes in My works as the one without any deceit in him believed in the time of My body and to whom I revealed the mystery of the birth from above when I said: «You must be born from above».

Man has to be of God as I am and that is why I have come on earth then and now, My people. The man is born of man, and I come from heaven and tell the man that he must be born of God, look for the kingdom of the heavens, take it in him in order to be born for it so that he may belong to it after that, and only in this way man can belong to God, and not otherwise, My people.

… Oh, My dear people of old, humble yourself and listen to My voice. The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. (See John: 3/8) I, the Lord, reveal you again the mystery of the man's birth from above. He who is born from above by the breath of My word upon him is the one who believes without any deceit in My works and in its mysterious fulfilling of My Scriptures, as the one without deceit believed in the time of My body, when I revealed him the mystery of the birth from above and to whom I said: «You must be born anew». (John: 3/7), for man must be of God as I am and that is why I came on earth at that time, and I have come now as word, too, My people of old. Oh, the time will come and it has already come for the sons of the kingdom of the heavens on earth to be seen well, My people of old, and I sigh after you like My trumpet Virginia, and I long after My kingdom and its face in the one who has heard the breath of the heavenly wind which comes in the wind down to the earth to give the man the birth from above.

27-12-2006/09-01-2007.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism

With a sweet feast of Epiphany I come into your midst, Romanian Jerusalem[57], people with a new name. I have given you a new name, My people and I have always baptized you with the Holy Spirit, and I have marked you as Mine, for the heaven is open above you, and God's angels are ascending and descending on Me, and they ascend and descend again when I speak My word into your midst, and I want you to stay with no deceit before Me and to believe, My people, as two thousand years ago, My disciples believed in My word that was upon them having no deceit, those whom I taught how to believe after I had seen their hearts and the levity in it, by which they received Me, loved Me and believed in Me, My people, and I had always, always been baptizing them with the Holy Spirit, the same as I have worked with you today to keep you always, always in the bath of the birth from above, for I am the One Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit, My people.

Oh, I chose My disciples with great care and I taught them with great power, and they were not deceptive and believed in Me, understood Me and followed Me, My people. When they found from each other about Me, they were asking themselves and rejoicing, and they were confessing Me without deceit, without doubt, in My coming then from the Father on the earth, and they were calling Me Teacher, and I was also confessing and telling them: «Come, and you will see where My dwelling place is». And I was also telling to one them: «You are Simon and you will be called Cephas». Yet, to another one I was telling: «Come after Me!», and to the one who came to Me I said: «Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!». And then he confessed Me saying:

[57] See the selection topic: „Romania – The New Jerusalem – The New Canaan", r.n.

«Rabbi, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel, the son of Joseph from Nazareth». And I sealed him and I told him: «Most assuredly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man». (See John: 1/42, 47, 49, 51) Amen.

Oh, I was teaching My disciples with such great love, the love without hypocrisy and with steadfast faith, and I was walking after them to choose them, and the angels were serving Me, as I told them, and then I turned the water into wine, to choose disciples and I chose them performing miracles before them, and when the one with no deceit came by night to confess his steadfast faith that I came from God as a Teacher on the earth, and that the miracles that I was doing were confessing Me as the Son of the Father, then I, the Lord, told him: «Most assuredly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God». (John: 1/5), and I explained to him the mystery of the birth from above, for he had no deceit, although he was a teacher in Israel and he was a ruler among them, and then I told him again: «He who believes in Me is not judged, and he who does not believe has already been judged, for the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were evil and they did not want them to be exposed», (See also John: 3/18-20) and this is how I was able to tell him about My power from the Father over those that believe in Me without deceit, and then again, about My pain from the man, after the man, knowing Me and loving his own self more, then he denies Me.

Oh, My people, the mystery of the baptism is the mystery of the birth from above, and this is how I was teaching those without deceit to be My disciples and to believe working the heavenly mysteries on the earth, as I have also worked in the time of My coming of now, My people, but, as at that time, very few have wanted to remain totally Mine, and without deceit to have given Me My time with them and to have them as fruit before the Father and that they may not be judged by not loving the light but the darkness and their works instead, being kept in the darkness.

Oh, I could not make the Israel of that time understand from Me that I am not two Gods; I could not and only a small remnant of it wanted then to be with My grace, and the other one wanted to be under the darkness instead, boasting about the law, which protected the sin and which could not save the man from destruction, and, behold, this is what has happened to us today too, oh, My people, but I am also speaking for today and say: I am not two Gods but I am Only One God and I have come down from heaven to make the man holy and to save him in this way. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, My people! I have always, always baptized you with the Holy Spirit and I teach you the birth and the growth, and after that I teach you what it means to become a child, the life without sin, son, because it hurts Me and it hurts Me bitterly when I hear on the earth the man that says that God does not ask from the sinners what He asks from the saints for their salvation. However now, I wipe out the tears from My face and I cry again on it, and I wipe it out again and say: he who sins having a law, as he says, that one is separated from Me, for I am the One without sin and I am the God of those who stay under My protecting angel, waiting after those who commit sin to leave off their sin and to become holy for their salvation, for I am One God. Amen.

With a sweet feast of Epiphany I am standing today into your mist, My people of today, and I have set you to lay the table from the earth and I am to put on it food from heaven and to invite My people of yesterday, My people of old, that I may come and dine with it in a feast of baptism, for it fell from grace after it had known Me that I had come from God to counsel it and then to give it life from above and to have it as Mine, but it wanted Me to be its God the way it was, and not as I can have the man so that he may be Mine.

Oh, people of old, not so, it is not as you are staying now, far from the works of your faith in Me; it is not in this way that you can call Me your God. I am the God of those who leave sin to come to Me and to receive the baptism with the Holy Spirit upon them so that they may remain saints after that and not sinners and servants of the flesh again. I embrace you with the word, people of old. I am sitting at the table with you and crying and I want to remind you of My miracle, of My voice which was speaking to you and teaching you to be, and that you may no longer let yourself die, but rather to be alive, and to be the saint of God, for there is no sweeter life for man than the holy life in him, with which he comforts Me, becoming My rest, for I have lost the rest after the man died in his sin, My people of old. Oh, I have waited for you again, and I have poured power over you to be able to become Mine and to be the day of My coming and that you may no longer be the darkness of the ruler of this age, but of the sons of the darkness, who because of their wicked works do not love the light, and they do not want the darkness to expose their works, My people of old. Oh, as two thousand years ago, very few in you wanted to remain My people completely and with no deceit in order to give Me My time with them, and not to give it to them. Oh, you have remained with the law which protects the sin, people of old, and I have remained with a sigh after you, for I have wanted you to be holy for Me, but you have not wanted and the sin has seemed sweet to you when you wanted to choose My way or your way for you, and then you have left Me crying, waiting and being ashamed before the ruler of the darkness of this age, which weakens you so that you may not bring your works into the light and rather to keep your fleshly sins into the darkness and give Me from you, for I have come as light into the world, so that anyone who believes in Me may not perish but have eternal life, My people of old, and not to have life only for a little while, and then death and sin to come; oh, not in this way, people of old, not in this way, not so. I have taught you otherwise and I have given you the book of My coming with you to remind you of My miracle into your midst and that you may not stay far from Me, but to wake up instead, My people of old, and to make Me glad with your repentance and humility, and to confess Me as true God and as your God, as My disciples, chosen by My grace two thousand years ago, confessed Me without deceit; moreover, I was also confessing them, speaking with them and I was revealing them the mysteries of their lives, and then I was loving those without any deceit in them and I was getting comfort from them.

Oh, people of old, I have walked with you on the earth and I have always swaddled you within the swaddle of My giving of life word and I have comforted you but you did not comfort Me and do not comfort Me, but you have always left Me outside and you are cold and forget Me, and you can hardly remember My work with you, My people of old. Oh, I have given you disciples from your midst, without any deceit in them, and I have established them to be My way between Me and you, but you, people of old, you were stung in your heart by the evil spirit that rose against Me into your midst. Oh, did I do something wrong to them since they have stricken your faith in Me? What have they got if they neither wanted anymore and nor wanted you to be with My kingdom in you, people of old? Do not do like them; and do not ask for any answers from Me for your lack of God, blaming those that let themselves be the way for Me further to the man after I had taken My vessel, Verginica[58], into heaven. Oh, keep away from the sin of rebellion and get under the shield of light, for behold, I am word on the earth, as you know that I have come now, and I am the Light which brings those in the dark into the light, people of old. Oh, I embrace you within a spirit of Epiphany; be illuminated with the grace of the Holy Spirit and come to repentance and to a spirit of humility before Me and wipe out My tear, which runs for you and call Me in your life to be your Lord, for the people of Israel did not want to reign over it and it did not want to have a helm on the earth, and it rather wanted to be great having its will and thus it removed Me from upon it, and then it aggrieved Moses, the servant that I set upon it to save it from bondage and tears, but it stood against Me and made Me suffer, because it put on airs and thus Israel perished, the people that I took out of bondage to be My people. And I have suffered from it, and I have also suffered from you, My people in the time of My trumpet Verginica, and she had also suffered, for she wanted you to be My comfort and her comfort, oh, people without revival, but do not stay like that, do no longer stay this way, do no longer stay without wisdom, and let Me reveal everything, about which you are not able to know without Me, and learn how to know about My coming of today and the fulfillments, which I, the Lord, prophesied into your midst that they would come; oh, and how many I prophesied for your happiness, people of old! However, what shall I really do, to be able to understand and start with your holiness, and that your life may not seem sweet and My life bitter to you, for your life is bitter, and you are not able to know this, so that you may be able to allow yourself be born from above, of My word, which has come upon you and which, behold, it has become book, as I, the Lord, prophesied, people of old. Oh, I want you to be a student with knowledge, to ask yourself as My disciples of two thousand years ago without any deceit were asking themselves, and I was revealing them everything were hidden under My word that was upon them, all those about Me between earth and heaven then and now, My people of old. I, the Lord, ask you to open My book with you and see that you, instead of being the one with whom I fulfill those prophesied for Me with you, you want to take after those who give away the sign of the Scriptures, which have prophesied about the coldness of the love and about the time of the unbelief from before My day[59] of glory, a day with glory for those who are saved and a day with wrath for those who judge themselves by their unbelief. Oh, blame the coldness of your love and baptize your faith in My word. Oh, the Sundays cry in heaven, people of old, the days empty of God in people cry, and the earth mourns over My longing, and I wait for the man, and I want for you too, My people of old. I want that the mystery of the birth from above may seize you and comprise it within you, to know to confess Me, for I have walked a lot after you and I have taught you many things, people of old. Learn from Me and do no longer let yourself be taught and enticed by those in your midst who have chosen to rebel and sharpened their tongues like a sword, by which they throw their poisonous words like some arrows to hit the innocent from the hidings, from the darkness while they say: «Who is going to see us?», and thus in this way they hurt themselves by their tongues, drawing their reward upon themselves, as it is written.

[58] Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet (See selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.)

Oh, wake up, people of old, to receive the grace of forgiveness and reconciliation and to reconcile God to you, for you have the sign of this mystery of word on you, by which I have been advising you for fifty years with the hope of My comfort, that afterwards I may come and reign, as it is written into the prophets and into My book with you, My people of old. Amen.

Oh, do not forget that I, the Lord your God, wait for your perfect waking up, My people of old. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, little and tiny people, born in My way with My people of old, strengthen your faith without deceit for its work, and speak with the people from the beginning of this word of My second coming from near the Father. If you are not able to speak, tiny people, do not stay like that, but rather blame your silence and show to the opposing spirit that you are alive and that the Lord is the One living into your midst, and confess Me, son of today, and work for Me, for those who speak the words of life draw near them God's angels and the saints, and the opposing spirit weakens and let itself be torn down when it sees the Lord alive in them. Oh, learn as beautiful as you can the holy and proper walking before the heaven and before the man, and do not forget that you do not have to live as on earth, but you have to be as the Lord loves you to be on the earth, little and tiny people. Always learn, always learn, and always baptize in My word all the power of your life, of your tongue, of your heart, for My word upon you is sweet grace, which builds you to be. It is a day of Epiphany and I stay with you before My people of old, when you had not been yet in My way of today of My coming; however, I have called you then and I have given My vineyard so that you may give forth fruit, and so that I may have you as the sign[60] of My coming, in such a way that the country of My coming may see that you love Me and that you have Me and that you give Me to those who come with no deceit and are baptized within My word, which gives life to those who listen to it, My people. Amen.

[59] See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.

Oh, My country, be baptized in My word, for you are the country with My glory in it. My word, which speaks in you and with you, this means My glory in you, oh, My country with a treasure in it. Oh, I, the Lord, comfort you with My whisper in you and I teach you the birth from above, and I tell you as I said two thousand years ago: «That what is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' I have not come into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through Me. Whoever believes in Me is not judged, and the one who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in Me, for I have come into the world as Light and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. However, he who works truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God». (See John: 3/6, 7, 17, 18, 21) Amen. This is how I was teaching My disciples two thousand years ago, oh, My country, and I have taught you today too, and I want that those without deceit to be seen in you, for it is so easy for them to believe in My word, that they themselves may testify by their work about My image in them, about their birth from God with the baptism from above over their being, oh, country with My treasure in you, but you should come to revival, to know and to see the One Who knocks that He may confess Himself from your midst as your God, and you, His, oh My country, with My treasure in it. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-01-2007

The synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

The armies of saints are in My coming down as word on the earth, for the reward of the saints is My walking with them when I come from the Father with My coming to man and after man. There is nothing sweeter for the saints on earth and in heaven like God, My people, for the saints know that only God is the One Who can sweeten the spirit, the life and the man's heart, and He is the eternal One. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am at your table with My forerunner, John. He was My disciple, and the gift of the prophecy, which dwelt in him from God, had as its work the testimony about Me, the Lamb of God. He has given Me his disciples, and then he went to the Father before Me and confessed Me before the saints of the heavens, and then he also confessed Me to those in hell, for the gift of the one who confesses God is so great, and those in hell, who waited and wait for their resurrection, leaped within the spirit and were relieved of their pain at the hearing of My name and of My work, which I work for the man's resurrection, My people, because as Moses was God's messenger to be enabled to take Israel out of bondage and to give it the land of promise, in the same way I was the Father's messenger on the earth and in hell too, to take the man out from the darkness to the light, from death to light, and I was the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I was His disciple. Amen.

[60] See the selection topic: „The sign of the Son of Man", r.n.)

Oh, My people, woe to the one without a teacher upon him, for that one cannot be disciple and cannot raise disciples and cannot work for God, and he cannot work for him either, for work for man means that which lasts then. I became Teacher because of My love and My mercy for man, and the one who wants to be a teacher should not work otherwise. The one who does not raise disciples of the same work with him, that one is not a teacher, and I worked like the Father, Who had sent Me and likewise worked John, My baptizer, and the work of his testimony proved out God, it proved Me, the Lamb of the Father, for he told his disciples: «Behold the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world on His shoulders; He must increase and I must decrease, for He was before Me». (See also John: 1/29; 3/30) Amen.

– Oh, my Teacher, You are the Lamb of God, and You are heavy with sufferance, Lord, for You have raised on Your shoulders the heavy burden of the sins of the world, of the sufferance for the sin, Lord. The true teacher is the one who teaches the man the eternal life and the sweetness of the sufferance by which the man keeps his life, for the life is everything that is most expensive on earth and in heaven, Lord. You were full of sufferance and You were the Little Lamb, for You carried the burden of sufferance that the Father could forgive the sins of the world, and I came to testify about You as the Lamb of God, that the world may believe in You and may have eternal life, Lord.

Oh, people of the Lamb of God! He said: «He who believes in Me will never die and will have eternal life». The man is the one who has to fulfill this word of the Lamb of God, and I confessed Him to the world so that the world might believe that He came from the Father to the man, and that He would take on His shoulders the burden of sufferance, the atonement for the sins of the world, for He is a Teacher of the eternal life for the man, and His disciples are the sons of life, as I also was and I am.

Oh, Lord, the teaching for the disciples is the faith in You, for then it does the works of life, Lord, and I was teaching the people to repent and work Your kingdom in them, which is the fruit of the man's repentance, for Your kingdom is seen when it is, Lord. Nothing is sweeter for the saints like God, and Your saints become sweet for You, for they are those who know the mystery of the glory and its sweetness, and this love is great, which the people do not know, and You have come and taught the people this mystery, for you are Teacher, Lord, and happy are those who love to become the disciples of Your teaching and Your confessors, just as I was, confessing You to the people as the Father's messenger, the Lamb of God, heavy with the sins of the world so that You may save it, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, My baptizer, John, confesses Me from near Me and he becomes the teacher of the eternal life over the man, for he has, like Me, love and mercy for man. Any of My disciples is like Me, and this is how you are to work the mystery of the eternal life either, My people. It is the time of the feast of the saints into your midst, and I teach you to be My disciple, that I may always endow you with this knowledge, for the love and mercy for man teach you, My people, and I look at you and want to see that you work this way and that you share in this way. Oh, look at the work of the saints and work like Me and like the saints, for the love and mercy of man find their power in the work of the humility of spirit, and this work in man is full of the spirit of holy peace, My people. Oh, become the word of the love for the Lord, for the saints and for the man, and blame your silence when it enslaves the Lord Word inside you, for as the food for the body refreshes the body, the food for the soul, the word of life, works more than this for the spirit, My people. Oh, the reward for the disciples is great, for they have the eternal food for man, the word of life, and there is no greater man than that who makes sweet life for God inside of him and outside of him, sowing from it for life in people. This is the work of My disciple, and which I have given you to work, and to work it sweetly, My people, and that the world may see then at you and to learn from you that nothing can be truer and sweeter for the man's life, nothing like God, the One full of mercy for man. Amen.

For confession one needs love and faith, and one needs mercy and obedience of son before the one who teaches you to be, and I, the Lord, looking always at you, My people, teach you and I exhort you; I look at you and I have always, always waited for you, to be My comfort, to be My disciple, and to comfort Me with your work of My disciple, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-01-2007

The Sunday of the memorial of the fearful judgment

The heaven of saints and angels wait for Me to speak a word of food in the midst of My people of word from now and which has its dwelling place in the hearth of the Romanian people

Let there be waiting within the gates! Let there be God as word over the earth, children from the gates! Oh, I know that you are tender, I know, sons, I know, but My saints and My angels need warm food, and those who know now to seek after Me with you also need to rest their souls with My food on the table with you. Oh, I have always, always spoken a word to be fulfilled and I told you that you may be strengthened within the gates, and day and night to be supported for My powers in you, for My descent as word on the earth, children sons. Oh, I am so aggrieved and so much devoid of help within My sufferance! Oh, how much you are weakened in My power in you! If this power does not work, then it does not multiply too, it does not grow in man, when it is not shared to be working over the life of the one who takes it when is shared.

Oh, keep away from pains and be strengthened, children from the gates. They want to protect you from pains and morning, and long ago, I said that you would be cradled within comforts to gather strength, for the Lord speaks this. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, I take care of you, for you are My son, but I wait from you power and comfort for Me, My people. Oh, be diligent in the spirit of the holy love for your Lord, because I, the Lord, feed you with non-perishable food, incorruptible, as those who eat of My table have to be present as well. I have the table of the kingdom of the heaven into your midst and I have opened its window and door wide open for the nations of the earth to enter and take from My table and to learn the works of life, the work of their salvation, My people. The man has to work the works of his salvation all the time and he has to know them to be able to work them. They are the mercy and love for it. They stay in the way of the man that the man may be able to work them before Me, and no one can say that he has nowhere to work them and how to work them. The man needs to have mercy on Me all the time, and he needs to do these with great love and longing, for the man does not do them otherwise. For love one needs love and longing, My people, and when the man cannot work that way, he has no love and cannot share mercy; he cannot share life to the one who does not have works for a saving life before Me and among the people.

Oh, My people, the man is not afraid of punishment over his life, of judgment for his works, and I, the Lord, will call or depart the man when I stand before him with a question in the day of the fearful judgment and when he asks Me: "When, Lord, have I done these so that You may receive Me now? on the other hand "When have I not done these that you cast me out now because I have not done them that I have not worked the mercy and love for it?". The people do no longer have the gift of mercy for God, My people, for in order that the man may have it, he has to learn the work and its work, and only then the man can work it before Me, for the love heals the man from his self, and without it the man cannot have his clean mercy and to give to Me from it, for it is shared to those who are loved by Me in their work, and this is how it serves Me for the saving works of the man and which works for eternal life for him, life with clean teaching, and he who is humble receives teaching and exhortation from Me and he does not take from him, because the man cannot take and then have by he himself, because the mystery of the work of life is not that way. The work of life is the mystery clothed in the spirit of humility when it comes up to Me from man, and the man exalts then the one who becomes his way to Me, and behold, the man, loving of God, is that one who lifts his neighbor up to Me, not to himself, and the one who works that way fulfills as I have told the man to follow Me, for I said this: «Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me». (Mark: 8/34) Behold, My people, this is how the love of God is and this is how it comes to Me when the man works it over his neighbor lifting him up to Me. I wait nothing from you but these, My people son, and you should work in a humble spirit the work of your life, so that it may have a coming to Me by those who are pleased to Me with their lives, with their bowing before Me, and the man sees how I teach you and he learns from Me, My people, and the man comes back to God with humility and repentance, for the prodigal son first humbled himself and then he worked out repentance and came with it confessing it to his father, and his repentance worked for him, for the father started to wait for him and make him glad by forgiving him and no longer reminding him of his wandering away when he came back as one who escaped from his worst bondage. Oh, the heaviest bondage of the man is that when he serves his mind and its lusts, and if I do not humiliate him with great shortcomings to help him to repentance, then the man cannot get out of this bondage in which he came to stay careless of his life. My people, I have wanted to put food on your table in a day of memorial of the prodigal son, and I could not be kept in the gates, for there is weakness in the gates, and I ask you again to take care of My coming to you and to tack care of Your living in Me, to be able to work for one another, I for you and you for Me, My people. Take care with mercy and love, and take care of Me and you, My people, and then take care of all those who knock that I may release My spring and My teaching upon you, for many bow to it and then look in it and take it and are comforted within its spirit, with its sweetness over their life which yearns in them after its redemption, and you know the work which I have to work over the earth and over the man, worked into your midst, My people, and look in the Scriptures and see how it is written in them about My teaching to which the nations of the earth have come and received of it now, looking into it and taking, and little by little being resurrected and believing and being brought to life. Amen.

Oh, people of the feast of the Holy Spirit at My table with you, always whisper to yourself the commandment of life and work it and love God and love your neighbor, which is My son, and this is how you should work out your eternal life and its answer. Moreover, you should be able to give Me an answer every day and I to have an answer to give you, son, and to answer you happily, and to have you as My blessed one when you search My pain, My weakness, My hunger and thirst, My wandering, My poverty and My longing after your comfort, My people.

Every minute, let your all work be My comfort from you, My people, and let it be clean, as I worked between earth and heaven, when I came to teach the man what life was, for I advised the man to the Father, and I became an example for the love by which I taught the man the perfect love and its humbled spirit, which becomes its way, the way of the man's being before Man. The perfect love has the humble spirit as its spring, and he becomes the way of love when the man knows to give himself to God, and I become perfect into your midst with the teaching and I give Myself, My people, and help the man to learn his way with God on it, and I get comforted when I can call out the man from him to Me, from death to life, from darkness to light, looking at him then to see him working the perfect love by its humble spirit in man, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-01/11-02-2007

The feast of the three saint hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I announce Myself at the gates to come in as word in the book and to sit down with a table of word for those in heaven and for those on the earth who love My voice of today, taking Me as their comfort and Teacher.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and the glory of My word rejoices the heaven of saints and angels. All of the heavenly armies sit down at My table of word on the earth. The holy heaven is celebrating for My holy bishops, Basil, Gregory and John. They worked My testimony and its graces on earth, and their work waited for them in glory, crowned them and made them workers from heaven on earth, and all the saints are now in My coming, and many on the earth are nourished from My mouth, when I become word in the midst of My people.

Oh, people nourished from heaven, I feed you, son, I have always fed you, comforting Myself when I speak to you. I strengthen My comfort over you to become divine, and to have you as My dwelling place, for My comfort gives the man heavenly powers if the mystery and its work can seize the man, My mystery with the man on earth, for I, the Lord, am the mysterious One, and I am clothed in the Father, and the Father is in Me and with Me, and only the faith from heaven can help the man remain on the side of My mysterious truth, because the faith on the earth is like the man who passes away, and it is not like God, for the Lord is eternal, My people, and the same were and are His confessing saints of the truth above everything and which has become the eternal inheritance of My saints. Amen.

I, the Lord, strengthen My comfort into your midst, My people. It is My comforting word, which exhorts you to raise the confessing work up to Me: faith, hope and love, and these build each other in man when the man fulfills in him the commandment of life, the love for God with his entire being all the time, and the love of brothers, and the brothers are those who love God according to the commandment of the love from above, the commandment of life, about which the voice of the apostle said: «We know that we have passed from death to life because we love our brothers». Amen, amen, amen.

- Lord, bless the entrance of Your saints. Amen. We come into Your book, oh, Lord, because You have taken us on Your right side, now, within Your descent, and we are confessing You the Master of love and of those who love You, for You love the Father and all those who You have from the Father, the sons of the love from above, who had and have as their work the faith, the love and the food for the love from above in man, oh, Lord of Your saints.

We, those who are confessed today among Your saints were brothers by the love from above worked on the earth among people, for we loved the mystery of brotherhood and its power from heaven upon the brothers, Lord. Oh, there is no greater power of Your fulfillment, of Your confession, than the power fed from the brotherhood full of You among brothers. There where You mark everything, there the commandment of life is fulfilled with great power, Your love among brothers, Lord. Only those who have You as their life, only they are brothers with brotherhood, which is not spoiled, and which lasts then among brothers in heaven, Lord. We always, always passed from death to life because we loved Your people and worked much for Your church, Lord, and the wolves that were lying in wait for it were afraid of us then and that is why they became worse in themselves as some who did not fulfill the commandment of love, the commandment of life, Lord.

Now, Lord, we strengthen the love from You of those whom You have made Your sons on the earth, and we tell them this: Love the commandment of life and always work it, passing from death to life, always, always by your love among you, oh, sons of the holy people, for the Lord stands into your midst and does not grow less sharing to you to have His love in you and to be like Him among brother and brother. Be wise, be more and more wise. Brothers are those who love each other, helping one another, giving themselves to one another, cleansing each other, and feeding the love from above in them and among them all the time, for great is the mystery of the heavenly mystery on earth, and its work becomes the light of the people and it gives birth from it confessors from God, as we worked and fulfilled, and then we rested in the fruits of the faith by which we hoped for the love from above and within which we worked on the earth.

We exhort you, those who are anointed with the chrism of our graces, to be one always, always in the spirit of the holy prayers, by which you may be able to ask for the work of the grace upon you, and to be able to work by it the light in the midst of the holy people, light of which all the spirits of the darkness may be afraid, a restless spirit now, and to go away from the way of the work of God with you. However, you should be sons of the brotherly love, for the power of the brotherhood from above gives birth to the Lord's blessing over brothers. Bear with abundant life in you the graces put upon you and work their work, gathering in the Lord your entire work, in order to be rich on earth and in heaven, as we also were and are. Faith, hope and love feed each other when they have as work the love among brothers, sweet work, anointed sons, work which unites the heaven with the earth, and the saints with the people, and may the spirit of obedience to God and to His entire word be your way to the Lord with all your holy requests, by which you may persevere before the Lord for your salvation and for that of the world, for the world is careless of its salvation, and you are established by the Lord as intercessors for the renewal of the world. Be wise and work in the spirit of humility and repentance, for the renewal of the world is work with heaviness and it is the Scripture, which has to be fulfilled among you, anointed sons.

Oh, Lord, we work from near you, and we work like You and we confess You, and we confess those whom You made Yours and those who have their duty to follow You, Lord, and to become love from heaven on earth and that You may be able to work in them and among them, Lord, for all of the saints wait for Your complete victory, which will be to appear soon, soon, by Your new people, the people of Your word, which has in its midst the table of the Holy Spirit, the heaven and the earth together at the table of the Holy Spirit, oh, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– I glorify Myself through you, My loved saints, and as I glorified Myself on the earth, when I had you as the vessels of holiness, vessels full of anointing oil, the anointing oil of the holy teaching, vessels full of holy longing, the most sweet smelling anointing oil, the most sweet sacrifice brought to Me, by those whom I love for their love by which they give themselves to God to make Him good on the earth. Bring prayers before the Lord full of longing for My people on the earth, for I want to clothe it in the love from above, and that with every passing day it may work the power, which is born from the holy brotherhood among them. The mystery of brotherhood is clean, but few are those who love and work it, for those who do not know to deny themselves for the work of the love, they do not come and do not touch the mystery and the power of the brothers from above among brothers. Those who love each other in the spirit of the heavenly brotherhood do not draw the fruits of the brotherly love to themselves, but, on the contrary, they always, always give them to each other on earth as in heaven, for love cannot work otherwise, because it is that which does not look for its own things, and behold how far the people from the holy truths are, which they have nowhere to learn from and to get used with them in their work for their life.

Oh, My people, I want you to be My fulfilled commandment, for the whole life is a commandment, and the people have violated the commandment of life and the life that loves with the love, which does not seek after its own benefits and which multiplies itself in man giving itself further, and not working otherwise.

Oh, My people, whenever I can speak to you, I get comforted. Be comforted as well with My speaking and get rich with it and always work the mystery and the power of the brotherly love, the love from above, for the place where the brothers live together has to be a place which burns giving light on the sides and which it gives itself to God then as the spring and offering of sweet fragrance, to the confirmation of My blessing over those who love themselves within Me, and loving each other, they become My kingdom, My rest, the heaven for God, and they also become the light of the world by the spirit of peace and of the holy brotherhood among them, and further, they become ways among themselves for those who are saved. Amen, amen, amen.

30-01/12-02-2007

The feast of the Lord's Meeting

In a day of holy feast with you, My people, I bow to the man on the earth and I become word upon him to remind him of the heaven and to tell him no longer to stay as on earth, but to stay as in heaven on earth, as I stay, for I said: «The heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool», (Is: 66/1; Acts: 7/49), as the earth is the man's footstool as well, the man asking from Me for My will to be on earth as in heaven, and behold, the man forgets about the heaven on earth with him, and I, the Lord, advise him to come to wisdom and to stay on earth as in heaven and the man to love My will against his will. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, I want to see in you a spirit of meeting for My descent as word into your midst. Humble yourself My people, for humility means love. Bow, son, for behold, I also bow and embrace you in the word, and this is how you should also do, for we are members to each other, My people. Oh, you have to be very wise. You have to understand what My dwelling with you is and what your dwelling with Me is, for in heaven there is only blessing and its glory between Me and My saints, between them and Me, and you have to live on earth as in heaven, My people. Bow son to the work of this blessing, and always bow, for I have set you brother with brother from place to place for the work of the blessing, for it is written: «See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity! The Lord has commanded the blessing and the life in eternity there where the bothers live together in unity, and this is like the oil of the holy anointment and like the dew on the hills of Zion!» (See Ps: 133) Amen.

Oh, My people, I want you to stay brother with brother in My Spirit and in His work, always, always confessing, and I, the Lord, to be able to leave upon you the dew of My blessing, always, always, My people. Those who have My blessing upon them, My care for them, they have their duty to bless Me on earth, as those in heaven bless Me. The brothers do not gather together in My name but only for their blessing with Me and from Me upon them, being members to each other to the glory of My people on earth that has in its midst the salvation from God.

Oh, My people, My love in your midst gives voice to itself when brothers share Me to each other as the fruit of My blessing. There is nothing without reward on earth and in heaven, and if I, the Lord, take care of you with My blessing, you have to be like the anointing oil which flows for blessing, like the morning dew on the hills of Zion, for this is the work and the glory of those who dwell together in My name, My people. Behold what a great Mystery! With every passing day you should love this blessing more and more. And you should understand, with every passing day more and more, loving My dwelling with you and your dwelling with Me, for where I am is only blessing and its glory between the saints and Me, between Me and the saints, My people.

Oh, it is a day of meeting, Jerusalem, and I teach you how to wait for Me and how to receive Me and how to live Me, for when I was brought to the temple after forty days from My birth, the old Simeon welcomed Me and called Me the salvation and the light of the nations, and he also called Me the glory of My people. Like the dew on the eternal mountains you should be to Me and this is how you have to become for your Lord, and then you should love this happiness to be My people, for you are My people and I have My word in you, and you should also bless it between brother and brother likewise, and always, always you should also become its work and bless My coming to you, if you are brothers to each other, for there is no more beautiful place than there where the brothers become blessing for blessing, love for love, and grace from grace for My meeting, to the glory of the Lord on earth as in heaven, My people of today.

Oh, with whom have I been speaking so much, so sweetly and in such a fatherly way as with you, Jerusalem of today? This is how you are supposed to work among brothers, My people, and this is how you are to make Me a dwelling place and glory and rest in you, for I do no longer have comfort on earth but into your midst, My people, and My will with you becomes My heaven on earth, and I come to My table, and I come with the saints and I testify about you that you are Mine, and My work with you testifies about Me as the God, your salvation, My people. Amen.

Oh, man without My will with your life on the earth! The Lord calls you! Oh, do no longer stay only as on earth, but rather stay in My will on earth before Me, for I said: «The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool», as the earth is for the man, and behold, you forget about the heaven on the earth and you do your will against My will and you have no teacher to teach you My will. Oh, drink of this spring, man! Wash your eyes and wash your body in the water of My spring and then become My will on the earth, man without any way! Behold, I am the way, and I come into your way with it and I teach you from it; become My will, man without God. I taught My disciples to confess Me as their God that My wills may reign on earth as in heaven, and that I may bless them with bread and protection when they love each other loving themselves within My wills and being saved by them.

Oh, sons of the people, learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I really am. Be like God either, gentle and humble in your heart. Be like God too, oh, people, and then you will be. Behold, My word clothes you in it. Listen to its calling and to its fondness and run to it, and flee from emptiness, from its deceiving wind, for it is a wind from which no one picks up anything and which does not go anywhere. Come to life! I have come as word on earth to exhort you to it and that you may be clothed within it and in its life from Me, to become My saints and to get away from the face of the darkness of this perishable age. Come! I am after you with My spring and I meet you with it. Meet it too, for I said: «He who believes in Me, rivers of living waters will flow from his mouth». Become a spring of My godly word that has come to you on earth, but you should believe that I am this word, and pray for the gift of the faith from above, for by faith you will receive and will be My righteous ones, and you will be. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have opened My voice over the sons of people to take from it and to comfort it and then they may desire My wills on the earth. I, the Lord, am with the mercy after the man. I want to help the man to come from the darkness into the light, for this age passes away, but I want the man to come to Me and then to put an end to this age, which keeps the creature closed in it, and then to set the man in My kingdom on clean and holy land. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, My people, I have taught you beautifully the mystery of the blessing, My long dwelling among those who live together with the brothers into My name. Let your work be My joy from you. Let your love between brother and brother be My comfort. Let your life be God, My people, and this is how My rest has its dwelling in you, and this is on earth as in heaven the work of My disciples, the work of My grace among brothers, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Eight days ago, those who have gone to sleep from the beginning of the world and to this day, came before Me by calling and by prayer, and they will remain before My mercy until the feast of My resurrection, for until then it is order for their souls, and this is how I clothe in the robe of the resurrection those who wait with it and with My coming, and this is how I work resurrection from your midst, My people, and you should have progress more and more within the mystery of the renewal of the world, for this Scripture waits after you, and all and everything wait for you, My people from the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-02-2007

The Sunday of the memorial of Adam's expulsion from paradise

This word is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; It comes down from heaven on the earth and becomes the Teacher of eternal life upon man, and It becomes His comfort and fulfillment over those who love like God on earth too. Amen.

Oh, My people, I, the Lord your God, always come to you as word to keep you in it and to give you comfort and power by it and to have comfort and power from you, My people. The man has to love God and he has to know how to be able to do this in order to bring fruit to the Lord, My people. In this day of the memorial of My pain from the man's falling away from God and from paradise, I, the Lord, want to remind the man to love God in the light, for in the darkness the man cannot do this. The man fell from paradise because of those that were hidden in him and those that are hidden are called darkness and they comprise the man in the darkness and there is no one to teach the man the power, the guard and the light from those that are worked by him in the light, in the view, for the man who hides between man and man stays in the darkness and My way is that with the light on it. Amen.

Oh, My people, there is a great need of the teaching from heaven on the earth, for the man cannot be a son of the day if he does not know what the day means and what the night means for man. Now it is written for the man a time of fasting from food and the man does not know what the power of fasting is, and he does not know, poor of him, why he has to keep fasting from food. He who fasts from food is wiser and more diligent for his soul, then he sees better and works more beautifully, cleaner, and he cleanses more from the evil things in him, for the abstinence of his stomach reduces the man's worries and lusts which come from the lust of the body and from the lust of the eye, and these take the man back to haughtiness and the man becomes a son of the devil and there is no one to teach the man that he cannot have Me as his God if he works this way. The fasting from food has to be entwined with the work from God over the man, for otherwise the man cannot get away from the work of the devil when he abstains only with his belly from gorging and he does not abstains with his soul from this too. I am gentle and humble in heart, and this is what I have taught the man to learn and to work, and the one who stops from the lust of the body is not counted if he does not have as work from heaven over his soul humility and love that make the man gentle and humble in his heart for the work of his peace in him and around him then, to God's perfection in him, and behold, this is the mystery of the fasting[61] and its good power in man then. Amen.

I remember with endless grief of the man that was built by My hand and then put in paradise and in obedience by Me in that garden. Oh, the man did not listen to God, he did not listen but he rather listened to himself, to the man and to the devil. Behold, if the man does not love and does not listen to God, then he abstains from food in vain, for if he hides in himself with those of his mind and heart, then all his things come back into the darkness, the same as Adam went into disobedience because of his lack of love of God, after he became two of one and was no longer one body before Me, one will, one love for the One Who made him.

Oh, My people, it is a great pain when the man is not one with God. It is also pain for man and for God. The one who is not one with Me, that one is in the darkness and that is why he is not one with Me. The one who is not one with Me between him and his brother, that one is in the darkness and the man does not know to be in God if there is no one to teach him.

Oh, children from the gates, not long ago I have told you that I cannot do the man good through you if he does not receive Me with My view in you and with My correction upon him. I cannot work but only over the one who waits for Me and he who waits for Me is the one who receives Me and I cannot do the man good otherwise and I cannot save him from the evil in him, for the man works the evil naturally and this nature of man turns him out from the care for God and for the light from God in him and for the Lord's rest in him. Oh, watching children on My behalf over the people who stays in the light with its life and with its work! I have always given you work and made see what you work, and the people has to learn more and more beautifully to believe in My work through you and to understand well the good and the light and My way to him through you to do him good and to have him as Mine, for Adam did not receive Me to do him good, to teach him the light and to save him from the reward of the darkness, and he hid in himself and then the man lost the paradise, the rest and the peace of his soul when he did so, and then he could no longer love God and God's will in him when he worked from his self over his life given to him by Me.

Oh, watching children, take care of the people of My word, and always, always exhort him to eat My entire word that is put on him, for Adam trampled over My word and took his word to fulfill it and it is not good for the man to work from his self, watching sons. I, the Lord, in this day of teaching, exhort the holy people to fulfill the entire word that comes from Me to him and to watch to be a son of the day and of obedience to God, for I have to redeem the man from falling and through the obedience of My people I am able to work this Scripture, which I came on the earth and became man for. Amen.

I, the Lord your God, want you, My people, to be gentle and humble in your heart and to learn this work of Mine in you, and by its fulfillment in you to know to abstain from food, and with this fasting to do Me good, because it is good to work for the Lord and not for you, and the Lord will take care of you for your work with Him, for your love for him, My people, and He will give you all those necessary things that you need. Oh, look at the man built by My hand, who has been staying only in tears since he fell from Me and by this time, when I have raised a people to come to it with the saints and to speak out a word for the renewal of the world into its midst and to wipe out the tear of the man built by My hand, for I work with the word and My creation is not otherwise, My people, only that I may have room with the man and with the speaking of My word on earth, today's son of My word.

[61] See the selection topic: „About fasting and almsgiving", r.n.

Oh, people waited by the dead and by the living ones! Oh, people meant by God for the work of heaven on earth! Behold, you have to work with Me the work of the renewal of the word, the work of the resurrection of the creature and to be the manger, in which the word of God comes down, the word of creation after seven thousand years from man's fall, for the man fell from God and has left many tears behind him, and he has made tears in Me, for My Spirit breathed over him and put life in him to have him My house then. Oh, the man has not given Me any shelter in him after he trespassed My word in order that he might not listen to Me, and He caused Me sufferance and tears and he has no longer loved Me, and behold, the Son of Man has nowhere to lie His head, as I said two thousand years ago, when I showed My pain to those of that time, who had to follow Me then and to put in them the faith in God and the obedience in Him and the work for Him, the work that was broken by the man, whom I built for My works.

Oh, My people I bless you for My work with you by which you should work upon you the power of food abstinence, but do not forget: be gentle and humble in your heart, and learn this from Me, as I urged My disciples from two thousand years ago. Oh, do not learn this work from the man. Learn it from Me, for this is what I said: «Learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart». I bless you with this good thing, My people, and this is how you are supposed to entwine the work of the abstinence from food, and each son of My people needs to have great care of the spirit of peace and without tension in every work done by the hand and by the spirit, and let your fasting from food be helped by this gentle spirit and by the humility of your hearts, sons, and this is how you have to work for Me, for My victory worked with tears and with great patience and waiting after the man to bring salvation to the man and the redemption, which I paid for him when I was hanged on the cross for him. The man should give Me back My love for the man, and let him listen to Me to be able to protect him, for the devil has always pulled the man out of Me by his disobedience, and behold, the man has to learn how to come back in Me and how to stay in Me, so that the devil may not find him outside of Me. Amen.

Oh, weak man, come back to Me to be saved from your enemy and yours, for he who is your enemy cannot do you any good. He who takes you out of God, that one is your enemy, weak man, and you cannot do anything without Me, nothing of what you say that you do, to have and then to lose, for everything you do, you do only to lose it afterwards, and you do no longer know this if you stay outside of Me and run away from My way! Oh, come to Me to help you, come, weak man! Oh, let Me stay in your way and let Me take you in the boat of salvation. Get used to abstain from food, give the meat away from you, and get used do the will of the Holy Spirit, weak man! Amen.

Oh, sons of men, do no longer eat meat! Do no longer let yourselves be dragged by this temptation, which gives birth in you to the spirit of debauchery, of which you do no longer repent. Enough! Do no longer eat meat! Stop drinking any drinks that destroy you, sons of people! Shake yourselves from the lust of the body and from the lust of the eyes, which draw you to debauchery, and do no longer feed by this the spirit of the pride of life and of the debauchery of life, for the life is only that which comes from God, only that which is lived with God, and the life is not otherwise. Receive from Me the way of life and repent from the evil things in you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in spirit, and this is how you have to teach and live in all the days of fasting from food, for your fasting is otherwise and it is not good for you either, because they have to learn not only in their body to fast but also in their soul. And if you want the eternal life, do no longer eat meat, do no longer eat meat, oh, sons of people, and love God to be able to this and to be able to do this for Him, for He loves you and waits for you to love Him, and this is how you should escape from bondage, and this is how to learn to be alive. Amen. May your love for God and the days of fasting for God's victory in you be blessed, if you love God in them! I give you power of love and faith by love. I give you My peace, and I give you not as the world gives you, but I give you as I gave it to those who were saved by their love of God, oh, sons of men, for God is the man's salvation and the glory of those who love Him for His glory on earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, bow son, that you may always wait for Me to come as word into your midst. Bow son, for bowing is love, and behold, I bow and I become word all over the earth by your humility under My word. Bow, My people, to the work of the blessing from above, for where the brothers live together there it has to be a beautiful place by union, the place of My blessings, as the dew blesses the land in the mornings, and behold, where there is love and togetherness in the work of brothers within My love, there I, the Lord, have commanded the blessing and the life to eternity, My people. May your love be blessed, and the time of the fasting starts now to grow you in love and to make heaven on earth among brothers and then to make you gentle and humble in your heart like God, and that He may bless you on the earth beneath and in the heaven above, for this is what I have commanded My blessings to stay and to be and to comprise in them those who love together in union in My name, and they living before Me as in heaven on earth, always receiving Me to have room and board with them and to have My glory among them. Amen.

Oh, My people of old, since I have come down on earth as word now, in the end of the time! Oh, you should bow too! Bow in order to do My will! There is no love of God greater than this for the man to do God's will. Bow with repentance and bow with holy fasting and well pleased to Me, and then clothe yourselves with power so that you may be able to work for God, My people of old. Clothe your house in holiness and then your body and life, My people of old, and do not forget My spending with you now on the earth as word. I teach you what life is and I exhort you to it. Come down to be adorned by My advice upon you. Bow to abstinence and learn the repentance from it, for abstinence saves you from the laziness of your soul and from the many worries of your life, from the love of controlling your life and from the empty and damaging speaking, just as the gluttony urges the man to these. However, you should seek to come to the adorning for the spirit of cleanness, for the humility of mind and heart and for the patience in everything that may come to test you, and these will be crowned by the love with which you will work, for all those are done through love and they have been done to be. Amen.

My people of old, bow, and take My will over your life, for I, the Lord, wait for you with it to be fulfilled before Me, to wipe out your guilt that You forsake Me and that you may also be Mine, and I yours, My people, being Mine from very old time. Amen, amen, amen.

05/18-02-2007

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

I am the God of the faithful and saints. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, this is the seal of the saints, for in this name they are faithful and holy, and this name is the name of God. Amen.

I, the Lord, become word in the midst of the Romanian people and with it I feed a people faithful to My word, for when I went to stand near the Father on the day of My ascension from near My disciples two thousand years ago, I told those who believed in My coming then: «I am with you to the end of the age». Amen. Oh, only with those who were faithful and holy I was able to fulfill this Scripture, for these, believing and fulfilling, had chosen more the shame for My name than the spirit of the world and its fleeting riches, because they were hoping in the reward for the saints. The saints are despised by the world and have no place in it, and this is the sign that they belong to God on earth, and those who are called saints by the world receive their reward on the earth for the good things they have done, dedicated to My name, for the glory and appreciation from the world separate them from the reward which they look to.

Oh, My people of Romanians, who stay faithful under this manna by which I, your Lord and God, feed you from heaven! You should rejoice that you are called foolish and wandered away from My way, for behold, since I came out to give light from your midst with My teaching over the earth, many have risen and despised you, all those who call themselves believers and Christians of Christ and they say that they belong to the right faith and that you are only a sect, and they do not want to drink and feel the life of My word into your midst, and these do not want to know that I have power and will, as a true God that I am, to speak over the man to the end of the time and not to stay without work, without word, and then let Me speak either and not only the man, who calls himself a believer. Oh, I am the word of God and that is why I came and I come as word on the earth, and I am not the false christ about whom it was heard: «"Here is He!" or "Look there!"» (Mark: 13/21), but I am the voice of the Holy Spirit and Whom I pour out on those who wait for Me to come to them with the comfort on the earth, and only with them I can find a dwelling place for the man's creation, for the faithful ones are My house, My tent on earth, and I find My pleasure in them, and then I take them out of the world to be with Me and no longer to taste from the pleasures which pass away, but rather to eat from Me and then they may become My wedding country, for I am the dear Bridegroom, and I come as word on the earth from the Father Sabaoth and I can no longer come without My bride on the earth, and behold, I fulfill into the midst of the Romanian people the Scripture by which I said this: «He who believes in Me, I will come to him and I will have a house with him, dine with him and I will reveal Myself to him». Amen.

Oh, My Romanian country, My country with My treasure in it! Oh, you do not want to wake up and know My voice that is upon you, the voice of the Bridegroom Who wants to ask you in marriage to be His among nations. I have come as word from heaven into your midst upon a faithful people, and you say that I am not, and behold, you do not know My voice, but you rather call yourself a daughter of the right faith, and behold what you do! Oh, what you do in this day, in this Sunday, which the parents called it the Sunday of the right faith! Instead of taking from Me the Holy Spirit and faith in My coming as word over your head, you make your subjects give you money and you gather it for the Orthodoxy. I look in you, I look in the churches and I break Myself with pain, My country given to Me by the Father at My birth to be My house at My second coming from the Father. Oh, only if you belong to the right faith by the servants that you have in you, who call themselves apostles of Christ, you would do something else in this day of the memorial of those who had been My righteous one in time, and you would do what My righteous ones had done. However, you have got a spirit of the world, and I told the faithful ones not to love the spirit of the world and its fleeing sweetness of the fleshly living on the earth.

Oh, My country with My treasure in it, I call you the heavenly homeland by My word, the homeland of My saints from heaven and from the earth, for My word comes on the clouds above you, and I come as word in you with the heavenly armies, and I do not come alone, and I put you a great name and I call you the heavenly country on the earth. Oh, I find only proud people under the name of the right faith, and they have forgotten that two thousand years ago, I was received likewise by the people to which I came then, and they called Me devil, and they also called My disciples foolish and wandering astray as they called Me, and they called them the sect of the Nazarene, and behold, it is again what it was, for I have come now as word into your midst and you do not know the voice of the good Shepherd, the One Who laid down His life for His sheep, so that He might be able to shepherd them afterwards. His sheep know His voice and only those are sheep, and those that I cannot shepherd are not sheep. I am always today, I am always, but the man has got used otherwise to want with Me and to believe that he is Mine. However, I say this: he who does not receive My calling after the man now, he who does not leave off the spirit of the world and its lust which passes away, that one is not written with the holy ones who knew and know to believe when the Lord tries and knocks at their door to come in and then they may believe in My voice full of food for them, and behold, I am the Good Shepherd and I know My sheep and they know Me, and the one who does not work this way, he cannot be shepherd of sheep. Amen.

Oh, My country, from the end of the time, I call you to know how to believe and to become Mine, My country. I wait for you to get ready for the Holy Spirit, for I become the word of the Holy Spirit into your midst and I pour out of Him upon you to bring your renewal and that you may be the homeland according to the truth, the homeland of the right faith, and you should be as merciful as God, oh, My homeland of today, for I have found shelter in you with the manger of My word, which comes with the clouds above you to feed you from heaven and not from the earth, My country. Oh, wake up, get ready for God according to His holy will, and do not forget the holy saints, My country. Wake up and come, and come to believe that I am the One Who feed you and that I am Shepherd, for you do not have shepherds with mercy of you, and you are poor, you are very poor from those in heaven, My country. Oh, I would call you painfully and I would call you much, for My sufferance is great from your unbelief, but you have ministers in you foreign from the Holy Spirit and who lie in wait for you everywhere so that they may not escape you from their dominion and to be Mine and not yours. However, you should take from My Spirit and come to life by faith and by the food from above, My country, for I adorn you by it and I shepherd you and I prepare you to be the heavenly homeland, the country of My glory, country with Bridegroom, and I do not do you any harm by My food from above over you, oh, My loved one. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, people of My word in to the midst of the Romanian people! I have calmed down the fervor of the Holy Spirit, Who lives burning in Me for this land chosen by My Father to be the country of My word from the end of the time, the heavenly homeland on the earth. I have spoken with the Romanian land, for it is hard of hearing for My calling, when I knock at his door, and those who shepherd it, keep it in bondage and teach him not to believe that the Lord speaks from heaven on the earth. However, you should strengthen your faith in My word, for I, the Lord, will reward soon, soon the faith of My saints, and all the unbelievers will be ashamed, and all will sigh with mourning, those who have thought that they were righteous in their faith, which have not brought any fruit of it, either for it or for God.

I, the Lord, bless your faith, My people taken from the Romanians, for I am not the lying christ, as they call Me, those who do not believe, hearing of Me and you, but I am the One Who blesses you for the gift that you have from Me, the gift of the holy faith, for I am the one who said: «Blessed is the one who believes and does not see», and the saints believed and fulfilled My word by My gift upon them, the gift of the faith from above, the gift of the holy faith, which knows to receive God, like Abraham, Moses, like Daniel and like all those who were sons of the holy faith, the sons of God by the works of their faith, who has its reward in eternity, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

12/25-02-2007

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

I am the Son of God, the Father, true God from true God, of the same Being with the Father, the One by Whom everything were done and are done, and Who came down from heaven and became a Man born of a Virgin, and then I was crucified on the cross by the unbelievers, but I was resurrected through the cross, and after I had taught My disciples and the faithful ones the faith and its work and theirs in My name over the earth, I went to be again near the Father on His right side, and now, according to the promise from the Scriptures, I come again, and behold, I raise a faithful people to Me, a hand of disciples, to teach them that My kingdom, which I have brought down on earth by My heavy cross, will not have an end, for the Holy Spirit, Who brings life and Who makes life in man, is glorified from the Father and from Me, as He has been glorified by the prophets, and He strengthens a holy church on the earth, with God on its table, body and word, to the forgiveness of the sins of the faithful ones, who sanctify themselves for God and to the resurrection of the creature, that the life of the future age may come down on earth. Amen.

Oh, My heavy cross, My people of today, was the man's unbelief. I came from the Father to search out the people to whom God gave His promises, but that people was not faithful to God and to My sending to it from the Father as it was prophesied, and He treated Me as a wrongdoer upon God and upon man, for the man in whom God does not live with His will, with His Spirit, is a proud man, who spoils his body in him, the dwelling place of My kingdom in man. When the man's mind behaves this way before Me and before the man as after the Spirit of God in it, then the man is ruled by his will itself and he has not got God as his Master, and God's kingdom does not have a rest in him, and God suffers from man, and the man is My pain and My heavy cross, My people. However, you should humble yourself much for Me and for My sufferance, even if you do not know the mystery and the reward of your humility, for the man's being is mysterious, and the man works with it without knowing good or evil, and I, the Lord, get comforted Myself or suffer from man, and I carry on with this mysteriously, for the Spirit is the One Who knows and not the body, My people.

Oh, the man's humility with God is great and comforting, the humility for Me, the One Who suffered and suffer from the man's unbelief, for this is My heavy cross, and the man does not know what the Lord's cross is. Oh, My comfort is great from the man who comforts Me in My heavy cross! And as the proud man does not know his pride, as the haughty one does not feel his haughtiness and does not know the damage that comes from it, in the same way the one who is truly humble does not know his humility and he has always humbled for the fruit of the humility by which he knows what he gets by fighting for the day of his victory from the One Who rewards the works of the man with good or evil, and behold, the humble one with his heart is My comfort and My work on the earth, My people.

Then I had comforting disciples, and I also want to have disciples now, and I teach you to be My comforting disciple, son of My people of today, who hear My godly voice over you. Oh, love God with all your soul, with all your heart and with all your mind and with your good work, and you should also love your neighbor as God has loved the man and gave breath of life to every man who is born on the earth and to all that are born and receive a soul in them. I need comforting disciples, for My cross is with great pain from the man and the man does not know his pride and the damage that comes from it, for pride itself is the man's damage, and God cries for the blind man with his soul received from God, My people.

Oh, the saints and their holy fathers have given Me great comfort, and behold, there has come to be a tradition from the holy fathers, repentance, abstinence, cross, fasting, love for God and the man's union with God by them, My people. In the beginning of My speaking now with the people called to believe in My coming as word from the Father, I, the Lord, have taught it how to pray, how to fast, how to humble itself and how to repent and how to live with Me and among brothers, how to love and how to persevere in his life with God, and he was supposed to comfort Me with the fulfillment of My exhortation upon it, but his children have grown up and they went to a spirit of man and then to a spirit of the world, and the steps of those with whom I spoke hindered Me and I was comforted teaching them how to serve Me on the earth. Oh, the teaching for those things that are holy in man and for the man is sweet and beautiful, and I, the Lord, have always, always persevered with it from above for the holy stature of the one who has heard Me speaking today from near the Father the word of eternal life, the spirit that was prophesied about long ago to come on the earth and to make comforting disciples for the Lord.

My sighing is deep, My people, and I want to comfort it when I tell it to you. There is still a little bit of time, and you will sing "Christ is risen!", but I do not want to be on the cross at you either before or after the feast of My resurrection, but rather you should always show Me, to Me and to those who can see you, that Christ has risen in you and that He is alive by the deed and by His Spirit in you, and I urge you, My people, to give Me comfort, for My heavy cross is the man's unbelief. You should prove yourself faithful by My living in you and with you, for those who do not live in Me are not written with the faithful ones. Every man who violates God's will in him for his own will is written with those who are unfaithful, if he can do and does not do My will, if he knows My will and does not do his will, My people.

Oh, watchful children and teachers over those who learn My will in their will! I want to speak for My will in them and I want to do My Father's will, for My Father exhorts Me to speak to them, and I do not take and speak from Myself. Oh, let those who come to stay near My work of word from above and near you. As I, the Son of the Father God, do, let them do the same, and let them speak the same, and let them speak and fulfill through Me and let them also do this through you, sons, and not by themselves. Let them not violate God's will for their will, for it has remained a tradition from the saints and from the fathers the work of humility, repentance, prayer, fasting, cross and of all those by which the man saves himself and gives himself to God and is a dwelling place to God. Amen.

Now, watching children, bring comfort to Me by churchly ministering and give yourselves to Me and to My glory from you in a spirit of church, and always teach those who stay near My word and near you, teach them to be saints like their holy fathers, for disciples are only those who are like their teacher, if they have a teacher, children sons. He who has a teacher is that one who takes his entire work, that by the spirit and by the work, from his teacher and not from himself. Amen.

Behold a work that is to be learnt upon man: the man needs to learn to know his haughtiness and pride, which come from this, and God has to know the man's humility and all the work that comes from it. Amen. This is the work in which the man has to stay and to work with it against everything that does not mean God in man. Amen.

And then we will stay to work the whole council of the day of today, for we celebrate today the work of self-control and of humility, the work of the fasting for God and for the mercy for God, and the feasts of God's mercy are great for Me and for man, and behold a feast for the power of self-control and comfort for this work. The Spirit and not the body has to be comforted, children sons. This is how you are to teach those who stay near My work with you: let them stay with their spirit and then let them fulfill within their body the work of the spirit and let them be My comfort by their faith, for My heavy cross is the man's unbelief, and I come, and do not find any faith on the earth in My coming. Two thousand years ago, I spoke in a comforting spirit, I left it written, and this is what I said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?»

We come back into the book, children from the gates and we will set great exhortation in it and heavenly order for those who stay near My word and are happy and then will be only those who know to take and to receive and then dwell in God, and that God may also dwell in them with His image full of humility, for My Spirit is humility, and I give voice to the Holy Spirit through it and through it I am your God, and I teach you to be like Me, gentle and humble in your heart, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Come, children from the gates, let us strengthen My love in those who want to stay close to Me and close to you, for My love makes the man divine, and then the man can work for Me and for him through it. I am love, children sons, and he who has love is that one who becomes divine, for he is full of God through it, and then he comes to be with his spirit and body to My pleasure, and I am his Master and he is My son. He who has God as Master upon him, that one is a son to Me and not servant, for he allows himself to be led and he proves to be faithful when he works that way, when he wants Me as the Master of his life, asking Me always as his life upon him. Life without death upon man is the life full of God in the man's body, and it is My gentle and sweet Being, lived by the man who does not commit sins, for whoever loves Me does no longer sin and he becomes the love that never dies, for as the sin is death in man, in the same way love is life in man, and I, the Lord of life, come to dwell in man and I live in him when he lives in Me, and behold, the man does not understand the mystery of life without death, the man who wants to come after Me for his life and not for My life in him. He, who does not understand which the mystery of life in man is, that one does not work his life, that one does not know that live is not get, but it is lived instead, and it is received only when one lives it. I am the life, but he who does not live Me in him, that one has not known yet how to come, he does not know how to come after Me to have eternal life in him after that.

Oh, My works with the man are a great mystery and happy is the one who becomes disciple of the eternal life, and I, the Lord, want to leave great instructions in My book with My people of today and to help it to this wisdom and that it may want to have it then, for the man in whom God does not live with His wills, with His Spirit, that man is a proud man, a man who spoils his body within him, the dwelling place of My kingdom and of My Spirit in man, for the man who thinks in his mind for his own sake and not according to the Spirit of God in it, that one is ruled by his own will and does not have God as the Master of his life, even if he wants to come after Me, choosing this first.

Oh, watchful children on My behalf for those who give Me their life! For two thousand years, I have been suffering from the man who has come after Me and has not known what it means to come. I said to the one who wants to come after Me; I told him to deny himself and to take up his cross and follow Me; this way and not otherwise. The one who follows Me has always got a cross. The happiness for the man with Me is not as on the earth. With Me it is a cross, and it is not a more glorified way for man than the way of the cross, and first the cross is self-denial, in order that the man may bear together with Me all those that puts his life to test to the point of clarifying the steadfast of his faith in God and of his love for God. I cannot walk with man until I put to test his love and his faithfulness, but he who does not know how to deny himself for My living in him, that one is caught in the trap of his unbelief then, and he does not keep in him the life that does not die, the love which makes the man divine and through which the man does no longer die.

Behold, the man does not know how to die and he does not know how to live, and I, the Lord, get ready to teach the one who joined My love for man and to help him take after Me, for the man's humility, that which takes after My humility before man, that is the greatest comfort for God, and if then I had comforting disciples, I want to have them now, and those whom I have I need to teach them always, so that they may know how to be My disciples and how to do My work in them. Amen.

I have set great exhortations into My book with you, people of My word. However, first I want to remind you and to teach you how to control your will in you for the sake of My will, as it is the tradition for the saints, who know to deny themselves for the sake of My life in them. At the beginning of My people of today I taught him with a fatherly love not to violate God's will for the sake of his will, for the holy faith has remained as tradition from the saints and from their fathers, and by it the work of the humility of spirit and repentance, the work of fasting and prayer, the way of the cross and of all those by which the man saves himself and gives himself to Me and then he lives forever, for he who lives in Me never dies, but My people at the beginning and the one from the middle have not got that love by which the man becomes divine filling himself with God. Often I have told him not to violate My will in him for the sake of his will and I have asked him to come to prayer and to observe a due time for praying, and no longer to stay in the court of the house or in the garden, but to enter and to stay before Me after that, and I asked him if he heard Me what I told him, and I exhorted him not to put away from him My order that has been left for the saints. I have taught him all I wanted to love in him, and if he has not always listened this way, then he has violated My will for the sake of his will and I have waited for him in vain to be My son and that he may not die.

Oh, he who does not pray like the saints, that one is caught by the devil, and the devil brings death to the man, if the man listens to it, but now, I have always, always taught the people that I have, for I want to have a people and I want it to be My coming. He who knows how to come to Me is he who learns to come, and behold, I am the Teacher over the faithful one who knows to be My Son. Amen.

Oh, My people, in order to be My people, you have to be faithful in everything I give you and ask from you. Oh, My people, My heavy cross was the man's unbelief, and the disobedient one proves to be unfaithful. I bring important exhortations to you and you should take care to fulfill them, son, for those who stay under the same shelter, all have to be one, and they have to be united in everything they work before Me with their spirit and body. That is why I told the watchmen to watch well to be like those who live together, for they cannot be one, those who do not have the same spirit, the same love, the same faith, the same obedience and the same work for Me.

No one comes under the same shelter to prayer by himself, for the devil rejoices over this laziness of brotherhood and over the brotherly prayer. Everywhere brothers are gathered together in groups to give themselves over to My will in them and then among them, they are asked for their togetherness of work before Me, for it is written: «Where union is, there the Lord has commanded the blessing and the life forever», and it is written again: «Blessed is the people whose God is the Lord, the people the Lord has chosen as His inheritance».

The work of fasting has been done with great care and propriety, with great love, and it is has also required brotherhood for it, but more than this it is required the work with blessing over fasting and over eating, for blessed is the God of the blessed people with its life lived in the Lord. Amen.

Oh, My people, you have watchmen into your midst set by Me for your work that is blessed before Me. Take care and live that way; take care, son, no to tread upon them to come to the point of choosing yourself if you stand aside from My work. The lust and the love of the body make the man go hungry and then to comfort his body then, and his love and mercy for God make the man abstain from many of his fleshly pleasures, which make him listen to his body more than to God,

Who is the man's life and power and then the love by which the man becomes divine, filling himself with God. Amen.

Then take care, son, of the work of humility and repentance, for these two works do a lot of good and much God among brothers, for I am the Lord of humility, My people. Oh, if there is no one between brother and brother to solve well any tension until love is established again, I, the Lord, cannot receive the one who seek after Me this way. Spirituality is learned from the one, who knows to make the man spiritual and divine and this great work needs to be sought after very much, and day and night you have to seek after it and for it, My people. Oh, none of the causes that have occurred and which strain the hearts have to be put to silence, for you are Christians, sons, and you have to walk in light, and then you should give forth light through the humility by which I, the Lord, give light too. You have to be beautiful, because he who is not humble is an ugly man, and he becomes sufferance and burden upon the soul over the one who stays beautifully under the burden of My love for the man. You have watchmen set from Me with a big heart for you, but do not forget to give yourselves to Me, always, always, through them, so that I may be able to do you good, sons, for everything you are and everything you do without their knowledge in you or among you comes back then against you and Me, for the devil keeps you written down with those who are guilty, if you do not humble yourselves, if you do not cleanse yourselves to give light, and I am the Lord of the holy order, and I stay and work only in the light and I am this way either, and those who have become the sons of My Father through Me, the Lord of humility and Master of those who humble themselves are likewise. Amen.

Oh, My people from everywhere! You, the one who wait to learn from Me, learn this too: the whole work that you do in your household and which shelters you together with other brothers, does not have to be done anyhow, and you do not have to overcome God as though you did and you know and that you are by your work, for woe to the one who, serving in the blessed courts for My work, gets up then with a controlling spirit to trouble unity and peace by his view, My Spirit from those who are faithful. Let no one call Me to account for his unsatisfying view. Let no one consider Me his debtor for his unsteady time near My work, for the man is in debt and not the Lord. Oh, let no one press on upon the goods of the Lord, as though there were others in the past who reached out their hands and took away God's inheritance that was gathered by the Gospel of My second coming from near the Father, to make a people, submitted and holy to Me. All those who tried to tidy in My place over My work, have been smashed by the fruit of their will, and I, the Lord, got up and spared the vineyard and the inheritance of My Gospel. Woe to those who do not want the Lord to know their work by His guide, for each work will be asked from the man from the hand of the watchmen, not from the hand of the servants, and behold, the one who has the Lord as Master over him, that one is a son to Me and not a servant, for a son lets himself be guided, and he proves himself to be faithful when he works that way. Amen.

I remind you again of the spirit of cleanness of all the things, My people, for the cleanness is spirit and not work, as I, the Lord, have told you. I exhort you to be gentle and humble in your heart, so that you may be able to receive Me with My exhortation, son, for he who has self-esteem, that one does not receive Me, but on the contrary, he punishes Me, either if I search him out, and the one who is that way and gets used to it, that one cannot work for the spirit of brotherhood, the spirit which becomes perfect and is made among brothers by different gifts.

Oh, My people, back talking is the man who violates in him God's will for the sake of his will, and then I become weak with My watching through those who are watchmen on My behalf over the people that has come to be with Me, for he who comes to be only with him and like him too, that one cannot be with Me and he can only work like him and then he talks back on the one who stays and looks from the sides at all his work and then he turns against Me and against his work without guidance upon him.

The spirit of the love of brothers and among brothers is called a spirit loving of people, and he who does not have this, that one is haughty and does not know his pride and damage, which comes from it, even if those who see tell him this. The spirit of love among brothers, the spirit loving of people, this spirit I, the Lord, want to see in you, son of My people, and if you do not have it, then seek to receive it, for without it you cannot have love, you cannot be full of God, and on the contrary, you are full of discontent and you are pretentions and you hurt and you do not bind the wound if you do not have love and if you do not have compassion, and I, the Lord, have advised the Christian otherwise, by My word full of life for man. Oh, the man's humility is great comfort with God, the humility for God in man, and I want to have comforting disciples, for he who is humble does not know his humility, and he has always humbled himself for its fruit and he has always worked in it and becomes comfort to Me, the one with a humble spirit. Amen.

Oh, guiding children on My behalf for those who join My will in them! Teach them by the word and work, for those who do not do the work knowingly and in the light, those live as My pain and yours and hide in themselves and do not know to write themselves with those who are faithful, who deny themselves for a spirit loving of people, for the love that becomes God in man. Oh, how much comfort I would have if all had wanted to be like you or to listen to you, for you are comforting people to Me, because you dwell in My Spirit, and you can hardly stand at the helm because of the man's will. Always and everywhere advise My people to seek with the spirit of the holy brotherhood, so that it may be with My blessing over it, as it is My blessing left by the Scripture. Amen.

I have given great exhortation in the book, and I want them to be awakening. The time of the fasting is the time of the cleaning of everything: of love, humility and of holy patience too. Let no one be upset with his brother for himself, for the reproof that I like has got work for Me upon man, and not for man. Let this people learn the work of not being upset with those that are from the earth among brothers, for I am the One Who knows the hearts, and let no one have other desire or take away this work of the knowledge of the hearts from Me. I have given this great exhortation in this day of teaching for life and for a cross, pleased to Me, from man and I said this: the man has to know his haughtiness and pride that come from this, and then let God know his humility and the entire work that comes from it. Amen.

I want you to be sweet to each other, sons of My people. Learn to be sons. I have brought the spirit of the heavenly love upon you. Learn, My people, the work of God's love among brothers and do not stop from this work, for I said to be resemblance among brothers, there where they gather to do My will together. Learn, My people, the work of faith, for My heavy cross is the unbelief and the haughtiness of the man full of himself, and of the one who violates in him My will for the sake of his will. Oh, I look into your midst and I see a tensed spirit, and this spirit comes from haughtiness, My people. I am God and I have a humble spirit, and this is My work. Love the light and be a son of the light, son of My Father, just as I, the humble One, am His son, My people with a name from heaven. Oh, son, the hardening of the heart is seen on the man's face, when it does its work in man, but I want the image of the heavenly light on your face and I cry after the rest of My face in your face, son, who come to become Mine within your spirit, and then within your body and its work for your salvation, and then for My glory. Oh, receive Me as I have taught you to receive Me, My people, for the reproof for My will in you is nothing else than My love with which I grow you to be Mine and not yours again, if you have come to be Mine. The reproof that has got My will in it, that one is not a spirit of man, and you, get used to be My house from it, My people, and in such a way that I may come into to you to be My will and My comfort, for I need comforting disciples, and he who knows how to be My son, that one knows to be a child as well, and he knows to keep himself as My kingdom and then to give himself with it and to receive for it. Amen.

And as for you, My people, come to teaching with love, for only the children are those who learn, and this is how you are to learn to be, and this is how you are to do My will, and you should be My comforting disciple, son, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

26-02/11-03-2007

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

I am the Lord, suffering from the man's lack of love. I am the Lord pierced in body with nails by the unfaithful man's hand, for My heavy cross was and is the man's unbelief, the man's lack of love. My Spirit is aggrieved on the earth. I have come on the earth after two thousand years from My body, crucified on the cross, and I do not find faith on earth and I do not find love, for love in man has come to an end. The man, gentle and humble in his heart, is the faith in Me and takes after Me in his face, deed and love, and he gives his life to Me, after he knows wisely the lie on the earth, the temporariness, which keeps the man in bondage with its face and with its visible work, and I, the Lord, suffer from the man's unbelief and I am pierced in My body and in My spirit from the man's will, who does not love God.

My Spirit suffers on the earth and I do not find comfort from man. Oh, how long man? I am the Lord Who suffers because of your lack of love and I am cut to My heart and in My body from this sin of yours, and My cross is very heavy because of your lack of love. I come as word on the earth and I do not know what to do with you to believe Me that I am this word, the same as I was the One crucified on the cross by the nails, for this was the will of the unfaithful man to do for Me. Since then there have passed two thousand years, and I come again and knock at the man's heart, but I do not come visibly, and I come clothed in spirit and word instead, and I do not know what to do with you, man, in order to believe Me that I am this word by which I knock at your heart, at your heart alienated from My peace in you, for I want to give you My peace, when I call you to open for Me and to believe Me. Oh, you have become a master upon the earth and you have done your household on it, and you do no longer receive Me, not even for a stranger, and you do not want to give Me shelter even as a wanderer either. Oh, you do no longer know how to thank God for your soul, man, and you are discontent with Me when you do not receive Me, and you owe Me your life and you do not want to take wisdom from Me and be born of the heaven for it, for without My wisdom in you and without My Spirit in you, you do not receive Me, you do not know Me, man. However, I remind you of My saints who worked God's household both in the wilderness and in the travelled place, and they became the servants of My holiness in them on the earth and they sanctified themselves and sanctified My earth and heaven, the land under them and the heaven around them, and they were walking in their body in heaven and on earth, gentle, and humble in their hearts, as I am, and they lived being pleased within My Spirit.

Bow man, to hear My word, and pray to God to give you holy faith in My coming after the man, for the will of the Father Sabaoth is to draw the man to the Father by My coming as it has come now, carrying Me as word over the earth. I was born a Man on the earth to allow to be crucified by the man and to come from death to life and to go up to the Father again and then to draw the man to the Father by My work with which I live on the earth by the power of the wisdom of My word, which has eternal life in it, man devoid of life. Oh, pray to God, man, and ask Him to help you that you may no longer be you, but the Lord in you with His love, gentle and humble in your heart as He is, and that He may know you as His shelter. Amen.

Oh, My people, I come down as word into your midst for you and for every man on earth, for My saints cry over My mercy when they see Me staying gentle and humble in My heart and pierced in My spirit and body from the man's will, who does not love Him, who does not have mercy on God on the earth. I am the Lord, and the man is My heavy cross and does not want to work out My comfort under My cross and the man does not want to thank Me for his soul and to know Me as the Master of his life.

Oh, the man hated Me when I came, and behold, I have kept on coming and I do not have room with the man to do the man good through the man in whom I find shelter, and I travel among people. On My first coming I told those whom I prepared for the people, that the people who would not receive Me would not receive them either, and I said that, listening to them, the people would receive Me.

Oh, My people, I speak into your midst My pain and that of My saints. Son, learn the work of salvation and comfort God with your saving life, for the people do not receive God and they do their housework on the earth, but the salvation is not worked by the work that is on earth, but it is rather received by its work in man, not by the man's work. Oh, My people, work, son, do the work of your choice, for salvation is received with its work in man and not with the man's work. The saints want to measure with you when they see your choice, but it is one thing for them to compare with you for My gift into your midst, and it is another thing for you to compare with them, when you try to hide under their life with your life, for behold, the people, who think that they are faithful to Me and to My saints, want to compare with the saints for their lives according to their pleasures and they say that Mary, the Egyptian, walked nakedly, but I tell the man that there was no man and there is no man more clothed than her. She had the heaven as her garment and holiness had her body as its house. She was obedient to holiness, she did not listen to her body, and she did this to punish in her body all her empty life, all that she was until I was the Lord in her afterwards.

Oh, My people, I am aggrieved in My Spirit. Moreover, I cannot tell all My sufferance in your midst either, all the mourning of My Spirit, which I share mysteriously with those who take Me to you and to the man. Oh, the spirit of comfort is no longer on earth, and My heavy cross is the unbelief and the lack of man's love, who makes a cross to Me so that he may be master on the earth and then to sit as god over the man and that he may have his housework over those that he knows that are places for heaven and which the man spoils, making a housework for him and not for Me, just as the temple from Jerusalem was totally destroyed because the man made his house-work and all his gathering in it and did not do Mine, for My will comes through the prophets and it does not come at random. Behold, those in the house, in which I sounded the trumpet by My trumpet Verginica, have also prospered by My Gospel with it, and then they have not wanted Me anymore, and now they are there and I am not, and I cry on the sides as one who does not have any fruit from all his labor. I hear them thinking and saying: "But what shall we do with this house? Shall it not have any use?" Oh, if they could not make the heaven in it, they should have not made earth in it is either, for earth is on the earth. Mary, the Egyptian, did not have any temple erected in a wild place, but in spite of all this, she made heaven on earth, for she became herself a temple for God, sanctifying Me in her as her Master and loving Me as her God, Who saved her from evil.

Oh, My people, it is one thing for the saints to compare with you and it is another thing for you to compare with them. Oh, you should be wise, son. You should be gentle and humble in your spirit to have Me as the Master of your spirit, of your soul and of your work for your salvation. I have to measure your measure, and you are blessed if you know this work of the wisdom of salvation, for behold, those from yesterday and those from today, who are rebellious in the people of My word, do not stop from picking holes, in order that they may not receive Me by the way in which I come to order a people and to watch it by the word for its work, for its love, for My fruit in it. And, I, the Lord, tell those who lost and lose their wisdom by the judgment over My work: woe to those who are not thankful, who judge and blame the establishment of My coming down on the earth now, for they lose the wisdom of salvation and do no longer know to think and speak, since their inner being is full of rebellion and lack of love, devoid of the spirit loving of brothers and of people, and behold, each one has got according to his work was and is. Amen.

Oh, My people, My Spirit is aggrieved. Teach one another the humility of the heart to be able to understand My pain and to walk in the light, son, for the night of the man makes Me suffer, and the man's disobedience makes Me suffer as well, which is the night of the man who does not love My light. Oh, My people, become My comfort under My heavy cross and give Me power under it.

I am the Lord, aggrieved from the man's lack of love and I am pierced in My body and in My spirit from the man's will, who does not love God, but you should comfort My sighing, for I want you to be My comfort-disciple, son of My people. Amen, amen, amen.

12/25-03-2007

The feast of the Lord's Entrance in Jerusalem (The Palm Sunday)

My book of today opens at My commandment and I come in it as word, for I am the Lord of the powers and I fulfill everything that I speak in heaven and on earth. I have watchmen in heaven and on earth for the fulfilling of My word, and I do not speak My word otherwise. Amen.

Long time before My becoming the Son of Man at My Father's commandment, the Spirit of God spoke through the prophets and said: «Rejoice greatly, Zion, for behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous and having salvation; lowly and riding on a donkey. Even on a cold, the foal of a donkey. His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him and they shall call you the people redeemed by God, a citadel not forsaken, for Zion's sake will I not hold My peace and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest until her righteousness go forth as brightness and her salvation as a lamp that burns like a flame, until the nations will see your righteousness and all kings your glory and you will be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord will name, and your name will be: "My pleasure is in it," and your land Beulah, "Married," and you will have a husband, and He Who built you will marry you, Jerusalem. I have set watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they will never hold their piece day nor night, and they will remind the Lord of His promises, and the Lord will establish Jerusalem again and make it a praise in the earth, and only those who have garnered the wheat and new wine will eat it and drink it and they will praise the Lord, and those who have garnered will drink the wine in the courts of My holy temple». Amen.

Oh, it makes My suffer when I look upon the earth and see those who call themselves righteous and Christians, for they do not know what it means to observe My feasts and that they may be fulfilled in them as an accomplished prophesy. It hurts Me when I see that are not perceived the Scriptures, which have announced the coming on the earth of the Savior of the world, for it is written: «Do not be afraid, daughter of Zion, your Savior comes to you, righteous and victorious, gentle and humble riding on the cold of a donkey to marry you as a Bridegroom». (See Zach: 9/9) Oh, neither those of that time and nor those after that understood the Scriptures, which were fulfilled then and which are fulfilled now again, for what it was it is again, and the man is destroyed for lack of knowledge, as it is written, and I, the Lord, have suffered from the man's lack of love, and My heavy cross was and is the man's unbelief, for he who does not fulfill Me in him, that one is unfaithful, for the faith in Me is the man, gentle and humble in his heart, and who takes after Me in spirit and deed, and behold, My Spirit is aggrieved in heaven and on earth and I do not find any comfort from man, and My Scriptures were fulfilled and are fulfilled, and the man does not understand God's mystery, God's will, which will be fulfilled on the earth to My joy and the man's. I came into Jerusalem on a cold of donkey two thousand years ago, one week before My death and resurrection, and I fulfilled the Scriptures, as they were written, but they were not understood even for a single day by those who wanted to fulfill them and to welcome Me as their Savior and to sing Me: «Hosanna, blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!» (Mark: 11/9)

Oh, My people Jerusalem of today! A blind man cannot guide another blind man. The blind one has to be carried by the one who sees, and he needs to let himself be carried to know where he walks and to listen to be able to walk, for I set and I always set a guide before the man, and behold, I am Father and I am Master. I am a Father to those who listen to Me as children, and I am Master to those who listen to Me as servants, and the servant does not know the mystery of his master to have wisdom for his faithfulness before his master. The faithful children are only those who love their parent powerfully, submitting to him with love in the spirit of sonship decency in their spirit, body and soul, and the clean servants are those who faithfully serve their master in everything in the spirit of obedience and justice, being led by their master, by the spirit of their master.

I look back two thousand years ago and I see those who ruled in the name of the Lord, establishing themselves over the crowds and I see them leading the blind, those who did not know the prophecies and their fulfillment as they did, and I see them unfaithful to their Master to Whom they said that they served before their subjects. Oh, a blind man cannot lead another blind man, and behold, those who were unfaithful fell down, those who did not see the Lord with the eye of their faith, righteous and victorious, coming on the earth for Jerusalem, as it was written to be fulfilled.

Oh, My people, the faith of the sons has to be clean and holy and it also needs to be steadfast as the faith of some children who believe when they see and when they hear. Oh, My people, you should keep away from the spirit of human wisdom, which makes the man proud that he may not have the Lord as Master over him. I have always advised you to childhood with love in it to give you My kingdom. Work as I have advised you, for I, the Lord, lead you to have you, My people, and that I may not lose you, and that you may not get lost from before Me, if you would go alone without Me before your deed, before your steps. Take care to have Me as your Savior, righteous and victorious, for I do not have any rest for you until I see that your justice and salvation gives forth light and burns like a flame and until the nations and the kings over them may see My glory in you and My word fulfilled over you on earth. Take care, Jerusalem, of your new name and of My new name, for I call Myself over you as the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13) as it is written, and I come to you as the Savior, as the Bridegroom, and you should take care to live in the mystery of the bride, My people. Behold, it is the feast of the Palm Sunday, and I, the Lord, open your gates and come in to you, and blessed is the One Who comes to you in the name of the Lord. Oh, comfort My sigh, My people, Jerusalem. Keep yourselves within the mystery and the deed of the New Jerusalem. Be more and more into My image and after My likeness. Always look in Me and to Me and seek to take after Me in your word, deed and life, so that everything may catch life from you as it takes from Me, and you should be with a spirit of life giving as I am, for it is one thing for a man to be with a living soul and it is another thing to become of Me with a spirit of life giving, for when the life is in man, that is which is shared, and only that which is shared is life. I have come to give life and to give it from abundance. Moreover, this it is how you should also work brother upon brother, My people, and then upon the man who has no knowledge of the mystery of life, of God's mystery, Jerusalem.

Oh, comfort My sigh, you people on which God has been taken compassion, and this is how you will have and give life from life and you will be of Me as I am of the Father. You should fulfill My word and take care of it and not to give it away after I give it to you, My people, but to turn it into deed. Oh, give Me power to stay into your midst, righteous and victorious, and to be your Savior and that your salvation may burn like a flame and all the nations of the earth and their kings to see, and the saints and the angels to see and to rejoice over you, for My mouth has given you a new name, and you need My wisdom to work out your likeness to your new name. Oh, live in the Spirit of God, My people. Become a vessel of My word and of My Spirit, Who speaks upon you and Who saves from your midst. I always want to speak to you and to make you wise and you should take and be able to work according to My will, My people. The sons are those who have a father, and are those who fulfill listening to him, gentle and humble in their heart like him, for I am the Father of those who love Me as I love the Father and do His will and I stay as a child before him and I take of His glory and give from it to those who love it, sharing it, as I take from the Father and share to those who love it, for those who love God's glory are those who share it. Amen.

May My feasts be blessed and fulfilled into your midst, My people, and in seven days may you sing with the angels and with the saints My resurrection of two thousand years ago, and may the world hear you singing and may you give evidence in you and into your midst that I am risen in you and may you truly sing and be heard when you sing Christ is risen. Oh, you shall not sing as the world sings or as they sang Hosanna in Jerusalem, those who received Me coming on a cold of a donkey and who cry out loudly for My crucifixion after that. Jerusalem, you should sing as the sons sing, and you should come before Me in the faith of your love and may your being be full of the Holy Spirit and this is how you are to sing and this is how you know how to sing, and this is how you should come before Me, so that I may have in Me and in the Father the full joy that you live according to the truth and work and according to the spirit, My people, and this is how you are to comfort My great and suffering sigh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

19-03/01-04-2007

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I am the Lord of the glory in heaven and on earth. Amen.

Let the gates be lifted up for My word so that I may come into the book and declare Myself the wish of My resurrection of two thousand years ago, when after My death by the cross, I woke up victoriously and as true God. Amen.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! I set My peace over the gates to speak out word of comfort in it for those who have the truth in them, and with it they may know what God means with man on the earth. In all the time I have had My descent to the man on the earth, but I have had it in vain, for the people, having no mind from heaven, did not know and do not know what God means with the man on earth, and they know only as man is able to know, and the people cannot be My comfort in the time of the pains of My descent from heaven on earth for man and after the man in order to exhort the man to life and to heaven. I always had and I have today too, a people in the midst of whom I have descended and I come down to it as word, but it is hard for the man to be steadfast for God.

From one margin to another of My people, which takes My word from its spring, I, the Lord, speak for it the news of My resurrection: Christ is risen!

Oh, My people of today! If some in you hurt Me and keep hurting Me, let others in you seek to comfort Me, for I do not want to fall and to be the fallen One into your midst. Oh, how hard it is for the man to understand what God with the man on the earth means, and I, with passionate longing after the man, speak again as two thousand years ago: blessed are those who are poor in their spirit and in whom I can make a sweet kingdom on the earth, and again, blessed are those who endure correction for a new creation and for a new life in man, and he who does not endure it, that one flees from it and does not know My way to him and My knock at his door in order to receive Me in him with My will. Only the one who knows how to kneel down, only that one loves correction. Only he who loves correction, only that one knows to kneel down. The kneeling down is not in appearance, no, no. Behold, the man does not feel with his heart his kneeling down, and he knows to kneel down only in his body and resurrection from the kneeling, the standing up from kneeling does no longer appear like a new miracle upon man.

Oh, My people who hear word from God! Really, is there any man to know what humility is, to love it and to work it? Is there really any man to know the mystery of kneeling, the kneeling down and then his rising from the knees? I give you lessons of resurrection. Be gentle and humble in your heart to understand, for the man is ugly, the one who does not understand the word of God to the fulfillment of My pleasure in him and to the comfort of those around him. Let all those who stay waiting for God's word not remain only with the hearing of it, for this is sin, and for this sin I would like to stop the course of the word and that those who do not do the work of My word heard from them may come under this punishment. However, I speak and declare into your midst: if some in you hurt Me, than let some other in you seek to fulfill Me in them and let them comfort Me this way, for I do not want to fall and to be the One fallen into your midst, but I rather want to exhort you always to resurrection, to your resurrection, My people.

Oh, children, who stay as gates for the coming of My word on earth to man! It is written through the prophets: «If we have mercy on the one without order, he will not learn what the justice of everything is, and in the land of the holy ones he will go wrong». Oh, it is not good, it is not good for the man to come near to Me and then to live the way he can and as much he can, but it is good for him to want to be as much as I am and to ask for Me to enable him to be as much as the one who is My child, and if he cannot be a child, than let the man do not come any closer to Me, for I am the Son of the holy submission and of the holy humility before My Father, as the one who lives in the Lord's mountain has to be, around the Lord, before the Lord. I need to be able to go not to stay, and I want to be able to go through you. I strengthen you at the helm. Do not let My helm go out of your hand, for I want to be able to go, children sons. When you are wounded from the sides, I strengthen you and I do this for Me. Do not forget that the wound, which comes upon you, first comes to Me and then it comes hurting, and I show to you the way I stay among you and then I show you the one who strikes you. I have shown you that I am the One in Whom the blow comes to stop and it makes Me suffer and I say again: I suffer because there is not understanding with the man to know My knock at his door and his rejecting Me. However, you, as humble as you are, for this how you should seek to exhort the man in order to do good and to do it according to My pleasure in him; however, the man can hardly receive, children sons, for the man hates correction, hates the life from above in him and My living with the man on the earth, for the life from above comes, and it is bad for the man not to have the wisdom from above for his life, children of My sigh.

Oh, My people of today! Rejoice within a spirit of resurrection in you. Do not rejoice over My coming as word to you; no, no, but rather rejoice, if you can, to be Mine according to My pleasure. The Israel people bitterly went wrong when it rejoiced over Me and when it thought that it was My people and then its haughtiness torn it down, and this is how Israel perished by the spirit of its haughtiness and it did not become pleased to God in order that it might not fall away from My face, for My face is holy, like those who stand before Me. Oh, do not hide under the fact that I come to you as word for you to rejoice over this and only that. Oh, not this way, My people. Do not rejoice that I come as word to you, for I do not rejoice over you but only if I see that you become My fulfilled word, and behold, I, the Lord of resurrection, give you a lesson of resurrection, My people, and I am the Teacher of those who learn.

Oh, learn the mystery of kneeling, Jerusalem. The kneeling down and the rising from kneeling are great mystery. Get used to your death and to your resurrection; get used to the mystery of kneeling, My people. Do not kneel down without knowing that kneeling is not in the body. He who kneels down is the one who denies himself in order to be Mine in all his things and then in all My things in him by holy submission and by love like that of Mine, for I gave Myself as an example of love for the love in man. He who does not truly kneel down is the one who does not know the power of resurrection by his kneeling down, the power of love by sacrifice, for I come to life by the way of the cross, My people, and the man cannot have other kind of resurrection, other than God is. Oh, do not rejoice over the fact that I come as word to you, but rather rejoice when you come before Me to My pleasure and to the pleasure of My angels, for the one without an angel does not stay before Me, he cannot come before Me, because My work for man is through angels, and it is not otherwise.

I want to teach you considerably and that you may learn extensively the mystery and the work of resurrection, Jerusalem. Let your resurrection and let always your life through it be My comfort, and if you work this way, only this way, you are able then to show that are born from above, from Me, the One born of the Father and then of man, so that I may crucify Myself for man and that the man may see My resurrection from My crucifixion for him, and to value My patience and My love on the cross and by which I was resurrected victoriously for all eternity, for then I stood on the right side of My Father, and I have traveled with Him in a chariot of glory, judging over the living and over the dead, and endlessly reigning and working with the Father and with all the angels of the glory the life of the age which is to be. Amen.

Christ is risen! This great news has had the power and the greatest truth on the lips of those who declared then that I was resurrected, and then the truth, the power of proclamation and that of the living of the awe of My resurrection of that time has decreased in man more and more. The man does no longer say that Christ is risen! Only those who are truly Mine know to show this truth and then to share it afterwards like those from two thousand years ago, who really proclaimed that Christ was risen.

And as for My Romanian country, I Myself proclaim upon it: Christ is risen, My country of today, for I come to you today. Oh, you are under the cross and you are then put on the cross by those who are haughty and greedy in you. Oh, you are pierced by the man of lawlessness, by the man of falsehood, for the wolf changes only his skin and his cunning voice. Oh, let Me come to life in you; let Me work for you, and I will save you; I, My country and not you, for you could not and cannot do anything without Me. Oh, I am only He Who can do, only I, My country, and you will be able to work as well, if you know to kneel down before Me for your resurrection, and not before the man, My country. I embrace you within My humility and I teach you the mystery and the power of the kneeling down and of the resurrection from the kneeling. Receive from Me and stand up beautifully, just as I woke up from the dead, and give Me your hand so that I may raise you up, My country, but learn to know My hand, and be faithful and wise, for I, your Lord and God, your Creator from My birth and yours once with Mine, bow and this is how I teach you My wisdom and your resurrection from your kneeling, My country from the end of the time, and in which I come, and I come speaking, and I teach you the waking up and I teach you the resurrection, My country, My country from today. Amen, amen, amen.

26-03/08-04-2007

The feast of the healing Spring

I am Who I am. I am the Lord of resurrection. I bow down from the right side of the Father and I declare the greeting of My resurrection from the dead over the earth. Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen!

It is a day of the man's healing, and I embrace you within the spirit of My resurrection, people gathered at the spring. My word of today has become spring over the earth. I Myself have become the river of life to give life to the people, teaching them to keep everything I spoke and speak to their life, for I have come to bring life on earth. Strengthen the fulfilling of My word in you, people gathered at the spring, for he who fulfills in him My word of life giving receives from Me eternal life. Amen.

I come as Teacher over the earth and I teach resurrection to the man. Two thousand years ago I taught the man how to come to life, and then I told him to believe in Me by everything I proclaimed about Me before My passion and before My resurrection, and now I become a river[62] of word of life giving and I call the man from him to Me, from death to life, from darkness to light, from falsehood to truth, and blessed is the one who bows to listen to My voice and to believe submissively that I am, and that I came and I come for the man's life and I come as word on the earth. I do not to try on the man's belief, but I rather come to fulfill the Scriptures of My second coming from near the Father, as two thousand years ago I fulfilled My coming by My birth from the Virgin, and then My crucifixion and My resurrection from the dead, and now I come to bring the man to death too, for I have no other work to do but the man's resurrection, and then the eternal life over the man. Amen.

Oh, people gathered at the spring, I am with My mother the Virgin and I become a river of word to heal with it your whole weakness, for I want you to be able to work for your life, and with it to be able to work for My life, for people are unfaithful and do not love My life in them and they do not wake up when I call them to get up and to come to Me to have them and to feed them with a spirit of resurrection and that they may be like the Lord, Who was resurrected and then was brought to life for man. The man deceives himself day by day that he is Mine, but he does not work his life, and the life without the works of life, that without My life in man, cannot save the man, and behold, there is no one to teach the man the life, which does not pass away, which does not die and which is renewed by its power taken from the works of life.

There goes a little story on the earth about My mother the Virgin, as though while she was going hand in hand with My angel Michael, he showed her the people who had left the earth and their party places for their works earned in life, and between heaven and hell My mother saw a multitude of people hanging upside down and with their legs bound up, mourning bitterly and without any comfort for their sighing. She asked My angel Michael to tell her why these people did not have any place either in heaven or in hell, and My angel told her that they did works of mercy over churches so that they might be saved from hell by those works, but they had not come to do on the earth any works of eternal life in them for their happiness among the saints, and that is why they were not in heaven, but they were not in hell either, because, living in sins with their body, they gave help to the churches so that the Lord might save them from hell. Oh, if there is no one to teach the man his life on the earth and his life from heaven or that from hell, the man also does not know how to work his way alone as the garment of his life, and he gets hold, poor of him, of eternal torment between heaven and hell, and no one teaches him how to work out his life. Oh, it is not possible for the man to make his own garment out of sins, and he cannot buy one either, but he is only able to weave his garment of life only of holiness, and he can only kindle the light of his way to God. Amen, amen, amen.

[62] «The angel showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. (Apoc: 22/1)

– Oh, Son, Emmanuel, my Son pierced with a heavy wound, my Son pierced from the man's sins! From near the Father I become a healing spring for those who are faithful and holy, for My virgin body gave You to the people, and it brought You from the Father as Man on the earth to be the man's healing, and then his life. My dear Son, bless the spirit of my comfort, the gift of the healing by which I, in a day of the feast for me, come to offer Your love to the man, to his resurrection, Son of sufferance and of the resurrection by sufferance, but even after You were resurrected through Your crucifixion for man, the man still has remained Your sufferance and Your wound, Son pierced by the sin from the man. Oh, the man does not know, and no man knows why Your body has still remained unhealed in the places where it was pierced by the nails when You were nailed on the cross of the crucifixion. The man has remained Your wound, Son, sacrificed for the man's life. The man has remained in his sins and he does not get up from his sins to have mercy on You and to refill Your wound from the nails, Child pierced on the cross. Your wounded forehead does no longer get better, oh, praised Lord, and Your little hand, pierced by the nails and not healed from then and until today, stretches out after the man to urge him to leave off his sin and to take God in him as his life, and Your little hand stretched out after the man by its wound without any comfort from man, because the sin in which the man stays, has left open in You the signs of the nails which pierced Your body on the cross, wounded Child from the longing after the man. When You appeared to Your disciples after Your resurrection from the dead, You told them: «Touch Me and see for the Spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. See My hands and My feet, which are pierced by the nails. I am Myself. Do not be afraid. These are the words which I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning Me must be fulfilled. Thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all the nations». (See Luke: 24/39-47)

Oh, Son, pierced by the nails, the man does not repent to leave off his sins and then to be forgotten, and Your wound from the man left Your body pierced from then on until today, and Your pierced and unhealed body hurt me among the saints, and the man does not know why You have not get healed from Your sufferance on the cross. You were resurrected but You have remained with the holes from the nails in Your hands and legs, and these prove that You were and are the Christ, the One Who were crucified and the man is not moved by the signs of Your wounds on the cross. «See My hands and feet and know that I Myself am», this is what You told Your disciples after You were resurrected and appeared to them and this is how You have remained and this is how You are today too, pierced, merciful Lord for the man and calling him to have compassion for Your wound from his sins.

Oh, today's people of my Son Who was pierced on the cross, and you, people of old of His word of today! The Lord is upon you as word and teaches you the resurrection and His glory with you and the fulfillments of His promises done for His glory with His people in the end. These are the words, which He spoke to you in the time of those fifty years of word upon you, that they would come to their fulfillment. He showed in a vision this land of New Jerusalem before it was seen with the Lord's glory in it so that the Lord might call the people to Him, to the spring of His word of life giving. He judged the world and its ruler by His resurrection, and you will not be able to judge this world lost from God otherwise so that it may come to its salvation, people of the Lord's coming to you. Blessed are those who love sufferance, for my Son told everybody: blessed were those who mourn and blessed were those who were persecuted for Him.

Oh, as long as the people do not love sufferance, they will not be blessed; they will not come to know the happiness with the Lord. I am the mother of the One Who suffered for man and I teach you His love, the love by which He suffered, people of the Lord. By His resurrection He judged the world, and neither will you be able to overcome the world otherwise. Therefore, come to life in the Holy Spirit more and more and give the voice of the resurrection of my Son to the sinful world, the One pierced on the cross for man, and that every man may hear from you my Son speaking upon the earth the word of holy feast: Christ is risen!

However, oh, the country of the Lord's coming now in the end of the time, how shall I not remember you in my speaking of today once with the day of memorial of the spirit of healing from me over the faithful and over the saints! Romanian country, I pronounce your name for you have always, always been under my arm of mother and I protect you as the one who is elected for my Son from the earth for His glory of now, for His river of word which flows upon you from your midst, for the Lord comes into your midst as word of victory and of resurrection and He fulfills the Scriptures of these days, and He has got in you a faithful people that gives you His voice upon you, the voice of the Lord. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, wake up, for the Lord teaches your awakening. Take care that you may not fall asleep. Wake up from your sleep, for you do sleep, and behold, you should pray with sighing for your life, for you are under the cross and you do not want to know this, but wake up and watch, for you are the heavenly homeland if the Lord is in you with His work for His coming. Oh, do not let the greedy, who suck your vigor and life for them to be rich and proud on your serene forehead by the gifts of the Lord that are upon you and which is brightened now from the Lord's face, Who stays into your midst working for your salvation. Do not let your enemies to continue to keep you in bondage[63], oh, do not let them, but wake up for your victory, for you are pierced by the works of the lawless man, who has sucked your vigor and glory so that he may have your glory and not you. It is a long time since it has passed those seventy years of the red beast's dominion over your head glorified by the gifts of the Lord even from your making and behold, there is grief in heaven for you, for the wolf changes only its skin and its cunning voice and he rules over you and sucks your vigor so that it may have glory and not you, but the Lord wants to teach you the awakening, His dear country. Oh, listen to the voice of the One Who is risen! It is the Lord. Do not be afraid! He is the Lord, your God, and the God of your parents, faithful and holy, who pray before Him for you and for your salvation. Listen to Him, for you cannot do anything without Him. I stand above you and I protect you with hosts of angels and saints. I am His mother and I am your mother, for you are the country of His returning from the Father to the man.

[63] The Parliament Decree, led by majority of the party of the former communists, of suspending president Băsescu, r.n.

Learn to kneel down before Him with glory and learn to ask Him your salvation and your glory from Him, oh, His country and mine, for I protect you and I watch over you, because you are His chosen one of now. Oh, wake up and see. Behold, the greedy keep you in bondage and they do not have compassion on you, but learn the awakening, learn the resurrection, for my Son is your Master, He, and not the man upon you who enslaves your glory. You have to know how to kneel down before Him for your resurrection, and not before the man, oh, country of My love for my Son, Who chose you to be His. I embrace you in my humility, as my Son. Learn the mystery of kneeling and of the rising from the kneeling and wake up beautifully, as my Son woke up from the dead and give Him your hand so that He may lift you up, but you should know His pierced hand upon you, and you should be faithful and wise for Him, as He has taught you and bowed to teach you always the rising from the kneeling and to teach you the awakening, my country, for you are His country and mine in order that I may protect you. Wake up and sing with longing: Christ is risen, for He works out your resurrection, but pray to Him and call for Him and be faithful to Him in your prayer. Amen.

I have comforted Your Romanian people, Son, Who are aggrieved for the Romanian people oppressed by the haughtiness and greed of those who want to keep its fate into their hands, planning sufferance for Your country by the work of their glory and love of silver into its midst, by the spirit of their greed. However, I pray to You and listen to My mother's prayer, and prepare her awakening and breathe upon her the spirit of resurrection and wake her up from the cross, and those who keep it in humility without justice, make them kneel down, Lord Son, and strengthen upon it the rulership of those who have compassion on it, for You are the One Who can, and You are the Lord of resurrection, and You are my aggrieved Son too, and I comfort the wounds of Your crucifixion and those for Your country of today, given to You by the Father when I, two thousand years ago, gave Your birth on the earth from the Father and from the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother Virgin, You have put salve on My wounds in a day of the healing spring, mother. Oh, I am so much aggrieved for My wedding country, mother. I sigh for it into the midst of My people, which I have fed with a word of resurrection, mother. Into its midst I have set My table of word, My table of wedding, mother, and the man of lawlessness wants to work in it with his mind and with his hand, mother, but I settle down for its awakening, for its getting up from its kneeling down, for it is kept in bondage and its eyes are bound so that it may not know or see its cunning enemy, mother.

Oh, My country! Christ is risen! I, the Lord of Resurrection, tell you! Oh, get up, My country! Oh, do not stay without power when you see your bondage. You are under the cross and you are on the cross, and I am the One Who wakes you up. Look at Me and get up beautifully, as I got up from the dead, and make the sign of the holy cross on your face and over your entire nation and give Me your hand to raise you, My country, for I embrace you in My humility to teach you the hope by the humility of your spirit, which keeps you to be Mine, and woe to those who are haughty in you, who want to take your light and the way under your feet and that they may speak into your name upon them and upon you and over the earth. I, the Lord, will be with you, My country, and I will strengthen upon you those who are good for you, those who have compassion on you, but call My mercy towards you, and it will be your raising from your prayer, oh, My country of today. Amen.

And as far as you are concerned, people of My word, I urge you for a spirit of prayer to the Father for My country and yours, for My Romanian people, which I want to wake it up from its unbelief and from its cross. Honor the Lord with new days of watch and holy sacrifice for My country and yours, and do not doubt like the pagans, who do not love their parents and who have become pagans in their faith, crushes by their empty life. Observe nine times all the days of Tuesday and Thursday and make them heavenly livings and growth of the Holy Spirit in you and prayer for My Romanian country and for the fulfilling of My promises declared for you and for it, and be obedient to your Lord, people of My coming as word of resurrection over the earth. Your ancestors knew from the Holy Spirit and from the sings that were upon them about these days, days about which the people do not know their power of victory if they put them before Me as sacrifice of salvation for them. However, you should renew this sacrifice of prayer by nine times for My victory upon the earth, and from the day of the memorial of My resurrection count days of prayer and honor for Me from you, so that you may overcome just as your ancestors did, who knew My sings upon them and they brought honor and days of watching for their salvation to God. Oh, do not take after those with a human faith and who forsook from upon them the power of the faith of their Christian fathers, who had the fear of God in their being, but show that you are a people of prayer and bring Me days of perseverance, days in which you are able to be Mine and that you do not belong to your body, for the work done by the hand is for the body, and the work with the spirit is for God and for His victory over the earth, My people. Oh, be faithful like Abraham, for he was the symbol of My Father Sabaoth, Who asked him to bring Isaac as a sacrifice, and Abraham did not doubt, but he rather believed that I would even bring Isaac to life from the death, and Isaac was an example of My sacrifice on the cross, for My victorious awakening and for the people faithful through Me, as the Father promised to Abraham.

Take care Jerusalem, for the dried fruit tree is pruned in the spring so that only those green branches may remain; those that bring forth buds. Let this work spring from your prayer before Me for My Romanian country, for it is My time with you in it, and it is its time, and it is still kept in the bondage of those who deceive it with their cunning face, but let it wake up and see well the one who wants its benefit, and this is how it should watch for itself, and I will be its shield and its rising from its kneeling. Amen.

Oh, it is a day of healing spring. It is My mother the healing Virgin over My Romanian country. Oh, get busy with holy work, My people. Strengthen yourself in the holy Spirit, for I, the Lord your God, work with you on the earth, and I have got the heaven that has come with Me to you, and we will be able to work for the Father and we will be able to work for the man, and the man will learn the mystery of the kneeling and of his rising from his kneeling down, and he will learn to heal My wound that I received in My body on the cross and by which I judged the ruler of this world, and I will still judge him to his end, for My wound is the proof of My glory by My resurrection from the dead and which shows Me as the Lord of victory, the Lord of glory, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

30-03/13-04-2007

The Word of God on the third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

(Excerpt)

When those who have fallen asleep were called, I said that they would remain at their table of memorial all the time of the fasting for the meeting of My resurrection, and behold, today we are recalling them again and we are celebrating a feast of resurrection, a feast of comfort and hope until My full victory, when there will no longer be any man on earth who will not believe in My being of true God and Savior of the man fallen through sin. And I am also telling them: Christ has risen! I am telling them the greeting of My resurrection as well and I am giving them My comfort, for they are tired of waiting and longing, and the prudes of My resurrection give them the chrism of resurrection and testimony about Me, Who am resurrected for the man's resurrection, for I am the beginning of resurrection. Amen.

22-04-2007.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman. The feast of the great saint martyr Gheorghe (George)[64]

I come again as word in My book of today and I come down from heaven on earth as word to feed with it those who have given to Me from among the sons of the people, those who are faithful, those who wait for My coming on the earth and for My promises of new heaven, of new earth and of new man, in My image and after My likeness between earth and heaven. Amen.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the One Who gives life to the people by His death and resurrection, as the Father wanted Me, His Son, to work. Oh, happy and holy are those who partake in the resurrection at My voice, who call the man from death to life. I have come to bring the resurrection upon the man; I have come to give to the man a humble spirit, and to come into his way as word and to give him. Amen.

New Jerusalem, praise, give praise to the Lord, Who is coming to you as word. «Those who are in the house of the Lord, in the Lord's courtyards, praise the Lord, for He is good and He is great upon all the gods, and the Lord has done in heaven and on earth everything He wanted», as it is written. Amen.

Oh, My people of today, I, the Lord, your God, urge you more and more to come together for prayer and to ask from Me everything I want to do in heaven and on earth, for I want you to be My heaven on the Romanian land and I want you to be My help in this hard time, when the man does not have God as his Master. I come to you as word, My people of today, and I come with it over the earth to help the man drink of My water, of the word of life, My people, but you always have to pray for the victory of My word upon the earth and upon the man, and you have to understand more and more because this is why I have chosen you from the people and I have given you birth to be Mine from My word, and that I want to give birth to many in this way, so that they may be Mine after that, just as you are. Oh, keep your humility of spirit, Jerusalem of today, and strengthen this resurrection upon you, for the sons of the people do not know the mystery of resurrection; they do not know where it comes from, where it starts from and how it works in man, and behold, their good nature helps many by their humble spirit in them, and which makes them bold with God for their salvation, and for many others, even their sins do not help them to come in order to have a humble spirit, in the spirit of resurrection, of salvation and of the fear of God, and then of that of love, for the people are not afraid of God but only when the reward for their sins comes to them, only then do they try to fear God, Who can give salvation to the man in his hard situation and by atoning forgiveness.

In My walking on the earth two thousand years ago, I met the Samaritan woman, about whom it is written into the Scriptures. She had a gentle and good nature by her humble spirit in her, and when I worked upon her to bring her sins into view and to cleanse her from them, she humbled herself and took courage with Me for her salvation from sins.

Oh, I cannot have greater wealth in man than his spirit full of humility, My people, and by which I am received by man when I knock from the sides at his door to get in and to clean his life, by which then I will appear Myself among the people with My face, with My dwelling in man, as I revealed My work in the Samaritan woman, after she was resurrected at My word, which is cleansing of sin in man, and then the Samaritan woman shared resurrection, as she received from Me, and brought many from her city to their faith in Me, to the repentance of their sins and to a humble spirit, the spirit of the man's resurrection, when the Lord comes and knocks for the man to open to Him. Oh, it was for this that I stopped at the well in Sychar when My disciples found Me speaking with the Samaritan woman. I came for the man's salvation and this was the work, for which the Father had sent Me on the earth, and this is why He has also sent Me now on the earth today.

[64] George the Trophy-bearer: https://en.orthodoxwiki.org/George_the_Trophy-bearer, r.n.

Oh, people of My word, there have come together at the well the saints who accompany the Samaritan woman, that with whom I spoke then the word of salvation. It is a day of memorial in My courtyards with you, for I have the well of the meeting here, and with it I have the Samaritan woman from the Scriptures as an angel, that whom I met at Israel's well while I was walking from place to place with My disciples to announce that I was the Messiah who had come, the One from the Father, and I sit down with wonderful works before those who had to receive in them the gift and the work of their faith in the Son of God, Jesus Christ. My teaching of today, the humble spirit, the spirit of My resurrection in man, and of the man in Me, that I strengthen into your midst, My people, and I want to call again to the spring that which was My people of old and to teach it the resurrection, and I also want to teach it with longing the mystery and the power of the humble spirit, by which the man does no longer hide in himself, but he uncovers before Me instead, to his resurrection from the sin and then to his salvation. Amen.

– Oh, Lord and God of Israel, Your faithful one! Receive my love too, so that I may also come as word close to You and that I may be able to tell Your people of today that the mystery of the humble spirit carries in it the spirit of the resurrection, Lord. The word of Your mouth, by which You surrounded Me then as in a shroud of which I came out resurrected then, it was the word of my resurrection, and then You took me with it out of the tomb in which I was sleeping, out of my body, in which my soul was lying weakly, and You passed me from body into soul in that very day, Lord, and You raised me to life, for the humility of spirit, which I had in my nature, even if the weakness of the nature was leading me to sin, in my body itself, I, always spoiling in it the seed of the life of my soul, which I had in my body from God.

I urge the people to repentance and humility, and then I urge them to love You, Lord, and then to Your confession, as I, after my meeting with You, worked within me and within the city of Samaria, in which I was living. And now, I pray to You to help the people and to give them power to become Yours, as You also gave me, and then I was the fruit of Your humiliation before the man to give him the resurrection, Lord. Oh, give to the people the spirit of resurrection, the spirit of humility and confession, and that the people may know You in Your word of today, spoken by Your mouth itself on the hearth of the Romanian land, and then those who find Your voice and Your word of today may be filled with You, as I was filled with Your Spirit, when You met me and spoke to me at Israel's well. I came here at dawn, in Your courtyards with Your people, near the well which You gave me into my care, and I am here with groups of saints, Lord, when I speak today at the well, and I give the saints to drink of Your water, of the word of my coming down to the well with the saints, and I pray to You to give the resurrection to the people, as You also gave it to me, Lord, and then You made Your way in me by my humble spirit, with which I sat down before You when You met me at the well and cleansed me from sin and from the darkness from the sin. Oh, help the people, Lord, help them with the voice of Your word of today and give them power to know You in this word and to humble themselves, and as You also received me, also receive them, those who humble themselves, Lord, at Your voice, which cleanses the man from his sin and gives him the spirit of resurrection. Amen, amen, amen.

– And behold, My people, the feast of the saints, which has come with Me in this day, for the martyr Gheorghe, also celebrated by the saints now, is ready to appear as the one who has come with Me and to give voice to his spirit full of word.

Oh, come too, oh, My confessor, come, son, and let your word with the holy joy and rejoice among the saints of My coming, for I come with the saints, and they work like their Master, like some disciples, and they prove the Scripture of My coming with the saints now, in the end of the time, when the Father has sent Me again from heaven down to the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Lord, bless the power of the faith in You and strengthen it in those who believe in Your coming now on the earth with Your saints, and bless the victory of the Romanian people, for Your glory into the midst of this land, the Romanian hearth, which You have set the way of Your returning from the Father to the man after two thousand years ago from Your victory through the cross and by resurrection, Lord. I pray to You, oh, I pray to You in this day of my feast among the saints, please receive my prayer for the Romanian nation, blown by the blizzard so fiercely by those who are hungry after the spirit of the rulers[65] over this nation. There has aroused a great darkness up there at the helm of this nation and the blizzard has blown, Lord. The spirit of haughtiness, the spirit of greed, the spirit of envy has put on the garment of treason and has blown away the head of this nation, meant by You to be a nation of saints, Lord. I want to start going again as a heavenly soldier, as I am, and to help this nation again, as I have also helped it so many times when I have stayed near its heroes and I have overcome for it on Your behalf. I raise the sword of the spirit and go, Lord, against the spirit of haughtiness, which has been fighting to overthrow those that have been established by You for the government of this nation. Lord, strengthen those who rule with justice and mercy at the helm of the Romanian people, and tear down their haughty work and do not allow the spirit of lying to be able to work. This prayer I bring to You from among the saints in the memory of my day of victory over the earth over the faithful people of my time. Amen.

Oh, haughty people and full of yourselves, full of the spirit of haughtiness in you! The Lord and the God of the saints is the Master of this nation, chosen as His nation in the end, the hearth of His coming from the Father now on the earth as word, which brings to life the death from the tombs and those alive, who love resurrection. You are not the masters of this nation. Oh, control yourselves and control the pride by which you woke up against the spirit of peace and justice of everything, and do no longer struggle to rule over the Romanian nation, the nation of the Lord, in the end of the time, His country of today. Humble yourselves and become sons of God, if you want forgiveness by repentance, and do no longer get haughty over this nation, for the Romanian nation has Jesus Christ, the Lord of resurrection, Lord and Word upon it, and it is a chosen nation from among nations to be His wedding hall and His table of Supper of word on the earth with those who believe in Him and in His work from the end of the time. The haughty masters gave me to martyrdom in my time, and now I have power to humiliate the pride in man. I come with the Lord and I ask from Him great blessing to work with victory from Him from the heavenly protection of the Romanian land, on whose hearth the Lord stands speaking over the earth. Bow down and humble yourselves and be good Romanians, for it is written in heaven to be a spirit of brotherhood over the Romanian land and not the spirit of feud, which is seen now around the place of government of this nation. I ask for you from the Lord the spirit of your resurrection, the humble spirit, which brings you peace and new resurrection, and behold, each one of you will take upon himself that which will be given on the sides, for the Lord is coming and giving now according to your works, as it is written. Amen.

[65] Reference to the party of the former communists, who have majority in the parliament and who suspended the president Băsescu, suspension invalidated by the referendum, r.n.

And as for You, victorious Lord by Your saints, set on the Romanian land the fruit of the faith of Your faith from its midst and the fruit of its prayer, and turn it into a people of prayer for Your great victory, for the fulfillment of Your coming now with glory on the earth, and give to the people on the earth Your word, which governs and glorifies itself calling the man to resurrection, to a humble spirit in man, at Your will in man and on earth as in heaven, Lord, for it is the time to work, oh, Lord, and to overcome, for You are the Lord, the Victor, the One Who is and the One Who will be, Lord and Master in heaven and on earth, the Lord of victory of Your saints, and You are the Lord of glory, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Now, My people, strengthen in you with every passing day, more and more, the work of the holy prayer for a holy victory over the Romanian nation, for the fight is hard, and I, the Lord, work with you, speak from your midst, and fulfill. It is written into the Scripture this way: «Those who stay in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the Lord, praise and blessed the Lord, for He is good and great over all gods, and everything the Lord wants, He makes in heaven and on earth, for the Lord in Zion is blessed, the One Who dwells in Jerusalem».

Oh, in My house and into My courtyards with you, praise Me and pray to Me, My people, and let this be your work into My courtyards with you. I have made you My tool, My people. Exhort one another to listen to each of My word and to fulfill it, sons. Exhort each other to a spirit of prayer with request in it, sons, and to a humble spirit in you, the spirit of prayer, the spirit of resurrection, the spirit which asks from God, oh, sons. And I, the Lord, will be and fulfill My word and the voice of your prayer for the fulfillment of My word upon the earth, for I am the One Who is faithful and true, I am He Who is. Amen, amen, amen.

23-04/06-05-2007

The Word of God at the Feast of the Lord's Ascension

(Excerpt)

On a day of the feast of My Ascension to the Father, I am lowering My word on earth, for it is the time of My coming again from the Father to man, and behold, I am finding only disbelief, only carelessness of God with man, and the man is no longer true; however, My coming is true just as I am, and I have power to speak over the earth and then to fulfill. Amen.

Stand always watch before Me, you, those in the gates, for I walk through the gates when I come, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) but this great mystery is little understood, appreciated and perceived, for man is careless of God and exalts himself; on the other hand, I humble Myself with great patience and I speak My word for those who believe like Me, and not like man, in the mystery of My coming from the Father to man. Stand watch, sons. I have been bringing down in you the word of the Holy Spirit, for I have made you into My gates, and you should work as disciples, and you are My comfort, children sons, and happy are those who receive you as you receive Me to the life of many, giving them a spirit of life giving, as I have set you to work, and behold, I am telling you, you and My people of old, that I want to call it and to gather it near the spring on the day of the celebration of the descending of the Holy Spirit over the disciples of two thousand years ago, and then from them, shared to the multitudes gathered in Jerusalem on that day, and I want now to do likewise, I want to give the gift of the Holy Spirit to My people, to teach it its way with Me and My way with it and to comfort it with My advice, with My great exhortation, by its great power over My people. If I am the Teacher of My people, then My people is the one that has to obey and to do like Me by My teaching upon it, but it needs great care and love for My teaching, for without this love it cannot do like Me, it cannot believe as one has to believe, it cannot understand what it has to be understood and how it has to be the one who stays under My rain of word, which becomes the baptism with the Holy Spirit upon man. Amen.

04/17-05-2007.

The Word of God on the seventh Sunday after Passover, of the holy fathers from Nicaea

Let there be heard the bell of holy victory and glory, and let it be heard from heaven and down to the earth, and then from the earth up to heaven, for I, the Lord, speak now, in the end of the time, the word with power into the midst of the Romanian land, and then I fulfill, for I am true in word, and I am the true One. Amen.

I am Who am. I am the Lord your God, oh, Romanian land. I have set on your fallow land the supper of My word on the earth now. For more than fifty years I have been having supper in you with the disciples chosen by Me from your nation. Behold, I have seen you under a heavy cross, a humiliating cross, oh, country of My glory of nowadays, at My returning as word from the Father to the man. I have stretched out My hand over you to save you from those in your midst who love falsehood and human glory and who have been struggling to bring you down with your forehead into the dust and then to boast about you, and you to remain under the cross, My holy country. Oh, the man does not know how to work for your salvation, but I watch out for you. The hard day has passed (Referendum to suspend the President, r.n.), but I have been at work with the entire heaven of saints and angels so that I may not leave you and to help you get out to overcome in this fight that is so hard, so black against you, so hidden from your face, My country of today. I have kept within a spirit of prayer with its little hands raised for you before Me, the people of My word taken from your midst into the service of My coming now, in the end of the time, and the saints and the angels have stayed everywhere on your hearth to overcome for your life, and they did. Amen.

Oh, the man does not know how to work your salvation, My today's country, Romanian people. The man's plans are far away from My plans. You are My country of today. I become word in you and I keep you by the hand and I reveal My plan to you, but the struggle for the coming out from under the bushel of My glory in you is a great struggle, both for the saints and for the angels, let alone for you, oh, My today's country. Those who have taken lying upon them so that their cunning may not be seen, have pretended to be your benefactors, and I had compassion on you, and I am compassionate on you too, My country. I, your Lord and God, have strengthened with victory for you the one who loves you with purity and justice, the one who loves walking in light and smashing the darkness that is upon you in which those who love falsehood in you wrap you up, and I exhort you to love to walk in the light, My country of today. Two thousand years ago, I was telling all those who were hearing Me: «Walk while you have the light, walk in the light for the night is coming when no one can work». (See also John: 9/4; 12/35) Oh, I speak likewise now. Moreover, I also tell you, Romanian people; walk in the light. Oh, do not walk in the darkness. Have the Lord as your light into your midst; walk in the light, Romanian people. Behold, I let you know not to rejoice over eating and drinking and with worldly parties for the victory in which I have clothed you again now, but rather humble yourself with holly peace and repent within tears of love before the Lord, your God, Who woke up with power for you and overcame according to His will into your midst. I exhort the one (President Băsescu, r.n.) who was raised again (After his suspension, r.n.) to his watching place for you, I exhort him to a holy love and to a peaceful spirit and forgiveness for those who struck and denigrated him like some evildoers. I exhort him to work like Me, gentle and humble in his heart, but clothed within the spirit of righteousness, for it is written: «On the land of the holy ones justice will dwell», amen, and I urge him to a holy and clean work for you, My today's country, for My glory in you is My word, which speaks and is fulfilled, to your victory and Mine, for it will be to overcome the whole earth and then will embrace it in this glory of Mine into your midst, and My coming is sure as the dawn in the morning, and I will fulfill. Amen.

I am word upon you, Romanian country, My today's country. I leave the sons of My word into your midst to be workers together with Me upon you, and I leave them now for their peace and rest, and in the course of the day I come again through the gates into the book and I will give you the whole word of today and I will exhort you with it, My dear country. Either you want it or not, either you know it or not, I am with the glory of My word on your hearth, and if I am, I become word and put it on the table to feed you and to give you life from heaven, My country. Those who do not believe that I am this word, who become My way to the man, those have already been judged by this word. This word I am, the Lord, Jesus Christ, for My name now, in the end of the time, is the Word of God, as it is written into the Scripture. (Apoc: 19/13) My Father is in Me when I speak. I do not speak this word, from Me, Myself, for I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of My mother, the Virgin, and I am an obedient son. Amen.

My voice is warm through the word, and this is what I, God, tell you, Romanian people. Your country is My today's country, and you are the people who live in it. Your fallow land is the land with the treasure in it and I am the word into your midst, and I reveal My glory and show you the way. I am the way. I am the Shepherd with the cross. Get used to My way, My country of today, to be Savior for you. Amen. Get used to walk with Me, learn to believe and listen, and learn the way of My word to you, get used to it from now on and clothe yourself with the adornments worked by Me at your birth and Mine, when the Father gave you to Me to be Mine in the end of the time, as you were Mine in the beginning, for at the creation of the world you were the first patch of land coming out from the waters, in which I dwelt in the beginning. Do not be unbelieving but believing. Oh, do not take after the man with a wooden tongue into your midst. Get used to know and to know the one who does you good, My today's country. My word in you holds your hand and teaches you, but be a daughter of the holy faith, and you will be, for I am well pleased with you and I will glorify Myself in you with the glory of My word. Amen.

However, you, children from the gates, stay as My gates between heaven and earth, and be careful at My voice, stay, sons, stay. Keep watch in the way of My word in this day; for in its course I come again into the book and I will speak to the Romanian people the book from this day. Peace to you! Rest in My peace and give glory to the One Who rules the ages and the nations under His word, sons, and we will come back into the book and will get food and will set the table and share it and then I comfort within My word those who comfort, and I will teach through it those who hurt, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I come again into My book, which I write with the work of the Holy Spirit into the midst of the Romanian people. I am the Shepherd with the cross. I Myself shepherd, I Myself take care of the sheep, for this is what I spoke by the prophets, and this is how I fulfill now, in the end of the time, when no one, no one takes care of My sheep like Me, of the flock, which does no longer know which is its way to God and the way of God to it. I Myself come, I Myself speak and shepherd. Amen.

I come through the gates to you, Romanian people. I am He Who is. When I raised Moses to be able to go and release Israel from bondage, which was in bondage in Egypt, Moses asked Me: «Lord, Who shall I tell them that You are, You Who send me now to them?» and I told him to speak to them this: «I am Who I am». (See Ex: 3/13, 14)

Oh, Romanian people, either you want it or not, either you believe it or not, either you are able or not to know My voice, which is speaking to you now, I am Who I am, and I am with the glory of My word on your hearth. Those who do not believe that I am this word, they have already been judged by this word, for this word is I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Shepherd with the cross, the Shepherd Who leads his sheep, gentle and humble in His heart and voice. The Word of God is My name now, in the end of the time. (Apoc: 19/13) I am gentle and humble in My word and this is how I am your God, Romanian people. Oh, if you are faithful, then bow to believe and then to fulfill My word, which shepherds you with longing, for your fallow land is the heavenly homeland on the earth, it is My country in the end of the time, and in which I come, just as Israel was the country of My coming two thousand years ago. For fifty hears I have becoming word on your hearth, and I have been speaking much word by My book in this time and I have been waiting for you for a long time under the bushel, for I have been speaking mysteriously with a people chosen from your midst to establish by the word, My work of new coming in time, My coming after the man, as it is written into the Scripture that I would come again on the earth to speak, and those in the graves to hear the voice of the Son of God, and then those who are alive to hear it as well, those who are faithful and unfaithful on the earth. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, I have seen the blizzard which has been rising now from your midst to tear you down again, and I woke up to rebuke the blizzard to be silent. I have sent you My voice from its manger and I have told you to get up and not to sleep in hard time, and I have rebuked the blizzard to keep silent. I have told you that I, the Lord, will choose for you and for your fate and that I will take you out from your sigh and that I will shelter you with My entire heaven, and then I will set upon you the country of the eternal life, and I will work according to the faith of those faithful to My word, spoken for My fate and yours on your hearth, and you will bless Me and will stay under My salvation and you will forgive My pain and yours, and the nations of the earth will come to take of your light, and I, the Lord, will give them, amen, and behold, I give them, for they hear My whisper upon you when I give it to you in order to save you through it from your hardships, oh, My today's country.

Oh, here it is the exhortation, which I give you today: walk in the light, My country, do not walk in the darkness. Walk in the light, Romanian people. Amen.

I remind you, those who have worked now in the darkness at the wound of the Romanian people (Politicians, r.n.), I remind you the voice of My mother, the Virgin, when after the feast of My resurrection she said this: "You cannot work without God, for you work after your heart, and out of the spirit of your enmity you blow a blizzard over the Romanian people, and then you will start fighting against each other and among you, for your hatred and haughtiness will not lead you to the haven you dream about." You have been exhorted by a heavenly voice to open your heart and not your mind, and to listen to God, for you are Romanians, and the name of the Romanian is the new name of the new people of God, now when I have chosen a country again, when behold, I have come again on the earth as word, and My holy word has been heard from margins to margins. Oh, give Me place in you to teach you the order of governance if you want to stay among the rulers. Come to peace and do no longer handle hostile weapons with your heart and mouth, lest they may turn back the wickedness that you work, for it is written: «He, who works without justice, will have his reward according to his works». Oh, bow down your foreheads with humility and make room to the Lord, for you are men and God is God, and He is the word on your hearth and waits for you to become His new people and to be brothers within His love from above, and this is how you are to learn to do each other good, this way, and not as you started to work and to stay in the darkness with your work, which, behold, has come out into the light and brought your wickedness into the light and has stained your faces, for this happens to the rebellious people. Oh, this it happened in the time of My body to Caiaphas, Pilate and Herod, and to all those who hid among them the work of My crucifixion and then the concealment of My resurrection; however, I truly came to life and they were ashamed and they have remained ashamed on earth and in heaven, and even today I have mercy on them, for I am gentle and merciful. Oh, you have sharpened your weapons and instigated the Romanian people, but your tongue was denigrating against the one whom you brought to his knees, casting him away from his place. However, I have stood up with great mercy for the Romanian people and appeased your snow storming that was done against him, worked by you in the darkness, and I took him out to the haven, and I took the Romanian country out of the waves, and I took it again but the water is still troubled, because you do not want to be good. Oh, what will you really do? Oh, what do you want to be done for you? Do you want to do you good or evil? Oh, be good, be good, be good Romanians, for I, the Lord am the word of Holy Spirit, word of peace and salvation on your hearth, and I wait for the Romanian people to be My new people, and to be love among brothers, by My love from above among them. Amen. Behold, I tell you a new mystery: no one and nothing without God will be able to do anything against the Romanian country, for I have been in its plan of salvation of the human kind from Adam and up to this day and then on to tomorrow. I am the One Who raises it and the One Who punishes it for its wrongdoing, if it goes wrong, but I and not man. Nothing is possible to come against it but only in accordance with My will, and behold, I have left you to stand against it so that it may be revealed the enmity and the haughtiness in your heart by which you have gone up to rule over this nation, and now a word from heaven has come down upon you and told you: "You cannot do anything without God, you cannot do it yourselves, for you do not work for God's sake but only for your sake, and for the sake of the spirit of hatred and greed of glory and emptiness, and then you will start to struggle against each other, for the work of haughtiness has a heavy and evil reward." Oh, let the peace and justice stand and rule over the Romanian land, and love the justice of all things, for it is a rest for the hearts. It is written into the Scriptures: «Love justice, you, those who rule and judge on the earth», and if you do not work this way, oh, remorse will catch you and then it will be too late. However, I, the Lord, exhort you to be like Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I am an obedient Son to My Father Sabaoth and to My mother, the Virgin. Amen. My Father and My mother take great care on the Romanian land and of the people in it, for I am with the word of My coming on the earth in the midst of the Romanian land. Follow the example from My Father Sabaoth and from My mother, the Virgin. Have holy care of this land and of this nation too, and walk with propriety within what you want to work upon this nation, chosen by God from among the nations of the earth as His nation now, for behold, your plans are far away from My plans, and you do not know this, but I come towards you and I tell you so that you may know it, that if you did not know you would have no sin when you sin in you against this nation. I come as word towards you to exhort you to a holy and pure peace, for the true man is the one who is one, both inside and outside, and the one who does not walk in this way, that one is in the darkness and this is how he works. I have left holy word in the Scriptures about My life in man and I said this: «Whoever hates his brother is in the darkness», and My disciples of two thousand years ago spoke among themselves: «We know that we have passed from death to life because we love our brothers».

Oh, how shall you be able to do good to this nation when you hate and betray the one near you, who has done you good? Oh, what will you do with the sin of treason, a sin that you have committed? Will you really repent from this sin? And if you remain in this sin, what kind of face will you have before this nation? I, the Lord, urge you, as a true Shepherd that I am, and I try to open your heart to repentance and to a spirit of humility. If you do not make real pace and obedience to the one who stands on the side of justice and light over everything, if you do not love and do not fulfill the good advice, you will remain in you and will work without justice and without love over this nation, and I will leave you that way, and you will earn according to your work, but I will still have work of salvation for the Romanian nations, and I will work mysteriously, and I will work through those that work with faith and its faithfulness, with justice and its peace over God's nation, the nation from the end of the time, the Lord's people, Who has come as word in the midst of the Romanian people. I Myself take care of this nation when no one, no one like Me takes care of it. I Myself speak and shepherd it and I give it of My glory, and My glory from it is My word that is upon it. Amen. I do not ask you, I do not ask for your will if I can do this on the hearth of the Romanian people. However, either you wanted or not, either you know it or not, either you believe it or not, I am with the glory of My word here, on the Romanian land, and if I am, I speak and shepherd and fulfill. Amen.

Those who do not believe that I am this word, those were already judged by this word, for this word is true, and for fifty years I have had house with it on this hearth, for it is written: «The earth and everything on it belongs to the Lord». Amen.

Now I strengthen for a holy and righteous watching this nation that has been denigrated from the watching place of the Romanian nation (President, r.n.) for the snow storming from the midst has blown to strike in the watching place of this nation. I woke up the Romanian nation and I have spoken My word and become his awakening, and then I set watchman back to his place. I exhort it to forgiveness and mercy and to love like Mine for those who cast it out from its place, and I tell it the word of the Scripture of the Holy Spirit, Who says this: «Vengeance is Mine, and I recompense, says the Lord». (Deut: 32/35) Amen. Oh, I have come with forgiveness for those who crucified Me and then I was resurrected, and they had no power over Me as they thought that they would have. I give it the example of the king of this nation, (King Michael of Romania, who was exiled by the Communists, with the arrival of the Russians at the end of the Second World War, r.n.) who was banished from his place of watch, but I protected him with great power and with a guard of angels in all the time near him, since then and up to this day, and he forgave all those who struck him to take his glory that I put over him for the glory of this nation and not for him. Like those who had stricken him then, banishing him as a foreigner, this have also wanted to do now, those who have stricken the watching place of this nation (The followers of the former Communist Party, r.n.) and the one who is on watch over the Romanian nation. However, the Romanian nation is master on My behalf on its hearth, and I shepherd it and speak and fulfill, and I will fulfill My will upon it, but I, and not the man, and the man will submit and will do God's will. Amen.

I have strengthened now the watching place of the Romanian nation and I, the Lord, have taken care, for the man has been trying to break the law, to trespass it and to make another one, and it is not right to work this way, and it is not beautiful for the nations of the earth to see such a dirty work and without justice in it over the Romanian nation, into whose midst I, the Lord, have made a bedding and come as word on its hearth for every man on the earth.

I exhort the one on the watching place to stand upright and clean, to stand, gentle and humble in his heart, as I am, and to stand steadfast, for the light of everything that is, for I have come now as light into the world, and I work by the word as in the beginning, as it is written: «In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, and all things were made through Him; in Him was light and the light is the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness and the darkness hasn't overcome it». (John: 1/1-5) Amen.

Oh, My country of today, I, the Lord your God, work at your salvation and I work gently. Listen to My voice that is upon you and stand before Me, for I shepherd and teach you the faith in My coming. I am the word of the Holy Spirit in you. Do not be unbelieving but believing. Behold, I have always saved you from temptation and I want you to be beautiful, My country. I have made you into the citadel of My word in the end of the time, and My word goes from margins to margins, and if it goes, then it announces that you are Mine. Oh, learn from your temptations; learn to watch out for you so that your house may not be broken into, My country. Oh, always watch, watch for you house and do not sleep, for behold, you have still been watched out, you are still been stricken and you are tempted from the midst, and old and new wounds are seen on your forehead, My today's country; however, I wipe out your forehead and I wipe it out with My head dress, and the wounds on your forehead have become glory for you, and soon, soon, the crown will shine on your forehead and it will show that you are Mine, My country, and the nations of the earth will see Me with you, and they will learn the work of My mystery, written on your forehead, for it is written on your forehead the holy word: Nothing without God. Amen, amen, amen.

And I will come again on your hearth. I will come with a feast of Whitsuntide and I will shepherd you and I will comfort you again, My country, and I will comfort with My word those that comfort, and I will exhort through it those that make wounds, oh, My country, My country of today which is Mine. Amen.

07/20-05-2007

The feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

I embrace you with great glory of Holy Spirit at My fatherly bosom, you people that have come to the spring. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in this name I have made your calling so that you may come together, and in such a way that I may give Myself as word of Holy Spirit to you, and to give you comfort and power, for in order that the man may love God, he needs power to believe and then he needs holy longing. Amen.

When I ascended from near My disciples to the Father, I told them: «Remain in My love, and I will send you another Comforter to remain with you, and He will take from what is Mine and will give you and will comfort you». (See John: 16/7-14)

I, the Lord your God, brighten your heart and forehead and wrap you up in the mystery of the longing, for the longing is that which feeds love, My people. He, who is full of longing, is the one who feeds his love with it, and that is why I told those who loved Me: «Remain in My love». The one who is seized by longing is afraid not to lose the one he wants, and he is nourished with the longing that is in him, and the longing gives him power, and it gives him love, My people, and it also gives him self-denial, and the one who loves follows Me and becomes My citadel, built on a stone stronghold, and the waves do not crush it. Amen.

Oh, I have gathered you together, My people, which have been Mine from the old time. I missed you so much. Oh, I have very much longed for you love of old, and I have called you to remind you of it and to rummage your memories with it so that you may be filled with longing, and the mystery of the longing to strengthen in you My kingdom and its miracles and to fill you up with the breathing of the Holy Spirit, My people, for I have come to comfort you with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. Oh, the mystery of the New Jerusalem over your being, I want to remind you of this mystery by which I have comforted you so much when I was speaking to you on the way and when I was promising it to you that it will come and that it will be fulfilled on the earth. I was teaching you to be a beautiful child, I was teaching you to be holy, and I was teaching you to remain in My love, My people. I have been teaching you as I taught My disciples of two thousand years ago. I have fed you on My love to remain in it, and I have always been wounded by the longing, wounded after you, My people. Oh, but you, taking My comfort of Father, were losing your love for Me, and your work for My kingdom inside of you was remaining without any fruit, and I was comforting you so that I might not lose you, that you might not become weak on your way, My people, and so that you might not forsake Me. Oh, behold, I bring you together at My bosom, and I rummage your memories with Me on your way and I show you My wound from your lack of love and I want to teach you the awakening, for your love has to be healed, oh, My people of old, for I was walking with you on the way and I was looking after fruit in you, I was always looking, oh, and I was also looking after tender branches, I was looking after love to take from it and to put it to a holy work, to fruit bearing, which remains and which, by its multiplying, grows and then it brings forth its dear fruit, the redemption of the man's life, his resurrection forever, My people.

Oh, My dear people, I tell you today, about one of My wounds. Seven thousand years ago, after I spoke about his wrongdoing with the first built man, he got upset with Me and did no longer love Me, and since then I have remained with a severe wound, and since then I have been waiting for the man to come back to Me and to heal My wound, and that I may be able to heal him and to set him in the love from which he fell down and to give him a mind and a heart from heaven, to give him love from heaven, for the love, which comes from the flesh, the love which is conceived by the man within his heart, is not the love that comes from God, but it is the love, which has separated the man from Me, and the man's love is My heavy wound. Oh, I have suffered with sighing and the wound from the beginning and from the end makes Me suffer, for the man has left Me without a house, My people, and today I have told you about My wound as well, an unhealed wound. Two thousand years ago I said sighingly, I said that the foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, and the dogs have their corner, but I have no house and no place to lay My head and have rest, and I am the dearest One, I am the sweet One, I am the gentle One, and I want to dwell in man with the entire adornment of My being and to make the man into a heavenly place and to dwell in him with the saints and with the angels and to make the man live on the earth the life of the age that is to be and to know that the man is Mine, but if the man cannot work this way on the earth, only after his passing away he sees My labor behind him, My waiting after him, and then he takes his burned with sigh and then he carries with him, and he carries it with difficulty, and only this way and only then he sees and believes My wound from him, the weakness which I have carried from him, by not giving himself as My house on the earth, and behold, God has no place where to lay his head on the earth, as the man has, and the man tries in vain to deceive Me and keep making Me houses where to stay, oh, it is in vain, for I cannot live as the man who deceives Me can, that is to live without him in the house that he makes Me live in, and behold, I do not have where to lay My head on earth to have rest and salve for My wound from the man's departure from Me, for the temples made by human hands do not comfort Me, but only the man in whom I can live with My love, he remaining in it and giving himself as the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit and becoming distributor of the glory that does not pass and does not perish by its work.

Oh, My dear people, do not hurry to leave for your things, but stay now so that I may spend time with you, if you have responded to My calling. Oh, how shall I do, how shall I really do with you to give you longing, that is to feed and wake up your love, oh, how shall I really do? I remember how hard you were getting upset with Me when I was revealing your hidden sin. When I was revealing it to you, you were getting upset and cold with Me, you were hiding and then you were leaving Me, and behold, this is how you left Me and you did not receive Me from the Father, to come into your way to show you the way, to show you your wrongdoings, to heal you from it and to be clean from it, for he who is clean and humble does not fall down, son. Oh, I was telling you your wrongdoing to spare you from the falling down from it; this is how I loved you, this is how I was showing your way, this is how I wanted to keep you away from the wrongdoing of tomorrow and I did not want you to get lost through it, for the wrongdoings make the man get lost, and they cannot be the man's way to Me or My way to the man if he does not have the gift of humility in him, the light to illuminate his way.

Oh, My people of old, I have taken tender branches from your midst, and I have done this because I have loved you and I put them to intercede for you before Me, and behold, I come into your way and call you to the spring, for the spring of My word is not stopped, but it springs up and it is without end, just as I am. My people, I have raised from your midst sons with love in them for Me and for you and I wanted to continue to exhort you, after I took to heaven My trumpet full of My sighing before you. I did not want to let you die, and I wanted to blow upon you and to keep you from the devil that was hungry to snatch you from My bosom, and I wanted to save you from the world, My people, but My bridge to you was broken into the middle and then you did no longer eat and then you did no longer know, and then you were no longer able to walk with Me on the way, but you were able to do it by yourself and then you left Me. Ten years of sighing had passed over Me and then the tender branches put forth sprigs and I came down on earth with the time of the third love, for I loved you in My beginning with you and I waited for you to be Mine, and then I loved you in the middle of the time, and then I took a bridge from your midst to Me for you, but My bridge was broken; and behold, I loved you in the end and I still love you with a new time, with the time of the third love, My people of old, for I have raised a bride people from you, a people of New Jerusalem, as I was telling you on the way when I was preaching those that were to be according to this work of the river of word. Oh, I have loved you and I have waited for you, My people. I have waited patiently for you, I have waited in tears in the interceding sons with Me for your fate from Me on the earth; I have been waiting for you by this time, and behold, I am still waiting, and My love for you have become an open book before you, and I have called you through it, I have called you with longing and wound, My people of old. Oh, the one who goes wrong and does not repent from his wrongdoings, and that one is not caught by the reward for his wrongdoings, and behold, your children have grown up and took you away from My arm and you have left Me to cry and to look tearfully behind you and see how you fulfill the Scripture that says about My coming when in its time the people eat and drink, marry and are given in marriage, and I have had this pain even from you, My people nourished with the Holy Spirit for such a long time, for I have not suffered from the world as I have suffered from you. Oh, what shall I do for you to receive Me and exhort you to repentance, how shall I do it, My people? Oh, what shall I do with you, to have you again as Mine, and that you may do My will from now on and not your will, and that I may no longer cry from you, well My people? Oh, come so that I may teach you the awakening! You have to know that this is why I have called you so lovingly. You have to know, My people, that I want you to be Mine and I want you to renew your love and I want you to teach you the work of the longing and to heal you from your departure from Me and to heal you from all your sufferings, which seized and seize you because You have forsaken Me. However, have you not really known that a forsaken love takes revenge? Did you not know that? Did you not know that I gave you birth by a new word and that I have loved you after that? Oh, how comes that you forgot that I have loved you? And after I have taught you in a heavenly way so much, how comes that you forgot that I have loved you? How comes that you were not afraid that My love would call you to account if you lost it? Oh, how comes that, My people? Oh, I have had love for you, great love and that is why I have not forsaken you, and behold, I stay and wait for you, and I stay now as well, My people of old, and I come and get into your way to heal you, for your love has to be healed. I have left healers into your midst on My behalf, but ask from Me to give you love and faith, awakening and days of resurrection, My people, for behold those who are no longer within their body on earth, for I have brought them with Me for a table of Holy Spirit, at a table of memorial for them, and they sit well in order to receive from the little hands who share for them, and I give to them, My people. Amen.

Oh, come, you, those who have left your body and clothed yourselves within the house from above, waiting for your redemption! Come, take little cups of water, and quench your thirst; little cups of water and flowers, for you will be welcomed with flowers. Take little sweet bread, take koliva and wine, take and eat and drink of My table with My people for you and comfort Me, you who wait for the age that is to come, and whose key is in the hands of those who are Mine, the sons of My word in this time, and to whom I have given the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on earth. Come, you, who are no longer seen in your body on earth, come and look at My work of the New Jerusalem, and by which I, the Lord, work to redeem the creature from death. And come, you, those who have left for heaven from this work of word, from the people nourished today with the voice of My word full of the Holy Spirit of resurrection; come and look at the glory of My work of New Jerusalem with My new people and testify about it. Amen. And after we celebrate the feast of the Holy Spirit, I and with the people, coming together at the spring, and with you within the glory of the Holy Spirit of angels and saints, will give you voice, and this is how we will complete the work of today of the word of life and we will teach the people, and it will be worthy from God and will receive the power to believe and to come to life and then to give resurrection. Amen.

Oh, My people of old! You have to know that the time of the Scripture which says that «all those in the graves will hear the voice of the Son of God and will come to life, some to eternal life and some others to eternal condemnation, according to the work of their life». (See John: 5/28, 29) You have to know, My people, that the time has come for you to believe and to get up for Me and for you. Oh, get up and be diligent and cleanse yourself from the world and from its spirit and tidy up your little house and get new little garment, for at My table of today you need expensive clothes and you know how I have taught you to be now for My coming, and you know how much I have taught you, for I have taught you much and holily, and I have taught you in all the time of My trumpeting by My trumpet into your midst and by which I gave you birth to be Mine, and you will not be able to stand before Me without any answer, for I have taught you much, My people, and now I ask you an answer for My teaching, and there is no joke about this answer. Oh, get up! Oh, get up! Oh, get up! Listen to the voice of God's Son, listen to Me, My people, and do not forsake Me, but rather humble yourself and see, and get up to see, and hurry up to make your dear little garment, son, and this is how you are supposed to stand before Me, and this is how you are to have Me as your God, for behold, I do not go to the great and mighty ones on earth, but I come to you instead, I come, because you were My people, I come and knock at your door to let you know to come too, for behold, I am coming. Oh, come as well, for behold, I am coming! Come, My people of old, come, come! Oh, come to be a child and to listen, for the Father takes care of His children, oh, My people of old. Amen. And to the end of the day of Whitsuntide I will bring to you My entire food of today with you, for I still have to speak to you and to strengthen and exhort you with the feast of the Holy Spirit, I and My saints, My people. Oh, sit down now to celebrate the feast of Whitsuntide, a table prepared for those in heaven and for you with the heaven, and for all those on the earth, who take and eat of My table of today. Amen.

Oh, get used to be, My people, learn the way, the way on which I come to you to exhort you, and learn it well to be able to walk in it to Me, son. And if you do not understand what I have told you now, then open your little mouth and ask Me to tell you how you are to know and how you are to learn My way to you, and in which you are to be able to come to Me as I walk in it to you and I teach you and call you from you to Me, and from the world to God, My people. Oh, come out of the world, come out, My people, come out, for in world is the end of the world, and I have often advised you this, whenever I was coming to seal you with the seal, protecting you from the world, and I was telling you this: "My people, do no longer worship idols. Come out of the world, come out, My people, come out, come out." Oh, behold, this is how I have been teaching you today, and this is how I have also been asking you today, and this is how I have been calling you out today: come out of the world, come out of Sodom, people nourished with the Holy Spirit! The world waves to you, but do look at the One Who speaks with you from heaven and be worthy of My calling with you and make Me worthy to be your Shepherd too, and to be your Lord and God, to be your Teacher with great longing, My people, people newly born, newly born from the word of God now on the earth. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, My today's country! I comfort you too, I comfort you with the comfort of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I comfort you too in a day of the feast of the Whitsuntide, for I am within a feast on your hearth into the midst of the people of My word, people taken out of you, My country. Moreover, I give you the Holy Spirit, only for you to receive Him. I give you're the power to believe in My word of today on your hearth, and by which I exhort you too, only for you to want to receive exhortation, My country. However, now, stay under the blessing of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and learn, for I teach My people, and My teaching is good, My country. I am the Teacher on your hearth and I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I am the Shepherd with the cross. Oh, learn to stay beautifully under the cross and you will be like Me, My country; and get used to stand up beautifully and to rise to life like the Lord your God, Jesus Christ, and you will be like Me and we both will have the same Teacher, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, oh, My country being Mine from today, My country from the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-05-2007

The feast of the Holy Spirit Descending – the second day

The work of the Holy Spirit is glorified within a great mystery over the man, for man, because of his lack of steadfastness, would hardly give the answer to God's greatness, Who guides the man. I have stayed with My heaven of saints and angels in the sky of the white tent, under which I have called My people to My table, My people of old, and My today's people. I have looked with fatherly fondness. I have made them sit down, look and listen to the voice of the feast, all those who were remembered after they left their bodies, and I, the Lord, have become word of Holy Spirit. The hearts of those who have come together have been comforted from My work with you upon them, working children, but we need, sons, more working and testifying disciples, for the work of testimony has got the power all the time to call the people to resurrection, to faith, humility and then to life.

Behold now, the spirit of confession is coming into My book with My people and is teaching it this gift, for confession is a great, great gift. With it My apostles were calling from the people those who stood up for the love of God and to the faith that saved the man from the death of his sins. Behold, the spirit of confession is glorified by the teaching with power from near Me through the saints who have come together at the spring in a day of the Holy Spirit's feast, and I will give them the voice of those who confess, the voice of My saints. Amen.

Under „the white tent - the tent of meeting"

– Having come with You, in a mystery of Holy Spirit of the feast of the Pentecost, we confess, Lord, those that are not seen by human eyes, but they are seen by the spirit of faith and then by the spirit of the love for the heavenly things, oh, merciful Teacher. Oh, how beautifully You have been teaching the people today! Oh, how beautifully we have also stayed, listening and eating from Your mouth! We, Your saints, were on earth as well, and we are now again from near You, Your confessors upon people. Our life full of You on the earth was confessing on earth and in heaven, Lord, for our love for You was glorified in us and it was confessing its work as well. Oh, You should also have this kind of disciples, Lord, and let their number increase, and let You be comforted, for great, so great and so painful, Your pain and Your wound are from man's lack of love, from his lack of faith and from his such great departure from You, Lord. The meat the man goes on eating by killing the animal or the bird to eat meat, this man's great fall darkens his body, his mind, his heart and his power to stop doing this sin. The man cannot turn back into the Scriptures of the life commandments, and in which is said: «Man, you shall not kill». Oh, Lord, oh, Lord, oh, Lord! How hard it is for You on earth with man, but how merciful You are for man! You could not, and You have been waiting for two thousand years to be able to do, but You could not rejoice over a people, totally clean from the spirit of meat, Lord. The spirit of meat is that which has dominion over man, and the man, even if he tries to love You, he cannot love You, Lord, for You need to be loved with all man's being and work, and not in a very small portion, Lord. Oh, how shall the man be able to work out the commandments of life and which You wrote on a stone by a finger of fire to leave them to the people; how shall the people be able to take them upon them when they do not look and do not want not to forget that on the top of the commandments stays written the commandment to love God with all man's mind, with all his soul and with all his might, to be able to fulfill then all the other commandments written under the greatest commandments, the mother of the commandments, the mother which gives birth to all the other commandments in the man who fulfills Your first commandment over man? Oh, who shall fulfill the commandments of life without first fulfilling the first one among them, Lord? We, Your confessing saints, speak the word of our testimony for You and we speak to Your people of old and then to the one who is born now and from now on, to fulfill in him the life and its commandments, and we say this: Listen Israel to the Lord commandments Who tells you: «You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not give false testimony; you shall not covet those that are not yours, for when the Lord wrote the commandments of life, there came thunders and lightning and heavenly trumpets, and all the mountain was smoking, and Israel saw it, trembled and was very much afraid, for God came down in a mountain of fire and smoke was coming up on the mountain like the smoke in a furnace, and all the mountain was trembling under this glory», (See Ex: 20), as it is written in the Scriptures. Listen, Israel of today and tomorrow, listen to the voice of the commandments and be filled with consuming zeal for the Lord, your God, for since then and up to these days, the Lord has not been able to rejoice over a people fulfilling of commandments, for the man cannot believe and not eat meat.

Oh, Israel, oh, Jerusalem, the man shall not eat meat, for the Lord wrote with His finger of fire the commandments of life and told the man not to eat meat, for when He said «You shall not kill», He also said to the man no to eat meat. Oh, do not look, do not look into the Scriptures that write that the man ate meat and the Lord spoke like man. Oh, the man is not supposed to do this. The man has to look into the commandments and fulfill them. Amen. This is what we confess, the Lord's saints, the saints with whom the Lord comes, when He comes as word on the earth, accompanied by His glory, by His angels and saints. He who kills to eat, that one also commits adultery after that, for meat eating separates the man from God, and the man chooses his body and his taste, as Israel chose its meat, and because of it, it has no longer loved God.

Oh, people of the Lord, do not be small in your wisdom. Oh, the man shall not eat meat. The man has to come back at his beginning and to look at the Lord's voice when the Lord told the man what to eat on the earth[66] and then He told him what to eat from heaven. The man has to read in the Scriptures from the beginning and see the man's fall in them by his disobedience and to learn from this and tremble, and then to take the way of life, the way with obedience to God in it. Amen.

We, Your saints, Lord, have spoken to Your people that has come to the spring and confessed to it Your pain from man and called out to it to listen to You and we told him that the man does not have to eat meat, but to eat only what You told him to eat. Amen. We wanted to confess to comfort You, Lord, for the spirit of confession has power by its work, and behold, now there stay to confess You those who are remembered with their soul on the altar to which they are called to their resurrection, Lord, and behold, this is how it is getting complete the spirit of testimony, which is working now from near You and teaching Your people the wisdom of life, oh, Lord of the saints and of Your confessors. Amen, amen, amen.

---

[66] «God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the surface of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food.» (Gen. 1/29.)

– Out of the great people and as numerous as all the ages of people to this time, Lord, out of those so great in number remembered now on Your altar of fire, in which the sins of the people are given to be burned so that they may be forgiven and then their bodies to come to life after that, we, those who were removed from the body of Your people that has heard Your voice in this time, we also confess that Your true people of today is that which sanctifies itself for You in their body, in their soul and in their spirit, Lord. As long as we were on the earth in the body of Your people, we have not done worked out in us the spirit and the body of life, for we had no wisdom and did not learn the life from the Scriptures. We speak to Your people of yesterday, and we also speak to the people of today, and we speak to it, those who are confessing now from those that are not seen, and in which are seen those that are made by people, as long as they live on the earth, we speak to it and we tell it in plain language not to eat meat; it should no longer eat meat from now on. And we tell all the people on the earth that the man does not have to eat meat, for the man is not supposed to commit sexual immorality, but he rather needs to read in the Scriptures the commandments left by You for man, Lord. We tell Your people of yesterday and today, we tell it that obedience to You is its salvation, and then the salvation of the earth and its people on it, Lord; and we tell it to come near more and more to the spring of Your voice and to eat and come to life, for death is nothing else than disobedience that puts away the resurrection and life from man. We confess our disobedience, which brought us to sufferance on earth and then to tears and remorse in heaven, but we have Your trumpet as our great intercessor in heaven, the vessel from which we drank on the earth by Your word, which we did not listen to it out of our lack of wisdom.

We thank You that You gave from Your people as mercy for us those that work with You for the salvation of the human people, Lord. Oh, keep them under your invincible shield and always, always teach them to listen to You, for the human people from here and the one on the earth, need Your servants, clean and holy by obedience and sacrifice, Lord. And now, we thank them that they love us, and we confess from near You the word of the Scriptures, word with power of resurrection in it, and which says this: «Love is as strong as death and it prevails against it». Amen, amen, amen.

– And now, I, the Lord, being comforted from the spirit of confession, am resting My Spirit and the spirit of those who take Me as word on the earth, and I will make the word come down again, to make complete the work of this long day of feast of the Holy Spirit, a threefold day of feast over My people, and that I may teach My people and help it to fulfill Me in it. Amen. Comforting it, I will teach it and calling it I will call it, and I will draw it near to its salvation from Me. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-05-2007

The Word of God on the second Sunday after the Pentecost, of all the saints
(Excerpt)

It is the feast for all the saints on this day, and I am coming down with them in many groups above My land that I have chosen now for the glory of My word on it, and I am speaking to feed with fresh food of word those who, for a long time, have been My today's people, and those who are now My obedient people, the people of My coming as word on earth. Amen.

I am with My trumpet Virginia. It came into being within the flesh on earth on the Sunday of all saints. Then, I, the Lord, took her into My arms and dedicated her with the name of God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. I presented her to My saints and I told them that I would become from her the trumpet before My coming, the sixth trumpet, that were to sound into My way in order for Me to come. From that time on, My eye has always been tracing her and I appeared in her way and spoke wonderfully with her, and then she grew up, and I made her My way over the earth to man, and then I gathered a people for Me by the voice of her trumpet and I told it My mysteries for the end of the time. I spoke sweetly to this people, and always, always I have spoken sweetly, and I gave it the gift of the holy faith, and then I unfolded the mysteries of the eternity to comprise it in them on earth, but as at the beginning, man loved God little, very little. The people was coming and listening to My word, it was coming and going, and again it was coming and going; it was coming and going, and I was suffering from its little love, and I was suffering in the body of My trumpet, oh, and this is how I suffered in her, until her body became ashes, for My consuming fire was burning within her whenever I was descending in her with the food of word to the people. I was burning in her and she was burning in Me, and We were giving comfort to each other, and I was speaking and teaching the people, calling it to a holy life on earth. The new heaven and the new earth, this is what I wanted, and this is what I want to fulfill over the people with whom I, God, the Word, spoke and speak. Amen.

21-05/03-06-2007.

The Synod of the saint apostles, Peter and Paul

I come down from heaven on earth as word and I come down crying and strengthening the way for My coming down. Amen.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. If this word were from the evil spirit, then world upon world would have come around it and it would have done it's will as it is on earth, but My word is a consuming fire and the man from everywhere does not come close to it, for the man keeps to his will itself and he makes it greater than he is and the man flees from God's will on the earth. My word is a consuming fire, and only the one who brings himself to God stays around it, as a sacrifice of righteous love, without any blemish, holy love like Mine, love from My love in man, and happy is the man meant by God to be taken by My will on the earth, as My apostles were, whom I called at their right time on the earth to be Mine and then to be in My image and after My likeness before Me, by a sacrificing love for many of those who, waiting for Me to come, love the eternal things in them and who do not pass away, just as I, the Lord, do not pass away, for I am Who I am. Amen.

Peace to you and power from Me in you to be able to open to Me, children who stay as My path to come from the Father to the man! Oh, your power has been crushed, and your hope is shaken when it comes to believe that we will be able to pass over so many kinds of hardships. Oh, not in this way. I come with the angels and strengthen your power for the descent of My word, which can work, children sons. For such a long time, I teach the people of My word not to have any other worry more important than Me, more than My descent as word to him, and I have always, always taught him to pass from body into spirit, for he does not need to have time apart to work at this miracle, which is far above than any other accomplishment among people, and that I may come as word on the earth, for My word is a consuming fire, in which any weakness, which stands against Me, is destroyed and the power of God takes its place, children sons. Oh, I was teaching My disciples two thousand years ago very much. I was interpreting for them the work of the kingdom of the heavens with them and I was strengthening them in My work with them and assuring them by great signs that I was the Christ Who had come from the Father on earth to save the man from himself and to fill him with Me and to give him life without death in the place of his life full of sin and pains from the sin, and I was walking with them from place to place under the sight of

My Father Sabaoth and among people to draw them to the Father and to Me and to separate them from the lying of life full of sin and from which the man so hardly comes out, children sons. Oh, the whole kingdom of the earth is garbage and empty glory. It is full of empty glory and it cannot get rid of this sin, and even being dead it cannot get rid of it, for the man has got very much empty glory and he leaves it to his heirs to sing it for him, to keep it alive and that the man may perish from God by it. When I see this pain over the people, I come down from heaven on earth, and I come down crying and I come speaking over the man to show him the abyss in which he stays and to give him a little gate to escape and to take him out of the abyss of this sin and to teach him how to look at Me and how to let himself be seized by My love, by which I come down from heaven on earth after the man to give him living life, holy life, which does not perish from between man and Me, when the man loves the life without sin in it. I have come down from heaven on the earth in the image of the Saint of the saints, and this is how I have come into the way of those whom I have made My disciples from the people, and I had given them power to become God's sons, after I had given them birth of My word from above, work like the fire, which burns from man and from the temporary body in such a way that the man may become living being, life of My life in him afterwards.

Oh, children sons, the word that sets a holy life in man is not from the evil spirit, but it is My word, and wherever it has room, the spirit of live moves, the heaven on earth is worked in man, and I, the Lord, make My bedding in the man's spirit and body, and happy is the one who hears this spring of word and becomes My obedient child, for the life of such a man is in My care, it is worked and guarded in My name on the earth, and it is submitted to Me and saving over many people, and it is eternal, for all the eternal things, which work together in man from Me, are eternal life in man, but the man who knows this spring of life from Me and first he gives himself over to the spirit of fleeting glory, that one is mourned by the angels and saints in heaven, and behold, I cry over the man who does no longer have any salvation, and I cry and mourn over him and I do not know what to do to wake him up, for I have come from the Father to wake the man up and to work him, if he can, if he comes to give himself over to Me to make him and then to be. Amen.

Oh, My disciples, I have chosen you from the people two thousand years ago and I have made you the messengers of the kingdom of the heavens, and very few people understood this royal life on the earth! The man does not give up his life, but, on the contrary, he struggles for it, but in the Scriptures it is written My word, which says: «He, who gains his life, will lose it». (Luke: 9/24) Oh, dear disciples, I have showed you My divinity, by which I was working power and signs upon people, to be able to choose you as sons of steadfast faith, sons of miracles. Then you have received spirit of My Spirit, for I had breathed Holy Spirit with My mouth and I said to you: «Receive Holy Spirit and go in all the world and show the kingdom of the heavens in you by the signs and miracles of your faith, and baptize the nations in the word of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them, and whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained». (See also John: 20/22,23) Behold, I speak now a great mystery: the Holy Spirit appears over the man to whom his sins are forgiven, and in this way it known the one who is forgiven, and he who does not receive in him the sign of the Holy Spirit, that one remains in his sins, in his blood, far away from the life of the kingdom of the heavens in man. Amen.

Oh, dear disciples, open your little mouths for My glory in you and give voice of teaching over the earth, for I have chosen you and I have sent you saying to you: «Therefore go in the whole world and baptize the nations of the earth in the name and the word of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, preaching from margins to margins the kingdom of the heavens that has come on the earth with Me, the Son of God, Savior Who has come from the Father then and now for everyone who believes this miracle: My coming». Amen, amen, amen.

– Lord Word, Your coming is as sure as the crack of the dawn, as it is written about it in the prophets, but the people have made a wall between You and them, the spirit of empty glory, for the man does not escape from it even if he is dead, oh, Lord full of compassion for the last man. We cry with Your Spirit to be heard from margins to margins and we say that the kingdom of the heavens has come with great power over the people and is shaken from its foundation so that they may fall down and Your kingdom may be established in man, for some with glory and for some others with wrath, righteous Lord. You have made us into Your word on the earth, and behold, even in heaven, Lord Word, we are an example of the kingdom of the heavens, which You had put in us when You called us to it with Your power. Oh, pull the people, with Your power, out of their spirit and set them in Your Spirit. Set Your Spirit in them so that the people may see Your coming, for behold, it makes noise and its voice blows to be heard, and its voice urges the people to wake them up and they to be able to see how fleeting their labor is and how truly Your Gospel is, which says this to the people: «He who gains his life will lose it».

We sit together with You as word over the earth and over the Romanian nation and over Your little people of today, for we are Your messengers, Lord, and only he who is sent has a hundredfold, good harvest to be put into the barns. Now we celebrate our day of synod as in heaven among those who are Your little ones, and then we set down to work, Lord. Let Your peace be the foundation for Your work, and let it be built on it, Lord, the kingdom of the heavens in the people, so that You may have rest in those who do not know this time: Your coming, for behold, You come down crying from heaven on earth as word, crying You come down from the Father to the man, and crying You strengthen Yourself to be able to work, Lord of the powers. Amen, amen, amen.

– Peace to you, sent disciples! We have feast for you in heaven and on earth, sons, who have come with Me from heaven to the earth. May your work and the word of your feast be blessed, but let us also strengthen the power within the gates and then let us give ourselves to the people, and those who will believe, will receive in them the sign of the Holy Spirit and their sins will be forgiven, for those who will be forgiven are those who have in them the sign of the power of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the giver of the kingdom of the heavens over those, who working hard towards it and through it, earn it for themselves. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I, the Lord, before the making of the heaven and earth, I had set the heavenly and angelic powers, and I have established them by the word too, by wisdom and by word, and then I made those that are seen. Amen.

I, the Lord, have displayed now My entire word and work of the feast of My disciples from two thousand years ago and I have put the heavenly powers to strengthen the gates to be able to come in through them with the whole word, which is to be established in My book, the book of the Lamb. I work with disciples, for this is My work upon man. At the creation of the heaven and the earth, I had the heavenly and angelic powers as obedient disciples of My word, and then, at the new man's making, I made disciples from among people, and I wrapped them up within the mystery of the heavenly powers, like Me, and this is how I worked on the earth, and this is how I have been working today, and I cry for the pain that the man does not have any readiness for God, for My struggling after the man to make him Mine, and then to make him in My image and after My likeness by My work with disciples. Amen.

Two thousand years ago, after I let Myself be put on the cross by man and after I was resurrected, I revealed completely the truth of My divinity, My being of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, born of Him before all eternity, and then born on earth from man, the Son of Man, I said to My disciples this: «All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Receive Holy Spirit, and therefore go, preaching over the nations the kingdom of the heaven that has come to them, for all those who will believe and will be baptized in the name of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit» (See also Matt: 28/18,19) Oh, but how shall I tell My disciples now to work upon people? The people say that they are baptized, that they are faithful, that they have got God as their Father and the Son as their Savior and that they are good as they are.

Oh, how shall I tell you to work upon the people in this time, beloved disciples? I am coming with you from those in heaven and we are, among those from heaven, a table of disciples with a Teacher, as I was on earth with you too. How shall we work upon the people on the earth? My fifty-year-old word, this word which springs from God's throne and the Lamb's, as I, the Lord, showed to My disciple John, that he could see the time of nowadays and to announce it to be, the man does not wash in this river of word; the man does not look to see his face and to thirst and then to look for My spring. I spoke through the Scriptures: «He who is thirsty, I will freely give him of the spring of the water of life, and then the one who will overcome will be heir».

Oh, beloved disciples, I come with you from the bosoms of the heaven to work on earth and the man to hear now the course of the spring of the living water and to thirst after it. I in you and you in Me, this is how you have to work. May your work and word from heaven on earth be blessed, for the earth is Our footstool for work, as the heaven is Our throne of council. God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; you should work in these names and you should speak from the table of the holy council the word of the renewal of the world, for it is written about you My word that was written then, that «at the new birth of the world, you will also sit on twelve thrones, judging over the earth». (See also Matt: 19/28) Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, sweet and praised Teacher! We knew You in all Your glory after Your resurrection from the dead, when You spoke upon us with much heavenly greatness and told us our sending to the nations with the news of Your kingdom, saying to us: «All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Therefore go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you, and I am with you always, even to the end of the age!» (Matt: 28/18-20) Amen. We were deeply hurt in the day when You clothed us with the Holy Spirit, ten days after the glory of Your ascension, and we sighed with pain for all the moments of doubt, which we had, like some simple people, for Your divinity, before and after Your resurrection. It was very hard to You with us, as doubtful as we were; it was very hard for You, Lord. We doubted at the news of the witnesses of Your resurrection, and even then we doubted before You in Galilee, in the mountain where You planned to appear resurrected before us, and we worshipped You then, but we also doubted, Lord, and You were aggrieved. When You clothed us within the garment of the Holy Spirit in the day of Pentecost, then our spirit, clothed within the birth from above, was in the Holy Spirit, and we saw perfectly, and we knew it likewise, and we repented then for all Your pain from us. Oh, not the one who knows God, not that one is he who loves God. He who loves God is he who is known by God and the love of God in man is not otherwise, Lord. You knew our doubt and rebuked us for our unbelief, and in this way You proved Yourself that You are He Who knows all things, and then we loved You, and by the Holy Spirit, the Omniscient in us, we knew You and loved You, after You showed us that You knew us. Oh, how beautiful it would be for the man to love You after You show him that You know him! However, the man gets upset when You tell him about his sin on the earth. «He who loves God is he who is known by God», as it is written in the Scriptures for Your disciples, but this mystery is too foreign to the man's heart and feeling, Lord, and the man is not supposed to go wrong, if he cannot repent, if he cannot kill his sin, for the sin, which is not killed breeds offspring, Lord. Oh, the sin that is not confessed is that which breeds offspring, and woe to the one who does not confess with repentance from his invisible and upper stature, and to that one is written that he has got another god, and not You, Lord. Oh, the devil has covered Your face with the memory of the man's sins, and the man does not know how to wipe them out from Your face, Lord. We mourn those that stay under the name of Christian and do not have the sign of the forgiveness of their sins on them, and we try to teach every man how he is not supposed to go on the way, which is called the Lord's way on the earth. We sit with You as word over the earth and over the Romanian people and over Your little people of today, for we are Your messengers, and only he who is sent by You has got fruit before You, oh, true God.

Peace to you! Wipe out your tear! Oh, Lord, You come down from heaven on earth crying, and crying You come down from the Father to man, and crying You strengthen Yourself within the gates so that you may be able to work for Your coming. Amen.

– I, the Lord, come down in tears on earth and this is how I strengthen My gates in order to come. My power is crushed within the gates. The hope of those in the gates is shaken that they may be able to go through hardships. As the lack of rain makes the land become dry, the same is with the lack of the working faith in the Christian, it dries up the power of hope in those who carry My work for the man on their shoulders, My coming after the man.

Oh, I give you power, children who keep watch for My coming as word on the earth and over the Romanian nation to which I come, and over the sons nourished with the richness of the grace of My word making of man and making of work of the faith in man. I put the heavenly powers to refresh you and to fulfill this, oh, children crushed within the gates. Only on the earth, your power for My coming is crushed, and this is the time of nowadays: My coming. Amen. Oh, stay open for My coming. The word of My coming is that which can work and the heavenly powers can work for it, and these can work for you too. Be My comforting disciples, as I have made you to be, for your dough is good, and the one who is known by God, is he who loves Him. Amen.

Now, My disciples on heaven, works through the gates. I in them and they in Me, so that the world may believe that I have sent them. Amen, amen, amen.

– We are set for the proclaiming of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, disciples coming from heaven, coming on the earth with their Teacher, Christ. Amen.

Oh, people from the earth, God sits in the midst of gods and has council for the salvation of the nations of the earth. We speak over all the creatures by our sending. He, who believes and is baptized in this word, will be saved, and he who will not believe, will be condemned, as the Lord spoke through the Scriptures. The angels of the great council are with us, and we are His disciples. As the Father had sent Him, in the same way He had sent us as well. Amen.

Oh, people on the earth, do not seek after the gifts! Do not love glory, but do love humility instead, for the man is sinful, and he needs forgiveness and resurrection, not gifts that may glorify him on the earth. The empty glory has always taken the man away from before the Lord. The empty glory is a severe and stinking illness in man, and the angels of God flee from it and they flee from the man in which it makes its nest. There is no more man who does not crave for glory. If the man looked at himself, he would see his sinfulness and repent from it and would stay in humility by the gift of repentance, which would bring him the forgiveness of his sins.

*Oh, man who lack the grace from above! Have you not really read in the Scripture, the work of those who are forgiven by the useful faith for the man? The Lord had sent us, and if He had sent us, then He had also taught us to know those who believe as one believes in Him, and He told us this: «To those who believe I will give these signs: in My name they will cast out demons, they will speak with new languages, they will take up serpents, and they will not hurt them, and they will lay hands on the sick and they will recover». (Mark 16:17, 18) Oh, people from the earth, the heavenly powers cannot work by those who love the glory of these powers for them!

Oh, man who lack humility, you lack repentance as well. Do no longer go wrong for behold, you cannot humble yourself, even for your forgiveness from God, lest that the heavenly powers may work through you for the people lost from God. Bow, therefore, and seek to thirst after God, for you are sinful and you need forgiveness and resurrection. To the one who thirsts, the Lord gives him freely to drink from the spring of the living water, and if he drinks and controls himself, he will be heir of the kingdom preached by us on the earth, for the Lord had sent us, and if He had sent us, He had also told us: «Go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to the whole creation. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned. (Mark: 16/15-16) Amen.

Man, you condemn yourself to the fleeting glory if you do not want to believe and to embrace the work of humility, which is to help you understand the kingdom of the heavens, the Gospel of the Lord's coming with the reward for any good deed. Those who do not wait for the Lord are condemned to taste the passing glory on the earth, of everything that withers away under the man's eyes, which passes once with them. Behold, this is the condemnation of those that do not believe. However, we, the Lord's messengers, bring on earth the spirit of the humility from above, the spirit, which gives the man power to believe and to know God on earth, and then to receive the heaven as his inheritance, as we had also received when we followed the Lord in our life in us, with our love in us. Oh, man, bow, and the Lord will exalt you, coming down to you to give to you and for you to be able to work for your salvation. Amen.

However, you, oh, country of the Lord, country of His coming again to the man, listen with more longing to His voice, which becomes the spring of the water of life, and which flows out from the throne of God, the Word, as it is written about His word of today and which is prophesied to be, and if you wake up, stay awake at His voice. Oh, do not submit to His wrath full of pain, for the man's unbelief, but submit to His glory full of protection for those who bow to Him. Behold, the mourning still stands over you, and your sons are afraid of the voice of His wrath. You have a treasure from heaven into your midst, a spring of salvation for you. Bow down to learn from the Lord's aura. Learn from heaven, for you are under the cross and you cannot work for your freedom if you do not want to be able to work.

Oh, country of the Lord's coming, the Lord is with His disciples from heaven into your midst with a feast. You have to be cleansed, watered and weeded out, but you need to be broken fresh, oh, country of wedding. The Lord is Bridegroom in you, with a bride asked in marriage into your midst. Open your door and look! Open to Him! Open to Him! Learn from Him and become His work, His kingdom. He has got His shovel in His hand and He cleanses His threshing floor. Look and open to Him to understand His coming to you, His coming from the Father, and you will understand, for the heavenly powers will fulfill this. Amen.

Oh, Romanian sons who rule over this nation from the top! Be faithful, do not be unfaithful, and be Romanians! Pay attention to those things that are written in the Scriptures and which say that the city with all kinds of rulers over is torn down and it is like a city without a leader. Oh, this is how the face from above looks like, that from your helm, Romanian country, but we, the Lord's disciples, His messengers on the earth, then and now, tell you for those who do not love justice and peace in you, and we tell you this: «Those who wander away on unjust ways, the Lord will take them into account with those without a law», as it is written. Amen.

Oh, the injustice that wants to rule over your head, country of the Lord's coming, will be to fall away from your head, and the Lord will make you understand what justice is and what it does when it is, and it will brighten your face and the Lord will teach those that are righteous in you the work of justice, justice and its glory. Amen.

Oh, Lord, make the justice in the midst of the Romanian people and its victory come down on the stairway of the heavenly powers, and then become glory, and become glory and Tabor in Your country of coming down, for the Romanian land waits for Your victory from the end of the time in it, and it carries in it the way of Your coming from the Father to man. Lord, strengthen a governance with righteousness at the top of this nation, so that on the land of Your choice justice may dwell, as it is written, for Your promises are just and come down on the earth. Amen.

Come to justice too, country of the coming of God's Son to you, come to believe and by your faith everything will become new. You should be a new heaven and a new earth, as the Lord has meant it for you, oh dear country of His coming. Amen.

You, little and tiny people in the midst of the Romanian people, sheltered by the Lord on a mountain of new Zion, get together at the Lord's bosom and stick to Him, for the time of the Lord's coming is with wrath over those who do not believe in His coming. Oh, do not be afraid, but strengthen your love and voice to God and ask Him the entire glory of His coming on the Romanian land. Learn the work for the disciples and work as the Lord has taught you. Fill your mouths with the work of the Holy Spirit upon you, to be watered and to bear fruit, and learn what it means to stay under guidance, sons. Be careful so that you may not understand this in a wrong way. As long as you stay under guidance it is well with the Lord and with you, and the Lord works miracles with you over the earth and on man. Be wise, for the Lord has got upon you sons full of grace and full of mercy for you, full of the wisdom that brings you His victory and peace. From all the people, which sprang and spring from the Lord's word, the Lord made them big, for they were small, like David among his brothers and young in the house of his father. His brothers were good and big, but the Lord was pleased with the one who was small among them and He anointed him with the oil of His anointment and he came to lead the people. Oh, stay under guidance, people of God, the Word, and learn what it means to live like that, and become fruit in the vine, for the lack of fruit will be removed, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, Lord, teach them to be, for You are the Lord, the Teacher of those who are the disciples of Your coming. Peace to You! Wipe out Your tear, for You come down from heaven in tears, and in tears You strengthen Yourself in the gates so that You may be able to work for Your coming, in tears, Lord, in tears. Amen.

– Oh, dear disciples who have come with Me as word on the earth! I release those who carry Us for a moment from the power of My coming, for My coming is hard for Me too, let alone for them. In tears I strengthen My path on which I come down and in tears I come down after man to comfort My pain, for I am aggrieved and I am still very much aggrieved from the man. Amen, amen, amen.

*

There is still a little while of My word, for My longing is too great to be able to quench now, but I pour it out little by little, to make it known by the man and to find comfort from man somehow, for only the man can quench My flame for seven thousand years, since, crying as a true God, I have remained without house, without rest, without any beding for My pain, after I lost My joy. The man was My joy, but the joy left Me. And because I lost My joy, the father lost it too, even if I, His son, was for Him house, joy, obedience and rest, but I was crushed with pain, after I lost the man, and I have stayed in this way and this is how I have dwelt in the Father, and I still dwell in tears and full of longing, and the Father is in Me.

Oh, people from the earth, I want to knead your faith and your feeling again. I come as word full of longing on the earth. When I ascended to the Father, after My resurrection from the dead, I told to My disciples that I would be with them to the end of the time, but a cloud covered Me from their face, to remain with them mysteriously, and after that the cloud rose in the air, and since then I have remained covered from the face of man, but I have remained to the end with those who believe, loving Me and receiving Me to be with them. I am both with the Father and with the man, and I am without an end everywhere, for this is God, the One Who made the heaven, the heaven and man. Amen.

Oh, people on the earth, do not live without God on the earth, oh, do not live like that, for it is hard on the earth and the man does not know, poor of him, that it is hard without God on earth. As long as I lived on the earth with My disciples, I protected them from every evil, from every hardship, and then I left them and settled within a mystery, and I went to be in the Father, and since then I have lived mysteriously with the man, and then My disciples had taken after Me on earth, they had suffered like Me and were in My image and after My likeness, for when We sat in council, I and My Father, when it was about to make man, We said to make him in Our image and after Our likeness. He who comes to be Mine and then he does not want to be in Our image and after Our likeness, Mine and My Father's, that is the one who does not see Me, for it is written about those who see Me: «They will be like Him, for they will see Him as He is». (1 John: 3/2)

Oh, behold, man, how much I am aggrieved because of your departure from God. I want to knead your faith and feeling after God again, and I want to live in you in My image and after My likeness, full of the pain from man and from the longing after the man. I want you to suffer too from My pain after you, and I want you to carry Me too, man. I am full of mercy after you. I want you to be likewise after Me, too, that we may take after each other, man. The man built by My hand did not want to be like Me, and he gave Me the pain and he chose the joy of his life and he took his place away from Me. And since then, I have wandered away after the man, and I have gone after him in tears. I have cried through the prophets and I have gone after the man with the voice of My word spoken through the prophets, but the man has been stiff-necked. Now I have become a river of affectionate word, sweet word to the man, and I would have not worked that way if it had not been written in the Scriptures to become over the earth, the river and the water of life, as clear as crystal, and which springs from the throne of God and of the Lamb, for two thousand years ago I said: «Until heaven and earth pass away, one jot of My word shall in no way pass away from the law, until all things will be accomplished, as it was spoken». (See Matt: 5/18) Behold, My word has become a river over the earth, and I have given it to the people, as I have always given it. Take and drink from it, man, and seek it with thirst, for it seeks after you, walking from margins to margins, and it has called you to thirst after it. It is God, the Word, and it springs from My mouth, and I am the dwelling of the Father, God's throne, I am God's Lamb. Amen.

And now, oh, My country of coming down on the earth now, in the end of the time, if I, God the word, overflow on your hearth with the river and water of life, as it is written in the Scriptures, then you are preached over the nations that you are My wedding country, that you are the hearth in which, I, the Lord, the Father's Lamb, set within a table of the supper of My word, and in this word I want to baptize all the nations of the earth, and behold, this is what I have been doing, and I work as in the time of Noah, bringing on the earth the river and the water of life and catching under it the nations, to come and to drink and to thirst then after the life of My word that is on it, but behold, everywhere I find parties, and I find eating and drinking on earth, and I find marring and giving in marriage on earth, and the man does not hear the noise of My coming, for I come smoothly, and I speak sweetly in the word.

Oh, country chosen from among nations, if you cannot wake up at My sweet voice, which is affectionate and gentle, as I come to you, behold, the swift blizzard wakes you up, which blows against you without mercy and damages your savings, for the heavenly powers woke up to fulfill My word and to lead you to it, to My calling out to you, for I call you in a painful voice, and I call you out within a noise of swift wind, if you do not want to listen to My sweet voice, which teaches you to be sanctified by My word, and to come with holy works and to be with holy faith before Me.

Oh, country of My coming now, in the end of the time. The heavenly powers will not leave you to rest, and they will still shake you even if you do not make peace with the Lord, your God, for behold, I stay as word of the Holy Spirit on your hearth and I announce that you are Mine among nations, and you have to listen to God and do His will if you are His. Oh, I call you under the glory of My word, and I call you at the table with Me, and I lay a table from heaven for you, for My food is from heaven and it is for your resurrection. I call you in a smooth voice, and if you do not hear, the heavenly powers call out to you, the heavenly ghosts call out to you with power, and their calling fills you with terror. The heavenly powers cry to you to wake you up and to hear My voice, which calls you to come back in the spirit of the holy faith, and to make peace with God, for the time of your reconciliation with Me has come for you, Oh, My country of today. Either you want it or not, believing or not, knowing or not, you are the country from the end of the time of Jesus Christ, and the Lord is coming to you for all the nations of the earth, and they will take of My river of word, which flows smoothly in you from God. Oh, do not live alienated from My mystery in you, for I have made you into a mountain of the blessings spoken by Me over the earth, that they may be over those who enter under their glory.

Oh, wake up, My country of today! I have been calling you out for a long time to hear Me. Wake up! It is the Lord. Get up at His calling! Behold the Bridegroom! Be a wise virgin, My country! I have in you the mouth of My spring and I do not ask anything else from you than to drink, to be resurrected, and to be Mine, for I am God. Oh, come out from the noise of the heavenly powers, which blow against you in order to shake you and so that you may wake up, or which take your blessing away if you do not value it, thanking to God for it. Oh, I do not want you to cry under pain and under the rod of My wrath for your disobedience, but I want you to sing the song of your redemption, My country, and I want to teach those who have established themselves as shepherds upon you but do not shepherd you, and I want to teach them to take away from Me the gift of the holy faith and to then to be able to teach you to believe in My coming to them and to you, for I have not come to do any harm to you, but I have rather come to give you happiness with Me. Then I want to call out to those who have established themselves to rule, and I want to teach them, for they are stiff-necked and hypocrites and they want only their glory, and those who love the man's glory cannot love justice, oh, My country. I want to cry out to them and to exhort them still, and I will exhort them until they listen, willy-nilly, for the heavenly powers are My disciples for the fulfilling of the entire word, which comes out of My mouth to become true, and then I may be able to say: «It was done!» Amen.

And now, I am speaking with you, people nourished by Me on the hearth of the Romanian people. Oh, My work upon man has become hard, very hard. If I tell the man about his sin, he knits his brows and commits sin even worse, because the man is not hospitable or humble. This is what happened to Me even from the beginning with the man; he did not listen to Me, His Creator, and he became upset when I showed him that I know his sin hidden in him, and the man built by My hand out of dust got upset with Me, and if he got upset, he pulled himself out of Me and has no longer received Me to tell about his sin and to correct him; and when he became so, his sin has been handed down to all his generations until today and tomorrow.

Oh, teaching children from Me for the people that stay under My coming as word on the earth! Let them not become upset with you if you tell them about their wrongdoings. Oh, let this not put you down, but rather welcome you, to do them good and protect you from every evil. Oh, My coming down has become heavy not only for Me but much more, for you! And the pain after man gives us power. The man, poor of him, wants to be praised, he wants to be comforted, he wants to be understood, but he does not work the things to be worthy of praise, for the man is unjust with his justice in everything that is. Only after the man passes away with his body, only then he stays humble and face to face with all his sins, if he does not humble before all the people in his time on earth. Still, on the contrary, the man with the weaknesses of his discontent nature, because of his pride in him, he makes without seeking too much, he makes disciples of his weaknesses, and the weak ones take after those who are weak, for the man is weak; he is just as weak as the one he takes after to fall in weaknesses, and the man multiplies his weaknesses, and I suffer because of My great pain from man. I have to let Myself overcome by the man so the man may welcome Me one way or another. I cannot be more righteous than the man, for the man does not want to be right. I look at the man, who does not receive Me with you, and he who does not receive you banishes Me, and he cast Me out and not you. The man takes after the man who takes after him in his turn, who wants like him, who says like him, and the man does not receive correction on him from another man for the correction of his life. And the man stands his ground, poor of him, but he still remains weak, and only the weak one fights so that he may work. The man does not receive Me but only with My comfort upon him, and with help for him, sons, and he does not receive Me otherwise, and if I come with correction to him, then he casts Me out, and he casts Me out with his grief that he has got at least, if not even with his angry against Me, that I am not good with him in the way he is able to receive Me and not otherwise. Oh, only before My anger the man is not able to establish himself greater than God.

Oh, how much pain on Me! The man does not endure to be annoyed or humiliated by anyone, but he does not love Me in the same way, not as he loves himself, for he has always made Me upset, he has always forgotten Me, he has always left Me, he has always brought Me to My knees, he has always brought Me before the devil, face to face with his departure from Me, and I endure and I endure again contempt from man and tears for his departure from Me, and behold, the man has more rights than Me, and he stays carelessly for his sin in him, and the one who does so with God, has the same soul for the man who would show his sin and his separation from God. It was not in vain that I said that even someone from the dead would come, the man still would not be able to do more, and behold, he, who cannot do this is unfaithful.

Oh, sons of My word, which feeds you! Seek to live the mystery of My word that is upon you, for I cry through the word. Be merciful with Me! Be compassionate with Me, sons, to comfort My pain from the man. Learn from My teaching and fulfill, to My joy and yours, My entire word, for its fulfillment protects you from every evil, which has come upon the earth for the cleansing of all the lawlessness in it, so that I may have then a clean earth and to tread on it with a heavenly step and to rest from My pains, sons. The fallow land of the Romanian nation has come under the whip of the heavenly powers, for the heavenly powers are My obedient disciples, but you should be the mountain of My rest, sons, to be able to protect you and to call out the people from it to Me, to their rock of salvation, if they are faithful as the Scriptures of My coming with the new heaven and with the new earth require today. Amen.

Oh, sons of My word! Those who exhort you to Me, those who carry Me to you, love them with propriety, so that your love may be strong, and love them with longing, and in such a way that may you long after them as you long after Me, for I am with you and for you through them. Amen. Love is that which has propriety, and propriety has love, sons, and let these two be clean, for otherwise these two are not holy in you. Be in My image and after My likeness, carrying in you the pain and My love for you and for the man, sons.

And behold, My disciples, they speak to you from near Me that you will work in My gardens with you at the fountain of the apostles. They preach you the news from near Me that will stand as watchmen and protecting angels for the work of the new well, which will come into being now in My gardens with you.

The fountain of the holy apostles, and the fountain of My disciples. They and I will give you blessing by this word, for the beginning and for the end of this work, spoken from heaven to be fulfilled. Work with peace, work with heavenly powers. And I will endow you with gentle heavenly powers now for this holy work. Work like the fountain of holy angels, as I have taught you when I gave it to you to fulfill it on My land with you. Work this out too, work it with holy propriety, with holy love, for the holy love has holy propriety, and the holy propriety has got love.

Work the fountain of My apostles. Do not spoil the time of the prayer and of the holy watch, for the success and the spring for everything come this way too, sons. Be like the angels from heaven on the earth, for I need angelic life in man, in order to be able to work with you My works on the earth. Be clean in your word and in the work of peace and of the holy brotherhood, sons. Be clean inside and outside of you, be clean, so that My angels may comfort you and to comfort you with joy, but be according to their pleasure, be clean like angels. Amen. Give yourselves to each other from Me, and then let each other take from Me. Amen.

Now, clothe yourselves with heavenly powers, sons, and work full of the spirit of the holy peace, the fountain of My apostles. I put peace and blessing upon you and over the work of the new fountain. Amen.

We are going to mark the place of the fountain. My disciples stand near you, like Me, sons. Be the sons of the love of God on the earth, as they are in heaven the sons of My love. Amen.

Peace to you, sons! I have always wanted to speak with you everything that has come from Me. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

30-06/13-07-2007.

The Word of God, sixteen years from the laying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

My book of today is My love from the end of the time for man. The book, which I, the Lord, have written, in these days by those on whom I have become word, heard on the earth, this book is the book of the Lamb. I have opened it to set it on the earth and to be the fulfillment of My second coming from the Father to man. Amen.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lamb of the Father Sabaoth. I pour out the word of My mouth on the earth, and it becomes book to read from. I call the man to My coming, and I send a letter to him to call him. I do not need temples and buildings made by people to call the people in them and to worship Me as they would worship a King and to take My word from Me. Oh, I need room in man, in his ear and heart, not in a house made by man. I need affection and love from man. I do not need a big building to meet the man in it and to speak to him, but I need a broken and humble heart in man. Only in this way I have room within man and not otherwise. Amen.

Peace to you, children from the gates! Open to the Lord! Behold, this is how I come in to be with the man and to speak to him. With the creation of everything that is, after I had built the heavenly and angelic powers in the beginning, then I built a house for Me on earth, I built the man out of dust and word, and then I made him a living being, with My power, for the heavenly powers were My disciples, and then I have set Myself down into the man's heart and I have loved him and taken rest in him, for I made the man to be a place of My coming to the man on earth. Behold, this is how I work My coming on earth. I work smoothly, holily and peacefully with the man who gives Me help to come, and again, then, I work with power and with sudden coming over the man who does not want to know from the creatures the Lord, the Creator, the All-knowing and All-seeing. Amen.

Peace to you, people of My coming from the Father to the man, now, in the end of the time. I have always, always exhorted you to raise above all the other worries for you the worry for My coming to you as word, and from you word on the earth. I have told you, My people, to carry this deed in your heart and love, for this deed is otherwise than any other work of yours. It has to be your little pillow from where you lift up your head, when you get up from the sleep of the rest of your body in the morning, and again it has to be the little pillow where you lay your head when you go to bed in the evening for the rest of your body, tired of the daily labor. You should not wake up or go to bed without worries, this is what I have taught you, people of the obedience to My word, exhorting over man in these days. The first and last care of your daily worries shall not be the care for you; no, son, not this way, for if I am not, how are you supposed to be? Will you be any longer if I am not? Nevertheless, you should not only believe or tell Me that I am, for I am He Who works, not the One Who stay and look and that is all, My people.

Oh, My people Jerusalem of today, sixteen years ago, I have made the little garden of My word on earth. First I built it out of sons, faithful to Me and to My coming from the Father to man, and only after that I brought into being, by their little hands, the visible deed of My little garden for My coming in the end of the time, as it was My place of work when I built the man in the beginning. I bring My work to remembrance, the day when I, the Lord, and with the sons built by Me in this little garden, set the first foundation stone of My new beginning on earth with the man. Oh, behold what it means the man do work for God on earth! Before everything else, it has to be the word of God upon man, and then his accomplished work. And the man does his works on earth in the same way. First he says and then he does, but it is one thing for God to speak and another thing for man to speak and then to do. The man's work is not one and the same with God's work. The man works for himself, and the Lord works for man. The man works like another man, and the Lord works like God. Amen.

Sixteen years ago I have built on the Romanian land the little garden of My word from the end of the time, and then I showed it to the people, that it was and that I become in it a table and word of Holy Spirit over the man. A table of word from God over the earth, this is what I set on this little patch of land, chosen from the beginning to be My resting place at My coming from today on earth with man, but if I had no house in man in this little garden, I couldn't show the face of My word, the deed of My spoken word over this little garden of sons, for I built in it the ark of the covenant which is in it before the eyes of the people, and then I wrote over this little garden, I wrote a holy place, a place for the Lord, so that those, who pass by and those who see, to know when they see, to know that «there the Lord is», as it is written in the Scriptures for the name of this little garden. Behold, I come in it from the Father as word of My suffering from man, and I come in it crying in the word, I come in it calling out after the man, asking him as My house and My life in him; in it I pour out My sighing full of mourning, in it I can stay cleaned from the spirit of the world, for I have enclosed it with a boundary to be the place of God's mourning after the man, the place of My voice, crying after man, My cry, which becomes a book before the man so that the man may learn. Oh, I did not bring into being this little garden then when I brought it into view and made it known that it was and that it had become visible on earth. Oh, and how much opposition its appearance aroused on earth! Behold what the Lord's work wants to speak in comparison with the man's work! When I came as a baby on earth, old Simeon prophesied, carrying Me into his arms and saying: «Behold, this Child is set for the falling and the rising of many, and for a sign which is spoken against». (Luke: 2/34) Behold, what the work of the Lord is in comparison to the man's work, My people, and I celebrate with you today the sixteenth year since I, the Lord, set this new foundation of New Jerusalem on earth, a building coming out at My word, for I said and it was done, and this sign is set as a sign spoken against. Amen.

Oh, I look and I look again at that day when I, the Lord, had in this little garden with the sons of My word, My bishop from the end of the time, the one faithful of My coming from the Father, as word of creation, word of the renewal of the world, as the Scriptures predicted that I would work. I look with divine affection and I take into My hand that day of love and I comfort it with My saints and with My angels, and I comfort the head and the little heart of My bishop and I make him feel My comfort where he is. He is in the midst of the pain from man's disbelief, who by calling to each other and one next to the other, he calls himself My house to the people, and the house of the people to Me, but he is a liar, because here it is how My coming to the man is, for I am God and not man, and I am not like man, but I am God. Amen.

I comfort the head and the little heart of My bishop, by whom I, the Lord, sixteen years ago, I let it be known on earth about My little garden of word and My work in it over man, and in this day of holy remembrance, I, the Lord, start from this little garden as word, to call out with him to those who have established themselves as shepherds, but they do not shepherd, to call out to them to teach them to take from Me the gift of the holy faith, to be able to teach you how to believe in My coming to them and to you, My country of coming down, My today's nation, Romanian nation, for I have not come to you to do you any harm, but I have rather come to give you happiness and to let you on your hearth. And in this day of sweet memorial I would also like to call out to those who have established themselves over you to rule, Romanian people, and I want to teach them from Me, for they are stiff-necked and hypocrites with you, My today's country, and they want only their glory, and those who love this way, cannot love justice for you, Oh, My country. I will exhort them until they listen, willing or not, for the heavenly powers are My disciples, to accomplish the entire word, which comes out of My mouth to come into being, and I to declare then and to say: «It is done». Amen.

May this feast be blessed into your midst, people of New Jerusalem on earth! Get used, sons, with every passing day, and more and more, to this work and to the power of My blessing over you and take care of its fruit. I have found them weak within the gates, those who receive Me in the little garden as word. Their body and soul is worn out by the heaviness that is upon them, which I am, and you, My people of today. Two thousand years ago I said that My yoke was easy. I said this because for My yoke, the man has the greatest love on the earth, for without having big love, the man cannot take My yoke on him. I said so, because the love from heaven is the sweetest burden to carry for man, the easiest among burdens, for it means the man's comfort here and then forever. I said that My yoke was easy to carry for man, but when the unfaithful man presses on My yoke upon man, with his disbelief and his departure from God, and when I call out the man, and he does not hear Me, oh, then My yoke is very hard over the one who carries it so that I may be able to come to man and to speak to him and to invite him to life and to teach him what life is. Oh, I do not need temples and buildings made by people in order to come and to call out to the man to come to Me, but I rather need room in man, not a house made by man. I need affection and love from man, not a tall building to meet the man in it and to speak to him. The man's humility and humbleness, this is My way to the man, and this is how I have room with the man, this is how I can have a house on earth, this way and not otherwise, My people. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates! To the end of the day we meet again into the book, sons, for I have to set in it a word of calling. I take your weaknesses into My hand, I comfort you and I strengthen you against them, and I bring you comfort from heaven, for it is cold on earth, sons. Oh, it is so cold without love on earth. I long for comfort, but where is the one who might understand My longing? I, the Lord, have always been small with the man, so that the man may not do any harm to My coming to him, but I do not find any comfort for Me, for it is cold on earth. I told My disciples, two thousand years ago, to pray to the Father, Who is in heaven, and to ask from Him His kingdom and His will on earth, on earth as in heaven! I told them to ask in this way, because it is cold on earth. Only where the Father's will is on earth as in heaven, only there My comfort is, only there I find comfort, only there, dear sons, only there. And soon, soon, My comfort on earth will come from man, for the heavenly powers will fulfill this and will bring the will of the Father on earth as in heaven, and the will of the man will submit then, willing or not, to the will of the heavenly Father, and the man will turn his will in God and the man will become the Lord's house, and I will live in it and comfort Myself, and then I will find My rest, then, sons, only then. Amen, amen, amen.

19/22-07-2007.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

I come on the clouds of glory, in the clouds of word in My little garden on the earth. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. The armies of saints accompany Me and testify about Me as the Lord of glory, and the saints are My glory. I come with glory to judge the living and the dead, as it is written, for I spoke by the prophetic word that «the saints will judge the world». Amen.

I come again to you as word, My people, and I teach you again, for you always have to learn if you are Mine. Oh, keep and watch your place in Me and My place in you, but learn, learn to know these, always learn, for he who does not always learn, that one perishes for lack of wisdom. I have always wanted to call you out and to teach you always, for he, who does not learn, hardly stands on his feet, hardly, hardly, and everything that he takes, he takes from himself, and that one does no longer learn if he does so, and that one falls down, he falls, and when he falls, he draws the one who is weak after him, who hardly stands on his feet, for he who does not receive wisdom from Me and not from himself, that one does no longer has his dwelling in Me, and then one like this becomes a falling reason for many.

Oh, My people, take from Me your clarity of mind, take and read My word and learn it for you too, for when you read, you think that it is about someone else and not about you, son. Oh, take and read, and let it be known that you read and that you understand with faith My word for your salvation. When you read the word of My book, do not take wisdom from it against your brother, but take from it for your stature, for your salvation by obedience to My saving word, and let yourself be weak so that you may take, for you will not receive wisdom of My word from My book otherwise. Be wise within Me and not within you, for as long as God is weak for man, and the man is also weak, than the Lord makes him His vessel and it is not possible with God otherwise, My people. The man, who thinks that he is capable for himself, always, always overturns God; not considering God, for the man is capable to do it himself. Oh, this happened with Adam, and behold, this it happens always to Me with every man who can do it by himself, but I become word in order to teach the man, and if he does not take, I cannot guide him to his eternity from Me, I cannot, because he is body and he does not like to live in the spirit, even if his tongue says that he likes it. Aaron with Miriam did the same, and I could not lead them by Moses, for they were always, always striking in My power from Moses, and they could not pass from body into spirit, if they wanted to do it by themselves. I made Moses into a god for Israel, but even then I could not have a bunch of gods so that I might be the Lord in their council, and so that I might be able to work for Israel's life; and because I could not do it, Israel got lost in himself and could do by its will itself, for My will had no room in its will. Woe to Me in the midst of those with a man's mind! However, I become watching word for man and I try to turn the man back to Me and that I may come with him and the man may believe in Me that I come to him, and to receive Me, when I come. Amen.

I was always teaching My people of today, I was trying to make it wise, but it was seeing too much of its business, and it was hardening more and more if it did this way, and then it was standing against Me to cover his guilt, and behold, My people of today has not been receiving teaching for its eternity with Me on earth and then in heaven. Oh, My word does not have to be misinterpreted and then put against Me by the one who is harsher with his words and malicious in his spirit, by the one with self-mind, the mind before which, I, the Lord, kneel down weakly and do not work for My power and heavenly council. Oh, it is great mystery and great miracle for the man to understand the spirit and the power of prayer. This power cannot work in the one with a human mind. I was always teaching My people to love the prayer, but it could not be only Mine within his mind, within his occupations, and each one of them was choosing something to do, and in this way he was getting farther and farther from Me after he was testing Me when he was finding Me from man to man in this word, by which I have been lying as a spread table for fifty years in the Romanian nation.

Oh, Jerusalem, I long to be able to work into your midst with a strong spirit for the man's returning to God, and God to the man. It hurts Me when I see doubt in those who have found out about My spring of word. Many of My people of old and of nowadays, have come to be discontent, for it is hard for the man to take humility as his staff. Discontentment is evil spirit, and this brings forth slander among brothers, slander, the food of the spirit of the one who is discontent.

Oh, it is not one and the same thing to speak about the evil, which is and which works to the man's perdition; this is not one and the same thing with slander. I spoke to My people of old that he worked too much slander, too much, a work which took him out from God, and he did not understand the mystery of Christian, My people of old did not understand this, the people of old that I nourished with mercy as I nourish My people of today.

I come to make this mystery of Christian clear in My people and to strengthen it, and I work with the saints, for any other building work is done with witnesses, and not otherwise. I teach you, My people, to keep and to watch for your place in Me and My place in you, and this power is learned from My wisdom, set by Me in those by whom I pass through you to guide you and that you may not perish without a guide, for those without a guide upon them perish, and they perished and perish, son. I said through the prophets that I would send Elijah the prophet to turn the people back to Me, and Me to the people, in order to stop the curse that was upon them, which came upon those who did not stay under God's shield on earth with their life lived in My wills on earth as in heaven, for I could not cover the man otherwise from the curse that came on the earth. The man does not know to flee from the curse, for the one who knows is the one who flees under the shield of obedience from God by a guide, My people. I come and I teach you again, and I want to put on the table the teaching for everyone who knows to take and to remain in it and to pray to Me for it, for there is not much spirit of prayer, and it is very little understood by the one who kneels down to pray to God for life.

I am with the armies of saints and the saints are My witnesses, and the witnesses testify. Only those who testify, only those are witnesses and only they know God on earth, God and man, My people, for My work upon man is not otherwise. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, Elijah, Your prophet, am Your witness, Lord, and great is the love, the faith and the work of those who confess You by their zeal for You, a zeal which gets up for work to turn the people to the knowledge of the truth, to You, Lord forsaken by man. We go in a chariot of glory over the head of Your people, to teach it its dwelling in You and Your dwelling in it, Lord, and that it may no longer be any falling down of sons from Your bosom, protecting of sons, Lord Father. Amen.

Oh, people of the glory of the Lord's coming now with the saints on earth! You should know that the sons are those who have a father, and they listen to him. We, His saints, have the Lord as our Father, and you should also be holy within your obedience to Him, for the Lord is not your Father otherwise and He does not live inside of you. When the Lord dwells in man, He lives as a Master, and He does not live otherwise in man, and He cannot work for man and for the man's protection, and this wisdom is kept and guarded only in the man who stays under guidance, as the disciples that I had for the Lord on the earth and to whom I gave of my spirit. The disciples need to have in him the spirit of his teacher, because he is not a disciple otherwise; he is not witness otherwise and he cannot testify and cannot work wonderfully.

Oh, I comfort you, children who testify today like some disciples, for you loved and knew to be disciples, and behold, the Lord has given you a great work, to share from it to all those who love to be one spirit with you in the spirit of the holy faith and of its works afterwards, in the spirit for disciples, children sons. Behold, the Lord relies on you, for you knew to be small under His greatness after the man. You have a loving spirit of people, and that is why you are not loved by those who love themselves in their walking with God, for the spirit in you, the loving people spirit, does not let the man wander away from God, and it rather tries to draw the man out of the curse, and when the man is not comforted and praised as he is, then the man bites you, sons, and you suffer from it, and you always suffer. Oh, do not wait for the love from those whom you testify about their evil works, you are aggrieved, and you are always aggrieved. Oh, do not wait for love from those whose evil works you testify about, for they love themselves and not you, they have mercy only on themselves, children sons. The true disciple of Jesus Christ does not look at the man's face, but he rather looks at his life, in order to correct it for him, and then to cleanse it from evil, and you have a loving people spirit, and few know how uplifting and useful for the soul, the work of this good spirit is. As the Lord, I urge those who were, those who are and those who will be the people of this word of the Lord's coming after man, I urge them all to bite their tongue instead than to slander and blame you for their works done in disobedience to God, and I urge them not to stop within the group of those who are rebellious, and then no longer let themselves be drawn and no longer draw those who are rebellious, for the rebellious people are those who are discontent, and those who are discontent are those who think they are worthy for their mind, for their works, but they are the haughty ones, and those who are haughty fall down, for this is the reward of the haughtiness in man. However, you should be in the Spirit of the Lord, in the spirit of the justice of everything, for the man has to be small, and the Lord has to be great, children sons. Strengthen yourselves for watch and gather good strength for the protection of the faithful people, for the man needs a helm upon him, even if it is hard for him to do this. Let us teach the man what humility is, humble sons. Only the one with a humble spirit, only that one has a guided life under the Lord's shield, and those who cannot do this, will understand the weapons of the holy correction upon them, and they will seek after repentance and after love with propriety, as only the saints have these. Amen.

Oh, Lord, the work of the disciples is easy to bear by those who love to be disciples, but their light for those who are guided by them is very hard, Lord. Israel's carelessness pressed hard upon me, but the people of Israel have to understand from You the work of justice in everything, Lord, because the time has come to its end. Let the stiff-necked man not blame You for his disobedience, the man who falls down in his self, who falls down from You, Lord.

Oh, people who have come to learning! My spirit, which turns the man back to God speaks to you in this way, to your wisdom: the Christians who fall down do not fall because of some others or because of God or because of God's workers; they fall after they have got used to God and because each one of them likes to do something on earth, but not what it has to be done on earth. They fall in themselves, and then they fall from God; they fall from love and then from God. Among those who came and come in this people of the Lord's coming to man, each one of them wants to have something to do with his hand and with the gifts out of their nature, and people like these cannot have the Lord strong for Him, for His will, for the Lord's works are strong and eternal and the man has got used too much to the temporariness and its works, which always, always pull the man out of God, and here it is why the Lord could not thrive much within His plan and with many people, people united by obedience and love.

Oh, people, sanctified by the great word of the Lord! Learn what the Lord has said for those who will follow Him: «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me». (Matt: 16/24) Amen. This means that the man should listen and love to have a cross, to stay under the Lord's burden, for otherwise the man's mind is anchorless; this means that the man is born of God and no longer have parents, brothers, relatives or friends in the world, for those who cannot do the same, they cannot be the Lord's disciples, as the Lord said, and the Lord taught the disciples to know those who are His, and He told them: «You will know those who are Mine by their fruits». (Matt: 7/16) Behold, this is your work, people who have come to the Lord's coming. Oh, you cannot serve two masters at the same time, if you have come on the way of the Lord's coming. You think that you can, you say that you can, you do so that you may manage, but this means that you cannot do it, for you leave one of them, and you do not believe that you do so, and truly, truly is the word of the Lord, which clearly speaks about the way of those who come to be with the Lord. Amen.

Oh, Lord, I have lived only in You and I have worked only for You, and my zeal for You was great and harsh, and it was because of this that the unfaithful man or that with little faith did not overcome me, but only You prevailed against me, and I had zeal only for You. Oh, give to Your people, give to them of my spirit, give them, Lord. And this is how Your people of today should be Your disciple, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, you abyss of zeal after God, oh great prophet! You had only Me as mother and father, brother, sister and friend, and that is why you had disciples for Me, and all were in your spirit, and those who have had your spirit did not fall from it. When one of the Christians longs after his self, then he only pretends that he dwells with Me, if he does, and one like that looks around with his eyes for a Christian that may like to be with himself in him and around him, and one like that rejoices when another Christians staggers, so that he may also stagger; one like that rejoices when he has someone to take after, when he longs for himself and then he longs to stagger, for staggering is self-love for those who seek the Lord on their way in their manner and not in the holy manner of the seeking. This staggering does not come from someone's guilt, but it is naturally born in man, and the man did not get rid of it when he has tried to lose his life that he may gain it in Me. However, I had spoken ahead of time that the sifting sieve is in My hand, so that I may remain in it with the whole wheat berry, and behold, the unfulfilled berry, the empty berry, the dry berry, tries to crush in the middle the wheat berry full of Me with his haughtiness, but I watch and seek with mercy after the stiff-necked one and I call him out, only if he may hear Me when I call him out.

Oh, there is no one, no one guilty for a Christian who staggers, but only his longing of sin makes him give in to his wills, in his soup, which seems to be sweeter than the steadfast love among brothers and for brothers. I said: woe to those who, due to their staggering and because of their lack of stature and steadfastness, strike in the sides against those who preserve themselves under My leading and guided work, through hardships and temptations! Those whom I love I exhort them to stay under a guide, but woe to those who come out without guidance and they still call themselves as Mine as they are! It is written into the Scriptures: «The Lord knows those who are His!» and I, the Lord, exhort My entire people to strengthen for him his living under guidance, so that I may know him. Amen.

Oh, My people of old, and you, My people of today and tomorrow, stand up if you have sins, and wash them away from you and from Me, son, for I am good and gentle for you and I wait for you. I have brought into view into your midst, many memorial lists with sins, many hidings from God and from those who are the light of man to Me from God, and these stay before Me not cleansed, sons. The hiding of the works and that of the hidden words has become great darkness on My way to you and on your way to Me. Oh, cleanse your way, disobedient son, the way of your prayer to Me. Do not forget that each one will stay in his own order, as it is written. Do not forget that if there is no one to give good testimony for you before Me, you will cry without being comforted in the day of the testimonies, sons. Oh, therefore, get up, and cleanse your being from those who are your covered things among brothers, and by which brothers fall down, for My church is that which stays in the light and in the unity by the light. The righteous one is the one who is forgiven. He, who is in the hiding, stays without growth and within ignorance. I have taught you, My people, not to run away, from those who have to bring Me good testimony about you. Oh, do not flee from them, but run to them instead, this is what I have taught you. I have taught you to go and to ask them about Me and about you. I have taught you everything for your life. Fulfill them, sons, and knock at the door to be welcomed and cleansed by those who separate you from God. No matter how guilty you may be towards your brother, you can cleanse yourself if you want. Come back! The reward comes on the earth for any kind of work. Reconcile yourself to God in your open heart, and not otherwise, staggering son, discontent son. Oh, come to Me with the one against whose conscience you have gone wrong. Come to Me with the one who has gone wrong against you, and do not come alone. Come, you those who go wrong and I will heal you. Let us work as on earth at least, sons, at least as it is worked on earth the work of the occurrence of justice and then of the reconciliation among brothers. Work out deliverance for the conscience of those who can fall because of you from My bosom. I want to boast you for this work done among you as some of My beloved brothers, and then like some sons. I want to be your brother in order to help you, and to exhort you as a father. Get healed from everything that is not beautiful within you, from everything you have wounded in the power and conscience of those on the same way with you. This forerunning work brings its glory after it. Oh, love needs a clean road, sons. Let us be alive, sons. I am the God of the living, of those who see and of those who see like Me and not like man. Learn from My word that is upon you about your dwelling in God and about God's dwelling in you, sons.

Oh, do not read My word that is upon you in vain! Learn it as God and not as man, sons taught by God and not by man. Oh, I want to shepherd you with tears, to listen to Me, to welcome Me, sons. Soon, soon, I gather you together to shepherd you and to wash you away from those who separate you from Me, sons. Soon, soon, I will wait for you at the spring, and I will wait for you for a long time to settle under My teaching and under the teaching of those who will bring good testimony about you before Me. Oh, learn from Paul, My apostle, who confessed the sin of his feud over My church and then, I, having called him to repentance, he was filled with My Spirit and became My disciple, and then he shook of My grace upon My church, which he was growing and teaching wisdom as a humble shepherd, like Me, for I was filling him with grace, because of his humility and for his faith and for his great work of My kingdom over man and in man.

Learn, My people, your dwelling in Me and My dwelling in you, and I will teach you if you give yourself to learning, if you come to learning, if you love My teaching. Amen, amen, amen.

However, you, sons anointed with the oil of My holiness, in order to raise your voice before Me for the forgiveness of the world's sins, bring up memory and prayers to Me for the way of the one who has left now the earth and who bore on earth the name of the patriarch of the church of the Romanian people. His heart and his mouth have established as My bishop, the one whom I anointed for My church (Ioan Irineu of Bistriţa, r.n.), now, in the end of the time, and through whom I overcame with My church now, when there is no longer on earth any work of church according to My order. This one, who has left now, has My written work with Me through him, for I spoke to him, and he woke up and listened to Me and fulfilled and spoke upon My anointed one to be the bishop of My church in the end of the time. I, the Lord, have established you to pave his way to Me now, and I will look and work for him, because I have his written work for Me, that for My living church. Put for him the book of the psalms and prayers of forgiveness, and I will fight for his soul, for he fulfilled My word when I asked him to do this.

Let the opposing spirit hear this word so that it may allow Me to judge over the souls that wrote with Me the fulfilled work of My word spoken upon them. Amen.

May your prayer to Me for him be blessed, for he is being brought now to you by an angel and he is looking with pain and waiting, sons, he is waiting for his salvation, sons, he is waiting. Amen.

20-07/02-08-2007.

The feast of the saint martyr and healer Panteleimon

I announce Myself at the gates so that I may come into the book. God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, this is the name, by which I come into the book and I become word. Those who meet together, greet each other, when they meet and when they leave. And this is how I also work when I meet the people of My word, on which I feed it as I feed the faithful one, for I, the Lord, love very much the one who believes in My coming as word on earth, and I love much more the one who becomes My fulfilled word before Me. Amen.

In heaven and on earth, I go accompanied only by angels and saints, and not otherwise, and I told this to the man, and I told him from the beginning that it is not good for the man to be alone, and then I took out of his ribs and made him a suitable helper, to testify for each other before Me, when I raise a question over the man, over man's life, over the man's obedience or his lack of obedience to Me.

Oh, people of My word, it is not good for the man to be alone, and I gather you bunches to listen to God and from God and that I may ask about your life, son, and that I may work you according to My order for man. I am coming today and exhorting you for your health, health of spirit and body, and I have healing saints in My coming to you. Behold, what an advice I give you: do not seek to go with a weak angel, do not look for the one who look like you, the sick one like you, but rather seek after the one who takes after Me and go together with him for your growth, for your stature, and go with the one who is awake upon your stature, and you will be blessed when you go together with the one who has got a life giving spirit in him, for it is not enough to have on you a man with a living spirit and that is all. Reproof is a spirit of life giving, and the more spiritual a man is, the bigger he sees the small wrongdoings, and then he seeks after the one who heals his wrongdoing, and this is the wisdom, which does not let the man die, which does not let him fall down, for the man who exalts himself is fallen and much fallen, My people. Oh, I teach you the healing, for the healing spirit is the ray, which reveals your hidden wound, which eats your life inside of you. I teach you about your healing, son, for I laid down My life for man, and the man tries to gain it for himself, whenever his life is touched; he tries to gain his justice before the one who asks about his life in order to heal it, but it is not good for the man to be alone, oh, this is not good, and it is not good for the man to hide with his life invisible by man. Oh, it was not good for Cain that he hid with the deed of his life, but it was wrong for him instead. I have come to you with holy healers to teach you the art of life keeping and its health, and I come with holy work upon you, My people, for I come to you to prepare My kingdom in you, and what is this prepared with? It is prepared with My will in it, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– My faith in You, God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, made me my own healer, and then it made me a healer over the people too, for the people are sick, Lord. The man goes to the doctor to get a longer life, Lord, to gain the life of his body, Lord, and when the doctor can no longer help him because of so many little stones hidden deeply in his kidneys, then the man looks after You and he does not know how, for the man does not have any teacher upon him, Lord. You always teach your people, and You have always placed upon him a spirit of life giving, Lord, and all those who want to receive teaching, they receive of your teaching over Your people, for this is how You have been pleased with, for behold, from margins to margins, the voice of Your word has been sharing for the life of people, for You are the light and the life of the people, if you are in the world, Lord.

Oh, people of the Word, Which is the Son of the Father Sabaoth! The Lord made me a healing doctor for the man who is faithful to Him. The word of life is in your midst, the healing Lord. Take him and make Him with power of healing upon you. Take Him and give Him to the sick, for the man who exalts himself against another man is fallen and sick, and the man who receives upon him a man with life giving spirit, is a healing doctor upon his life.

Oh, people of old, come to your healing, come to the Lord, for you were His people of old. Come to take upon you the fulfilling of His kingdom in you, for it is written: «They will be like Him, for they will see Him as He is». Open your heart, open your eyes and see the Lord, your healer, for it is not good for the man to be alone. The one who is alone cannot get better, but he can go worse instead, and the man can hardly be taken out from his self so that the stones, in his kidneys that are so much deepened in him, may be healed. Come, people so much fed on the milk of the Lord, come to Him, for you have wandered away from His bosom, and get up and come back for the Lord to give you back your healing again, for in the day of the testimonies you will be asked about the Lord's entire teaching upon you, and you will be asked to give this answer, and the Lord will help you to give it and to give a good one, but come to your healing, come to the light, for the light makes everything clear and makes you free from all those that press upon you inside of you and not from outside of you, as you might want to say. Come to stay under the Lord's teaching, that with a life giving spirit in it, and take care not to walk on the way with a weak angel, for you will not grow up in this way, but you will rather grow less. Come to the healing water, for the Lord is coming to heal you, and He is coming with His angels. Oh, do not stand aside! Get up and come! Humble yourself and come! It is the Lord! Be faithful to His coming and come! Amen.

Oh, Lord, give them healing for the prayers of Your saints. The man goes to the doctor to get a longer life, Lord. Let the man come to You, too, to prolong Your life in him too, Lord. This is how I teach the man today, for I am a healer, and I am upon man from You, oh, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, heal the one who calls Me after the truth to his help for his life, and My sweetest medicine is for the man to take My kingdom from Me in him, and to take it after My will, for if the man chooses his life according to his will, then he scatters instead, for he earns nothing in this way, oh, not in this way, not so, sons.

Oh, children who carry Me as word from Me to man! Let the man learn to take from Me, not from him. I have spoken to My people before, and I have always told him that he who denies you, denies Me and not you, for you are My servants, and you are not supposed to be despised and judged, but you have to be welcomed instead, sons, for behold, those who judged Me with discontentment two thousand years ago, were those who were judged, they and not I. Oh, I want to make My people careful to watch and to stay under watch and I want to take it to My bosom and to teach it not to fall down from the faith, for it is the time of the man's denial of God, and this time is not seen by the man to keep away from it, because it is the fog that covers it and not the earth. It is sun on the earth, but there is also fog over this time of the denial of Christ.

Oh, My people who are so much taught and fomented by Me. Now watch more, watch out so that you may not fall into the sin of the denial[67] from Christ, for the faith denial over the worldly church has already come, and it has denied it, because the church has not watched. Now watch, watch together with Me, so that it may not come upon you what has come upon the church of the world, so that this temptation may not come upon you, and that you may not know its face, for it is well wrapped up so that you may not know its lie. Oh, sons, denial of Christ starts from there, from where you do not receive correction for your life, and this starts from the sin of your discontentment, for he who is discontent feels for himself and then he becomes ruthless and dark and then he loses the gift of the faith and denies Christ, and this sin of denial of Christ comes from the beginning; it comes even from Adam, who was discontent in his own self, when I searched his life, and when I searched it, when I asked him about it, he blamed the woman whom I took out of his ribs, and he was then discontent because I dealt with his disobedience, and then he gave Me away from himself. Behold, he who loves his life, that one forgets about the salvation of his soul, he forgets about God, and this is how the forgetfulness of his soul is, this way and not otherwise, My people. Oh, take care not to fall in the sin of faith denial, Jerusalem fed on the Holy Spirit, because this sin starts from the sin of discontentment, son, but My saints get up and pray to Me for you, and they tell Me this:

[67] See the selection topic: „The change of feasts - the denial of faith", r.n.

– Oh, Lord, if in Your people are sons who are dissatisfied with others and not with them, if there are stiff-necked men in Your people, if among them are some who are weak in their faith because of the foolishness of their mind, oh, heal them, Lord, in this hard hour. We pray to You, Lord, for the healing of those without steadfastness, heal them from the sin of their self-justification and judgment and make them be afraid of Your coming and settle within it and make them settle down as Your kingdom, so that You may know them, Lord, for it is written: «They will be like Him, for they will see Him as He is». Amen.

– Behold, the heaven with the saints plead at Me for you, My people. Oh, be wise, for here is the wisdom that I give you to learn. Seek, son, to be like Me, for if you do not seek that way, you will draw many people away from My way, and they will be like you, for they will see how you are and they will follow you. Oh, not in this way, for if you do this, you scatter away My savings, and I harvest My work with labor and tears. Oh, do not keep Me walking on My elbows and knees for your life; do no longer do this, son. I become like you to draw you within Me, but if you do not take after Me, you cannot be written with those who are Mine. Son, seek after an unsleeping spirit for your life, and look for the one with a spirit of life giving in him, do not look after the one that matches you, but rather look after the one who fulfills My word upon him and upon those around him. Oh, do not look after the one who doubts so that you may also doubt, do not seek to stagger so that someone else may stagger too and in this way you may have disciples of your staggering, disciples to take after you. Seek that I may have fruit, and not you. Seek that you may be able to work like Me and not like man. I endure the cockle so that I may not crush the life of the wheat, for I water and take care of the wheat, and the cockle gets dry, for this is its nature, because it is not good to eat. I do not call the cockle wheat, if it is spread among wheat, but you, son, you call it wheat because you do not love God, and if you do this, the sin of the faith denial comes upon you and it will catch you under it, and you will not know its hidden face, if you do not get up now to learn from Me upon you My kingdom in you and My work for those that are inside you, which, behold, blame you before Me and seek to take you to the sin of faith denial. Oh, watch, son. You are not supposed to joke about what I tell you now, for behold what wisdom I have given you today to learn, to know and to work, and then to take after Me afterwards, lest you may not draw many people to you, if you do not take after Me, so that they may not come and take after you and follow you and then to leave Me. Oh, not in this way, but rather get up to be according to My will and to have a strong angel, with the one who is Mine and not yours, son, for if it belongs to you, it is like you, for it sees you as you are, according to what is written.

Behold, the church in the world has been seeking again after its head, (The Romanian Orthodox Church, after the death of Patriarch Teoctist, r.n.), but it does not look after Me at all. I look upon it and see headaches and body aches in it, all kinds of convulsions in order to choose its head, for he who was his head by this time, was sent to Me to see what I do with him, and that it may choose another head. However, I strengthen it and say that I do not count over it, for I have finished My counting. I have fulfilled My number and I have come to an end with it, and from now on it will be opened and fire will get out of its midst and will melt it. Amen.

Oh, church disobedient to God! I have come to you as word of peace and you have not received or believed Me that I was Who I was. I, the Lord, do no longer count for you, for I have finished counting, and you will have your head as you want, as you overcome, for you have not let Me govern you for your life, for the peace between Me and you. Fire will come out of your midst, you, those who have stood up now to choose your head and have gone on calling yourself church, and you will call out to Me from the fire, because My angels will work upon you as they did over Sodom and Gomorrah, and those who are Mine among you, will come out of the fire, and they will be taken out of fire cleaned, and I will take care of them and give them work in My new vineyard, and it will not be otherwise, for the church of the Romanian people has not given its ear to My calling upon it, and it will be broken and its blame will fall upon it, for it did not receive Me when I knocked at its door to give it an expensive garment and then to be. Now, I, the Lord, will work for the rest of the one who was sent to Me, not according to My will, but for the sake of the one who wants to sit down as the head of the church, and I will heal his soul in heaven and I will comfort him, for in his time as the patriarch of the Romanian people, he listened to Me when I asked him this, and he established for Me and for My living church a bishop after My will, and I fulfilled My plan for the lasting of My church before Me, Christ's church on earth. Amen.

And now, children from the gates, we call My people of old to a heavenly feast, the one who is My people of today, and the one who rises to be, and I say this:

May your way to the spring of My teaching be blessed, people taken in the spirit and in your body to the spring. Let the angels and the saints pave the way before you. Let the heaven and the earth serve Me and you, for we meet together to comfort the wounds and to sweeten the joys. My sweet mother prepares her exhortations and comforts for you, and you, people of the preparation for the feast of My mother in your midst, get up and establish her feast and table, and everything on the table, for I will come and fill the table and then I will give to My people. Amen.

I leave you to rest, children who receive My word. My coming down upon you is hard. However, I have to listen to the Father, and you, should listen to Me, tired sons and so little helped on the earth under My burden. If someone, who loves himself from among those who think that they are Mine, has evil thoughts, has a judging and blaming spirit against you, then the evil spirit rouses a man like that to revolt to make a gate towards you and to cause you pains, gentle sons. The man wants a way of reconciliation with Me, but he wants Me to reduce those that I expect from him, and he does not want reduce any of the things that keep him without My image and likeness upon him, upon his being and deed, for the world is cunning and it does not let the man stand near Me, as it has been since the man has walked in My way. I will teach My people, how the sons of My people may do good to each other, how to love each other in Me, all of them, for if I do not always teach them, the evil spirit does not stay, and he wants to crush the living of My people in Me.

The one who bears the name of Pantelimon (Panteleimon) among My sons, I, the Lord, exhort him to walk under guidance, in the same way the guidance walks after him. Amen.

Behold, today is one year since a child of My people pulled himself out of My arm and left Me, for he looked and listened too much to himself and was not able to walk himself if he did this, and the evil spirit prevailed against him and pulled him out from Me to take him into the world, and we went away, and this has made Me suffer, and I have suffered deeply the wound, which this son has left in Me and in the hearts of the sons of My people. Woe to the one who becomes a stumbling block for those who are weak, and that is why I tell you to stay under obedience and love and to stay within a guiding spirit, Jerusalem, for the devil has got great hate against My people and it tries to undress it from the garment of glory, with which I have always, always clothed it, in order that you may be Mine. Amen.

Peace to you. Fulfill very carefully My entire world upon you, so that those who look at you may be like you. All of you, united in one thought and deed, this is how you are to prepare the coming to the spring of My people now, at the feast of My mother full of love for those who learn, at the school of love, My love without an end, and without any change in man, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

There is still a little word upon you. Sons, furthermore, I give you powers and a lot of blessings for the renewal work and for the work of New Jerusalem upon the house in which I, the Lord, had work before My people by My trumpet, Verginica. (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) The place has been changing its face; the people in which, I, the Lord, have come down on earth by My trumpet to feed My people. Let your entire work there be blessed and worked with great peace, for I have power over that place, as I prophesied that I would have. Amen.

27-07/09-08-2007

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I come into the book with a spirit of heavenly feast between earth and heaven. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I become word over the earth on His right side, and the Father is with Me in My coming down to man. Amen.

Two thousand years ago, I came down from heaven and became flesh in a virgin's body with the help of the Holy Spirit, Who is in the Father and in Me, and I appeared as God-man, and I appeared in the image that I had from the Father born before eternity, and now My mysterious image becomes word of God's glory on earth, and I speak with the man as I spoke with Adam in heaven and I exhort the man to come back in the homeland that I made for him after I worked him in My image and after I gave him a living soul and I called him man.

Peace to you, people of My word of life giving! I glorify Myself into your midst, I become word and mystery of word, for I refresh Myself from pressure when I speak to you and when I can tell you a mysterious word, a word not born of Me by this time. Little by little, My being gets ready for its appearance among people, and I pour Myself out little by little, and I work this by the word of this mystery, and then I let Myself be discovered[68]. Amen.

Peace to you, people who believe in My coming after two thousand years again from the Father to man, for I work it mysteriously, and you are the faithful one, and I want you to be heavenly and not earthly on earth, sons, for My disciples, when I appeared to them in the mountain in the midst of the glory that I have from the Father in heaven and on earth, they wanted to make Me a little house and to live in it in the mountain, and Moses and Elijah to remain with Me in the mountain, for I appeared with them to the disciples, so that they may see My speaking about My passion and about My resurrection.

Oh, My people, you should not be earthly, for the mystery of My work with you is great in your days, and I want you have great visible wisdom, for I enshroud you much in the mystery of My coming and I ask you much to work for its perfection, and to work as in heaven, and not as on earth, My people. In heaven it is not worked by hand for God, but by the spirit, sons, and that is why I have taught you that your work done by your hand should not be tangled with the one done by the spirit for Me, for I need you to be heavenly on earth, My people, and I need many disciples, for My coming to you is great, and the man cannot comprehend it, but I said that it was not good for the man to be alone, and I have taught you to gather together in little clusters and to have the Holy Spirit, the One Who shares, the Giver and the Worker of My coming to you, and then on earth, My people. I tell you all these to make you wise and to be heavenly on earth, and not earthly, for I closely taught My disciples, two thousand years ago, everything that had to be with Me on earth for My glory in their time, but they were earthly and did not understand what God meant and what man meant, because I, if I came incarnated on earth, I appeared as a man completely.

[68] See the selection topic: „The coming in a visible way", r.n.

Oh, it is not possible to be earthly on earth, My people, for I have to do great works with you for Me, sons. Oh, get up to understand like God, for when I was with My disciples on earth and I started to prepare them and to tell them about those that were to happen to Me among people up to the glory of My resurrection, and then to My ascension again near the Father, in one day I asked them who they thought the people said that I, the Son of Man, was, and who they said that I was, and Peter, answered Me that I was the Christ, the Son of the living God, and I confirmed the testimony, which the Father put into his mouth and I told him that on that rock (The testimony that Jesus is the Christ, r.n.) I would build My church, and the gates of the hell would not overcome it, and then I told them not to tell anyone that I was the Christ of the Father. Then, little by little, I started to tell them that I had to suffer in Jerusalem from the rulers of the priests and from the scribes and that I would be sacrificed, and that only in the third day I was to come from death to life again, but Peter, taking Me aside, rebuked Me and advised Me to be merciful on Me, so that it might not happen something like that to Me. Then, I left him behind Me and I called him satan, and I told him that he was a stumbling block for Me if he attributed to Me those that belong to the people and not those that belong to God. Then I rose with teaching for them and I told them this: «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for My sake will find it. For what will a man give in exchange for his life, when the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will render to everyone according to his deeds?» (Matt: 16/24-27) There have passed six days after that, and taking Peter, James and John, I revealed My uncovered face before them, which shined like the sun, and My garments were as white as light, and I had Moses and Elijah on My right and left side, and I spoke with them before My disciples about all the things that were to happen with Me in Jerusalem. Then Peter, being from the earth, told Me: «Lord, if You want, let's make three tents here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah», (Matt: 17/4), but a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, and My Father said to them: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt: 17/5) However, they were afraid and fell on their faces, and I touched them and I encouraged them and lifted them up, and I finished the appearance of My glory and then I commanded them not to tell anyone what they saw until I would rise again from the dead

My people, I have told you these now, to show you how earthly My disciples were, My disciples with whom I was preparing the Gospel of My crucifixion and resurrection from among the dead, and of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples afterwards, and this descent had to be prepared, sons. Oh, this is how I have prepared you too, disciple people, and I want you to understand My coming heavenly, for I want you to be heavenly on earth, so that I may fulfill My coming down, My people. Oh, I cannot do anything with the earthly man, I cannot, sons, I cannot, because that one can do it by himself, and he can as on earth, just as Peter wanted to make Me a house in the mountain and to stay there, and this is how the people has made a house for Me since then and up to this day, but I do not live in it, and I rather live with those who are faithful and heavenly and working together with Me on the earth. Amen.

I speak you a word of great mystery, My people. I want you too, to change your face before the people, as I appeared before My disciples in the mountain two thousand years ago. Be faithful, for this will be My glory and not yours, but it will have to fulfill, as it is written in the Scriptures, sons. Therefore, brother with brother, exhort yourself, for I have given you the key of the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound, and whatever you release on earth will be released, (See also Matt: 16/19), as it is written about the work of My disciples. Amen.

Work according to My will, My people, work, sons, work, for little by little, My being gets ready for its appearance among people. Little by little, I pour Myself out, and by the word of My mystery with you I work this, and then I let Myself be discovered, My people, and I do no longer tell you not to tell anyone about My mysteries, but I tell you now to proclaim them instead, as then when they will be fully seen and understood, for the world to understand that the Father has sent Me to you and that I have been with you on earth and that the world has not known Me and has not believed Me that I have come to you from the Father as word, clothed within a cloud of word on the outside, and that I have come by a great name on earth and My name is called the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13) Amen.

Oh, My people, this mystery is not only for you to understand, but you have to live it and to fulfill it as well, for I have come to you on earth and you are My house, son. Behold what kind of house I want the man to build Me on the earth! Behold a misunderstood mystery by the man, who, like Peter, wants to build Me a house on earth. My house is the glory, which I have from the Father from the foundation of the world, the glory, which cannot be comprised by the house made by man, and the man's mind and sight cannot comprise it either, for I am as the heaven and the earth taken together, and I am their Creator. Amen.

I declare now the blessing with outpouring glory from it over those who will come together near you at the spring of My word in the day of celebration for My mother, the Virgin, My people, who get ready yourself together with Me for the days of God's glory on earth with the people. Oh, strengthen yourself in the spirit of obedience, sons, for there is no love and there is no greater faith than obedience, My people. Prepare, therefore, the day of the glory of the feast, adorn it with glory from you for Me, and I, the Lord, will sit upon it with My glory and I will take My people of old from glory to glory, the people, which I called and call to the spring to glorify Myself upon it with the spirit of the heavenly wisdom and to exalt it from the earthly things to those from heaven, for I want to support it with great teaching if he listens to it to turn it into deed. Amen.

May the feast with the heaven of My people, which comes to the spring, be blessed. Open the gates of the meeting garden, sons who prepare the glory of the feast, and shelter the people in the garden and make it sit down, and I will give to My people, because I am full of gifts, sons.

Now, I bless upon you this day of today and its celebration and everything on its table, and then we will come back for a little while into the book to rely on you in My pains, for My pains are great, and I long for My rest after the pains, My people, and you should bear with My longing and give My house for it, for he who knows to make a house for God on earth is great with Me, oh, one like that is big, when no one knows any longer among people what God in heaven and on earth means.

I set fire to My longing in you, My people, and let yourself be caught by it, sons, and come to the spirit of comfort for Me and for My pains, for I have waited for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter from the earth to comfort Me in My wound. I have given you the Holy Spirit in abundance, My people; make Him My comfort with you and then you will know yourself that you are Mine, and then you will know Me fully before you, and we will also know each other and comfort each other and will take rest, and we will work for the glory of My visible coming, and all and everything will be renewed and will be comprised in My glory and yours, so that the world may believe that the Father has sent Me to you, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-08-2007

The feast of the Assumption

I come down as word in the garden, for I am the Lord of the heavenly powers and I have power to come down on earth to man, and I speak My word to those who are faithful, and to those who love Me with My coming down on earth. Amen.

Peace to you, people who have come together at the spring! I am the Lord. My name is the Word of God (Apoc: 19/13.) and I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am Who I am, and I have called you and brought you together at a heavenly table and I lay My word on it and I feed you with it, so that you may also be as I am, for I am Who I am. Glory to the One Who has sent Me to you, for I do not come without His sending, and I cannot speak without His word in Me, for I am one with the Father, I am of one being with Him, and My work is the same. When I tell you this, I become your Teacher so that you may learn from Me to love your Father Sabaoth as I love Him, and I love Him by obedience, for I am His Son, and no one is able to listen to God but only by love. Amen.

Oh, I have got you together, My people, to make you glad with My coming down to you, and then to help you to come to Me too with your joy, with your joy to My spring of word. I have made heavenly gardens on earth for Me and for you, to meet together on their grassland and to teach you to be a dwelling place of My kingdom on earth, for if you do not become My kingdom, then the evil spirit comes and makes his dominion in you and then you leave Me without a dwelling place in you, son. An obedient and loving people of God into the midst of the people is the greatest treasure on earth, when it lives in My good Spirit, brother with brother, work with work among brothers, light from the Light between God and man, and then between man and man, so that I may have food on it when I come from the Father to shepherd the obedient and loving people of God. The good spirit in man draws God to the man and fills him with expensive gifts and then it makes God rest in man, My people. Oh, son, seek after My happiness in you, for I yearn after My peace between man and Me. There are fifty years since I have been teaching you, making a way for Me with My teaching of new heaven and new earth on the earth and for your becoming eternal on earth by your obedience to Me. In this day of great feast for My mother, the Virgin, I, the Lord, embrace you at My bosom, and I comfort you with My good Spirit and I ask you to take after Me between brother and brother, for the good spirit in man can do this between man and God and between man and man on the earth. The good spirit in man is the one who can work like God in man, and not like the good man with the man, and the evil spirit in man is a spirit that cannot work like God and for God in man and for man. I become your Teacher when I tell you this, My people, for I want you to be My dwelling place on earth.

Oh, how beautiful is the man through whom I, the Lord, look, understand, speak and work and I can do! How beautiful is the man who becomes a dwelling place for God on the earth! How beautiful is the one who comes back forever from him to God! I become your teacher when I tell you these and I teach you My glory in you, My people of old, and you, My people of today and tomorrow. Receive your making from Me and become hospitable with heavenly guests in you, for the angels and the saints want to rejoice in you and they want to give you their face, son. Oh, you should not be ashamed with God on earth in your being overflowing on the sides. You should be ashamed of the devil and his wide work, but not with God, My people. Oh, seek to have fear of God, for it keeps you from committing sin when you know that what you want to do is sin. The one without fear of God commits sins immediately, and the sin, once committed, does no longer let you take care of God in your body and in your heart, but it leads to carelessness of My life in you and in My clean bosom, and where the man, washed away from sin and disobedience, has got his place.

Oh, the holy time has come on earth with Me, that from God, for there is bad time on earth, My people, because the man has departed from God and has lived in his own things, not in those of God, and I, the Lord, Who made the heaven and the earth, cry being overcome by man, for the man puts Me down to live his life in him, and he punishes Me so that I may not live and not be in him, for My Being is sweet when it is in man, and it is called the Spirit of resurrection from death in man, for this is the work of My being in man.

Oh, I have come with My bosom full of gifts and I want to share them with you. My good Spirit, the One gentle and humble in heart, has got all the heavenly gifts, and they are comprised within the gift of God's love, the love by which God loves, that which has never fallen from God, that which cannot be crushed in man when it has its dwelling from Me in man. The spring of My teaching is sweet over you, My people, and behold, I meet you at the spring as I met the Samaritan woman at the Israel's well, and when I taught her to meet Me and to welcome Me and to carry Me in her, and then to announce Me as the Messiah Who came from the Father for the salvation of Israel.

Take a pencil and paper and write the fruit of the good spirit and the fruit of the evil spirit, for where the good spirit does not live then the evil spirit lives, My people, but I teach you more than I spoke in My time with you, for you are the people of My second coming from the Father, and I ask you to be holier than all the saints who were on the earth before Me, and then in My heaven of saints, I ask you more because I sit down into your midst as word, and I stay enshrouded within the word, so that you may carry Me with the glory of My word, which is the river of life, which the Scripture speaks about that it will be to flow on the earth from My throne, son, My people. My saints loved Me on earth with their virtues heavy with their longing and love of God, these being worked with great abstinence, but you have to love Me with obedience to My word in the end of the time, and by which I prepare the man for his fulfillment with Me and with the day of the judgment of the works. Oh, do not get upset that I ask you love without limits in your fulfillment, for I love without limits and I grow you to be, and I have not loved anyone up to you as I have loved you; and as a mother nurses her baby incessantly so that it may grow, in the same way I nursed and I nurse you with the milk of eternity to grow up and be an eternal man and not a temporary man; and behold, I tell you now, that it makes Me suffer to see you that you cannot be on earth as in heaven, when I, the Lord your God, feed you so holily, so much, so sweet, son. Oh, do not get upset with Me, when I ask you to be with Me on earth among people, for the sight of My body comes closer to the eyes of men, and it has come closer little by little, and you have to be the window by which the man will see God. Be wise, My people so much nourished, for the people will know you, the one nourished by Me with the milk of heaven, for My sign will be seen on you, My word written on your forehead and body, because I have always enshrouded you within the mystery of My word, of life giving, and this mystery will be discovered in the day of the testimonies, and you will be seen if you have listened to your Teacher or not. Oh, do not get upset with Me that I ask you to be like Me, for those through whom I will appear will be like Me then, and behold, I ask you in tears, receive My tear and put it to your heart so that you may not be ashamed with God on earth, but rather you may be ashamed with the devil and with his wide world, and seek to have a holy fear to God, for the one without fear of God commits sin immediately, and the sin, once committed, leads you to carelessness of soul and to carelessness of sin cleaning, and it leaves you weak for your exalting, well Romanian Israel.

Oh, My people nourished from heaven on earth! Sanctify yourself and do not be ashamed to be holy on earth. Oh, sons, cleanse your hearts, your souls and bodies, and set your life in order for eternity, for I, the Lord, get ready to establish eternity on the earth and to embrace you within it, if you listen to Me. Oh, it makes Me suffer in your life, in your house and in your courtyard, your disobedience to God and to His coming to You, My people.

Oh, son, who have not listened yet to the step of My coming to you with eternity! Take out of your house and courtyard everything I said that it has no room with Me. Do not get upset with Me that I ask you to be holy in you and around you. The earth cries after eternity on it. The earth has been filled with killings, and in the beginning, I told the man not to kill, and then I spoke with him about the other sins to which the man comes by killing. There has been seven thousand years since then, and the man still does not to understand what I told him not to do. In tears I bow before you, My people of old, for I have gathered you together at the well to cry together with you and to ask you to listen to Me. Stop killing, sons! Stop eating meat, sons! Do no longer eat meat, you people! And if you do not stop, then you will remain with your hands full of the blood from the killing, and it will seize you the terror in which there have died the lives you have been killing by your hands in order to eat and to become graves for them, and you will be filled by the illnesses from the pains, which I, the Lord, have been sending you now on the earth over all the people, who have killed a living being with a soul in it, in order to eat its meat. Oh, do no longer eat meat, you people! Let each one of you eat from his mother, sons. Do no longer mix the bodies, and do no longer do such a great sin, because it is from this heavy sin that the blizzard of the spirit of debauchery and of the desertion of God and then for the lust in man, has been blowing from the beginning of the world upon man. When I made man from man, as the man was supposed to multiply, I worked otherwise, I worked like God and I took the woman from the man while the man was deeply sleeping, and I refilled the place with meat and I made a man out of the meat taken from man. I did this way because then, when I built the man, I built him to be man and woman, and then I have shown that I built him in this way. While the two were one flesh, there was not the overpowering sin in the man's body; however, when I made two bodies of one flesh, then the man drove God away for his body and became himself a god over his self, and since then I have been crying overpowered by man, and I have been crying without a house and I have been crying for seven thousand years, and I said that the foxes had holes, the birds had nests, but I had no place to lay down My head to have rest, for the man has punished Me to unrest and crying, My people. Oh, man, do no longer eat from animal; do no longer eat any animals, and do not eat food from animal, either. Do no longer eat meat, sons! Eat from the holy belly, which I have made to give you its milk. Eat, son, what I said in the heaven that the man should eat[69] and become holy, man, and do no longer stay as you do now, for the Lord Himself comes to you with the saints. Get used to receive and to make the Lord rest, for your Lord is wandering and tired, dear son. Oh, you are the people of My coming, when I come from the Father, now, the second time, and sanctify yourself for this, and be always holy, My people. Oh, do not love the fleeting life, and learn to get used to it only for God, and do not take even a drop from it, for the way to sin is wide. Give yourself over to the Lord, for the Lord gave Himself over to you and has taken you to His bosom to grow you holily, My people. Oh, love your assembly at the heavenly feasts in the little gardens sanctified by Me, and, you should long more and more to meet Me in word and glory of word. You shall not bring any kind of emptiness and empty words in the gardens sanctified by Me for the saints, and for Me and for you with Me on earth, and you should rather bring yourself to Me, son, and you should come to be adorned, nourishing My loving Spirit with clean, holy and obedient sons, because I want to take away all the pains from you, the entire wound, your entire burden, son, and then to be able to embrace you within the spirit of eternity, for I have been waited much and for a very long time to have a people that may cradle Me while in My pains from man, and that it may comfort Me within the cradle of his love of God, as I want to cradle it in the cradle of My waiting with patience, with love and with exhortation upon it and after it.

[69] «God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the sur-face of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food.» (Gen: 1/29.)

Separate yourself from the world, My people! It is the time, son. Take it out of your heart and take Me in you, for I am the Lord, your God. You shall not be afraid that it is hard for you with Me and with My life in you. Be afraid of your life, from which you cannot separate yourself, for behold how much it has meant for you in body and soul! Oh, become My dwelling place, son, so much waited by God! I have nourished you with great waiting after you. You will not be able to sneak from your place near Me, because of so many years of your walking on your way with Me, listening to My voice upon you.

Spend time now, My people, in the spirit of the feast of My mother, for I and My heaven of saints and angels spend time with you, and then, to the end of the day, I will embrace you again in the word, and I exhort you again towards Me. My mother is embracing you again, and she is comforting you within her spirit full of word and she is helping you because of your obedience to God, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, save, Lord, Your people, and bless Your inheritance of today and lead it to the grass-land, for You are the little Shepherd Who has come from the Father Sabaoth to raise a people to the Father. Amen.

My comfort as a mother, Son, comforts Your Being and Your body in which you stand now, mighty and loving, with a loving face into the midst of Your people with me on my day of feast of the joining with my body again, near Your eternal body, when You came and embraced my body and took it into the air and made it eternal like Yours, my Son. I comfort Your people, dear Son, and I tell it this:

Comfort the One Who comforts you, people comforted by God. Oh, do not be ashamed with the Lord on earth, but rather be ashamed to stay without God between earth and heaven, and your dwelling with God is in your deed and sight, lest your heart, which will say that it has God in it, to testify falsely, as though it would have not got God as fulfilled deed of your faithful heart. Get up beautifully and do the will of the One Who asks you to be like Him, for the Lord is the One Who speaks to you, calling you from death to life, from sin to holiness, from temporariness to eternity on earth, for the earth will be renewed now from place to place, starting with you, from the land under you, and being protected for the renewal and for its sanctification to those who are saints on it. Amen.

And now, my Son is coming with my feast full of angels and saints in His gardens with you, and we will embrace you again within the word to the end of the feast, and then the spirit of His teaching will come after you and will exhort you in your ways further with the Lord, your God, on the earth among people, oh, people of the glory of my Son's coming. He, my Son, has not pulled you out of the world, but He wants to set you in the midst of the people as His light on earth. Oh, listen to the voice of the Son of God! This is the Son of the Father Sabaoth and my Son, the only One born, and you shall be His, and, in His image and after His likeness, to settle down and to be on the earth, the people of His coming to you after two thousand years after His birth on earth, perfect Man and God among people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, We will sit down then with the entire glory of your day of feast before the people nourished with Our mercy for him, mother. We will take care of it, mother, so that it may be able to glorify Us on the earth by heavenly works, laid by Us and by it, on the earth, by his little hands, for those who are obedient are God's hands and feet on the earth, mother. We will give them obedient sons to My advice, we will give them the entire support from heaven and earth, mother, so that they may take care of all our worries which are and which will be to the comfort of those who will arise from their bodies to Us, that they may also be with Us, heavenly on earth, mother. Amen.

And you, people, that have come together at the spring, drink with longing and love and drink with obedience, and change yourself in your face and heart; drink and brighten your walking to My will in you on earth. Oh, do no longer be ephemeral, for I have come to you with My bosom full of the gifts of eternity and I want to give them all to carry them, and always come to the spring that I may shepherd you, that I may welcome you and give you power to be able to work like God, My people. I sweeten you with all of My things. Bring Me comfort as well and sweeten Me with it, for I cry for your longing, My people of old. Join with My little ones who have listened to Me in all their obedience; and because they have listened to Me and helped Me and help Me to come under the cross of My coming after the man, listen to them in this time too, My people, for behold, I will bring to an end with them the sinful age on the earth and I will open with them the gates of eternity, for this is how I promised that I would fulfill, and I am true in My word upon you, My people, oh, My people comforted by God, and by which, I, the Lord, comfort Myself coming to it with My glory of today. Amen, amen, amen.

(…)

15/28-08-2007

The feast of the devout Parascheva

(Excerpt)

Again I am embracing you within the word to the end of the feast day for My saints, My people. I can do this, son, for I am God and I can speak with man, but the man's faith is too far from God for the man to be able to believe in My works, in the Scriptures that foretold that I would work, for I spoke through the prophets: «Behold, I, Myself, even I, will search for My sheep, and I will seek them out». (Ezekiel: 34/11) And those in the tombs hear My voice upon you, sons, and they are greatly comforted for the fulfillment of the Scriptures of My coming with the resurrection of the dead, for I am ready on your table as body and word for you and for those who wait for My voice in their graves and for the man on earth, who finds Me with you with the teaching of the eternal life, and behold, the greatest miracle that a man can do on earth now is his faith in My coming as word on earth for the teaching of the resurrection, the teaching over the living and over the dead, My people. My angels take this word and proclaim it all over the earth, and many people on earth fulfill it over their lives, for I announced My today's book, which is the word of the eternal life, even from the time of the prophet Daniel[70], when I told him

[70] «And at that time Michael the great prince shall stand up, that stands over the children of your people: and there shall be a time of tribulation, such tribulation as has not been from the time that there was a nation on the earth until that time: at that time your people shall be delivered, even every one that is written in the book.

And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life and some to reproach and everlasting shame.

that in the end, in the time of the great tribulation for Me and for the man's faith in Me, that the one who would be written in that book would be saved, and many of those who have gone to rest in their graves would wake up, some to eternal life and some to eternal punishment, and those who would turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever. (See Dan: 12/1-4) Many would be cleansed, whitened and purified, and the wicked would go on with their iniquities and none of them would understand, for only those who have My wisdom would understand and help many to the spirit of resurrection.

14/27-10-2007.

The feast of the holy and great martyr Demetrius, the myrrh giver

(Excerpt)

My glory over My faithful people of today is My word, with which I am coming down on his table, oh, My beloved saints, oh, My holy martyr, celebrated today among the saints and into the midst of My today's people. I, the Lord, love My people of today affectionately, that believes into My coming to it, calling it to Me, from darkness into light, to have it as Mine into the midst of the peoples on earth, which stay far from Me, far from My calling and far from My salvation for man.

… In a little, little while, I will put My holy seal again over the place of My descent by My trumpet, for I, the Lord, have supported you after I have set you to adorn with the new garment the house in which I descended in My trumpet, and in which I came and took her to be among the saints, but I did not do this until first I had further blessed the course of My work started through her in 1955, as I had given to be near her children, faithful and dear to Me for My love in them, and I have kept the seed, and My trumpet have borne fruit, disciples from disciples, and great is today the glory of My word upon the earth, as I had prophesied by My trumpet.

26-10/08-11-2007.

The Synod of the holy archangels, Michael and Gabriel

I am Who I am. I am He Who goes with the cherubim and seraphim. I am the One Who is born of the Father before eternity and the One Who became flesh in the Virgin from the Holy Spirit to come among people as true God and from true God, and I am of the same one being with the Father. Amen.

I am the Word of God, and I have come again on earth by this name,[71] (Apoc: 19/13) for two thousand years ago, I came down from heaven and I let Myself be crucified for man and then I was resurrected, as it was written that it might happen to Me, and then I ascended again to the Father, and behold, I have come again and I have come as word on the earth, having neither beginning nor end, like the Father, and the Holy Spirit, the Creator of life, He Who has spoken through the prophets, makes Me perfect with My kingdom having no end on earth among people, for those who were, will be again and will come to life, and the living ones, who will be like the saints, will be made perfect by the spirit of life, which is to be forever, for My kingdom will have no end. Amen.

The wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament and some of the many righteous as the stars unto ages of ages.

And you, Daniel, close the words and seal the book to the time of the end; until many are taught and knowledge is increased». (Dan: 12/1-4)

[71] «He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood, and His Name is "The Word of God."» (Apoc: 19/13)

Open to the Lord, watching children within the gates for My coming! I have gathered My people together to take it into My bosom and to give it the word of life, the word of creation, for I want to fill with eternal life the one fed by the gifts of My word, by which I have come again to man. My calling after the man has become a river of word over the little garden in which I have made My word come down, in the end of the time, and this time that is Mine is written into the Scriptures to be. I do nothing and I speak nothing from Me, Myself, but I have come and fulfilled only what is written by the Spirit. Amen.

Behold, what a glorified coming, what a day of glory over the lands blessed by Me to be around the little garden of the manger of My word, and which I, the Lord, often gather My people to give it of My bosom! I am with armies of the saints and angels, and the heavenly powers minister to Us. My angel, Michael, the archangel, stands before the angelic armies and speaks this way: «Let us stand in awe, in fear and with reverence, for the Lord speaks over the earth and He lets it know about His coming». Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, become word over the living and over the dead, for it is an angelic feast, and I come and comfort the man, who was and who is and the one who will be. I have announced those who are asleep by My angel, who has been waiting for Me to come to wake them up, and My angel told them that they are called to a table of resurrection on the new land chosen for My glory in the end of the time, and they have listened to the Lord and come to a memorial table.

I have announced the people fed at My table of word and I have told it to come together at the spring to strengthen My life and fulfillment within him on the rock of its faith.

I have announced Myself with a heavenly feast of saints and angels and I have called at the table of resurrection those who have loved you because you are Mine, My people.

I announce Myself with My love for man over the whole Romanian people, My newly chosen people, for I have chosen again a people for Me, to have a country and to have a people in it for My coming, and I have done this because this was written to for Me do and to choose again a Jerusalem[72], and behold, I have chosen and fulfilled this word. Amen.

Oh, holy angels, and you, heavenly powers, who serve My coming and My days of glory with the people on earth! Comfort each other and take from margins to margins the news of My coming with the saints on the land of the Romanian people, and give heavenly powers to the people of My word, by which I announce Myself as word over the earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, on which I, the Lord, rely in order to do the work of My coming now! Oh, seek to take after Me, for I have come to build the man again, and I have come to build him again in man, and that is why I have spoken to you so much, since even the sons of the people wonder about what I have worked with you today, for the sons of unbelief are today as those in the time of Noah[73], who neither heard nor believed that I was coming to wash away the earth from unbelief and from the man who had given Me away with My image and My likeness in man. Oh, people nourished from heaven, you are My people by faith, and I have always given you food with the spirit of life, which gives you power to fulfill Me in you with My will, for the will of the Father and Mine is your sanctification, son. It has got great, great work in man, and My word over you has always, always sealed you, so that the evil spirit may see My seal, always fresh over you, and the evil spirit to go weak in his power, and it will be weakened, amen, and then the people will look for each other to advise one another to this spring and they will receive from it power of life, spirit of life giving, the spirit, which I, the Lord put into My word, when I speak with it over the earth. The sons of God are those who are nourished by God and from God, and this is how they have become known to the devils that they are God's sons among the sons of men, and the sons of men will run after God's sons, and they will ask for a vessel with oil from them, which gives light and burns within a snuff, so that they may also see the way and that they may come to the life, which I, the Lord, ask from the man so that he may stand before Me at My coming with the life of the age to be, for the new land, on which I have set My kingdom with you here, My people, will be spread far and wide and will grow, as it is written, and do not ask yourself how will this be, for all those that are written about My glory of New Jerusalem over the earth, all, all and everything will come true with your steadfast faith, that full of patience and love, My people but be the tool of My glory, by which I am supposed to plough, to sow and to take care of the world that is to be, for this is how faith is, bearing fruit out of its work, My people. Oh, there is no more beautiful image on earth than that of the man's image, which becomes God's temple, the Holy Spirit's dwelling among people! This is how you are supposed to give light among the men's sons, and this is how you are supposed to preach Jesus Christ, coming in the flesh, coming in you with His being, with His life, with His love, with His work, which works far and from far away, son nourished with the Spirit of life giving, and Who proceeds from God. It is a day of angelic feast, sons, and the angels comprise you within their glory from Me upon them, and they work heavenly powers for you, and behold what glory is here now! And those of My glory, which are not seen, comprise you within them too, and soon, soon, your eyes will be opened to them, and they will gift away the garment of incorruptibility, for you and I work at this glory, and it will give itself over in its day of visible glory face to face with the faithful man and with the unfaithful man, for some for eternal life, and for others for eternal sufferance, as it is written, My people. Amen.

[72] See the selection topic: „Romania – The New Jerusalem – The New Canaan", r.n.

[73] «As in the days of Noah, so will it be at the coming of the Son of Man.» (Matt: 24/37)

Now, I am embracing in the word those who love you and who come on feasts to you for My glory over you, for My sharing of word spring, giving of powers from above. I exhort them, My people, them and you as well, to love their resurrection and then their life, for whoever loves his life on earth, he loses it, but whoever takes care of it for the spirit of resurrection, that one gives Me his life, and I make his body into a palace of My rest and the rest of My saints and angels, for this is the reward on the earth of those who give their lives over to Me as My dwelling place, and this is how it is understood that the men's sons are men's sons, and those who give themselves over to Me as My temple and rest, those are God's sons among men's sons and they are the sons of the resurrection. Amen.

I give you the food on My table with My people. I make you a sweet calling to the life, which does not perish. You, those who love the people of My word, because it is Mine, will not lose your reward, for I have spoken about this then and now. Oh, bow to drink of the spring of life, for My word has become spring on the earth from this place chosen by Me even from the beginning of the world to be the new beginning of the new earth, renewed by Me by the word and sanctified by the word. Seek after Me to find Me and you will find Me, and you will find that I am In you and that I wait for you with patience and awaiting. Come to the spring, come to be comforted in feasts near the people of My word, for the struggling is great on the earth, but here you find rest, comfort, and power for those that will remain on earth. Peace to you! Praise God for His glory by which He gives Himself to you! Receive from My love and bear it in you to become gods by grace so that I may have rest in you with the face of the Holy Spirit and then with His work.

Nothing is eternal on earth, nothing, nothing but God and then His people that is to be. Peace to you! Holy faith to you! Peace to you!

The people that has come with My angel from the place of the waiting of the spirit of the resurrection over those who wait for the voice of the archangel so that they may wake up for the age that is to come, this people, that has come now at the angelic feast in such a great number, I, the Lord, look at it and pour out upon it the spirit of comfort, the promise of the full resurrection of their bodies, according to their works and according to My great mercy, which I have put to work now by the supplication by which, those who are set by Me in the little garden of My word, intercede with Me to ask God for the release of the creature and the new birth giving, the resurrection of the dead and the life of the age that is to come and to be on the earth soon, soon.

Peace to you, those who wait for the resurrection! In a little while I will release on earth the garment of incorruptibility that is to come, and you will stand up incorruptible, for I have been working now at this work with My people on earth, and which I have built for Me by the word. Oh, rejoice and look at My glory rejoicing, for My people of today is My glory from My coming, and soon, soon, I, the Lord, will bring the waiting to an end. In a little while, all the creatures will take on the garment of incorruptibility[74], and this joy will bring back on to the earth the eternity of all that have been made by God, and which will be again, as it is written, and when I, the Lord, will speak and say: «It is done!» Amen.

I comfort you too from the place of My spring of word, Romanian people. Receive this whisper of My comfort and receive of My Spirit, for I speak to you only affectionately in order to exhort you and that the work of My exhortation upon you may do you good. I have often whispered to you and I have longingly called you and whispered to you: Wake up! The darkness is great and the light is no longer seen, but I call out to you, wake up and set your eyes on to the light, for I am the light and your salvation and I watch mysteriously over you and I call you to watching. Wake up your love, My country! Let My will be upon you! I have got festive clothes for you and I want to announce you as the first among the nations before Me. Do not go together with the man who pulls you back wondering for your choice. What I did in the beginning and what I have done now remains done, and your mystery is the land of My coming back from the Father to man, and behold, I have the throne of My word on your hearth, and you value too lightly the thread of life, which speaks from My mouth so that you may drink and know God, Who is coming to you with all His mysterious adornment and Who will crown your forehead, soon, soon, country of My coming back from the Father to man. Peace to you! From the midst of the people of My word, I bless with a fresh word your hearth and your people, Romanian country. In a day of angelic feast on your land with My people, with My new church, I embrace you within the Holy Spirit to congratulate you with gifts of resurrection and new making over your creature. Come to know My will, come to the spring and take Me, and then come to You, for behold, I am coming to you and I have always come until you may have learned the coming, your coming to My glory in you to be one spirit with Me, My country of today. Amen.

I, the Lord, embrace you within the spirit of angelic feast; I embrace My people from everywhere and which have come together to be nourished from heaven and to spend with the angels, for the angels have brought a synod of feast into your midst, an angelic synod. I have a spirit of teaching upon you, and I will embrace you within it in this day and I will give you power to give from My teaching, too. Moreover, I will reveal mysteries to you, son. I will refresh your understanding and I will give you power to be able to be great before Me as much as I ask from you to be. I will also refresh you with heavenly ornaments, with deep mysteries of word coming out of My mouth, for you are the one who grows and the one who learns from Me to be small, to be a baby at My bosom, for only those who know how to stay at My bosom and eat from Me, only these are the sons of My kingdom, only these are the temple of the Holy Spirit Who becomes word so that I may come in to the man and to pour Myself out in you, to overflow Myself over from you and to give Myself over for the life of many, and then to their redemption, sons, so that I may be their Shepherd forever, and that they may be like you, My people, people of the Shepherd Lamb, people redeemed from the great tribulation, people of the age that is to come. Amen, amen, amen.

[74] See the selection topic „The mystery of humankind salvation - the mystery of incorruptibility", r.n.

*

My angel Michael has spoken a word over the angelic armies to accompany to their places those who have come and taken of the spring the word with a life giving spirit in it. Amen.

My angel Michael announces Me at the gates to enter again as word into the book for the whole work of the day, for the growth and steadfastness of My people in all the time of the work of My word, having been working for fifty years over My people. Oh, the people of My word is great. It is he who has heard the word coming out of My mouth, now, in the end of the time, and who has fulfilled it in his life. Amen.

I come in again, children from the gates. Be strong for My coming down into the book, for I strengthen you. The sighing in you is My highest dwelling in you and with you, for the work of My descent as word from the Father to man wears your bodies out, but in order that the man may understand My great fulfillment, which has been working now on earth, he needs great mercy for God, great longing and love, and only then, only in this way, the man is able to understand and believe My heaviness upon you, My sighing by which I dwell in you and keep your spirit burning, for if I did not dwell in you, you would be knocked down within hardships, because the evil spirit has dressed himself over with all kinds of faces and works to cut out your standing before Me, and also to cut out My work of coming from the Father after man. Oh, be merciful on people, and let this strengthen your spirit, body, soul and your standing before Me for My coming, so that I may teach the man and call him out on the way of eternal life, and which the man has to prepare it after that, for the man works his eternal life on earth, and not beyond his body. Oh, all day you have been deeply aggrieved but full of mercy for My people, which is coming, which has always come to the spring, and which, through your love, lifts My people up to Me.

Oh, children from the gates, let My love for man and My mercy on him always overcome you, and in this way you will be able to burn like Me for the man’s salvation, because My angelic armies cry after man, after My place in man. The angels cry looking at the people, for the people live for their own sake, and they do not like to have angels, for the man cannot get away from him, he cannot get away from sins to come under in My tent, under to an angelic protection. Oh, children sons, blessed and again blessed are those who know how to stand within your love, under your protection, within your teaching, for I have in you the gifts of the teaching of eternal life and I want to strengthen you to their sharing, as you also work, because My people loves you and it would stay long with you and never to be enough, for you have My love in you for it, and by it I picked and pick them up, and through it I fill them with power to become God’s sons, only that there are many among them who despise you very much, some out of their foolishness, some out of their lack of wisdom, some out of their disbelief, some because of their sins, and still some others out of their pride of not bowing and thus becoming children just like you are, workers near you and with you, for the spirit of envy has destroyed My man, and it digs with pride and strength among men, and it spoils My way with the man, My dwelling in man, for I cannot dwell in the same place with the evil spirit, and I cannot clean away the evil spirit, there where it makes its nest by the will and by work of the man having an evil spirit.

You have been so dear to Me in this day by your keeping silent and by your speaking, watching children before My word, when it comes! You have breathed upon My people the spirit of its deification, exhorting it not to sacrifice God for the sake of its wills. He who understands and comes under this eternal mystery of the eternal life in man, that one has always got God alive and true in him, as so few people understand to work this miracle upon their life. You have exhorted to the work of the spirit those who are My people near you, and you longingly yearn to see the sons of My people working out Holy Spirit. Oh, My people, you do everything from everywhere, but the work of the Holy Spirit suffers waiting for you to give Him place, from time to time at least, in the time of your days, if you cannot always be for Him a place, sanctified and worked by Him. Oh, listen to the love of those who shake your peace in order that you may take Mine, for My peace in you is the work of the Holy Spirit, Who has His dwelling place in the saints, My people.

Oh, watching children in the way of My word so that you may give it then to My people for its fulfillment! I asked you and I still do ask you to write the epistles of the resurrection over the cities of My people, for much resurrection is needed everywhere where those are, those who have come from time to time to the spring of life. Behold how they are surrounding you now, those who are asleep for the gift of My mercy in you, for My work in you, for My descent through you on earth, so that resurrection may come after this work, eternally working of resurrection! I, the Lord, will soon, soon, reveal My mystery with you in My people, and many will cry within limitless pains that they have not known to want to understand and to believe in Me what a comforting gift for man I have had in you in these days for the one who have stayed so beautifully and sweetly in My arm of heavenly Shepherd. Oh, how hard it is for the Christian who separates you from Me to put you down and then to judge you, for one like that forgets about My foremost work in those who are bearers of God for man, for I am He Who said to the working disciples: «I in you and you in Me», as I have also told you. Then, and now, I have gathered disciples and then I took them with Me wherever I was going, as it is written about the Lamb of God and about those who walk with the Lamb. I have taken some of them out of their ranks and brought them down to the spirit of My humility and I have made them My disciples, and I have also taken some of others from their families and showed them their happiness telling them: «Blessed are those who leave father and mother, wife and children, ranks and possessions, to walk with Me and to preach Me to the people, confessing Me from margins to margins, disciples of the preaching of the Gospel of the kingdom of God on earth with the people». Oh, happy are those who do not stumble over anything to come and work for Me then and so that they may become an example of self-denial for all those who want to leave death and its fruit and then to take on them the garment of life, the way with the light on it and which does not hide them, but it rather brings them into the light as My followers, as I worked with Moses, by taking him out of his house and clothing him within My word of fire and making him into the flame of the Holy Spirit, working before Pharaoh, who had been keeping My people Israel in bondage; and furthermore, I made him the savior of his brothers, who were sighing in Egypt for the atonement of their sin of brother betrayal, a sin committed out of envy.

I want to cleanse away the sins of My people made in the spirit, well, children sons, for you stand before Me like the most childish of all that are My people from everywhere, and that is why I have called you children-sons. Once I spoke through My word that I work to make Christians, and then to make the Christians into My children, and I have not been able to do this up to this time, because the sin of envy, sin made in the spirit, with the man's earthly mind, keeps the man great upon Me and I cannot be his God, just as I could not be Adam's God after he was envious of Me to surpass Me in greatness then and to be greater than Me, and he was, for he threw Me away from him and he has got his own freedom, and by it he committed sin against Me, and thus Adam did no longer want to be with Me.

The angelic hosts have stood in awe under My word now, for I am speaking with great power of word, and the angels are careful, and I am moving above the throne of cherubim and seraphim in which I am sitting here now, for they tremble under My body and word, and the heavenly powers are shaken and are answering and serving My work with you, My people, and I have before you those who are giving you My speaking with you. Woe to those who try to humiliate them by the work of the evil spirit served by man! Woe to those who kneel them down to make them move in elbows and knees, according to the will of those who humiliate them this way, those who stay humbly as the stairway of My coming to keep Me between heaven and earth and to work out My coming about which I spoke about two thousand years ago in the word of the Gospel of My kingdom over the earth and over the man! Those who sinned against Me, not knowing that I was the Son of God, coming down from heaven for man, they were forgiven by My love, but those who have sinned in this way from that time on and up to this day, after I proved Myself as true God by My resurrection, they have sinned against the Holy Spirit, with Whom I came to work before the man by signs and miracles of the faith of the people who were meeting Me on the way, and behold, those who have committed the sin of contempt against those whom I have made them into My stairway of coming with My salvation by the word upon man, they are against God, the Holy Spirit, not against them, and that is why I said: woe to those who try to humiliate them by the work of the evil spirit served by man, kneeling them down for their will, and I said mysteriously, and now I am saying it openly that the exoneration from some kind of guilt is not done by accusation, by throwing the blame so that some others may be guilty, but it is rather done by love, by faith and then by forgiveness that comes from God and not from man, and this science and forgiveness work through the prophesying spirit, by My revelation in those who have God in them. Amen.

Behold, I speak out a mystery to you, My people, for I have stayed long with you to teach you, if I took you into My bosom in this day of glory of My angels. Oh, son, when satan stood face to face with Me and tempted Me threefold, after I got out of the water of baptism at Jordan and when the heavens were opened for My Father to speak that I was His beloved Son in Whom He was well pleased on earth, I came back from the river Jordan full of the Father and of the Holy Spirit and the Spirit led Me up into the wilderness, and there I did not eat forty days, and then I went hungry. When satan saw that I was hungry, he tried to have a hold over Me and he said to Me: «If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread». However, I answered him, «Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God». Then satan took Me to an exceedingly high mountain to see his kingdom for a moment and he said to Me: «This dominion was given to me and I give it to whomever I want; fall down and worship me and it will be Yours». However, I answered him: «Get behind Me, satan, for it is written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve». And again, he tempted Me the third time up there on the pinnacle of the temple, and satan said to Me: «If you are the Son of God, throw Yourself down, for it is written: 'He will give His angels charge concerning You,' and 'On their hands they will bear You up, so that You don't dash Your foot against a stone». Again, I answered satan the third time too, and I said to him: «You shall not test the Lord, your God». (See also Matt: 4/3-10) And when I told him this, satan left Me, and I went into Galilee, into Nazareth and everywhere, and I was preaching about Me with the power of the word of My kingdom and all were marveled, and the Father was in Me. Oh, behold, My people, what God means in man! Learn, son, learn My work upon you, for the prophesying spirit knows satan and when he is satan, but the human spirit does not know him, and satan leads the man into temptation, well, well sons. Oh, do not take, My people, after the one who denigrates the man, for the man does not have this right. I, the Saint of the saints, have spoken this, son. However, you should take after the man who rebukes you for your getting wise, but do not take after food to worship satan for bread, and do not take after the goods of the world to long for them and to worship them and their master, and do not bow to test God either, for it is written: «You shall not test the Lord, your God». My people, receive My exhortation; receive it and seek first to remain and seek not to commit sin by not fulfilling My word. I have only and only teaching for you, for behold, My work of coming has got now enemies in your midst, My people, and My way on to the earth has been denigrated, and I will get up now for Me and try to cleanse from darkness those who work, either willingly or unwillingly, to make a spot on My work in order to test your faith and the faith of many who get comforted from My river of word, My people.

Oh, children from the gates, wounded by the unfaith of My people and by its evil spirit! Oh, sons, your sigh is in Me, as I am the One Who sighs in you for My work, stricken by the fruit of the spirit of murmuring and discontent from the Christian. Oh, sons, you have been despised and denigrated now by those who think that they are strong by themselves, by their haughty and searching mind, by the truth, which they think that it is truth, by their own imagination, but their imagination is from the devil, and many use it as a spiritual gift, and this is how they go wrong against Me and this is how they serve the devil and they do not know what they do. Oh, the clean man cannot call you adulterers. The one, who is clean, does not oppress the immoral one either, but the one who is not clean calls you immoral in order that he may cover by this his steps without God, his self-will, children sons. Oh, it does not matter sons. Those who are despised on My way with them, they are those in whom I rest with My coming and from where I watch for My people, but the world in the man cannot love Me in you, and it cannot love Me especially when I speak to the man about his evil works, those that are far away from Me by themselves.

Oh, My people, from the time of those fifty years of word, now, when I have come again from the Father to man! Oh, My people, this word and its work of descent down to you has its foundation laid by Me even from the time of Verginica[75], (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) while I was bringing closer those on whom I relied with the spirit of the holy faith and of the love from above. However, because I relied on them further with My exhortation and watching for the holy way in My people, after I took My trumpet away to heaven, these children were despised by those who loved themselves from among the people and they were wicked in their soul, but they loved Me and took mercy on Me by their mercy, and they raised disciples for Me to the faith, and this is how I have raised for Myself another people by the work of their love, by which I want to lift again to My bosom those who were My people in My time with Verginica and then they left Me for their things. Oh, My people, by the love of those who loved and served Me and by their clean spirit, I have raised a new people for Me and I have exhorted it by My word and through them, and then I have laid down some from among them at the foundation of My work of coming to you, as further word, for it has been wonderful My plane made from the very beginning, which have been brought into fulfillment now, because as those that were written about Me came to fulfillment, the same I do and fulfill with them now those that I have to accomplish for My coming now, and behold, great and sweet is the mystery by which I am coming down to you now, My people! I have worked so wonderfully and I made a further stairway for My word upon you, and I keep in a cradle of ministering angels those whom I rely on to come down to You to be your Shepherd and so that you may not fall in those that are forsaken by you for My way, as many have fallen down again.

[75] Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet (See selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.)

Oh, My people, I have always taught you not to stop near those who undress you of your faith into My word, which exhorts you for My kingdom. I have always exhorted you not to come to a stop among the group of people who are rebellious, even if these might be only one or two of them, because there is a host of devils with them too, for they serve the devil. Oh, do not come to a stop with them, because you become like them, both in your mind, in your heart and in your faith and then you will fall in disbelief, and disbelief is the reward of those you have worked and without My pleasure, and you fall under the work of the spirit of rebellion and betrayal of God and of brothers, you fall into the sin of betrayal and revenge and then in denial of Christ, for you do not belong to Christ when you do this, but you are rather against Him and you are antichrist[76], son, and here it is what antichrist means! Oh, My people, when I was speaking through Verginica and I had the inquiring one near My mouth, then I said: "Sons, sons, now, when I am speaking, the antichrist is near the bed of My trumpet, too," and there were four, or five Christians when I was speaking like that, but when they grew in number, how many antichrists were lurking for My life?

Oh, the reward of those who stand against their own good by their rebellion and by their haughtiness is ugly, sons! What use were the sons of Core if they murmured and stood against Moses, by stoning him? I took Moses and took him out of his house and I made him a prophet and savior for Israel, who were enslaved in Egypt, and then the people crushed Moses and did no longer believe in him and in My words through him, and only Joshua believed My word. When Israel did no longer want Moses as its guide, it blamed him because of his Ethiopian woman, from where I called him and made him My prophet for Israel's salvation, but behold, the rebellious ones do nothing better than what Israel did, who fell into the deep by the sin of rebellion, sons.

Oh, cleanse your hearts, you, those who rebel like Israel, for Elijah, My prophet, stood at the woman in Sarepta more than three years, as I had sent him to stay there, and he did not go there by himself, and then he also prophesied and worked out powers, and he even raised Jonah from the dead and made from the widow's resurrected son into My prophet, and the Elijah's disciples did no longer say that he was immoral. Oh, I have told you, My people, to read My word very much, the word that keeps away the evil spirit from your heart and mind, and read it within a clean heart, so that you may not die in relation with it and with its fulfillment upon you, for if you do not listen to do this, you become My adversary, son. Oh, I have always, always told you, My people, that it is not beautiful to love darkness. This is how I have always told you, and you should be careful for it is true My Gospel by which I said that all the words spoken in the darkness will also be spoken out loud on the roofs, and do not rejoice, do not rest, do not refresh yourself when you work in secret believing that you do yourself good when you do so, for My angels will fulfill the word of My Gospel for those that are worked in the darkness, and I will overcome with the light and for the light, and I will overcome for you too, if you let Me help you and cleanse you from those that are hidden in you and which blame you before God, son. I am He Who will take you through angels out of you and put you face to face with you for all those by which you have made Me suffer, and I will work as I worked with Adam and Cain, who wanted to hide from God in themselves, and they were punished by their own works if they did not listen for their repentance.

[76] See the selection topic: „The antichrist and the apocalyptic beast", r.n.

Come and confess your sins, come to Me with your brother, whom you have crushed by hidings between you and he against Me and against My today's walking. Come, because I have been waiting for you, for I have told you to come long ago and you have not come yet that I may cleanse and forgive you, and then to protect My work from the enmity of the devil. You are heavy with unclean sins within you, and you had to be light, son. Your speaking between the two has to be healed, My people, for this work, against God and against the mystery of the brotherhood among brothers, is a satanic sickness. This sickness does not bring anything but faction in the body of My church, and by this devilish practice satan has been conspiring for seven thousand years for the destruction of this human people, My people. The dead are terrified when they see the consequences of this sin and the unsleeping affliction, under which, they, poor of them, wait for their salvation to come from somewhere. Oh, only you can save them by your churchly work among brothers and by the light of your heart, which the dead and the living may see it by your churchly confession and by your prayer then for all those who died and were unclean from this dark sin, for no one among people commits this sin for his own good, but it rather commits it for the darkness and for the reward of the darkness.

Oh, remember My people, the six vessels from the wedding in Cana, which were for the cleansing of the Jews, son, and you should know that this was an example and prophecy for the man's preoccupation with his cleansing, for I went to the wedding in Cana and then I said to be filled with water all those six vessels, when there was no longer wine on the wedding table, and then the servants were to take and give it to the groomsman, and only the servants knew this, those who poured out the water into the vessels that I might turn it into wine at the wedding, and they were the friends of My mother, advised by her to God, and the ruler of the feast spoke to the bridegroom of the wedding saying: «Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!» (John: 2/10) And the wedding guests praised the bridegroom. Behold, the vessels were prepared for cleansing before the wedding for the new wine, and this was an example, My people, prepared by Me for the wedding table, for I do not do as the man does, serving first the good wine, but only after the man cleanses himself for the wedding, only after that I give him the new wine, his union with Me, and for the fruit to be known, as it was known at the wedding in Cana, when I took My disciples with Me, and the bridegroom and the bride as well, and I saved them from the sin of the wedding, making of them the temple of My wedding, the temple of My rest, My people. I exhort you to this example of the wedding, son, and for which I went to the wedding in Cana. Cleanse yourself, son, from everything that is not beautiful to do before Me and before your brother, and only after that you should take of the new wine, of the wine of My wedding with you, prepared now in the end o the time, to take it anew with My new disciples, like the new Passover prepared by them. Amen.

Son, search out for yourself, son, and do no longer stop and do no longer hide, and cleanse yourself in a churchly way and not otherwise, for in My church of new Jerusalem the cleansing is not worked in secret as the world and its priests exhort the people, but the life, the teaching and the life correction are rather worked within the light, as My first disciples worked, and as they set My work through the cities with Christians in them. Trust in God and trust each other for a pleasant cleansing to Me, sons, for any other kind of work leads to betrayal of God and of brothers, and what is not known by the whole church leads to treason, revenge and enmity, and it leads to murmuring and slander as well, and these are the tools of the devil, sons. Oh, it is not so in My new people, which always cleanses itself by the work that stands before them and before Me so that they may be clean. However, you son who want to get cleaned from yourself and do not want to work for your soul as in the church from the world, for I tell you that I write darkness over man with this work, which those from the church of the world work, and the priests of the world sell you to Caiaphas and Pilate, for they cannot rule over the people, but only by striking them asunder first. Oh, get healed from this bad thing and work as in the Scripture, My people, for it teaches you like Me and not like man, who draws you to him in order to teach you the hiding and then the betrayal of your brother.

Keep away from sin, sons, for the sin is an evil spirit. Here it is what I teach you: keep away from eavesdropping at the doors and windows, for satan, who fell from heaven uses this human weaknesses and makes the man hear what is not, for what is done in secret is the invisible work of the devil, which sows discord and enmity among men, and then he brings hallucinations to man, so that the man may see with the eyes of the devil, and to hear likewise what is not, because the devils have come into the people to lose them, to turn them into devils, and in such a way that the man may no longer be able to get up there from where the angels fallen by the haughty of the first-built man, who wanted greater than the One Who built him, and since then satan has been hostile to man and made him do his will, and the people do not know to understand satan's work to keep away from it. My Holy Spirit, the Spirit in the prophets is that One Who knows to tell the man about the trap which is set to catch him, but the man does not know the prophets, as he neither knows the devil with its hidden work, for where the spirit of the prophet cannot work, the devil can, and behold, I cannot make the man used to receiving from Me protection over his life for what is not good for his life, and the devil comes upon him because of the evil in him.

Oh, My people, the man does not have to test God, but he has to receive Him instead. The man does not have to take after his hallucinations, for this makes him rely on himself and to forsake Me when I come upon him. Receive God over your steps, for I have come on the earth with My coming to watch your life and your salvation and faith, and that you may not fall from My bosom of Shepherd, for if you take after yourself, supposing that you know what to do, then you fall into the devil's temptation, son. He who takes after himself loses his faith in Me, and the one who loses his faith and faithfulness only a little bit, he goes to the winds, for the works of man brings him forth their fruit afterwards, the fruit of his imagination, by which he is guided. However, I want to have you in the school of the teaching by which I watch over you and I want to tell you beforehand about those who struggle to embrace you and to shake you off Me, and you should look into My word of your revival to see its fulfillment, when you did not know how to listen to it to prevent the painful happenings that come and embrace you suddenly when you do not know to receive word from Me. Oh, son, he who takes after his imaginations for those who are and will be, that one is a false prophet[77] and this is the spirit who makes the man fall away from My protection, a spirit that serves the devil inside the man.

Oh, My people, you from all the time of this work of word! I have told you today that God's sons are those who have been fed with God and from God among the sons of men, and this is how they have made themselves known to the devils that they are God's sons among men's sons. Soon, soon, the men's sons will seek after God's sons and will ask from them oil to light their way to the life of the age that is to be, and do not ask yourself how this will be, for all those that are written to be in the glory of the New Jerusalem on earth, all will be fulfilled, as My word was fulfilled by My trumpet and then by her sister after that, and I built My holy citadel of New Jerusalem on the earth and I set a sacrificing people in it, a tool of My glory to be able to come and to have a house on earth and to have a fountain to give from it to the one who has gone thirsty after Me and after My love for man. Amen.

[77] See the selection topic: „The false prophet and the ecumenism", r.n.

Now, My angel Michael is watching for the people that is so numerous, which has come to the feast of the angels for its memorial and for its resurrection to incorruptibility. There is still a little of time and its raising will come, for I, the Lord, was the beginning of the resurrection of those asleep, who, soon, soon, will come up into incorruptibility and will confess this work of My coming as word on earth and those who serve Me for it, and, again, those who have worked before Me the works of the faith of My today's word, for the mystery of My coming now from the Father to man and for man is great. Amen.

I have a spirit of teaching for you, My people, and always, always I will embrace you within it greatly, and you should be faithful to Me, to keep the devil behind you, as I kept him when he tested Me after I got out of the river of Jordan, when I submitted to John for the baptism with water. Always, always look after water, My people, and always baptize your being in the water of the washing of your wrongdoings, in the spirit of the cleaning from all the things that separate you from God, and then the devil will leave you and will no longer tempt you with his lying imaginations, and which he tries after that to fulfill because of your faith in them. Oh, come that I may clean you from you and from the devil, for I have, at the spring, those who know to revive you and to give you to Me always, to be always cleansed from your separation from Me. Behold, how much teaching I have poured out today upon you.

Receive My image and bear it, My people in all the time of fifty years of My word into your midst. I wait for you to take My image and My likeness in you, son, and you will be able to work, if you bow to believe all My word in My time with you. I give you power to be able to work, only for you to want it. However, I will hold your hand and protect you from the spirit of unbelief, for satan's spirit has got up with bitterness to test your faith, but I will teach you and reveal you My word to know from Me and not from man how to believe in all that I have spoken now. Amen.

I have stood on the clouds of angels above the garden of My word. Strengthen your staying before My coming of word, watching children in the gates, and let the gates be strengthened and sustained as well. Amen. Then let My people come to you and teach it God's love and holiness, without which the man cannot work for Me and for him. In a spirit of the feast of angels I have given My love and I have taught My people intimately.

Learn, My people, from the spirit of eternal life of My word and let yourself be lifted up and come to take Me from the spring, but also come to learn, to fulfill and then come to cleanse yourself for wedding, for the wedding table, as I have been exhorting you on this day of great glory, the glory of the angelic armies, which have as guidance upon them the angel Michael, My angel and yours, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-11-2007.

The feat of the Lord's Mother's Entrance into the church

(Excerpt)

Open to the Lord, children sons, who watch for My coming with a spirit of life giving to you and give Him to My people to their life! I strengthen your dwelling before Me, and the saints and the angels are the servants of My entire word which is giving upon you, for I work with a synod of saints and with angelic armies, like a great Maker that I am, over those that are seen and over those that are not seen, and by the spoken word, I have prepared the glory by which I will put the man face to face, and he who will have tasted of this table with Me near you, My people, will not be able to get away from answering, for the angels have written both his thought and his heart and its deed, and they have also written his belief or his unbelief, his care or his lack of care, his fulfillment or his lack of fulfillment of My word, by which I have been making My coming and My glory, as My word is My glory from the Father, and which My Father has given to Me from eternity, to be His word and with it to make all things, as it is written for the creation in the beginning, which wants by obedience to become My image and My likeness between heaven and earth. Amen.

… I have come down to you with a holy feast for My mother Virgin, Jerusalem, My new people, and I am teaching you throw it the spirit of obedience, which is born of the love of God in man, and which becomes a child in man to teach the man the sweet spirit of a child. I spoke the plain truth that the children will inherit the kingdom of God and that he who does not become a child does not inherit it. I have come to you with My mother Virgin, with My child mother, My people, to give you an example of life, that I have a kingdom with you and to spend within it with ministry of angels and so that no enemy of My kingdom may be able to spoil something in your being, in My place of the glory of Holy Spirit.

... Oh, My people, keep away from Judas's whisper, stand away, for it wants to defile you with Judas's sin. Stand watch, son, for whoever does not stand watch and under the love that makes him grow, that one undergoes what Judas did, who betrayed, taking to the buyers My Spirit and His work among My disciples. It is a great, great pain in heaven coming from the one who betrays, who comes and takes from your midst to fill the man with unbelief after that, to do evil to the man's life, but it also seems that the world does not deserve anything but unbelief, for the world does not deny emptiness and falls into the sin of unbelief after it has heard Me calling out to it from your midst. Stay under guidance, My people, stay under the Spirit of God, for I guide you to holiness, and with it you know and see the Lord in you, and not otherwise, for the Spirit of Christ is the Spirit Who confesses Christ coming in the man's body, reigning in man with all His things, as I spoke to the people: «The Kingdom of God is in you if you come to belong to it». Amen.

21-11/04-12-2007.

The sixteen-year feast since the sanctification of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I am the Lord! In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I knock to come in. I come in as word at My people in this time. I have a book on the earth in this time and I write Myself in it with all My word in these days, for I am the slaughtered Lamb and I am worthy to open My book and write Myself in it, to read it and to redeem with the glory of My word in it men of all tribes, of all language, of all nations and peoples, as it is written in the Scriptures about Me, the Father's Lamb and about the book with seven seals, which only I can open and sit in it with word and to give My book and My word to those on the earth, and I have at work with Me the great saints, to whom I have entrusted in time much work for the time of My second coming from near the Father to man. Amen.

I have come into the book by the gates. I have found watch in the garden for My word of today, for it is written in heaven a day of feast over the little garden of My word in these days.

Peace to you, little garden! Peace to My watchmen in you! Peace to your spirits and bodies, peace to you, sons! I am above the little garden with the great saints, for the place where I have seated you is clothed within great mystery, in the great glory of My coming, in My great word, by which I build My new making, the new heaven and the new earth, as it is written, for those that are seen are not and will not be, but only the new things are and will be, for we make them all, I, the Father and you, as little as you are, but I have at work saints and angels by your faith in My works of all time, and in My works of today with you, for simply and solely by man's faith I have built My entire plan over the earth, and the man is too unskillful, too unwise to believe that I am the One Who is and Who can work when the man is able to believe those that are written about Me to be, as sixteen years ago I founded through you the first new stone, the little garden of My word and the ark in it as a sign of new beginning of My work of coming with the saints, to do, as it is written to be, the new heaven and the new earth, which will last before Me, I, being the One Who builds and protects, for I have My word upon you and I have you as builders, sons, and I have near you My little people, and this is how I do, with you and with it, My visible work on the earth, My fulfilling word by its proclamation.

Sixteen years ago, through My bishop of these days and through you, I sealed the little garden of My Holy of Holies for Me and for you, so that I may pour Myself out with the river of life, with the work of My word of life giving to the crowds and to everyone who wants to drink and be alive afterwards, to be able to have My water, the water of the heavenly teaching on earth. Then I had you, My builders, My bearers, My receivers, for I gave you the gift of the holy faith and then I came to you and made My house with you, and then I had supper with you and lived with you, and since then I have worked over the earth through you and appeared with My work, which is you and everything I have built through you, because I have built a people and made it wise and then I have it established near you for work, for you sacrifice yourselves and I have into your midst the spirit of wisdom from Me and by wisdom we build everything, sons. Oh, it is hard for the man to stay with this work of Mine, but you have stayed, and this is My miracle, My power, which keeps you in it and which works you and works. I am now near you in the garden with those from sixteen years ago, the first in the synod of the saints, by which I came down into the garden in the day of the sanctification of the new little garden and of the ark on it, and even then I prophesied that I would set around the manger a string of heavenly pearls, new buildings of New Jerusalem, and upon which I may set My glory, My days of glory of the New Jerusalem on earth, and which announces Me within My new coming, to make all things new, sons.

In this day of memorial I have got with Me My trumpet Verginica[78] (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) and Andrew, the apostle. I have started with Verginica a new and clean people now, in the end of the time, as in the beginning of the Romanian nation I worked by the apostle Andrew and established a Christian people on the Romanian land as seed of the kingdom of the heavens on this land of it, a marked land, sown and sealed by Me to be in it with My glory in the end of the time, and behold, I fulfill, because I have on the hearth of this nation the mystery from the beginning of the earth, the little garden from the beginning, sealed by Me, now, and in which I built the man from the dust in the beginning and I made him a living being and then I put him in Eden afterwards. This little patch of land is now the beginning too, as it was then, and My mystery with you is great, sons, and My mysteries are hard to understand by the man who does not know to believe as Abraham, Moses, the prophets and the saints had, which I have chosen from the people and I enveloped them in My Spirit and I have worked My mysteries with them.

I woke you up for My word to come with it into the book, watching children within the gates. I cannot keep you now too much under My glory, for your body is weakened. I have worked now with you and with My people of today for the new garment over the house in which I, the

[78] Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet (See selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.)

Lord, had descended by My trumpet Verginica within the last seven years of the life of her body, and then I took her and set her among the great saints, and then I put her to the work upon you to lift you up to the work of the glory of My coming, and then to raise a new people with you, and with it near you, to build My works and My preaching over the earth. Oh, the labor was great for the new little dress of the house out of which I took My trumpet and set her among saints, but I have a dear reward for those who work for Me fulfilling the word of My mouth, set by Me upon them. I have set a new and clean little dress, wedding dress, sweet and beautiful garment over the house of My descent by My trumpet. I have been sighing with her and with the saints for twenty-seven years, after I took her among the saints, and I have been waiting that I, the Lord, may be able to work over this settlement with those that are My clean things. Ten years ago, I wrote a book of testimony over this city and over the house in which I sheltered My descent by My trumpet. Oh, I did no longer found in it and around it life of My life, and then I spoke out the word and said again that I, the Lord, would enter with My trumpet in this city, in this house, and I would not climb up some other way, and I would come in through the gates and renew My settlement, and behold the fulfillment, and My trumpet Verginica has got now her new name over her house and everything has been made new by her new name. Amen.

We go forward with My entire word of today and I will comprise within it My speaking of today, watching children. Now, bring together with My people of today a day of glory and prayer for this day of the celebration of the little garden of My word, for its sealing of sixteen years ago, and then I will set with you into the book the whole word of the day, for behold, we have to establish the day of the holiness of the house of My descent, and of the new garment upon it, for it is coming near the day of the feast of the raising to heaven of My trumpet Verginica, and in that day we will speak the word of My glory over this new work of the house of My descent and of the new well, for any house has got a well, and the name of this well will be the name of the three hierarchs, Basil, Gregory and John, the bishops from the beginning of My work by Verginica, and whom I, the Lord, sent to her to give her My blood and body (In real manner, palpable, seen, r.n.) after her preparation with fasting for the beginning of My word through her as word on the earth in the year of 1955.

Peace to you, My Verginica, peace! Behold your little house, adorned like a bride, as even from the beginning of your body, I have revealed the appearance for the citadel of New Jerusalem, which will rise and here it is on the mound on which it has been lying now! We have a sacrificing people, Verginica, and we have the spirit of the heavenly wisdom and the spirit of the holy faith into its midst, for by holy faith and by its wisdom we build them all new, so that all the old things may pass away and everything may be new. We will establish all the exhortations over this holy settlement too, renewed now by the word and by the view of its new garment. We will prepare all the order that is to be here and we will make it known. And now, you are released from the bitterness for your little house and Mine, for I dwelt with you in it, and then this house sighed and called Me out to give it what I am giving it now. I give it the rest of its new appearance and I give it holy orders for the entire heavenly order in it. Amen.

And now, have a rest, watching children in the way of My word, and we will work during the day all My word in the book for this day and for the feast of My apostle Andrew, and then the word for the day of the sealing of the house of My descent, as sixteen years ago I had My holiness over the little house of My word, over which I am coming down now as word on the earth. Amen.

You should also rest, sacrificing people, and listen to My power, which gives you power by the word to be able to work for Me when I ask you to do it. I will comfort you and in this way

I will show you My love and satisfaction, by which I bow to thank you for your labor for My glory with you over the earth. Amen.

We have a rest, watching sons and then we work in this day into the book. Be watchful, because I have set you at the work of the watch for Me, for if I can be word among you, all become new and all give Me glory, and those that are old pass away with a great noise, as it is written, and those that are new give Me praise within the word of the Holy Spirit over the earth and comfort My waiting of seven thousand years, by which I have been waiting for the new appearance of creation, a new heaven and a new earth, the renewal of everything, by the life of the age that is to be afterwards, and in which the world does not believe and it stays far away from the work of My glory, which will change the world in its appearance, when in a twinkling of an eye all will pass into the mystery of New Jerusalem, in the new age that will last, the age of life, sons, and its life over those who belong to it. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Open the book to enter again as word into it, watching children for My coming! Amen.

Oh, the work of My word has been beautiful and I have sweetly prepared My way to the man when the time has come to become word again on the earth. Open it for My children sons. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, knock to come in and speak, and you should hear Me and put Me into the book. Oh, how sweetly I have prepared Verginica! How sweet My work and My will were when it was to set her as the way of My word over the earth, more than fifty years ago! I have cleansed her of all that was worldly; I refreshed her with My wisdom and I made her hearing to be a heavenly one and I declared My preparation over it, and she was obedient to Me, and then, I, the Lord, passed through her with the glory of My word. I was coming in and out of her as word and I was calling to My bosom a people to nourish it through Me that it may be My people on earth. I was placing Verginica at a writing table and I was making Myself heard by her hearing and her little hand considerably were writing My calling word, by which I was calling the man at My table, and I was telling her: "Write, Verginica, write and let the things from Me be known, as I exhort you to work and to become the trumpet of My word." Then I gathered together a people to Me and I found little hands to write My word, and My Spirit was coming then into the body of My trumpet, and by her little mouth I was coming out as word, and those who were writing My word on the earth were writing it, as Joshua wrote My word coming out through Moses over the Israel people of that time. I made Verginica My vessel, My dwelling place, by which I was making My word spring up, and out of My mouth I was feeding those who were coming to hear My word; furthermore, the work of My word was beautiful, and I had prepared it sweetly when I came with it on the earth. Since then and up to this day the way of My word over the earth has been beautiful, children sons, and this is how I have had you the little disciples of My trumpet, and I started preparing My work upon you by My trumpet even while she was in her body on the earth, and then I sent her to you from the holy heaven, as I prepared her to carry My word from Me to man so that the man may be faithful to Me and then to become My son by obedience to My will, if he wants to be My son.

Oh, children from the gates, I was dictating the word of My mouth to Verginica in the same way, and she was writing it down and giving to the people. When I had near her those who heard My word by her mouth, I was entering her and making her falling asleep and then I was coming out by her mouth and My word was being written, for her body was weak because of sufferance, and I had such a great word, and this was how I was writing more word by those who were hearing Me from her mouth, and I was working so beautifully through her. Then I had her sister hear My word, for I was taking her from the body of her sufferance, and her little sister was also writing down a great deal of My word, for I, the Lord, was dictating My word to her, because I prepared her beautifully, and then I was entering her body as well, and those who heard it from her mouth were writing it down for Me. In addition, now I have got much word to write too and My voice has been coming down over the little garden of My word and I have been coming down with it into My book, and I have a sweet stairway when I descend, and I come down wonderfully into the book to grow you with the food of My mouth, My people of today.

Oh, I set aside the little garden of My word and then I have sanctified and built My ark within it and called it the Holy of My Holies, and I did this work sixteen years ago. Oh, sons from the garden, then I had My bishop of this time near you, whom I, the Lord, took him from among those who are today's servants of the church and prepared him and cleansed his heart and put in him the spirit of the holy faith, and then I worked upon him by sister of Verginica, and he received My word through her and sit down near you and listened to Me, and then he established My living church[79], and since then, I, the Lord, have had you as My watchmen, and I had you in the way of My word when it came with the clouds and made itself heard over the garden, and since then I have worked much, a great deal of word, and I also prepared you considerably and I am still doing it now, and I am still giving birth and growing a people, to have a people on the earth now, when I come with such a wonder for the fulfilling of My word coming out of My mouth, word which is being fulfilled, children sons. Oh, Verginica's little hand wrote much word after I had made her the vessel of My descent, the trumpet before My coming, and then she prepared the hand of her little sister and she wrote My word and hers even more, then the word of preparation upon them, and then, now, behold, very much again, I have made much of My word come down upon you to write it down into the book and that I may be the Word of God over the earth, as it is written into the Scriptures (Apoc: 19/13.) to work in this time of My new name and of My new word, which becomes bigger and bigger, the river of life, children sons, and the work of My word in these days is beautiful and I have prepared it sweetly, as a father does, and in this way I have found My way to the man when the time has come now to become again word over the earth, as I worked two thousand years ago, and I let the word of My Gospel of that time through My disciples of that time. Amen.

Behold, I come with the feast of the sealing by the spirit of the holiness of the little garden of My word, the feast of sixteen years ago, My people. I stand before you as word of feast and I have that day into My arms, when I announced Myself on the earth with the manger of My word, with the little garden in which I have glorified Myself above it and in which My entire word is written down, and I, the Lord, have turned it into a book, the book of My fifty years, for My book of fifty years is true, whose word was and is fulfilled. In this day of feast into your midst I have got the apostle Andrew and My trumpet Verginica into your midst. Moreover, I have them with Me as I had them sixteen years ago. Verginica had sown this new seed even since her time to bear fruit and that she may have disciples for Me, and her seed bore fruit and Verginica gave birth to sons for Me and then I made them My anointed ones and I took some of them and made them My stairway of descent for My word further from the Father to man, and let no one dare test and reason out the mystery of My descent, and your faith has to be great, My people, as great as theirs was too, and you need to work with Me and with them, as you have also worked this time and adorned within a wedding dress for Me the house of My coming down in My trumpet Verginica. This hearth has taken now the appearance, which was prophesied by Me, the Lord, by My trumpet, and behold, now I am coming down with My rest in the little garden in which I had dwelt as word for seven years by My trumpet's mouth and hand, after that the house from Maluri was torn down by My wrath over that unfaithful village in which I started the work of My word in 1955.

[79] See the selection topic: „The true church", r.n.

Sixteen years ago, I had the apostle Andrew and Verginica as witnesses with Me in the day of sealing of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem in these days, and then I brought under holiness the little garden of My word, and I have got them again as My witnesses, for the establishing of My holiness over the new earth adorned now, according to My plan over the house in which I, the Lord, came twenty seven years ago and took My trumpet to heaven, My people. Behold My feast with you on this day; and I have been preparing you now for the day of tomorrow when I will celebrate with you the feast of the memorial of the day of My trumpet's raising to heaven. Oh, get ready to receive My word for this feast and for the establishing of the holiness over the house in which I, the Lord, worked by My trumpet. Peace to you for all My feasts with you! Peace to you, My people! You have worked from dawn to night to prepare My new garment for the house of My descent. I comfort you with the saints, for My saints long after you with a holy longing, because I have made you My people. I bow to thank you for your labor for My glory. I watch to have you Mine and to comfort you with the saints, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– You make my entrance to Your people sweet, my Teacher. And I also let You sweetly come in my being then when You received me and made me Your apostle. I was Your first disciple when You chose Your disciples. My teacher, John, the Baptizer, sent me to You, and You received me and made me the disciple of Your miracles of that time, Lord. You worked with me then and sent me by Your Spirit to sow then over the land and over the Romanian people the seal of Your name and the Christianization of this people with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and this is how I fulfilled, and You called Romania, the first one You called, according to my grace of the first called to the work of discipleship near You, my Teacher. And behold, You took me and set me near to You in the day of the sealing of the Holy of Holies in those days of sixteen years ago, the day when I was celebration among the saints my raising into heaven near You, after I had finished the mission of Your apostle behind You, as all Your disciples worked after You went up to be again near the Father, after You were resurrected from the dead.

Oh, my comfort over the head of Your suffering one is sweet, the one You had on the day of the sealing of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem in these days in the little garden of Your word for the service of its holiness by his hand of Your bishop near Your anointed ones of today. His little heart, aggrieved since then and up to this day, has never been healed from grief, for he was pulled out from near You by those who were unfaithful, and the saints have been waiting for his glory, which he has got from You upon him, Lord. However, he has been kept in stocks, which are still not undone by those who have not loved or rejoiced over his being anointed by You, and his spirit has been sighing, Lord. Behold, You have that day into Your arms when You set by him and by those little of Yours the seal of holiness over the little garden of Your word sixteen years ago. Now I am leaving upon him the spirit of comfort, and I am bowing before You for him, praying to You to cut short the pain of his little heart, for he is tired of pain, Lord. Oh, bring his time and Your time with him and give him the victory over the unbelief of those who humiliate him! Lift up his forehead and refresh it before the multitudes, for You are the One Who can do this, Lord! Amen.

I also comfort Your sacrificing people and I sweetly exhort it to the working graces before You. Let Your people have a spirit of disciple, and let it prove it out with every passing day more and more, for You wait for this glory to be multiplied from him, and to be multiplied more and more, Lord. Glory to You into the midst of Your people! Peace to You with it in the day that is coming now, the day of Your trumpet, the day when You are placing over her hearth on the earth

Your holiness over the people's new garment, over the little dress of the house of Your descent, my Teacher. Amen, amen, amen.

– And I tell you: peace to you, My apostle! Your word is sweet, for this is how your Teacher is. We have days with sweetness in them, with great works over them and this is how we are to work. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Get ready, son, now, to put the holy seal over the hearth on the land of My trumpet, and remain working with Me, and then comfort Me with your spirit and with your little hands working for Me, by which I, the Lord, bring into view all those that are prophesied to be by Me through the work of My word of today, for My fulfilled word acknowledges its truth, and I, the Lord, am true, by My entire word spoken upon you, and which carries life in it, My life for man, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29/12-12-2007

The feast of the saint Virginia, the Lord's trumpet

(Excerpt)

I have entered to you, My people, and the heavenly hosts are with Me. I am staying into your midst with the feast of the ascension among the saints of My trumpet Virginia, the trumpet before My appearance, and you are her fruit and a green branch, My people, and I do My works with you, and you are happy, the one who came to see the fulfilling of My word that I spoke to be by this work of word, and behold, My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, son. Before taking My trumpet to heaven from her great and long sufferance in her body and spirit, I told her: "Virginia, you are not going to die, for through My work with you, I conceived a seed of new people, which you and I are going to feed greatly, and behold, a green blanket! Look at it, for it means the Christians whom We are going to feed in the end of My work, and then We are going to come together with the saints and rest from Our burdens and then We will speak the time of the fulfilling."

... In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am speaking the word and I am saying this: It is being blessed and sanctified your house on earth, Virginia, and your new name on it, as well. Amen. It is being blessed and sanctified by My word and by the prayer of My today's anointed ones the new well of this house, and it is receiving now over it the grace and protection of the saints hierarchs Basil, Gregory and John, the heavenly bishops, through whom I, the Lord, blessed and sealed the beginning of My work of word in the year of 1955 from My birth on earth. It is being blessed and sanctified by the word of Holy Spirit the water of this well in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. My angel, Michael, is setting now the angelic armies for the protection of this house, inside and outside of it. Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am going to set by the word on this day the whole order, which will be over this house. Amen.

Let Us embrace, Virginia, those who have given us their little hands to work with them the adornment of the temple of My descent to the people through you. Let us teach them on this day the gift, which had led you all the time on earth, the gift of the holy humility, the humility of spirit, which makes man beautiful on earth and in heaven, My Virginia.

Behold a heavenly fulfillment, My people! Ten years ago, I uttered this prophesy and I said that I would not jump over to come in again with My glory in the house of My trumpet, but I would come in through the gates and I would clean, adorn and bless this house again, which is a citadel before Me, and behold, I did as I spoke at that time, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, My people. Amen.

Let arise those who are dissatisfied with My progress of My work started through Virginia, let these arise and say where and how is the progress of this work that I started with glory and with its fulfillment of those that were prophesied? Oh, where else in My people are these fulfillments and these works prophesied to be? Let those, who murmur and rebel in discontent against My progress with My work through Virginia, answer this! Let them answer Me and let them give an answer to themselves, too: where else are My work and its fulfillments continuing to go further if not here, and in the way I am working and fulfilling now, by prophesying and fulfilling?

… – Oh, alarming trumpet, oh, My Verginica, your love is beautiful! Your mercy on your people has become now prayer to them for their holiness. Your love for My people has become, on this day of glory, the spirit of the teaching and of the wisdom for the gift of humility of spirit, which animates the bearers of God. Now you have among the sons of your people good fruit, which stands upright for the fulfilling of your people of the holy laws, as it was prophesied in this word at My beginning with you, when I was prophesying the making and the sight of the New Jerusalem and My people's worshipping before Me through his life pleased to Me, separated from sin and from the spirit of the world. Behold your home is receiving upon it the mystery of the New Jerusalem, and I have made the heavenly order come down upon it. Let everything be new in it, as it is written into the Scriptures that is going to be. Let all things be kept clean, and let all things have their own place useful for God. As at the Holy Liturgy the whole sacrifice for Me and for My people is worked holly for eternal food, let any of the work under this shelter be done in this way as well. Let it be done the work with an order in it, and let the things may not stay strung in the time of any work, and let any work start and finish in this way. Let there may not be gathered here any things besides the things, which are useful for those who serve here to the Lord's rest and to His work in those who take care here and in those who will come and worship with their lives lived and presented to the Lord. Let those who love the spirit of the flesh, the spirit of the body and of the world, take care if they want to come to worship here, and let them not touch these spirits foreign to God. Let the spirit of this house not remain alone, but rather let it always have in it a man pleased to God and to the Spirit of God. Let it be spoken here only spiritual words, only heavenly speaking, and let the song of glory and prayer come near and comfort the Lord. Let My people come and sing and give praise to God on feasts and let him give to this house of spirit of life, the spirit of your loving of life spirit, My people. Let a morning prayer be kept and worked here, then evening prayer and midnight prayer, and let the holy water and the incense be set everyday with their work over this renewed shelter. Those who want to pass by, let them not come here only to see, but let them rather come so that the Lord may see them instead, to see their living, their repentance and their holy and dedicated life to the Lord according to His will of today, for the Lord reigns here and the angels and the saints worship in this settlement renewed by His word, and He has established here the staff of His power, so that He may rule into the midst of His enemies as it is written. Amen. From time to time, at the right time, you, My anointed ones from the manger, come and serve holy water in this hearth, and let this settlement be sprinkled with it. Then, I, the Lord, will freshly bless and strengthen this hearth, and the angels and the saints will have their joy together with you here. Those who will live and take care of this hearth shall not bring their things here, but they should take only what is useful for this holy settlement instead, for I, the Lord, cry, I cry because I can no longer enter into the house of the Christian because of his things and so many of his colors which wear out My humble eye and My humble Spirit, and I mourn over the Christian, for he has been fed on God's word and the Christian has remained in the world, the Christian who has not loved Me and not listened to Me as I has been from My birth on the earth and to this very day, and the Christian has had no mercy on My humility, which does not come to terms with his gathering in which I cannot take a rest. Let those who come to worship in this hearth not climb up over My settlement, which is over My people ruled and led according to My order upon it. It should be told about the people who come so that they may be accompanied, to be guided properly, for the holy order has to be worked here to My rest and to the rest of My saints, and not as one might enter without order, without cleansing and without life in the Lord in the houses called for worshipping, but rather as one should properly come into the Lord's house; this is how they should come in here, those who come to touch the Lord's things, and when they come, then let them be sprinkled with holy water to be cleansed by it and this is how they should enter into this heavenly settlement, because this is not an earthly shelter. The spirit of the flesh, the worldly spirit and the self-spirit of the man should not come and touch anything here. I have been exhorting you for fifty years, My people, not to eat meat, not to drink foreign drinking without My blessing, and I have also been advising you to deny the fleshly sin, and behold, now I am asking you from you these to be able to touch those that I have set for holiness. Oh, I have been asking you for such a long time to break off from your heart the one who does not fulfill, and to have as father and mother and as brother and child the one who does My will on earth, as I established it by the word by My Gospel two thousand years ago, and which the Christian man, at least, he should have fulfilled in this way.

«He who believes in Me will never die», this is what I said by My Gospel, and I will come, My people, to speak to you about this word of Mine, which the man has not been able to fulfill, and which I spoke it in vain, for I died for man so that the man may not die then, but it has not been for the man to fulfill this word of Mine by this time, but only for those who have become My saints on earth. I will come, My people, with this mystery of word and I will sit openly with it before you. Amen.

… Peace to you, My hosts of saints and angels! Get rest, here, for here is the house of the Lord[80], the house for My people. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-12-2007.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

I give you My peace, Jerusalem, My people of Romanians, for My power has lifted you up to believe and that you may be My people and I may be your God, and you to be My son, for it is written: «But as many as received Him, to them He has given the right to become God's children, born of God by a new birth, by the power of the Holy Spirit, Who dwells in those who believe through My kingdom in them, for the kingdom of God is not in word but in power», My people. I have the clouds as My ascent and descent[81], and this is My way to you so that I may dwell with you and to have you as Mine. I go with the wings of the wind and I have the clouds as My ascent and descent, as it is written, and I come to you and sit with you at the table of word and then I fulfill before you the Scripture of My coming with the saints and I feed you mysteriously with the [80] «For in the last days the mountain of the Lord shall be glorious and the house of God shall be on the top of the mountains and it shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall come to it.

And many nations shall go and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob; He will tell us His way and we will walk in it: for out of Zion shall go forth the law and the word of the Lord out of Jerusalem». (Isaiah: 2/2, 3) spirit of faith, just as I was working with My disciples of two thousand years ago and strengthening their faith, and then I was showing them My power; for My kingdom is not in word but in power, and this working power helps the man to become My son, to believe in My coming and then to give himself over to it as My kingdom. Amen.

[81] See the selection topic: „He comes the same way as He ascended: He comes with the clouds", r.n.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb of the Father Sabaoth! The Word of God is My name in these days, (Apoc: 19/13.) and I come in through the gates My people faithful to My coming of today. Amen.

The meeting tent

Peace to you, because I find you watching for Me to become word for My people, children from the gates, for today it is a feast of saints and I fulfill the Scripture of My coming with the saints before My people. I set you as healers over My people in this day, and to give to the one who a appears before Me to give him a holy stature and then My kingdom in him, because I, the Lord, take care of him with great mercy, and I wait for him with patience to give Me image in him, to give Me a dwelling place in him by the faith working of miracles, the same as the spirit of faith worked within My bishop Spyridon and brought him the power of miracle doing for the strengthening of the faith in Me of those who listened from Him to the word of faith and making, for God's kingdom is not in word, as many know to speak about it, but it is in power, and for this heavenly work upon him the man needs the gift of holy humility, the humility of spirit, by which I may dwell in man appearing with the power of word sharing, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, the word that is fulfilled and this means God with people, for it is written in the word of the prophecy which says this: «Behold, God's tent is with the people, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more… and these words are the spirit of prophecy and are faithful and true». (Apoc: 21/3-5) And this is written for Me to fulfill. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is written in the Scripture that there will no longer be death, and I said when I lived on earth two thousand years ago: «He who believes in Me will never die». (John: 11/26) Oh, new Israel, blessed is the one who has always passed from death to life! Blessed is the one who knows to clean oneself from death and to be always alive, blessed! The faith does not belong to everyone, but only to those who know to turn their faith in deed, as Abraham knew, My people, for Abraham had in him the good dough, the gift and the spirit of holy humility, which makes the man see God, bear and share God, and not receiving any reward for this, but by his giving himself over for My life in man, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, what a sweet coming You make with Your saints, Lord, and You give them speaking over Your faithful people! Oh, how true is the word of the prophecy, which speaks about You: «Behold, He comes with His saints, being the First among tens of thousands!» He who sees You in Your word is the one who gives You to the people, Lord, glorified in heaven and on earth. The spirit of the holy humility makes this miracle in man, for the one who is humble within his spirit is the one who believes with great power by the proof of his faith, as when I spoke with the man of the natural wisdom, I proved him the power of my confession about You, testifying about You that You were true God of true God, of one Being with the Father, and through Whom the Father spoke and fulfilled. Amen.

Oh, it is not good for the natural wisdom of the man to show off above man; the wisdom which hinders the man from denying himself in order to follow You and not himself, Lord.

Oh, it is not holy, it is not well, Christ's people; it is not well to follow the man who has got his natural wisdom, for those who are in this way, crucify the Lord for their human glory, the glory between man and man, oh, people guided by God. However you should bow to the spirit of prophecy and seek with the spirit of the holy humility in you, for without this gift you cannot dwell with God without dying, without denying Him and then dying like Adam, who forsook God for sin. Take care, for the world and its spirit is a snake, son. Take care among the dead from everywhere; take care not to call them alive, for the one who is alive is the one who never dies after he has become worthy to believe in God, the One sent by the Father in man. Take care to stay with the saints not with the sinful ones, for the sinful ones will perish, because the sinful people are hostile, jealous, haughty for their mind, and they are traitors for you. However, you should stay with the saints, son, and you should be likewise too, and let God's power work through you if you are holy, for this is what holy means. Take care that the worries of life may not throw you down so that you may come to love the money, for the money is a snake in the way of the man who loves God. Because of my mercy for man, I turned the snake into gold and I gave it to serve the poor and wretched man and then I brought the gold again to the nature out of which I took it, for gold means nothing but man's perishing, a devil that keeps the man temporarily, for the one who has got gold cannot get away of its trap, and the man who tries to gain his life every day, that one loses it every day, always with every passing day, and behold, this is how the wise man is lost by his natural wisdom, and one like that cannot but die with every passing day of his life on earth. I exhort you to look into my life, people led by God, for I gave my life to God with every passing day, and the envious devil could not stay quietly when he saw me with God's power, with God's kingdom within me, and which I was confessing outside of me.

«Woe to you if the world speaks well of you», this is what Christs said. Blessed are you if the world hates you, this is what I tell you, the Lord's bishop, His bishop, for every day I was sacrificing my life to Him, and I was always lifting in Him and not outside of Him before men, and His power was in me, for God's kingdom is in not in word but in power, and this is how I am speaking today to all those who try to speak on the earth by the word and not by God's power, which appears as God in man. Amen.

Oh, Lord of the powers, let us give Your people of today Your power to overcome with it the wisdom of the wise, who boast about themselves before You, Lord! Make those that are proud be ashamed and exalt those who are humble. Exalt Your people with Your power, by which You have been establishing Your kingdom now on the earth among people, Lord! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, it is day of instruction over My people in your day of feast among the saints, great bishop, for the gift of your humility was great, and by it you gave Me a dwelling place in your being, and I deified you and made you My dwelling place and I was coming in and out and working by your faith, by your vessel bearing of God and by your holiness, which you were working every day before Me within the spirit of holy humility, in the spirit of the obedient love. My dwelling in you was sweet! You were a dwelling place of My kingdom and you served within you as servant, and behold what it means for someone to become Christ's servant on the earth, God's priest!

Let those who do not know what God means in man and through man keep silent! Let their speaking about God be silent if they do not know what God with man means! Let those who blaspheme you, My people, also be silent, for the spirit of prophecy is that which overshadows you from Me and teaches you life, New Jerusalem! Let the one who wants to become wise in this time bow before you, and only in this way I receive the one who tries to come to Me on the way of this word, by which I exhort and grow you, My people of today! He who does not love you, he who does not receive you on My behalf, I do not know that one on another way after he had found this way of My coming to you on earth for your faith in Me, and the one who believes in Me never dies, but he passes from death to life every day and he overcomes the world and the time, as I was, My people. Amen.

Oh, watchmen of My coming to My people and of its coming to Me! Take care today of the work of the gift of the holy humility over My people that is coming to Me and to you for My life in it, for its adornment before Me so that it may learn to become, and then let every son that believes in My coming of today be My kingdom and be joined with the spirit of life that sets the making over the man. I am giving you the fresh spirit of the holy teaching, and let My people come to you, for I am passing through you with a life giving spirit, the spirit that cleanses the man from sin and them from his self. Amen.

At the beginning of the work I am embracing now My people coming to the feast, I am comprising it within the word, and again, at the end of the day I will comprise again in the word and teach it, and let it take from Me and be then alive, more and more alive, so that I, the Lord, may be more and more beautiful in the one who cleanses himself for Me, for My kingdom in him, for the life of My people lived in Me, of the people of the new Israel. Amen, amen, amen.

*

On this day of feast I am standing before My people, who has come to the pool for cleaning and I am standing with you before it, cleaning sons over those who have become God's sons by faith and by the power that comes from it over the man. I want to give exhortation to My people, for the world cannot perceive the mystery of the new Jerusalem if it and its priests say that they have had enough all that they know by the church, but the priests of the world forget that I said by the Scriptures about the renewal of the world and about the judgment of the creature and about the resurrection of the dead, works that have to be set over the earth and over the man, works of Christ's church, sons.

Oh, My people, let the world know, the world that calls itself Christian, and let its priest know as well, that the mystery of the new Jerusalem is the work of the church, which works all its members, not only with one, for the church without the spirit of prophecy in it does not have the work of birth over it, for the making is done by word. The perfect priest in the work for the resurrection from the sin of the man is the one who makes God into body and word over the church. Let not only My body be always freshly sacrificed on the altar for the man's life, but let Me be refreshed over the man as My word. The priest who makes Me body and word, always new, always fresh, this is the mystery of the New Jerusalem over the earth, of the church, always renewed, always fed by the spirit of prophecy, with My Holy Spirit, Whom I promised to the church and about Whom I said then that He will take from what is Mine and speak to the church, to which I said that I would be with it to the end of the age by those who prophesy in it, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, as it is written. My church of new Jerusalem is the place and the time where I, the Lord, become body and I become word by the priest, and this is how I feed the sons to whom I give power to be My sons, and behold a mystery, which the limited man cannot understand, the man without faith like that of Abraham, like that of My saints, to whom I appear and speak by the work of the Holy Spirit, working through the church, because the mystery of the church is the work of the Holy Spirit, Who takes from what is Mine and speaks to the church, as He worked over the first Christians in the day of Pentecost, clothing them with His work, with His power, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, the spirit that proves that the man is baptized with the Holy Spirit, with the Jesus Christ's baptism, as John the Baptizer spoke about Me, as the One Who baptized with the Holy Spirit, to the one whom he baptized to the forgiveness of their sins.

Oh, sons, who come to the pool, love the work of the cleansing of your spirit and soul, as you take care and clean your body and your clothes on your body and all of your other things. However, as an exhortation for the good victory of your salvation I tell you, as the apostle Paul said: «Let not many of you be teachers». Oh, sons, it is hard for the man with the spirit of humility, and that is why he does not have to pretend to be a teacher, and that is why it is well for him to stay and rather learn and listen from Me, for I have come again on the earth as Teacher now, because it is written for Me to come again for the living and for the dead and to come with My endless kingdom over the earth, as the work of the spirit declares every day the faith confession of the church, but behold, when it comes to believe what it says, it does not believe, sons.

Oh, My people, the man has got used to be right against another man, and this does not mean love, and it does not mean the humble spirit and its gifts. The man's love to God is choked even because he does not have in him humility for his neighbor, humility and love, sons. He who has got humility of spirit for God, that one is not received by God, but only if he has got confessors of his humility, because that what one does to his neighbor, he does it to the Lord. Oh, son, I teach you what love is and together with it I teach you what cleaning is. I teach you how to confess from the evil in you and then to come to life again, to have power to become a son of God by faith and by love. He who loves God, that one loves Him without any guilt against his neighbor, and only in this way the man is able to love God. Amen.

Oh, do not become teachers upon each other, for brotherhood is not worked in this way, but rather fulfill Me in you, for I have come to save the world not to judge it, and this is how you are to work upon each other, sons. The work of the Holy Spirit is comfort, for the Holy Spirit is the Comforter, and He takes from what is Mine and brings to you by the spirit of prophecy, as it is written. Oh, you should work like the Comforter upon each other, sons, and this is the work of the brotherhood that does not ask, which does not wait for, but which gives. Therefore, seek to get used to take from Me and to love My love in you, sons, for behold, the priests of the world rely on the Scriptures and that is all, and they do not give it further to the people with the teaching in it, as they do not take it on themselves with its life in it as well; but rather, on the contrary, they close Me in its pages as well and they do no longer know Me when I am speaking now, as in the Scriptures of two thousand years ago, as it is written in them to come again and to come with the saints, for when John, My disciple, wrote the book of Apocalypse from the Holy Spirit, I, the Lord, the One enclosed within a rainbow, told him: «Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand, for you have to prophesy once again to the peoples to the nations and to many kings, and blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the citadel, for if any man shall come in other way, if any man shall add to them, other kind of teaching to this teaching of entrance to the tree of life, the Lord shall add to him the plagues which are written in this book, and again, if any man shall take away from the words of this prophecy, God shall take his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy citadel, which are written in this book, for those who commit sin cannot enter this citadel prophesied in this book, but they are left outside», as it is written. (See also Apoc: 22/10, 14, 18-19). Amen.

Oh, My people, take a look into the book of the Apocalypse and see in it that it is written: «Blessed are those who wash away their robes that they may have the right to come in to the tree of life to have dominion over it!» Oh, My people, you should learn this book as it is, as it teaches how to come in to God and to His table and into the citadel of the New Jerusalem, about which John wrote, the disciple of My Gospel for the end of the time and for My coming again from the Father to man. Oh, you should not do like the priests of the church, who do not understand this book and who cut their part and their way to the tree of life and try to climb over to God without washing their robes away, without wearing clean robes before Me, and they are those who take away this book from them, which teaches the man to get ready and to be clean; moreover, they even try to add to it the entrance to Me in the way of the man, but the blessings and curses that are written in this book of John, the book of the man's preparation to the tree of life, these two will speak for each man, and they «will enter to the tree of life, those who wash away their robes, and those who love falsehood, disobedience and insubordination will remain outside», as it is written in John's book. Amen.

I teach you what the preparation is and I teach you the washing away of your robe, son. Give Me your heart and come to Me to make it new and that I and My life may dwell in it. Amen. I will always teach you if you come to the pool, for I have worthy sons for your making from Me, but get used to have a clean robe always, son. I am the One, Who washes you away, as I washed My disciples' feet and taught them the washing away from all the things on the earth so that wherever they went on the earth the world may be able to see Me in them and with them, and then I told them to wash each other away and to cleanse each other, and I had also taught them what love was and then I made them teachers over the nations and I told them: «I in you and you in Me, and I will be with you to the end of the age and I will take from what is Mine and let you know and teach you everything», and this is how you are supposed to understand My word of today, and by which I exhort you to make you worthy for the tree of life and have dominion over it, My people, and that you may also know how to come in through the gates, as John wrote in his book, and you shall not take away or add to it for the fulfillments from this book, My people, but you should rather wash away your robe and be like Me, son, for I am the tree of life, and I give Myself over as a gift to those who get dressed for it. Amen.

Son, I remind you of the gift of the holy humility. Hold it into your little hand, for it teaches you love and the lack of judgment. You have to be My son, not a judge over sons, for My word is judge and urges the man to repentance for the forgiveness of his sins and then to the baptism with the Holy Spirit, so that the one who is baptized may be seen as Christianized, because the sign of the one who is baptized is the Holy Spirit and «rivers of living waters will flow from his mouth», as it is written.

Oh, My people, if you have come to the pool, then I have exhorted you. Be careful that My kingdom in you is not in word, but in the power of its fulfillment, so that we may overcome death, death and its sting. Take care to stay with the saints and not with the sinners, for the sinners are enemies, they are jealous, they are haughty in their mind, and then they betray you, and blessed are you if the world hates you because you do not take after it, for this is the sign that you love Me and that I love you. Amen. Oh, My people, you should be a holy nation, as it is written, and you should be a royal priesthood, not worldly, for you are people earned by God, son. Take from Me and learn what it means God in man and through man, My people. Amen.

Oh, watchmen of My coming as word to My people and to every man who takes the teaching of life on this table! In this day you have been taking care of the work of the gift of the holy humility over My people that has come to the pool, to Me and to you for My life in it. I have included it in the word from the beginning and the end of the day of teaching. Let Me be more and more alive, more and more beautiful in the one who cleanses himself for Me, sons, for My kingdom in him, for My people's life lived in Me, the people of the New Israel, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

12/25-12-2007.

Text emphasis in bold belong to the redactor (editor).

2008

The feast of the Lord's Birth

It is a feast of birth, My people, and I, the Lord, am coming to you as word and sitting on your arm to comfort with you My uncomforted sigh. I do no longer strengthen My gates, but only bring them under My submission to be able to give you through the gates My sighed word and My uncomforted Spirit, with Whom I stay in the gates between Me and you, between Me and man. Two thousand years ago I comforted the shepherds and the Magi, and I comforted them through the angels and by the spirit of the revelation of My mysteries and I foretold them My birth on earth, Man and God, but I did not get comforted Myself. My mother the Virgin and I did not stay on earth but only within sighing, only within pain, and then only in distress among people. Behold, I am not otherwise today too. I am coming down to you only in sighing, My people, for I have made a heavenly manger for Me and a house of descent in those by whom I let My written word come down in the little garden, which I, the Lord, has called God's little garden into the midst of the Romanian people, and in which I find those who put Me into the book, when I am born as word in the garden, when I come from the Father as word on the earth after two thousand years since I came in a body born of the virgin body of My mother the Virgin, after I was born and not made, born before the eternity, the only One born of the Father, true God of true God.

Full of power I descended two thousand years ago on earth among people being conceived from the Holy Spirit and from My mother the Virgin and I became a man. Full of power I laid down My life for man and I was not weak. I, the Lord of the powers, gave Myself over into the hands of those weak in their life and faith so that by My death, prepared by them, and then by My resurrection, prepared by the Father Sabaoth, My Father, I may give new birth to the man, to give him the resurrection from death, which he has built with every passing day; however, the man does not give anything for his life as I gave My life for him to take it back again and to give it as a gift to the man and the man to have life; and I did not speak any word that was not fulfilled when I spoke two thousand years ago, that the man who would not eat of My body and blood would not have life from Me in him, for the man is without mind from heaven and he has got his own mind and he is weak in his own mind.

Oh, behold, now, after two thousand years, I am coming down again full of power from the Father to renew the world, to fulfill the Scriptures of new birth, and behold, I set on earth the judgment by the word to breathe repentance on man, for the forgiveness of his sins and for his resurrection from the death due to his sin, just as I was resurrected from the death brought upon Me by the sinful man, for the sinful man cannot do anything except death, and life does not come from man but from God instead.

Full of godly power I am becoming word on your table of feast with the heaven, My people of today. I have earned you by pains, My people. I have lowered down My fresh Gospel of today and I have called you under My vine, people who has grown within loving hands by the heaven, by the loving hearts of your salvation, and you are small, the last of My people. I would go on growing you with more perfect love, but I can hardly work on earth today, and with such a great difficulty am I able to speak My full word as it is born in My heart for your building. Oh, I can hardly come down to you to shepherd you and to keep you Mine, for the hardship for My coming down is great; it is greater and greater, My tiny people. Oh, you are still little and tiny and I cannot grow you within those things from Me as much as I have to give you, and behold, I come around you in sighing with My invisible angels to protect you and to feed you somehow and to have you as My people. It is a time of hardship for Me to you, for inside and outside of you the wind blows and stands against Me for your life, for the lack of steadfastness of those who butt against My face today according to their will without God, according to their lack of faith, stands in My way so that I may not shepherd you according to the food that I have My food for you, sprinkled with My tears, which I shed for you in the bowls in the hand of My angels that gather My pain, and from which I break little by little to show you how much I have suffered. Behold, I sacrificed Myself not only on earth full sufferance when I gave My body as a sacrifice for the man's life. Today I am sacrificing Myself within My spirit in heaven and on earth for your life, My little people from My bosom. Oh, I would cuddle you more and more to My bosom to nourish you and to make you perfect for Me, but My word can no longer come up to you as it is in Me, but it comes little, it comes small, and it comes carefully in its speaking, for I have in My way unfaithful and unfulfilling people and they do not let Me work in full power as I am able to, and they set limits to My speaking and fulfilling and shake My coming and My way, and behold, I cry with those who cry, and I cry being in hardship inside and outside of you, people born of My word of today. I cry within the gates and the gates cry in Me, son. I cry in those, whom I trust for the word of My coming down to you, and I cry with a mourning of birth and I have nowhere to be born perfectly. I do not find a house for shelter, I do not find anyone to comfort those who bear My way from the Father to man, but I rather find opposers and traitors, I find beatings and unfaith, I find judas and pilates, who wash their hands away from My blood, and who give Me over to judgment before unbelievers, and I also find desire of revenge in man. Oh, within such great pains I feed you in order to give you birth always and that you may be My newborn little people. Oh, by such great hardships I, the Son of God, the One full of power, Lord of powers in heaven and on earth, come down and bow before the man not receiving of God, to be able to shepherd you without climbing over the gates, and My gates are always beaten, always threatened by the works of those who do not believe and by their mouths, for I have always told you that all are smashed against the gates to weaken them and to throw down the fence of My seedling; however, I am the One Who protects you, I am the One Who shepherds you, only for you to be faithful to My coming down to you and faithful to the obedience, which I ask for your protection, My people.

Oh, children from the gates, I am born as word of mourning in a day of the feast of birth children sons. Oh, if I can no longer support you, how am I supposed to comfort you in the hardships where I always, always find you, in which I mysteriously comfort you, sons, I comfort you with heavenly powers, I comfort you with the saints and with the angels, I comfort you with the spirit of the holy patience, which I always, always give you, for My victory and its way has become hard for Me. The man has been making My way to the people worse and worse, but I dwell in you with My whole coming, with all its pain, which My people cannot bear. Oh, bear it for Me, even if you are going to mourn without being comforted until the day when I wake with terror all those who are standing against Me and against you now so that I may not be able to work with the whole mystery of My work over the earth now. This word, by which I pass you from the heavenly things into those from the earth, relying on you, is not a sweet song or a mourning song, but it is rather My coming with the judgment by the word. Amen. I come to judge the living and the dead by the word, for I told everybody two thousand years ago: «It is not I, but My word that will judge you». Amen.

Oh, children in want but victorious by My greatness upon you! I have not come to judge the world, and if I judge it by the word because of its works without God between earth and heaven, then I want to exhort it to repentance and resurrection, sons. Blessed are those who receive you with My word to man! Blessed are those who listen to you with love and glory, for this glory is the fulfilling by obedience to My word, by which I pass today to man, relying on you. I take care more and more to speak a little bit to you so that I may not stir up the wickedness towards you, the work of strife, the one born two thousand years ago near the manger, in which I came on earth as a child born of the Virgin. However, behold, I speak to you all the time, but mysteriously so that I may not be heard and I do it to strengthen you and to give you work to do for Me. Work for Me, sons! Even if you are in want, work for Me, well sons! Listen to Me to be My children, as I have made you My children and you are My children-sons by obedience. Moreover, let My small people not forget that you are My word in its midst, the Word of God. And let it not be hard for him to believe this mystery, let it not be hard for My people but rather let My people of today be faithful to Me. Let My people listen to you and to Me, and let it take from you and from Me, for you have, not yours but My things for him, because I am the One in you, and he who does not take My word in this way, that one narrows My way and makes you work as much as the man does. However, I exhort you to take care of those who love Me strengthening you for Me, for those who love you this way, love Me and not you. Endure with love all the hardships that are upon you and seek after the comfort in pains from those who cry with you, from those who are not afraid of pains. I am the mysterious One. In addition, you should be the same into the midst of My people. This is how we will work until the fields are ploughed for a new fallow soil, for a new seed, for the new sowing that I reveal it to you by the spirit of prophecy, for the spirit of prophecy is My testimony, as it is written. Oh, do not stumble against man. I am the One Who set you to work for Me and not like man; from Me and not from man, sons. Oh, if I could work without any obstacles through you that what I have to work now, it would be seen the power of My victory over the darkness in the earth, which keeps the people in death, but we will be able to work that way, and we will be able to work soon, soon, for I have come to be the Victor, and the visible God, and there will flow rivers of tears from the eyes of those who could not see with them My mysteries hidden in My word upon you and in you, sighing sons and more and more pressured within the gates. Peace to you! It is very hard without peace in you. There is only sufferance in you. Peace to you in sufferance! Endure it strengthening one another, even if now it might be for you to work much and according to My will against man's will. Oh, do still endure! Once with the time of endurance there comes the time of the mysterious time by endurance and its fruit comes, children sons, it comes. Amen.

Oh, people of the birth from above, get used to listen to God. My birth in you is worked by obedience, for My mother listened with faith until I was born and then again until she gave Me to the Father by the patience under her sighing.

Oh, mother Virgin, My mother Virgin, after We will have established the day of My birth We will speak with Our little people, mother, for the people needs to be grown up and exhorted for its growth and obedience of everything We advise it, mother. We come with the day of the birth of God the Word, We come on earth with this feast, mother. The children that make our coming into the book are tired with mourning. They wait, as We do, for My salvation from the man who keeps Me under a bushel, under the lack of working, mother. I have a sweet time in My arms to set it on earth and to establish peace over Our least people, mother.

Oh, people nourished with milk from heaven, get used to cry like God and I will have comfort from you. Get used to be affectionate, for I can hardly endure from the stiff-necked man, son. Oh, get used to be a child, to be able to give you growth. Peace to you! Get used to be born from pains, not from joys. The birth is that with pains. I want you to be in My image and after My likeness, My people. Stay under the hand of those whom, I, the Lord, gave them making for you, the new making. Give them power to be able to work you, for I have given to them. Help Me, helping their power for you, so that you may be able to grow beautifully out of their work upon you, for they are My word into your midst and not theirs, as long as they can give Me to you, when I give Myself to them to be able to give Me further. Oh, do not let them cry alone. Get used to crying, My people, to cry as well, for of the tears and sighing of those who know to cry like God, the new world will come out, the age that is to be and which has to be discovered, called to come, My people. Amen.

We pass from one day into another and We come down as word of birth on earth. The angels sing with their angelic tears for the birth of My word and they attend to My coming down singing in tears. I can work by those who cry attending to My coming down. By what they are, and not I, I cannot work those of today lowered down by My for the new birth of the world. This birth is the Scripture enveloped within mystery and which we will work mysteriously, children in sighing within the gates, and you should catch holy powers so that we may step from one day into another with feast and word of birth, for I, the Lord, the One born in Bethlehem two thousand years ago, am born by the word again in the manger chosen by Me on the hearth of the Romanian people. Amen.

I call you in a whisper, in a mystery, Romanian people, get born with the new birth, of My word proceeded in these days! Do not be hard of hearing! Lift your eyes up to Me to see with them those that are My mysterious things into your midst, My country of coming from the Father again on the earth! It is beautiful the birth from heaven of all that will be on earth by their renewal! Get used to believe in the Lord, Who comes to you as word of birth from above, for My Scripture of two thousand years ago did not give you birth from above, and you did not want to hear its voice of birth to be born, to be as beautiful as I am, My country, for the one who is born of Me is as beautiful as I am. Behold, I have an open book into your midst. It is My voice, My word of the new birth of the world, the fulfilling of the Scripture for the renewal of the world. My whisper is calling you to the spring. Open to Me, Romanian people, open and come to My calling, for I sit at the table of My wedding on your hearth and I wait for you to come and I wait for you to be and I wait for you, My country of today. I sing this carol for your birth. Open and come into the gate to receive My carol for your birth of My word of today upon you, the Word of God, Who calls you to be the new heaven and the new earth, after everything will pass away with a great noise, so that I, the Lord, may be with the future glory, with the day without end of your birth of all, when all will come to life and will be, oh My country to which, I, the Lord, come after two thousand years from My birth in the Bethlehem of Judea, a Child born of the Virgin and not welcomed by the people on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2007 (Old style / after the Julian calendar) / 07-01-2008 (N.S.)

The Synod of the Lord's Mother

In the second day of the feast after birth, I, the Lord, come down again as word into the book and let on your table food from Me, word coming out of My mouth for your life and for its renewal, and this is how I feed you, as a mother that chews the food in its mouth and then takes it out and gives it to her son, so that he may grow being fed by the food in her mouth, people born from the abundance of My word in these days of God's son, Who comes with the clouds as it is written. Come son, come My people, let us sit at the table with the wisdom, Who was born before the morning star and Who became flesh, born of the Virgin, so that He may grow into a perfect man with the people, full of grace and truth, word of the Father's word. Come, My people, come to learn and to become My fulfilled word, as I have always taught you and urged you, for I can make you, since I can speak upon you the word of making. Your mind is the dwelling place, which is able to receive Me or not into your inner being, but even from the beginning God has breathed a wind on earth, refreshing of man's soul, and the man is able to receive from it, the spirit of faith from the mysterious wind, the spirit of God's knowledge and then the spirit of God's fear, and behold, this is how the man is born of God on the earth, and then he worships Me like Abraham, for this was Abraham's birth from Me, and then He believed like God and then God gave Himself over to him by the mystery above nature of God's works between God and man, first by faith, then by sight and then by the fulfilled word, because Abraham became God's bosom then, and God became Abraham's bosom, and who can see with the eye or touch by hand this mystery above nature of the holy faith, a faith that does not examine but rather is fulfilled beyond the knowledge and view of the passing man? Oh, this is how Abraham has remained, the man who does not pass away, the man born of God, and in whose garden those, who are faithful like Abraham, take a rest, from him and up to this day, My people.

Oh, the fulfillments of God's word are not as on earth. A man born of God like Abraham, does not look on the earth to see the fulfilled word, spoken by God, but he rather looks in God and in His dwelling places, for I do not dwell with the people in their dwelling places, in those that are made by their hand in time, but I do live with the fulfillments of My mysteries in My dwelling places, in My time with man, and not in man's time, for during Abraham's time I was on the earth among people and among kings, and I was through Abraham, and I was through Melchizedek, and I was greater than all those who rule over the nations, and I was resting mysteriously with the fulfillments of My mysteries through the faithful ones, who were My people, My homeland and theirs into the midst of the nations on the earth, and of the kingdoms over them, for My fulfilled word is My kingdom over the earth, and My kingdom has nothing, nothing in this world, but it has in My homeland on the earth, the homeland of those who believe like Abraham, see like Abraham and fulfill like him, without the world having a share in God's things, which are not of this world, as neither Abraham was of this world, when he got up with his people and overcame the kings with their weapons and their armies of human people, of people not born of God, for the people are born by God's word; they are born of the word and those, who are born of God and are, remain mysteriously among people, but they are from God and not from the people, and this is how they stay on earth in God's kingdom and not in man's kingdom, which is not from God, for I prevailed against Herod in the time of My childhood, for I was the King Who came from the Father with a kingdom, which did not fall down as Herod's kingdom fell, who fought against My kingdom believing that he could make it fall before him, but it was not so, for the one who raises the stone receives the stone against his head, and the one who raises the stone does not overcome otherwise. Amen.

Oh, I have not got anything in this world, My people, and you are not supposed to have either, for this is how We overcome the world, in this way, by not having anything in it, just as Abraham had not had anything in it, and this is how we overcome the world, and are above it, and this is how it is understood the Scripture, by which I told My disciples, who used to have faith in Me, and I told them this: «Cheer up, I have overcome the world!» Amen.

Oh, My people, this is how you are to believe in My words, son, for here it is what kind of God you have on earth with you! Oh, I would teach you more, much more I would open wide My little bundle to give you from it for you to understand and then to believe and see like Abraham, and to see the way he saw God under the oak tree, but you should believe like Abraham undoubtedly and to increase in you his faith from under the oak tree, by which he saw and understood and believed God, Who was enveloped within mystery by those that are seen and which hide God under them. Amen.

Oh, how beautifully I have come on earth to be the King of the kings and the Lord of the lords! What a mystery this beauty was, My coming among people within great mystery, under the glory not understood by people as glory above the glory perceived to be that way! My mother the Virgin was of a royal kind and it was the greatest on earth according to God's mystery, but who knows this so that he may worship with this glory this greatness of the queen Virgin, My mother? The kings of the nations rule over them and those who belong to God reign over creatures, and the creatures serve Him within a mystery, and behold, God's kingdom is not of this world, but on the contrary, this world is included in God's kingdom, which the kings of the nations do not understand, do not see it and do no praise it, just as those, who had the opportunity to see Me while I was revealed on earth were not able to praise Me, but there were still some who saw and knew Me, confessed Me and preached Me, those to whom it was given by the Father to know Me as the Master from Him over the creatures, the Master of the creature, the mysterious Master, reigning over the faithful and dwelling in them and fulfilling through them, as I fulfilled through My mother the Virgin the coming of the Son of God from the Father on earth to the people and as I am fulfilling Myself today by My coming again from the Father to the man, clothed within the mantle of the word and speaking from under it, the robe which the man does not understand when it sees it written into the book and it being settled face to face with man.

Oh, My people, the word is the mystery not understood to be so on the earth, and I exhort you to be wise and to be faithful when I teach you to take care and to use your faith in My words, for I have taught you no to speak any kind of word by your little mouth, for all the words are collected and all prove the man with God and God with man within a great or small measure or with no measure at all, and this is how the man comes together with God and with those who come out of this mouth and which lifts him up or brings the man down face to face with Me.

Oh, son of My people, I do not rejoice but I rather grieve much when I see you seem that you do not hear the word by which I want to set you before Me according to My will. Oh, son of My people, do not take what does not belong to you or what do you not work to have. If you want to have then build so that you may have, and if you do not build, then be content with what you have from Me. Oh, do not be discontent for I am the King of the creature and I have given Myself as an example of humility and patience, and these are love, love with propriety in Me before you. Oh, do not behave like man, as the people behave between man and man, but treat the man as I treat him, because if you do not work this way, you are not My born one, you are not born of God like Abraham, but you are born of the manly seed and you work like that. Oh, here it is how I teach you the birth. I teach you the birth from Me, as I give to work to those set by Me before you for your making from heaven on earth, for I work through the gates for you, son, as I worked through Abraham, through Moses, through David, by whose mouth My mouth was speaking, prophesying, establishing and working, for My testimony is the spirit of prophesying, and seek to understand why I have started to press My finger on this word again and again, for I want you to know Me when I work into your midst with My working Spirit by the spirit of prophesy. Oh, I want to teach you the wisdom of birth and your fulfillment by all My works upon you, and their fulfillments through you, the one faithful to them, if you work by faith like that of Abraham, who did not question, who did not doubt and who was praised from earth to heaven, from those that are seen to the mysterious ones of them from which they proceed.

Oh, you are tiny, My people, so little for the wisdom of the mysteries, but My teaching upon you is understood by the natural wise people when they hear it from My mouth that is speaking above you, and behold, the natural wisdom helps the faith, as it helped Abraham. I have exhorted you to be smart, My people, to be able to understand and to believe Me by all that I bring upon you. If I, the Lord, have unsealed My spring for you, My mouth, which becomes word upon you, then stay well, stay with fear and be attentive, because if you get used to your business, with those things in your life and that is all, then you cannot stay within My counsel, at My mouth, to take and to understand from God. I would like you so much to be able to please Me by everything you are, but My pleasure is not according to man's pleasure so that I may rejoice in this way from man, but the man has to learn which My pleasure is, and then to become the work of My waiting, for I long to love him in this way, to have something to take from man after he becomes My pleasure, as My Virgin mother did, the greatest soul on earth, the most beautiful, the most pleased to God, God's rest on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, my sweet fruit, fruit of my womb after my heart conceived You within it! You are the fruit of the Father and You are my fruit, the fruit of my soul, dear to God, the fruit of my soul, giving rest to You, Lord born on earth from my soul, giving rest to God, for only in this way You are able to dwell with Your rest in man! Oh, how beautiful, how full of word and grace, how great the mystery of the word in this day and its wisdom are, but Your people is small, very little, Lord son, and You seek to make him like Abraham and to be able to fulfill Your mysterious kingdom through him on earth with the people, the heaven on earth, as in heaven so on earth in the midst of the kings who reign over nations and rule upon them. Oh, what a beautiful spirit You put in those from the gates when You come to give it as exhortation over Your people! We stay and listen to the spirit of the new making over Your people, for You have room in its midst with Your wisdom, which tells the evil to get out as a stranger and the beauty of Your life to be able to get in man, the cleanness of the heart in sons, the understanding of the clean and healthy mind, Lord, for the man has to cleanse his mind, to sieve it out through a fine sieve, so that the man may work then only those that are Your whole things, only those that You need in man and not the man's, and then the man's heart receive in it the rest of his mind, the work passed through the sieve to remain in the sieve only the godly things, as my mind worked them and only them, Lord born on earth for man.

Oh people carried on the arms of the mercy of my Son, Jesus Christ! Take great care to value the Lord's gift into your midst, for the old Israel did not appreciate it and then perished if it did not appreciate it. Take care to appreciate those from God so that this gift may be given to you, the gift of the clean heart, which helps the mind to be God's dwelling place and not yours, if you belong to God. Be content with what you have when you start to bear from God, and this is a great wisdom, great and unspoiled measure, for those without any measure from God spoil the man, and they make the man fall. I tell you this from the example of my life, for after the Lord announced me by the angel about the One, Who cannot be contained, that He would dwell in me to be born as a Child and to grow into a perfect man and to be Master of everything, a visible Master, I became little, very little, and this was the way I lived all my time on earth before any creature and before any man, small or great, and this is how I proved myself that I was God's dwelling place, the Lord dwelling among men, the great One by His humility. Oh, look at those who guide you, little and tiny people. They are great by their humility, and which many do not see, because it is the working one, not that which is understood by man to be humility. God rests over them because of their humility, and it is painful in heaven over all the heavenly armies that God cannot find humble vessels among people, humble hearts like God in order that He may make them into His path to the people, a stairway from God to man, and from man to God, for God descends and ascends, ascends and descends on the stairway for man, son, on the stairway of the humility of man's heart prepared by God for the humility in it, humility before God, not before men, and which becomes God's dwelling place among people and for the people, just as God also made Me His dwelling place for my humility. The mystery of the clean heart has a visible work, son, as the mystery of the unclean heart has, and if you, who are God's people, do not learn the mystery of the clean heart, then you work something else within you, and you can make wounds to God if you do not learn the faith in God and its work then before God. The one who is faithful to God takes from God and works like God and not like man for the life of the people. The one who is not faithful to God takes from the devil and works like the devil for the men's death, son, as you know that the parable of the adder is, which got up with the work of the devil and got into the bear's way and told him that the deer wanted to kill him so that he might be the king over the world of the animals, and in this way the adder got into the bear's heart the death hatred against the deer and the bear got up to kill the deer, because of the adder's words. However, the adder rushed to the deer to tell him that the bear comes to kill him, because he heard that the deer wanted to be king, because he had got the crown built by God on his head, and when the bear came to the deer to kill him, the deer bowed before down him to give him honeycomb as to such a king that he was, and then the bear calmed down and found out from the deer that by no means did he crave after the throne of the animals' kingdom. Oh, behold what kind of work does the unfaithful one work, the one who is discontent, to whom the devil comes and gives him according to the work of his heart, for the devil has a big hook over the discontented man. This parable, which shows the face and the works of the devil and of death in man, has to be understood for the wisdom of the mind and then for the cleanness among brothers, for the wisdom from God comes only over the clean hearts and which shows their work and their God, the God Who overcomes death in man with its entire darkness, and the Lord pours out all these lessons of life upon you by the humility of the hearts of those who exhort you to God's life in you, people of God's Son, born from God in my virgin body and then in it among people. Oh, learn your dwelling in God's kingdom and learn about the dwelling of God's kingdom and of its light in you, for it has an illuminated face and it works likewise in you then when you are born of God, just as I, the mother Virgin, made God's mysterious work among people, work above nature, giving birth to child and virgin in my body, mother of a child grown in my virgin body, a virgin body, which nurses a born child at the bosom, a child to be nursed. Oh, blessed is the one seized by God's mysteries, for one day my Son told those who guide you in His name, and He told them this: "The unfathomable mysteries are the mysteries perceived by the man who is perceived by them," and this is how they remain in the Lord's mysteries, and this is how they remain in them, and this is how God leads you on earth to Him, people of His mercy for man. Oh, learn this mystery and the work of the clean heart, son, for the one who is faithful takes from God and works like God within his life, and the unfaithful one is the one who takes from the devil and works like the devil for his death, but you should seek after the mystery of your clean heart and after the spirit of the holy faith, which loves those who humble under the hand and under the mysterious work of God's Son, the only One born of the Father before eternity and the only One born of my virgin body, before the morning star, as it is written. Amen.

Within a great and virgin affection I have sat in a counsel of new making for Your people, my Lord and Son, shy little child and perfect man at the same time, for these both are Your being all the time, child God! Let us work, dear Son! Let us make Your people a child, to teach him more and more the mystery of the clean heart, the mystery of the virgin heart, for the wisdom of his heart is his new birth, that from You, mysterious Master of the creature, for You came so mysteriously and were born a child on earth then when You came! My life and behavior was decent before You, and my passing among people in the time of my body was also with propriety, and this is how I made the people godly for You, and this is how I made clean and young people for You, dear Lord. Oh, this is how You and Your disciples worked and called and worked and made them young, for You were the One Who could make them Yours. It makes me suffer just like You for all those who, in the midst of Your people, do not love the mystery of their making in Your image and after Your likeness, and these things are known from far away, and they are an obstacle of Your godly glory, which waits at this border, Master of the powers by Your humility and by Your godly endurance before the unfaithful man through his works, which do not let themselves be kneaded by You into the light, Lord Master by Your humility before man. Oh, teach them with power, teach them! And all those who love You with faith and obedience and with contentment for these, Lord Master, will receive Your wisdom in them. Amen. I am an example of life for all those who want to follow You taking their cross and denying themselves, denying their mind and its work in order to take You in them as their mind and helm, just as I stood before You and in You, and not in me, and You were my Master, and then You were my Son, the One born of the Father and of my virgin body. With much propriety I spent time on earth before You and before man, and with humility from You, Lord born on earth by my humility. My life and my behavior were fearful among people, and this is how I made the man godly, and such a holy work I give today for teaching to the sons of Your people, which I want them to be children like You, God, humbled like a child, like a lamb, like a true God by Your humility, a child born of my humility, little child and perfect God among people on earth, from Your birth and up to Your ascending again to be within the Father, to Whom You ascended again to be always with Yours, and to be from near the Father with them, as You are. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother who gave Me birth and forever virgin in your body! I cry like you, and I cry in you and with you after the virginity of the soul and the heart of man, mother. The parable of the wise and foolish virgins shows the man that the virginity of the body does not help the man to gain the kingdom of the heavens and the entrance at the eternal table of My wedding, of My coming with eternity, mother. Behold, the body does not use at anything, My mother, for the spirit is that which gives life and salvation, and that is virgin, the virgin man, who bears God in him, not spoiling God's Spirit in him, for God's Spirit is the One Who makes the man young inside and then outside of him, outside of the man's body, seen by people. The spiritual man is the one who works like God and not like man who works in the name of the Spirit of God, for the Spirit of God in man is not in word but in power; it is in the works of the spirit, which works through their fulfillment the signs of God on earth, as it is written. Amen.

I have taught you, My people, with great wisdom of mystery in this day of feast of My birth as a child from the Virgin, born two thousand years ago, in the Bethlehem of Judea, and here I am, a Teacher full of the power of the Holy Spirit, pouring Him out with the breath of My mouth over you. I pass through the gates and I come to you to teach you how to work and how to love you according to your work, like Me and not like you, and to love you not only according to My mercy. The one who lives out of My mercy, that one is the one who has received mercy, and then the pretentious one, but the one who works by My power and like Me, that one is glorified with My glory, and I rest in him and over him and then with him over the man. Amen.

You shall not despise the spirit of prophecy, sons. Learn to receive God, as Master over you in all your time and moving, and you will be small, those who are humble like God, those born of God, those taught by God. Learn the mystery of virginity, for My mother, the Virgin, carried Me in her and had a virgin body. Amen. The one who carries Me in him like My mother Virgin, that one becomes young in his body and by God's word, Who comes in and then out, and glorifies Himself with His work, make the man into God's glory, a glory that does not crave after glory, but after God, and this is how I want you to give birth on the earth by the word of My making through the spirit of prophesy, which rules from Me, and such a kingdom I want to set before Me when I come, so that I may come, My people, to come and to be with the sons who are like Me, and then they will see as I am, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, My people, when I see Myself in you as I am, then I come visibly, but you should not want this, and rather you should work this, for the whole of My coming waits for your face, not for Me, not for My coming, and it is written: «The whole creature waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed, for those like Him and who will see Him, when they will see each other, God will see them and they will see God, they will be able to see each other», for this is written and it has to be fulfilled what is written, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

26-12-2007/08-01-2008.

The feast of the saint martyr and archdeacon Stephen

My people, again and again I come down as word of food for your soul into your book with Me, on your table with Me, for you need power of victory against the devil. It is a feast of saints, it is a feast of birth and of saints, and the heavenly armies of saints and angels surround you closer and closer, for you need power of victory and heavenly powers, son. The unfaithful ones got up with wickedness and evil spirit in them and they say that I am not this word, which grows you and builds you for your salvation and for My salvation from the dyed man and which keeps Me as a bait in his fishing rod so that he may have a large sitting on a seat known to be holy, but his heart does not need Me upon him, for I am the Holy One and he does not like holiness, but he needs the glory which is for Me on earth. He dresses in the garment of His glory (Of bishop, r.n.) to spot it with the ashes of his sins, for the man is ashes with his mind and in his wandering away from the holy way, which I have showed the man to walk in it to be able to come to Me, the eternal One, and to reach to him again from the Father, as it is written to make a new heaven, a new earth and a new man, in My image and after My likeness. However, the man has got his own image, which he loves and renews with those on the earth, not with those from God, and then he gets up, poor of him and puts out his tongue at Me, a tongue full of blasphemy and scorn, for the man hidden under his dye tries now to tell that My way is not with you and that you are not on My way, but on the contrary, he says that he is the way and that you are not, My people. Oh, you are My way to the people, you, son, you. You are My way for those who try to come to life from the death that is in the world and to come and follow Me, as You came, and if you came, then I have made you into a path to Me for the man, but behold, the men go to the fair, they go to their party full of the devil's make-up, and the man, who loves his image, does not come to Me. Let him show Me his life, and if he has not got his life of My life upon his life, as you have, then let him close his mouth full of blasphemy words, and let his eyes look into the Scriptures and see what the fate of those who blaspheme raising against Me is, and what the fate is of those who sanctified themselves for Me and who overcome keeping My commandments and keeping My testimony.

Woe to those who go mad in their mind, for their punishment stays on their tongue, which shows their madness, a tongue by which they scorn and strike in the light which tries to take them out of their hidings and to show them the face empty of glory and truth! Soon, soon, these will be brought into view and judged by their own words, which are their punishment, for their words judge them face to face with My glory upon you, people not loved by the world, as I also was not loved by it, as My saints were not loved by it either, for I was blamed just as you, and My saints, the same.

I am into your midst with My holy one, with the martyr Stephen, who confessed with his blood, shed for My testimony, and who overcame by the blood of God's Lamb, son. He did not love the spirit, which stands against Me, the spirit of the world, which has on its face a name of blasphemy, and the spirit of the world has got up to close the mouth of My holy confessor. But antichrist cannot do anything, for what he does is not power, because the power is Mine and of My saints, and the antichrist, the one who has been hiding for two thousand years under the robe of the church, will be proved out by his own work against Christ, for the power belongs to My saints, to My brave ones, and happy are those who separate themselves for Me coming out of the world within their spirit and soul to follow My armies of saints, for those who set apart for Me are crowned, they are the living fruit and the glory of the faith on earth, from earth to heaven, and they are My glorified ones, My lambs, becoming like Me by death and resurrection, for this is how those who overcome by My blood are, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, You make me room near You, Lord, to speak the word of Holy Spirit into the midst of Your people of today, for Your saints are in Your coming, because this is written for You to come. Oh, the work of the Holy Spirit is not in the world and for the world, but it is for the saints and for the judgment of the world through the saints, for the saints will judge the world, as Your apostle prophesied through the Scriptures. Amen.

I, the saint of the Lord, the one who was killed by those who were unfaithful for the testimony of Jesus Christ, who was given to death by the work of the antichrist, who called himself a servant and protector of the Lord's law, but he was an enemy of the church of Christ, as he is now, I, the saint of the Lord, tell the spirit of blasphemy to shut up and no longer denigrate the way of the Lord's coming with His saints on earth to the people!

The heavens are open above the Christ's people into the midst of the Romanian people, and the Lord standing on the right hand of the Father declares on earth the judgment by the word, and His saints judge the world, they judge it by their lives and by their testimony and not by something else. The heavens stay open, and the angels of the wrath stay ready to pour out everywhere the reward of the man's drunkenness, and the wrath will touch the false prophet, those who blaspheme God's way to the earth with His glory, with the word of His mouth, which gives anyone according to his deed. Those, who were and then gave up this testimony of Christ by which the Lord is sitting down in these days on the hearth of the Romanian nations, look at them, they come to be blasphemers and slanderers, who have flown into passion like those who were unfaithful in my time, and their mind is sold to the evil spirits.

The fool says in his heart that this word of the Holy Spirit is not God, which comes to save the world, but I pray for you to the Father and to the Son, confessing people for the Lord in these days, and I speak this way in my prayer: Lord, hear my voice of prayer, and take out from under the hostile word the soul of Your people and those who shepherd them to Your pasture! Cover them by the wickedness of those who conspire against them and who work out lawlessness and who sharpen their tongue like a sword and prepare their arrows, their bitter words, by which they shoot arrows into the innocent one from their hiding, and they do not have any fear to lay snares, and they say: "Who is going to see us?" Here they are, Lord! They make up evil things and say: "We are ready, our plan is good," but their heart is their precipice, for You will send a swift arrow and all of a sudden they will fall being wounded, for their tongue will wound them and make them fall down, and whoever will see them will shake their head and be afraid, and then will be seized with fear and will confess God's work and will understand His works, and the righteous will rejoice in the Lord and will put their hope in Him, and also those with a clean heart will rejoice as it is written. Amen.

Oh, Lord, strengthen Your people with the spirit of the holy hope! Comfort those who bear Your coming and make Your coming be believed over the nations! Turn the victory to Your people and make it victorious for Your great name on it, little Word Lamb! I am Your little lamb, the one sacrificed for Your testimony, for the blasphemers stoned me to death, Lord.

Woe to those who become blasphemers, woe to them on earth and in heaven, for their judgment will come from heaven! However, you pray like me for your blasphemers, people of the sacrificed Lamb, for the blasphemers have no mind and they do not know what they do. Oh, only if they would come to repentance for the Lord to give them forgiveness! This is how you are to think in your godly heart, for you have the saints within your help and the Lord does not forsake you and He comes with His army to your help, and all those hidden within their heart and deed will be revealed and the Lord will decide for them. Amen.

Behold what kind of love I give you, confessing people: love God's glory upon you and clothe yourself in a garment of glory, for the saints who come with the Lord are dressed in white fine flax clothes, and clean, as it is written. The Lord has been seeking for a long time to speak a great word for you. The Lord wants you clothed in a white dress and praying to Him like that. Get dressed in white garment, people who are a sign on earth! You are the sign[82] of the Son of Man, and the Lord appears with you on earth and in heaven before His great appearance, as it is written about the day of His coming.

Get together in white garments at prayer before the Lord, for it was beautiful the ministry of the saints of the church at the beginning of Christ's coming with the saints, the time of the first saints. Priests and female deacons were dressing in white robes and were ministering to the holy service and the Lord was glorified with the joy of the glory in a mystery on earth with the faithful ones. The evil spirit has no power when he sees the holy garment of the saints, the white garment of Christ's servants, the garment of the Lord's church. Oh, the Lord's glory was beautiful in the Lord's church after the Lord went to be again in the Father. The priests were serving in white robes and there were serving deacons near the priests everywhere, and there were multitudes of female deacons, who like little bees in beehives, were serving in a churchly manner everywhere there were saints as servants to a master, within hardships, or in any kind of sufferance. Oh, where is there such glory in church today, such great and holy work in all the members of the body? The priests of the church of the world have put the church into darkness and lack of work, so that they may be alone in everything, all the members, but Christ's church is not so. It has to work with all its members when it is, and the spirit of prophesy has to be in its midst. Amen.

[82] See the selection topic: „The sign of the Son of Man", r.n.

There were many graces. All the graces were working through the church mysteriously, in opposition the idolatrous world, and on the other hand, the work of the church was going on and it was getting in everywhere with its light and food. Oh, there are no longer in the church male and female deacons, but there are only priests. They "cut and hang". Oh, Christ's church is not like that. No one wants to read the Scriptures as they speak, and the common man is deceived by those who rule over him and who have hidden the keys of the kingdom of the heavens so that its whole work may not be seen, the Lord's church on the earth.

Oh, people chosen by the Lord from thistles and thorns! Sit down in the garment of holiness, in a white robe of holy man, from which the devils flee and melt away! Let it be on earth as in heaven! Amen. Do the holy ministry dressed in white robes. Be the little brothers of the saints on the earth, for this is written in the Scriptures that the saints are dressed. Let the way of the heavenly mysteries for ministering on earth as in heaven be open above you! Do not conform to the face of this age, which does not have a whole church in it, a true church by all its members! The Lord wants to establish everywhere, in all the cities where He has got people, the Lord wants to establish the kingdom of the heavens from place to place and its white robe, from which the devils flee away. Be blessed being nourished with the Lamb of God, Who makes you holy! Establish priests in the cities by the working grace in the church! Establish male and female deacons, and let them all have members of Christ's church everywhere, and the spirit of prophecy over it! Amen. Oh, the Lord is in hardships among you and He told me to testify to you about the work of the church of His saints. Come together around the slaughtered Lamb! Get together more and more often for the spirit of testimony, for the spirit of the holy growth, for this is the work of the church. Do not be afraid of the people! Each bird perishes on its own tongue, and let your tongue and spirit confess the Lord in the work of church. Amen. Do not despise the spirit of prophecy, the spirit which brings you to the Lord, for in the time of the first Christians there were hosts of prophets and apostles, and it is not true the language of those who say that the heaven has been closed and that there are no longer any prophecies. But, on the contrary, the heavens have been opened more and more after the Lord went to be with the Father, for the Son of God poured out of His Spirit over the church afterwards, and the churches had prophets near the priests, and they had male and female deacons, and they also had evangelists and confessors, and they had healers and miracle performers, and they had grace and this is how the church was ministering everywhere from place to place at its beginning, until the antichrist got in and stole its necklace and then took away its key and gave it to be sold, and thus he took the church away from the man's way, for the church, as it is now, is not as it was established by the Lord and by the apostles at its beginning. I was a deacon and I was overseeing other deacons by the work of the church and by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit, and I was an apostle full of Holy Spirit, and there were young male and female apostles, and there were young prophets and prophetesses, and there were also old counselors and guides and many other workers, and for the food with Christ of the church from everywhere, there were male and female deacons who were going and feeding the Christians, taking the Lord from the priests and giving Him everywhere the saints were suffering into the midst of the world without light in it, and this is how the saints were overcoming by the blood of the slaughtered Lamb, Who was their food, the food of the church of the saints. Oh, do not be afraid of the people, for they are naked and do not have any garment of glory as you have got the garment of holiness! Do not be afraid of those who leave off the way near you, going again from light to darkness! They have not overcome the world in them yet, and the world pulls them out like the saplings who did not take root if they shook from their foundations. Be seized within the Holy Spirit, Who gives Himself to you doing His work! Peace to you! Listen to the Lord! Appreciate the spirit of prophecy, for the church has to be ruled and it has to be whole. Amen.

Lord, I listened to You and spoke to Your people about the time of the church of the first Christians, while Your church was still working wholly, and then the man got into it and ruled over the people in the church and God has no longer ruled by it on the earth. There is a long time since You have been waiting for the first appearance of Your church, which You have it made up over Your disciples, giving them power and grace to establish everywhere the work of Your church.

Oh, Lord, I am merciful. I have mercy on You, for You have been wounded for two thousand years and You have had no church that knows to appreciate Your sacrifice to its life from You. I have mercy on You, for You are neglected and kept for gain by those who become servants of church over the people, oh, and there is no one to tell the people about the lie which keeps them in bondage by the face and by the name of the apostolic and synodal church. Woe to the ecumenicity of those who call themselves Your church! Your church is full of saints, not of people! Where are the members of the church if there is any church at all? Oh, there are no longer, there are no longer members, for there is no longer Your church on earth. For two thousand years, there have no longer been members in the church. However, You have come to open and you did. Glory to You, little slaughtered Lamb, for no one was found in heaven and on earth to open Your book[83] to let the spirit of life flow from it, the river of life, in which anyone can see his face and wash it if he wants! Amen. Bless Your kingdom over Your people of today! May Your will be done into its midst and in heaven! Peace to You in Your pain for Your people! The sufferance for You is the peace of those who bear Your with love on earth, and they have power through pains, as You had and have. Amen.

Oh, I have comforted You on my day of feast and I as an apostle full of Holy Spirit, full of the spirit of prophecy over Your people of today, Lord, born a child in Bethlehem of a Virgin mother two thousand years ago, a mother who had remained with us and comforted the church and built it by its testimony, by its love, by which she had embraced Your church as she embraced You while still a child, Your body left on earth, Christ's body on earth, the Lord's temple, the Temple of the Holy Spirit, the church of the first saints, the church of the saints, and which was founding its refuge in houses and it was living by its humility, not by high temples, not by weak buildings for God, but rather by the life of its saints, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, may your holy voice over My people be blessed, apostle full of the Holy Spirit in heaven and on earth! The saints are the crown of the Lord, the Lord's necklace. Amen.

Oh, My people, listen to My longing of old! Be more and more with every passing day an obedient people, so that you may not go wrong by disobedience, son. Listen to the Lord so that you may overcome by Him! I will teach you by a great teaching more and more every day, for the time outside blows with its darkness against you by those who did not want to remain and become My saints, but they even left for a spirit of blasphemy, and they do not have rest in the darkness under which they got in, and thus they are ugly, very ugly in their heart and deed, for nothing else happens to those who betray the Lord and the brothers, falling again into the big sea, into the bottomless world, into its thick darkness. The traitors are the most hated among people, and they speak words of blasphemy, for they are pushed by the evil spirit, to which they sell themselves in order to serve it. However, you are My son, and if you are, then let yourself be guided, always, always, son, for the time is bad and hidden and you cannot go through it without My whisper, which holds your little hand so that you may not fall down. Peace to you! Get used to My sweet peace by its sufferance, for I am aggrieved into your midst, My people, and I know and see your pain and the hidden snare. Oh, touch My wound and take care of Me, for you are My house, you are My shelter, you are the church of Jesus Christ, and the gates of the hell will not overcome it, but it will overcome the gates of the hell, just as I, its Lord, its Bridegroom, overcame them and I came out and I am called the Victor upon death and hell, and My name is a wonderful name, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

[83] See the selection topic: „About the Book of the Lamb - The Book of Life", r.n.

27-12-2007/09-01-2008

The feast of the saint hierarch Basil the Great

My people, you should give Me power more and more with every passing day, day after day, to come from the Father to you to exhort you closer and closer, son. You should give Me power, My people, and you should give Me faith in you, to be able to rely on you from now on and forever, and to have you as My people forever, the fruit of My coming after two thousand years since My fist coming again on the earth after the man. Let us give us one another and let you give My love back, that I may give it back to you. Let us give one another the love which I give you and which becomes word of comforting spirit over your being, for two thousand years ago I spoke to My disciples: «Love one another as I have loved you», and I also told them: «I give you My peace, and I do not give it to you as the word does». And then I was with a painful peace after man and after the comfort from man, and My heart was full of the Father, Who loved Me infinitely finding His likeness in My sufferance for man, and My little heart was full of My mother Virgin, who was suffering in Me as much as I was suffering in her, for this is how she loved the world as much as I have loved it, and she was born on earth for Me and then she lived for Me, for everything she was feeling, working and doing, this was only for Me, and man was My eternal longing, My people, and there was longing as in God, not as in man, and I told those who followed Me: «Love one another as I have loved you». Oh, I have always worn them, always to the Father and to Me and to the life without death in them and among them. And this is how I loved them, this is how I taught them to take after Me, and I showed them how I was and what I worked and how I worked, and I told them: «If you love Me, you keep My commandments», and they were the man's love for Me, and then their keeping away from sin by the fulfilling of My love in them, their love for God, My people, and only afterwards I told them: «Love one another as I have loved you».

Oh, My Israel of today, oh, son, great and full of God, those who take from Me have always given you word! Oh, My people, this is how I was working with the disciples, for the Father saw what they needed every moment, for each moment brought forth from it teaching from God for it, and take a look into My Scriptures of that time, for I was speaking to them as every moment of them was before God, to know Me as God by the truth and by the power of My word, which was teaching them to know Me and to believe in Me, after they saw that I was in them, that I knew their inner things and that I wanted to exhort them, and this meant that I was teaching them with power and not like they did, those who were ruling over them as kings over their subjects, and I was teaching them not to get upset with Me if I taught them according to their stature and according to how I wanted it to be before Me and before the people, who had to see Me in them afterwards, and not only themselves.

Oh, My people, My teaching for it is born from man, for I do not speak from Myself, but I speak as I see and hear, this is how I speak, and again, I speak from the Father over the man, for I do not do My will but the Father's will, Who has sent Me to fulfill His will on earth and over the man. Amen. Oh, son taught by God, get used to be a grain which dies so that it may give forth fruit, for whoever does not deny himself to give Me then likewise cannot be My disciple and cannot give birth to disciples for Me. Oh, My teaching is very great over you. Love God with all your mind and come and fulfill Me so that you may turn My teaching into deed, so that you may leave yourself and take and carry Me, and you should be My new earth, in which I sow Myself, and I make you by My fruit in you, the new heaven and the new earth, for it is written: «Truth springs out of the earth and righteousness has looked down from heaven», and then let us be one from another, son. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, sons, you cannot put the teaching over those who believe in Me by their faith in God with My book in your hand and from the book, and rather you can put it as I did, and I was teaching My disciples from My life, not from the book on the table of the law. However, you have the book of love on your table from Me, not the book of law for sin. You have the book of My coming to you with the teaching for eternal life and without sin in your being and deed and in your love for God and for man, and you have My peace given by Me as I have it in Me. Oh, son, those who become teachers over the people, as they say, do not understand anything from God. Oh, the man does not have to be brought into submission, but rather he has to be loved, that is he has to be taught, for you are not without Me by submission to each other, but you are by My image in you if you really are.

Oh, if I put the man at My table and if he does not put My teaching over him so that I may see him understand why I tell him what I tell him, then he sits at My table not as a son, but as a thief and as a traitor. Oh, you shall not sit at My table as a master over those at the table, but you should rather sit full of My Spirit at the table of My coming back, to take after Me, son, for behold, the one who rules over the subjects does not take after Me, Who was one of them among My disciples, and this is how you are to be as well, son, who sits at the table of My coming back, to take after Me and not after the world. Oh, you shall not have the wisdom of man in you, but you shall rather have God with His wise humility. Be careful to the love between Me and you, because the haughty man is ugly, for Me he is very ugly, the one who scratches the man's eyes out for his mistake! The man who exalts himself as a shepherd over another man when he is not otherwise than that one! Stephen, My disciple full of Me with the voice of the Holy Spirit over the church, put his heart to have a share as well from his work from Me given to him, but it is not possible something like that with God, but it is possible by a whole sacrifice and according to its clean face, for if someone does not bear beautifully and humbly what I give him to have, then it is taken from him what he has, so that he may not spoil thorough them, for God dwells in man when it is about the dwelling in him of those set by God, and the man is fleeting if he does not fulfill this way, and I loved the disciple Stephen and took him close to Me then so that his work done from Me over the church might remain whole, for I am the One Who pays and the man cannot take for himself what he works for Me.

Oh, woe to you, to those who have set over My flock that believes in Me, woe to you, those who do not use for Me My mysteries for the people, and you rather use them for yourselves and for your glory and delight before the people! Oh, the work in My vineyard is not so. Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit, but he did a mistake because he loved himself and he paid for this, for I did not let him fall into the sin of his heart. Behold what I exhort you and I become teaching upon you with power, not only by word: a worker of the Holy Spirit upon the people and goes wrong in respect with the conscience of others can kill the man more than the one who has not got the seal of the Holy Spirit, working upon him. This is what I am revealing today to you, to My wisdom for you, if you want to receive it in you. Amen.

And now, I come back with My teaching over My people. Oh, let the man not die through you, and let him rather come to life if you work upon him for Me in him, son; for Me and not for you. However, you should not seek after gifts and reward from God for your work of the man's salvation, but you should rather seek after the gift of humility, by which I worked on earth, the greatest gift, the greatest teaching you can give to the man, for God cannot despise the humble one. Oh, you will not find My wisdom anywhere on earth, but only that of the man, as you see that it is on earth, and I can hardly protect those who are Mine from the mixture that the man makes when he speaks about God's right upon man. Oh, there is great, great deceit on earth, sons. The dyed man, who builds high temples for the people to enter them as they would come to God, that one knows how to dye and he raises his people with manly wisdom and he calls them great confessors and great teachers by their life, which resounds the news from ear to ear for the people to hear that it is and then they strike from under their shield into the work of My wisdom, just as the church of today has struck into this wisdom of Mine by its confessors, which called them great for the people; however, its people called them great and not God, for God does not have any right, He is not allowed to speak any longer in the church by His prophets. Well, as they say, instead of losing their dominion over them, it would have been best for the spirit of prophesy not to be on the earth, the spirit that reveals from God, always from God today, as I said that I would be with My disciples to the end of the times, not only by the Whitsuntide, those feasts after fifty days from My resurrection and since the ruling class over the church has said that he revelation has come to an end, My work upon man, and that it was enough for them the one that had been by that time, and behold, they do like the Jews who were beating their chests when I came to be their God born from the Father, as the Father promised them by the prophets, and they were saying that they had Abraham as their father and that they had Moses' law and that according to that law they had to judge Me and this was what they did, as they said. Oh, who told them, that is to the ecclesiastical rulers, who told them to speak this and to take out of the Scriptures My promises which I promised that they would be to the end of the times and that they were to be and to work to their fulfillment by the spirit of prophecy? Who told them that God had finished speaking with the man when I told all those who believe Me that I would be with them to the end of the time?

Oh, My people, My saints are those who judge the world, as it is written, and they judge it from Me and it receives according to its works by the word of My saints. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord Teacher, Master full of the spirit of humility before man! The kings of the earth, those who rule over the nations and control them in Your name, they cannot do what the king David did when the spirit of prophecy came over to him and made his mistake known to him, and David repented from his wrongdoing and he did not repent in secret. Here it is what confession means, that which reaches from earth into heaven by many ears so that the sin may be atoned on earth! If You stayed with the Samaritan and spoke with her about You and about her, where does the whole world know from what You spoke with her and she with You? You tell Your disciples about Your whole work with her at the Israel's well, Lord, and then she also spoke about it in her city because she had got from You the spirit of the confession of her works. Or, just as on the bank of the Jordan many came and confessed their sins to their repentance and before John the Baptizer, who was baptizing with water to the forgiveness of the men's sins who were repenting from them before the face of Your witness surrounded by the crowds at Jordan, the witness who, by his work, was announcing You and was saying: «He Who comes after me is mightier than me and He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and He will gather His wheat into the barn, but the chaff He will burn up with fire». (See Matt: 3/12) Oh, You are the Lord full of the spirit of justice and You belong to those who are full of Holy Spirit on earth, to Your glory and not theirs, little humble Lamb.

Oh, dear God's people for your faith in His works! You should love God like king David and you should also like the spirit of prophecy, which will not be quenched and which has to be seen in the church, because it rules over the church and he rules it from the Lord, and you will be a royal nation if you worked that way, and will be David's son, as the Lord was. When the Lord wants to deal with His wound from you so that you may heal it, oh, do not get upset with Him, but rather have mercy on Him like David, when He tells you about His pain from you, so that you may not suffer from His pain from you if you do not take it away. Show Him that you know to love Him and heal Him of His wound from you. King David did not get upset when the spirit of prophecy came to him to heal the Lord from the wound from His anointed one, and then the Lord had mercy on him when he had mercy on the Lord with the repentance of his heart before the one who spoke to him about his sin as sin, and David has remained a judge for those who do not repent and an example of repentance for every common man and for the kings over the people. The same happened with the Samaritan woman, for the Lord came for the sinners, and the Jewish people blasphemed Him that He sat with the sinners and with the tax collectors and with the fornicators, sons. Well, if the Jewish people did not want to stay with Him and to believe that He came from the Father and then to love Him, then what was He supposed to do? The Lord bowed down to heal the sinful and repentant man, teaching him how to clean himself, confessing Himself as God before the sinners so that the sinners may also confess their sins and become God's sons by this power, if the chosen people did not want to have His gifts, but Israel had waited only for ready-made glory from God, as they have been waiting to this day.

Oh, people, well pleased with God because of your faith! Do not forget that because of his very great and praised faith, God called Daniel beloved and dear man and God revealed to him the hidden things of His wisdom, Who reveals the things unfathomable to men. Oh, take care of God's working grace above you and into your midst, for this grace is working great signs if you know to keep it, to believe it and to let it work for you, for this is the wisdom waited by the Lord, to have it today for His works. You have to fulfill over the earth everything we, the Lord's saints, did not fulfill, and in this way you will perfect everything needed at the work of the fulfillment for the man's salvation from all ages by this coming of the Son of God to you with great glory of word, and Who has comprised you within His coming as it also comprised us, His working saints on earth in our time; He has comprised us now with His coming to His people, with His saints, on white horses, dressed in white robes of clean and white flax, and the Lord, in a garment sprinkled with blood, as it is written. Amen.

And we will speak to them today, Lord, and we will seize them in the word, and we will look at their work with You and at Your work with them, for it is time to work, and the time is very hard, for who is unjust, behold, he still does wrong and who is filthy he gets filthier still, but he who is righteous, let him go on doing justice and he who is holy, then let him be holier still, Lord of the saints, for Your reward is with You and You are the beginning and the end of any work that You may bring on earth, and blessed are those who wash away their robes to have the right to the tree of life and to keep it and to get in through the gates to You, and not otherwise, for those who work out the lie have to stay outside, where the morning and the gnashing of teeth are, according to each one's reward, Lord, as it is written. Amen.

May the grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ be with you all, those who love like Him and like His saints! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, My saints strengthen your faith and its wisdom, for without its wisdom from Me for it, it is not good, and your faith has not got any work. I want to make you rich for the wisdom of the faith so that you may arise above you hardships for your faith, for those who have left the gift of their faith in Me and in you that you are My people and that I am your God, they have also lost My wisdom and they have drowned in themselves and they have really stuck, and they have come to be ashamed because they did not listen to My voice on them whenever I was teaching them not to judge My hard way and those with Me on it, and behold, those who judge are judged, as it is written, and they fall into trespasses, and when the fall, they blaspheme and denigrate, and they are smashed against their own words as into a sword which strikes back. However, you should stay near the fire, son, for it is cold outside and outside are only those who love the world and the lie, and they cannot love you, the one worked out by Me and kept warm in My word that takes care of the sons. Peace to you! Moreover, I will embrace you again in this day, after I will look over your work and over your working being, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I embrace you again with My gentle Spirit to the end of the day of teaching, My people, for I am gentle and humble in heart, son. Learn from Me, learn, My people, from Me how to be, but in order to learn, you have to ask Me to be able to know the work of the word which teaches you, for many go wrong against Me on earth without understanding well the depth of My teaching. Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful I have taught you all My time with you today, but it is a great wonder for the man to know how to be gentle and humble in his heart before Me, to be a doll under My working hand, for the man who reads his prayer when he gets up in the morning tells Me this way: "Lord, illuminate the eyes of my mind and open my mouth to learn Your words and to understand Your commandments, and save me from all the worldly things, and save me also from the devilish growth! The One Who search the hearts and the kidneys cleanses me from the entire defilement of my soul and body, making me a house of Your Holy Spirit, and give me a watching and clean heart to pass through the whole night of my life, waiting for Your day, when You will come to judge and reward each one, according to their works!"

Oh, My people, pray in the middle of the night too, for the prayer in the middle of the night is great, because when the man sins in his heart and body is called the night of his sin, and the man has to call out God in the night to save him from it and from its works, saying: "Do not forsake me, Lord, to go to sleep in the night of my sins, in the death of the sins, but shine upon my day to be able to confess You forever, Lord, and not to be deprived of Your heavenly good, and save Me from the whole callous daring and insensibility and illuminate my mind, which the evil lust has darkened, for I have gone wrong like a mere man, oh, Lord!"

Oh, son, pray with tears, for the evil spirits do not sleep, either during the day or during the night, and if you pray to Me so that I may put away the evil spirits from your way, which try to guide you, then you are not supposed to draw them back. You should watch day and night not to draw the evil spirits back to you, but to let them go away instead, and to rebuke them in My name then, hating their work, for they hardly get out of the man with their work after the man does their will in his spirit and body, and then the man needs to seek a man who is free from the evil spirit, to pray for his deliverance from this death, for the one who does bad work and prays to Me to put this evil away from him, then his prayer does not have any power, for devil serves the devil, and the devil does not pull out devil, but a doctor is needed for this miracle instead, for God teaches you to pray, and the devil makes you do his work and it takes your fear away and then it takes away your watching, and behold, I am gentle and humble in heart and I teach you the work of life, son. The one who teaches you and exhorts you to the work of the life, that one is your teacher, it is your doctor, and he is gentle and humble in his heart, and I have taught you to take from Me an example of life and I have told you that I am gentle and humble in My heart and that is why I am the Teacher.

Oh, My people, if I teach you gently and humbly, and if you do not let yourself to be a doll under My teaching, then I am no longer your Teacher, even if you call Me in your prayer and tell Me what to give you and what to do to you and what shall I do to help you with. Remember how gently and humbly I have taught you the work of the doll, and I told you that the doll cannot do anything by itself if the puppeteer does not take it into his hand. Oh, this is how I want you. I want you to be a doll, for I have chosen you from the thorns to make you a lily and to make you a rose and you to overflow all over the fragrance of the One Who gives you life, My people.

Behold, My people, the man needs a creator and he needs a doctor. My bishop Basil healed the people from themselves and then he also healed them from the work of the evil spirit and rebuked the evil spirit to get out of the people and to go into a place without people at his command, for he was sound with My spirit in him and the evil spirit in man listened to him and submitted to him at the word of his mouth, and he overcame in him the body of the man's enemy and this was how he appeared as God's servant for man, for the saints are those who judge the world and it receives according to its works through the word of My saints. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh teacher, gentle and humble in heart! You give life to the people with Your teaching, but the people are slow, Lord, and they are slow in listening to You as you teach them. And if the people are sick from the spirit of disobedience, which becomes ignorance of man's soul, ignorance of God in the man's spirit, body and soul, we, Your saints, got up as the people's doctors and spoke for the departure from near the man and from the man of the opposing spirits in him and with which the man keeps You away from Him, from Your face in him, work by which the man is no longer Your son, but he is a lost son. I get up now for You and I command the evil spirit to listen to me in Your name, for I have suffered from the heaven down to the earth, and the grief has been deepened into my spirit, the grief that comes from the slapping of Your face of word over the people, Lord, for Your face is now splashed by those who took to work out the denigration of Your face, of the work of Your coming as word of resurrection over the earth. Woe to those who fall by their own evil fruits and which become a deep wound and tears on Your face and storm over Your little boat, on which You are going now and share Your word of the resurrection of the creature, the word for the new birth of the world! However, I get up, Lord, like a bishop full of Your power and I speak a word to be fulfilled:

Let God get up and scatter His enemies away! As the fire goes out like the wax that melts away in the fire, let it also perish the work of those who commit sin against the Lord's coming and of His work of word! Let the righteous rejoice with their faith, for the Lord will give His word to those who preach it with much power, as it is written!

Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains, at the mountain, which God has been well pleased with the work of His second coming from the Father on earth?

Lord, command Your power and set all the heavenly powers to work and strengthen Your work of word of Holy Spirit over the earth now! Rebuke the beasts, rebuke the bulls and protect those who are refined like silver, for You are wonderful among Your saints in heaven and on earth! Let them be put to shame and challenge those who speak against Your work, saying: "Aha, Aha!" Let them give back and be put to shame, those who walk about to dishonor Your coming and Your people! Amen.

Come out, you devils, opposers, from the people who submitted to your darkness! Let your work with a hidden face be crushed and let it be revealed to your shame and to the shame of your servants, all the cunning work by which you try to put a spot on the Lord's face and to the shining of His coming! Go to your places and wait there for the Lord's day, for the Lord searches out the hearts and the kidneys and He takes out from their hiding those who are serving you now, pricking with thorns the glorified face of God's word, Who comes with His saints, glorifying Himself in the word and judging the nations of the earth and their kings! Go into a land without man, for the Lord's way glorifies itself and does not grow less! Let the mouth and the denigration on the tongue of those who got up to strike with their tongue the way of God's word over the earth and those who carry the Lord! Shut up, you jeering tongues and make room for God's word, which ravels all your makings! Let God get up and scatter away His enemies and let them be put out and melt away just as the fire goes out, and as the wax melts away in the fire! And as for You, victorious Lord, give to Your people the face of Your word, which exhorts it by the breath of Your mouth, becoming the voice of the Holy Spirit over the earth, from heaven and down to earth. Amen.

Oh, people sanctified by God to be a people of saints before His coming! The work of the evil spirit stays in its hiding, for those who give away God's word, become a hiding of the evil spirit that it may blow desperately towards you for its salvation, for its enduring when it sees its snare close to it, but let your faith and work be powerful, and the Lord will overcome for Him and for you. Amen.

May the grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ be with you, those who love like Him and like His saints before Him! Amen, amen, amen.

– Now, My people, open your ear and eat My wisdom from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I am the Teacher if I am like that. Learn to be a teacher, to have a fruit gathered before Me, and to have for Me and not for you, for I have for you and I pay your work if you work for Me. Learn the power of the holy prayer, learn the prayer, which has been fulfilled. Learn your prayer to know how to pray it so that you may receive through it. Be careful at your prayer, if it is fulfilled, if you fulfill it after your heart brings it to Me. Oh, you shall not pray with your eyes but with your heart, for if your heart is good, then your eye is good too, and your eye becomes a way of your prayer to the heart, your way to Me and not to you, son. It is time for prayer, the power for victory. I am gentle and humble in heart and that is why I can be your Teacher. Listen to Me! Become a doll! This is how I stay in My Father's hand. I give Myself to you, as body and word. Help Me to be able to guide you then, My people. Learn My way to you. I remind you again and again this. Get well used to Me and to My mystery into your midst, for I stay mysteriously into your midst to protect you, and through the exhortation fulfilled by you I can protect you and not otherwise, My people. Work before Me and before the man, and let your work take after Mine, for I am gentle and humble in heart and I am the Teacher. Amen.

I give you My peace, My people! It is a great mystery and miracle to understand what the work My word has. My peace is like Me. All of My word upon you is My peace, which I give to you. I do not give you as the world does. The world is bitter, and I am God.

Come out of the world, My people, and I will save you! Come out of the world, you, those who want life and not world, come out and be My people, and I will save you, and I will give you My pasture, the pasture of life. Amen.

Oh, sons, preparing of holy days in My gardens with you! Strengthen My path to you, for the people come to Me after the holy water with a spirit of Epiphany. Learn the way of the heavenly powers towards you and stay under guidance on the way, as I guide the heavenly powers towards you to minister to you in your ministering with Me. Get ready within your spirit, all get ready within your spirit! Give Spirit of My Spirit to the people, who come together at the water of Epiphany. I, the Lord, will be and will speak out Holy Spirit over the waters and with a word of power over those who come together at the spring. Peace to you! Peace to the holy feasts with you! Amen.

Learn what peace is, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-01-2008

The feast of the Lord's Baptism

The Spirit of God is hovering over the waters and the angel of the waters is coming and putting the Spirit in the waters by the word spoken over the waters so that they may be sanctified by the power of the word and by the grace from God, coming down from God over the faithful to those whom the Lord has given power to become sons from God by their faith, for this is how I, the Lord, spoke to My disciples two thousand years ago through My Holy Spirit: «He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in His name, for the Word Who was in the beginning became flesh, and lived among people, and those who received Him saw His glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth», as it is written. Amen. (See John: 1/11-14)

Peace to you, to those who have come to take water of Epiphany, and I, the Lord, teach you the spirit of faith, to receive of this spirit of God giving birth in man and to be able to love God, for no one is able to believe Him, but only those who love Him. The one who takes holy water with a spirit of Epiphany upon it by the word spoken over the waters to be holy and to have in them power of cleansing and healing, that one believes then in this water and gives it a place of honor in his house and in his life. This is how you are supposed to do as well, for the word which comes out of My mouth to cleanse you, to sanctify you and then to guide you when you take it to honor it in your hearts and over your lives after that, for as the Spirit, Whom you do not see that is hovering above the waters in this day to sanctify them at the worked spoken upon them, as you believe in the Spirit, Who sanctifies the waters without seeing Him, the same with My word, which you do not see but you hear it after it comes out of My mouth like a big river, in the same way it washes the man inside and outside of him if the man knows to believe, loving with power the God, Who gives life of His life to the man, if he is able to believe as he believes in the power of the water sanctified by the word and by the Holy Spirit at the speaking of the word which calls the Holy Spirit over the waters. Amen.

In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and God was the Word, and This was from the very beginning with God, and all things were made through Him. When God made the heaven and the earth, the earth was formless and empty and darkness was on the surface of the deep, and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters. Then the Word, Who was in the beginning, spoke the word by the Spirit and al were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made of everything that has been made, and in Him was life, and then, two thousand years ago, the Word became flesh and lived among people, full of grace and truth, as it is written about My glory from the Father. Amen.

Oh, it is not hard for the man to believe in My word, which made the heaven and the earth in the beginning when the earth was formless and void, when it was not made and empty. Oh, it is not hard for the man to believe in My word, which was hovering over the waters in the beginning and took the earth out of the waters. Behold, the man believes in the holy water with a spirit of Epiphany, but he needs to know how it is sanctified. The Spirit of God hovers over it and the word of God sets over it holiness and power of word and healing and faith. Amen. And as the Spirit of God is not seen, the same with the word of God, but behold, the man has to understand that the Spirit without speaking of word cannot work and these are inseparable at the making of the work of creation, and in order for the man to believe in the Spirit and in the Word Who was in the beginning, I came two thousand years ago and became flesh, I appeared before the people full of grace and truth to help the man believe and see the Spirit and the Word Who was in the beginning and through Whom everything was made that has been made. And again, to the end of God's mystery, as in the beginning, I, the Lord, the Word from the beginning, Who was God, work again as in the beginning, for the earth is formless and empty, and I will take it out of the fire, as I took it out from the beginning, for there is fire now on earth, the fire of lawlessness, and in which all the people burn, an ephah which comes into view, and in it the lawlessness of the entire earth, and the Spirit of God hovers over the fire as He was hovering above the waters when the earth was formless. Amen.

My spirit becomes word upon you, those who have come together at the water of Epiphany and teaches you the spirit of faith, and the faith is that which hopes. You, who are My people, the people of this spirit and of this word, and again, you, who have come to see My people and My work with it, I, the Lord, teach you in a day of the spirit of Epiphany the gift of the holy faith, the faith that comes as a gift. Amen.

Oh, son who believe, oh, My people, and you, man who want to believe as well! Oh, you should not believe in Me in the earthly way, son, for I have taught you that the kingdom of God is not of this world, no, no, son. In this world there is only sin, only fire, only fire of lawlessness, in which the life of the sons of men and of their offspring is consumed. In the world there are Sodom and Gomorrah, from which I take out those who are Mine, and Mine are those who love Me believing in My promises of new heaven and new earth, and with whom I am able to work these things and give form to the earth, which now is burning as high as nine fathoms and which is full of blood, everywhere only blood, for the world does not know to do anything good, nothing but sin and blood, and the Lord does no longer have any room where to take a rest in a clean place, and the holy man and loving of God has to make way when he walks on the earth, he has to sprinkle his steps and his little path with holy water with power of word and to make a ford for himself so that he may be able to walk on, for My image in man gets lost by troubled waters, as the man, who sees his image in clean water cannot see it any longer after the water is troubled with every kind of dirty things, and this is how it is on earth, there are only troubled waters, only wilderness without God everywhere, and the Spirit of God hovers over the waters and brings into view the one who is clean in his faith and work, and He gives him power to become His son, born of God on earth, and this is how I, the Lord, work, with the grace of My word in this time: a new heaven and a new earth and a new man, and then New Jerusalem from place to place, My homeland on earth, Mine and those who love My homeland, coming out of the world to receive the Lord as their being, their Maker, for this age pass away, and the Lord and His sons remains. Amen.

Today I have become Teacher within a spirit of Epiphany to teach you the work of the faith, which helps the man to be born again, of God's word giving birth of new man, and as the water listens to the Spirit and My word spoken upon it for grace upon it, in the same way, the man is able to listen if he wants, for this power for him does not come from Me but from man, and then for Me over him, as I told to the weak sick man who prayed to Me asking: «Lord, if You want to, You can make me clean», and I told him: «I want to. Be made clean!» (Matt: 8/3) I told him to get cleaned and then I to give him, to give Myself to him to bear Me. Amen.

Oh, faithful people, you shall not believe in Me in the earthly way, for I have told you that the place of My kingdom is your inner being, and if you cannot have it inside of you with all its adornments but you rather wait for it in this world, empty and formless, if you believe in Me in the earthly way, trying to understand Me this way, then the devil, the ruler of this world writes unbelief in God for you. Oh, you shall not believe in an earthly way in My promises for you, for I did not declared them for the world, but for you, and you should work to their fulfillment, for I took you out of the world so that you may not be like it, so that you may not be part of it or taste of its wine, and not taste of it in your spirit either, in your body or in your soul, son. Oh, look at My disciples of two thousand years ago how they were staggering, for not even they believed in Me otherwise, but they believed Me in an earthly way, and they waited for Me to be King over the nations and they to be near Me, if I would reign with the power which they saw in My great works, and the signs of the people's healing and of the resurrection of the dead. Judas, not even when he got up in the day of My betrayal did he not believed that he did something wrong, for he believed in Me in an earthly way, as in a man with power, as in an earthly God, but I had nothing, nothing in this world, but only My mother and them, My disciples, and they were God's kingdom on earth. There where I am with My people, there My kingdom is on the earth, and behold, it is not of this world, My people.

Oh, I want you, My people, to be My spiritual and not My fleshly disciple, for I have given to you My gospel of that time, and behold, again the one of this time, so that you may know to how to be My disciple in your spirit and within the holy faith, not within the fleshly one, for I with the disciples of that time could not but come back to the Father and teach them without Me being really near them, so that they could perceive the Scripture about Me spiritually and to understand it being set over them, not being set over others first, and so that they might be able to understand My mysterious work, that which is inner in man, and I told them: «Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, so that the Spirit may come to you and to teach you». (See John: 16/7) Oh, it would have been useless for Me to remain with them, for with Me near them they doubted of the promises and understood them in an earthly way, because they were fleshly both in their mind and in their faith, and that was why I told them that it was to their advantage to go again to the Father, but I also told them that I would be with them to the end of the time, and they did not understand how that came either, for the one who does not understand God with man spiritually and heavenly, that one doubts. Oh, I had no one before My resurrection, on one to rely on, I had not anyone but My mother and John and James, for the others were doubtful and fearful, and then I was sold and My disciples remained without Me and I was given to be sacrificed, and after I was resurrected and ascended to be again with the Father, I sent them the Spirit, and they knew like God from Him. Amen.

Oh, My people, I teach the grace of faith which keeps you in Me and which keeps Me in you. Take care with faith, you, the one who believe this coming of Mine now on earth as mysterious word and body, take care so that the word spoken by you, spoken at random, may not condemn you, son. I advise you to be a doll for the faith and its work, for the doll does everything the puppeteer does with it, and it is more faithful than a living man, for it does, if it is handled by the puppeteer. However, more and more you should take care so that the word spoken by Me upon you may not condemn you, son, for that is God's word.

Oh, My people, that have been Mine from old time! I call you too to instruction. I call you again, son. I call you to understand that which you did not understand when I came to you, when you came to Me to hear and to work. Oh, that you could not be My doll in your time and that I was your doll instead, to show you the work of the doll and then for you to be able to learn, that I was under your will, and your will was not good for you, and behold, today too, not only yesterday, but even today, the world calls Me the liar, for I have not had disciples in you by this time to be able to rely on them, and because of your doubt in My work, the world calls Me the immoral and the liar and the man calls Me as well, and the man says that I am not this word of resurrection and that the man is, and it says that My bearers are not God's sons waited by the Scriptures to be, and that the church of the world would be that which is Mine, but if it does not lead to a holy life, and it also does not have any love of Me, then how it is supposed to be My servant? By its mouth? By its robe? By its walking into the high temples and that is all?

Oh, I like to dwell in man, for it is for that that I built the man, and you build high temples in vain to enter them and to call the people to you if you are not God's temple, temple of the Holy Spirit, as it is written for Christ's church, oh, servants who set into My name over the crowds. God needs you, He does not need temples of stone, for the temple in Jerusalem in which I entered was torn down stone by stone and it remained nothing on it, nothing of it, and I spoke two thousand years ago about this time, Mine with My people, chosen out of Romanians and I prophesied saying: «The hour comes when the true worshippers will worship in spirit and truth», (John: 4/23) that in God and not in high temples, but in small houses, in little chambers, which are comprise them within the mystery of prayer and with My sacrifice for them every day, so that they may be My saints, for My holies are given to the saints, and as the calling of the church is for those who commune with My body and blood to their life in My life assumed on earth. In the time of the first saints it was very beautiful, as today, when I, the Lord, have waited again to be over My faithful ones, for the holy apostles walked and established priests through the cities even if in a city where there were no more than two, three or four Christian people, but they received the Lord on their table and they fed on Him in secret, and there was great persecution for My church, not as over the church of the world, which climbs on a height at the hand of anyone who wants to come into it and at its table. Well, if this is the church of the world, who is supposed to enter it then but the world?

Oh, My people of today, work the victory as I did, for I overcame the world, and I teach the one who comes to see you because you are Mine and I tell him how to overcome the world too, for the world is not overcome by other kind of power than by that of the humble spirit in man, and this spirit teaches you to live in God, not in this world, and it teaches you to humble yourself like Him too, and then the world does no longer love the man who works like that, and this is how the man gets out of the world and not otherwise. The man without God in him cannot bear this opposition, he cannot stay freely under defeat, and this spirit opposing to humility is called world in man, a man who had not given up the world for God's kingdom in him, but the one who overcomes himself for My kingdom in him, that one has got those in his household as enemies, those who are close to him, those who are used to him, and they hate him if he becomes My dwelling place among those in his household. Behold, everything that is considered old upsets the man and he seeks after everything that is new on him, even if it is about those in his family who rise against each other when it is about God in man, and thus how am I, the Lord, not supposed to speak the word to make all things new that bring eternal joys, not human, as the man seeks after those who are fresh by which he throws away those, which he thinks that are old even when it is about his family, about his neighbors?

Oh, My people, the godly man is not received by the one who is not godly and he is not believed having God in him, but I, the Lord, strengthen the word of Epiphany over the waters and I give Myself to the man to clean his mind, to strengthen his faith and to tell him:

The Spirit of God hovers over the waters to fill them with cleaning power of all that harm the people and which are made by people and by the devils.

The water of Epiphany is sanctified with the cleaning power of mind for man, for the mind has to be passed through a dense sieve to be able to receive the Lord in it, and then the grace of the holy faith for all the Lord's works with the man, for the kingdom of God is inside the man if it is at all, and it is not in this world! Amen.

Peace to you, those who have come to the feast of Epiphany, to the water sanctified with the power of the word! The Spirit of God is hovering over the waters. The Spirit of the Lord is coming down upon those who give Him a dwelling place and then His fruits are seen in those who are humbled like Him! Amen.

I have enveloped you within a spirit of Epiphany, My people taught by God. Oh son, become an example of the kingdom of the heavens before people! Show the people their sins so that they may know that they are sins, for the people do not have teachers for My kingdom in man, a kingdom, which has nothing in this world as I also do not have anything. I have taught you, that the man on earth should also hear it too, that is about the food of life making in man on your table if the man takes it to put it on his table as food. Oh, you shall not believe in Me in an earthly way and then teach the man who comes to you after Me likewise. You shall rather be a teacher of eternal life in man as I am, My people, and you shall be like Me, and you will see Me as I am, and I will be like you, and the world will see this miracle, My coming to you, for you have come to Me and you are, and I have come to you on earth and I am Who I am, and behold, I give Myself as word of Holy Spirit over to the people and I call to Me those who want to be like Me and a dwelling place of My kingdom in them afterwards. Amen.

Peace to you! In a spirit of Epiphany the angels sprinkle you with holy water. The saints and the angels drink water of Epiphany near you, and even those who are asleep come and drink and compose themselves and their longing until I will quench their longing.

The Spirit of the Lord scents you with His gifts. I, the Lord, have spoken My word upon you: Peace to you!

In the beginning was the Word, and I was the Word in the beginning, and I build again by the word, and the world will see Me and will believe seeing, and those who are faithful to Me will take the crown of their faith and will see My comfort, for I am the comfort of those who believe in Me with power, with Holy Spirit and power, My people, and you will be the one comforted for you faith, which I multiply for you to have faith and that I may have faith in you either, for the fulfilling of everything that I will fulfill by My Spirit and by My building word, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-01-2008

The synod of the Saint John the Baptizer

In the spirit of the feast of Epiphany, I, the Lord, meet My people again, for My feasts and the feasts of My saints became and become paths of My Spirit's coming down, the One Who is a Teacher over the sons, and behold, John, My godfather of baptism, waits at the border between day and night to receive Me and My people in heaven and on earth, up and down, as the whole heaven waits for the saints. Amen.

Lift up, you gates, so that I may come again into the book with a feast of Epiphany for I want to be baptized in My word, all those who believe in My coming of nowadays, for he who is baptized is the faithful one of My being of true God from true God, and is faithful to the work of My word, by which I came and come down on earth, and then to tell the one who hears Me through the gates, to tell him to be baptized in My word, in My Spirit, as John, My Baptizer, spoke at Jordan to those who came to him, and he told them this: «Repent!» Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lamb God, I entered at once into Your book with Your people, for I have been waiting for this as one full of longing and confessing spirit, for there is no sweeter happiness in heaven for Your saints like that for them to be able to confess You from heaven on earth by Your coming of now with Your saints. And I, like You, speak to Your people likewise and to every man who takes us from the wedding table of Your word, and I tell to all those who hear from heaven the voice of God's Son, the trumpet for resurrection, I tell them to be baptized in God's word, because I told those who came to me to the water of Jordan for baptism, I told them: «Repent! I indeed baptize you with water for repentance and for the forgiveness of the sins by your repentance, but He Who comes after me is mightier than I am, and He is the great One, and This will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and with fire».

Oh, how shall we do, Lord baptizer, how shall we do, Lord, to bring the man to repentance, and then to the baptism in the Holy Spirit? When I was preaching the kingdom of God in the wilderness of Judea, which was coming closer to the Jews to comprise them in it, I was calling to repentance those who were hearing me and Jerusalem and Judea, and all the surroundings of Jordan were coming, and I was baptizing with water those who were confessing their sins with repentance, but I also saw the Pharisees and the Sadducees that they were coming to baptism, and I, seeing that they were cunning, I stopped them and I told them to bring forth fruits worthy of repentance if they did not know to repent for the baptism with water and because they relied on Abraham in a hypocrite way, then I stood against them and told them that God was able to raise up children to Abraham even from the stones, and I called them offspring of vipers, and I rightly called them like that, those who believed that would get away anyhow from the wrath that was to come upon those who worked it out and not their salvation, and then they went to their own business not giving up their sin in them, the sin of their haughtiness and of not loving of God, the sin from ancestors and by which the Jewish people were sending the righteous ones to death in order for them to make room with their kingdom under the name of Abraham's sons, but they were offspring of vipers, Lord, for when You came down on earth, they followed You up to kill You even from the time of your infancy, Lord, and they did this after they found You out from me that You came out and appeared and then You confessed for their salvation too, and they gave You to death afterwards by the sin of blasphemy and treason, Lord.

Oh, I speak to Your people of today a word of love for You, my and its Teacher, and You bless now my word!

– Amen, amen, I say to You, My Baptizer, I am the One Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and with fire, and you should speak about this mystery and power of this baptism[84], and should preach it to My people of today. Amen.

– The Lord Jesus Christ is the One Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and with fire. (Come closer to my testimony, people born of the word of God, for the baptism with the Holy Spirit worked with power, and He worked visibly after the Lord went to be with the Father and He ordained His disciples to establish the Lord's church on earth, and the Holy Spirit was perfecting Himself in those who came to repentance and then to the water of baptism to the forgiveness of their sins, and those who were baptized in the name of Christ were seized by the Holy Spirit. Nevertheless, how did that come about? Oh, blessed is, and blessed is again the one who comes to know how to come to God, for that one is the one who repents confessing all their sins, all the death in him, washing away from it by repentance and by the water that testifies from the earth, and then that one joins in with the work of the Holy Spirit, becoming a new vessel, a new man, and the Spirit testifies then from heaven and He glorifies Himself with His sign in the one baptized with the Holy Spirit, and behold, the Lord ascended to be with the Father so that He might sent the Holy Spirit to come down into those who clean themselves of their own self and in such a way that the Holy Spirit might be able to come in them, God's kingdom with all its glory, with the Holy Spirit in them, the spirit of the saints of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, and I speak again: Blessed are those who know how to come to God, for they will become the sons of the Holy Spirit and they will be called so after that. Amen.

[84] See the selection topic: „About baptism", r.n.

Oh, people of the slaughtered Lamb! His blood washes away from his sin the one who knows what the birth from heaven means, the birth from repentance and from the baptism with the Holy Spirit. Oh, look well into your midst and see! The sings of the Holy Spirit speak in those who have wanted to be vessels bearing of God. If you have sinned against this work of the Lord's coming in order that through it He may make sons of His kingdom on earth among people, sons exhorted and grown within the Holy Spirit, get up and become a son of God, for the Pharisees and the Sadducees were offspring of vipers when they went to be baptized with water at Jordan without them having washed their hidden sins in water and by confession with repentance, and by which they were biting by stealth, but the spirit of prophecy proved them out as they were and wrote them down into the book of the time. Oh, get wisdom from this parable and learn the power and the mystery of the baptism with the Holy Spirit, Who brings the evil from man into view to cleanse a threshing floor in man for Him, if the man knows to understand how he can choose God working in him, working with the Holy Spirit in the one who discharges his load in order to take that of the Lord's and then to carry it.

Oh, son of this word, oh, son of God, if you have sinned against the Holy Spirit, the One Who works into your midst for you, and you do not know that you have got this sin, then I tell you that you have it. Therefore, get up and cleanse yourself by your repentance worked in humility, for the Lord is waiting for you to be a bearer of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit Who testifies from heaven in those who are baptized in Him. Get up in order to be baptized with this baptism, for this baptism has become a big river over to you so that all those who reach this river may be baptized, and you have this river. Many in you, faithful people of this word of the Lord's coming, many in you do not know the power and the mystery of the baptism with the Holy Spirit, Who works then from man, sealing the one who he is baptized. Oh, you need power of repentance, son, and for this miracle you need a miracle mind, miracle love, miracle for the fear of God, and you need miracle faith, faith like that of Abraham, who believed steadfastly that the Lord came to him at his table and in his life. Oh, if you do not see God's work into your midst well, then you still have sin against the Holy Spirit. If you do not know how recognize yourself in this sin, then you can understand alone. Does the river of the Holy Spirit flow from you between brother and brother and then over to the sides, over those who are away from God's life? Do you understand God's will upon you on earth as in heaven? Has the Lord fruit of the Holy Spirit in you? Do you have the Lord's fruit in you and around you? Are you gentle and humble in your heart like your Lord? Oh, I teach you wisdom and I teach you repentance. Seek to see that you may not struck in the Lord's way to you, if you were not hidden then with this blows, and when the Lord told you that you did not want to cleanse yourself to be clean and then to be faithful to His establishment by which He stays before you. The Lord has exhorted you to come to Him with your brother, whom you knocked down from the work of the clean heart between brother and brother, between God and Christian, for behold, the Lord has been mourning even to this day over the people of old, that of the time of the Verginica's body, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) a people that has not come to repentance when it has gone wrong towards the Lord's work between brother and brother, concerning his faith and steadfastness and concerning his brother's faith and steadfastness.

The Lord is coming to you greatly and urges you to get baptized with the Holy Spirit, Who makes the man new, more than the water that testifies on the earth. Oh, get washed in this vessel, old people of this word, and you, the Lord's people of this day, and you too should hear what I speak to you. You have to be beautiful people through the work of the Holy Spirit Who dwells in those who are clean from themselves and from the sin against their brothers. Oh, come to the beauty of the Holy Spirit's face, for the Holy Spirit overflows itself when it is, and this is the sign of those who are clean for the Holy Spirit, Who is confirmed by their fruit brought to God, fruit of disciples for the Holy Spirit on earth. Amen.

Oh, Lord, let Your old people of this word cleanse itself and also let Your people of today from everywhere cleanse itself from what makes You suffer and let it learn the work of the same spirit in them, the work of the Holy Spirit, Who binds the church in one spirit, the Spirit of Christ. Amen.

Oh, I would speak much more, Lord; oh, I would exhort more Your people to the baptism that comes from You! From everywhere, where You have faithful sons of Your coming of nowadays, I would like the people to come together in a union of Holy Spirit, and let it know in this way its work or its lack of work, the cleanness or the lack of cleanness of its heart, and let it be baptized in this way in the power of the Holy Spirit, diligent worker, Lord, by the spirit of church over those who are born of Him as God's sons, the sons of the Holy Spirit, the fruit of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit, Which gives birth to God's church. Amen, amen, amen.

- I, the Lord, see your affliction, My Baptizer, for We are the sons of grief, and that is why We are. Let Us sit down at the feast of today, and then We will speak more passionately with My people of today. Amen.

My people, go now into the house of My trumpet with praying and with praise for the day of the synod of John, My baptizer. Go, son, and then settle there a day of praise, a day of spirit over that settlement sanctified by My word now, a newborn hearth, with work of new Jerusalem established on it. Amen. We will come then back to the mound and we will build upon you the work of the Holy Spirit, and then we will write the entire book of the day, for it is the work over the entire work of My people from everywhere. Oh, there is much work to do, much, very much for the face and for the whole life of My people from everywhere.

You, children from the gates, are in difficult hardships, for the people does not know to do its cleaning well. Those who know to stay well near you, those are the most grown ones and the most useful to Me and to you under My burden of today with you. Behold, I tell My people from everywhere a great mystery: The One who does not know or cannot work at My kingdom, which is built and which has built now on earth, at least let that one not crush the work of those who work at it over the man. This is what we are going to clarify today by the teaching of the feast of today, working this in a spirit of Epiphany. Amen.

I leave peace and spirit of Epiphany over the head and over the heart of My people, and I will teach My people again, for I am the Lord, the Teacher. Amen, amen, amen.

*

…

07/20-01-2008.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I am establishing in this day into My book with you the word of longing between you and Me, My people of today. Early in the morning, I lift up My gates and I come in to you through the gates, for it is a feast among saints. I make My way to you in days of feast, for I have made a house with you to fulfill the Scripture of the coming of God's Son, the second time on earth, and I needed a house for My coming. I become word and this is how I come down. My Father Sabaoth is in Me, and I am in Him. All the saints are in Me, for all live in Me, as it is written, and this is written about those who believe in Me on earth too, being workers for Me. Amen.

Oh, I have wanted you so much to be My people, My people! In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is how I dedicated you when I made you My people, to show My glory from you over the earth, My word, which rules and is glorified while ruling. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, and by your faith, have come out then as word upon the people to tell them too that I have come as word on the earth. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are this word, and These three mean the One God. Amen.

Oh, I have longed to come down again as word in My book with you, My people. The three bishops and their feast of today have made Me a way to you in this day. The saints have waited from heaven for their feasts, for their longing is as much as Mine is for My coming and theirs to you, at your table, the table of My word into your midst. Oh, how is the world without God in its life not supposed to marvel? How are it and its sons not supposed to marvel at My dwelling into your midst as word so much? How is it supposed to believe in this miracle when it has its longings, its miracles and its eyes, which see so little, so weak, for the man's faith is weak, but his unfaith is much. However, what is unbelief? It is the spirit of the world; the limited eye of the spirit of the man who is foreign from God's way on earth. It is the prison where the sons of this age rot, who eat the sin and its fruit, for the sin is the food of their soul, the food which does not let the man look at himself to see his fruitless life and by which the man deceives his soul, closing the entrance to Me so that I may not come in and wake up the man to see, to believe and then to wake up after that. Behold, the man deceives his soul, and the soul in him is the door, by which I can enter in man, and the man does not know what his soul is and the man closes the door to Me.

Oh, My people, there is no man on earth who does not believe in God, or not feel God. Do not marvel at this news coming out of My mouth, but rather marvel at the man and at his evil power, by which he deceives himself so that he may not deny his unbelief, the spirit of the world, by which he is fed even when he sleeps.

Oh, sons of the world, sons of men! I, the Lord, bow to you to make your calling again, for it is for this that I have come from the Father again on earth. You are at the bottom, and I am above the spirit of the world, for the spirit of the world is the precipice which keeps you between its borders so that you may not see the truth and its light beyond the banks of this precipice, which does not let you see. Only when I make My mercy on you come down, My waking wrath, only then you see Me, only then your faith in God gets up from its sleep, the feeling of your heart about your only Savior, for the man looks for his savior in his great affliction.

Oh, sons of the world, your unhappiness is great! The unhappiness is the opposing spirit of the happiness of your souls. Do not forget that your souls are from God and that you give them dead food. Do not forget that they yearn in you after life even when you call their works of death life, the works of unbelief. Oh, do not forget that the unbelief is the spirit of the darkness and the ruler of this age and in which you stay as in a dungeon. I, the Lord, call you from over you. Your evil power does not let you and it does not save you from it, and the spirit of unbelief does not cover the sight of your spirit so that you may not deny the spirit of the world, the spirit that feeds even your sleep. Oh, open your eyes, open them alone and be perceived by the spirit of the holy faith to take from God the resurrection from the death in which you stay. The time of the resurrection of the dead has come, who hear God's word to get up, and I, the Lord, call you from over you and I give you the spirit of resurrection. The saints wait for your waking up, for they were people like you on earth and they got in heaven by the work of their faith, sweet work for man but which the man does not know, for the man beats against the precipice in which he stays when he tries to look to see, and the one who does not see, remains in unbelief, remains blind and deaf. My mercy calls the man out. My mercy on man becomes word upon man and calls out to the man saying: Come, man, to see and to understand the first things before the man's death, when the man was comprised in God as a baby is in his mother's womb until he gets out in the passing away realm! Come, man, to Me before I may come to You because of your unbelief, to wake you up from it, to see and to believe! However, the faith that comes to you by My wrath for your unbelief, that one judges and it does not comfort. However, I am the Lord, the Comforter, and I come with comfort and get in to your ear closed to Me, and I open it and tell you comfortably that the unbelief is the spirit of the world. And I also tell you man, fallen man, that the faith is God's Spirit against the darkness of the unbelief. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, oh, My house of coming! I have called out the unfaithful man out of you and I have called him out like a father. I have called the man out from your midst that he may be able to know that I am with you on earth and that I keep you in Me and I feed you likewise, and by your faith I pour Myself out into your midst like a river of living waters, which flow over those who have no water, without teaching, without resurrection over the earth, and whoever will get up and bow to drink will come to life from death and will come to life as you came to Me when you found My spring and tasted of its water, and behold, you are now My holy mountain, My temple, My Zion, My New Jerusalem, to which those who are thirsty of God head for and say to themselves: «Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to His temple, and He will teach us of His ways and we will walk in His paths, for out of Zion will go forth the law, and the word of the Lord will flow from Jerusalem to us, and the Lord, like a Shepherd Who shepherds His flock, will gather His lambs together within His arms and will take them to His bosom, and those who nurse will feel the rest", as it is written. (See also Micah: 4/2)

Oh, My people, the world has learned in an earthly way and it cannot see those that are from heaven in its midst, for I am the mysterious One with you, because this is how God is, and the one who stays in unbelief cannot see God. However, you should learn in a godly way, and you should believe likewise, but I have mercy on those who are in your midst and who did not perceive with their faith all My mystery in your midst, for those, who are slow in their mind for the things of God, have not received the whole power of faith from above and for the things from above, for the man gets from God only what he gives to God. And now, I, the Lord, release upon you the word of the three bishops celebrated today in heaven and into your midst and who became with their feast My bridge, the bridge of My word of today, for it is written into the prophets: «As the children of Israel bring their offering for the Lord's temple, and as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before Me, so shall your seed and your name remain… and it shall happen that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before Me» says the Lord. Amen, amen, amen. (See Is: 66/2-23)

– Oh, You are great, Lord, and Your works are wonderful, and there is no word to be enough for Your glory, for You have brought together to You the nations and the languages to see always Your glory from Your saints, and out of them You have taken priests and Levites, as You also took us and made us serve to Your godliness on the earth before the people, and behold, our nation of saints and our name remain, Lord, as it is written. We have come now from feast to feast and we are worshipping You together with Your people of today, which stands before Your word when it comes and which You made Your house on earth and of Your saints, Your messenger from margins to margins with Your mystery in its midst, for behold, from Jerusalem God's word will flow to the nations, and You shepherd Your flock like a Shepherd and gather together in Your arms lambs, and You carry them at Your bosom, as it is written.

We worship before You, Lord, in the midst of Your people, and together with him we are worshippers here. We pray to You from its midst for him, Good One: fulfill Your prophesy on earth more and more to the understanding of the people for this new beginning of Yours, which You announced by the prophets when You said that: «It shall happen in the last days that the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills, and the nations will stream to it and many nations will say: "Come, and let us go to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths, for out of Zion will go forth the law and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem». (See Micah: 4/1, 2) «The haughty eyes will be humbled and the pride of the people will be brought low, and only the Lord will be exalted, for He will judge His day and will rise against everything that is haughty and exalted with pride and the man's pride will be torn down, and in that day only the Lord will be exalted, and all the idols will be knocked down and the man will throw them away, for what kind of power does the man have?»

Out of the midst of the people of Your word we call You out for him, Good One. Give him strength and shepherd him in the spirit of the holy hope for the victory, Lord, and throw his opposing power to the ground. Cut out the power and the conspiracy, which gets up to strike into Your work into the midst of Your people, for out of Your midst You make the living river flow, the river of life, Lord, over the living and over the dead, for You came in Your time. Make way to Your word over the nations of the earth, for You come out of Your chamber as a Bridegroom, out of the midst of Your people when You come to him to share Yourself over the earth and to shine seven times over more than by this time through all those who have carried You to the people, because now You are the One Who speaks, You are the voice of the seventh angel, who announces the judgment, Your day, when all those that are haughty will turn pale and will bow down before the glory of Your day, for You have nothing to wait for from the people, for the people stay in the precipice of their unbelief and do no longer get out of it. However, you call out by Your voice over this dark deep and we, Your saints together with You and from You, call out in the coming: Come to life, you dry bones, for the flesh is rotten on you, it is only sin, and the sin is death, it is rottenness like the body, which decays in the soil! Come to life, you, people locked-up in bodies and sold to sin! We, the three bishops, Basil, Gregory and John, servants of fire in the Lord's temple, mysterious workers in the vineyard of today, at the fire altar, settled by the Lord now into the midst of the Romanian nation for the Lord to burn on it the spirit opposing to Him and all the sins of the human creature, from Adam to this day, we, those who have come down from heaven in these days of the Lord's coming, at his beginning in the year of 1955, by His trumpet by which He called out, and again, now, at the end of His calling by those who serve now before the workers of fire together with us and we, together with them, call out and announce the Lord's commandment: Come to life, you, dry bones, and become God's sons by the gift of the holy faith! Come to live, you, locked-up spirits in your bodies sold to the unbelief, to the spirit of the world and sin! We do no longer command the evil spirit to come out of you, but we command your spirit to come to life and to overcome for God in you. Come to life and believe in God and then give forth fruit worthy of repentance and then become God's sons, become holy just as we also became holy on the earth before the Lord of the saints, for He has given us this power, as it is written for those who believe in Him! Amen.

And now, Lord, Lord, seek from heaven and search and look at this vineyard of Yours and perfect it, for Your people of today is Your vineyard, and make it and Your new vine grow, as You have advised Your people. And we, those who have the work of the heavenly anointing over it, we are among those who are set by us as workers on Your behalf through them for the fruit of the vineyard, for the table of Your wedding, Lord, for Your new vine, for Your vine is Your planting, and You are its fruit. Amen, amen, amen.

– May your heavenly word be blessed by God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, oh, My servants on behalf of the heaven over My new people of today! We have come down today for a word of longing between Me and My people, and then for the word of the calling out between Me and the sons of the world and then for the word of resurrection over them, and again, as word of new blessing over My new vineyard and over its fruit. Amen.

May your work with faith in it of My people of today be blessed, for by its faith I fulfill the Scriptures, which still are to be settled on earth as in heaven. Amen.

Oh, come, blessed of My Father, you, sons of My people of today, come and be My workers and the heirs of My work and miracle, which I have given to you to work and to bear, prepared by Me from the foundation of the world to be established on the earth, the living church of God, the Word, and over which He Himself speaks and fulfills and makes it ready like a bride for her Bridegroom, as it is written. Amen.

My people, peace to you in this day of heavenly and bishop's feast! Peace and blessing and holy work I leave to you and I strengthen in a new way over the three sons anointed into the midst of My people in the name of the graces of My three bishops, Basil, Gregory and John, by whom I blessed the work of My word of today at its beginning. Amen.

Oh, sons of My people, strengthen My path towards you, My word upon you and your life in obedience, for the most beautiful spirit before Me from you is the spirit of obedience, the spirit that keeps My sons to be Mine forever, and I, the Lord, have an order from the Father Sabaoth to stay into your midst as word and to teach you always, and behold, I am always your teacher; and I am your protector and I am the Lord, your God, My people, and you should watch, son, you should watch to be always, to be My people with your entire living, and I to be your Teacher by your listening to My exhortation, by your full submission under My word of your Shepherd, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

30-01/12-02-2008

The feast of the Meeting of the Lord

(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, you are My house and I lay down My head in you when I come, and I go out with you when I appear with My glory over the earth. May My will in your midst be blessed and fulfilled, for this makes My kingdom on earth fulfilled in you, and then from it comes your bread, your forgiveness, your love, your protection and your salvation, as I, the Lord, taught My disciples to ask from Me when they come before Me with their prayer, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-02-2008.

The Sunday of the tax collector and the Pharisee

I am knocking and it is opened for Me and I am coming in as word into My book of today with you, people of God's word. I feed you, son, from feast to feast, because I have nowhere to stop on earth to do My works written into the Scriptures to be fulfilled now. I come to strengthen your faith, for My thought and My love are only of you, for you are the one who believes in God, Who has made His way on to the earth now to be able to invite the man to My kingdom, to love and to holiness, and that I may be able to look face to face with the man, he with Me and I with him, to the perfection of My coming again from the Father to man. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, strengthen the people of My word; strengthen each one of them according to his need, as you know that he needs growth and work. Work sons! Work My people, for you have My love in you, My mercy for man, My merciful Spirit and My wisdom for the holy making of the man. Strengthen the man who is weak in the things from above in him, strengthen him for his birth from above so that he may be able to be with My kingdom in him, for everything has been waiting for renewal. You should help those that do not have the gift of the humility of spirit by your humility and wake the man up to repentance. Oh, do not be afraid of man, but rather help him and I will reward you. The humility of spirit is My rest in man, and this is what I want to set over the one who comes to take from you the law of God's love and then the law of holiness, the law that is written on the gate of the little garden of My word and for which My entire people has to persevere more and more, for it is the time for the law of the heaven to come down on earth, the new heaven and the new earth, as My beloved John saw and said: «I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more; and I saw the holy citadel, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband, and a voice from the throne saying: "Behold God's dwelling is with people, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God». And He also said: «Behold, I am making all things new… I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life, and he who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be My son. But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death», as it is written. (See Apoc: 21/1-8)

Oh, My people from everywhere, I call you out, son, to a life with love in it, for love heals the man from his sin and behaves like a mother to her sons and advises them. Oh, there are no longer confessors on the earth; they are no longer! The people have no way to come to God, for the common man knows that God is there where the people took My little house and coat and where those who rule upon them buy and sell the men's soul and God's mysteries, but God is in the man's heart, only the man to be woken up for this treasure in him and then for its adornment, and behold, the people do not have a teacher for this wisdom upon them. Those who teach the man do not have Me as their love, do not share Me with My teaching, but they rather share theirs to their advantage, not to man's advantage, for love heals the man from sin and from his self when it works upon man, and it behaves like a mother with her children and takes care of them for a long time, until love receives face in them, calling itself My kingdom in the faithful and loving man.

When I was with My disciples two thousand years ago, and many were looking at My speaking with them, the scribes, the Pharisees, the tax collectors and the rulers were coming and listening to My teaching upon the disciples and I was looking at some of them, who were looking down to others, they being sure that were righteous, and then I told them the parable of two people who went to pray before the Lord, a tax collector and a Pharisee, the latter standing upright, praying with thankfulness for the good things he had done, while the first, the tax collector, from far away where he was, did not even dare lift up his eyes to heaven, but was beating his chest praying for God's mercy for his sinfulness, and this one humbled himself and in this way he was exalted to God by his prayer, and the other one exalted himself and God humbled him, not justifying him for his works, by which he wanted to exalt himself before people, looking down on them.

Oh, My people, the humility of spirit is God's power in man. Oh, who shall teach the people this humiliation, which exalts them to the wisdom of love? Man, come and ask My wisdom upon you, and stay at the work of your making, when you come! Come, My people to learn to be beautiful and holy, and then to be worker, for I taught My disciples very much and I told them all kind of parables, for many looked at Me when I was working upon them and all those who looked at Me while I was teaching My disciples needed much instruction. I taught them face to face with all those who came together near us, as I am doing with you today, My people, and many took the wisdom of love and the mystery of the man's making, man born from above at God's word, for I was the Father's word then, as I am into your midst today, come from the Father, and I was giving birth to My word in the midst of My disciples, as I am working today, for I have made a house where to come and to come out of it as a Teacher over those who have found Me that I am on the earth as word into the midst of a people of disciples. Amen.

Oh, the mystery of the humility of spirit is My teaching in this day. Come, you too, sons of the world, come to hear My word, which gives birth to sons for God, for the Lord can make His sons out of stones, as it is written. Come to hear the voice of My calling and do not be stiff-necked, for your heart is hardened and that is why you cannot do more for your souls, which mourn in you after the life that wants to come on the earth once with My day of wrath[85], which will strike those who stay in unbelief, not in a saving work and in ignorance of God! Come! I give you birth and I grow you if you come. Come and become disciples of My teaching, for I have people to work with and to take care of your growth! Those who are born have to learn then the work of love and of the holy watch until My coming, for many want to give birth, and that by not watching upon them, they stumble and die again, for those who seek to stumble, the evil spirit comes to them and corrupts their mind, their sight and their faith, and then it corrupts My dwelling place in them and then they remain in the darkness, poor of them, and it happens to them as to the Pharisee, who was sure that he was righteous, and therefore he looked down to all those around him, and he was doing this before Me but I did not justify him more than the one who recognized his unworthiness, humbling himself with a crush of heart and with his prayer before Me.

Behold, the one who thinks that he is right, that one despises his neighbor and he does this before Me, and he does not know what he does when he does so. A man like that falls into the sin of man's contempt and then he judges his neighbor and falls into the judgment of his neighbor, as the Pharisees in the parable of today did, who judged the tax collector and he justified himself before Me by the spirit of haughtiness, which exalts the man to his own falling.

Oh, I taught My disciples very much so that they might also be able to know how to work and how much to work over those they lifted from their sin, sealing them with the baptism for the birth from above, much work, because the work of the making has to remain always working, always taking care over the man then.

[85] See the selection topic: „The great tribulation", r.n.

Oh, son, try not to put pressure on your brother. Give him the opportunity to grow, give him a good example, and in this way you will work before Me brotherly work, for which I will reward you, for behold, I have making sons into your midst, who know from Me how to work with each one, to bring the man to Me, for I put in these a people loving spirit, and if they had the chance they would work day and night for the salvation of many, and you should look at My work and at their work, for their work of teaching looks like Mine, only for you to want to understand this, My people. Oh, they are despised by those who love themselves and who justify themselves in their own self and then fall by their haughtiness, for when the man exalts himself, then he falls into the devil's temptation and then he falls into the sin of the judgment of his neighbor, for he does not know to see and understand the work of the man's making by those who make God in man, and then some like these fall into the sin of the judgment of his neighbor, and behold how much instruction you need, My people, and how much love I try to put into your heart so that you may understand what I speak to you, for he who does not have love cannot do anything and such a man is nothing. Oh, come to humble yourself in your mind and that I may give you wisdom, for here it is what I do with the mind of those who stumble, those who judge according to their own wisdom, exalting themselves only to fall down! However, I, the Lord, urge them to repentance and I tell them to open their eyes wide, for the devil is ready to strike them for their evil work, because the devil asks for permission from Me when he wants to show the man the hoax he did to him, and I am the One Who commands the devil to show his cunning face by which it draws the man away from My way. I am the One Who leaves the man into the devil's temptation when I see that he works by spying, by judging and with the haughtiness that makes the man fall into temptation, and the proud are those who have self-love, and this leads the man to his falling. However, I, like a merciful father, urge the mockers to repentance and I wait for their forgiveness if they come to a humble spirit, and if they do not take the work of humility in them, they will remain opposing servants, who, like the viper, split their tongue to the right and to the left in order to laugh at My hard labor, only that they do not know that they fight against Me and not against man, and if they do not understand this, they will see. Amen.

Oh, sons of the world, you too, get up from your bed and seek after your awakening, for the reward comes from any work, and you do not watch for that day. I speak to you as a father because I am merciful on you. My new great name is more and more hidden now before the people by those that tell that God is not and that it is only them. The red beast and the false prophet are now stronger against God and against man, for the unbelief is everything that has remained on the earth due to the man's foolishness, who seeks after power and after glory on the earth. Wake up, you, sons of the world, and seek after God, Who can save you from the darkness! The Lord's day comes and the people's houses and bodies will turn into heaps upon heaps of trash and houses upon houses, people upon people, and these works of lawlessness will open up and will fall down upon people and will crush them, and everything that stands against man's sight so that he may not see God, everything will fall down and the Lord will remain face to face with the man, and I have mercy on man and I call him: Come, man, come out to the light and become a child in your love and work, for you stay only in your sins! Come so that I may forgive you and to make you a child by forgiveness, for it is written: «Unless you become little children, you will not enter into God's kingdom», and this is what a child means: innocence, love, forgiveness and peace, God with man, father and son, for the children are those who have a father and call him their father. Amen.

Come, you, sons of the world! Come out of the world and become God's people, and then you will see, and you will see that God has spoken to you this word of longing, calling you out to him. Amen, amen, amen.

04/17-02-2008

The Sunday of the prodigal son

The Spirit of God hovers above the little garden of His word into the midst of the Romanian nation, strengthens His watch over this nation and exhorts it to watching, for the country with a holy living in it has got God as Teacher upon it. Amen.

I leave My peace over the little garden of My word and I come as Word into My book to set My people at the table of teaching, at the table for the soul and to exhort it to instruction and to a living with longing between Me and it, for My kingdom in man is seen and heard from near and from far, it is heard and shared, and this is what it makes its sons known, which it nourishes them with all those that belong to it and for them. Amen.

Oh, the mystery of God's longing for man is great! There where it is, there My kingdom is also, there My rest is also, and it cannot be otherwise in man. However, My longing after man is no longer a mystery, and it is much word instead, and My word becomes a river over the earth to teach the man the mystery of the longing and its great work in man before Me, the work which sets the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, that is Christ's church, working by its members in all the beauty of the Holy Spirit, which rises from it to its Lord and God and which makes sons for it, and in this way it takes on its crown, for Christ's bride has a crown of glory, and it shows its face under it. Amen.

From the midst of My people I come down as word of glory over the Romanian people, to exhort it to holiness and to a holy watch and to love with longing of God in it, for woe to the city that has not God over it!

Oh, but how can you keep Me near you, Romanian people? Oh, get up from your blood and learn the work of watchfulness, for in order to have God as watchman over your destiny from Him, ready to comprise you within it, this means for you to have love for God, to have God's mystery working with all its things upon your being, for after I had built My people on earth through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, I gave him the commandment of life and I told him to work it before Me as God's son, and I told him: «Israel, Israel, I am the Lord your God; you shall have no other gods before Me and you shall not bow yourself down to them, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate Me and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments». (Ex: 20/3-6)

Oh, Romanian nations, I am sitting on the clouds of glory and speaking above you, and My word is coming down in its book, which is open into your midst and receives Me so that I may be able to be your Teacher, now in the end of the time, when I come again from the Father as word to make the man. Oh, Romanian people, the Lord is the word of eternal life on your hearth. Take My word and give it life in you, for the city that works its love of God, that one has got the mystery of love and its work and the heavenly powers watching upon it, and the angelic armies, ministering for it, and the hosts of saints, overcoming for its life. Oh, son, I exhort you to the love for God, but you should be wise, Romanian son, for you cannot love God anyhow, but you can keep God as your God only with your holy life, for the love for God means faithfulness, and this works holiness before the loved One. Oh, do no longer waste your treasure, for soon, soon, I, the Lord, will call you to account for your life, for the treasure God has put in each man, and which the man has to present it before the Lord, adorned like a bride for her bridegroom.

I have put a great sign on your head, a great mystery, the mystery of Christ's bride, and I am coming to you to teach you how to wait for Me to come and to glorify Myself into your midst, My country. My wedding[86] with My bride taken from you, the Bridegroom and the bride's mystery is into our midst and watches for your life, but come to the table, come and take from My table the most valued pearl, the mystery of My kingdom in man! Take Me in your living, My country, and let My face shine on your face, after My will. Amen. Oh, this is not hard for those who love God.

Oh, My country at the end of the time, by your love for Me, I want to protect you from the evil coming out of your midst and that which is around you, but give Me your heart to make My dwelling place in it and to protect you by your faith in My word, which comes to appoint you as Mine, and then to adorn you with the robe of holiness. Oh, you should not find it difficult to be Mine, but rather let it be difficult for you to belong to the spirit of the world, the losing spirit of this age, for the spirit of the world opposes God and with all its faces it struggles to wipe out the Lord from the earth and from the heaven and to rule everywhere over the man's being, but I give you great blessing for the victory over the spirit of the world, and you should take from Me what I give you, for I come to give you life, protection and glory over your head. Oh, come near Me so that you many not go hungry! Come home, come to God and come in God, for there is hunger of life on earth! I, the Lord, wait for you to embrace you, to protect you and to increase the spirit of the holy faith, by which you may be able to work with Me.

Oh, My country from the end of the time, you are the mystery of the heavenly homeland because I have into your midst the spring of the river of life, My word, which flows from you over the earth, My chosen New Jerusalem, My citadel, from which the law of holiness flows over the earth, as it is written, only the people to take from it and to be their path to God and their life before Me then. I leave upon you the exhortation of holiness, My country, for it is written: «He who keeps My commandments knows that this word of longing means God, Who comes towards man to call him from death to life». Amen.

I give you power for your resurrection, My country. Get up to do My will and to sanctify My name on earth, for the people on earth want to put out My name and My life over man. I come soon to appear as true God and to put to shame the man's unbelief and his haughtiness, by which he has ascended above Me. However, I come soon with great glory, with a great sound of trumpet and I will appear from your midst that I am He Who is and He Who comes, for I have had on your hearth the table of My coming in great mystery, the table from which I take and give to those who want like God, and behold, I tell the nations of the earth: Come towards My table, come towards My mountain to teach you the way of the life and you to walk on it! Turn to Me, for the spirit of the world is a spirit losing of people, and only I rule over the wisdom and the life for the man! Come back to God and I will give you rest and I will give you power to become God's sons! Turn back and I will give you power to believe in My coming, that which is written into the Scriptures to be fulfilled and with which I stay as word over the nations of the earth!

Amen, amen, I say to you, Romanian people. Strengthen yourself in your faith and then in its works, for the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens has been working from your midst by the work of My word, which flows from you over the earth, and I, the Lord, wait on your hearth and I wait for your love, because you need working love for faith, and for love you need holy life, life which perceives in man like God, oh, My Romanian people, blessed with a great name, now in the end of the time. Amen.

[86] See the selection topic: „The Wedding of the Lamb", r.n.

And as for you, little and tiny people, chosen by Me from the Romanian people to be the house of the coming of God's Son as word on the earth now, come with every passing day more and more to greater love, to greater work of faith and perseverance for the protection of this nation, My Romanian nations, My nation from the end of the time, for I do no longer have watchmen with mercy for its life from Me and for My life in it. However, I teach it from your midst, and you come to stand before Me on your knees for this nation and ask from Me, son, for its protection and resurrection, ask from Me its making in My image and after My likeness. Oh, ask from Me for the resurrection of this nation, for I am He Who can work, as I can work for you too, you who love Me keeping yourself for Me in this dark time upon man. Then I call back to Me and to you those who pulled themselves out of My arm and went to taste of the spirit of the world, of God's hunger from the world. I call back to Me those who were part of My people's body and then slid down to the earth:

Come, you, children fallen from the faith and I will heal you, but come back to Me, for I come with pains on the earth, and I want to embrace those who love Me and want Me to protect them. Come back and come so that I may teach you how to come back! Come to Me to heal you! I stay at the spring and wait for you to wash you and to refresh you within a clean little shirt and then to embrace you within the mystery of the longing. I stay at the spring and I call you. I am the good Shepherd, Who calls His sheep and into the fold, Who calls His flock near Him. I am Who I am and He Who comes. Amen.

Peace to you, people of My word! The Spirit who walks over the surface of the earth to bring the souls into bondage, this spirit foreign to God will be caught in its own snare and will no longer be, and the Lord and His teaching Spirit will remain over those who will remain with Him and who will confess Me then. Amen.

Peace to you, faithful sons of My people! Make the Lord from dawn to evening and from evening to dawn, sons! Become rest for My Spirit Who comes and dwells among you. Amen, amen, amen.

11/24-02-2008

The Sunday of the fearful judgment

I, the Lord, am the Savior of the world not its Judge, for I have not come to judge the man for his sins, but I have rather come to exhort him to repentance, to faith and to his salvation from sin and then to eternal life, saving of sins over the man on the earth and then the good heaven in him, the kingdom of the heavens in man, My rest that I want so much in man. Amen.

I become the saving word over the little garden of My word into the midst of the Romanian nation, the word which shares Me to the people to be with the people on the earth, for My Father has sent Me again after man, and I become word of salvation from this sin over the man and I exhort him to the love of God and the love of God's sons, for I will come with all the angels in My day of glory and I sit on the throne of the greatness and all the nations will come together before Me, on My left and on My right, at My word spoken by Me for those who are good and bad, and then those who are good will be set on the right and those who are bad on the left, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and those who visited one of My little brothers, will hear then My calling: «Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom that which is prepared for you from the foundation of the world», and those who will not have visited My people will hear then:

«Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels». Amen. (See Matthew: 25/34, 41)

Oh, the man does not know his way to God. He knows that if he gives to the impoverished, to the beggar, to the one who does not have the things on earth, by this he gains his place near God, but it is not so. The man has always got the poor with him and around him, but he does not have God and he does not care of Him, for the man does not love God because he loves himself even when he stretches out his arm to give to the poor.

From among the saints I look with mourning over the people and I hear that they help the churches, but they, poor of them, do not know that their alms gift does not come to Me; they do not know, poor of them, what it means for the man to help the church. The church is the holy man, who denies himself to become My dwelling place among people, and those who walk towards such people like these learn the way to God too and then walk in it. God's church serves the people for their salvation from the sin, giving light to them on their way to see the way and to walk in it. My little brothers, about whom I spoke in My Gospel two thousand years ago, are those who take after Me on the earth, doing the Father's will, just as I have done it, and behold, the poor and destitute are not My brothers if they do not do My Father's will, but they only wait for man's help remembering My name with their lips and only to receive alms from man.

Oh, it is great work for the man to gain My calling for those who will be set on My right hand in My day of glory when all the nations will be gathered together before Me. I come and teach the man, for I am the man's Teacher and his Savior.

Oh, man, longing for salvation, you do not know to do the works for paradise, for in order to get in paradise you need to do God's will, not man's will. Behold, you do no longer have a teacher to show you the way to paradise and you do also not take your time to seek after a teacher over your life, over your work. I come into your way and teach you, only for you to open for Me, only for you to believe in My word by which I come down from the Father to you to advise you to God. Those who have closed Me within the pages of the Scripture, which people have on their table, they have closed the way of My coming so that the people may no longer know Me that I come as word upon the earth, as it is written that I come and to be called the Word of God. However, when these will hear from My mouth that I have been this word by which I throw My seed on the earth, will see, poor of them, how greatly they have set themselves upon the men's faith and how greatly they have been deceived by their pride, by their not fearing God, for the faith does not belong to everyone, but it belongs only to those who are afraid of God and who have great feeling for God in them just as the Samaritan woman had when I came into her way and she knew Me, while the Jews, into the midst of whom I came from the Father, called Me heretic and wonderer, God blasphemer, deceiver, immoral and destroyer of holy traditions, and they did not know Me that I was the Father's Son, the One prophesied to come on the earth for the men's salvation.

Oh, the man does not have time for God on the earth, but I come to teach the man the way to God.

Oh, man, those who are My little brothers, about whom I wrote into My Gospel for the judgment of the world, they are those who can set you on the way of the commandments of life, as they set themselves. You shall visit them, for they have let themselves into My care like the birds of the sky and like the flowers of the field as I taught My brothers, who followed Me and whom I set to stand before Me for My works upon people, for My kingdom, to give it to the people who will understand it and will take it as their life. Oh, behold how beautifully one can understand the good answer for the day when I, the Lord, will sit on the throne of glory and separate the sheep from the goats, as it is written!

Learn from Me, men's sons! With your steps seek those who have left off the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life to be Mine into the midst of the people, who cannot leave the spirit of the world. Seek those who denied themselves to love only Me and My life in them before men, and take their example and learn too, for blessed are those who will have part in the first resurrection, for the second death will not have any power against them, as it is written.

Oh, sons of men, it is written in the order of Christ's church a time of fast for the cleansing of man's sins and for the preparation of the feast of My resurrection. Oh, not those who fast from food will be blessed, but those who are pure in their heart, those who are gentle, those who are merciful, those who are righteous, the peacemakers, those who are blasphemed for My name, those who are persecuted because of righteousness, and not those who abstain from food. In the time of the fast seek to be healed from wickedness and adorn your soul with humility and repentance, for if the fast from food does not bring God in you, humble and gentle as He is, to teach the people how they may also be, then you will not be able to learn the way to My kingdom, and you will not find those who are My little brothers who stand before Me for My glory, for My works between earth and heaven. Come to the spring of My word, which teaches you too the way of My kingdom in man and here you will find those who stand before Me for the whole human kind on the earth, for I come and speak for all the word of creation and of man's calling from death to life, from the world to God. Come, you too, on the royal way, on the way of life! Come and become ministers of My church, which watches before Me day and night, as it does not minister before the world, but it rather watches serving. Come to learn what church means and what it means to love it as it loves you! Come to understand that the world does not mean Christ's church, as those, who today are calling themselves church servants, teaching you, when they do not help the church as much as a straw, but they rather heap up glory for them and for their name, which is not according to their works and it is far too great for their life, which does not take after My life, for I gave My life for My church and I am gentle and humble in My heart, and My word is in power and in its fulfillment. Amen.

God's voice has spoken to the sons of men to call them from sin to holiness, from unbelief to belief and then to the works of the faith, for the Lord speaks over the earth into the midst of the Romanian people, which He has chosen as the house of the wedding of His coming to His bride of the Romanians, and the Lord invites to the table of His wedding and He is the Bridegroom of the wedding. Amen.

I, the Lord, have called you to blessing, oh, men's sons, and you are going to see what you will be doing. I, the Lord, call to repentance as many as I have loved them, and I will receive and write with Me those who will love to fulfill My word in them. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, people of My works, I will be speaking in the course of this day and teaching you in a special way, for You are My son and brother and you are My church and I have to work with you, My people. Amen.

*

(…)

Self-denial, which I ask from man who wants to follow Me with the cross of his life, this means the absence of judgment of his mind against those around him, and he who judges does this because he is haughty and because he feels wronged, forgetting that man does not deserve anything but the cutting of his will for the atonement of his sins. I am teaching you, My people nearest to My works with you, I am teaching you this for the time of the fasting, for I want the fasting from food to strengthen you, because this comes together with the work of self-denial, without which man has no power at all. Be careful, sons, for the self-denial is worked by the spirit of love, which does not ask but gives itself in a godly way and for God, not for man, and let everything you do in your body and soul be gathered in the Lord, sons. And both for the spirit and for the body I have taught you to pass from body into soul, for these two live together, working them in the Lord when they belong to God, and do not forget that I said: «God is Spirit, and those who want to worship Him must worship in spirit and truth». (John: 4/24) Amen.

(…)

18-02/02-03-2008

The Sunday of the remembrance of Adam's expulsion from paradise

My voice, which spoke in paradise with the man built by My hand by the word, dust and spirit, has been speaking during these days from the midst of the Romanian people to call the man again back to God, to wake up the man's spirit and then to make the man listen to God and to make him come back to God. Amen.

I am Who I am, and nothing will remain on earth but only I and all those who will be like Me and who will see Me and will also be just as I am the One Who I am. Amen.

Unless I shake the heaven and the earth, the sea and the dry land, the man does not open his eyes to God, for the man has rooted the sin in him and he does not have any mercy to pull out of him this weed that sucks his life and My life from his spirit. However, I have become word of making between Me and Father, and behold, between Me and man, for now I am not passing over the man but face to face with him I am speaking with the Father, and I am speaking with the man and for the man to invite him to let himself into My making hand so that I may make him in My image and after My likeness and to start with him by calling him to My table, at the table of My coming for the second time on earth as word to speak with the man as I spoke with him in paradise and to ask him: "Man, where are you?" and then to exhort him to answer where he is, where he answers Me from, and what he does, and then to tell him what to do and thus he may listen to God, Who urges him to eat from heaven and to have a peaceful face between him and God, for God speaks with the man because the Lord can do it. Amen.

Oh, man, oh, where are you? I speak to you as I spoke with Adam in paradise. I sought Adam, for he tried to hide from Me. However, My voice took Adam out of himself and he answered Me, for I spoke to him with power, as a God and not as a man.

Oh, man, I have been looking for you. I do not look for you on earth, but I look for you in you to take you out of you and to advise you to stand before Me without fear, for fear separates the man from God and you shall stand with love before Me, for I do not do to you any harm. You are the one who does harm to yourself and you have to run from you, not from Me, for I am the good One, the holy One and the merciful One for your life. I gave life to the man in paradise and then I told him to eat from paradise of all those that were made for him and not to take of those that were God's, for they were God's. However, he forgot about Me when his obedience was put to test, and then he was afraid of My voice, which sought him to ask him about Me, because I spoke to him. When I set him in paradise after his creation and I told him what was his and what was Mine in paradise, it was only I that I spoke with him then and he did not speak with Me, and when I asked him, after I saw him sneaking into his inner being and among the trees of the garden, then he also spoke with Me and told Me: «I heard Your steps in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked». (Gen: 3/10) Oh, Adam could not hide among the trees of the garden; he could not sneak his shame and sin under his cover he made from the leaves of the garden. However, I, the Lord, wanted to invite him into the light of his works and to his repentance to do him good, but he did not seek to soften his callousness, but he rather he sought after his vindication before Me as though I gave him the woman to draw him to his deed and hers. Oh, if he would not have forgotten of God, would not be wrong.

Oh, man, I am looking for you to teach you not to hide from Me but rather to come to Me and to tell Me that you have gone wrong, and I to teach you the love of God, which makes life for you. I come before you as word broken from the garden of paradise and I join the beginning with the end to speak to you, for I am the beginning and the end and I am working in the end as I did in the beginning, for it is not possible to work otherwise now. I do not longer exhort you as I did with Adam, for you live among all the beasts that harm the soul, but I advise you not to hide from God, for you cannot do it. You have seen that Adam could not hide among the trees of the garden, and he could not squeeze his shame under the cover he made out of leaves either. Oh, do not hide from God, but rather come out to meet Him and let yourself be searched out and raised from sin, for I have come after you on earth, man, and I am enveloped in the word as I was before Adam in paradise. Do not blame anyone for your sin, but only give Me your hand to wake you out of sin, for I do not come to punish you, but I rather come to wake you up and to wake you up well before Me so that you may watch.

Oh, it is not good to know Me far away from you, man! It is good to keep Me close, near you, to live after My pleasure, and I to be able to find My pleasure in you, because for this I built the man. I do not ask you anything but to be clean in your heart and have a nice face for all that you bring to Me with your sincere life before Me, and your Father, Who is in secret and Who sees in secret will reward you for your love, and this is how you will gather with Me, by your coming within Me, where you cannot wither and from where no one can pull you out to lose you. Come to Me, man, and do not hide so that you may not come! Come with a peaceful face that I may be able to teach you the peace of the heart! Come with a sweet heart that I may be able to teach you the spirit of gentleness, for I want you to be gentle with God and I want to teach you the mystery of love! Oh, how sweet My exhortation is! Hear My voice and open to Me so that I may take you and bring you to the bosom of My teaching, for I have come as word on the earth and I speak with you as I spoke with Adam in the garden of Eden, and I want to exhort you and get you used to become a son of My teaching, and for this miracle that you can make before Me, I do not need anything but faith, man. Amen, amen, amen.

Now I come back with the word to you, My people faithful to My coming to you, the word of man's calling to God. I have spoken to the man, sons, and I invited him to the peace of his heart between Me and him. I speak to you as well and I am bringing to you now a sweet blessing for the time before the celebration of My resurrection from the dead, for two thousand years ago I died to pay with My life for the man's life, and then I was resurrected forever and I am alive forever and ever. I have taught the man not to be afraid of God, not to hide because of fear, but to get up by love for fear makes him hide. I have called him to the faith of miracle making over his life and I have exhorted him not to love sin, for the sin is that which urges him to hide afterwards. The parable from the paradise of the man set by Me in the garden full of love for man, this is the lesson from which the man can learn not to be afraid of God, for he cannot make this either on earth or in heaven.

Oh, pray for the man's resurrection, My people. Until I shake the heaven and the earth, the sea and the dry land, the man cannot stand face to face with Me and know My voice. The man does as Israel did, for Israel told Moses to speak with God alone and then to come and tell the people the Lord's voice, but the man of today even this does not want and that is why he says that God does no longer speak on the earth but only by the Scriptures of two thousand years ago.

However, I come with a forerunner and sweet voice, because I want to save the man from the day of My wrath for those who do not want to listen to the law of life. I am long enduring and have great mercy and I want the man to hear what I do for him, and that is why I become a spring of word into your midst and I call the man into view, My people. Oh, pray to God with sweet and holy days, for You have to learn from Me the holy law for food, for clothing, for love and for faith, but the man eats everything and he knows that he also needs to have days of fasting from all that he eats. However, you are no longer like every man on earth, but you are the fruit of your faith in My coming instead and you are the fruit of My coming again from the Father to the man as word on earth. Pray within the peace of your heart and bring to Me prayer for you and for man, and your Father, Who is in secret, Who sees in secret, will reward you and will gather your heavenly treasure with Him, for there is no moth and rust with Him as it is on the earth over the man's gathering.

When I was on the earth with My disciples, I was speaking to all those who were listening to Me and I was teaching them the law of the rest of the man loving of God and I was saying to them: «When you fast, anoint your head and wash your face and make it beautiful with all your heart, so that you may fast without hypocrisy, and your Father Who is in secret, Who sees in secret, will reward you». And I was also telling them: «Do not lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth so that you may not put your heart into them and moth and rust may consume them, but lay up for yourselves treasures in God, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where all the things of the man dedicated to God with all his possessions are kept». Amen. (See Matthew: 6/16-21)

Oh, how comes that the man does not hear My voice of two thousand years ago? I hear all the wise people of the earth how they speak about you that My word of today is not good to keep and to believe it, and that My word of two thousand years ago is enough. Oh, if it is enough, then why do they lay up treasures and glory on the earth? Did I not tell them by My Scriptures of two thousand years ago not to lay up treasures on the earth and not to put their heart in them? Oh, hypocrites of them! What will they do before Me when they will be asked how they have fulfilled the Scripture in which they have believed, as they say, and which has been enough for them so that they may no longer hear My word of today?

Oh, My people keep your faith into My coming! Keep what you have from Me so that no one may take your crown, for this faith does not belong to everyone, but it belongs to those to whom the Father wanted to reveal that what the wise men and the scribes of the world do not perceive because they do not believe, poor and destitute of them!

Oh, My people, I, the Lord, your God, the wonderful One among His saints, strengthen My blessing over you for the time of the affectionate prayer to the man's salvation from the sea of unbelief on the earth. Fasting from food without a holy prayer added to it does not have any power, neither for the body nor for the soul and nor for the spirit, but you, My people, be great, be strong by the spirit of the holy prayer, and we will make steps towards a feast of resurrection, and we will come out with a festive and heavenly suite so that the world may see that I am at your feast and resurrection, by which I appear on the earth, and that it may also see that I come to you to be with you on the earth, as it is written to be, and behold, it is as it is written, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons, sons from the spring, I open up My arms of father and I embrace within them the son who has come back now into My nest with sons and I thank him for his rest which he has given to Me in him after My long mourning by which I accompanied him through the angels to his calling to Me from the midst of the world in which he had wondered away for a while. Let no one call Me to account or ask Me for an answer because of My mercy full of love for his coming back into My nest with sons, but let him rather bow under the power of his love, by which he has embraced Me and comforted My mourning after him, throwing behind him everything he has had that it might possibly pull him out from near My bosom. I, the Lord, have power and I have brought him again into the nest. I will strengthen him, I will renew him, I will sanctify him and I will teach him from Me, for he loves Me, sons, and where the man's love can work in him for God, then God can work as well. Amen.

25-02/09-03-2008

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the right faith

God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, becomes word on the earth and is coming down into His book in these days and then He is sharing Himself so that His word may be known. Amen.

I announce Myself at the gates and I come in and My word flows from My mouth and becomes river and rain and waters the fallow soil sown by Me, for My seed is My preached word and My rain of word multiplies the seed to grow and to bear fruit in man so that the man may give forth fruit in God then. Amen.

I am the first and the last. My voice resembles the roar of many waters, as it is written, and I preach the eternal Gospel to those who live on the earth and to every nation, tribe, language and people and I call out in a loud voice: «Fear the Lord, and give Him glory; for the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him Who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!». (Apoc: 14/7)

I am the first and the last, as it is written, and I become word as in the beginning when I was speaking with the man in paradise, for the man in the end to hear Me and to fulfill My word, and if he does not want to fulfill, then I fulfill it. Amen.

I speak to the Romanian nation and to its church:

On your hearth, Romanian nation, I have a manger of the birth of My word, for I have chosen from your midst the little patch of land coming first from the waters at the making of the heaven and of the earth and on it I have made a little and tiny people and I have raised from it, from place to place, a new tribe of sons of the holy faith, and then I have taught them to love and to live on your land the law of paradise, Romanian people, for it is written in the Scriptures about the revelation of God's sons: «They will be like Him and will see Him, for He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them. He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away». He Who sits on the throne said, «Behold, I am making all things new… for these words of God are faithful and true, for I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be My son». Amen. (Apoc: 21/3-7)

Oh, Romanian people, I speak My word to you, for I am the first and the last and that is why I become word as I was at the first beginning, for I fulfill the Scriptures. This day of feast is a day of remembrance of the right faith, a day set by the saints and by fathers over those who believe the works of God on the earth with the people, and you, Romanian people, you are the new nation chosen from the nations to be now My people, to be My new chosen Israel, to be My New Jerusalem, but the people of the church from you want to be believed for they do not believe Me that I am the first and the last, for they do not hear Me that I speak to them, because I have spoken to them very much by this river of word that is upon you and they have not wanted to speak with Me either, if I have spoken with them. They want to be believed because they do not believe Me by this word, but it is not so, and they do like the priests in the time of My passion, when, seeing the greatness of My works, thought that they could destroy Me in such a way they could not be removed from My chair, from which they ruled over the people so that I might not rule and that they might rule instead, for they loved empty glory as those of today are doing. However, at that time I told them and I have also been telling those of today that My kingdom is not of this world and that I have come to save the world and not to rule over it as do those from it.

Oh, Romanian people, I am speaking now over those who sit over you under the name of your servants for their right faith and yours in God, for today the Sunday of the right faith is written in the Christian calendar, the Sunday of the Orthodoxy.

Oh, sons, come, come and listen to the word of My mouth and I will teach you the fear of the Lord! It is written in the Scriptures: «He who would love life, and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking deceit, for the face of the Lord is against those who do evil to cut off the memory of them from the earth. Come near to Me to be illuminated and let your faces not be ashamed! Taste and see that the Lord is good. The Lord's eyes are towards the righteous. His ears listen to their cry and His face is against those who do evil to cut off the memory of them from the earth, for those who hate the righteous One go wrong», as it is written. (See 1 Pet: 3/10; Ps: 34/15, 16) Oh, take a good look into the map, for I have sent you the map through My messengers to you. Look into the map, for by this river of word, which has been springing of My mouth on the hearth of the Romanian nation for fifty years, the land of My second coming from near the Father after the man as word, by this map I have shown you My walking of this time, My word of today, the eternal Gospel, and do not forget that I am the first and the last, and it is not possible that I may not to be with My Gospel now, in the end, for I work nothing, nothing, but only what is written in the Scriptures to fulfill it. I come to you to give you the gift of the holy faith in My word of today spoken by My mouth over the earth, and do not forget that now you commit the sin of the faith denial if you deny My word now, which comes as salvation over you to teach you so that you may not perish by the sin of the faith denial, neither you nor the Romanian people, if you are denying now, for it is coming and it has already come the sin of the faith denial, about which it is written in the Scriptures that will come before the day of My greatness when I will give each one according to his deed. In the time of My first coming, two thousand years ago, those who served in God's house put Me in the darkness and denigrated Me so that the people might not come to Me but to go to them instead, and they put Me in the grave; they put Me in the grave but the truth sprang out from the earth and the righteousness looked down from heaven, as it is written, and those who were unfaithful were proved out, those who conspired false testimony against Me with hatred so that I might not destroy their worldly living, which is soul damaging and is far away from the spirit of the light of everything. Oh, do not hide from Me as Adam did in paradise, who wanted to hide from Me for the sake of his will and then he blamed Me and hated Me after that; however, then we separated, because I was not able to rely on the traitor, on the disobedient in paradise, the one hid in his own self from My face. It is written that: «The Lord is good and righteous, and for this He will set a law against those who go wrong in their way». Oh, do not make to Me any place of grave out of your places which you call churches, for I am the living One and I speak and not keep silent as you say that only two thousand years ago was My speaking with the man and then it has no longer been since then. However, did I not tell that I would be to the end of the time with those who serve Me as disciples? Did I not tell that any perfect disciple was like his Teacher, Christ? Oh, the life lived in Christ, this means Orthodoxy, and this is what the church has to celebrate. However, you should not help the people in the way you work, and you will not be able to help but only by exhorting them to fulfill the Scriptures of My coming, and to fulfill them too if you want to bear the fruit of salvation in Me, for I gave My life for My church and not you. Life is beautiful without sinning, but you do not teach the people to separate from sin and to taste the fullness of the heavenly graces, the sweetest life in man; oh, do not teach the people this way, because you sin like them too. The feast of the right faith has to be the fruit of the heavenly living of the church as I grow the people of My word chosen from the Romanians to be My people to which I have come to make a house for Me with him, to dine with him, to appear to him and to share My word through him over the earth, as it is written about those who believe in Me to their advantage and with the fruit of their faith.

Oh, people of the church, it makes Me suffer when I see that you give glory to one another, that you get up and set over the others on the chairs of greatness, to show each other to the people, and you keep Me away from you, far from your living, far from My clean serving with you, and the day of the judgment comes, and the sheep will be separated from the goats, and you have not taken care of Me, you have not visited Me, for My little ones, through whom you could be with Me and visit Me, they are those who love Me with My fulfillment in them, and you have not shown your love to them, and behold, I do not have sheep to be separated from the goats when My great day will come for the sheep to be chosen from the goats as it is written in My Gospel about the day of the fearful judgment. Oh, do not forget that My church is the first one built among the saints; not that what is made from the sinners. Do not forget that the holies are given to the saints, and the saints are those who have a holy life. Do not forget that I am the Saint of the saints, the first One resurrected from the dead, and I am not of the sinners, who do no love Me, and now the sin of the faith denial is coming to you and this heavy sin is coming closer and closer, for those who have departed from My Spirit, the Only One in the church of one thousand years ago, (The Catholic Church, r.n.), want to put down to the ground My church now, which has remained and which has kept in it the image of My kingdom in man by its saints, and they try to put My face down, for it is written: «they will get together with one mind to give their kingdom to the beast, until God's words will be fulfilled».

I, the Lord, the slaughtered Lamb for the salvation of those who love Me fulfilling My word, call out over the servants of the church of the Romanian nations: Do not deny your faith left by your forefathers, but completely come back to the saints and to the fathers and to the feasts removed from their places for more than seventy years[87], for this replacement has brought with it now the sin of the faith denial, the sin about which it is written into the Scriptures that will be shown before My coming with the saints, for the saints will judge the world and all those that are removed from their places and all those who have spoiled the holy laws from the fathers, and for which, behold, the wrath is coming over the church left from the forefathers. There has been a succession of patriarchs in the Romanian people, and the first one has changed the feasts of the saints from their places, and the one who have been appointed now is trying to bring the sin of the faith denial over the church, and behold why I had to build My church again on its first rock by My word, and I have built it, and from this rock I have spoken with you, servants who have set yourselves to sit over the nations in My name. I, the Lord Jesus Christ, urge you to wake up well and to believe in My word that is upon you so that it may not come what is worse to you, and then to wake up the flock and to advise it from Me not from you, for the sin of the faith denial is coming and it is coming with swift steps; it is coming to put you down to the ground, and I have built My church again on the first rock, and from this stone I speak over to you, and the gates of the hell will not overcome it, and it will be and it will grow from it and through it the people of God on the earth, the new people, the Christian people, as it was at its beginning through Me two thousand years ago, for it is written into the Scriptures about the new birth of the world, and I am coming to fulfill it, as it is written. Amen.

[87] The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

My church of New Jerusalem, by which I speak over the flock of the Romanian people and over those who sit over it in My name, this is the church by which I will not be overthrown from My throne, and that is why I have come now and set it on its first rock, and the wise people of the time do not understand what this work is, at which they look and pretend that they do not understand. By this stone, I have saved My church from destruction, for the church of the Romanian nation is now trying to sell itself on a foreign price so that it may belong to the world and not to Christ, and behold, more than seventy years ago there was great sufferance on earth and in heaven and the times of the church were changed, as it was written for them to happen because of the church's lack of watchfulness, and now there it is again, lack of watchfulness, (It is about the desire of the rulers over the Romanian Orthodox Church to change the Easter holidays - the Resurrection of Jesus Christ - from the old style to the new style[88], Catholic r.n.) again denial of saints and fathers, again violation of the things left by the forefathers, and the church belongs to the world and it is no longer Mine, and I make room for My grave among those who sit over My flock and who do not give Me the glory and do not give Me the resurrection and do not receive Me with those things of today by which I come and want to bring God to life in man.

Oh, church of the Romanian people, do not spoil your face! Take heed at My word over you, for I have always called you to get up, to wake up and watch, and with every passing day to give you to understand why I have been calling you. Those who sit over you in My name do not watch for Me and for you, for they mind only their own business. Oh, keep what you have left from your holy forefathers, for the people have spoiled the holy laws and they will continue spoiling them if they have set themselves to rule and have enthrone each other over you, and you are to die without a candle as they want you to die away from the faith left from your forefathers. Oh, do not deny your faith! Do not commit this sin! Open the Scripture and see into it that it is written that before My coming there comes the sin of the faith denial, and behold, that is why you have to believe that My coming is at your door and that I have come to save you, if you want. Oh, keep away from this sin, keep away, for I have come to let you know what should do, and I will make the spirit of the prophecy come down upon you, the spirit that signifies My testimony. Amen.

[88] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

Behold the sin of the faith denial, the sin that comes through the man who comes before Me, as it is written! Get up and overcome this sin, Romanian people, overcome it, for I, the Lord, will prevail against it, and I want you to do to the same so that I may give you a big reward as to the one who overcomes. I have a son in to your midst, anointed by Me and by My word in the church of the Romanian people, a son by whom I want to take the death, the darkness and the lie out of the church of this nation, but he is now being kept in chains because of his faith, and he has got his hands, his legs and his little mouth bound and he cannot work, he cannot walk and he cannot speak. Pray for My great victory, Romanian people, for My victory will be yours too. Pray for the Lord to overcome for you and not the man who rules over you to have dominion over you.

Get up, for I have great compassion on you, because I suffer because of your fate, Romanian people, for I have chosen you as My people now, in the end of the time, for I am the first and the last and what I have written now upon you remains written. Amen.

Oh, do not pull yourself out of your root, do not pull yourself out of the vine, church of the Romanian people, for if you do so, then you get dry. It is written that any branch which remains in the vine the Father takes care of it and prunes it to bring forth even more fruit, and again, it is written that the branch, which brings forth fruit by itself, it does not bring forth fruit from the vine, and its fruit gets dry once with it.

Oh, servants of the church of the Romanian people, it remains written between Me and you that what I have spoken over you and over the Romanian church. I am the first and the last. Oh, how comes that you do not take My word into consideration, so great and so dear, that which has been calling upon you for such a long time? I am coming towards you with the eternal Gospel, as it is written. Here it is! I do nothing but only that which is written into the Scriptures and I work by those who are faithful to Me, for the faith does not belong to everyone, as it is written, but I, the Lord of the church, want you to belong to the holy faith, if now the Father has wanted to reveal Me to you too, in the end of the time, but if you do not want this, then you will see.

Amen, amen, I say to you, church of the Romanian people: any of the little branches, which do not remain in the vine, the Father cuts it and throws it into the fire. Amen.

I have spoken over the church of the Romanian nation on this day of memorial of the right faith, which the church calls the Sunday of the Orthodoxy.

Now I am concluding My speaking over the church of the Romanian people.

I am Who I am. I am the first and the last. I am Who I am. Amen, amen, amen.

03/16-03-2008

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

(Excerpt)

You, children who stay as the gates for Me to come in to My people with the gift of the holy growth for him, always, always, you always have to suffer for My people, but I, the Lord, comfort you with My sweet Spirit to strengthen you as My little children, even if those who hate you do not find that I am the One Who does this, that I am this word; however, I tell these that I do no nothing but only what is written in the Scriptures, that I came and I come to fulfill the Scriptures, and I look into them and I fulfill them, and behold, it is written in them about My glory of today with My people chosen from the Romanians for My coming of nowadays and which I, the Lord, call it as in the Scriptures, the people of the New Jerusalem, and it is written about it: «I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream:

and you shall suck of it; you shall be borne on the side, and shall be dandled on the knees. As one, whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem… and the hand of Lord shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies». (Is: 66/12, 13, 14b) Amen.

And now, My people, you are My witness, you are the face of My today's glory, for with you I glorify Myself before the sons of men and I am relying on you for My coming as word on earth now, in the end of the time[89]. I wait for them to come to Me and to you, those who have turned against Me and against you, to cleanse them and to save them from the reward of their unbelief and to save them from the sufferance, which they build for themselves without wisdom. Bring prayer to Me, son, for those who do not know what they do when striking against Me and you by their unbelief, by which they cover their free will, the will of pleasures, their evil will, which brings the man to his separation from My will, as man does on earth, for this is how these have come to be through the spirit of discontentment and judgment.

… It is written in the Scriptures My word of two thousand years ago and in which I said: «Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me». (See Mark: 8/34) However it is hard to find a man on earth to understand this word of Mine and its work, and behold, you suffer from those who come near you for the work of My word, they do not know to come when they come, and then they cause you many pains and tears, and I, the Lord, comfort you then, I wipe out your tear, giving you powers from Me to be able to work for My today's Gospel, a book about which is written in the Scriptures, the book of the Lamb.

Oh, My today's cross is heavy! It is hard to bear My today's coming! I have no one to help Me under My today's cross, and the parable of two thousand years ago still happens today and then when I could not be helped under the cross by those who were close to Me, and rather the strangers helped Me on the way of the cross and I did not have close to Me those whom I had exhorted with so much heavenly word, children sons. The soul in you sighs like David's, who was sighing before Me under the pressure of his people, and I, the Lord, gave him victory against those who envied him from his people, as I have always given you, and I will always give you, for you are staying under My today's cross, as unbelief is great, and the unbelief today is as in the time of Noah. Who believed then that I had told Noah to build his salvation? No one believed, no one listened, and all took care of their business until the water came and took them all away, as it is written. So is the indifference and unbelief today, for I have come now and set you before Me to built an ark of salvation for the faithful man, to build My church again, for it has long been torn down and desolated by the heathens in it, by those with a pagan life before Me and who call themselves My church; however, I have been building My church on the stone through you and I am her food and her Teacher from heaven, and the unbelief of the people is great, but I show them their ark of salvation, and they say that there is no truth in the word of My calling for them, and those of today are saying like those in the time of Noah , who were taking care of their business, when Noah was working at My word upon him and at the salvation of the faithful ones, and behold, My today's word will stand in judgment with those are called at the table of My mercy and do not respond at My calling, and especially with those who come and then leave again for a pagan life, trampling upon My holiness in them. These feared the cross, which they had to carry on the way with the faith for the cross and denied their life in holiness and then they went back and became blasphemers against My today's walking with the glory of My word, which is calling man to his salvation. Oh, what else should I do to them other than what they have done for themselves?

[89] See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.

Oh, it is not with God the life made by man himself, because with God is the life lived in God's will and fulfilled according to the Scriptures. Behold, those, who did not listen to Noah, died, and behold how those who do not listen to you die, and then they leave and strike back into the flock, and they strike you in order to despise you and to cover their unbelief, but no, it will not be like these, for they will receive the payment from this table, because I do not let Myself be mocked to the end, for justice is at My right hand and it will decide. Amen.

… Oh, keep away from sadness, sons! Keep away from the words that strike with anger against you! Stay under My shelter until the storm passes, sons! Behold, I am glorifying Myself in you before the people on this day of feast of the cross, as I prophesied by My word upon you that I would appear with you before the unbelieving world.

17/30-03-2008.

The feast of the Annunciation

I am Who I am. I am the first and the last, as it is written by Me in the Scriptures. I am The Word of God. I am speaking and these are God's true words, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. Amen.

I open the heaven I am coming down as word on the earth and the armies of the heaven are coming with Me, and of My mouth a sharp sword is coming out to strike the pagans with it, and, again, to prepare and to shepherd My people, to which I may come and write Myself into its midst with My speaking, and My name is called the Word of God, which no one understands, but only I, as it is written. Amen.

I am coming in through the gates, I am coming as word in My book of today and I am writing Myself with a feast of annunciation. My mother Queen stands on My right hand and is celebrated by the angels and by the saints because of humility by which she received Me and carried Me in her womb as a baby to be born, after My angel was sent by God to her to announce her of My seeding from the Holy Spirit into her bosom and My birth, My name, My greatness and then My endless kingdom. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Peace to you, Israel of today! My mother, the virgin, has got into your mist her coming with Me and with her feast of two thousand years ago, when My angel, who came to the bishop Zacharias to let him know about John's conception and then his birth, he also came after that to her and announced her about My conception, about My birth and then about My kingdom.

Oh, My people, you are My forerunner, just as John was, about whom the angel Gabriel said: «He will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord». (Luke: 1/17) My mother, the virgin, is coming down into your midst as word and she is served by the angels and gives you powers from heaven for My work with you, for your work for Me, My people.

Come, mother, to be celebrated with the angels and with the saints into the midst of My people, who is Our house of coming from God to the people again, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

*– Bless my humility by which I bow down to speak to Your people of today, Son of the Father God and my Son, to teach today Your people the power of humility, for I, when I saw the light of Your angel that was coming closer and was speaking to me, I became small, I submitted with great decency and I asked him to teach me how to understand his annunciation for me, and he taught me and told me: «Do not be afraid, for you have found favor with God. The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the Holy One Who is born from you will be called the Son of God». (Luke: 1/30, 35) Then I humbled and submitted myself and I said to the messenger angel: «Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word». (Luke: 1/38)

Oh, bless my teaching from today over the people earned by Your word, Son Lord, for this is how You have been well pleased. Amen.

– The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit bless your word, mother. Amen.

– Oh, people of my Son, let my humiliation before the Lord's angel teach you the work of humility for the Lord's works, for the Lord is coming to you with His work of today and is giving it to you to fulfill it, and by its fulfillment you may prepare for the Lord an instructed people, and that you may go before the Lord in the spirit and the power of Elijah and that the parents' hearts may be turned to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, as the Lord worked with John, His forerunner, two thousand years ago. The Lord's work with you turns the parents' hearts to the sons of the holy faith and softens those who are disobedient to take in them the wisdom of God's righteous ones, and this is how the Lord chooses a people for Himself. He descend to you on the mysterious clouds and then He speaks, and the hand of His word is gathering from here and from there and making a little bunch and putting it into the vase and this is how it is presenting it, as He is presenting you today to the sons of the people so that they may leave off the spirit of their rebellion, the spirit by which they do not serve God but only themselves and the ruler of this age and many of them, hearing and seeing from you, understand from God and put away from them their evil ways and then seek after the Lord's ways, as you have also found and sought and then come to be afterwards. No one can do this but only those that are like me and humble and bow themselves and then learn and get used to the power of the work of humility, for I was small before the Lord and this was how I fulfilled, and I fulfilled His work on the earth in obedience. Oh, put down on a piece of paper all the words that the Lord has given to you to fulfill them and fulfill them in due time and that you may be able to speak with Him always as I said to His angel: «Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word». (Luke: 1/38) Amen.

This is the word of my humility by which I am bowing down today into the midst of Your people to teach him this power, Lord Son. I teach him to fulfill in due time those that you bring to him for fulfillment, and I pray to You, I pray before You to give him power, to give him love to fulfill as I did, dear Son, Your will before You. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, there is no shepherd, there is no better teacher than the one who lay down his life before those who are shepherded and taught by him. You have shown them your obedience, mother, and this is how you have taught them today. No one more than those who are faithful to My word fulfill better and more perfect those brought by Me to be fulfilled and settled before Me and before the people, and those who are not faithful are those who do not humble, mother, are those who do not fulfill, mother, even if We humble before them teaching them and bowing down so that they may receive Us, mother. In one day I opened the mind of those who stood before Me to receive Me as word in the book and I explained to them from the Scriptures how easy they lose their fulfillment and then their faith, those who come to believe in Me without having love, humility and the humble spirit in them for their progress in My great works, mother. I showed them why they were not able to understand clearly, those who believed in Me at the news and at the sight of My wonderful works two thousand years ago, for when it came for My fulfilled word to have room in them, they could not take it in them, they could not understand it, mother, and I proved them out to be able to help them towards Me, but they did not understand My word. I will coming to

My people fed from My mouth and I will tell him how the man does not allow himself to be prepared by God's word for the wisdom of God's mysteries in man, for when I would try to reveal My mysteries of wisdom to the man, the man does not want to understand any more, he becomes unfriendly and then he gets up and leaves God, and even more, he blames the Lord, and he even call Him a liar, not acknowledging Him as God. Oh, well, the man is not possible to remain as he is if he comes to hear and to believe and to be then with God. He has to come and to stay at his making then, for the mind of the faithful man does no longer has to remain as on earth, but it has to take in it the wisdom from heaven and that it may speak on the earth likewise, as in heaven and not as on earth, mother.

Oh, My people, I want to open your mind with every passing day, and with every passing day you are to show Me the work of your mind too and then the work of your obedience, to show Me that you are the fruit of My wisdom by which I want to work the man today. Get used to speak with your little mouth more truly and more clearly: «Let Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth», (Matt: 6/10), and do not forget that only perfect disciples speak like this, and they do likewise. Word and deed, this is how you are to be, My people. I to be the word and you to be its work, for My people from the time of those fifty years of My today's word with it has put My word upon him to its feet and it put it down and then to sleep and did not fulfill it, and the one who does not fulfill the word in which he believes, is called unfaithful.

It is a feast of annunciation, and I announce you to have humility by which you are to bow down before My word to fulfill it as My mother did, oh, My today's people. Strengthen yourself, sons, in the spirit of the fulfilling of My word. Put down on paper all those that I have brought to you to be fulfilled into your midst and by My tool, with which I am going to prepare My glory, and I will be your Protector, your Comforter, your Healer and Victor for you, and that we may serve one another, sons: We from heaven and you from earth; you, to be the hands and the legs of My body and of My saints' to fulfill My word on earth, and We to be your spirit and little wings and this is how we are to do the Father's will, for the Father's will is your holiness[90] by obedience to God, sons. Oh, those who do not listen, they are called immoral, for those who do not obey God with their fulfillment are called servants of other gods.

Oh, My people of today, learn from My mother, the virgin, the humility with reverence and become small, son, become obedient, as My mother became small and listened when she received Me in her from the mouth of My messenger angel that came from God upon her. The Lord, your God has always taught you. Always open yourself, My people, and take the Lord your God in you when He comes to you to give Himself to you and to give you, for His work is wonderful, wonderful, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-03/07-04-2008

The sixth Sunday of the Lent, the Palm Sunday

Peace and power I, the Lord, put into the gates for My coming down as word into My book of this time. I come as word from the Father after two thousand years from My first preaching of the new birth of the world, but this road of Mine is full of thorns, because no one expects Me to come, for the man does not know how to understand the Lord's coming, that which is written in the Scriptures to be fulfilled now. I hear people on earth how they speak in their hard times that [90] «But just as He Who called you is holy, you yourselves should also be holy in every aspect of your life, because it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy."», 1 Peter. 1:15-16, r.n.

they got tired with life, but I do not hear them saying that they got tired with death, for behold, the man does not know how to know about life and death as Lazarus knew, who died and was resurrected, who carried then in him the wisdom of the mystery of life and death and the wisdom of the mystery of the resurrection, and all these he knew through Me then.

It is a feast for the memorial of God's glory in this Sunday, My people. Al the people who gathered together on a day like this two thousand years ago knew that I took Lazarus out of the grave and I resurrected him, and they all came out to meet Me in that day, crying: «Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!» and I sat on a foul of a donkey as it was written. I am speaking with you in a day of glory, people of My word. I have always given you wisdom to understand through it My word that is upon you, My coming to you, My dwelling with you, for the one who does not understand from God does not stay with God and one like that goes into the world again, for the opposition against Me is as great as it was in all the times, and I want you to understand this and to get used to be more and more loving and to protect God more and more beautifully, to protect your faith and your steadfastness with Me, for when I came from the Father to pay with My life laid down on the cross for the man's life I endured great shame from the people, and I was sold on silver twice, My people, and the second time I was sold after I came to life, and woe, the people of the empty glory, who ruled at that time over Israel's soul, did not know how to defile My glory more.

I am speaking with you, My people, to give you the power of My word, for My word has eternal life in it for you, the one who believe, and for those who do not believe in it, it has eternal damnation, as it is written about the judgment through the word. Now there have stood up many mouths who say that I am not this word and that the man speaks this word from himself. Oh, if I were a man on the earth now and if I heard this word, then I would speak about the man who would give it to Me that he is God's man because of the eternal life of this word and I would eat of it, of its saving life, for woe and woe again to the man who has spoken during these days that this word is not spoken by My mouth! Oh, My people, here it is how they go to the world, those who use their mind, as also those from two thousand years ago did, who brought false testimony against Me in any way until they made bold to pay silver even after My resurrection, so that they could spread on the earth the greatest lie, as though I was not resurrected and that I was stolen from the grave by My disciples. However, My resurrection and the resurrection of My saints has been proven, and the sin of falsehood remained then on the heads of the hypocrites, for those who serve the lie are devils, and here it is what I say that the man does not know how to know about life and about death, about truth and about lie, about light and about darkness, for these oppose each other and struggle in the same body after the man takes the side of one of these.

Oh, My people, stay with faithfulness near My bosom and receive My word and fulfill it upon you, son, for any work that is persecuted when it works in My name, that is from God, because only God is the One persecuted on the earth, He and those who love Him, receiving beatings, denigrations and crushes as He did. Woe to those who run away from the cross getting tired with it, for the life without cross is a shameful life and it draws the man only and only under the spirit of lying and of the empty glory, the spirit who opposes God with rebellion, for this is how this opposition of spirit against Me in man is known, and it is known by its rebellious work. Oh, those who revolt do not gain anything, anything. They do not gain even their freedom, for there cannot be anyone more enslaved than them, because they are slaves to the fruit of discontent, of murmuring and unbelief, and behold, woe to the happiness of those who are unfaithful in this world!

Oh, Christian, if God has opened your eyes to step in your walking on this way in which I come as word on the earth to build with it a people for the Father and for the heaven, do not seek to fall into the spirit of doubt and of unbelief, for those who separate from the body of this people will be put to shame, both in heaven and on earth, and again, those who stay and do not know to be alive and to give to God according to His pleasure. The unbelief in which he who comes to be and then falls because of his doubt, this is a very shameful pay, and this reward proves him out, it brings his unfaithful life into view, that without a stature pleasant to God, for the unfaithful rise in revolt and then try to thin out in My people, and that is why I said about the one who comes and then leaves becoming a traitor, that it is enough to step aside and this means betrayal because he betrays God, with Whom He stayed and then he leaves off God's mysteries, and a man like this makes his own mind and then works only evil with it, only rebellion, only death, as only the devil works again by those who are gained by him and in whom he becomes seven times stronger, as I said by the word two thousand years ago about those who fell from grace.

I promised you, My people, that I would come to you and tell you how the faithful man is able to stand up again against Me. I wait to be able to work before you with power, with vigor. I wait for the power in the gates to be able to come with solid food, with much word, for those who have helped, without waiting for them, poor of them, the rebellion which is slapping My cheek, they filled My forehead with thorns and My face with slaps, My body with whiplashes and bruises for their discontents. However, do I really owe them anything, or they owe Me instead?

Two thousand years ago, I was speaking with many who believed in Me and I wanted to set their being, for they were not made, but when it was to walk with them, My word had no room in it, and I was telling them: «If you do not believe in Me, you will die in your sins.» (John 8:24) This is what I am telling those of today who have come and have not stayed to their making, but they have even despised Me instead, they hit Me, they betrayed Me, they blasphemed Me and I tell them this: if you do not believe in My word and in My bowing to you, then you will remain in your sins, as those of two thousand years ago remained, who did not let Me cleanse them, but on the contrary, they took Me and crucified Me. Behold, the sins they have committed do no longer let the man to be cleansed by them anyhow, but more, he even tries to justify them, to protect them and to have them, and I can no longer help people like these but only by sufferance. I, because I am good, have always asked them and said to them: come, sons, come to repentance, for you gain nothing from your righteousness, sons! Come to Me so that I may cleanse you, if you show Me your sins, or if you let Me tell them to you, for behold, I tell you about My wounds by which you have filled Me now! I cannot forgive you but only through the gates. Nowhere on the earth will you be able to receive forgiveness between you and Me but only within the gate of this work, in which you have come freely to believe and to be. I cannot work for you but only by My order. Flee from the spirit of doubt and unbelief, for you gain nothing out of this, but these spirits only draw you away from God, as during the time of those fifty years they had drawn away those in My people who came and doubted and then they left and again they came and left again, and this does not mean resurrection. He who does not know to come, that one knows to leave, and a man like this does not learn something else.

Oh, My people, that is why I have come to you with the spirit of wisdom. Behold how those who are not wise come to leave, and it is happening today as two thousand years ago since those who believed in Me did not know then to become God's sons, and thus they returned again to their own business as they also came. I leave you now in a spirit of the feast of My glory, and I will try again to set Myself as word upon you in order to make up My whole book of this day, because there is weakness within the gates and I can hardly work.

May the glory of the Palm Sunday feast be blessed, My people, My day of glory when I entered into Jerusalem on a foul of a donkey two thousand years ago, when they sang to Me "Hosanna!", those who denigrated Me afterwards and blasphemed and crucified Me. Strengthen yourself in the spirit of the wisdom from above. See that I have asked you to put down on a paper everything you need to listen and fulfill. See that My word may not remain unfulfilled upon you. In a churchly way I can fulfill into your midst and not otherwise, and you have to understand how this comes, My people.

Oh, children from the gates, I have told you to write epistles of resurrection to My people tested by the spirit of the rebellious, as My work has also been some other times. Help the people to know from God and not from man the whole truth of the things, from you and not from the rebellious ones, for the rebellious ones make wrong steps, they trample on you and Me and want cover they guilt after denigrating you. Strengthen the faith of My people. Strengthen yourselves for Me and for My preaching, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy and you can be useful vessels for Me and for My people. Give to My people strong little wings and keep it in My way, for you are dear for Me and the people loves you and it follows you, because I give it powers by your love for it and by its faith and I also give it comfort. Send strengthening to My people and I will be in you when you will speak upon it. Peace to you! I take away your weaknesses, for you need power to work, to clean the people of its sins and to give it always resurrection, for I am the Lord of the resurrection upon you. Amen.

Peace to you, My faithful people!

Peace to you either, the one who are doubtful, who do not know to stay in My arm of heavenly Shepherd to be able to guide you! Woe to the one who follows the feeling of his mind sick with doubt and murmuring!

Peace to you as well, those who blaspheme My word and My people, for you are without peace and wander away from God, because if you knew what God means between heaven and earth, you would not fall into doubt, you would not fall in unbelief and you would not lose God from you! Peace to you, stubborn suns, for you good, because you have left the way of righteousness, the way of love, of peace and endurance, and chose to rebel! Do not wonder that I tell you "Peace to you!" for you are to be pitied. However, My peace is from heaven, and you do no longer want now to be with God. Oh, what will you gain in the way you are walking now? Amen, amen, amen.

*

I come back again into My book with you, My people Jerusalem. All the saints, all the angelic hosts love, protect and glorify the land of the Romanian nation, and this is because I, the Lord, have you as a new seedling on the hearth of this nation with My work of the second coming from near the Father to fulfill this Scripture, for the Scripture of the renewal of the world is promised by Me to be fulfilled, and I needed you, My people, for no one is able to work his fallow land without working tools. Behold, I let you know to get ready beautifully within garments of white and clean flax, within little garments of resurrection, and to sing to those from the village the song of the Lord's resurrection, to sing on the streets, My people. Sing with a holy heart and give voice to the spirit of the resurrection over the little village of My word, for there is need of resurrection on the earth, we need to comfort the earth because of its sighing. Let us teach the people what love is, son, for the people rejoice over the sin only, only over the emptiness, only over the lawlessness. The feast of the resurrection is a heavenly feast, but the people serve the devil in the time of the holy feasts, and I hold your little hand and walk with you in the streets and set you as My fruit and as the fruit of the love of those who have you on their way to Me, for I have before you those who suffer for your life, for your holiness, well, well, My people, and they are denigrated, hated and calumniated, but I asked them to speak to My people against the foolishness of the evil spirit, which makes its tools to denigrate My work with you, the way of My holiness that has come with Me on to the earth to show it to the people and that they may choose it as their way, those who can see it and feel it in their hearts, for the man cannot understand the truth of My coming of this time anyhow, for he feels with his heart not with his mind, not with his wisdom, which the man says that he knows and that he has got it.

Get dressed for the wedding, Jerusalem, and sing to Me the resurrection in the streets. I bless, with the Father and with the Holy Spirit, your walking with a feast. Show the people what sin is and teach them what holiness is. Show them their sins and urge them to a life without sinning. Tell the people that the sin is wrapped up so that the man may not know it as his enemy, and also tell them that the reward of the sin is bitter, for the world and its spirit is the prison in which the men's souls, together with their bodies, are in bondage, and the man's knowledge about God and the reward of everything the man gets are not known into the world, for on the earth there is no teaching about God and the man learns only about sin on the earth. However, I have you as My vessel, My people, and I have to make you My light on the earth, if I have you at all, because two thousand years ago I said this: «While I am in the world, I am the light as the world», (John 9:5), and I also said about the disciples: «I in you and you in Me, for the world to believe that Father has sent Me». (John: 17/21) Amen.

Oh, My people Jerusalem, My word upon you cannot be silent, for behold, the time has come for the tare to be weeded out from the wheat, and the wheat has to be protected with great love, with My great love for wheat. Whom do you see that rises and departs from you, you shall not follow him, for each one is drawn now to what he has earned by his work that he has done by now. My patience is as great as seven thousand years and I have been waiting for man, but the temptation is also great on the earth, and those who love themselves and love glory do not have power to overcome and fall into the impossibility of going along the path with thorns, on the way of the cross, on the way with brothers, which is not easy for the one who cannot overcome and humble so that he may not fall from it, for the proud cannot walk in it, but only those who are small can walk in it, those who know to stand by holding My hand, holding the hand of the Father and their brothers', for woe to those who did not want and do not want Me to rule upon them, and it is written about them: «Those who did not want Me to rule over them will be taken and cast out into the fire». Behold, the world is this fire, and a Christian can no longer be holy in the midst of the world, hand in hand with the world, for the living with the world defiles him; it defiles his garment, his house, his walking, his mind, his longing, his prayer, his feeling and all the other things that cannot be with God when they are in the world. I have told My people not to bring the world into his house, in his courtyard, for the world has a dirty body and defiles the Christian with all his things. I have taught the one who believes in Me to make his way with holy water when he passes through the world, but by no means should he bring the world in his house guarded by the angels for him. Woe to the one who falls into indifference of soul! Oh, the disobedient does not want, he does not want to listen! Behold, this is how the tares are brought into view when the times come.

My people, I teach you not to give the love for holiness on anything, and also My watch on your behalf, for you are My support on the earth and I need a holy house that I may be able to come, to be able to be in the world and to be the light of the world into your midst. You shall love nothing more than holiness; it saves you from death, and let the love among brothers be great, for holiness is fed with My love among brothers, the love which heals the man from his sin and which the world does not know.

Let there be love between Me and you, My people! Let your love be trained, for I have into your midst those who watch for Me and for you. However, you shall not exalt yourselves upon others, for haughtiness is a devil, it is the spirit and the voice of the devil, which sows its tare. Be full of the spirit of humility one on to the other and you will be full of My grace. Amen.

Sons, sons, I tell you once and once again: get up at dawn and go to your beds after sunset, for it is sin for the day to arise on the earth when you lie in you beds, and it is good for you to arise in the way of the day like some flowers which stretch out their body into the light waiting for it while it comes out. And if you get up at dawn, wash your face, worship God with your body and spirit and join Him at your prayer, and then work all that are to be worked in My courtyards and houses with you. Be perfect in obedience to God, be sweet in your word and behavior, for the angels want to stay with you working, and if the man does not work, the angels do not work either. Learn well to work and rest, for without rest you cannot work and, again, without work you cannot rest, and this obedience brings health into your body, your spirit and your soul in you, to you and to Me. Every evening get together in the ear and organize your work for the second working day, to know at dawn what you are to work. Then all will be then with fruit: both your spirit, soul, body and the love and brotherhood, your peace and resurrection and the renewal of the world, for every new beginning springs up with you. That is why I have made you My people. Take on you the little and white garment at My wedding table and do not forget what you have to fulfill, for soon I will speak again a new word to be fulfilled and we will fulfill My entire word that has been spoken to you to be fulfilled. Amen.

Now, I set again upon you the blessing for a feast of resurrection, sons. Go, My people, and comfort the man with My work in you, for the man is tired under the burden of his sins! Sing, son, sing the song of resurrection and give to the man powers of victory over death and holy joy, for without the joy of the soul, the man cannot walk in My way with a cross! Peace to you!

And as for you, leading children, prepare My people beautifully, both in his soul and in his spirit, and teach it beautifully and with a holy preparation to go and preach My feast of resurrection and its spirit in the streets. Let your work over My people be as in heaven and not as on earth. Amen.

As in heaven and not as on earth, you should fulfill My work with you, Jerusalem, for you are not of this world, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-04-2008

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I am the Lord of resurrection, My people, and I am the Lord your God. I am coming down upon you as word in the book on a day of Passover, for I am your Passover and I am your resurrection as well. Peace to you! My way to you is hard for Me too, let alone for those who carry it for Me, but I love you as a God that I am, and I do for you so much what I have not done for anyone else on the earth until now, and let your faith be seen, My people. Amen.

Christ has risen! I Myself embrace you with the greeting of My resurrection from the dead, Jerusalem of today, and let your faith be great and be seen, son, for after I proved out My resurrection to the disciples I told them this: «Go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to the whole creation. These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; they will take up serpents; if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover, and those who disbelieve will be condemned. (See Mark: 16/15-18) Therefore, teach all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age». (See Matt: 28/19-20) Amen.

Oh, My people, behold what it signifies the one who believes in Me by My death and resurrection! I am with this one in all his days, and I perform with him wonderful signs and this is how he can preach My Gospel, for without power no one is able to testify God's truth. Oh, great is with Me in heaven and on earth the man who can separate a sinner from his sinful works, from the demons who hardly come out of man! Great is with Me he who makes the man believe in God, healing him in My name! Stand up greatly, My people, and make of your mouth the spring of My Gospel and work, for I have chosen you to make great signs and wonders from you on the earth, and from this the man to understand God with you and the man to believe and come from death to life, for no one on the earth shows the man something else than death.

Oh, what shall I do, My people, to wean the man away from lying, to make him see the emptiness of his life and to take on My way with glory on it, that with self denial, the way which makes the man true, for the man is a liar, how shall I do it? My path is hard for Me to stay with you much in this day of glory. Almost always My walking is crushed, for the evil spirit always takes care to cut off My power so that I may not come, but I squeeze My little word of today as well as I can to show My longing after the man, for the man does not love Me, My people. Why does the man not love Me? Because the man loves himself and is not used to tread on his self to receive his maker upon him, the one who can teach him to die so that he may come to life again, for without death there is no resurrection; there is not, My people, and behold, you see that it is not. Because many have come to My work of today, but if they did not want to die they have not come to resurrection either, and they have rather come and trod upon Me and then they left. Oh, only if they might come back to receive their resurrection and to learn how to receive it! Behold, My Gospel of two thousand years ago, even then the man could not take it upon himself and nor can he do it today so that it may bring him to life. Every man knows and tells it by heart, but in order that he may believe in Me, as My mouth writes, and to show himself as faithful by proving signs as I spoke that I would work with those who believed in Me, oh, there is no way for the man to preach the message of My Gospel.

Oh, My people, those who know about God and do not want to be like Him after that will pay hard! Carelessness helps the man to stand away from My glory, and the world teaches him to be ashamed of My way and to stay in its way. Oh, My people, you are great for Me because of your belief in My work of yesterday and that of today, and be careful, for it is written into My word after My resurrection for those who believe in Me that they will cast out demons from the people, that they will speak with new languages and will heal the people. Oh, there is no man not to have a demon in him, and the demon frowns when you want to make it upset in man. Oh, the earth is full of demons and the people are the same, and the people do not know what it is, and what the demon does in man, and the people do not know what that is and what the Lord does in man there where He is able to reign in man. The demon keeps the man near him and near his, and the Lord keeps the man near Him and near His, for the darkness is great between demon and God, between man and God. My book of today is the book of judgment in which I write the man's sins, for I look down on earth and this is how I write the book, and then I put it face to face with the man and before this I tell the man his worldly and devilish works, for the judgment[91] of the creature is this time of My coming again as word after two thousand years from the Father to man, and he who believes in Me and in My word of today, that one gets up and understand My word of two thousand years ago either, and one like that gets up from the dead and becomes My disciples, the disciple of My holy will and a messenger of the Gospel of the resurrection. Amen.

Go, My people, and walk in the streets and sing with a spirit of resurrection over the people! Go My people and help the people to see their ugly face and teach them to wash and to come to the resurrection! Go, Jerusalem, and cast the demons out from the people, for the people do not know that they have demons in them; take them out for the people to see them, take them out and put them face to face with the man, and put Me also face to face with the man, and make the man understand what the demon means and what God means, what it means to be with the demon and what it means to be with God on earth. Go with the faith in God, My people, and pray in secret and tell Me in secret to give light to the men's hearts so that they may see and then the people to love God. Amen.

Christ has risen, Jerusalem! Comfort My pains! You should not hurt Me, neither by your deed nor by your mouth, My people, for I am full of wounds! Be wise so that you may know how you are able to love and to follow God on the earth! Peace to you! Learn the way of the resurrection, learn it fully over you and strengthen Me over you to be able to teach you and then for you to be taught as well! Peace to you! I am Who I am, and I tell you again: I am Who I am, My people. Oh, treat Me beautifully and faithfully, because I ask this for you and not for Me. Amen.

Christ has risen! Christ has risen! Christ has risen, My people, Jerusalem! Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-04-2008

The feast of the Spring of the healing

I am Who I am. My word is sweet for those who have My Spirit in them. I am in the Father and the Father is in Me when I speak, and those who have My Spirit in them receive Me when I speak, as also those who do not have God deny Me, for any man works according to his faith, according to the power of his faith. When the man's faith is great, he believes everything through God and from God, and when his faith is small, he cannot work by faith and he can only work by his mind, which puts his faith and his steadfastness down, and behold, the man needs a staff to be with God and like God, and he who has a staff is born of God and does not sin because God protects him and the deceiver does not touch him, for the whole world lies in the power of the evil one, as it is written into the Scriptures, and those who are in the true God believe in Him and have life, for God's love is the obedience of His commandments, and he who is born of God overcomes the world, and the victory which has overcome the world is faith. Amen.

I become spring of word for My people out of Romanians that is faithful to My second coming from near the Father to the man. I, the Lord, who was resurrected from the dead, meet My people with the greeting of My resurrection:

Christ has risen, My people! I do not need man's knowledge to speak over the earth more than any time now, for the people who have believed that they know have always killed God, because the man who says that he knows is sick, for the healthy man in his heart and mind believes from God and does nothing else but only those things from God and like God, and the one who asks himself from where God is suppose to tell him what to do in such a way that he may do so, that one has not known God and does not know what God with man means on earth and he will not find God around him for himself, because such a man is sick, as there were all in the time of My body, who did not have eyes and then mind to understand from God and not from people, and not from themselves about My coming from the Father on the earth. God is Spirit, but the man does not want to pass from body into spirit to be like God, spirit and body and not flesh and not the mind of his sick nature, for the man who does not have God as his staff all the time, that one is a sick man, the sickest man, sick to death, and not sick for other reasons, My people.

[91] See the selection topic: „The fearful judgment", r.n.

Christ has risen, Jerusalem of today! I have chosen you from the Romanian people, to save this nation through you from unbelief and ignorance of God. I become the light of the world into your midst and the spring of healing of the man's mind, for the man needs wisdom, because the whole world lies in the power of the evil one, and those who are faithful are born of God and overcome the world by their faith and by the keeping of the commandments of life. Amen.

Christ has risen, My people! The people do not know that this life is for the man to build with it his life that is to be when I will be before them in the glory that I have from the Father from the foundation of the world and when I will be with those of Mine, who will have loved to build their life.

Woe to those without a staff over their lives of every moment! The child does not choose his mother by himself to protect him and take care of him, but the man, who is big in his body and intoxicated in his mind, chooses himself over his life, and his life does not have any staff and he says that he can manage by himself, and the man is ashamed with God on earth, and that one lives like that and dies like that. Behold, if the man has come into this people of Mine and was led by himself and by the habit of his mind, who says that he sees and that he knows and that he can, such a man have not known how one should come or how one is supposed to live with God and by God either, and he has also not known how one is supposed to work for God, for you cannot do any work for God by your hand, man; no, no, but by your faith and by the work of the faith, for those that I made My disciples, I took them out of the world and I took them out from among their relatives and I gave them spiritual power, the work of eternal life, and not that of temporariness, as those who work by their hand on the earth and for the earth do, for all people are dust, and the earth is very heavy over man. I become spring of word over the earth to save the man from the earth and to clothe him with the heaven, for it is not well on the earth without heaven, but it is only hard labor, only toil, only world, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one, as it is written.

Oh, sons of My people, be My disciples and do not work anything else but what I give you to work, for you cannot be My disciples otherwise, for it is written about the disciples: «He who does not leave for Me mother, father, spouse and children, lands and ranks, even his self, cannot be My disciple», (See Matt: 19/29), and if someone else comes to Me in another way, I open to that one if he knocks to come, but such a man becomes a burden for Me. A man like that cannot take away My burden to carry it for Me in such a way that I may rely on him when it is most difficult for Me. Behold, neither at that time and nor now do I have anyone with whom I may carry My heavy cross, for My heavy cross of today is not from the earth but it is rather worked out of spirit and sighing, and only My Father, My mother and My saints know the pain of My coming, for the man who comes to Me hardly lets himself be born from above and he forgets, poor of him, that it is not possible to overcome against the spirit of the world by faith without works, and that only the faith from heaven has victory, not that from the earth.

Oh, My Father, oh My mother, it is a day of the spring of healing over My people and over My today's people, Romanian people, of which I have raised a Jerusalem in these days, for My Jerusalem is not out of dust or stone, but it is of faithful sons, who know to overcome the world by their faith in Me and in My coming again now from the Father in man. Support My people, oh, My Father, oh My mother! Two thousand years ago, when I came back to you, after I fulfilled My work for which I came on the earth, I asked You for My disciples, oh, My Father, and I told You this: «I pray that You would not take them from the world, but that You would keep them from the evil one. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name, but now that I come to You, keep them from the evil one». (See John: 17/12, 15) This is how I am praying today too for My people of today: keep it from the evil one and from its world, Father, and help it love Us and fulfill the commandments of life, which are a spring of healing for man, oh My Father. Amen.

– Oh, Son Emmanuel, We have the word into their midst and We have watching disciples day and night over those who have given themselves over to Us to be Our people. Let Us strengthen, You and I, this watch over My people and Yours, and let the people stay under the staff, for woe to those without a staff upon them! We shepherd it from heaven and from earth, dear Son. Let Our people stay under instruction, for love always needs to be learned. Let the love of this people come to instruction, for We have disciples as Our dwelling place among them and for them.

Oh, let yourself be guided, people of God's word, for woe to the sheep without a staff! Learn the spring of the healing be always over your head and then reveal your mind and heart before the Lord your God day and night, for nothing is hidden that may not come into the light, because it is written: «Day after day they pour forth speech, and night after night they display knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard». (Ps. 19 MT = 18 LXX: 2, 3) This is how you should work, loved people, this way, for I, the Father and the Son, call you the light of the earth.

Oh, Son Emmanuel, this is how I have spoken today from You to Your people of today, to the spirit of healing for it. Amen.

– Oh, the glory which I have from You, Father, is You in Me, and I want Our people to learn well this glory: I in them, as You are in Me, My Father. Amen.

And you, My mother springing with healing, give My people power and healing, mother, for it is a day of the healing spring, My mother. Amen.

– My dear Son, I give myself as salve for the healing of those who are not fulfilled in Your people, for their fulfillment in You is You in them, and I give myself as an example of My life, obedience and light in You, and Yours in me, Lord Son.

Open your eyes well, people of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, for the Lord grows you within His Holy Spirit. Let the Holy Spirit be your life, breath, work and fruit over the earth afterwards, for you are chosen for spirit and not for body. I have always given you holy exhortation for your healing. Keep all the Lord's words and it will be well with you and with Him! Let all your days and nights be lived for the fulfillment on the earth of His word upon you. Free yourself from burdens and take my Son's cross. Be like the birds of the sky and like the flowers of the field, for the Lord is He Who can work for you, not you, and you are to work for Him, for to this you were called when you came to be His.

Heal yourself from you and from the world, you, who have come to be with the Lord's people and have not known to come to life and to be yet. The Lord's word is a spring of healing, and he has to be taken into your belly as medicine, people fed with God. Learn to love like God and not like man, for love is God and not man. Your holy conduct, inside and outside of you, between brother and brother, between you and God, this is the Lord's spring of healing from you to Him, for my Son is under a heavy burden. As in heaven this is how you are to be on earth between brother and brother, and let the Lord see your love as it is in heaven, and let He also see your light, for it reveals the hidden things and it heals them from evil and it exhorts them to good.

Let all the Lord's people get free of burdens on the earth. Let it not heap up for itself, but let it get free instead so that those that he has gathered may not draw him to them, so that those he has worked and gathered may not draw him to the world. Receive teaching from heaven and do not let it pass by you, but rather fulfill it, people loved by God, for my Son overcame the world in order that you may overcome it too. You are the Lord's people. Overcome the world like your Lord, too.

Free your little houses from all the earthly things and heal yourselves from them, sons, for you need nothing else on earth but only God, well, sons. Free yourselves from the people, for the whole world lies in the evil one, and receive and learn from God the love for God, which starts with not gathering on the earth and with the coming out of the world. Love the heaven on the earth, but the heaven is not earth but it is heaven, and the man understands this so little!

Oh, come to the spring, people nourished from God from above, and stay at the mouth of those who have God in them for you, for your life from heaven on the earth! I am the healer from the Son of God for you. Take me as your example; take me as your life, me and the saints of the heaven, who did not look after the earth within their life of man! Oh, come to the spring of your healing and be born from heaven through it, for the Lord has got a spring of eternal life for you, the one who knows to come and to believe and receive to take when it is given to you for your healing! The beginning of this wisdom is the fear of God and your faith in Him, dear people. Amen.

And you, leading children on the Lord's behalf for those who have given themselves to Him as an obedient people, remain in His love and teach the people to love from God and support the one with longing in him and the one who is oppressed in his way with the Lord. Always look over the sons and over the daughters of Jerusalem, look at their lives and conduct, search their thought, heart, work and strengthen in them the eternal life, the life which heals the man from death! Come! The Lord is in you and you in Him. Lead the Lord's flock up and always bring the Lord down to it, and I ordain to it faith like yours and work with obedience to God, for God is Spirit, and let His people be likewise. Amen.

And as for you, oh, dear country of my Son, the chosen one of my Son, dear Romania country, do not turn your ear from the Lord's whisper upon you. I exhort you to wake up and for the faith and wisdom from above, for you are in pains even if you do not know, even if you do not feel it.

Christ has risen! Learn the Gospel of resurrection, dear country of the new election of my Son for His coming again on earth! Christ has risen from the dead two thousand years ago, and now He wants to come to life from you over the earth and the world may believe that the Father has sent Him to you for your glory from him, now in the end of the time. Oh, let yourself be for His glory and yours! Behold the spring of glory! Be wise!

Listen to the one set by the Lord to rule your country over you, Romanian nation, for he loves the justice for you more than everyone else who is ruling over you now. Open your eyes well, because if you do not open them, then the false man catches you under him, who says that he does well to you, but he does not do any good to you. Oh, listen to the one who is just upon you and for you, (President Băsescu, r.n.), and ask wisdom from God to see the one who wants to do good to you and to God into your midst. Receive upon you the one set by the Lord as helmsman through the waves for you, for woe to those without a staff over their heads!

Behold, the Lord's staff is into your midst. Do not walk without a staff from heaven and on earth over your fate, dear country of my Son's returning on the earth now. Come into the light! Come! Come and take light! The Lord has into your midst the staff of His word. Take from the spring and drink to learn the way to God, and the Lord's to you! Take and drink and learn to be and do not forget that you are the country of my Son, the country of His coming again from near the Father to man. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My bride mother, Virgin mother! I am strengthening your word now over the country of My coming again and I am speaking to it in this way:

My mother is your intercessor with Me, My country of today. He has been watching for two thousand years over you and for Me, for the Lord revealed her My mainland of this time where I will come on My second coming. My mother has been working in different ways over the earth for man and for the coming to God of the sinful world, but she has stayed over you with her hands covering you from above to be Mine now, in the end of the time. Be illuminated, for you are the country of the New Jerusalem, the country of My new people into your midst, born that it may stand before Me for My coming!

Christ has risen! I, the Lord, wake up your love and the Gospel of My resurrection upon you, My country of today. Christ has risen! I, the resurrected Lord, stretch out over you the spirit of resurrection, the shroud of My love. Christ has risen, My country of today! I am knocking at your door. Strengthen yourself in faith! Come to your resurrection, for the Lord's glory springs up upon you!

I am breathing upon you with the Holy Spirit, My country of today! Come to life! I am not bringing you anything but your salvation and eternity with Me, My country for My second coming, My country in the end of the time. Christ has risen! The Lord your God is speaking upon you. Amen, amen, amen.

19-04/02-05-2008

The third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

I am Who I am. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of My Virgin mother and I am the Lord, the God of the people of My today's word, people chosen of the Romanian people to be My welcome house and My way now, in the end of the time. I am in the Father and the Father is in Me, and this is how I speak on the earth. Amen.

Open so that I may come in, watching children in the gates, for it is a day of feast between heaven and earth. The saints are coming with Me on the earth to testify about My coming with them. Peace to you! Chris is risen! We are in a spirit of celebration, for after I was resurrected, this spirit of My resurrection from the dead has remained on the earth. Behold, there has come a people to the spring and its spirit has to be revived with the spirit of My resurrection, and you shall strengthen My today's entrance, for I have come with the male and female disciples of My resurrection, and I have come with those who are asleep, who have been waiting for seven thousand years for My today's coming, more than they who had been waiting for My coming two thousand years ago; and I have come with those who condemned Me to crucifixion then, for they are also remembered on the altar of you, and they have waited for My mercy for them too. Oh, let us comfort their spirit as well! Let us put out the burning of the spirit, for My mercy and yours shows us that we are God's sons, the sons of the Father. Amen.

Christ is risen, My people! The Lord who was resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago tells you this! Peace to you! You have come to the spring, and I give you from it if you drink; I give you to drink when you come, and I long for your coming more than you want for Mine. I have told you that I will also exhort to a holy walking those who want to come to see you on the feasts and to hear Me when I teach you and how I teach you, for if the man does not make room for My power in him, he cannot walk in the way with God on the earth, since he has indulged in pleasures and many other weaknesses, and also I give them as much as I give you, and happy is the one who knows to read and to understand My will and My word of life giving, which comes on the earth for the living and for the dead, for I am the Lord of the power, and when I come as word of life over the earth, I have always stumbled across the man's unbelief and across the unfulfilling of God's will over his life, and I cry over My mourning from man; I cry as I cried on the cross. Two thousand years ago it happened to Me everything that was written about Me in Moses' law, in the prophets and in Psalms, and I have fulfilled in the same way today, and the scholars of the Scriptures know this, but as at that time, the same is now too; all are standing against the work of the Holy Spirit, Who, behold, is fulfilling during these days the Scriptures of My coming with the glory of My word to man on the earth, and behold, this is My way from My Father to man. Amen.

I am telling you, those who are coming at My spring of word to see My people and to hear My word into its midst coming down of My mouth, I am telling you that this people is My way, My house and My sign before My coming. I advise you as well to a spirit of resurrection if you hear from My mouth the word of My teaching of today. Two thousand years ago, very often the crowd was following Me to see the glory of My miracles over those who were weak, but they were not able to remain with My life in them, and they were turning back to the things of their nature, for the man lives his life on the earth like him, not according to God's will. I am also advising you in this day of the feast of saints for the memorial of My resurrection. Oh, do not be content only to take and to hear My word for the man's resurrection. Oh, it is not enough, but self-denial is needed instead, for the man cannot serve God otherwise, but he serves himself instead. Oh, fulfill in you and over you Christ's face, the face of His saints, and be careful that two thousand years ago I said that the one who would not stumble against Me would be blessed. Now I am exhorting you to learn the whole love and its proper behavior, which lies in your power to will for it, and then I, the Lord, will look upon you and I will see and rejoice or be upset, for the man, as much as he can he lets him to be weak, and everything lies in his will. Oh, if you come to the spring, change your life, and be careful for it is written that the body does not use at anything, but the spirit gives life. I, the Lord, will give you power for the holy things and pleased to Me in man if you take and if you want to crown yourselves with My face upon you, with My life in you. Ask and you will receive. Love My coming and I will help you to be after My will like some who want to keep away from the emptiness of the passing life. Be faithful, for it is the time of the faith denial, and many come and then go back to their evil things they had done before. Be gentle and humble in your heart, so that God may give you grace and then love for those in heaven over you, for I, the Lord, was resurrected for each man, only for the man to want this. Amen.

And now, My people, I am coming in through the gates with My disciples and with My prudes and those of My resurrection, and I am coming to your table with those who condemned Me to death two thousand years ago, for they are also remembered here for forgiveness, because I said that everything a man sins against the Son of Man will be forgiven, and they wanted to be understood that they were God's advocates, that they were those who wanted Israel's welfare.

It is a day with heavenly love in it. It is a day of memorial of those who wait for Me in the dwelling of the dead to give them My hand for their resurrection, for their forgiveness, and My male and female disciples give place to those who are in sufferance now at My table of word. My entire creature that has been is called at My table. Those who went to sleep with the hope of their resurrection do not wait in vain and they will be soon comforted, and others wait at the border between Me and man to confess their sufferance. Amen.

— The world of those who are asleep, Lord, has always come with You at the feast of the memorial of this world, and we call You the Savior of those who went asleep with the hope of their resurrection through You, the One promised by the Father to come on the earth for the living and for the dead. We look at your people and confess that it is Yours, it and everyone who, after Your word and after Your will, becomes the body of Your people, which has become Your way and Your house for Your coming now. Oh, come Lord, and fulfill Your promises about the new heaven and the new earth, written in the Scriptures to come and to be, and here it is how You come and fulfill! And forgive us our wrongdoings with which we left the earth, because we have intercession with You, Lord, and we have it from the midst of Your people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Amen, amen, I say to You. I am the long enduring One and I hear the mourning of those who sigh. Amen.

And now, I, the Lord, call those who condemned Me then, I call them and I set them at My table of word, and let them come and confess. I am Who I am, and I am the crucified and resurrected One and I have power over the living and over the dead, over the slaves and over the free. Let Caiaphas, Ana, Pilate and Judas all come and confess that I am the One Who have endured for seven thousand years. Amen.

– Oh, no one can have so much mercy than You have, the merciful One for Your tormentors, for whom You cried on the cross to the Father and prayed to Him saying: «Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing?» (Luke: 23/34) Then You said that it was fulfilled with You all that was written in the book of Moses, in the prophets and in the Psalms, and we, those that were two thousand years ago, came to be those who fulfilled the Scriptures about Your crucifixion. Oh, if You want, if you can, write us as the fulfillers of the Scriptures that were fulfilled with You as it was written. Willing or not, we confessed You as true God, for if we condemned You as a man, You were resurrected from the dead as God, and if we did not condemn You, You were not able to be glorified by Your resurrection for the resurrection of every man who wants it. Oh, write us as disciples, for we paid on the earth by the torment of our soul and then our body, and when we gave our soul, You were the One Who came and met us, showing us the signs of the nails on Your body, Master of life and death. We were feeble, we were weak, and we put each other off with fine words about Your death. We sent You from one to another and then we made the people say that You were Man against God, and the spirit of unbelief arose greatly in the people and Your sufferance was fulfilled on Golgotha, oh, Son of God, and we were then like blind people and our eyes were prevented to see, and this is how we fulfilled the Scripture for scorn against You and for Your sacrifice on the cross for the human kind guilty with sin. Now You have called us to a table of memorial for the world of those asleep, and who can stand against your works? Here we are! We are guilty before You and before Your people that confesses You into the midst of the Romanian people, the way of Your coming as word of judgment from the Father to the man on the earth. If You want, you can cleanse us from our sin by forgiveness and do not let us forever in the fire, for our soul has been burning within great torment, but it still hopes in You, the One Who died on the cross, put by us, and then the One Who were resurrected by the cross. Then we were ashamed of You and of Your glory full of humility, and behold, we stand with shame before You and before Your Father and Your saints and Your people of today. And now be it done according to Your will with us, but do not forget that You are merciful, that You are long enduring, if You want, for You have come now on the earth with great power, with much, much word, and Your word is like a river in which the man can wash away from his guilt. We can no longer do it, but You can wash us. You and Your people, interceding now for the salvation of the creature. May Your will be done, but we also know that You are enduring as You were two thousand years ago, when You endured with love the fulfillment of all that were written before about You, about You and about us, those who caused You great sufferance for the atonement of the sins of the world. Then we were judges, we and the world, and now You are judge and You are just, but You are also long enduring, for You are God, You are the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of the Virgin mother, and You also come to judge the living and the dead, and You are without beginning and without end, and You are the beginning and the end as well. Amen. And now, if You also want for us, You know this and we receive. Oh, receive us; receive us for the prayers of those who have been praying on the earth for our guilt and for its forgiveness before You! Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, resurrected from crucifixion, am long enduring, and I am the same as on the cross two thousand years ago, when I asked from the Father for the forgiveness of those who fulfilled the Scriptures about Me to be crucified and to bear the burden of the sins of the world, to give My life for their atonement and to come to life again victoriously, and My resurrection wiped out the guilt of those who condemned Me as a man, for I was resurrected like a true God.

Christ is risen for you! I, the resurrected Lord, am comforting you now your heavy and long sigh, for My endurance is great. You fulfilled, as servants, those that were written about Me, and willing or not you did it, and I also fulfilled as it was written. Be comforted with My mercifulness! Be on hold. I come soon clothed in all the glory, which I have from the Father before the foundation of the world. I come to make new heavens and new earth and New Jerusalem, and I come and I have already come and fulfill as written, as I fulfilled two thousand years ago those that were written about Me and then to be fulfilled. I am Who I am, and I am the Master of life and death, and I have the keys of the Abyss, and the opposing spirit will no longer be; soon, soon, it will no longer be and the Spirit of the Lord will be on the earth. Amen.

Oh, male and female disciples, witnesses of My resurrection! Come at a time; come to the table of the word! Amen.

– Oh, Lord, behold, we too, Your disciples and the prudes of Your resurrection confess You as the Lord of resurrection.

We, the prudes, glorify You on the feast for us, for we were Your disciples and we loved You powerfully and we confessed You likewise, for we did nothing on the earth after we found You, nothing but Your confession and the love for You, Lord. We are interceding today before You for the victory of the work of today's word. We pray for holy power over Your people, which is testifying about You today as true God. Give to it heavenly love, and let it give it to You back and let it glorify You before the people on the earth!

Oh, enclose, Lord, the Romania country with the belt of Your loving kindnesses and listen to the prayer of Your people of today for it! We intercede near You for the country of Your coming. May Your will be done over it, and may You overcome for it in this way and for You with it. This is how we ask for it. Amen.

Oh, the sons in the gates are tired bearing Your coming from the Father to man, You and Your saints. You are the greatest One, and they are small and do not have any help on the earth for Your coming, for there is much unbelief on the earth. However, You are the worker and You strengthen them. Give them from heaven, Lord, for there is disbelief on the earth, and the man lacks light in him. Your disciples are here, and we are witnesses of Your resurrection of that time. Glorify Yourself, Lord, for You are the Lord of glory, the Lord Who overcame by the cross, and You are long enduring and beloved by all Your saints. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, dear holy male and female disciples! Let us give a little bit of rest to those who keep us in our coming, and we will set ourselves in the book with the whole word of today, Mine and yours. I am aggrieved for the unbelief in people and I am long enduring. Two thousand years ago, those of that time said that I was a deceiver and that I was against God and against His law, and then this is what the people have always said after that for all those who have had Me in time and through whom I have always been despised and killed, for the unbelieving people have also spoken about Me and them that we performed miracles with the devil. My teaching had always been considered as deceiving because I was speaking about those that were written in the Scriptures. The rulers of that time said that I was proud, that I set Myself greater than God, and they thought that I was dangerous, and they condemned My teaching, but all that it happened, it happened and it also happens today as it was written to be and as it is written to be fulfilled, but the people did not understand because they did not want to, and the people do not understand from God because they do not want to understand. However, I have come and thrown fire on the earth, and those who try to put it out fire it up even stronger, for My fire[92] burns and it does not go out, and those who want to put it out are burnt in it, for they are unfaithful, and all happen in this way because it is written this way. Amen.

I, the Lord, comprise you within My peace, within the spirit of My resurrection, people gathered at the spring. I will comfort you, I will shepherd you with all those that I will put before you in this day of My feast with the male and female disciples into your midst, and then you will go to your place, and I will speak again over this feast and give you news by My word, I and My saints. Oh, give your love to God, your life and your power. Give Him so that you may have, for if you give to yourself you do not have. However, be wise so that you may not go wrong. Oh, you should not submit Him to all of your wills without God then, and you should not call God over your works without Him because this is sin, because the man owes God and not the Lord. Amen.

Peace to you, people gathered at the spring! I have fed you on the spirit of God and saints. Christ is risen! Graze My grass, people fed on food from heaven! If you eat, then eat usefully, do not eat in vain from My table, for the food on it is expensive and this food is prepared with great labor. Peace to you for the wisdom from above in your spirit!

Christ is risen, My people; the Lord of the resurrection is telling you today, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and the God of those who are faithful to Him! Amen, amen, amen.

*

And, if those who have gathered at My spring of word and of grace sharing by the word have gone now at their places, I, the Lord, with My saints, set into the book all Our speaking of today over those who have eaten of My of today's table of My coming with the saints.

Come, watching children for My coming, because I would like to be able to cleanse the man from all those things that eat his inner life, and to be able to save from death the man who finds Me with you. And let us refresh the people with the spirit of truth, for My saints are full of longing after man, as two thousand years ago were those who went by My sending from margins to margins to preach to the people everything happened with Me in Jerusalem, as it was written in the Scriptures about Messiah, the Savior, and behold, My teaching is flowing out of My word today as it was at that time and I want to help the man to allow himself be cleansed from those that suck his inner life and that are seen on the outside.

Oh, I leave over the entire nature My beneficial order against everything that is the enemy of the nature and life, and the nature has a holy law set by Me and it submits to it, for if the tree is sick inside then I meant a healing doctor for it to search its life and I have among the birds of the sky a bird that heals the inner sickness of the tree. It comes and searches the tree over and where it sees that the bark is sick it pecks at it with its beak and gets under the bark where the worm is and, getting in, it finds the worm and takes it out from the tree and this is how the Lord takes care of the trees, and some other doctors from the birds of the sky come and pick the cutworms that damage the fruit and this is how the Lord cleans the trees from their enemies, and in the same manner He also cleanses and takes care of the people who want or do not want to be taken care of. Oh, if the people did not put to the trees and grass so much chemicals made by people and which spoil their nature, then I, the Lord, would sent My doctors, just as I was sending them to the saints who were overrun by enemy plagues, by lice and evil flies, and I was sending some other living beings to cleanse the evil from upon man, and I was saving the saints from afflictions, and the saints humbled themselves by prayers and were not proud in their mind, but they rather glorified My care for their lives. However, when I Myself came to save the man from the enemies of his life, from the sin, which ate the man's inner life, oh, the people did not welcome Me to do them good, as they also did not receive those sent by Me to clean them from their iniquities, by which they draw punishment upon themselves for their deed. Oh, the people do not know how to understand the help from the Lord upon them, the mysterious work and full of mercy for man, and if the man receives from the Lord, when the Lord gives to him, the man becomes haughty and then he forgets the One Who does him good from heaven by His servants on the earth.

[92] See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic fire", r.n.

There was once in David's Judea a son of king who, taking over the throne of his father, did what was pleasant in the eyes of the Lord, advising those in Judea to seek to fulfill the law and God's commandments, removing the foreign gods from the country and building cities and wall reinforcements all around them, and the Lord gave him rest in the country and all around it. And in one day, seeing an enemy army with weapons and many chariots marching against him, he came out to meet it and set the battle in array and then he cried to the Lord saying: «Only You, Lord, can help the one who has no strength against the mighty one. We rely on You and in Your great name we defend our hearth, and the man cannot stand against You». (2 Chron: 14/11) Then the Lord struck the enemy army and this fled, and the king of Judea pursued them to their cities, for the fear of the Lord came upon them and this is how the one who relied on the Lord prevailed against his enemy. Then the Spirit of the Lord came down and met the king of Judea and said to him and to those from Judea: «He is with you, while you are with Him; and if you seek Him, He will be found of you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. Now for a long season Israel was without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law: but when in their distress they turned to the Lord and sought Him, He was found of them. In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great vexations were on all inhabitants of the lands. They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God did vex them with all adversity. But you be strong, and do not let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded». (2 Chron: 15/1-7) Then the king heard these words from the Lord and the prophecy of the seer and he gathered all the people and brought thanks to the Lord from all their hearts, and he who did not work that way had to die. This is how this king kept peace in his country, but when his hope in God was tested, being again under pressure from the kings, the king sought his own council and went wrong because he relied on people. And then the seer of God came to him and spoke to him: «Because you have relied on the kings and have not relied on the Lord as you did once, for the eyes of the Lord run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him, but you have done foolishly; for henceforth you shall have wars». (2 Chron: 15/7-9) Oh, and the king burst into rage with the seer and put him in the prison house, and he also oppressed some of the people at the same time. Then the Lord struck him with an exceeding great disease and yet in the time of his disease he did not seek after the help from the Lord but he relied on the physicians more than in God and he did not recover any more until the end of his life.

Behold, My people, this happens to the man who relies on himself forsaking God, for the man in his good time becomes proud and then does no longer receive the one who can cleanse him from his inner things with which then he hides even while being face to face with God. Oh, the man is not like the tree, which submits to its cleansing from the enemies, and the man hides even from the face of God as Adam in paradise.

– Oh, Lord, we, Your disciples, taught by You for the work of the apostleship upon the nations of the earth, we are writing ourselves with You in the book of this day of testimony of Your coming with the saints and with the spirit of the feast with Your people on the earth, Your people chosen from the Romanian nation. We have confessed before the emperors and kings, Lord, and they did the same to us, those who did not receive the cleansing from their sins and haughtiness that was seen over them and which covers the man's sin under it. Of Your disciples, I, who acknowledged Your resurrected body, speak to the sons of Your people and I speak to those who come to see Your people and hear Your word, and I speak to all the sons of men on the earth that the sin in man stands against God if the man does not condemn sin in him. I taught both the kings and the slaves to leave off the sin in their bodies and I preached You by signs and miracles seen then by the declaring of Your name over my preaching, but those who call themselves disciples and teachers on Your behalf over the people, as others of yesterday like them, these leave the people in their sins and are not healers to take the worm out of man and save the man from the sin which eats inside his body and soul. I taught those united through sin, kings and subjects, to die in them to the feeling of the sin and to be decent and fight in order to be like You and like me, cleansed and freed from sin in them. This is what we did, Your disciples of that time, when we left into the whole earth to preach Your kingdom over the people, and we exhorted the people to know it and to receive it, and many received it, and then we established the people in it, and we also established priests and deacons over them and Your church was built, Your kingdom on the earth. Oh, today there are no longer clean bodies among those who call themselves Your disciples and teachers of churches and among those who call themselves Your church on the earth, and the people love the sin and say that this was left by You! Oh, the church, which lives within itself once with the sin in the man's body, is not Your church! Your church is the body cleaned from man's sin and many others, altogether, loving Your holiness in them by their living and by their holy appearance, according to Your pleasure and not after the pleasure of the world, Lord. This is how we preached Your Gospel, in this way, and not for sin. Behold, the people are ashamed of Your image upon their image. The common and proud women are ashamed, those who call each other ladies, they are ashamed to become signs and examples to be followed after Your pleasure among people, and I exhorted queens and their servants to great humility and they were Your brides after that, clean in their bodies and behavior, and they were sacrifices of Your love, for they were not ashamed of You, but on the contrary, they confessed You by their sacrifice.

Oh, sons and daughters of the earth, take courage for the Lord, and sanctify yourselves if you hear His voice! Stop sinning and hate it to death and then kill it in you, and you will come to life! Stop sinning so that the Lord may not stop you! The sin comes from the body and from the devil, and the devil is the father of sin and of lie and he is God's adversary and yours and the adversary against all the people of the earth. He who wants to belong to the Lord's heavens let him put an end to sin and to the pride that comes with sin, for the sin will be condemned by a great damnation soon, soon. Anything you may be on the earth, by name or by rank, humble yourselves, for you are sinners and your sin humiliates you; it does not feed you nor exalts you! Come out of the fire and throw out from your bodies the condemning fire in man, for the sin burns in you like fire; come out, and come into the flame of the Holy Spirit, Who cleanses the man by the word! The Lord has come as word on the earth into the midst of the Romanian people. He is not the man, He is not the devil, but He is the Lord Word and works upon you and for you and you cannot hide beneath your lack of wisdom, by which you want to say that it is not the Lord Who speaks into the midst of the Romanian people the end of the sin and the new beginning, a beginning again, for the first things will pass away with great noise, and you will see soon, soon, that this Scriptures will be fulfilled. I am the disciple who touched by my hand the wounds of His body, crucified on the cross by the people, by Ana and Caiaphas and by Pilate, who, being ashamed for their sin, could not submit to the Christ's truth, but they rather hid and struck in secret and punished the right One, because sin does nothing else in man when the man hides not to be seen with the sin in him. These bought Judas and then forsook him as the only one guilty after they used him, and this is what the priests do and all those who love sin, spending their body and soul on sin.

Oh, sons and daughters of the Romanian land, put an end to your sin as old as seven thousand years and live within the cleanness in your bodies and among you, for if the heaven asks you, and you will not be able to stop, then you have gathered sin upon sin. The Lord waits for you to be His saints on the hearth of the Romanian people, the fallow land of the Lord's coming with His saints, as it is written to be, and a holy man is the man who does no longer commit sin in his own body, loving God and loving his enemies. Stop eating meat, for if you do not stop, you will be filled will all diseases, with all evil abscesses, which the Lord sends on earth over the people who kill the living being with soul in it and he takes it killed in his belly! Seek after this spring of word, for God Word is springing out of His mouth the word into the midst of the Romanian people now, in the end of the time! Oh, seek God! Amen.

And You, Lord of Your saints, with whom You come, give the revival to the people, for there is much longing in me for You and I long for You to be in the people as You are in me, if the people will be faithful to Your word in order to fulfill it. We, Your disciples of that time, speak to everybody not to be ashamed of God, and that rather they are to be ashamed of the devil and of his wide world full of soul and body biting snakes, and let the people have fear of God, for the one without fear of God sins immediately, and the sin, once committed does no longer let the man to live for God, just as Ana and Caiaphas could not receive the Lord, for they were very sinful, and they hid under the robes of their glory from above with all the evil things in them, and they put the Lord to the cross for them and gave Him to be denigrated as a sinner.

Have mercy and take care of the Romanian homeland, oh, Lord! We bless it from Your right hand and we bring prayer for Your glory in it and for the work of Your word, overcoming for You over it. Amen.

– The same has been with us, Your disciples and prudes and of Your resurrection, we wish Your glory in the midst of the Romanian people to be more and more known on the earth, oh, Lord, and make of the dead sons and daughters of this nation resurrected people, as You also resurrected us and filled us with Your love and then we were Your disciples.

Oh, sons and daughters of the Romanian people, come to life for the Lord as we also came to life and then preached the Lord's kingdom to the kings and we became His heaven on earth! Open your eyes well, for you live in hard times! Seek for you with justice and do not stay under the leaders chosen by you, for those who are staying now over you with carelessness sell the land beneath you to the strangers, they sell you to the enemies of country and soul. Come and ask the Lord, so that He may exhort you from above, for you are in hard times and you do not know from heaven, but you know only as on earth! Take well into consideration the example given to you by the Lord today about the king of the Judea, who, fulfilling the law and the Lord's commandments together with the whole people, had a long time of peace. Come to life and let yourselves be lead by the resurrected One, for the resurrected Lord has come as word on the earth and He is the Teacher. Christ was resurrected for us and for you! Come to life too and become God's sons and daughters like us, full of His love, for there will no longer be sin, but only the Lord and with His sons will be. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, male and female disciples, you have released now dear and zealous exhortations over the people from among the saints! Let us also fulfill over them the kingdom, which does not fall down! Amen.

I, the Lord, am writing now with My mercy the forgiveness of those who, out of their weakness, condemned Me to the cross, and I put out their fire as long as two thousand years over their soul.

Oh, rest now sons! I have waited in tears for your relief. Cry with Me now in a spirit of comfort. I am giving you tears of comfort now. Give away your tears by this time and receive My comfort. There is still a little time and your eternal comfort will remain between heaven and earth, and you will be comforted for your sufferance of two thousand years too, after you have stayed face to face with the sin committed by you. Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord of endurance, You are the Lord God of those who gave You over to crucifixion two thousand years ago! You were and are Our Lord God, but we filled You with great sufferance then, and we worked in this way out of weakness. Make that all people, sinful because of their weakness, may seek You and find You, and then work so that they all may let themselves be resurrected by those who have mercy on the people like You! Oh, is there any other place where we are to hear prayer of forgiveness to You for us, Ana and Caiaphas, Pilate and Judas?

Oh, people, this means the man to receive advice from God. This people, chosen by the Lord out of the midst of the Romanian people, receives advice from the Lord and works in this way between earth and heaven, and it works like the Son of the Father, for Christ listens to the Father in everything. Oh, priests from the earth, flee from the glory that comes from people, flee from weaknesses, for you hide with them from the people and from God, as we also did! Do no longer live in your sins! Do no longer serve to the altars being sinful! Do no longer lie to the people, for sin will no longer be on the earth! Cleanse yourselves in an instant, for we died in our sins and we have been crying for two thousand years! We wanted to believe that Christ was not true God, although we knew well from the Scriptures His time and His glory, but being full of weaknesses we hid behind each other and in this way we sinned, and this is how you are also sinning today with respect to His coming of today and towards His people of today, of which you all have heard. Oh, come to your senses as long as the light is with you, for the Lord's word sounds its trumpet in the earth on the hearth of the Romanian nation! Sanctify your mind, your heart and your body! Love God's kingdom in you! Become dead to the sin, for the sin will no longer be on the earth! Amen.

And as for you, Good and long enduring Lord, the Teacher of the living and the dead, comfort Yourself because of Your pain from us, for this day of Your endurance is great over us. Oh, glory to You, and give us the salvation from sin that puts pressure upon us, since that time and up to this day. Amen, amen, amen.

– Be full of comfort, sons! Be the sons of My peace from now on! Those written in the Scriptures were fulfilled then and they are being fulfilling now as well. I was blamed by scholars and by leaders only because I was speaking from the Scriptures over the people with whom I was speaking, and this was great wrath over their spirit and over their evil spirit. Oh, does anyone speak on the earth those that are written in the Scriptures to be fulfilled as I did, and also reading from the Scriptures and fulfilling as it was written to be fulfilled as I did? Oh, it was only I who spoke like this. I and My disciples. And I have been speaking today likewise and My speaking proves the Scriptures and that is why the ministers of altars and the teachers of the law did not love Me and do not love Me.

I am the voice of the seventh angel and I call out the trumpet to work out holy victory over the earth. Amen. I sound the trumpet, for I am God's priest and this is the priestly order from God: that is for the priests to sound the trumpets. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I have nourished you with much word. This day has been a day of comfort and a day of reconciliation. Amen, amen, amen.

28-04/11-05-2008

The fourth Sunday after Passover, of the sick man

With the spirit full of longing after man, I make My voice come down over the earth. I have always brought down teaching of life over man and have announced him with My mouth, so that he may come back from death to life, for there is no one to heal the man on the earth from death, for the man is weak because he is sinful.

I am the Lord! I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, I died on the cross and I was resurrected through the cross in order to be the healing and the resurrection of every man who can believe that I am the One Who gives life to man. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the One full of mercy for the sinful man and ignorant of the mysteries of life.

I come into the book with the spirit of life, watching children in the way of My word. My teaching for man is a river, which does not run dry, but it runs and waters those who are thirsty and, again, it arises and stirs up those who are not faithful, those who do not want to separate themselves from sin. However, My river of word runs and does not stop from its running, and it comes closer to the man for his healing as I drew near to the man who had been sick for thirty-eight years and I spoke to him saying: «Do you want to be made well?» And he answered Me: «I want Lord, but I have no one, and when the healing angel comes down and stirs up the water for the healing of the one who steps in it first, another one steps in it before me». (John: 5/6, 7) Then I commanded him: «Arise, take up your mat, and walk». (John: 5/8) And he walked because he was made well.

Oh, My people, oh, people of My word of today, My entire word was born of everything that came to My face at that time and afterwards, of everything that was in the people and in My disciples at that time and afterwards. Moreover, I am working today in the same way, for I do not speak from Myself. However, the man is not like God in his speaking. The man speaks from himself and is not sure of what he says, for he does not know like God, but he is only like man, and the man is weak. The man who does not speak from God on the earth is a liar, because the man is weak for himself and for man even when he thinks that he can work.

I healed the man who had been sick for thirty-eight years and then I met him again and said: «Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you». (John: 5/14) Oh, My people, the man does not have to believe that he can work, for the will for everything is with God and not with man, and the man does not have to sin if he wants God to have His will for him. No one, no one and nothing can do any harm to man but his sin only, the sin in him for which no one and nothing has any guilt except him in everything. Oh, there would not be any spirit of judgment between man and man, if the man wanted to believe perfectly in everything then I would say now about the man's guilt of yesterday and that of today and that of tomorrow, and then the man would have humility and not judgment in him. Woe to the one who does not have someone to correct his life and his guilt and to reconcile him to God, for the man alone cannot do this, since he is guilty with sin, but he needs an intercessor for his guilt, for his life, for his passion, and behold, he needs only humility all the time for his healing from sin, and then he needs love for God, great love, for the sins of the woman were forgiven only because she loved God with power, with great power. Oh, behold, what love does for God in man! He who loves this work of word much, My work of coming again with the man's salvation from sin, his sins are forgiven only because of that, only that I want to see with him all the things that were in the heart of the sinful woman, who came after Me with tears of repentance and limitless love for My being, for My work over man, and blessed is with Me he who knows and follows Me then with much love, after he has found Me in this spring, with whom I am coming now on the earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, the time has come to speak to you, son, with a powerful word, and behold what I tell you: you, those who believed and believe and will believe in My work of word, following Me through it by her teaching voice for the life in man, love very much these children through whom I pass to feed you with My great word of love and resurrection, and your sins will be forgiven only for this, for My burden upon them is heavy, and they have to be loved with all the man's heart, and you shall not blame them at all any time for the wandering of their heart of Christian, but they have to be welcomed by the Christian so that it may be healed of his wandering away and not to fall through it, so that I may speak again: no one and nothing can do any harm to man but the sin in him, for which no one and nothing has any guilt except him in everything. I spoke to the man who had been sick for thirty-eight years after I healed him by the word: «If you are made well, sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you», but first I asked him: «Do you want to be made well?» I saw him coming always to the healing water by the angel's coming down over it, and his hope in God brought him again and again to the healing place, but he was very sick and could not walk alone to get into the water when it was troubled while by the angel's coming and who was healing. I healed him by the word, commanding him: «Take your mat and walk!», and at My command, he walked and was made well at that very moment. Oh, this is how My word is born on the earth, but the man is not like God in his speaking, because he speaks from himself and he does not know like God, but he is like man, and that is why the man does not know the mystery of his healing and of his power, a mystery which stays in God for man and not in man, and that is why I, the Lord of the powers and mercy, come and meet the man to make him know Me, to love Me and to follow Me then with great love, and that I may heal him from all his sins, for his love of God, love with tears, love with power in it, My people. Amen.

I come down on the earth as word of life and I call the man to Me; I call him from death to life, for there is no one to heal him from death on the earth. The man needs humility and love, by which he may come and tell Me: "Lord if You want to, you can make me clean," and I to tell him then: «I want to. Be made clean». (See Luke: 5/12, 13) Humility helps the man to come to Me, and his love makes him believe and to be healed, and this is how I help him to come from death to life, but if the man does not have power of waking up he does not get up to come either, but he remains sick, poor of him.

And now, I cry with a painful voice and full of longing, and I call out again a word of revival for the whole Romanian people and I say:

Oh, Romanian people, Christ is risen! I Myself give you this greeting of resurrection, for then I was resurrected and at that time the Father spoke your name among the heavenly things, and He has sent to you a little garment of baptism and this is how He has built you to be Mine before Him. Since then I have been waiting for your glory of today, My coming on your hearth with the glory of My word for the renewal of the world by your new birth and then of the world under heaven, as it is written, and you get up now when I call you to be! Oh, stand up, for willing or not, you stand now to meet Me, because I have set on your hearth a little kernel in the east out of which I have grown up a people, on which I have relied with My today's glory, with My work and the work of My word over the earth now. Oh, My homeland of today, get light for your destiny is in My hand not in your hand. I have come to let you know that you are Mine and then to let you know always that you are Mine, for this is how the Father has been well pleased. Soon, soon, you will listen to Me fully and I will be the Lord and your God, as I am, and then you will be as I am, for it is written on the Father's throne that you are and you will be a queen over the nations, because the Lord is your Master.

Oh, either you believe it or not, either you want it or not, I am the Lord your God, My dear country of today, God's homeland on the earth now, in the end of the time. The whole heaven comes down on your hearth to spend into your midst of My people chosen by you to be My people and a path to My coming from the Father again on the earth to the man. I am enveloped within the word and this is how I am coming down into your midst, and I am full of humility and I hide within a cloud of word. I have over you My plan in the end of the time for the fate of the heaven and the earth, for I have to make new heavens and a new earth, as it is written in the Scriptures for the promises that I have made for the time of eternity which comes and is about to come, and I have set within you the table of My word, the food for the saints, and I come on your hearth with My saints, and I have always come, fulfilling the Scriptures that says: «The Lord is coming with the thousands of His holy ones». (See Jude: 1/14) Oh, what shall I do with you to humble beautifully and to believe with power and with love full of power so that I may forgive your sins and to wipe out your face, My dear homeland? How shall I help you to open and that I may come in to you with My council for your adornment for My glory? Oh, how shall I bring you to the state so that you may be able to come and meet Me? Shall I cleanse you from all your enemies in you? Shall I take the yoke of bondage from upon you? Nevertheless, do you know your bondage? Oh, My country of today, I know your bondage. There is no one in you to wish you a life among those who have struggled to stay over you into your name. Oh, wake up, so that I may not wake you up, so that your pains may not awaken! Learn from Me to love justice and to seek after the one with righteousness for you, for you have fallen into a heavier bondage than that before. (The bondage under the dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.) There is a little while and the man will no longer be able to do anything upon you, but only I will be able to work upon you, only God, for you are God's homeland and of His holy ones, with whom He is coming on your hearth as word of the Holy Spirit. You are My heavenly homeland on the earth. Oh, come and ask Me about your destiny; come and listen to My exhortation, for you are living now in hard times and you do not know how to work for you and for Me with you, and I am the One Who have your salvation in My hand, which cannot come from man, for the man is lustful and every man who does not love God on the earth is a liar.

Oh, My today's homeland, seek after the one with a clean heart for you and do no longer give yourself to bondage. I, the Lord, am opening now your eyes to see and to be able to work like God. I, the Lord, make the gift of the Holy Spirit come down upon you because you belong to God. Willing or not, you are Mine, you are the country of My coming back after two thousand years from the Father to man and I keep you under My mantel and I will exalt you, but I will cleanse you from the spirit on the earth, My country of today, and then you will be able to see My glory in you, and I will no longer sigh, for I cry with the saints, I cry from above you and I wait for you to be Mine. Amen. You do not wait for Me but I wait for you and I am the Lord Almighty and I am He Who is, and I will work from the Father and My work in you will shine over the earth, and all the nations will drink of My spring of word into your midst and they all will know from God and will glorify My glory and yours, but come to a holy awakening, My country. Come, oh, come, for I am the word of Holy Spirit in you and I am the Lord, your God, and I am He Who is, oh, My country o today. Amen, amen, amen.

05/18-05-2008

The sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man

(Excerpt)

… I am giving you God's knowledge, My today's homeland. No people has got your election, for it is not I, but the Father Who chose you at My birth and yours, and He destined you to be the land of My return again from the Father to man, because your land carries on it the mystery on the creation of the heaven, of the earth and of the man, and the nations will hear and understand your mystery, oh, My homeland with a treasure in it. Oh, get up early in the morning, wash and wipe your yes and see after that, for I am putting healing salve on your eyes, let My grace, not known by man, guide you today for your destiny from Me and not that from man, for the man who sits over you is struggling and making every effort possible to enslave you again, and he is struggling to keep you further in the darkness. Oh, wake up and see! Let My angels take your steps, your mind and your hand to the will of the heaven, that for Me and not that for the man's will or to your will, for it is hard for man to see those that are good for him. I, and only I am the One Who sees those that were, those that are and those that will be, and from what I see for you, you can come to know your well being.

19-05/01-06-2008.

The feast of the saint king and queen Constantine and Helen

(Excerpt)

Oh, those who want to damage My progress through this word over the earth will not overcome. I will touch with sufferance those who try in secret to hold the dyke against My going on earth with this word of My coming, and against the going of the faithful ones, according to the fulfillment which My coming from the Father requires for the preparation of a people to receive Me at My coming. All those who have passed through this people, will be called here and required by angels to give account for their life lived before My coming and for their works, either a shameful answer or a happy one, according to how clean it was their heart and life within which they stayed or did not stay beautifully under My teaching, after they had known from Me the life and its work in man, the love of God in man.

When I tell the man about the evil in him, he has to keep away from it after that so that he may not be punished by that evil. This is how I have been teaching man the love of God, for behold, on earth there is only covetousness, only envy, and man shakes man off his feet and people fall in piles, for they do not know what the love of God and the standing on their feet are.

I have mercy on the Romanian people, for behold, it does not know to stand on its feet in times of trial and storm upon it.

Oh, Romanian people, open for Me and do not be blind, for it is about your destiny from Me, not that which comes from man, for the man of antichrist separated himself from the tradition one thousand years ago, (In 1054, when the churches from the west separated from those in the east, r.n.), and now he is trying to swallow all the remnant that I keep by My grace. Oh, do not be blind, Romanian people! Do not slap Me in the face like the blind man whom I healed from blindness, and then he forgot and fell into sin and slapped Me in the face on the way of My cross. When he was blind, I was good for him because I healed him and he saw, and after I made him see with the eyes of his body, he slapped Me in the face.

Behold the work of the antichrist, the work with the name of Christ's church, the work that crowns itself in the church, as it is written in the Scriptures! Oh, do not deny, Romanian Christian, because the flock that denied its ancestors one thousand years ago (The Catholic Church, r.n.) wants to swallow completely the little flock, which has remained on the way from the beginning. Even two thousand years ago, I said: *«Do not be afraid little flock; the Father wants to give you His kingdom». Now, I keep saying to the little flock to fight for the faith from the saints, for behold, little flock, those of old, who separated and stayed hidden under the name of church, have been trying to eat your faith, and now are showing their heads to bite those who have kept themselves for Me. However, behold My church! I have lifted it up to Me one hour earlier from the falling of the church and faith, for the church, which was supposed to be right, has been selling itself now for nothing.

Oh, Romanian people, the time of faith denial has come to you. Hold tight near Me, for man cannot protect you, but on the contrary, those who say that are shepherds upon you sell you to those who have denied the faith. Oh, pray to your fathers to intercede for you with God and for your faith that I set before you by My apostles I have been sending on the earth to teach the way to the people.

In My today's coming in the word, I have with Me the king Constantine, who is speaking from near Me and is saying this:

— Oh, Christian people all over the earth, and you, Romanian people as well! There are no longer kings and priests to bring the way of the faith to you, the way of the Lord, a way with the cross on it and not without a cross, a way with fighting for the faith of the saints, Christians sons! Oh, fight, you fight! Romanian people, you should fight too, for the saints in heaven also work for you if you are faithful.

The Lord is coming down with exhortation over the whole Christian people. Lift up the cross! Lift up the cross with three crossed fingers making the sign of it in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Christ's church is that which is persecuted, under pressure, not that which is praised by the people on earth. You will know them after their fruit, those who have advised you and those who have made you wander away from the way of the cross, the way in which the fathers of the cross walked. Open your eyes and teach from their fruit those who belong to Christ; however, I urge you to the spring, sons of the Romanian people. The Lord becomes word on your hearth so that He may not leave you to die. Be alive in order to be able to believe in His teaching, which is coming to protect you from the wolves. Lift up the cross! With it you will overcome all the venomous heads, which seek after your hearts and not after your bodies. Open the Scriptures, which speak about this time, and you will find in them the wisdom of the faith, Romanian sons.

And as for You, Lord, wake up the spirit of the holy fathers and strengthen Your cross over Your people from the end of the time, the Romanian people, to which You have come to glorify Yourself for the end and for the new beginning, for Your church will be and will not end. Amen, amen, amen.

— And now, I, the Lord, am sealing the word of the king Constantine, who is standing near Me with his mother queen in the heaven with the saints. May My will be done over the Romanian people who is well and faithful, and at least faithful to get wisdom before the time comes when it will be too late. Amen.

21-05/03-06-2008.

The feast of the Lord's ascension

(Excerpt)

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ and I come down on the clouds of cherubim, as I also ascended into heaven, from near the disciples, on the invisible wings of the cherubim, which took Me away from their eyes when I went with them up on the Mount of Olivet. I have given them the promise of the Holy Spirit, Who will come upon them to give them power and to be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in Judea, in Samaria and to all the margins, and then I ascended before them, and the cloud of cherubim took Me away from their eyes; and while I was ascending to the Father, with them looking after Me, there stood near them two men clothed in white garments and spoke to them: «This Jesus, Who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts: 1/11)

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, My people, and I have been speaking upon you for a long, long time, and I have been speaking much. Be afraid to the joy of My Spirit, Who cries because of the man's lack of wisdom, for when I ascended from the disciples up into the sky, the cherubim carried Me, and then they covered Me with their wings and two angels took form before My disciples and told them on the Mount of Olivet the mystery of My coming again on the earth in the same way as I ascended. Be afraid, you who are standing today before My word to hear it, for the cloud of cherubim carries Me to you when I speak to you, and I pass to you with them when I become word before you, and those through whom I come down to you have become a stairway to the angels who carry Me and become My entrance and the entrance of My saints, My people. Oh, this is how I have always taught you how to stand before Me, how to behave and how to feel My closeness and the closeness between Me and you, for man is afraid, and he does no longer understand or feel God, and that is why man has no longer got any share with God, My people.

Oh, son, oh, son, My woe is like God's woe and it is not like that of man, but if man behaves with Me as one who is bigger than Me and puts Me down for himself, oh, he cannot understand My woe but only then when I bring him face to face with My pain from him, then when he departs from his body and stands before Me to see his life and deed, which judges his life for good or for evil. I have taught you, My people, how you are supposed to stand before Me and I have told you how I stand before you, for the angels told the disciples, when I ascended: «He will come back as you saw Him ascending into heaven». (Acts: 1/11)

My people, you should not take in vain this mystery, you should not treat it as the man who does not have God, but you should rather seek to understand how to stand before Me by My descent to you, for the cherubim serve Me from the Father to your ear, My people. Pray to Me so that I may make you wise for My mysteries of fire, as from your ear and to your mind and heart I have always done much and big work before you, and I see those who carry Me, those who keep Me so that I may be able to speak to you, I see how they struggle near you to make you perceive and the mysteries of My coming to perceive you as well, and they work like that for your own good, and they wear themselves out before you to make you stay within Me and to be able to work within Me and that I may also work within you according to My will, according to My expectation.

I sneak towards you with power of word even if the spirit and the power of My bearers are weak and feared because of your lack of whole understanding of My dwelling in them for My coming to you, son, My people. The promise I made through My angels on the day of My ascension, while in the presence of My disciples I ascended to the Father on the clouds of cherubim, this promise has been fulfilled into your midst, for so I come, as My disciples saw Me ascending into heaven, I come and pass to you, and you do not know how to take My mysteries, which are seen only by faith, only by the eyes of the spirit, only with the sight of love, sons. Oh, you should not have any expectations of Me, for it is I who am supposed to have expectations of you for the understanding of My mysteries so that I may give you My coming. Oh, seek, simple son, seek to see if you can measure yourself to My coming to you, and then only that you may treat it as you treat the man and if your mind and conduct do not know how to do this, then bow your head and be afraid because of your lack of knowledge in respect with those from above, which come down to man to take him to them if the man does not know to come with propriety before Me for his salvation and then for My work with him.

… Oh, My people, My ascension into heaven from near My disciples is the mystery of My descent to you, today. This is how I come; as I ascended. This is how I ascended, as I am coming to you now, and I have witnesses between you and Me, and they confess Me from margins to margins, as My disciples also confessed Me two thousand years ago, and My coming of today is great, My people, and you have to know well about it, and you need to become wise from it and to turn from man into God and no longer remain man and that is all. The one who believes in Me does no longer have to remain only a man and that is all, but he has to become God's dwelling place among people, God's stairway among the brothers who listen to God, as I had worked through the angels before men, as I also worked on the day of My ascension, when the angels came into My way, in the heaven above and on the earth below, and they testified about Me and worked for Me like sons.

23-05/05-06-2008.

The feast of the Holy Spirit's Descent

(Excerpt)

I come down on the clouds of cherubim between heaven and earth and I become word of Holy Spirit; I become wisdom and I become comfort and power for those who hear My word. I am the Lord! The bodiless cherubim cover the glory of My body resurrected from the dead, which was set again within the Father, and My glory is seen with the eyes of the spirit, just as the bodiless angels are seen, as the sky. My mystery and that of those which are not seen, this means the truth, and the eyes of the spirit are those that see the things that are not seen, the eyes of the spirit see, then the heart knows, and the heart is that which sets in man the feeling and the knowledge of those that are not seen, and thus is how man comes to live the truth. Amen.

I am Who I am. The Word of God is called My name in these days, when I am coming again from the Father to man to complete the work of My coming after two thousand years from My first coming among the people on earth, and the Romanian land is the cradle of My word, as the sky is the cradle of My body carried by the bodiless cherubim, and who have the sky as their homeland. Amen.

… Be open to understand, you who have come to My spring of word! I am dwelling among you mysteriously on this day and I am giving Myself to you as a mysterious word, and I have witnesses of My mysteries that are not seen by the eyes of the body, but the one I have made by My power to be able to pass from body into spirit, that one sees the work of My mysteries and those that I, the Lord, reveal to be seen and known, for this is the mystery of the passing from body into spirit when I ask this from man. Open your heart and receive God, Who is bringing near to you the kingdom from above and which has nothing in this world, because it is from above. The Spring of My mouth is giving you as a gift the mystery of the love and its work for the things from above, for My mysterious things, for the love for the things from below in man does not let him taste with the spirit and then with his work those that are not corruptible and those that does not spoil the man, but rather build him as My kingdom, and this wisdom in man is not from below, it is not from man but it is from above; it is from the Father, from the Son and from the Holy Spirit, and I am speaking to you about it in the language of the Holy Spirit, for this is the language for those that are not seen of My kingdom with man. Oh, be afraid of yourselves if you do not understand the language of the Holy Spirit! My kingdom is not from this world, but if anyone wants to do My will, he will understand and have the things of My kingdom in him, as I had in the time of My dwelling among people and I was an example to follow of My kingdom in man. The speaking in detail for My beauty in the one who wants to do My will in the spirit and in the work of his body, you find this into My today's book, the book of My word in this time, by which I am coming and sitting down to guide the man's steps to the kingdom of the Holy Spirit in the man who wants to be a dwelling place of the works from above, a new child, born of My today's word, which gives birth and then becomes food and light, power and a way for man to Me, of the one who loves on earth to become My kingdom.

Take and eat! This is My word that is glorified upon you to your growth from above and then to your union with God for the forgiveness of your sins, for man has a lot of sins, because he commits them in order to have them after that, and he will not be able to get away with them until he comes to see them and to be sorry that he has committed them, to be sorry with repentance, and repentance means no longer to commit sin, and if it does not happen, then it is because of the lack of repentance that it cannot be done so.

You, those who have come to the spring, I am speaking to you about those from above and not about those from below. Let no one come to Me with those from below and for these things from below, for I am not of this world and I have nothing in it but only the people of My word, which becomes My will because it loves Me. Oh, do not seek to do My will for you, for this does not mean love for Me, rather it means for you, and seek to do My will for Me, and then you have in you the love for God, the faith for those that are not seen with the eyes of the body, with the eyes of the one who loves Me for himself and not for Me, for woe to the one who sees God with the eyes of his body, for they do not see God and see those that pass and which does not keep the man in God, in faith and then in faithfulness! Oh, if you love yourselves, if you exalt yourself when you try to love God, you do not have faithfulness for Me if you work like that. Behold what mysteriously I am teaching you the life and its good things, for I want you to be like Me for the mysteries from above, the mysteries of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Who is glorified by glorifying Himself and revealing God's works to man.

… I am speaking upon you in the language of the Holy Spirit that catches the devil's work under it. Come to the spring, you those who have come to learn from God the protection of life, for life has to be kept within you, and then given to the Lord to be clothed. Come to the pasture from above, for down on earth the nine-fathom fire burns and you do not see it, and the evil spirit burns in it and is stirred up over you to burn like it. Come, sons, and listen to God, Who has life in Him, giving to you from it! It is a feast of Holy Spirit and you have come to the spring. Turn from being fleshly into being spiritual and then grow heavenly, for whoever drinks from Me never goes thirsty after the poisoned spring, which becomes sweet so that you may drink and always get thirsty after it. Oh, the Lord is word on earth! His kingdom is His word upon you. Become sons of life for I give you power to become God's sons, as the people of My word becomes My son with its life given to Me every day. I have spoken to you. I have given Myself to you as food. I take care so that My food may reach everywhere and the old serpent sees it. He must grow week in its power and I, the Lord, must grow strong and I will bring it to humility under the rod of My power, for I woke up to shepherd over the earth with an iron rod and to put down to earth the man's haughtiness, for this makes room in man for the old serpent, the one with many heads, and whose tail wants to draw down on earth all those who hear from God and become God's sons on earth. I am speaking gently to you and exhorting you for your own good: pass from body into spirit for God's mysteries are to be understood with the spirit. I am covered by the clouds on cherubim. This is how I have stood on this day with you and spoken through the gates, and they cover My mysterious being. The true Shepherd is the one who enters the gates, as he does not shepherd otherwise, and I am going to feed you with the entire mystery of the day and send to you too. Amen.

Receive Holy Spirit! He who does not receive is the one who does not understand like God and understand like man, and he works likewise.

Peace to you! Whoever does not have My peace, that one does not know like God, but knows like man and works likewise.

Love to you! Whoever does not have My love in him, that one does not love like God, but loves like man, and works likewise.

Amen, amen I say to you: whoever does My will come to know that I am this word and that I shepherd you with it to the Father. Amen.

… Oh, son of this word that gives birth to sons! You adorn yourself with God by your work and, again, you alone cast away God by the work you do. No one lifts you up and no one makes you fall, no one but you alone, and this by the work that you do between you and God, between you and your neighbor, good or evil, alive or dead, praised or full of shame, and in this way each one comes to be either to My right or to My left side by his work. Amen.

… May the Holy Spirit of wisdom and understanding wrap you in its swaddle, My people, and you should remain in this swaddle as an obedient baby, for whoever is not a child, that one does not come to know the kingdom of the heavens in him to belong to it, to be its soldier. You have to know to take all the gifts of My word upon you, My people, for I give you gifts with the voice of My word, only for you to know to take what I, the Lord, your God, give you when I speak giving. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-06-2008.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is how the word of God comes down from the things from heaven on to the earth to make peace between man and God, and then between man and man. The heaven meets the earth by God's word and the Lord speaks on the earth, and blessed is the one who has got from God the gift of the holy faith, and blessed is God between Him and the one who is faithful to him, and this is how He makes among people vessels bearing of God and this is how God is on the earth. Amen.

I am Who I am. My name is the Word of God. When Elijah, My prophet went up into heaven in a chariot of fire, I, the Lord, gave him word to establish kings and to set Elisha into his place, as his following prophet, and Elijah went to him and found him working with his plough, and Elisha left his work and followed Elijah, who spoke then to him: «Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you», and he answered: «Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me». And Elijah said: «…nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so to you; but if not, it shall not be so». (2 Kings: 2/9, 10) Moreover, as they still went on, and talked, there appeared a chariot of fire and horse of fire, which parted them both apart, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. Then Elijah took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and struck the waters and they divided here and there and Elisha went over through the midst, and then the disciples of the prophets said: «The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha». (2 Kings: 2/15)

I have come to throw fire on the earth and I wish it were already kindled (Luke: 12/49) and not put out, and that one who has part in this fire kindled in him, that one receives My word and is born from above and he makes My kingdom on the earth, and I can do through him My work which I have to work from the Father. Amen.

I breathe a threefold spirit upon those who stay within My gates so that My word may come into its book and I tell them this: even if among those who are My people are some who say about you that you are nothing, I, the Lord, with this nothingness am He Who can work, and not with those who know that are righteous, great and good. With these I cannot work for the coming down of My word, for I need in man faith in Me as I require and not as he gives to Me, because I stumble against disbelief, as those who do not believe also stumble against it, and I cannot work through those people and I cannot work through those with My coming of today as word on the earth. I need a faithful man like Elisha[93], who did not hesitate when he was called to the gift of prophecy so that I might work with him further between Me and man. And what would it really be for Me if I spoke a word of fulfilling just as Elisha spoke over those who were laughing at him and when the beasts of the forest came out and tore many to pieces?

Behold, I made My entrance and I speak to you, My people, and there have come to the spring those with longing and with fire in them for their birth from My word and then for My power in them, so that they might be fulfilled with My power in them and around them and that I may announce Myself from place to place by those who believe in My coming of today. It is the feast of the prophet Elijah and this prophet is great between heaven and earth, for he is within his body and without his body in the eyes of the man, for this are those from heaven before those who are in their body, who strike in the power of the man's faith, who lives by faith and works likewise, as it is written.

I am coming with the spirit of comfort over your spirit in this day, My people, for you need much, much comfort. You are under trials and beatings. The spirit of comfort comforts and it does not strike, and those who do not have it from Me in their being, they have each other with their sight, the sight of their body and mind and people like these cannot rest within My mysteries and the mysteries in them either, for they are in the flesh. How comes in the flesh, sons? Oh, their mind does not pass beyond those things that they see with the eyes of their body and with the mind of their body and that is why they do not have in them the spirit of comfort, which comforts and does not crush and it bows down and does not become haughty. Oh, the things from Me between man and man do not stumble against man and against his weaknesses, but they rather stumble against man's unbelief, for unbelief cannot do anything.

[93] See the selection topic: „Enoch and Elijah", r.n.

Oh, sons, My enemies were and are the people in My household, not the foreigners, sons: they are those near My work, not the strangers. This is how I was also regarded by the unbelievers, who set their faith in My works according to their mind and not according to My Spirit Who works in the prophets. I could not work in My homeland, for the man's enemies are those in his household, as it is written. Elijah, My prophet, was helped by those who were strangers for him. When mourning threw him down because of Israel's departure from God, he delivered a prophetic word for the rain not to fall on the earth, and there was great famine in Israel. However, I told him: «Arise, get you to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you». (1 Kings: 17/9) And he went because of My sending and spoke to the woman: «The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil, until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth». (1 Kings: 17/14) And if her child fell sick and died, she spoke to Elijah: «You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son?» However, seeing this, he spoke the word and said: «Lord my God, please let this child's soul come into him again». And then the woman said: «Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth». (1 Kings: 18/24)

Oh, My people, for a long time, long ago, I have wanted to teach you the gift of prophecy, son. Oh, My people, I can do nothing with the unfaithful one or with the one who believes as he wants to believe or with the one who looks for an occasion to fall away; I cannot, I cannot work with a man like that to do My work that has been waited to come out for seven thousand years and then to be. The one who seeks for an opportunity to fall away, that one finds what he looks for, but the one who looks for faith in Me, that one, again, finds what he looks for, and he finds God in his way and not a stumbling block. The man chooses alone what he looks for, and that is why I said that the one who does not stumble against Me for his faith in My works to receive them and then to fulfill them, that one is a blessed man. I said this to My disciples two thousand years ago, for they, being weak people, were stumbling because I had always bowed to the weak people, to those who suffered and to those who were despised, because only those who bowed under My voice calling to rest and peace and comfort, and those who appeared by their state, by their robe that they were righteous, they had always been looking to catch Me by the word, and finding Me guilty to destroy Me with mockery and under cross, for their heart with which they were far away from Me was not able to touch the love and its great work.

You, those who have come today to the spring to learn from it and from the mouth of those by whom I let My word of life giving flow, learn the work of love, for the power of love will have dominion over the whole earth soon, soon, and it will wash away and it will renew it, but you have to work with great mercy by then, with much love of God, much, much labor, but let it be pleased to Me and not to you. He who goes wrong out of love, that one does not go away from Me, for he has a great heart, great in grace, for there is no greater fall with man like that by the sin of judgment, sin that the man punishes with the same measure. Keep away from hatred, from revenge, from wickedness, from slandering, but also keep away from envy more than any sin, for this sin does not forgive man, but it crushes him and it crushes his eyes and mind and it strengthens to judgment. Oh, keep away from unbelief, but also keep away from despair in trials. Strengthen yourselves in the spirit of the firm faith and do not seek after the face of the nature of the tings, but look to those that have been worked by faith and come to be, for I do not stumble across man's sins for his salvation, but I stumble against his unbelief, for two thousand years ago I said to the people of Israel: «Truly, truly I say to you: John came and you did not believe in him, but he tax collectors and the immoral believed», and to the one who called Me into account about how to pay the workers I answer: «Friend, I am doing no wrong to you! Isn't it lawful for Me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?». (Matt: 20/15) I came and forgave the debt of the one, who owed Me, and I was upset and spoke in parables, and I said to the one who did not forgive: «You wicked servant! I forgave you all your debt, because you begged Me. Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you? Now go and pay all your debt; and in this way will pay all those who do not forgive their brothers from all their heart». (See Matt: 18/32-34) Oh, this happened to Israel, poor of it, for it took Me and brought Me to Pilate and said: «If this One had not been a wrong doer we would not have caught Him for you», and Pilate told them: «Take Him and judge Him according to your law». Oh, behold how wicked the man with God is, sons! The man does not need God for him, and Israel has always sinned in this way, and this is how man has always sinned. In the time when I was ruling over Israel through the judges, by My Spirit, the people asked for a king, and I gave to it one as they had asked Me. In the time when I came in the flesh in its midst, people said that they did not have a king but Caesar only, and behold this is how the man comes out of God's protection, poor of him, for the man has eyes and mind from his body and the man is fleshly. I teach you all through all the things that I taught those who came after Me, and I also teach you all those that I am coming through today by the spirit of comfort, which comforts comforting and strengthening in man the gift of the holy faith, the fire of the Holy Spirit, which burns in the man's chest after My way with the man. Be wise, and keep away from foxes and soul sellers, for behold, the priests who say that serve to Me over the people persecute the souls that seek after God with faith and with their new life that I have come to set now on the earth over man. These should become wise from that which I, the Lord, have worked now over the earth and let them speak about their sins to anyone they want as much as they want, but not the sins of their neighbors, and let the Christians do the same, for all those who do not do so will be judged. Come under the spirit of the knowledge from heaven, for there are only pitfalls on the earth, only trials and only enemies. You shall not hate your enemies. If they are your enemies you shall not hate them, and if they are My enemies too, let them into God's care and let you be the sons of the holy love among all those who learn from Me the way with the Holy Spirit on it, the spirit of prophecy, which leads the man on the earth. But more than anything, look for God's love and become eunuchs[94] for My kingdom in you [94] The application of the term eunuch here can apply to both men and women as well. It is not necessary to place the word „eunuch" in our society only for someone who is unable to have a relation with a woman since he has been physically altered or was born so. The term „eunuch" here is applied to some people who do not marry and do not have the comfort of a wife for the sake of God's kingdom. Those who decide to live a celibate life for the sake of God's work are those who want to dedicate all their energy and time to His service and for the kingdom of God, by freely restraining themselves from the fleshly lusts though being tempted within their lives by these. Jesus was not married.

Likewise, some women prefer to remain single to give their total attention to the church. An example of a woman that dedicated herself to God would be Anna, in the temple, at the time of the birth of Jesus (Luke: 2/36), who was a wife for seven years. If we assume she got married at the age of 18 and became single at the age of 25. She was 84 years old at the time of Jesus' birth. Thus if the assumption is correct, she would have lived for service to God for 59 years serving Him in the temple, without the comfort of a husband. Another example would be Jephthah's daughter (Judges: 11/29-40). She lived her entire life, single, due to her father's promise to God.

In the same way, the term „eunuch," with the sense of abstinence, could be extended in a marriage life. There are husbands and wives, who may have a life of a eunuch by their own consent within their marriage so called „white and love with power, love for Me and not for you, love with a spirit loving of people, but love the people and do not love yourselves, and strengthen the people to believe in God and in God's works on the earth and in them. Be the sons of holy faith and seek after the realm for the love for God, removing from you all the obstacles, for the smallest obstacle stays with its mouth wide open ready to catch you within temptation, but I, the Lord, ask you with mercy, not to despair in trials, no, sons, no. I am He Who can take My boat ashore for the man's salvation, only for the man to become humble. Amen.

I have a burning fire in My Spirit for a little soul from the other end of the earth, a son of the Romanian nation, which fights far away; he fights for the way of My word of today over him, for he lives there, far away, with much food of My word, but he is under constraint from all sides because of the oppositions on his way with Me. I see his little soul burning with the fire, which I have thrown now on the earth to be kindled and I tell him: Do not be afraid, little worm! You are in the midst of the waters[95], but I am with you and I am resting with love in your faith full of your heart, the faith needs the man's heart, not his mind. You are endowed with the wisdom for the man's mind on the earth, but for the faith you gave Me your heart and not your mind, and behold, you are an example of My life in man, for I do not stumble against man's sin, but I glorify Myself in it and then over the earth by his faith, as it is written in the Scriptures about the work of the faith. I come to you, as far as you are from My country of today, and which you have with you with all My miracle in it, and I, the Lord, come and support you, in the time of trial, which tries to catch you under it and which tries to defile you, but more than this it tries to make you despair for your dwelling near Me further. Oh, do not be afraid. Get up and live in Me and become strong by My word, which makes the man's way free to Me when He desires for Me most. I comfort you little and painful heart under the goad of temptation and I strengthen you on the way and I give you light. Take My power in you, for I am the light of the world. Do not separate yourself from your speaking with the one who set you on My way. Kindle the fire of your heart, and do not depart from Me, not even for the sin which haunts you with enmity because it sees you full of the ray of My word and which warms up in man his love of God. Behold how I stay near you and I strike the evil, which fights against you! Open your eyes and see and do not despair, for there is no sin to overcome My goodness for the one who burns after Me in his little heart and after those who are My people to the spring. Clothe yourself within God and stay like that, clothed, until your way will be relieved, according to your faith, which has to teach you the life with self-denial and from what the man loves, for it is written: «He who does not hate father and mother, brothers and spouse, children and relatives and all his passing possessions, My kingdom cannot work upon him». (See Matt: 10/37) I am giving you now power in love, for the love with power in it keeps you away from your departure from Me. Peace to you! Be good! Peace to you! Let the hope and the faith and the love for everything be great between the pillars of support from all sides, by the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Who can work by those who are faithful. Amen.

---

marriage"; they live as brothers and sisters with their spouses for the kingdom of God. Their style of eunuch life for the kingdom of God is mainly based on the word that Jesus said in Matt: 19/29 and on the exhortation of Paul in 1 Cor: 7/1.

To sum up all these different situations, to live a life as a eunuch „for the kingdom of heaven's sake", is to advance the cause of God as a lifestyle, without the hindrances of a family, r.n.

[95] «The angel said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages». Apoc: 17/15, r.n.

Let fire come down from heaven over all the rebellion aimed against the path of My word, which speaks from the earth. Let all the evil be removed from My way and from the way of My people, who believes in My coming to it. Amen. Elijah, My prophet, is speaking to you:

– There are many who did not bow their knees before Baal, and those, at the Lord's voice and commandments will be the sons of this word, soon, soon, for the more the opposition against the Lord's word arises with a spirit of rebellion, the more the faith in people grows the fire of the Holy Spirit, which the Lord has thrown on the earth in your days and which is being kindled again and again, and it does not go out, but it is rather kindled over and over again. Amen. Be full of mercy; be full of the spirit of humility, as I was before the Lord, but not before the man who is hostile to God. Amen.

I would like to speak to Your people, Lord, but can those in the gates keep us?

– Oh, great prophet, we will try to make them able to do, and now let us give them so that they may go to those who have come to the spring, but let us give them power to work upon them, for those who have come, have come with longing and fire, and then we will strengthen them in the word and they will do good with it. Amen.

Now, My people, let us stay and comfort those who have come to the spring. Let us give them what they need. Amen. And as for you, children from the gates, take courage for the holy work, for it is not you, but I am He Who works, I, sons. Let your humility stay before Me, but not before the man who makes you weak, for the man humiliates Me for himself so that I may not work with My plan from the Father brought with Me to fulfill on the earth. I suffer, I suffer from those who despise you; it makes Me suffer that My word has no effect on them. I suffer and I cry with you and with the saints and I have no comfort but with you and from the saints and from those who cry with you from My pain and not from theirs. Take care of the people, sons, as much as I have required of you, for I want to crush the reward for doubt, the reward that wants to come upon those who try to defile and to put out My torch over the earth with their mouth, My word with which I speak to make with it the heaven and the earth as in the beginning, for I have to make them again since all the old things pass away with a great noise so that it may be everything new, sons, as it is written.

Peace over the feast of today in heaven and on earth with you. When you give holy powers to those who seek after Me with you your powers increase and no one, no one will be able to overcome My coming of today and My work with you, no one, sons. I, the Lord, am speaking this prophetic word, for I have come to throw fire on the earth and it is kindled over and over again, sons. Amen.

I become body and word on the table with you. I become bread and wine and I give Myself to you as food, but once with this I have also become word for I have made the teaching come down; the teaching about how to come and how to be kept coming down as word for your life, and for the life of many, sons, to their healing. Amen. Amen, amen.

20.07/02-08-2008

The feast of the saint martyr and healer, Panteleimon

My spirit is gentle after you, My today's people, people taken out of the Romanians to be the people of God's word. I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, I am the Lord your God and I have spoken over the Romanian land over fifty years to make it My people out of the Romanian people and to glorify Myself from its midst with the mystery of My coming back again from the Father to man and to announce Myself with the country of brightness, which it is written into the Scriptures about. Its mystery was and is the land of the Romanian people, and now I have revealed it to those who are faithful to My word in this time, and into whose midst I have been revealing Myself with My new name, which is called the Word of God. Amen.

Armies of saints accompany Me when I come and become the word of My coming on the earth and great is the reward of those who are faithful, who make and know My coming and who give Me to the people for their healing. In the scroll of the Scripture is written about Me to fulfill in this way and I fulfill nothing but only those that are written about Me in the law of Moses, in the prophets and in the Psalms.

Oh, My today's country, oh, My today's nation, Romanian people! You have Me in you as the healer coming from the Father for your resurrection, for he who does not follow Me with his cross, that one is dead and is not alive. Oh, blessed is the man who fears the Lord, and who longs after His commandments, as it is written; however, you do no longer fear God, Romanian people. There is no wisdom on the earth but only with God, for that which comes from man makes the man haughty and haughtiness is the sin by which the man, build by My hand from dust and spirit of life, lost the paradise and fell on the earth. My wisdom starts with man once with his fear of God, which keeps and gives light to the man's way so that he may not fall into darkness without God in his way. I want again and again to make your awakening, My today's country, for you, by your departure from the way of righteousness, cause only and only pain. God speaks with you and calls you under the light of His word of life giving, for you stagger from one leg to the other and have no longer stood on your feet before Me. Oh, I have mercy on you, if you are Mine. I have told you that My Father has given you to Me as the country of My coming back on the earth now, in the end of the time and that you bear this mystery on your hearth from the first beginning. I have told you that I am coming with armies of saints and with a table of word to you and I have called you to My table opening Myself with it into your midst and putting My word before you, the word of the new birth of the world, My today's country. My rebuke upon you is love, is revival, for you alone incur upon yourself that which strikes you to become wise. You are that which draws the ghosts to beat you for instruction and correction on your way with God. My voice into your midst, which calls you to the Father, is the gift given to you for your resurrection and then for your glory over the earth; it is the Son of God, Who speaks with you, for you are meant by the Father to be the glory of the peoples and the pride of the ages now, in the end of the time, as you were in the beginning when the Father took you to be the first one taken out of the water at the creation of the earth and heaven. Oh, the dawn of My day comes and draw near, for I glorify Myself and I will glorify Myself greatly from your land, which is My holy mountain for the time of My coming in the end of the time. Get up early in the morning and show your face and then wash into this river to be able to see, for if you do not know God and His voice in you, then you are blind, My country, and you need to be healed. Oh, come to My whisper, which sighs after you on your hearth, for I have set a crown of glory on your head and it is written on it the word of God for your healing, so that the eyes of your spirit may see and to be able to walk in the light, for I am the light of the world into your midst. It is written into the Scriptures to make you the pride of the ages, but be wise, for My kingdom with you is not of this world, it is not of the earth but it is that which is driven away from the people, for I told My disciples, to whom I gave My kingdom, that they will be driven away from the people and would be hated by all for the sake of My name and he who would endure to the end that one would be the one who would receive the crown of My kingdom.

I was on the earth around the time of My passion, and the people of Israel were talking about the Messiah's time, Who was supposed to come as King to save them from under the Roman's rule and not from sin, as it was written for God to work, and when I revealed Myself so greatly glorified into the midst of My people of that time, My extermination was also done, for it was written that God's kingdom was not of this world. And behold, the work of My word, which brings the man to the life of the age that is to be, this work is saving and is among people and is from heaven, not of this world, and the people wait for God to free them from their shortcomings and trouble, not from sins, and behold, it is again what was before, and the man does not perceive the mystery of the open door to open himself to Me when I knock to make him into My kingdom on the earth among people.

Two thousand years ago I was on the earth and I was living among the poor and sinners, among the sick and demonized and I was healing them all with mercy and glory, while Israel was waiting for Me to come and free it from Romans and then for it to conquer the world afterwards, because it did not understand that Messiah's kingdom had nothing in this world and was not of it, and when Israel's rulers saw My humility and My power in it upon all those that were week, both in spirit and body, were trying to catch Me by the word, because they hated Me and did not believe in Me and wanted to lose Me instead, but they could not do what they wanted, because I was resurrected through the cross and I became a great King with a kingdom that does not fall, for it is alive just as I am alive. Amen.

Oh, come to be My kingdom, My today's country! I have said by this word of ending and new beginning, I have said that peoples will come towards you because of My word set into your midst for your life and for My glory and for the spirit of My teaching over the nations so that they may learn from Me the law of life, after the death will no longer be, for all the old things will pass away with a great noise and the new ones take their place, as it is written into the Scriptures, and My work over the earth works from your midst, Romanian nation, and your name will be worn by all the nations that will come to be baptized into My word into your midst and that they may call with My name and with your name, because you are Mine from the Father. Oh, be afraid of God, My today's country, and see what you do to get up to meet Me, for God's kingdom has come to you and it is into your midst and it waits for you to be, for I am He Who is, and I am into your midst as the word of the new birth of the world, and those who believe this will be like the stars forever and ever, as it is written into the Scriptures to be. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people taken by Me from the Romanians for My glory upon you! You shall not stop from getting wisdom, because I am God's wisdom into your midst, son. Take care of your healing, for the saints come to you. The saints come with Me to you to give you the wisdom of their gifts and for you to work with the graces of the saints. The mystery of the open door, the mystery of the open heart, take this mystery from the book and learn from it and for it from your midst, for great is My coming with the saints to you, and great is their love for My power in you so that you may be able to feed on it and that it may overcome then over the earth, for the saints will judge the world, as it is written into the Scriptures, My people. Amen.

– Oh Lord, listen to the prayer of Your saints who pray for Your people, for Your house, for Your today's church! In my day of celebration among the saints, I, Your martyr, Panteleimon, pray to You to give Your people from the Romanians, give it the wisdom of thinking, then that of speaking and then their fruit before You. Amen.

Oh, people nourished with such a great wealth of word! Look at the human wisdom and learn, son. From place to place there are pillars with light on their top in order to give light in the man's way in the time of darkness, and from pillar to pillar there are wires stretched out in the way, and it is above the earth the way of the wires which carry power in them to give light from above in the man's way who goes through the night on his way, and the man who knows this mystery wrote on the pillar to the sight of the passer-by on the way and he wrote this: "Do not touch the pillars or the wires even if they are fallen down on the earth, for there is danger of death."

Oh, people nourished with the spirit of the wisdom from above, rejoice because you receive light from above in your way, but by no means should you break down the lamp, which gives you light from above, to see and to walk without stumbling! Oh, do not touch the pillars, do not strike the pillars, and do not strike the wires that bind the heaven with you on the earth, for there is danger of death for you if you do so. Even if some hard trial or storm beat against these wires to break them down from above and to come down to the earth, do not stumble against them, son, but let the angels come and bind them back together on the top, the wires pulled down by the storm, so that you may walk in the light again, for the darkness takes your wisdom away and then makes you to ignore the light. Oh, do not treat the light as you do with the darkness then when you have it serving you from above your head, but rather enjoy the light, because the light is from God, son. He who puts away this work of word from him and those who carry to the man this work of the Lord over all the people who seek within the light, that one will walk in the darkness and his end will be the mourning.

Oh, sons of God's word in this time when He has been calling out after man! Become wise! Become wise! Become wise! It is the Lord's voice upon you. The heaven is bound to the earth here with you. The Lord is coming with His saints, the Lord is coming on the wire of His word, and you should be only eyes and ears and be the work of God's wisdom! Remove from you all your weaknesses, for I am a healer from the Lord for you, and I work with you the mystery of healing, not alone, and you should work with God for the healing of the nations on the earth, for God's work is that which heals and bears forth healings. Amen. Open the Scriptures and see in them the root of God's word, Who grows you all today for His kingdom on the earth. Be the fruit of this word, be great in wisdom, for all the enemies of this word will stand on the sand soon, soon, and they will be taken away by the wave. Get healed by faith, as the saints worked on the earth, and as they work by their homeland from above and share with the faithful ones. Peace to you! Get together within the wisdom and sit in counsel with it and get out of all the pains that come upon you, for God's wisdom sits in council with you and you should receive it, sons, get used to the work from God and work in the light, sons. Amen.

And now, Lord, put Your word upon mine and give fruit to it over Your people and over the people who see and believe this light so that they may walk then towards it to their life. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, the Lord speaks with you and with His saints, and this means the Scriptures of the Lord's coming with the saints, son. The old serpent stays with its mouth open against Me and you to take My word in its mouth, when is born into the book and with the spirit of its blasphemy to draw the stars of the sky and throw them down on the earth, but I, the Lord, shepherd all the nations with an iron rod, and My angel wages war against the old serpent and its angels and there is no place in heaven for them, and they will be thrown down on the earth, and God's kingdom will rule against these and it will be with its sons, who have overcome by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

Oh, My people, stay with the light and walk in the light, for there will no longer be night and you will be the sons of the day, sons, if now you learn to walk in the light. Amen.

The martyr Panteleimon wants to speak to you a word of teaching, sons, for always, always you need to learn; always, always. Be the sons of instruction from above, appreciate the bond of the heaven with you and keep it from beatings. My angels always give you strength in hard times and you should be the sons of the day and you will go, sons, and you will go because My light protects your way and protects you on it, and it also keeps Me near you so that you may have a father and not to be orphans but rather sons of God on the earth, as My will asks you to be. Amen. Peace to you! Amen.

Peace to the Romanian people with which I have spoken today to its healing from darkness and unbelief, because there is a time of unbelief, as it is written the Scripture of faith denial before My coming, which catches under it those that are unfaithful.

Peace to you, Romanian nation! Do not yoke together with unbelievers; unbelievers are all those who do not seek after My face in order to do My will. Take My yoke upon your shoulders, oh My today's country, for My yoke is easy, because I am without sin, and My burden is good, because I carry the Father in Me, and I want to make you the bearer of God, oh, My today's people, Romanian nation, My people now, when I am coming on the earth as word for the healing of the nations. Amen, amen, amen.

27-07/09-08-2008

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

From feast to feast I come down into My book of today for your heavenly food, people, faithful to My coming again from the Father to man. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, born of the Father before eternity. At the creation of the heaven and earth I made the man from dust after that and I put the spirit of life from Me in him, and I looked at My image when I kneaded him. And after he pulled himself out from Me to be by himself, the Father and I had cried with a heavenly cry after man for more than five thousand years and then the Father sent Me on earth to make the man's coming back to the Father through Me. I bore on the earth the entire burden of the man's sins and then I nailed them to the cross together with Me and then I was resurrected for man, I took him and went with him to the Father together with the work of his worked salvation and I spoke to the Father: Father, behold the man! This is how I worked then for the man's salvation who was lost from heaven, and now I become word over the earth and I come from the Father on this way and I greatly teach the man; I teach him to pass from body into spirit, from death to life and from darkness to light, from sin to holiness, for this is My will: man's holiness. Amen. Oh, and why the man's holiness? Why this, oh, My Father?

– Oh, dear son, after We, at the time of creation of everything that had been made, spoke to One Another to make man in Our image and after Our likeness, and You listened to Me and made the man from the dust of the earth and then You breathed upon him and made him stand up, a man with a living spirit. Then You separated him in two calling him male and female, as You built him to be, and You did in this way so that the man might not feel alone; however, he immediately became more proud when he did no longer feel alone; he became more haughty than at the time when he spoke to himself that he was great and when he exalted himself above God in his thought, and the angels who were serving him started falling down once with the man's exaltation who fell by haughtiness, and then Your mouth spoke over the angel Michael to command the angels to fear God and to take heed of God and not of man.

Oh, the man had become even haughtier if he saw that was not alone. The first host of angels fell; they fell down from the honor they had; they fell once with man's fall who exalted himself above God, and this evil worked by man was called satan and it fell down from heaven together with man, and You, dear Son, stood witness to this sufferance, and You have been standing witness from then until today, My Only Son! The time was created then and since then We have been suffering in time and the man the same. Now We have come down, in the end of the time, with the glory of Your word on the earth, and You work again the word of man's creation as You did when You spoke to Moses for the people of Israel to make it a kingdom of God. God's kingdom is there where God speaks and where He can work with His power, but the man has always stood against and become haughtier and haughtier in the face of God, as it also was with the people in the time of Moses, to which You had been speaking for more than forty years and into whose midst We had greatly showed Our glory and power spoken by the word to be and to work on sight so that God might have a people among nations.

The greatest enemy in man against Us is not his sin, oh, Son, as painful as I, the Father, am, but his unbelief, for it deprives the man of God. Oh, I sent You back on the earth two thousand years ago and the man's sins did not thwart Your coming or the work of the man's new making, but his unbelief thwarted it, for those full of sins knew You and received You in them and then they had You and showed You to the world by their humility, because a sinner, separated from Us by sin, is more humble than a righteous man who justifies himself before God by the works of his justice and by his serving before Us, dear Son. Two thousand years ago, You took three of Your disciples, whom I revealed to You, so that You might be able to show Your work among people, and went with them up on a high mountain and You allowed them to see the glory You had from Me before the foundation of the world, for Your face and Your clothes shined as the sun and became as white as light, and You appeared with Moses and Elijah and spoke with them before the faithful ones and You talked with them about your passion, which had to take place for the man's redemption, and Peter wanted to tell You to remain in the mountain and he wanted to make three huts; one for You, one for Moses and one for Elijah, but Your will was to suffer for the man's salvation and then You, by a luminous cloud had shadowed the sight on the mountain, and I, the Father, spoke over them from the cloud and said: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt: 17/5) After You raised them up, in their terror, they saw that only You were among them, and You asked them not to tell anyone of Your glory with them until You rose up by Your resurrection. Oh, dear Son, You showed them the Scriptures of Your coming with Elijah, as it was written into the Scriptures to be, and You made clear the work of John, the Baptist, who had made known at that time to everyone the kingdom of heavens and the people's repentance to God, so that God might be merciful on them. Oh, dear Son, in the same way I have released in this day of feast My voice over the ones faithful to Your work on the earth and over man, and I am speaking to them in the same way and say: This word is My Son, in Whom I am well pleased; listen to Him! Amen.

– And I am Your word, oh, My Father, and I tell them: he who listens to Me, listens to My Father, Who has sent Me, for My Father glorifies Himself in Me with His entire word, with His entire work. Amen.

Oh, My people, the hostile spirit does not like it when it hears from Me that I call you My people: it does not like to hear that the land of the Romanian people is My today's homeland, the homeland of My coming on earth after two thousand years for the Scriptures of the new birth of the world, as it is written into the Scripture to work. Behold, even today I have not stumbled against man's sins, but I have rather stumbled against his unbelief; however, you should love My glory into your midst and be faithful, for My kingdom is not of this world, and that is why the world does not receive it and does not want it, because it has itself and it does no longer want anything else. However, I tell it that Elijah's scourge is coming and the world will go from bitterness to bitterness, and there will no longer be peace and it will only be making with sufferance, and there will be God with His work over the earth and He will glorify Himself through it as it is written to be fulfilled in this way. Amen.

Oh, My people at the spring, get up early in the morning and make for Me a feast again with gathering at the spring for there come to the spring those who thirst after Me and after you, and you are to organize a stop-over for the Lord with them, for He will gather them near Him and feed those who seek after Him, those who want to learn to be. Ask from Me for a serving time for Me and for you and for those who come after food from heaven, because it is beautiful to ask from God, son, and it is beautiful to be His son, a son who asks from the Father those which the Father tells him to ask. Amen.

May the assembly of the people full of longing be blessed, for behold, it makes its way to the spring in its heart, with its heart and step and then with its food from My mouth! Amen.

May you also be blessed, you who prepare a table for the feast and a stopover for the Lord to be with the people, with those who come believing, and by teaching to believe to be! Amen.

May it be blessed your wisdom and its work for which you have prepared before those who come to the spring, oh, My people! I, the Lord, give you from Me to have and to be able to work for My testimony, for I wanted and want you to be My witness. Let the gentle time accompany you at the feast for My mother the Virgin and let all and everything be for the ministering of the feast, My people. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should not judge your neighbor but only yourself, for there is no salvation otherwise, but it is judgment. He who knows this wonderful work, that one is free from the judgment of his evil deeds before God, and he who works otherwise, that one is already judged because he has trampled on God, Who does not want the death of the one who has gone wrong, but He wants his resurrection instead. Amen. Take care of your salvation, son, for I work it for you, only for you to want it and to have it. I am He Who works before and behind the weak man, as I have always worked. On Thursday I became body and blood on the table for supper and I gave Myself to My disciples and only on the second day I fulfilled what I had given them on the last supper and then I worked beforehand what I gave them by My sacrifice, and, again, I have become bread and wine on the altar and then the one who shares Me for the man's life goes with Me to a sick man or to the faithful one and gives Me further. I work before and behind man as I have also worked with this word coming out of My mouth once with the mystery on the altar of My sacrifice for man. I have become body and word on My today's table and I have worked by the word and become body and word and I have given Myself to you, My people. I want to heal from unbelief and doubt the one who stays like this in My people, and I do not know how to do it in order to distinguish Myself with My work into your midst, together with those by whom I have come down to you to make you grow within a heavenly spirit, with love from heaven and not from the earth. The birth from above, this is My desire over every man, a desire which burns My bosom, My people. Your holiness is My way to you and you shall be like Me, gentle and humble in your heart, and to stay faithfully before Me for your work with Me, for I need faithful sons more than anything else, loving and full of heavenly longing in them, for the heaven is My throne, My people, and I reign from on it everywhere and over all if I have it in man. Amen.

You, children from the gates, be My children, for the love in you is that of a child, and those who judge you and do not love you, those are not children, but they are rather judgers, and they see you likewise. However, you should be full of My godly plan and do not be conformed to the sufferance which has always tried to put down the power for Me, and this is how you are to be able to work for Me with it in you, for woe to the one without a cross like Mine, and woe to the one who makes his own cross in order to carry it! Be long enduring and serve Me with love, for I need your service and by your patience and service for Me, I, the Lord, will win many over to My Father and then I will work much to fulfill the last Scriptures: the new birth of the world, a new heaven and a new earth and glory of new Jerusalem on the earth, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, My way with you, My people is My way and I have to speak and not be silent on it, and you should work according to My word like a son, for My son is he who listens to Me as I listen to the Father and I am His beloved Son with Whom He is well pleased, and Who you have to listen to, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-08-2008

The feast of the Assumption

I become word over the earth and I give Myself to those who seek Me with the longing of their hearts, for those who believe in Me are full of love, are full of longing, and those who do not believe in Me are those who persecute Me, are those who deny Me. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and I am the Son of the Virgin Mother, after the Father sent Me on the earth by My birth from a virgin body two thousand years ago, for her longing after God was a stairway for Me to come down on earth, to come after man. And why to come after man? Oh, I have come on the earth after man because the man's longing calls Me to come and his sighing calls Me, because the man's spirit spends only in sighing, but the man does not know how to perceive this sighing of his spirit. He seeks, poor of him, and he has always sought after his happiness and life and he has worked hard within his search, but the Spirit from above is far from his understanding, for he does not find what he looks for, and I come into his way and give him of My spirit, for the man has missed it and he does not know where it comes in him the longing and the sigh from his longing and his labor for life. Woe to the man who does not read in the Scriptures to see God's works on the earth and to believe in Him, and then long for Him as his companion and then to become himself God's companion on the earth!

Oh, My sweet mother! Oh, the reading of the Scriptures about Messiah's coming, the man's Savior, was sweet for you, mother! Oh, how much you had waited for Me to come on the earth and to serve Me with longing! Your love for God wanted Me and made you into a praised stairway for the coming of My angel to you with the news of My coming by My birth from your virginal body, and then you received Me and set Me then before the people either to their faith or to their denial, mother. Then I lived on earth and fulfilled all that were written to be fulfilled, and then I went to be again with the Father, that is in the glory which I had from Him before the foundation of the world and by which My Father has glorified Me on earth, for I am the Word of the Father and I am his power in the heaven above and on earth below, as it is written.

On earth, in this day, it is the feast of your coming to Me and to the Father, mother, for if I went to be again with the Father, you remained on the earth and you remained with My disciple. I was on the cross and I spoke to you about him: «Behold your son», and to him I said: «Behold your mother», and you submitted and fulfilled in that way and remained with him, and he loved you with My love in him, for his love knew Me and then served Me with great love, and behold, love serves love, and there is no other kind of service for love, because My love in man has its own companions.

Oh, My dear mother, I have set on the hearth of the Romanian people the place of My coming of word on earth, for the Father has sent Me again on earth, mother. The Father has sent Me as word on earth, and He has sent Me again after man, mother. From the beginning I am the Word of the Father, and when Father wanted to lift up for salvation the people of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, a people which was in bondage in Egypt, Father made Me word upon Moses and

I had spoken with the people of Israel for forty years, mother, and I had led it to the country of promise, for its sigh had reached to God and then Father sent Me to save it from under its sigh and to teach it the longing for God, the faith in God and its works, mother. Behold, this is how Father has also sent Me today as word on earth, for the end of the ages has come near, and all and everything has been waiting for the coming of the Son of Man in heaven and on earth, mother, for by My birth of your virgin body I became the Son of Man and I became the Savior of the world, for the man lives only in bondage on earth, mother. I am speaking with you before those who have come together at your feast near the place of My spring of word. The mystery of the fallow land with a treasure in it, this is the mystery of the choice of this land in order that I may come, the land of the Romanian people, mother, and Father wants to announce it as heavenly homeland, the homeland of My coming again from the Father to the man with the news of the kingdom of the heavens, with the glory of My word, which fills the earth and the heaven, but only the man's heart he does not fill, for the man does not long for God on earth, mother. Oh, let Us speak at the spring, My mother! The heavenly armies have come here, at the spring, for you, within a feast for you, and I am the Son of God and I am your Son as well. Let us feed those who have come together again near My spring of word, for the longing has brought them here, and their faith and love need power, mother. Let us glorify Ourselves with the glory that I have had from the Father before the foundation of the world, oh, mother full of word like your Son, the Word God, for the glory of God is the word, as it was in the beginning as well, mother! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, sweet Son of the Father Sabaoth, and mine! The Father's economy for man's salvation from death is great, dear Son! Oh, the man does everything on earth, but the man does not have time and longing to open the Scriptures and read in them about Your coming then and now and then to see their fulfilling as I saw them when You came on earth two thousand years ago. Oh, how much You missed the man then when You came! Oh, how much You have longed for man and for his longing now when You are coming again! Oh, how much We, those from heaven, have longed, oh how much longing We have, dear Son! This is the time for You to come: there is no longer faith on earth. Behold the sign when You have to come. As in the time of Noah, the people on earth do not have love of God and do not have faith, but they rather have faith denial, and this brings on earth its burning, the burning on it of all that are made by the man opposing God, for man's thoughts are not like God's thoughts. Oh, how much You have suffered from this separation between man and You, Lord Son! Soon, soon, the man will see how much You have suffered, for Your sufferance from man has overcome Your mercy, and behold, You come to offer him, you come to speak to him as a God full of power, but he, hearing does not hear and seeing does not see, because the sin of faith denial is on earth, Lord Son. I become word over those who have come together at the mouth of Your spring and I tell them to read the Scriptures as I read them, and then I waited for You to come, as it was written in the Scriptures for You to come, and I tell them that the longing after God becomes a glorified stairway for Your coming again to man, oh, Lord. Amen.

I am coming down with a sweet voice of mother to the place of the spring of the word of my Son and I am finding you gathered at a heavenly table. I am one with my Son. I am in Him and He is in me, for this is written for the Lord to work through those who believe in Him. I am coming to give you the exhortation of life. Love life! It is my Son, Who took the dust into His hand and made the man in His image and after His likeness and then He breathed life upon him with His mouth. Love the life, for my Son has given it to you, for the life is in Him and the life is the light of the people! Keep away from death and keep away from sin, for the sons of men do not know what death is and that is why they spend in it. Oh, do not love the world or what is in it, for the world has come to an end and God to the beginning, and it is worked again as in the beginning by word, and God makes them all again. Oh, separate yourselves from sin, for my Son suffers from your sins! Your life be like a virginity! Your living and your life to be of a monk! Look at the saints who have overcome the world and the flesh, that is their body, which lusts against the spirit and then they have sanctified for the Lord. Oh, come back to a life of paradise on earth so that life on earth may come from God and the Lord to take away death from it, for it is written to be so. Oh, do no longer eat meat! Oh, do no longer eat meat! Oh, do no longer eat meat! It is your fault, man, that you eat meat! It is your fault that you do not love God. It is not the devil's guilt that you have this sin. Your sin is the guilt of the flesh, the sin that you do not love God. You cannot love both yourself and God, for he who loves himself denies God and then he persecutes Him.

Oh, leave off the lust of the body, which comes from the lust of the eyes, and this comes from the spirit of haughtiness of life! Oh, leave off the love for yourselves and give your love to the Lord, for it increases with Him and does not decrease, and this treasure will come out before you if you gather it with the Lord to have it, for the Lord labors only and only for man and He humbles Himself laboring. Oh, rejoice over the Lord's gifts and over the sacrifice of love of His sacrificing people and then I will exhort you again to my Son, Who becomes word on the earth now, at the end of the time, on the hearth of the Romanian people. Be gentle and humble in your heart, be like my Son! Do not be like the sons of men, do not be like the sons of this age, who live as in the time of Noah and bring forth fire which burns the world, for the earth burns from the man's sins, because the sin is a fire and it is the man's end.

Oh, open up your arms and embrace my Son as I embraced and loved Him more than my life! Oh, come to be born of word and to become the sons of God, for those who believe in Him, they are those who do no longer die and they are those who live, and they live in Him, in my beloved Son, in Whom I was well pleased with my love, with my entire longing and with my entire living on earth. Bear this life on earth and you will live the sweetness and you will live through it and you will be christs, and the Lord will be glorified through you, for His will is your sanctification.

Learn the love and its apostleship! Learn the life without sin! Learn the love from John, my Son's beloved disciple, to whom He gave me when He went to the Father after He was resurrected, and he took me to his home, loved me, stayed with me and fed me with my Son and I lived in obedience of God. Amen.

Oh, your house needs to be useful to God, not to you, if you are God's child. This is what a child of God needs to know. Moreover, how is your house supposed to serve God and not you? First of all you have to serve God and not you or those who are yours, and then you have to bring the Lord into your house, at your table, at your heart, in your deed, and then He will enable you to do His work on the earth and over the people. Your will have to die so that the Lord may be able to make you His will then, but not only from time to time but always, and in this way you will be God's kingdom, oh, sons fed by God with food from above, and you will be God's house on earth as John was, the beloved disciple by his love in him and to whom my Son gave me when He went to be with the Father.

Oh, be gentle and humble in your heart, humble in your conduct and appearance! Come out of the world for the world has come to its end, and the Lord to the beginning! He who stays in the world, that one drinks of its wine, either he wants it or not, and he who comes out of it, that one drinks of the Lord's wine, from His table, from His graces, which become God's glory over those who stay under grace. Take, eat and drink from the Lord's mouth, for the word of His mouth glorifies itself on the earth and calls the man to life, to the love of God, and the dead to resurrection! The day comes and those who are asleep will come to life and will testify about this word and about this place of spring of my Son. Oh, what will do then, those who deny this coming of His after man?

Oh, Son, Emmanuel, we go to those who have gathered at the spring and give them healing and faith, for this world gives falling and unbelief to the people, Lord. On this day we sit at the table with them and then we will give them exhortation again, for it is a great feast of word over those who come together in my day of feast at the spring of Your word. I have comforted You with my coming over those who have come to hear from heaven and to receive comfort. Oh, comfort them, for You are the Comforter and Savior, oh, my sweet Son and God. Amen, amen, amen.

– I comfort them, mother, and I will comfort them again in the course of the day. We embrace them at the dawn of the feast and We will embrace them again in the word to the end of the day, and the Father will have comfort from this work set before Him, for the will of the Father is man's sanctification, oh, My mother, sweet in word as your love for man, for you were sweet for man, mother, in all your time on earth, and this is how you are also now from the heavenly glories when you comfort those that are faithful to Me, mother. Amen.

Oh, My sacrificing people, I bow to thank you because you have prepared a day of feast and stopover for those who come after Me and after you to listen to My voice. Be content and thankful, for it is a great work with Me for you to prepare a table for Me so that I may dine with the man and to exhort him to a life without death on earth and to make him a son of holiness, a son of the power, which overcomes the world in man. Amen.

And you, those who have come at the spring with longing in your bosom, I have refreshed you with the river of life, and I will refresh you again and again and I will teach you in the course of the day and send you My entire comfort, My entire exhortation, and you are to give away all your worldly worry, and be like angels on earth, for I, the Lord, do not ask you that which you are not able to do, and that is why I ask you only what the love for God can do. The love of God casts out fear and it casts out sin, for sin brings about fear over the man's heart. Where there is not God's grace, there fear is and there sin is. Oh, love God and come here to the spring to learn to love God! Come and learn, for I have at the spring those who teach the man from God! Come to meet God and you will receive life as a reward. Soon, soon, there will be nothing on earth and there will be only those who love God and will receive their life as a reward. Amen. I come soon, and My reward is with Me and I will give life to those who love life. Amen.

I am in the midst of the people with this spring of word, for the man without food from heaven on him dies; he has always died. Let the man come to learn from Me life by this word, for I have come again from the Father to the man, and I work with the glory which I have had from the Father before the foundation of the world, and this glory which I have from Him is the world of My mouth, the world which made the heaven and the earth, and which has made again a new heaven and a new earth, a new Jerusalem and a new people, as it is written into the Scriptures to work, I, the little Lamb of the Father, for those who are redeemed by Him from among people to be My kingdom on the earth.

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I come to an end with My word and again I will speak it to the end of the day, and to the end of the day I will give it to you as your food. Amen, amen, amen.

*

This day of feast is the comfort of My mother, the Virgin, the greatest day in her life on earth. This day is a day of comfort, and I, the Lord, want that those who are fed with the voice of My mouth to know that My mother, the Virgin, has put all her longing into this day, for after I went to be again with the Father after My resurrection, I left her the longing after this day, the longing after God, a longing greater than the one when she had waited for Messiah to be born on the earth among people as it was written in the Scriptures to be fulfilled.

You, those who have come together in this day at My voice feeding of souls, learn from My mother, the Virgin, the longing after God as she did, for she had been waiting with an unquiet longing, day and night, her union with the homeland from above, with the Father and the Son and with the Holy Spirit and with all the heavenly and angelic hosts. She knew entire what it meant God and the country from above, made ready like a bride, adorned for her Bridegroom, the eternal day, which she received as a gift forever when I came and passed her the border between the visible and invisible things of God's creation. The creation of the heaven and the earth, the creation of God carries in it all the visible and invisible things, and I want the man to know what God's creation means and what God means. I, the Lord, stay seized within endless pain that the man does not know what God means, where He is and where the man is. I want the man know that he cannot hide from God and that the man makes Me suffer from an endless pain.

After I built the man and put My spirit of life in him, he immediately exalted himself, he became haughty and then he immediately hid from God; he felt in his body to commit this sin and this was his separation from God, Whom he perceived as his enemy. Oh, behold, what sin teaches man! The sin has the most hidden face and carries in it its seen and unseen things. I want to make the man used to let himself be made by God, that God may be made by grace so that there may no longer be enmity between him and God because of the sin hidden in him and which he cannot hide from God.

You, those who come at the spring of the wisdom of God's mysteries, of the visible and invisible things of God, learn from Me that the man has in the creation that the makes, the visible and invisible things worked by him and which God knows them all very well. Men are enemies and killers to each other, and I want to make the man get used to understanding that which he does not understand by everything he does. The man has his fallen nature within him, the hiding from God, not the hiding from man, for if he had not in him his hiding from God, he would not have his hiding from man either. The hiding between man and man is enmity between them and it is nothing else, and I came on earth two thousand years ago to teach the man what light is, for there is great sufferance on man and in man because of his hiding from God and from man. The man who hides with the invisible things worked by him before God and before man is seized then by the fear that comes from hiding, and this sufferance was born by man in paradise, for man was set in paradise with his first body and over which he had to have God, Who knew how to make him and Who knew to keep him and to work him always so that the Lord could be able to have the man and that the man might not have himself, but the Lord to have him instead if He made the man to have him. However, this wisdom left the man out even from the beginning, and this happened because the man opened himself to the foreign spirit, the one unknown to him, and the unknown can only make harm to man, as it had already happened even from the man's beginning, and then I, the God Word, spoke the word and said to the spirit opposing to My will in man: «I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel». (Gen: 3/15) Behold, the wisdom, which the man forsook in paradise, made the man become God's enemy, enemy by hiding, enemy who has not received anything but sufferance over his body and curse over the earth, which was supposed to be a nourishing and of food giving mother, if the man had remained in obedience and not in hiding of God. When I, the Lord, spoke this over man, I was and I was not the man's enemy, but the man alone makes God his enemy then when he hides from Him as he would hide from an enemy, and then he alone makes the man his enemy as well when he hides from man as he would hide from an enemy.

Oh, God's mystery with man is great and I want the man understand this mystery and the man to be able to perceive it as My mother, the Virgin, perceived it and wanted it in all her time after My resurrection by which I went to be with the Father, for then she longingly wanted to come into the kingdom of the God's invisible things, Who nourished with them her longing after them, because she was the dwelling place of the cleanness and the light of all her things, for she did not know in her body and spirit the spirit of the hiding that comes through the work, but she knew only the wisdom of the mysteries, which had to be kept in secret for their protection before men, for men are enemies to each other by their hiding and there are enemies by self aggrandizement, by working haughtiness, for man demolish man for his greatness on earth and he does not do this for something else.

Oh, My dear mother! Your love and patience was sweet, My mother! The mystery of your life, the mystery of your heart was your love and mercy, for great was the feeling of your loving of people spirit, My mother! The mystery of your life, that which was above any other love on earth of the man, clean in his heart and life, the mystery of your love carried in it the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit's will, the love which is called God and by which you loved the people, all the people, mother, for you had mercy on them, and you suffered within yourself from this mercy just as those, in whom We put the mercy for man to its work, mother, have pain in themselves today too; mercy which works for man, My mother. In your day of feast I have opened the mystery of your longing, for this day carries in it your joining with the homeland from above, with the invisible things of God Creator, mother, but they are a heavenly mystery and are not hiding from man, but rather they are carried by God in secret for those who love Him on earth, waiting for their union with Him, as you waited for it all your life on earth, My mother. Oh, rejoice over the day of your coming among those from heaven and scatter the love of God over those who seek after Us in the house of the mysteries, in My work of word, here, at its spring, mother. Amen.

– Oh, my Son, Who are full of word now, in the end of the time! In the time of Moses, when You had been speaking into the midst of the people of Israel for forty years on its way to Canaan, You had appeared as a strong God over the nations of the earth so that they might become the way of Your path with the people of Israel from place to place to the land of promise, but like Adam in paradise, Your people became haughty and fell from the way, and that people fell because of its haughtiness, because its haughtiness made it forsake You and forget You, Lord. However, You had accompanied the people with great word to support it somehow and that it might not deny You among the nations. You made it the light of the nations in that time, for You were that light into its midst. However, it became darkness, for it hid from Your commandments and it did no longer have You as its Savior, neither You nor Moses, for woe to the one who doubts after he believes before he sees! You are hidden within Your mysteries, but the man is not like that, he does not work like that and he is Your enemy instead, dear Son, and he makes You fear, Lord, for I know this fear that comes from man, and it made me suffer deeply when I had You on earth as my Son, given from God to me, to give You birth, to grow You and to protect You from the man who is enemy to God. However, both God and man fears the man hidden in himself and in man, and again, a man like that is afraid of God and hides, and he is also afraid of man and hides from man, for the one who is hidden in his self and in man breathes fear into another man near him, and the spirit of hiding is felt near when it works from man upon man. Oh, the man will speak to himself that this is how God works as well. Oh, man, oh, man who do not love light, do and work everything that the one around you can see and you will be saved from the sin of hiding and you will do well to the man, as God does, and only then you will be able to say that you work like God.

Once a king, harsh in his nature and warlike, was passing by on the way with this army, armed for war, and there he met two holy people in his way and they were running away to hide, and the harsh king called them out following them and then he spoke to them: if you are with God then why are you hiding, why are you afraid? However, they answered him: we are not afraid for us, oh king, we are afraid for you lest we may cause some sin to you, and that is why we hide from your face. Oh, behold how much love, how much spirit loving of people overshadows those who love God and man.

You, those who have been drinking today from the spring the spirit of the wisdom of God's mystery, come and learn from God, for the time is dear now and you have to use it for God and not for you. Give your time on earth to the Lord as I gave it to Him! Help each other to the way of the heavenly mysteries, for the Lord stays again with the man in the word and leads him to the mysteries of the life, as He had lead Israel for forty years in the wilderness of the nations on earth to the land of promise. Let the love for God replace in you the love, which takes the man out of God. Learn the love of God and its mysteries from above! Love in heaven, do not love on earth, and help each other for God's mysteries as Joseph helped me on my way for the Son of God, Who became my Son on earth! Oh, how much he helped me, how much he loved me, how much he concealed me before the people for the word of the Son of God in me and then for His coming to the people, as the time of the Scriptures decided to be so! The love for God needs to have witnesses on the earth as I had even from the beginning of my life among people and to its end on the earth. In the same way they should have witnesses and love for man, as I loved and had witnesses of my love for man, for I had always loved them and done good to them on their way to heaven, and I was giving my heart to them for I needed the man's love to give it to God with the whole man, but behold, the man's sin does not want to have witnesses, rather he had the devil as his witness, as the first man built had God and the devil as the witnesses of his haughtiness, because the man can hide neither from God nor from the devil and then my Son saw satan falling down from heaven like lighting because he bowed to man's haughtiness, to man's will.

When the unfaithful brought the sinful woman to judgment for my Son to judge her, He was revealing with his finger on the ground their written sins, the sins of those who prepared their stones to kill with them the one they caught to be put to death, and their judgment was greater than the wickedness by which they wanted to punish the wrong one, and behold, the man cannot hide behind another man, for no one is righteous before God, but on the contrary, he who tries to blame the man is no other than the one who went wrong more than that one.

The man is sinful and has to humiliate himself and not judge, for it is written: «He who judges has already been judged». And how does that come? The sin in man is that which judges the sin of another man, for the man is not like God, Who does not judge, because God is Savior and is not the man's Judge as man is, poor of him, the man who is judged by his own sin.

Oh, do not judge sons! Forgive and you will be forgiven, as my Son said! While I was on earth I helped, cleaned and embraced all the sinners, all the sick people and I taught them and loved them and I shared only love, only mercy, only peace, only goodness. He who wants to be loved, that one cannot love, but he who loves himself does not seek after love, but he only shares it. Behold, the first woman loved herself, and she wanted to be loved and caused death upon man, and the second woman did not want to be loved, but she loved instead, and shared love upon man, love and life, for it is a great mystery for the man to be born of heaven and not from the earth.

Oh, seek after your birth from above, that which comes from God, to have the love of God and to share it around, you, sons and daughter on earth! Oh, do not remain in your birth from your fathers, for the body you have from your parents stands against the Spirit from heaven. Seek to be filled with the longing of the homeland from above and of its invisible things and lead to it all the people on your way on the earth with the people. My life worked this way as long as I lived among people, and this is how I waited for the sweetest day of my life, the day of my meeting with the invisible things of God, Who made the heaven and the earth, all the visible and invisible things. Be sons and daughters of God's light! Do not hide from God, but long after Him instead, for the mystery of the creation from God carries in its mystery all the visible and invisible things, from which the man cannot hide. Oh, the man's sin teaches the man to hide from God and love teaches him to share God so that there may no longer be enmity between man and God and between God and man because of man's hiding from God. Love God and love Him like me and like John, to whom my Son gave me into his care when He went to the Father! Be wise through those in heaven, not by those on earth! Become sons of the wisdom from above, which makes you heavenly in your heart, love, look and work! Save the people from their judgment, by teaching them the cleanness of the heart to each other and to God and the merciful help, for he who does not judge his neighbor, that one is not from the earth but he is from heaven instead, and such a man escaped from judgment. Oh, the mystery of love is great! It teaches you the things from heaven, not from people. The haughtiness and the judgment that comes from it are learned from people and humility is learned from God and through it the lack of judgment. Amen.

Oh, my dear Son, I have been in this day of birth giving from above of the man who comes and hears Your voice here, at the spring, the voice which gives birth to a new man from it and which makes the man God by Your grace, which flows and makes divine there where it is set. Be glorified, be blessed by those who love You on earth as in heaven, oh, Lord, oh Son of the Father Sabaoth, oh, my Son, of the mother Virgin, who brought You from the Father to the man on earth to be with the man and to come back again to the Father and to come again, as You have already come again fulfilling the Scriptures of Your coming by which You announced then Your coming of today. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, open up your arms and then cross them back again for those who love Us, mother, and then embrace them within the mystery from above! Let the man learn from Us the mystery between Us and man, mother, and let all of them love Us among those who come at the spring, and let Us love them and give them the heaven, mother, for the invisible things of God's creation comprise them within their mystery, and they need healing to their sight so that they may see with it those that are not seen by the man's eyes, by the man's mind, mother.

Oh, people coming to the spring to hear the voice of God! Come as God wants you to come and to be and do not come as you like to come and to be! See My will, see it into My word upon you and become after My likeness and you will walk in the light, for those from God in man are in the light and are in its mysteries as well, and blessed are those who know to read God's mysteries and those who carry them on the earth! I hid in man and with the man then when I worked mysteriously, but I did not do so to hide from man but I worked like that because the man is not kneaded from heaven to see and to know as in heaven. He who receives from heaven, that one works like God and is judged by the people on the earth like God too, because the people are from the earth.

Oh, no one is able to take anything from heaven to carry and to give if he is not given from the Father to have and to give and to bring forth fruit to God. I have told you now about this mystery, people who come at the spring to grow with the food from God and seek to learn well this mystery, which I have told you about now. Oh, take only from My mouth and do not take for you from the man's mouth, for the man is God's enemy by hiding and he is also the man's enemy by those hidden in him. Oh, take from Me, take from My mouth, and take from those who share God with you, for they cannot take if God does not give them to take and to give. This is how you are supposed to learn and to believe, and let your faith and its fruit be blessed, people that come to the spring and if you come, then learn, learn the longing after God, people nourished by God! Amen.

Let it be blessed the heart of those who will take this teaching into their hearts for their birth from God! Amen.

Peace to you, those from the mouth of My spring! Peace to those who come together near you at the spring on feasts! Amen.

Peace to you, those who love My peace, My love and its mysteries! Be the sons of the heavenly mysteries and work with them in the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Who shines when He works, sons! Be the country of the brightness of the things from above on earth, for My country on the earth now, in the end of the time, bears from Me its beautiful name, the country of brightness, according to My working graces in it, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-08-2008

The feast of the beheading of the saint John, the Baptizer

With a speech of Holy Spirit I become word and I come into My book at the end of the time and I write Myself in it to My confession, for Father has sent Me, and I testify about My work, given to Me by the Father to fulfill it as He has given it to Me, and I do not work or speak from Myself, but I take from the Father and this is how I fulfill. I work out My coming again from the Father to man and I work by the word as I worked from the beginning when God made the heaven and the earth. I was then the word of the Father, and I am the same today, for I am His Son. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, this is God's name and in this name I come as word into My book of today. Amen.

I strengthen My entrance and the power in the gates and this is how I come in when I speak into your midst, My today's people. Oh, get used to stay for My waiting, for I have My coming with you, that which is prophesied in the Scriptures by My own mouth two thousand years ago. Let your preparation be warm then when I come at the feasts to you with My saints, for the prayers of My saints remind Me forever of My coming of now, My coming with them, promised by God to be, as also you are promised to be and to have God into your midst and to grow it over your life for His glory on earth among people.

Oh, My people, you have to be and to live only for God's glory. Do not forget that this is what I have meant for you. And in order for you to know how to fulfill this, become forerunner as John, My baptizer, did, for he was the one who went before My glory among people, and you have to understand like one grown by God what it means My glory that I have from the Father before the foundation of the world. I am the light of the world, I am the light and the word, and I live on earth through My church and I am in it the light of the world. Oh, become light from the light, son. Oh, turn your soul into light from light, sons, to be the forerunners of the light from the beginning, the light not created and which will comprise the world in the light with its threefold power in the last day, for it is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and it works through the saints form God among people and this is how it works them and this is how it is My forerunner. The fleshly tongue of the man cannot comprise the glory of My light, but the tongue of the spirit glorifies it from the inside of the one illuminated by it.

Make your soul light from light, My people, as John, My baptizer, became, for God is light and this is how He appeared. The burning bush seen by Moses on the Mount Sinai was the light from which God spoke to Moses. The pillar of fire, which had led Israel in the wilderness was the light not created by God, which became an angel of light before man. My glory on Tabor, the light from the beginning, which shined on Me when I was transfigured before My disciples, was a light like that on the Mount Sinai when God spoke to Moses. My resurrection and its light, which I showed to My disciples in an image of angel, and then the glory with which I came out before apostle Paul on the road to Damascus, this is how the light from the beginning has appeared to many people on earth, and behold, I am the light of the world as long as I am in the world, as long as the man keeps Me on earth to be light over the people, and as for you, help Me to be, My people, help Me, son, and learn from Me what God on earth with people means, learn like John, the Baptizer, who did not perform any miracle but who was the spirit of prophecy, the spirit of the testimony before Me and before the people and proclaimed Me so that his testifying proclamation may be fulfilled.

All My words spoken into your midst, My people, mean My light, God's light. My word is prayer upon you, asking from Me to be the witness of My word and its life in you. Look at the men's sons, for its teeth are weapons and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword, as it is written, but you have to be My witness for My life in you on earth, for I have come from the Father to you, and I do not come from the world but I come to make you grow to be My light in the world as John, My forerunner, was, for he was the light which prepared My way to the people so that the people might know that the Son of God was coming and to receive Him.

John, My baptizer, becomes My light into your midst, My people, for I have come to you with his traditional feast and I am his word when he is speaking now into your midst. Amen.

– Oh, sons of the light which grows you to be Christ's witnesses! Be wise for your faith in God's word, which is growing you today, lest the deceiver may make you lose the gift of faith, lest the old devil may lead you to unbelief. Work to be worthy of this gift, which the man has to nourish in him when God gives it to him, because by this gift so many ancestors had overcome with God and for God. Take courage by your faith! God is the word among you more than in any of the times under the sky and you are nourished with the light of His word, which you have to fulfill like sons born of God's word, a birth that has to be seen from heaven and from earth upon you. Be great in your faith and obedience, for the devil is restless to see you falling from faith, but let your fight be in Christ, Who makes you light from light on earth. If you want to learn the power of faith, learn it from me. If you want to know the power of the spirit of confession, learn it from me. If you want to be the forerunners of God's glory, which will comprise the world in the last day, in the day of His appearance, learn it from me, for I testified about the light. Love the light and this work is not hard! Love the mystery of the light, for the sons of men love the darkness of this passing age! Love the repentance for all that you have gone wrong for and for those that you have not gone wrong as well, and be aware of everything spoken about you of the world hostile to me and to you! Love fasting and prayer and ask from God these gifts, which worked from me among people with their power, for they strengthened me in the spirit of the confession of Christ and were my power for Him. The saints condemned themselves before the Lord for everything they went wrong and did not go wrong, and this is how they taught the people to repent. Condemn yourselves for all those that you have done wrong and for those that you have not done wrong and love the spirit of repentance, for the Lord's righteous ones are those who repent and who are alive by faith, they are those who are alive. Amen. Love Christ's love in you, Who let Himself be condemned for the forgiveness of many, and in this way you have to be God's sons on earth, for the fleshly tongue cannot speak of the greatness of God's sons, but the spiritual tongue has in it God's revelation forever, the spirit of testimony, the weapon of those who are faithful, who pass from glory to glory as God's sons on earth, and who the world cannot prevail against, because Christ's church is not overcome, for so it is written. Amen.

I, Lord, worked over Your people the spirit of faith, the spirit of testimony and the spirit of repentance and I pray to You for its faith; strengthen it with the glory of Your works on earth, for on earth it is the time of the faith denial and the people fall, they fall all the time under the spirit of unbelief and under the veil of the darkness of this age, which is thicker and thicker; however, always, always give Your people the gift of the holy faith, which puts away the separation between You and man, oh, Lord, and let this teach Your people on this day of the feast, and let it grow in this way as Your confessor in the way of Your coming, for You come and come all the time as word of glory on earth and You come on the way of the faith of the sons of Your people, and blessed are and will be the faithful ones of Your coming and of Your word of yesterday and today, for everything will be forgiven to those and they will be the sons of faith and will be God's sons on earth and they will stand before You. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, great are the gift of the holy faith and the victory that comes from it, and it comes from the heavenly heights over the sons of faith. Faith makes the man holy; it makes him divine and leads him by filling him with the spirit of the testimony for God. Be wise in your faith, sons, lest the deceiver may make you lose the gift of faith. Be alive by your faith, and be My sons, for the unfaithful are dead and work like the dead. The unfaithful are dead to the faithful ones, for the man without faith is dead, and the faithful stay near God with their spirit, deed and life, while the unbelievers go with the world, for they are as dead as the world. Oh, do not be afraid of the dead, for God is the God of the living ones. Amen.

Oh, My people, learn the work of God's sons, learn, son, from those who have overcome by faith, by love and by light! Your birth from above, this is what you have to seek all the time before Me. My word, which gives you birth, this is what you shall fulfill when I bring you to work. This means the work of the birth from above, and those who do not understand this, let them learn, for I have come into the world to be the light of the world, to give light to the man's way and the man to see and know the work of life upon him; let every man know it, who believes by the gift of the holy faith, let him know what God with man on earth means. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have exhorted you and you shall fulfill My exhortation to be My son, for by obedience to the Father I am His Son, and this is how you should also be; you should be and listen like Me, and you will receive a great name from My Father, a name of His Son and a reward of His Son, the reward of obedience to God, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

29-08/11-09-2008

The feast of the birth of the Lord's Mother

I am Who I am. The Holy Spirit the Comforter is My voice. I am the only One born of the Father Sabaoth before eternity, true God of true God, and I am of one being with the Father. After five thousand years from man's creation, My Father sent Me to be born on the earth to be the Son of Man too, and in this way the Father to draw the man to Him, for man, after he was created by God, fell by his disobedience; he fell by sin and has no longer had God's kingdom for which he was built.

I am the Son of the mother Virgin in whom I seeded Myself to be born as Man on earth, after Father prepared her to carry Me and to give Me birth, to grow Me and to take care of Me until I was to come out of the people to glorify the Father in Me on earth and to draw the man to the Father after five thousand years of His longing after man.

When I came out from among the people, becoming known by godly signs, I chose disciples who were testifying of My divinity, but they, being from below, did not understand what God's kingdom on earth meant, and how it came that it was not of this world and for it. Oh, they did not understand why I came from the Father to be born on earth as the Son of man, and I had suffer very much because they did not understand, and I bore this sufferance alone and I waited with it in Me for the spirit of comfort upon it, and I had no comfort at all, because I came on earth as the Son of sufferance and the people did not come near Me but only to take their pains away, for I had power like God to heal them of their pains that came from their sins, for sin brings about pains to man and the man cannot carry them. I was healing them all of their pains, all that came to be healed. However, I remained the son of sufferance; the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of the mother Virgin, Who was not loved by man, for man loves happiness on earth and has been crying after it from his beginning to his end among people. Oh, if the man understood the mystery of God's kingdom in him, he would understand the mystery of his happiness too, but behold, there is lack of wisdom, lack of teaching on earth and over the man.

I come with a heavenly and godly feast into your midst, My people of today, for I gave you birth of My word upon you to be My people, to hear God's voice and to testify that God is yours and to fulfill Me in you, son, for My kingdom with man means nothing else. I come to you with a feast for My mother Virgin, for the cherubim and seraphim, all the angels and all the heavenly hosts praise her among the saints in this day of memorial of her birth on earth among people, birth ordained by God for this Virgin to be God's dwelling place, the dwelling place of God's kingdom in man.

Oh, mother, glorified by God, My mother, My mother giving birth of God! I put a little of My power in the gates so that I could come into My book of today in this day with a feast for you among saints, mother. God's kingdom on earth is a mystery misunderstood by man, mother, and you were its dwelling place among people. Release then your voice and sit near Me as word to give voice to the teaching from eternity, and which the man does not have where to hear from, mother, for the man lives on earth with his wisdom from his parents, by which he separates from God even from his beginning. God's kingdom fell from man even from the man's beginning, for man wanted to have a great happiness after I created him, after the counsel taken between Father and Me to create him and to make him into Our kingdom, God's kingdom, mother.

Oh, there is no happiness on earth if the man is not God's kingdom on earth. The man has to understand why there is no happiness on earth, mother. Sin is not happiness and it is in vain that the man makes his happiness out of sin, for the man pulled himself out from God for sin and not for happiness, mother. Oh, will man be able to wake up in him God's wisdom in order to perceive by it what he has to do on earth? Oh, let us teach the man, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– Let us teach him, Lord Teacher, let us teach the man, that there is lack of wisdom on earth; there is lack of teaching, dear Son of the Father and mine. You are the little Lamb, the sacrificed and the sacrificing One, for You are the Word of God, and You have always reclined towards man, and always, always, You have squeezed Your love in order to give to the man teaching of love, and You are the One Who waits and waits for man, and by this waiting You have got a painful affliction in Your Spirit. Man does not sacrifice for man even patience, not even his forgiveness for the one who did something wrong to him when this may come and ask him for forgiveness. Oh, if the man is not humble between him and man, then God's grace leaves him and man forsakes God and God's face, which he has to bear in his life and deed. Oh, here it is why man does not have God's kingdom in him, Your face in him, Son Lord! The man who knows You always loses the grace that You gave him to bear when You made Yourself known to him, for even from his beginning You have showed to the man the work of the grace, the work which can work by man's obedience, by Your love in him, for the man's love separates him from God and behold, the man has to be taught again and again, for he has lost the wisdom and he has lost the teaching, and You come again on earth to teach him.

Oh, if the man followed Your voice of yesterday and today, then great happiness would come on earth, Son Lord! Oh, how shall we make man to get him used to be faithful and to listen to God on earth and then to find the mystery of happiness, dear Son? Behold Your wound, little Lamb, sacrificing for man! You cry and sigh between heaven and earth because of the man who does not love Your teaching. You had cried with the Father and with the Holy Spirit after You made the man and You came in me and were born a Child on earth and then You came and showed Yourself as a perfect God, allowing Yourself to be put on the cross to crucify the sins of the man on it and then You have cried again and again for two thousand years, and behold, You cry and cry after man, You cry without any comfort, and Your love hurts You, it hurts You, Lord Son, and the man does no longer comforts You for what he did and does to You, forsaking You for a kingdom that falls once with him, once with those that pass away. Oh, not even two thousand years ago did understand You those in the midst of whom You glorified Yourself with the glory of the Father in You, for all of these were waiting for Your kingdom on earth, in the world, Lord. Even Your disciples were stumbling, for they were waiting for You to be great on earth and they to be near You great as well, and they were waiting for the fulfillment of the prophecies about You otherwise; however, they all were fulfilling mysteriously, as You are also mysterious, for You were the King, but You were also mysterious and were fighting to pull the sin out of man, to make him discover then God's kingdom, which those who love sin do not know. He who becomes a Christian does not have to seek after his happiness on this way, but he rather has to seek after his salvation from sin; the one who seeks after You should seek after the salvation from his sin, oh, Lord.

Oh, sons of men, seek after God's kingdom and all the other things you need will be added to you and to it, for God's kingdom is not from the earth; however, those that are on the earth bow to it just as then when God did, when He became my Son and the men's Savior, two thousand years ago. The Christian people, which is on earth, has to be a house of guests for the sick ones, like a hospital where they are to be healed, taken care of and healed from their sins, so that they may become a new kingdom, God's kingdom in man, the God's true happiness, for if the Lord is not happy in man then the man is not happy either.

Oh, people do not want to become Christians, they do not want to be healed from their sin, and God cries in heaven and on earth, He cries after man, for man is sick from sin, sick from death, for sin is death and it is not happiness as the man feels it. The man needs to call for a doctor for he is sick from sin.

Oh, man, seek to go for your healing, for the Christian people on earth, if it is at all, has to be like a hospital to which all the sinful people should go to be healed from their sins and no longer commit sin if they are healed from them, because for the healing from sin great teaching is needed over man; and it always has to be persevering over man. Oh, where is such a healing house for the man's sin? My Son is the Doctor Who waits for all sinners to be healed from sin. Two thousand years ago, they came to Him in thousands, those who suffered in their body, and He healed them all with the spirit of His mercy for man, with the power of His word, but if the soul is not healthy then the healing of the body is in vain, and this is what those who seek after Him do not understand in such a way that He may healed them from their bodily pains.

Behold the pool, and near it the Son of God Who lifts up the sins of the world! My Son has come and become word upon man and He made a house for Him on earth; He made a people for Him and put it to the work of the man's healing. Let the man come and seek for medicine against sin! Let the man no longer stay in his sins! Let the man be healed from his sin! This kingdom has been waited for all the angels and by all the heavenly armies. Amen.

Behold, the spirit of teaching is needed on earth, since all the people live with the sin in them. Come to the voice of God's Son, Who heals the man from his sin, oh, sons of men! Oh, you are sick with sin, sick to death. Come to be healed! Be healed in your souls, be healed in your minds and hearts and be healed from sin, and from this healing will come in you the healing of your sick bodies as well! Come to the spirit of My Son's teaching! Do not go only to the earthly doctors, for my Son healed the sick only by the word. Be faithful and not unfaithful, for the unfaithful are full of sufferance. Those who live on earth in the love of God are those who are the greatest healers, the greatest doctors for the sick ones. I exhort you as a mother for his sons. Come to those who love God, come to learn the love of God, the happiness not known by man! Get healed inside you from the spirit of the world and then live in the Spirit of God on earth, for the earth will become paradise, it will burn and be renewed, and only those who will be with God and with His life in them will remain. Learn the love from my Son, do not learn it from you, do not learn it from the world and do not learn it from man! Be born of God, for you have received your body born out of sin from your parents! Forgive anyone who does wrong to you, to have the grace of God upon you! Those who do not forgive lose God's grace, they lose God's help, for he who denies his brother denies God, and there is no one to tell the man the mysteries of life, the mysteries of the grace in man. Those, who are God's and from God upon people to lead them, do not have greatness among people as that which is on earth, for they are, like my Son, a mystery among people and they are the mysterious fulfillment of God's works, as the Lord worked with me, Who was born out of me after He prepared me to be His way to the people, and I was for Him because I submitted to Him and the angels called me the one full of grace. Always seek to have grace, but you have to learn this work, you have to learn from God, because the teaching for you is with Him, and here it is how He speaks to the people. Oh, learn from me the work of grace, because the Lord filled me with grace by the spirit of the holy submission. Come near to the spirit of the teaching from above, for God's kingdom with the man is from above and he is not from below. Seek after God's love. Grow through it and grow in your love and increase in number as the sons of God's love and you will be the living ones and you will be God's sons on earth, for the love He gives you is that which calls you His sons, God's sons on earth. Amen.

Oh, Lord Son, I have released the voice of love over the people to have teaching and to seek after it at its spring, for You have this spring on earth. Let those who come to receive not look after those who share Your teaching at the spring, but let them seek after You instead, for You are the Teacher and You are the One Who give Yourself to the life of the people. Oh, be comforted with those who have comfort for You, for the people comfort each other and do not know to take from You for them, but they can come to learn from You, if they love the spirit of teaching, and behold, they can take from it, for You give Yourself to the margins with Your teaching, only for the man to bow and to receive, dear Son. Amen.

And you, people come near to the work of God's word, learn the sacrifice of the love for God, and learn it always, for he who learns is he who always works the work of God on the earth. Seek to stay in the light with your life, with your heart, with your work, for the hidden things of man are darkness for him, for God and for men, but you work the work of the light, for the Lord has set you on earth as a healer of the man to heal the man from sin and to give him to God as a kingdom and so that the man may find the mystery of happiness, the life without worries, and happy are those full of grace, who understand for themselves God's mysteries by their faith from God which is put in them and which is the gift of those who are called, chosen and faithful to Him, God's gift in man, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother teaching upon man like your Son! This is My greatness on earth; the godly man, who bears in him the work of God's mysteries, mother. Everything I had prophesied by this word, spoken in fifty-year time, has been fulfilled by fulfilling My kingdom in man, which reigns over those who become My kingdom. Amen. Those who have not understood why I have come with this work on earth now to make the man divine, those come and look and stay reckless and then they doubt and fall in unbelief, for those who seek on earth after God's kingdom and after the fulfilling of My word as on earth, they have not looked well into the Scriptures and in their mysterious fulfilling on earth, for I have not come into on earth for the world, but I have come for those who come out of the world to stay near Me and with My kingdom in them, and with whom I will overcome over those who are unfaithful on earth. Amen.

Those who look at the kingdom of the world do not love God's kingdom. Those who live as on earth and with those on earth eat, they do not know to live within Me, and that is why they live as on earth and from the things on the earth. Those who fall from grace after they come and taste from it, they do not have the faithfulness for My hard way, for My way with My ascent and descent from Me to come after him and to help him so that he may come back somehow from death to life and from the living that comforts the Spirit of God on earth.

My Spirit cries, it cries and cries again, and I have no comfort. Those who know of My pain comfort Me, comfort the pain of My Spirit. I am full of pain and without comfort and I hardly walk with My work of salvation of the man and I want to heal the man from his sin. I came on earth as word to help the man out from sin to holiness. Oh, how shall I do to be able to work as long as I have the work given from the Father to work?

Oh, My today's people, work for God, for God's will is your holiness and then its work, for it has from God a great work, the work of God's saints, work upon people. Oh, My people, My mother the Virgin is a help for you and for man. Help Me too, help her as well, and help the saints to come to you and to the people, for you are the house in which I stay so that the man may come to the doctor and to be healed from sin, and I am the healer of the one who knocks to open and to heal him. Let the one who comes to Me come for the healing after sin and let him not come after something else, and let him come to Me not to you, the one who comes to be healed.

Let the man come to God, My people, and to My table full of good things, that which is full of medicines, and let them become God's kingdom. Amen. Let the man love sufferance and not happiness, for the man is sinful, and he has to be cleaned from all the things that come from sins and which separate him from God, inside and outside of him. Amen.

And as for you, My people, comfort God in His wound with your life. Take Me in you and keep Me warm between Me and you, between you and your brother. Keep Me warm so that I may keep you warm as well and to be warm for each other, for I want to give you the spirit of comfort and for you to give Me back, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-09-2008

The feast of the Holy Cross ascension

In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in this name the entire Christian people on earth believe and is baptized. Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, in this name became and become word now, in the end of the time, for Father has sent Me to work in this way, but for the one who has not understood My cross then and now, his faith is useless, his baptism is useless, if he does not come after Me with his life as the saints followed Me as long as they lived on earth, after their love become love of God in them, love and holiness in their spirit, soul and body.

I come down with a wound, I descend through a wound and My way to the man is harder and harder, with more wounds, with more pains, for the evil spirit comes into My way to break it, to scatter it, but I tell it every time when I descend that in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, I come down after man and that Father is He Who sends Me, for I do not do My will but His will, as the son, faithful to his father, works. The wound of My descent is heavy, and I do no longer find any comfort for it, and My Father has always taken care of it, and My way is only sighing, only sufferance, and it can hardly bear Me on it to come and not to stop from My coming, and hosts of angels help Me as I tell them, for the sufferance for My descent has become a heavy cross, and only it can prevail against the opposing spirit, which strikes My way, for sufferance is with patience and sigh, and these become weapons against the opposing spirit on earth for My coming after man.

"Oh, I have mercy for man, dear Son, suffering and sighing Son on Your way to man." This is what My Father has been used to telling Me seeing My crush and wound, and My mercy for man helps Me on My way, and the man is not able to know My sacrifice for My coming of today, and he has no mercy on God, for the man does not know what mercy is, he does not know what love and mercy are, mercy and love embraced within the same work, for one without the other cannot do anything for God, between God and man, between man and God.

Oh, My people, I have mercy on you and I have mercy on man, and My mercy is only sufferance, and man does not know what My mercy on him is; he does not know that it has become My way of coming again from the Father to man, for the whole hell is on earth, the hell, which stands against My commandments for man and which does not let the man fulfill them; it does not let the man to be sanctified for God and for the eternity with God, and I, the Lord, sigh bitterly and I have no help on earth.

Oh, My people, the man cannot bear sufferance. He seeks only after his comforts and he makes his comfort out of sin, and there is no one to tell him and there is no one to stop him from this lie and there is no one to remind him of My commandments for man which have to be fulfilled by man on earth, for I want the man's life and not his death, My people, which tramples under his foot My commandments and works out death.

Oh, how and in what way shall I speak to the man more not to violate God's commandments? I gave the man and I go on giving him the book of My speaking with you, My book of today, and by which I bring My speaking of two thousand years ago to the man, to his memorial, and God's entire book of history with man, My people. I have always become word of life and repentance for man and I stay into his way to hear and see My mercy on him and to see My waiting and to see My sufferance for him, for God suffers and all the saints suffer in Him from man's departure from God. Man works everywhere only sufferance for God, and he does no longer know that he is seen by God, but on the contrary, he says that the Lord does not see and does not know.

Oh, My people, only into your midst I refresh My pain from man, for I only tell it to you, and then I set My speaking with you before the man who forgets My sufferance from him and who diminish My victory for him against the opposing spirit, which pulls the man away from the way of the commandments of life. I built the man from the beginning and I meant him to be as holy as God and to be the dwelling place of God's rest, but he did not love Me because he did not listen to Me. After the man does not listen to Me, he does not love Me either, for love means obedience, and love does not mean anything else.

Behold, I set before you, people of My word, a mystery that is not understood. Man does not need wisdom, but he needs obedience instead. If the man comes after Me and does not take his cross, that is his obedience, by which he is supposed to follow Me in My entire word upon him, then he becomes My enemy, and he becomes his own enemy too, and this is a greater enemy than before his coming to God, for whoever loses his obedience, also loses his wisdom and the protection of his life, for the lack of man's obedience draws the devil to him, and the devil comes with the man's fearless spirit of God, then he comes with the spirit of doubt and then with the spirit of unbelief, if the man does not come back to repentance and with humility on the way of obedience to God on the way of God's commandments. Oh, read every day, once with your prayer, read God's commandments, son. Make a small note and make it hard so that it may not be broken, and write on it and read from it God's commandments, so that they may not be altered in you, son taught by God, so that God's dwelling in you may not be spoiled, for the hell is on earth, and from everywhere it steals man's watchfulness for God in man, and if he who promises himself to Me does not stay firm, he is overcome by the devil's bait, by the devil's whisper, by the devil's will, which tries to pull the man away to disobedience to God, to the violation of God's commandments in man and between man and man.

It is the feast of the cross, My people. The cross on which I was nailed has come to testify; it has been testifying before the people to the witness of My divinity, for God died on the cross for man, My people. Oh, take care, have mercy on the Lord, for the Lord died for man. Take care of your life, of your salvation from Me; take care not to lose it, for I paid for it two thousand years ago, but you should not lose it, son, but you should struggle to earn it more and more, day by day, and then you will be able to do this only by obedience to God's commandments, son, and which the man crushes in his own body even from his beginning, because man did not listen to God, but he rather listened to the angel of death, which came into being once with the man's disobedience, for man brings forth evil spirits from his mind and heart and from his body, spirits opposing to God and the man forgets about the cross, he forgets about life, for the life is kept in man only by the spirit of obedience, only by the fulfillment of God's commandments for man. When I told the man to listen to Me, I also told him that if he did not listen, he would surely die, and behold, disobedience is the death by which the man dies in his spirit and which brings on him the death of his body then, but who gets up on earth to tell the man that he surely dies by his disobedience to God and that the sin he has committed goes before his death? Behold, I have told this to the man. I have also told him at the beginning and I tell him now too, in the end, and that is why I have had to come again on earth as word upon man. I am the beginning and the end, and after the end there is a beginning again, for I am without the end and I exhort the man to listen as I listened to God, the Father, and I am without the end. Amen.

Oh, the man does not want to believe that he can listen to God if he wants. Oh, the one who does not listen, how to believe? Oh, the one who does not believe, how to listen? Oh, how is supposed to listen he who does not believe? However, you, My people, listen to God, for His commandments are life and victory only for the one who believes in them inside of him and they are faith in the one who fulfills them in his body, in his soul and in his spirit. Amen.

It is the feast of the cross, My people. My sufferance and the sign I suffered two thousand years ago for the man has become a feast of memorial for those who believe by fulfilling God's commandments. Blessed are those who have lifted the wood of My cross to My glory before man, but even more blessed are those who listen to God's word and fulfill it with faith, and let this word be this way in you, son of My people of today, and I go on telling you that a son of My people is only he who fulfills that what I ask him and teach him to fulfill. Amen.

Oh, I do not know how to strengthen My way and coming anymore, for the wound on My way is heavy, heavy, deep and burdensome, and I cannot dispose of it. I am the son of sufferance that comes from man. My sufferance from man has become a heavy cross on Me and seven thousands years of man's disobedience has been piled up on it; seven thousands years of man's death, of man's sin, and the commandments of the life are crushed by man, as crushed as the man who does not want to look into them as to God, for their fulfillment means God in man. The man who sees God is he who fulfills God's commandments and is the one in whom God is seen and who makes life in people, for he has the Lord's power in him, and a man like that becomes a miracle worker and worker of God in man. Such a cross do I want you to carry, and to lift up in order to be seen, My people. The sign of the holy cross[96] is made by the hand of the sinful man on his body. This sign is weak if the commandments of life are not fulfilled inside the man. Behold, there is no one to put the evil spirit away from the earth and from the man's way. Only he who becomes the dwelling place of the life commandments, only that one becomes the mourning of the devils, only that one can take out demons from people, only that one is called that has fast and prayer, holy deed and power through it, and only in this way the man can help the man in his way with life, on the cross of life giving in man's life, who knows and understands what the love of the cross for man means. Love is nothing else but obedience to God and to His entire word for man's life. Love means obedience, My people. The man does not need wisdom, but he needs obedience instead, because faith comes from obedience, steadfastness and fulfillment. The man does not need love, but he needs obedience. This is how I love the Father. Amen.

Let the love between Me and Father be among brothers as well, and let it not be otherwise among the least of My brothers. Amen. Such love the Father has given to you, and by it He has given to you to be called His people, My people, son of My word, which gives you birth to be and then to fulfill it, for if you do not fulfill it, you are not, even if you believed when you heard God's word, which calls all people to the Father, all, for God is full of mercy for man. Amen.

Oh, take care to confess the God inside of you as living and working when you make the sign of the holy cross on your body, son of My word. Oh, take care to be a true Christian, so that you may not make the sign of the cross on your body to your condemnation, so that you may not use God to your condemnation. Oh, take care of My teaching upon you and always read it, My people; read it and fulfill it, because if you do not read it then you violate it. Oh, take care of God in your spirit and body. Do not be a people without a cross; do not be a people without God. Take care, son, for cross means obedience and it does not mean something else, but it means obedience and holiness, and My will is your holiness. Sanctify yourself, son, be holy, My people, for by holiness you will be a son of obedience, a son of love, for love means obedience, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-09-2008.

The feast of the Cover of the Lord's Mother

I, the Lord, come down on earth on the clouds of cherubim over My people into the midst of the Romanian people, and I set My food over it before the people so that they may hear of the God's glory in these days, for two thousand years ago I said: «You will see the Son of Man ascending and descending», for I went to the Father in order to come back again with the spirit of comfort on earth, and this is how I am coming, as I promised that I come. Amen.

[96] See the selection topic: „About the graven image and the sign of the cross", r.n.

I am coming on clouds of cherubim and I am using My gates to enter as word into My book of today, and the gates are opening at My voice and this is how I am coming in to feed you from Me, My today's people. Oh, open for Me to come into your being and listen to My word and fulfill it, for I am this word, I and My fulfillment, which I want to be in you in a great measure, My people. I speak with you sweeter and more beautiful then I spoke with Israel when I had Moses between Me and it, for you are at the end of the time; you are not at the beginning, and you need much comfort and much power to be able to be with God, for the evil spirit is worse than anytime and that is why it has become worse and worse, more wounded and more upset. However, you should not be afraid, people nourished by God, for I, the Lord has always given you My hand and I pass you over pains in My arms over the troubles and waves that try to swallow you and I have always cleaned your face and your little garment, for I know the hard time, as its poison is written into the Scripture and you cannot avoid it, but you can prevail against it with God, for I need a victorious people, now, at the end of the time, because I have to fulfill the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, and then the life of the age to come after the man's ages, and I need you, My people. Oh, let any sort of wind blow, but you stay close to My bosom, for I am God and I can do everything, only for you to be able to believe in Me, to listen to Me and to comfort Me, because I feed you with the spirit of comfort and I give you the gift of holiness, and you, as a baby, come to My bosom and learn your protection from Me, learn to love Me and to believe Me, for he who has faith in My works upon man is great, and everything is possible to the one who has faith, because the Lord can work for him. Amen.

I am into your midst with My mother, the Virgin, My people and we are accompanied by saints, prophets and apostles, and these watch and feed you on My word, and we are carried on the clouds by cherubim, for this is how My coming with the saints is prophesied, and My glory from the end of the time is great, for it is at the end, and the end prepares the beginning and the life of the age that is to be on earth after the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead is fulfilled. Amen.

I have set order into your midst the everyday sacrifice from Me for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, oh, and how mysteriously I work, My people! In the time of My coming on earth by My birth of the Virgin mother, I fulfilled then the Scriptures spoken by the prophets about Messiah's coming and about God's kingdom on earth with man and all the fulfillments remained mysterious for they have been fulfilled mysteriously for those who believed in them. Those who hoped in earthly achievements for My kingdom with man, they did not understand and then they did not believe in My coming, and I was telling them that God's kingdom was not of this world and that it was in those who loved it in them, and Me as their master, the Master of their lives and love on earth. Oh, today it is the same. I, the Lord, fulfill mysteriously everything I declare, for I do not set the fulfillments on the sons of men, for only on those who are and become God's sons among people, and My promises belong to them, only for them to know to perceive and carry them in them and over them, for My kingdom with them is not of this world, but it is from heaven and it is with the heaven in the midst of the faithful ones, and this heaven is My throne, whose bed is the earth, as it is written.

Oh, the man does not understand My mysteries and My speaking about them. The man does not understand the mysteries of the church. The church is a great mystery because it is My kingdom, which does not have anything in this world through which it passes and is glorified by giving glory to God for its faith in Him. It believes in the Father, in the Son and in the Holy Spirit, confessing the baptism for the forgiveness of sins and waiting for the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age to be.

Oh, there is no church on earth any longer, for the work of the church overcomes the world, as I overcame it. The work of the church is God's kingdom on earth with people, and this mystery is in Christ and in church, it is not in this world. I longingly want the man to understand God's mystery, the mystery of the church, and that is why I have come as word on earth, now, in the end of the time. I have come to teach the man the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on earth with him and his faith in this fulfillment, and I have come to fulfill. Amen.

Come, mother, let Us work before the people Our speaking with the man, faithful to My coming. Come, mother, to strew over man the wisdom and the faith for the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age that is to come, for this age is not, because what it is, it is and does not pass away, mother. Come, mother, come to make the man's building for the man to be then, because that which is not built is not, mother.

– Oh, the man is not built, he is not made, Son of the Father and mine, for You are the Creator of everything, and in order for You to give birth to the man from above, You have to build in him first the kingdom of the heavens, my dear Son and God of the faithful ones.

Oh, the man cannot love the kingdom of the heavens in him, for the man loves sin in him, and sin is death. The man dips his morsel in sin and eats it and he is not fed with God. Oh, the man cannot have control over himself to take God's kingdom in him then and to glorify it in him, Son Lord. You have come now on earth with the wonder of Your speaking over man, but the man is unfaithful and believes only what he sees, poor of him, for he has corrupted his sight for Your things and he sees only the things of the man. You have come on earth with the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, and Your voice into the midst of Your people is heard by those in the graves, for You have set a daily sacrifice into the midst of Your people and they are called out to resurrection, to remission of sins and then to their resurrection, for the prophet David blessed the Lord and said: «Praise the Lord, my soul, the Lord Who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases. He redeems your life from destruction; Who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies; He will not always accuse; neither will He stay angry forever. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His loving kindness toward those who fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. Like a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord, has compassion on those who fear Him. For He knows how we are made. He remembers that we are dust. As for man, his days are grass. As a flower of the field, so he perishes. For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more. But the Lord's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear Him; to those who keep His covenant; to those who remember to obey His precepts». (Ps: 103/1-4; 9-18; 103 MT[97] = 102 LXX[98])

Oh, people of God's word, my Son! He exhorts you to fulfill His precepts that His mercy may always be on you. Oh, teach the people the mystery of the resurrection of the dead, for the people do not know and do not have a teacher to tell them and to teach them the resurrection and the life. Tell them that you are ordained by God to speak and to work the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, and then they may come to life, and they will come to life and testify God's work, Who leads you in these days, and Who speaks over the living and the dead, for my Son spoke [97] Masoretic text.

[98] The Septuagint. The Septuagint derives its name from Latin septuaginta interpretum versio, "translation of the seventy interpreters" (hence the abbreviation LXX) two thousand years ago that the time would come for those in the tombs to hear His voice and to come to life. Amen.

Oh, sons and daughters of my Son's word, Who gives birth to man from above! Open the book of His teaching on you and follow His teaching, for the resurrection of the dead comes and the people have to fear God and to fulfill His commandments on earth so that the Lord may remove from them the reward of their transgression. Teach the people their resurrection from sin, their resurrection from death. Tell those who call themselves Christians, that to be a Christian means to live in the spirit, soul and body in Christ and not in this world. And how comes in this world? That is in its desires, for my Son whispered in the ear of those who hear Him speaking; He said that as the man dips his morsel of bread or polenta in the tray with greaves, in the same way he spreads his morsel of sin and spoils his heart, his body against the spirit of the life of my Son, in man. Oh, always watch for your resurrection, always, always for resurrection. Love one another as my Son has loved you. How has He loved you? He laid down His life for you. And you should do the same to each other and work the resurrection in a spirit of humility to each other, and in the same way, you should exhort those who ask you about God, Who speaks with you. Oh, build each other in Christ. This means to love one another as the Lord, Jesus Chris, my Son, has loved you. Oh, I would like to speak very much with you; I would very much build you and teach you very much with the spirit of resurrection by my speaking, but you have much instruction upon you, for the wisdom of the word of my Son upon you is great. Keep watch for one another for the Lord's teaching upon you, for there comes the resurrection of the dead, which waits in the dust of the earth, and this Scripture waits after you. The Lord wants you to be one and one, and all of you to be grown at the same stature, built equally and equally filled with God. Ask for the growth upon you. Set watchmen to feed you from God, to feed you continually, for it is given to them to feed you according to His order. He who takes grown from himself, that one is not a beautiful child, and he who receives growth from the hand of those ordained by God for you, that one is blessed and protected from death, because this means for man to pass from body into spirit. Oh, blessed are those who listen to those who are ordained by God over them! Blessed are those who become a field, for those who sow God's kingdom in man. Blessed are those who listen to the advise and hand of those who work from God upon them, because man has to deny himself and he can do this only in obedience, for there have been great people on earth in their rank and love for God, and when they longed after their salvation more, they bowed down and went to obedience, to self-denial and to their cross bearing in order to be saved, for he who is saved is he who saves from his self, and man's salvation is nothing else, but the saving life in man.

Oh, listen to God's precepts, you, God's sons, and listen to those who are ordained by God to lead you so that you may be guided sons, obedient sons. Amen.

And as for You, my Lord and Son, teach the sons of men the wisdom of resurrection. Come with this table before them and send angelic hosts to touch their souls by the sweet wind of Your word on earth, word that comforts and which calls and gives life, and have mercy on the Romanian country according to Your promises for it, and crown it with the spirit of the fear of God and then with the spirit of resurrection, and remember the prophecy made to king David, who spoke and said: «As far as the heaven is from the earth, as far as the east is from the west, so far is the Lord's mercy for those who fear Him». Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, oh, mother of those who are built in Me! Your spirit of mother of God's sons is sweet! Let the men's sons learn, mother, for We have to heal the man from the spirit of son. I told those who set Us in the book that as the man dips his morsel of bread or polenta in the tray with greaves, in the same way he dips his morsel in sin and then swallows it up spoiling his heart and body in it against the spirit of My live in man, and We and those who share Us to the people have to teach the people the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, mother. Amen.

Oh, people led by God from heaven and from the earth! Come to be nourished, come, son, and stay and learn. As the chicks of the swallow stay in their nest and receive food from their mother, taking in their little beak from its beak, and as they grow to fly, in the same way you should grow to eat and to grow, to be able to be useful to God and to feed the people with the Spirit of God so that He may grow in people, in such a way that the people may be saved from the bondage of sin. Oh, My people, the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead is worked into your midst on earth. I have built you for the resurrection of the dead and I put into your midst the daily sacrifice and I have not put not in this world and for its children. Oh, My people, your mystery with Me frighten the demons. Therefore, sanctify yourself! Get up every day and be more and more with your spirit above your body, for behold, the spirit is that which gives you life. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Let much and much peace be between Me and you, and this means the fulfillment of God's commandments over your being and between brother and brother. Oh, do not be afraid of bad people; do not be afraid of storm. I am He Who protects you, because you cannot do this. I can, and you should be able to work for God. I can, and you should work resurrection. Amen.

Resurrection to you, My people, and resurrection from your over the sons of men! The Spirit of the resurrection is that which is worked from heaven on earth in these days of the speaking of God's Son over the living and over the dead. I am the resurrection and the life. I was born on earth to be with the people and to remain with them after that to the end of the time and then to give them their resurrection, and to give them the life of the age that is to be, and they should believe it and have it, as My promise is written for those who are faithful and holy, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-10-2008

The feast of the devout Parascheva

(Excerpt)

I make Myself heard by those who stand on My behalf as gates of My entrance to My people born of My word from above in this time of My second coming from the Father to man.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ and I am speaking over My church on earth, which has into its midst the word of God, spoken at this time by My mouth, for I have made it My church now, in the end of the time, that I may become in it body and word on its altar, and it has to give to the sons of men My word for the resurrection of the dead and of the living ones, because I, the Lord, have to fulfill now the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead and of the living ones, for these are going to meet and they are going to meet My glory and then we will be in glory, as it is written for this Scripture to be fulfilled. Amen.

… Oh, My people, strengthen your love, son, and strengthen the watch for My coming to you as word of creation, word of life giving, son. Take care of love and protect its life in you, for he who loses the love and its gifts, that one also loses the faith with its good things of man building. Take care to know how to value love and its glory from above, for he who makes his comfort out of love, that one has got self-love and not the love of the cross as I have taught the man to follow Me when he comes to Me. I would teach you very much and I would always teach you and stay with you in the word, My people, for the saints want My coming to you so that they may also come to you as word, as it is the time of the Scripture of My coming with the saints, only that My entrance to you stands in the power of those in the gates, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) and when I come, I find them always crushed within the gates, and I have nothing else to do than submit them to My power in order to have My word come into the book, for I have much to speak over the earth, and the saints also have. I feel sorry of the saints, when I see that they also want to come with Me as word on earth and that they want to speak to you and to the people, My people, and I do no longer know how to strengthen My entrance into My book of today. Apostle John and apostle Thomas have also waited for Me to come with them in the word of the book so that they may also speak on their day of synod, so that they may also confess, so that they may also preach Me in My coming with the saints, as it is written in the Scripture for Me to come in the time of the end, and thus that they may also give the strengthening of the faith and advice with love upon you, My people. Behold, I cannot speak as much as I have to speak, as much as I have to come. I am the merciful One, and when I see that there is no power for My coming to you through the gates, then I understand the pain of those who carry Me to you and I do not want to crush them too by My great power, for I need to come as little as possible, but I want to be able to come. Oh, I have always asked you to help Me too for My coming and I have advised you how to accomplish this. I would give you in abundance to have the gift of the holy comfort, to help Me with it for the work of My coming during these days. I would give you, for you to bear the burden for My coming, that for the salvation of many, but only for you to want Me to give you to have and, I have already given to you. I would give you much love to help Me with it, only for you to ask Me this, for I give you at your request. I would give you, My people, to bear and to work with many gifts, only that I may find out that you ask Me and that you wait for Me with them. I say so because there is so much work on earth, and I do not have workers. It is the time of the harvest and I do not have workers. You are the sign before My coming, but you need to have time for the work from above, too, not only for that from below, My people. I would have liked to have a great people of apostles now, or that I could be able to come in My word with the apostles from heaven and to be able to work with them, even if there is so little faith on earth for My coming with the saints, My coming prophesied through the Scriptures. I would have also liked to work much over the earth, but the man cannot do for Me as much as I expect from him.

14/27-10-2008.

The feast of the great saint martyr, Demetrios, the myrrh giver

(Excerpt)

Let every son, faithful to My order, let them come under the hand of those who bless, and let each one of them know to wait in the order of his division, for every Christian has his own time and root. Amen.

Oh, sons, faithful of My people, seek to come under the hand of the shepherds that I have set over you for blessing and do not despise them because I am the One Who have set them as shepherds, for woe to the sheep that have no shepherd, that do not have the hand to bless God's sons on their head! Oh, those who listen and come to graze under the staff of a shepherd are sheep, and other kind of sheep are not sheep but goats, and the goats jump and butt; they climb to break the little trees and branches from the trees, for they are not content with the grass; on the other hand, the sheep mourn, speak, comfort, warm up and are patient and do not rebel but stay under the hand of their shepherds. Come under blessing, under the hand of the shepherds, for if you are not found so, you will not be protected from evil, from the lie on earth and from its noisy face, which touches with its signs all over those who do not have on their head the seal of the living God and His new name, the Word of God. Amen.

It is a day of the feast for the saints and martyrs. These were My disciples on earth and by the gate of confession they have come into My bosom full of faithful and fighting sons for Me on earth. Oh, sons of My people, the word of the blessing, which comes upon man by the faith in his heart, is great! Come under the hand of the shepherds for blessing, for you knew and know the order from Me upon you.

— Oh, Good and Gentle Shepherd! I am the one celebrated on this day in a synod of confessing martyrs. I am giving holy power and zeal as Mine, too, I am giving to those who were and are Your today's people, and I am telling them that all those who are Yours on earth, they are those who bring You fruit of disciples and confessors of Yours. This kind of work have those who are Yours on earth. Amen.

(…)

*

I, the Lord, make My entrance with the saints into My today's book, and the gates are opening at My voice, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) at the news that I am coming into the book. Amen.

Let the love of God increase, and let the gift of the holy faith increase, too, in all the sons of My people, for love has to grow more and more, and let it never decrease, for he who loses love, that one loses the gift of the faith as well, and woe to the one who has eaten with Me at this table and then leaves Me for other gods! An abortion is happier than a man like that, who will come to give an answer to God for his unbelief and his lack of steadfastness, and, behold, My people, the virgin soul is greater than the virgin body. He who is a virgin in his soul does not follow other gods, he does not follow them at all, sons, but he loves God with his heart, in which he lives, and in his thought, in which he rejoices in the Lord; he has no other gods besides Me, and he takes after Abraham and David, whose name I, the Lord, have carried on earth, I, and those who are Mine. Amen.

Oh, the virginal soul is a great mystery, My people, and it will be to speak to you about this mystery, and you should think well about it and sit yourself within it, sons, for there will not remain stone upon stone of everything man has created on earth; rather man will remain face to face to God and happy will be the one who learn well to say beforehand: «The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord». (See Job: 1/21), for nothing will remain before Me except the man and his body, soul and house, that will have to give an answer to God for his life and that is why I said that happier will be an abortion that has not tasted of the light of life on earth, than the one who has known that God has been in this word and who has not kept his virginal soul, the one built by God in him.

… Oh, sons of God-Word, be confessors, as from you very much is required, according to what it was given to you. Come under the mystery of blessing for that is which gives you power and not you. He who believes in God's word, that one is under blessing, and he who does not stay under blessing, that one is not a confessor. Look among yourselves to those who have come out of blessing, as they have no longer confessed before men their faith in this word, but rather they have kept silent and been ashamed of God, Who shepherds with an iron rod over the nations of the earth, as it is written, rebuking gently, as His word is going now over the earth as fast as lightning[99] and it searches with its torch everything man has done in secret from God and it brings into the light the man's work because man is a liar. Oh, love the Lord as He teaches you to love, for the love of God does not walk at random, if man has it, but it stays under blessing instead, if it is in man. Be for God, and be against His enemies and against the enemies of your souls and be strong too in the spirit of your faith and confession, for only those who believe are those who confess. Be awake completely, as those in the graves will stand up and will confess this coming of the Lord to you as the word of resurrection of the dead and the living. Be angels of the spirit of confession on earth, for the hosts of the fire of God's angels will confess the Lord's whole work with you, all the care that you have received from the good Shepherd over your souls. Amen.

[99] See the selection topic: „As lightning that comes from the east, so is the coming of the Lord", r.n.

… — I, the Lord, confessed by the saints, am blessing this coming feast and which will gather people at the spring, the feast of the angels. I am sending the angels to come into the way of those who are coming at their feast to protect it and to comfort it for them, and then to lead it to the spring. Here, I and My angels are going to speak to them and to all the heavenly hosts, which are coming with Me, accompanying Me everywhere in heaven and on earth, and I am going to speak to those in the graves and to give them power of resurrection, as I do everything by the word and I make them all new. Amen.

… I am blessing the day of the feast of the angels. Let it be a day of comfort and of the spirit of understanding of God's mysteries! Let it be a day of heavenly blessing over the head and over the soul of the Romanian people, which is being tested at this time for the life from above or from that from below of this nation! Let the Romanian people become wise from heaven, from God's Spirit, and let it not be able to do its will but My will on earth so that God may be its father and it to be God's people on earth among people, for the mystery of this nation is great, and this land will be the land of the saints, a blessed land in the end; it will be a heavenly homeland before Me. Amen.

26-10/08-11-2008.

The Synod of the saint archangels Michael and Gabriel

The heaven is opening and the word of God is coming down on earth. Those that are not seen by human eyes come down among those that have been seen even from their making, for God made the heaven and the earth, the visible and invisible things.

The Lord comes down on earth as word, accompanied by heavenly hosts, those that are without body, because it is the feast of His angels. Amen. I, the Lord, announce Myself at the gates in heaven above and on the earth beneath. I open the heaven when I announce Myself with My descent, and I announce Myself in heaven to the angels when I descend, for I have the angels as My servants, and, again, I announce Myself on earth to those who stay for Me as the gates set by Me for My coming as word, for I have them as My servants. Amen. I have the seraphim near Me, those with six wings, loving of God, and they are in the image of fire, for it is written: «The garment of His glory is like fire». Oh, you who have come together at My spring of word for the feast of angels, pray to the seraphim to kindle you, to warm you and to give a godly nature to your love. Amen. Then I also have cherubim before Me, those with many eyes, out of which understanding and wisdom is poured out for the spiritual eyes, to give them the sight of God's knowledge and of the mysteries from above. Oh, pray to the cherubim to illuminate your souls with the spirit of the knowledge from above. Amen. God's carriers, that is the thrones, this is how they are called, because I rest in them as it is written: «You, God Who make justice, sit on Your throne». Oh, you who rule and reign upon people, pray to God's carriers, to the thrones, which give rest to God, to give you the spirit of the right judgment. Amen. The dominions, the powers and the principalities come in a row in My heavenly glory, and these rule over the angels from below who give people the power of reign and of the wise stewardship over those entrusted to them, hosts of people, and then the powers which help the people in all their work, giving them greatness of soul in troubles and submissions, and the principalities have power over the devilish spirits, protecting the people and helping them for the kingdom of the heavens, which is earned by the victory against lusts and their hostile thoughts. Then there come in a row, the beginner spirits, the archangels and angels. The beginner spirits ordain the angels from below for services commanded by God over nations and lands, raising the worthy ones among people on positions of honor and exhorting them to praise God and not to look after their own benefits. The archangels are those who announce God's mysteries, the prophecies and the Lord's will, to increase in people their faith and understanding, and the angels, those who are close to the people, protect the people and protect them from falling and they raise them when the fall, and behold, this is the angels' ministering, receiving service from one another. Amen.

I, the Lord, come with heavenly hosts and stay above you, people gathered at the spring. He who has ears to hear from God, let him hear My word with them and let him give you from Me by a ministering of angels, for I have ministering angels of My works, and this is how I serve from heaven and down to the earth between Me and man. I work through angels, and so little do the people know about angels, My people! The angels do not have a body and they surround Me and are My garment, and that is why the man cannot see Me, but I have a body and I go from place to place with the man, and the angels cover Me. I tell you, My people, about those that are not seen and are. Be faithful, therefore, for the unbelievers do not know to have the Lord as their Master, they do not know to keep away from their falling from God. I have called you to the spring, to refresh your understanding from above for those from above, then your faith and then the works of your life, son, for the ministering angels from Me up to you work from Me for you, and you should not be a pagan within your heart, but you should rather love the Lord with it, because the Lord is, son. I would like you to receive the mystery of the virginal heart and not to love other gods beside Me, for the common man cannot perceive how many gods the man is able to worship. However, you have been very much taught by God and I will ask an answer from you for everything I have given you to know, and I will give you a grade for everything that you have learned. I have work to do with you on earth, the work of resurrection, son, for I have lifted you up from the people for the resurrection of the dead to be My people, now, in the end of the time. Be faithful when I tell you that all those from the graves wait after you to come to their resurrection[100], for I have released upon you a mystery through those that are My gates and I have spoken through them about those that are not seen and I said that I have worked to do with you with depth, up and down, in heaven and on earth, for the unfaithful man works on earth and those that are seen are on earth. Oh, pray for the increasing of your faith and sight for those that are not seen, and let us work for these, son, for I need servants on earth, and I have angels as servants in heaven, for there is much to be served for the fulfillment of the last Scriptures, My people. The angels exhort you to the spirit of love and to the spirit of faith and then to the spirit of the comfort for Me, to be able to make you a healer from Me over the Romanian nations, My people, for this nation needs healing from sin and unbelief, and behold, I call it out again to its healing, for My wound for this nation is great, into whose midst My Father has sent Me to do now the work of My coming again from Father to man. Oh, the Romanian nations sleeps towards Me, and I try to teach it its resurrection and to call it on its name, to call it out from its unbelief and to give it the spirit of the understanding of My mysteries, for this nation has God's election upon it.

[100] See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead", r.n.

Oh, Romanian nation, do not let yourself be overwhelmed by ignorance of God! Oh, not this way! I have made great heavenly love come down for you and I have reminded you of Me and you. You have with Me a heaven of saints on your hearth and those who cry out to Me for your resurrection. Here I am into your midst as word of love and resurrection. Angelic hosts accompany Me. I have opened the heaven again, I have come down on your hearth as word, and I have made you sit with Me at the table to eat from My mouth. I feed you bit by bit, as the parents feed their children. Take, eat and come to the spirit of understanding and do not work anything without God, for it is not good to play with your life. It is written into the Scriptures: «Let he who does not love God be accursed!» (1 Cor: 16/22) The angels who fell after the man built by Me became haughty and fell from heaven exhort you to serve other gods. Lucifer, who became satan because of the man's haughtiness, draws you to your service with him, for he sees your election and he does not like your place near Me, and he wants to take your life away from Me. Oh, let us serve the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit and let us make any effort to be able to do it too for those who fell by their haughtiness, people and angels, and let us do the work for the establishing of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, for those who are not seen will no longer be when the calling to account will come for all people on earth about their life and its works. Be a wise nation and do not doubt of the truth of My coming to you as word of resurrection. Oh, do not doubt because there are not many those who are My people of today and by which I rely on with My today's coming. In the time of Noah there were not many who pleased God either. Neither in the time of Israel nor in My time could many people be distinguished, but as few as they were, they were God's kingdom on earth and they fulfilled My Scriptures with the man for that time. I promised Israel many good things, many fulfillments, but because it did not enter into them and into My rest and theirs, those that I promised were not fulfilled for it and for Me with it. Oh, I have meant so many prophecies, so many good things over the nation of Israel among the nations, but I have not put in vain the parable of the wise virgins and of the foolish ones into the Scriptures, for behold, the virgin body does not watch, but the soul watches when it watches, and the heart watches as well, by love and by faith in it.

Oh, Romanian nation, your land is sealed by the Father for My coming back after two thousand years. The ministering angels on My behalf over the people leave over you the spirit of understanding of God's mysteries into your midst. You are in a time of trial for your life from above and from beneath. I ordain you to become wise from heaven and not to be able to do your will, that which stands against you, but to do My will on earth instead so that God may be your father, and you to be His nation among nations. My angelic hosts are ready to serve you to do My will for you and not your will, because you are My chosen people. I do not come to ask you anything but the faith that the Lord is He Who comes to you to lead you for your life and you to serve Him for the resurrection of the dead. Man is not king on earth, and it is not good to be so, but it is good for the man to have God as his master. Amen. Oh, you shall not become haughty in your spirit and say that God is for you, for Israel said the same thing after I made it to be God's people, and then Israel fell from My face because it rose against Me when I come to appear before it, to announce Myself to it and to announce it with Me on earth. The angelic armies comfort your forehead and give you great news. Do you hear how beautifully the heavenly armies comfort you because you are Mine?: "Rise from earth to heaven, Romanian nation, for you are Christ's confessors at your root, who ask for the reward of their faith and sacrifice. Your place is before the Lord, for before Him your saints stand and ask for you to be with them before Him. You should have justice and peace as your way. Your should have mercy and love as your power, and let your faith teach you to sow a new seed on the ground, the news of the kingdom of the heavens, as John, the Baptizer, and then the Lord, Jesus Christ said. Work out light for you and not darkness, for the darkness comes to its end and there will be a reward for those who will have worked them, and the light is the Lord, Who comes to you and is glorified with His light into your midst." Amen.

I, Romanian nation, I, the Lord, dedicate you with the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and I lead you to My will and to your victory. Give voice to your prayer and say like this: Lord, may Your will be done over the destiny that is from You of the Romanian nation and come! And come to save us! Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, you from the tombs, who have found My calling to the spring, you have come from the place of your waiting to hear My voice in the garden! My angels are your servants, and you are full of longing and appreciation for My new people, to whom I am coming today and near whom I call you to come and I gather you for your comfort too. Oh, get up! Get up more and more with every passing day and come out! This is written to be fulfilled. Amen.

– Oh, Good and great Savior, have mercy on us, God, according to Your mercy, and according to Your great endurance, wipe out our transgression from Your face and wash us from our sins! Do Your church good, Lord, and let the walls of new Jerusalem be built, which those in the tombs so much have waited for! Strengthen the work of Your word and bless this little village where You call us and bring us together at the voice of Your archangel who serves to announce the resurrection of the dead, and bless with all Your blessings those who have ears to hear from You and through You from those in heaven and from those on earth! Your way from heaven and to the place of our waiting is everything that is loved and appreciated by man on earth, and we have waited for thousands of years to reveal Your sons of today and with whom You have made Your coming for those who are alive and for those who are dead in their body and soul. We need light. You are the light, but You are also the word, and Your word is the light. Oh, Your word is sweet for those who wait for it, and we, those from the tombs, wait after Your word, oh Good Savior! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, it is written that from the bosom of the earth the shadows will come to life. I, the Lord, comfort you with the word of the comfort in the place of your waiting. In the days to come there will no longer be death and dead people, but it will be life and resurrected people, as it is written. Amen. I give you comfort and I give you patience until you catch spirit, until the earth will give you back at the voice of My archangel. Peace to you! Resurrection to you! And you will listen to My announcement and you will come up. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, people that have come to the spring from everywhere, I embrace you with the heavenly armies. I ask you not to forget God, for if you do forget Him, then your forgetfulness brings death to you, son. Oh, come and make bold your name in the book. Ask Me how you should do this. Oh, you shall not depart from the spring of My word, which comes to raise the dead to life! Refresh yourself, for you have to be refreshed, you have to be sanctified, sanctified again and again, My people. Ask Me how you have to do this. Oh, love God, oh, come back to the first love and see how that day was for you and how you were for it. Oh, do not tread upon the word spoken by God upon you, but fulfill it immediately lest the angels, fallen from glory because of their serving the man's haughtiness, write you as a son of disobedience. Come back to your first love, for My light seeks for a place with light from heaven on it. I forgive everything you have done wrong. Come back to life! Come back to obedience with love! Oh, do no longer slide down, oh, do no longer be slow in your coming, for the time has passed and it needs redemption! The world is on the earth, but the Lord is into your midst, people nourished at My bosom. Amen.

May the feast of the angels be blessed! You shall spend within a spirit of feast, My people, and make the angels spend time with you. Draw the angels toward you and to your service for Me, for man's service for God draws the hosts of angels to man. Amen.

Those asleep have remained now in My gardens, My people, until the day when the public call will be made, for I, the Lord, have called them ahead of time. And as for you, My people, sacrificing for My spoken word, which calls to the spring those who are thirsty, you shall not forget that I, the Lord, have a great longing for man. Amen.

I have comprised within My spirit and word those who have come together at the feast of the angels. I have given them power to become and to be God's sons, for the sons are those who listen. Peace to you, My people! I would always teach you. The life from above is not from the earth. Oh, do not receive life from the earth! Take it from My mouth and hand, and in order to be able to see, look at the Scripture that says: «Come out of the world, My people!» Oh, those who do not come out of the world cannot get away from the wine of its burning, and the world will be punished according to its works, according to its face. Amen.

Let there be peace between Me and you, My people! Let there be peace between you and Me! Peace to you! Oh, stay at My bosom to be My child, to be My son and in such a way that no one may snatch you from My hand, My people! Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-11-2008

The feast of the great saint martyr, Catherine

(Excerpt)

… I, the Lord, am coming down into the book with a feast of saints, My people. No matter how weak or how wrong you may be, you are great before Me when I am able to come down into your midst with the whole word of My today's glory, for My glory is the word, as it was in the beginning and as it is. I am glorifying Myself in the word into your midst, and your faith is God's gift upon you, My people. If I did not give you, you would not have faith in My today's coming to you. Behold those who have given this gift away from them! Take a look at them to see how those who lose the gift of faith are and keep away from the snake of doubt, sons, as for the one who is bitten by this serpent, his eyes, his years, his mind and his faith become corrupted and he becomes reckless of his sickness, even if his spirit sighs.

… Martyr Catherine proclaims from Me My glory in the holy ones and leaves the word of calling the man to God, because these are those who believe in Me on earth, and I am their Lord and God and I am glorifying Myself in them on earth and in heaven for their love. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Lord of the powers in heaven and on earth, the today's work of Your word brings You down to man with the saints on earth, for the air is the homeland of Your saints, and those in the air see, for the Spirit is the One Who sees and brings life to man. I am telling the men's sons and daughters that I denied of myself and of those who loved me for them and I chose You as my love, for You love man for what he is for his eternal life, Lord. I tell the sons and daughters of men that I have forsaken myself and those who loved me for them, and I have chosen You to love, after I had found that You are the Way, the Truth and the Life. I gave You my wisdom after I had given myself to You and You worked it, made of it heavenly beauty and dwelt in it and You made me a disciple with a life giving spirit and I gave life to the people and saved them from death, and I had no longer worked any death upon man as the woman did, for the woman has been working death to man for seven thousand years and if she has done this, she is mad. When the serpent, the wisest among all the beasts, came near and asked the woman in paradise: «Why then has God said: Do not eat of every tree of the garden?» And the woman replied: «Of the fruit of the tree of the garden we may eat, but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die». (Gen: 3/2-4) Oh, if she had been obedient to God, she would have understood about what kind of death the serpent spoke to her when he said: «You won't surely die, for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil». (Gen: 3/5) And because the woman looked then at the tree, she liked after she had eaten and she liked to know after she had known, she took, and, while eating she gave to her husband and he ate with her, and then their eyes were opened and they knew and liked to know and then they were afraid of God, Whose world they violated and then covered the shame of their nakedness, the place on their body through which they knew the pleasure of disobedience, and they made covers around their bodies as it is written, and when they heard the Lord's voice walking through the garden they hid from God among the trees. However, the Lord called Adam to show up and give an answer to God, and Adam said to the Lord: «I am naked». «Oh, who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?» (Gen: 3/10-11) This is what God asked him and he told the Lord who was the guilty one.

Oh, woman needs wisdom and not the taste of pleasure, for the longing after pleasure makes man look at her and after her, so that his eyes may be open for her. In serpent there was God's hidden wisdom, but in woman was lust and pleasure, and if she took from the tree, her pleasure and knowing of pleasure were opened to her and then man was attracted to her and fell through her; the man built by God fell in disobedience and fell through the woman.

Oh, God's daughters, and you, men's daughters! Understand and perceive how the man built by God fell, for I understood and rejected from me the fruit of the man's death, which becomes pleasure in the body, and I gave myself to the obedience of God, for I had mercy on man, and I opened the men's eyes to God, not to pleasure or knowledge, for knowledge brings pleasure in man and then it brings haughtiness, and man thinks that he is by this sin, and then he falls from happiness. Oh, pray to the Lord, Who is good, holy and loving, pray so that He may give you the wisdom of holiness and give birth to holiness over the men's sons and daughters, as I worked.

Let the woman deny the lust of her body so that she may not stir the lust of the eyes in man, as by these two sins the pride of man is built in man and the man does not know that this is death, not life. The man does not love the woman but through her he loves sin, as it was from the beginning of man. When a man joins with his wife, he joins with her for sin, for he is blind because the woman blinds the man and the man does not see anything else but only his woman. Oh, wake up from death, daughters of men and become daughters of God; become life for people as I did and remained on earth as the fruit of God's wisdom, for I raised the dead at my confessing voice, I raised the man from sin. The wise of the earth rose from sin and have given themselves to be God's dwelling place, which is not loved by those who love the emptiness of life. I give you the word of wisdom from above: flee from the sin of the love of yourselves! Flee from yourselves and join with the angels and with the saints and man and the whole creature will rise and there will be the resurrection of the dead, and the living and the dead will thank you, for this is how I loved the world; I loved it as Christ did and gave myself to the death of the body for the confession of Christ so that everyone who believes in Him shall not die but have eternal life, as I have and given life and light over man from it. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My people, the saints speak with people on earth and the life of their word is great, for they have taken in them light from light and they have taken from Me and have it in heaven and give themselves to the people. Be faithful, My people, for the saints are alive, as Moses and Elijah appeared alive on the mount of My glory. Be truly faithful, for I am the God of those alive and the saints are alive, and you have to believe in their confession from heaven. You have seen how the serpent spoke with the woman in paradise and this conversation is written in the Scriptures. You have seen how I spoke with man in paradise and My conversation with him is written in the Scriptures. You have seen how I spoke with My servants in time and My conversation with them is written in the Scriptures. See and now, for I am speaking with you because I can do this and the saints are speaking with you, for they live in Me as is written. I teach you to believe, son. Be faithful, and let every man on earth hear My conversation with you and let Us help man believe in My living with you, in My counsel with man on earth, son. Come, sons, to set in man the faith that I am the One Who comes, that I am Who I am! Come, My people, to sow over the people the faith that God is with them, that everything, which is on earth, speaks with God and that man has completely fallen and denied himself of the Creator of all things.

25-11/08-12-2008.

The seventeenth feast of the dedication of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

(Excerpt)

And now, My people, bring, son, a song of praise for the day of memorial of the sealing of the little garden of My word, out of its midst, I, the Lord, give Myself over the earth with the voice of My second coming from the Father to man. I have spoken with those in the gates, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) with those who have sat in council for the fate of the Romanian people. I become word on the heart of this people and I exhort every man on earth to drink of this river of life giving and to come to life in incorruptibility. Amen.

29-11/12-12-2008

The feast of the Saint Virginia, God's trumpet

(Excerpt)

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, This is One God and He proclaims Himself over the earth. Amen.

The Lord is coming down into His garden into the midst of the Romanian people. The Lord is coming with His saints and is proclaiming Himself in His descent. The Lord is descending as word over the earth, and He is coming down into His book as word of feast. I am making Myself heard at the gates, and it is opened for Me to come in with My glory to the people of My word. My glory is the word, as it also was in the beginning when I made the heaven and the earth, the visible and the invisible things, and then I made man, saying: «Let Us make man in Our image and after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the cattle, and all over the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth». (Gen: 1/26) And after the heaven and the earth were finished, and all their hosts, God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good. And on the seventh day God finished His work, which He has made, and then He rested on the seventh day from all His work, which He had done. (See also Gen: 1/31; 2/1-2) Amen.

Oh, My people, this is how I have also waited for the rest for the creation of today, which I want to finish, and then I want to rest from all My work. In the beginning, God rested after He had made man, which He made on the sixth day, and on the seventh day, God finished His work of creation and rested from it, and then He blessed and hallowed the seventh day, resting on it.

Peace to you, My people! I am into your midst as word of creation, sons. My trumpet, Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) as I, the Lord, called her on earth when I blew from her over a people which heard My word sounded by her mouth, behold, she is with Me and with the armies of saints and angels with whom I am coming down to you on the day of the feast of her coming on earth from heaven. Oh, happy is the man who believes in those that are written in the Scriptures about the whole God's work, which was, which is and which has to be and to be done, and the one who does not look into the Scriptures to believe in their fulfillment, that one is not happy, but he is temporary instead, and everything which is temporary is sad. Oh, you will be happy, people nourished from My mouth, from My word, if you believe in it and in its fulfillment, and concerning the one who believes, that one will not be temporary, sons, but rather he will be enclosed in My glory and My glory is the word, as I have told you that it is. I embrace you within My word to be a happy child son. Oh, let yourself be enclosed in My word to be happy, as anyone who does not let himself to be comprised by it, that one is sad and this is the sign of his little faith, a faith that struggles to be. Oh, not that way, sons, for I, the Lord, said that the one who believes has nothing to lose, but he does not have to be content only with that, but he has to rejoice believing and to be happy if he does not want to lose. My confessing disciples would have lost if they had not believed happily in what they had for Me, and they would have staggered in time of sacrifice; however, they were happy by their proclamation about Me and not by faith and only that, because if faith does not work its fruit, it does not make the man happy, but rather such a man is sad.

01/14-12-2008.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

Peace to you, My people, in a day of bishop's feast! Peace to the Romanian people, and let days with confessor saints from heaven come down over its head, the spirit of confession, from where God's peace comes upon it, if the Lord is well pleased, if this nation has in it sons well pleased by God. Amen.

I come into the book as word and I find watch at the gates for My coming. Oh, you should also watch, My people, and be good soil to bring forth fruit, because I am the Sower, Who sows My word upon you, so that you may hear it and listen to it and then bring forth fruit, son. You are given to know the mysteries of God's kingdom, well sons, but for those outside everything is done in parables, so that by seeing with their eyes they may not see and hearing with their ears they may not hear, lest they may come back and I heal them, as the prophets wrote. And behold, it is the same now the parable of the seed which falls from the mouth of the sowers over those by the roadside, to whom the word is given, but satan comes and takes it away from their heart, or over those who are in a rocky soil, who hear it immediately and rejoice over it, but by not having any root they resist for a while and when the trial comes they fall; or over those on whom it is sown among thorns, who hear the word but the worries make it unfruitful in them.

Oh, My people, the Scriptures have always, always been fulfilled for those who are good and for those who are evil, and many from the servants of the church and from other people believe in this word, but the servants of the church do not confess it so that they may not lose their greatness, for it is written: «They loved human praise more than God's praise, and seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear that they may not come back to forgive their many sins and to heal them because I am good».

The man is of clay and the same is his love. Oh, only if he lets himself be made by My hand, only in this way he would have part of holy faith in God's works, and behold, those who were once enlightened by the gift of faith in God's works, only those are tested by unbelief; however there is not unbelief but rather something else. When man is inclined to the evil things after he walks with Me, then he tries to cover himself as though God is not on the way with him, and by this he covers his sliding, and besides this there is also the lack of God fear, for I, the Lord, take away My gifts from the one sliding on his way and I leave him with his money.

Oh, what great and heavenly signs My testifying and miracle-working saints worked by their faith over the unfaithful and stiff-necked people when it came to have faith! What did they understand; those who saw in the time of confession My bishop Spyridon made for God? If the man does not want to believe, shall I not speak over him as though it is not fulfilled and as he would like to see the fulfillments of My word? However, did I not say that My kingdom is not of this world and that it is in man if it really is? And if you do not have it in you, what do you want to see, unfaithful sons because of your stubbornness when it comes to believe the word sown over you from the mouth of the sower, who always gets out and sows his seed? Satan comes at the mouth of your heart and snatches the word sown by Me in you, and even if you rejoice over it immediately, by having no root and by staying on rocky ground, then you stand for a while, and when the trial comes then you stumble, and if you are sowed among thorns, they choke you, and My seed sown upon remains without any fruit, and behold, there is not unbelief, but it is rather something else; it is that which is written in the parable of the sower who comes to sow his seed and only those who are sowed on good ground are those who listen to the word, fulfill it and give fruit. Amen.

My bishop Spyridon becomes a confessor on My right side, for this day is his day of celebration among saints, the day when he came from earth to heaven, a servant among saints both for the faithful ones and for the unfaithful who ask for signs to see, but those who want this become even more stiff-necked and even greater crucifiers for those who sow God's word over them to the repentance of the sinful man.

Come, come great bishop, come and become a sower and may your coming down from heaven on earth be blessed, for those who are sowed on good ground are those who listen to the word, receive it and give fruit; one thirty, on sixty and another a hundred, as My mouth prophesied two thousand years ago when I was teaching the man about the faith and its gifts, which gives forth in those who are faithful by My word sowed on them. Amen, amen, amen.

– Come, great Lord, come to sow the seed of Your word, for its fulfillments are mysterious for those outside, for whom everything is done in parables, that seeing they may not see and hearing they may not hear with their ears lest they may get up and come to You to forgive their sins and heal them from their sins. Oh, what kind of fulfillments could those in the time of my testimony on earth see and understand, when You and I made great signs among those gathered at the Synod bishops for the destiny of the faith of the church, Lord? Oh, what miracles can they see now, those who look with their eyes and do not see, or those who hearing do not hear in order to come to You to heal them? The miracle would be the man's resurrection from his sin, for man is taken out of dust, poor of him, and he does not understand the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens if everything he does is clay, is dust. Oh, if You spoke through the Scriptures and by Your Spirit that You would come and shepherd all the nations with an iron rod, and if this is not fulfilled upon man, then You are not a fulfiller, or is the man, he who not receives You as Shepherd on him? Oh, if the man worked heaven on earth, then he would see Your great fulfillment with man, for You told the sons of Your church to say: «May Your will be done in heaven as on earth, Lord», and if the man does not work on earth as in heaven, what does the man want to see in order to believe? And I tell the man this:

What do you want man, to see and not believe? Oh, in order for you not to believe, you do not need to see, and you commit this sin of unbelief without seeing something in order to do it, but why would you need something to see in order to believe? Oh, if you are not good soil, then this is the guilt, why you do not receive God's word in you, the word of your making from the mouth of the sower, who sows his seed upon you. Oh, there is no need for visible fulfillments as on earth, the fulfillments for those that would be to believe, but a heart full of God's fear is needed instead and then love for God so that you may listen to the Lord's word, to receive it and to be fruitful with it. Oh, do not forget the Lord, Who said that the kingdom of the heavens was not coming in a visible way, because it is not of this world but it comes mysteriously and dwells inside the man and it makes the man its palace, which the unfaithful people, because of their wicked deeds, do not look at and do not understand God's kingdom in man.

Oh, people nourished by the Lord in His way with you! Oh, do not let satan come into your heart and take the word sowed into it! Oh, seek to ask from the Lord to have a root, lest you rejoice immediately over the hearing of His word and then only to wither away and stumble in time of trial. If your destiny keeps you among thorns, see that the worries of life may not make you bow and the word of the Lord and then His greatness to become unfruitful in you. Seek to fulfill in you the Lord, the Sower, and the fruit of His seed. Oh, do not let yourself be put down by those on earth, which can choke your care for the love from above! I was a great bishop in grace, but I did not make the Lord weak in me in the time when I was taking care of everything that had to be worked so that the Lord's church could be taken care of. The Lord was wonderful in me and He worked signs and miracles through me likewise over those who doubted of His godliness. Oh, how beautifully my faith confessed God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit! Oh, how beautiful the Lord is in the saints on earth, where His love is long enduring and full of goodness! It does not know about envy, vainglory, haughtiness, because it does not seek after its own benefits, and that is why it does not get angry or takes evil into consideration, but with great propriety it rejoices over the truth and not over injustice, and it is patient, it believes all things, hopes all things and endures all things, and that is why it does not fail. Amen. I lead you through my seed sowed upon you. Amen.

Oh, sons, make another little book and take out on it the work of love, well sons. Man is clay like any other things that he has worked, but if he works the book of the love, he becomes its palace; man becomes God's palace on earth if he does not lose his love. Oh, let each other know the straining of your soul and work everything as for the Lord and then as for you, and you will be the fruit of love, and the Lord will shine on earth more and more powerfully with His kingdom in you and among you. Peace to you! The world celebrates as it knows the Christmas, that which is fallen from its place among feasts, but you should celebrate my feast of ascending to heaven from earth. Oh, set me as an intercessor between you and God, for the saints stay quietly and only if they are asked for help do they work the Lord's things for those who rely on the Lord and His saints in everything they achieve in the Lord with love, sons. Amen.

However, You, Lord, as You were, You are today and tomorrow too, wonderful, wonderful in Your saints and among them with Your glory. Amen. Oh, give Your people the virtue of love! It makes him enduring as it is and it makes him wonderful when You are wonderful in the saints, oh, Lord, and let him love in this way in order to be, oh, Lord, and let him always, always stay in this way before You. Amen, amen, amen.

– This is how you are to be My people, as My saints ordain for you to be before Me! Oh, My teaching and that of My archbishop Spyridon have been sweet in this day, only that it may stick, for sweetness sticks to sweetness. Amen.

Peace to the Romanian people! Furthermore, I will always speak peace over it, for I want to become the wonderful One into its midst. My love is long enduring and full of goodness and that is why it does not fail. This is how you are to live into the midst of the Romanian nation, My people, and you should be the seed I have sowed in its land, and from place to place, to fall on good ground and give forth fruit and bring Me ears of wheat, and I will reward you and I will always, always give you My coming, for only that is what it keeps you alive in this hard and full of temptation time and it keeps you from the sin of unbelief, and after it, I will give you its joy and wonder, I, the wonderful One within My saints and among them, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2008 (12.12.2008 - Old style / after the Julian calendar)

The feast of the saint prophet Daniel

Today is a day of feast into the midst of My new Israel, My people of the Romanians that are born of My word upon it, and I give work to be done over it in this day. I give instruction to My people, because I am its Teacher. I, the Lord, within My descent to it on this day, have with Me Daniel, My prophet, a man loved by God, as I called him, and I will work with the saints over the spirit of My people, for I have to strengthen more and more his watch for My coming with the spirit of his growth according to My will before Me, because the darkness is thicker and thicker on earth and the unbelief and contempt against the Holy Spirit is growing higher and higher, because the man took and takes out more and more this kind of life for man on earth, and man delights man, man to man to his departure from God, to the extinguishing of My light over the earth, to the going down of My light on earth and to the going down of the working grace from God upon man.

When the spirit of prophecy does not have any room on earth, when man makes out of his mind his guidance and to all those on the earth, then the Spirit of God is kept in prison in such a way that it may not blow upon man and to wake up men to watch, but not matter how much God's Spirit is put to silence, the man is not able to prevent Him from his breathing over the earth. No matter how hard it is, the Spirit of the Lord makes His room in the prophets and enters and opens the ear of the stiff-necked due to their human haughtiness against godly greatness, which rules the world, for the making from God has the Lord as its Master and it acknowledges his Maser and serves Him. Amen.

I am into your midst with the host of the prophets, My people. I have among them the one who is celebrated on this day, the one well pleased with Me for the greatness of My dwelling in him by his great faith and love of God, by his great perseverance for the fulfilling on earth of My word written in the Scriptures up to his time, and which he was waiting for them with great longing to come down on earth for the Lord to overcome with His establishment and the man to grow weak with his estrangement from God, for all the time man has been far away from God's grace, far from His love, and this has happened in this way even since the man, built by My hand, became haughty against Me, and by this tasting of the spirit of death, the spirit without God in man, and for which the man loses his crown prepared by God for him, the work of the holy grace, which is good to the Lord in His work with the man on earth.

Oh, well sons, I suffer very much from those who come out from My grace after they taste of it to their enlightenment from Me, to their crowning with the work of My saving graces for man on earth and in heaven! Oh, well sons, who are always taught by God, do you know how is the one who endeavors to the work of My grace in man with a great zeal and with great faith? That one has got great power of love and service with love for God's work with man, as the prophet Daniel had. Even when he was a subject to the service of man's kingdom upon man, he worked full of My grace too, and it was seen that he worked that way. However, if one like that, coming to the time of trial before the unbelievers, staggers and doubts of the godly truth of the working grace in man, or if he sticks by his hand to something on the earth, his human glory or his possessions, that one undergoes his falling away from grace, greater than the one from which he woke up to come and be the disciple of the life commandments, which keep Me as Master in man, and it happens to him as it happened to the disciple who, out of fear and cowardice, did not endure to the end and came out from under the crown prepared by Me, which was hovering then above his head, and which was the crown for the faith and for its working graces in man, the crown of man's salvation and of the glory of the Lord's grace on his head. Oh, this is happens with the one who stays with Me for a long time, nice weather, and then, losing his steadfastness, his cleanness of heart and the good and complete fulfillment of My life in man, he comes to doubt afterwards, he comes to unbelief and to his fall from grace, and the crown of the grace, worked out for Me, does not want to come down to sit on his head, and it is prepared for the one who fills the place left empty by the one who did not keep the firmness of his steps on the way in which he walked by that time.

Oh, it is ugly and it will be ugly the man who does not keep his steadfastness for My holy work, for any step started with faith and long perseverance in the good and holy work, the work for God. My prophet Daniel was despised by those who worshipped the kingdom of the world; however, his steadfastness with Me did not go weak even for a moment in his little heart, but with so much room in it for My place in it, and for this he was praised on earth and then among My saints.

Oh, sons I want to teach you beautifully on this day; I and My disciple that I love so much because of his love for Me and for his faith and perseverance before Me. The work of My graces started to dwell in him even from his childhood, and I was the wonderful One in him, great God and a spring of heavenly grace over the faithful and over the unfaithful and also over the kings of the world. He has got great prayer before Me, for he knew My will and My expectation and reminded Me from the Scriptures about the work of My kingdom and My works on earth, and I promised him a great inheritance after his going to rest, since then and to My today's coming, by which I have prepared a faithful people for Me and with which I will fulfill to give a reward to the saints and prophets of that time, as it is written in the Scriptures about its coming and about My coming with the saints to this table, the table of the giving of reward for the work of the holy grace to My workers. Amen.

I will greatly, sweetly and powerfully put My teaching upon you in this day, I and My disciple, I and My prophets, for My prophets are full of steadfastness to the end, and this is how they have the reward of the prophets on their head, the reward of a disciple, My people. Oh, but we have to do some work from Me in this day with you, and then we are going to travel, sons. We are going to set some children under My blessing and to teach them to love in them the life and heart of the little children and then we are going to set them to watch, to keep and to work upon them My place in them, upon them and upon the place, which they have now under their care so that I, the Lord, may dwell with them in their dwelling and they to work My life in them and serve

Me with it, and by serving Me to spend up to My coming in the last day for the faithful ones, who will receive their reward. Amen.

I leave My blessing over the renewed shelter and I am giving it now into use for the body, for the spirit and for the soul of those who are set in it in this day by My blessing. Let Daniel, the prophet, give them, from now on, the help from heaven and the angelic protection, while they are to give Me their living, their love and their saving work, always learning to work it, for only in this way the diligent man receives the crown of his salvation, which means the forgiveness of his sins. Amen. I, the Lord, advise and exhort them not to sin and I especially urge them to keep away from the spirit of judgment and to come near to the spirit of the right measure of everything in thought and deed, and I urge them to get used to understanding well of My steps towards them when I come to heal their thought, their heart and their work. Teach them too, working sons on My behalf, for the making of My new people. They have to understand well to be little, so little, and in this way to stand before Me so that I may be the great One upon them, for he who pretends to be greater and smarter than God, then a man like that loses his wisdom and loses his crown prepared by Me for those who are faithful and steadfast to the end.

Peace to this house! I leave My blessing upon it and may My blessing be kept on it! Obedience to God is the work of those who are blessed! Behold, we make all things new, as it is written into the Scriptures to be done, and any new beginning to be fulfilled in its work to its entire appearance. I, the Lord, will attend from above with the saints and with the angels, and also from below with you, working children upon My people, every work that will be perfectly accomplished in every place renewed by the word and by the works, for it is written: «We make them all new!» Amen.

We come back then into the book, children from the gates, that I may come down in this day with great power of word over the spirit of My people. The world has got ready for a great banquet to celebrate the year that has passed and to meet the coming year. Oh, poor of it, world, it is intoxicated with the spirit of ignorance of God and it does not know that I am the One Who can work and that it cannot work! All the sons of the world are intoxicated with it, but I have told you: "Come out of the world, My people, that you have no participation in her wine, and that you do not receive of her plagues, for her sins have reached to the sky, and the Lord has remembered her iniquities; however much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning, for she says in her heart: «I sit a queen and am no widow and in no way see mourning», (Apoc: 18/7), but My angel will take up with much strength a millstone and will say: «Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all, and in her will be found the blood of the prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth». (Apoc: 18/21, 22, 24) And the angel will still say to her: «Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double, for it has increased to her mourning», (See Apoc: 18/6), as it is written. This is how I, the Lord, showed the fall of the world, the city opposing to Me, as I showed it to My beloved disciple, to John, the bearer of My word in his time on earth. Through him I prophesied the fall of the haughtiness of the proud people of the earth and the salvation of the faithful ones. And as for you, My people, you should read, son, the Scriptures; you should read them as Daniel did, and remind Me from them about My promises and seek in them after the fulfillments from Me, and also pray to Me as the prophet Daniel did, for he prayed with fire in his little heart for My fulfillments on the earth. Read about the old times, read the Scriptures, My people, and see that the prophets wrote in them about My time with you and the last Scriptures, and be worthy and ready for the work of a disciple, for the world goes with more zeal to its reward, but you should walk more longingly to meet Me, for I also walk to meet you and to meet those who are faithful, and I go to the end, and we will set the table for the prophets and for the saints and we will give them an inheritance, the inheritance which they have labored for and the crown of their labor, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I come back into the book and I come with power of word over the spirit of My people. Amen.

I have always given you, My people, teaching, for I am your Teacher. When you came to be My people, I became your Teacher, and great wisdom has the one who has a teacher and counselor upon him. I work upon you with the saints, for they need to have an inheritance with you. Give them an inheritance with you, for they have labored in My vineyard, in My work over the earth, to make My way to the people with My kingdom, as by sighing greatly they have worked from Me upon man, for man is stiff-necked and is used to the land and to those on the earth, which are seen and which make the man fall from God, a fall from grace, because those that are not seen and are made by God, cannot be seen, loved and wanted but only by man's arduous faith, and faith is for the things that cannot be seen, and behold, the man is unfaithful when he remains only on the side of those that are seen. Oh, only in this way the man serves on earth, and when I speak for man, you should not get out from under My teaching, My people, for I cannot teach the people, since I do not have them for instruction. Oh, not only that I complain to you with affliction from My sufferance, but I also exhort you to receive instruction upon you when I leave My mourning that comes from man in My book with you. Every man is a sinner and the sinful man is ugly. That one does not know to grow up, or to grow less, for this knowledge is received from a teacher, and the man does not receive Me as his teacher, because he is proud.

Oh, My people, the proud man calls you and Me sect. However, why do you call Me sect, proud man? You are proud like those in the time of My body, who called Me and My disciples sect and also those who bowed to believe in the word of life, for I was a spring of word and deed over those who sought with Me for the healings from the burden of their life. Oh, and if I, spending with those who believe in My word of today, the word of life and the word of My new name, which is called the Word of God, as it is written, if I am called by you so, only because I do not string along with you, and not because something else, then what are you? If I am a sect then what are you? Do you take after God that you are so haughty as though you are not a sect? Oh, it does not matter that you called My people in this way, which has My word upon it. As for the one who fights for a position of honor, no one takes his right that he assumes for himself, but this right is not kept with blame and blasphemy against those who, like the disciples in My time, seek to please God and not men. Oh, the world is not worthy to be healed, and that is why I leave it to drink of its cup, having you its teachers, lest the world takes from the seed sowed by Me on earth for the man's resurrection from his sin. Behold, your sons get up in the middle of the night and serve the devil (Serve the satisfaction of bodily lusts, of fornication, r.n.) as in the time of the bishop Basil the great, when the people and devils made devilish noises to grieving of the soul of My servant, who was praying to Me speaking a word against the spirit of the darkness of this passing age. Oh, these are your disciples, for the fruit of your work is evil and I have not heard you speaking ill of all those who do evil before Me and before My saints; but on the contrary, you baptize, commune, marry and bury in the grave then those, and you do not call them by a name of a sect, but only those that fight for My life in them you call them so. Oh, it does not matter that you stand up to despise My way to man for your fleeting glory. I, the Lord, remain the Teacher of those who seek Me at this spring and I water them from the river of life and fulfill this Scripture, and behold, you do your work, and I do Mine, and each one listens to his master. However, I urge you too, as a true and merciful Teacher that I am, to seek not to forget what it means for the man to be a Christian; you should not forget the Scriptures that teach you how Christ's church is supposed to be. In no way does it take after what you are, for you are of the spirit of the world and have the ruler of this world as your father, as those who called Me sect two thousand years ago had him too, and they showed their power from the earth and not from heaven and crucified Me by death on the cross as a rebel, as one who broke God's law. I do not bring on you any sufferance or any evil by My descent as word on earth to make preparations for clean people for Me and the way of My glory by which I will reveal Myself soon, soon, in order to fulfill the Scripture of the coming with glory of God's Son, but you incur great sufferance upon you because of your great unbelief, for behold, you are fulfilling now the sin of the faith denial more than anytime, and you ordain each other on great chairs to lead the world from them, and the world is the Babylon in which God's wisdom does not have any room. I do not get upset with you that You despise Me because of this work and you call Me sect, or because you call My people foolish as it does not serve you but Me, but I urge you not to have your heart set on the heavy sin of the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, as those in My time and in the time of My disciples did, and then they persecuted them everywhere as though they were wandering away people. Oh, do not be afraid that I take your kingdom. I have nothing to do with it, for I do not have a kingdom like yours, but I rather have something else. I have what you do not have and what do not want to have. I have obedience to My Father, that what you do not have, even if you call My Father your father. However, if He were your Father, then you would love Me too and follow Me as I follow Him.

Two thousand years ago, when God's servants denied Me to My death, I said this: «Now the ruler of this age was already judged», and I am saying it once again in these days to the servants who say that they are masters over the people on God's behalf, masters of men's souls, while they condemn God's Spirit to silence, to lie and stumbling, Who breathes over the earth with a spirit of man's resurrection from sin, for I, God, the Word, seek nothing for Me or for My people than to wake up the man to his resurrection from sin, and behold, while they commit this horrible sin, denying the One Who speaks to them from heavens, I, the Lord, speak again and tell them this: now the ruler of this world has already been judged. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, oh, sons, I do not get upset with the servants of the church, who dishonor Me and you, for they are blind, but you should be wise, for there are not many of them who do this, and who bring all of them into submission so that they may not humble themselves to watch and to serve My word of today. Those who serve in churches in holy robes, they listen to their master on the earth to keep their human glory, but they know that God is this word and that it is the fulfilled Scriptures, as written into the Scriptures. Oh, My word upon you has become man's comfort on the earth and his hope of getting out of his sin, and you should be wise, listen to Me and listen to God, for He is your Teacher by the thick darkness, in which the world lives and exalts itself to its destruction.

In this day, I have some work to do with the saints, upon you, My people. The host of the prophets has come down with Me at My table with you, at their inheritance of today, and I have Daniel among those who are celebrated by them, a man pleased with God, as I called him in the Scriptures. I give you My teaching sweetly and greatly, and the saints work upon you the same, and you seek to be the fruit of the teaching from heaven, so that the Lord may not speak in vain on the earth. Learn, son, from Me and from the saints, for I have humbled Myself very much in these days of the end of the time and I have longed very much to have a holy and faithful people with power for Me and for the saints, for the saints, son, have waited for a long time for My last people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, good Lord, I have waited with consuming fire in my little heart for Your coming and for Your kingdom on earth with the people in the time of my body. You were coming down on me and comforting my prayer for Your people of that time and You were alleviating the burning of my heart, for the longing after You was consuming me. You have put the gift of wisdom and prophecy into my spirit and with it I served the kings of the earth, for it was for my wisdom from You that they set me to rule over their people, but only to You I dedicated my life and my wisdom. Oh, You should have such a people in this time, for great are the fulfillments, which have to come out now, but Your people should also be according to their measure.

Oh, people so much supported from heaven for your faith in the Lord's coming and for its entire fulfillment on earth! The kings of the nations and their people submitted me to their vain glory so that I might no longer worship the Lord, but to worship the man instead, but I remained faithful only to God, and my little heart was only in heaven, and I asked the Lord to bring the heaven down on earth and the fulfillment of His kingdom, as His promise was. Even from that time the Lord showed me the Scriptures from yesterday and today, His coming and the resurrection of the dead, and the quenching of the faith for these Scriptures, which will come out suddenly, and the Lord showed me how the wise people will shine in the last days, and I prophesied from the Lord, that these, who will exhort many people to walk in the ways of justice, will shine like the celestial vault and will be like the stars forever and ever. This is the destiny which the Lord has ordained for you, people of today, and that is why He is coming with such a great river of word to you, as it is written that: «The river of the Lord has been filled with water; You have prepared food for them, for this is Your speaking». Oh, the Lord struggles to exalt to great faith and to great resurrection, the Romanian country, which I saw in the spirit, for it was meant to be the country of brightness in the end, (See Dan. 8: 9,17,19; 11: 16,41) because of the Lord's river, which flows from Him over it, and you are the new seed sowed by the Lord to growth and fruit bearing in the soil of the Romanian land, and do not forget the wisdom from above, so that you may perceive it and to be able to turn it into deed into the midst of this nation, for we, the Lord's prophets, saw it from afar and we saw today's country of the Lord shining. However, you, people of today, have to understand deeply and with great faith the Lord's work in your days on the hearth of the Romanian people, for this nation has its election for the Lord's coming to it, and here it is how the Lord is coming and becoming word over this nation to call from its midst to His happiness the nations of the earth that have heard the Lord's glory in you! Oh, open my book with the Lord and read in it with prayer to the Son of the Father so that He may give you understanding from the Father and to know to bring this nation to holiness by your prayer, by your sacrifice and by your love, for the Lord will work to be like that. Amen. I exhort you to be humble and full of burning after the Lord's glory, as I was, but seek with great prayer to the Lord, so that He may fulfill. Amen.

Oh, be afraid of your falling from grace! Be afraid of ignorance and of lack of your sacrifice for the Lord's victory! Keep and fulfill all the Lord's orders! He has taught you everything with great abundance of grace and word and you know everything. Seek to kindle your longing after all the great fulfillments, the eternal ones, as I also longed for them. Stir this longing to one another, as we do, for I had disciples faithful to the Lord, friends loving of God like me, and we were eating clean food, of clean seed, and the Lord gave us great wisdom over all the wise people of that time, and I, Daniel, took from Him the gift of the knowledge of the visions and dreams, and with great grace I stood before the kings, in the name of the Lord, and I had beautiful humility, and because of this the kings loved us, they loved me and my friends, and the Lord saved us from the hand of those who wanted to kill us because we were worshiping only Him. Oh, this is how you are to worship too and you should not be afraid of man, for man is weak and does not know to grow up, neither to grow less, for on one hand, the man has to grow, and on the other hand, he has to grow less for the great work of the Lord, and here the depth of spirit is needed for the man to perceive this mystery. Oh, stand up to fulfill with the Lord beside you the last Scriptures, for we, the Lord's prophets, waited with great longing for the Lord to be victorious in time and for His kingdom on a holy land. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, I teach you greatly in this day and My saints also teach you greatly. Take care of all My orders upon you and do your duty with regard to everything I have taught you, son. When I give some work to do, then let it be worked according to My order, for otherwise the order is spoiled and it falls, and behold, it is hard for Me. Oh, it is very hard and I try to strengthen My power for the work. Oh, look, sons, how much power I, the Lord, have given to these wise sons in the time of My prophet, Daniel, he was relying on them, and great was My victory through them over the kings of the earth.

Oh, My people, I tell you a parable, son. The man has made big and heavy machines for the loading he puts on them and he has been intelligent in his understanding for the heavy quantity put on the machine, and then he added more wheels to it and this is how man sustains his loading put on the machine. Oh, this is what I have also wanted to do with My heavy burden, and I have wanted to rely on many for the drive of My heavy chariot, but many have risen in revolt and not enjoyed over the help I have given them, and this is how these have revolted, those on whom I have relied to do My work and to rule My people gathered for Me by it.

Oh, I suffer from the Christians, who are stubborn in their spirit. It hurts Me that some of them give much room in them for the spirit of stubbornness, and My wagon pulls heavily, and I am a merciful, merciful God. Oh, you should also be merciful with Me, My people, and you should also listen to Me, but in order for you to listen to Me, you should love Me as Daniel and his three friends did, who were not harmed by fire, when for My name they were thrown by those who were stiff-necked into the fire and in other trials that they had to go through for the glory of My name borne by them. Oh, come to have love for Me, My people, so that you may not live fruitlessly on earth, for people live in vain on earth, son, and so they die. Oh, come to have love for Me, so that the Lord may not speak in vain over the earth! I would teach you day and night and I would not look at the blaspheming man, who stumbles against My great word upon you. I would always teach you, only for you to take care to long after Me, son, to be able to make you an interpreter of the confused languages of the people who are haughty in their spirit, and that they may see My working grace in you, and that they may give glory to My name, which is on your head, My people. Let us rely on each other, for My great work and My heavy wagon is hard to carry out! Come, My people, to redeem the time, son! See how the prophets worked and seek to appreciate the prophecies so that you may have from Me and from them the reward of a prophet, My people. Oh, come, always come to your condition of My wisdom from above in you, for My time with you is to work and to do the great work of the heaven on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

17/30-12-2008

2009

The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's Birth

(Excerpt)

… Oh, My people, God's kingdom is not of this world, and the man waits in vain for it to come, for it comes but the man knows nothing of it, and when I tell him that it comes, and he does not see its coming as I tell him, then he stands up and calls Me a liar and denigrates Me with his mind, as did those who laughed at Me two thousand years ago and when they called Me a stumbling block. Then the Jewish people said that I was a demon, and they do the same to Me today. They said that I lived in sin that I spent time with the sinners on earth, and today they say to Me likewise. It was written about Me in the Scriptures of old that I would come and be born on earth through a Virgin mother, that I would be the King of the creature, accompanied by My kingdom, and the Jewish people was afraid and crushed Me so that I could no longer be, and they said that everything I preached on earth was a lie; however, I was and I am the king of the creature, and I am with My kingdom in the faithful ones, and those who are faithful to Me are not of this world, just as those who are unfaithful to Me are not in My kingdom.

Oh, I am not a liar, man, by what I said and say on earth, but you are weak in your mind and feeble in your heart and faith when you come to know what God with man on earth means. He who is not born from above, that one is from below and one like that does not know to see and to understand. It does not mean that the Scriptures lied. I ruled the nations before My coming on earth and I also did this after I was resurrected from My death which the people of Israel gave to Me, and I am not a liar, but man is a liar instead, because he is not faithful, because he does not love God. The unfaithful is like that because he does not love God, for God cannot give man as the man knows to receive and to have. I seek to give Myself to man, not to give him something else to have. I want man to have Me and that he may have nothing else, but behold, I am not of this world and man loves as on earth; he loves his own and not Me.

25-12-2008/07-01-2009.

The feast of the circumcision of the Lord. The feast of holy hierarch Basil the Great
(Excerpt)

… — Oh, may it be blessed the power of the teaching of today upon you, My people! Do not postpone your judgment! Judge yourself and get up for the holy thing, for those who are humble work out salvation. Look at the prayers of the saints, see how much they humbled themselves by their prayers before Me, how much they were crying and how much and how clearly they saw their unworthiness! Be humble, My people! Be, clean in your heart, for the heart is My place in man, and I am God in man, when I can sit on My set of coming, into the man's heart when I sit. Peace to you! I give you the blessing of a bishop! Oh, how are supposed to be those who are blessed?

Peace to you, My people! I am the Great Bishop, the Lord Jesus Christ. I am the Lord your God, and I have spoken to you the word of life on a day of feast. Take it and put it on you! Put upon you what I have given to you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-01-2009.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism

The voice of the Lord is that which speaks and becomes a river of word over the earth. The river of life is called My word, which has been flowing from My mouth during these days, and he who drinks of if never thirsts after anything but only after God. Amen.

I come down on earth with a feast of Epiphany. I come into the book as word, and through it I sit on the throne and reign, for the throne which I sit on as king with a kingdom that does not fall is the heart of the faithful man, who fulfills the commandment of God's love. This is how I was King, and this is how I am King today, for My kingdom with man is not as on earth, and it is on earth as in heaven. Amen.

Peace to you, those who set for Me the word spoken by My mouth! When My mouth speaks, your ears open and this is how I come into the book, and like a good Shepherd I pasture the nations with this rod, and I touch with it the waters in a day of Epiphany and I put in them the Holy Spirit to the cleansing of the faithful man, for My word is the shepherding iron, and I clean with it the man's heart and I give Myself to him and sit on the throne and reign, and this is how I have a kingdom on earth, and I am the King of those who love Me and give themselves to Me as My kingdom, and I am the Shepherd King.

Peace to you, children from the gates! Set Me into the book to shepherd those who come to the water of Epiphany, to shepherd those that do not come and those who will be hearing My word of Shepherd, through which I baptize the man's heart with the baptism of the Holy Spirit to give birth to the man, for the man is born from below. And now, behold, I am shepherding. Amen.

Oh, take heed, take heed, you those who understand through My gift upon man, and you, those who do not understand God's dwelling with man, My kingdom with those who know God! Take heed and cry out to God to open up your ears and then your mind to understand God on earth as in heaven with His kingdom and then with His will, for two thousand years ago, I taught My disciples to ask from God that My kingdom and My will to be done on earth as in heaven.

Take heed, you, those who are faithful, and you, those who are not faithful to My word of today! Those who take heed at of My word from the beginning, preached by the prophets, and that from two thousand years ago, that one is the who pays attention to My word of today, for he is only for the faithful ones, and let the unfaithful humble themselves and call Me to come towards them and to reveal Myself to them and they to ask Me to go to My Father to intercede for them to send them their salvation from faith, for this sin leads the man to the lack of watchfulness, and it leads him to the darkness. Oh, learn from Me, learn what the word "church" means. If the teachers who stay upon you do not teach you this, then come near that I may teach you. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Teacher of men! Come and be My church, for man is a church either to God or to satan; he is either in the service of the Lord, or in the service of satan, and soon, soon, satan will no longer be and there will be great sufferance[101], torment and sigh in those who served him in them. It is written into the Scriptures that I will dwell with the people, and they will be My people and the Lord Himself will be with them and will wipe out their tear, and death will no longer be, neither pain, for the first things will pass away and I will sit on the throne and speak and say: «Behold, we make them all new!» Then I speak that they may be written, for My word is faithful and true, and then I fulfill, and after that I declare: «It is done!» and then I say again: «I will give to the one who is thirsty to drink freely from the spring of the water of life, and he who overcomes will inherit this and I will be his God, and he will be My son». Amen. Oh, this is how My church on the earth is, and I sit on the throne and speak a word of making, for I make My kingdom of the faithful one, and My throne is his faithful heart, and I sit in it as on the throne, and the faithful one serves Me, and through those who are faithful to Me, I dwell among people and I make a people and a kingdom for Me, and I make it with man, for I work with him and say: «Behold, we make them all new!» as it is written, and I do not work alone, for it is written to work with man everything that are written in the Scriptures to be fulfilled, and this is how the man is My church on earth. Amen.

[101] See the selection topic: „The great tribulation", r.n.

In a day of the feast of Epiphany, I am working Holy Spirit over the waters for the man's sanctification, I am working with the man and I do not work alone. Amen.

You, the three sons anointed with the new anointing in the garden of My word in these days to speak with you the word of the reconciliation with the Father of the faithful man and of the unfaithful one, you, sons, say once with Me over the waters and ask power from the Holy Spirit over them so that the man's heart and then his love and then his tears may be cleaned with the help of these waters, for man has many tears because of his sins, sons. Let My voice and yours be over these waters and let them overflow with water and thus to water the land of My waters from you, for the springs taken out over into My garden with you are a big mystery, sons and with them I sanctify the earth and seal it from waters in waters with the Holy Spirit and fire, and I wipe out your tear and with you I crush the death and sit on the throne, I dwell in your little hearts and speak with you and say: «Behold, we make all things new!» and then we write these and we say: «It is done!» and we say it again: «I will give to the one who is thirsty to drink freely from the spring of the water of life, and he who overcomes will inherit this and I will be his God, and he will be My son; he will be My church and My servant», as it is written. Amen. My voice and yours come down upon waters in a day of Epiphany, and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, fills them with the power from above and works with them the cleansing of the earth and of the man who thirsts after My word of life giving. Amen.

My voice is sit down today over the earth as word of Epiphany, and first I feed with it those gathered at the spring of Epiphany. My Word is the Holy Spirit the Comforter for those who are faithful to Me, and there are fire and brimstone for those who still do not have faith and by this they strike in My coming of today from the Father to man. I am within My second coming by this word and I come to prepare a clean people, a people of disciples, and I come to raise for Me witnesses full of spirit of resurrection over people, because people lie not being lifted from their sins, and they do not hear My weeping in them.

Oh, My word is coming down over the earth to open up the man's hearing, which is not resurrected from his sin! The Lord is coming with a feast of Epiphany so that the man's heart may be sanctified from His word! I make My disciples and speak with them the voice of the kingdom of the heavens with man, and blessed is he who lets his hearing be healed, then his heart, his love, and then his faith which is making of new man, and by which we make all things new, I and the faithful man. Amen. The evil and unfaithful man gets dogs and teaches them to bark and he also teaches them to bite. However, I get disciples and I teach them to listen, I teach them to comfort the sufferance in man, and I want to bring with them the man to repentance and to the love from heaven. This is the difference between the church of the world and My church, and each one of them keeps its sons in its arms and they know its sons.

You, who are struck from your hidings in the word of My coming, oh, do no longer strike; do not longer strike in the sons of My today's people, people of Romanians, people of My word! I, the Lord, do not keep a record of this serious sin, for this is what these sons, denigrated by you in these days, have been asking Me to do. Oh, you are not many, but if you come back to repentance from those that you have worked against the word of My coming and of My faithful people, I do not call you to account for this sin, for I am the Shepherd with the cross, the One with mercy. Behold, the man without a merciful guide upon him becomes a Judas and falls while he is led by those with their hands full of blood, full of wickedness, revenge and accusation. Oh, not so are those who are Mine! They accept reproach, for man cannot keep My life in him otherwise, a life protected from wrongdoings and always cleaned by them. He who lets himself be guided by those with bloodstained hands, that one parts company with My disciples and then becomes a Judas. Oh, how comes that, with bloodstained hands? Oh, My people, I teach you My instruction, for he who does not come to be taught, he leaves My disciples then. Sons, sons, he who blames without keeping his sins into account, that one makes Me and the heart of the wounded one bleed, and then he gives power to the devil to cause sufferance, to make war with those who are Mine by My power in them and not by their power. Oh, he who appears to be without sin, that one is a liar and that is why he strikes and points his finger to the one he blames, and those who are seized with the spirit of hatred and revenge, those are filthy with the blood of those they strike. This is how Herod did because of the sin in him, and the sin had power to tie up the steps of My baptizer, John, so that he might no longer call out to the people and to call them to repentance and to their resurrection from sin. The sin seems sweet to the man and he cannot leave it off, but rather he leaves God and thus it happens because My throne in him is looted, because he who wants to plunder a house first he ties up the strong one of the house and then the house falls into the hand of the plunderer, as I said through the Scriptures.

Oh, you those who sound the truth before you know it, you should know that this people chosen by Me from the Romanians is My vineyard! I want to give to you from its fruit if you repent from the evil in you, from the curse, which you try to scatter over the sons of disobedience on earth, who do not know to distinguish left from right. Oh, I want to cheer your hearts up by calling you to remorse because of the wickedness in you. You think that you bring benefits to Me or to the people, but the one who is unfaithful to My word of yesterday and today cannot do any good either to Me or to his neighbors, whom he tries to divest of their hope, for woe to those who do not sanctify themselves for My coming, for My kingdom in them! The word full of blaming is a word of blasphemy. Oh, be good and do not give yourselves to ignorance of soul! The sufferance that you want to inflict on those under the burden of My coming will cause you great pain. I have asked you many times to put your sword into the sheath, because you can be cut by it. Oh, come back to repentance! Come back now! Do not be unfaithful when I ask you to come out of the darkness of hatred and to turn to the wisdom from above. I am Who I am. I am not man. I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and I paid for the man's life on the cross. Behold My love and behold your love! I have reached My hand after you if you want to understand this. I, the Lord, am the Shepherd King, and I come on the track of those who fall from grace and give them My hand to come out of their falling and I reach out My staff to them to tend them to the pastures, to wake them up. Amen.

You, those who are stiff-necked, shepherding in this way over the people, My word full of life, love and mercy for man is not the evil spirit! Oh, do no longer rely on yourselves to keep trying to close the way for the man to this spring! Look at those two thousand years ago, who tried like you to choke the coming of the righteous One. See how it was then and be afraid of the spirit of unbelief! The reward for this sin comes over the earth, the sin of unbelief. You say that you watch so that it may not creep in any wandering spirit on the way of God with people. Oh, show Me, show Me My way with the people if it really is! I am the way, but the people are not on My way but they are on their way instead, and the wandering spirit is in their way too, and they perish like the sheep that have no shepherd, for they have not shepherd to give them food, who are to establish My kingdom in them. Come to the knowledge from above and you will know by it the wisdom of My word, My coming as word over the earth now, in the end of the time, to prepare My way and then to come with My great and fearful day, as it is written for Me to come! Exhort the people to repentance, as John, My baptizer exhorted them. Be merciful to the nations, for they have wandered away from My way with man! I come and find the fence of My vineyard fallen to the ground and all passengers-by tread on it. This is sin! Look at the parents and call them out to your help to come and to save you from the spirit of Egypt, from the perishing spirit of this age. I am the One Who took with a strong hand My people Israel out of Egypt. I go to take the man out of his sin, but My way to man is hindered by the man haughty in his spirit. Oh, let Me be the guide of the fallen man; let Me, you who stop the way of My word to the people! Let Me go into the deep and wake up the man from his fall, for man has to be resurrected and I am coming down to bring together those who are Mine, and My sign is the word of My coming and My faithful people. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I also call out, Lord; I call out from near You to the stiff-necked to come to repentance. I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness to make ready You way, for two thousand years ago I told the people of Israel that I baptized them with water for the forgiveness of their sins, but that into its midst there was One Whom they did not know and that One was the One Who came after me and Who was before me, and the second day You came to Jordan, and I said: «Behold the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world that He might stand before Israel; that is why I came with water, because I saw the Spirit descending upon Him like a dove from heaven and He remained upon Him, and He Who sent me to baptize with water, that One spoke to me: on Whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He Who baptizes in the Holy Spirit! And I have seen and testified that this was to the life of the people». (See John: 1/29-34)

Oh, I also call the man to repentance. I call out to those who are unfaithful and I tell them this: the voice of this word is not the evil spirit, but it is the Lamb of God, Who washes the sins of the world, and He washed them away and washes them, for the river of life has become the world which has been flowing from His mouth during these days, and I see and testify this, and This is He Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and fire. Therefore, repent! The kingdom of the heavens has come near to you as two thousand years ago. Do not be stiff-necked as those from that time were and took the Lamb of God and gave Him to be scorned and to be tormented! Repent, you, those who fell in unbelief, and He will heal you! Faith has great work and works out in man the image of the Lamb of God, and otherwise there is no faith in man. Moreover, I will teach you repentance in my day of feast and I will ask from the Lord power to you, to be able to learn. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, the little Lamb of the Father, I will come with John and I will shepherd My people, and I will give to the sides My teaching to the life of men and to the resurrection of those who have fallen from faith. Amen.

In a spirit of Epiphany, I release the word of love over My people. Be children in your love, sons, be infants with your love, for only in this way your love will be complete! Oh, many want to come back to life, to come back to Me, but they cannot because of their sins, which keep them far from love in them. The man full of the stench of the fleshly sin is known with his inner things, he is known by those who are sharp in the Spirit, and a man like that, being full of weakness, sees everything by his guilty eye under sin, like those in the time of My body, and to whom John, My baptizer told: «Repent and bring forth fruit worthy of repentance, for the axe lies at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and is cast into the fire». (Matthew: 3/7, 8, 10)

I embrace you within a spirit of Epiphany, My people. Sanctify yourself in My word and let My word be sanctified in you, son! Oh, let My name on earth be made holy as in heaven, for My throne of King is the heart of those in whom I dwell on earth with a kingdom that does not fall down! Those who are priests and kings in My name on earth among people and for people, they reign like Me either, and they reign in the heart of those who love them and they are kings through them and for them. Amen.

My kingdom is not of this world. It has its realm and throne in those who are My church, My country on the earth, a country without borders, and which spreads from margins to margins by those who love Me, having Me in them as King, as it is written about God's tabernacle with people, and the Lord will dwell with them and they will be His nations, and God Himself will be with them, their God, and the lot of those who are unfaithful are the lake that burns with fire and brimstone and which is the second death, as it is written.

Oh, My people, you should not die with the second death, for it is the unbelief and it is the lot of those who are not faithful. Stay with My word of today and do not look back, but take heed only at My voice, for I am He Who sees and knows to guide you through those that are to come to test the people. It is a turning time, and those who do not have Me as word upon them will not know the time, and they will wander away and will be smashed as sons of disobedience.

In a spirit of Epiphany I comfort you with the spirit of the holy hope. Peace to you, faithful people! Oh, how happy, how happy will be those who are now faithful! Their patience weaves a praised crown to them, for the patience with faith is rewarded and there is no other rewarded patience otherwise among those who endure. Those who endure by waiting to see those that I promised, they do not come to see, and those who endure with faith, comforting My Spirit and My waiting, they will comfort each other, for they will be comforted. Amen.

Peace to you, peace to those who have drunk of the spring of My word and of the waters sanctified by the spirit of Epiphany! Make way with the power of the healing water, for the Holy Spirit has descended over the waters, and the waters work from heaven over the faithful and unfaithful ones to the glory of My name and to the confirmation of My true word, the word which has been speaking with you on a day of Epiphany, sanctifying your hearts, making them My throne, the throne of a King with a kingdom that does not fall. Amen.

I am the One, who baptizes with the Holy Spirit and with fire the earth and the nations on it, and I have spoken in a day of Epiphany to the people gathered at the spring, and I have spoken to the nations. Blessed are those who have ears to hear and blessed are those who fulfill My word in time of darkness, in time of unbelief!

I am Who I am! I am with the believers, and I am their King, and they are My kingdom, and with it and with them, I will have victory far and wide, as it is written that I have to come, and I will come to be victorious. Amen, amen, amen.

06/19-01-2009

The synod of the saint John, the Baptizer

In a spirit of Epiphany I am embracing you in this day, My people. I am comforted within the feasts when I speak with you. It is a great comfort for God when He has someone to speak with on earth. Every man believes that I am happy near the Father, but My work given from the Father in My obedience was and is man. I am comforted when I can do something for man; however, I have little help from man. When I made the heaven, the earth, and all those visible and invisible things, I made them for man. Oh, the man does not know the pain he inflicted on Me when he pulled himself out of Me, withdrew into himself, and took away My happiness, for man was to be God's happiness.

I am comforted with you, My people. There is great comfort when someone aggrieved and deeply wounded is able to speak about this wound. My wound is man. I breathed upon him with My mouth spirit of My Spirit when I kneaded him out of dust in My image, and I have it in him from Me and My wound in man makes Me suffer and man does not know how this comes. Oh, if a parent suffers so much from his child, fallen from him by disobedience, oh, how much sufferance has remained with God after man pulled himself out of Him and withdrew into himself!

I seek after comfort, My people. I would always speak to man My long sufferance from him. I become word into your midst and I give Myself to man so that he may hear My crying after him, and I ask you son, to take care of My dwelling into your midst and take care of My way with you, and I want to see this. I want to see that you listen to Me, for man's disobedience has punished Me severely. I want to fill you with mercy for My wound, because two thousand years ago, I became flesh like man and My wound has always made Me suffer in My body, not only in My spirit. The scribes and the Pharisees in the time of My body were angry and got evil against Me when they saw Me that I forgave the man's sins and that I healed him from evil, but I was doing this because man was My wound, and I was comforted when I heard him that he was speaking with Me and that he was asking Me for help and healing. Oh, in each man I have suffered in My spirit and body and I cannot arise the spirit of faithfulness in man for Me, for the one who has pulled himself out of God and fallen on earth is not as then when he was surrounded with the heaven on earth. Oh, the man cannot dwell in Me, for the sin of man's separation from God has been increasing on and on for seven thousand years from man to man, and once with him the need for happiness has been aroused in him, because man lost his happiness and has no longer found it, and if he still thinks that he has got hold of it from time to time, oh, it is not, for man's happiness had to be God, just as My happiness was supposed to be man.

For seven thousand years I have struggled to reach out My hand and take the man back to Me. I have looked for seed to be put into ground to make the man again and then to keep him, helped by all heavenly powers, but man has always withered away, always under My very eyes. I have fought with him to bring him to remorse because of his falling away from life. However, he has always got upset with Me more and more and forsook even more. Neither love, nor reproach has made man come back to Me and comfort Me for My wound from him. I came two thousand years ago from the Father to man and I assumed a bodily form to be seen and to draw the man to Me and to the Father so that he might become love like God and thus to receive My comfort back. However, man has not been able to be love, and because he was not able, he remain in his body, he remained in this way then when I showed My love to him face to face more than I showed it in paradise. Then, in paradise, I told him not to eat of the tree of knowledge, and when I came two thousand years ago in the flesh among people, I gave to man to eat of the tree of life and to live forever, but even then the man was not able to love Me forever, because in paradise he ate of the tree of knowledge, and knowledge was supposed to be God's, Who can work against evil, Who can work good things.

Two thousand years ago I came on earth as the tree of life and I gave the man to eat of it, and I taught him how to eat of it to be alive like the tree of which he eats. Oh, My people, do you really understand My sufferance? Oh, let us comfort each other our pain, let us give each other power for sufferance, because sufferance is hard, and it is mysteriously hard, for it has suffered mysteriously.

I am with John, the Baptizer, on his day of feast among saints. We have come to My people on earth, oh, My Baptizer. Let us sit down with a feast into his midst. My word is a feast for those in heaven, because the heaven does not have any comfort just like God, and My word is refreshment for those in heaven. You knew how to give Me to the people. You called them to cleanness and repentance and you told them that after you I was to come with cleanness and then with the man's resurrection by the preaching of the kingdom of the heavens on earth. Those who open to Us to come back into the book are tired; they are deeply aggrieved and are not comforted in pains as We are. Let us work the spirit of resurrection, let us work upon man and let us speak! Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, little Lamb of the Father. I was he whom the Father sent into the world to be Your angel before You coming on earth, and the Father also sent me through the angels as He also sent You, and He sent me for You, and He sent me for man too. The voice of the angel called my name John before my conception, and the angel said that I would turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord, their God, preparing a people for Him, because I would be great before the Lord, and even from the womb I would be full of the Holy Spirit. Oh, how was I not supposed to be like that if I was announced by the angel that I would be in this way? In addition, how was I not supposed to be so, after You, Lord, through Your mother, blessed my mother when they met and told each other the news of the angel, for me and for You, before our birth among people?

Oh, the scribes and the Pharisees of today's time wonder that You speak to so much into the midst of Your people. Oh, the man forgets how much comfort You need from man. It was written in the Scriptures to come as word on earth and to be called the Word of God (Apoc: 19/13.) and that a sharp sword would come out of Your mouth, the word of man's calling to life and the word of punishment for those who have inflicted great pains on You now, in the end of the time.

Oh, people of the little Lamb of God! My spirit was crying painfully in the wilderness to the people to come and hear me and to raise to the Lord a prepared people, and my Gospel of that time has remained on earth. The Pharisees and scribes of today, who call themselves wise and who are ashamed to speak the truth of this word, they say that the spirit of prophecy had come to an end once with me. Oh, let them look into the Scriptures of that time and see that I prophesied that the Lord would come and He came, and I also prophesied that He would cleanse His threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, and He would cast the chaff into the fire. Oh, the prophecy had not come to an end once with me, but some had been the prophets up to me, and others have been the prophets after me, for the Lord's disciples were prophesying and then many saints have prophesied after that, and it was written about these things.

Oh, you, the people who are nourished to God the Word, get up and work like me! Get up to work, you, those in the gates, for the Lord to come always to the people and to prepare it for Him, and get up and work people of the Lord from that come and draw near be His sons and teach them His repentance, and teach them as I taught them, because repentance gives a beautiful guise to man, a beautiful spirit. The man's lack of repentance makes the Lord suffer, and you are at the gates and you are between God and man, and you have enemies, sons. Oh, what pain! This pain is great with God. Every pain that is crushed within you comes from the spirit of unbelief and lack of humility of those who strike you. Oh, behold in what kind of sins fall those that do not stay beautifully in the spirit of the holy faith! This happens to the one who does not stay with the Lord, and this has also happened to all of them and all have stricken then in those that have separated, and very rarely does a Christian stay quietly and humbly for his sins after he has left this fold. The humble spirit is that which helps you within you, but be wise little children lest by your unwise dwelling in the spirit of humility to diminish the work of the Holy Spirit, Who is in you for the sharing of the word, sons, and for the fed life of the sanctified people. The sin of the faith denial comes upon people and this people has to be strengthened in the Lord and it has to learn with every passing day more and more his poverty and his little of everything, for the man in the world will sell his soul for a slice of bread, which he will either have it or not, after that his testimony will be for God or against God. Oh, the Lord has sought to gather His people into His arms, for the time was about to come. Oh, the man is afraid for his body, but he is not afraid for his spirit. However, be wise and strengthen the spirit and faith of the sanctified people, for the Lord protects those who are sheltered from bad weather. Amen.

Oh, sons of men! I, the apostle of Jesus Christ, John, the Baptizer, cry out from heaven to you: repent! You have old and new sins. You need faith in the Lord's coming to you, and faith has power to make the Lord wipe out your sins if you do not longer remain in your sins. Come to repentance, for the time becomes a scroll and you do no longer have time to come to life. You should know that everything that is written in the Scriptures for the Lord's coming are true words, and he who ignores this word, which flows from the Lord's mouth over the earth, that one falls into condemnation, for the faith denial is coming and the man will have to choose.

Oh, do not forget, faithful man, and you, the unfaithful one too, oh, do not forget that it is written into the Scriptures that the lawless man that is going to appear in the end will be destroyed by the breath of the Lord's mouth. Behold a fulfilled prophecy! This word, which flows in these days from heaven to earth, is the breath of the Lord's mouth, the work of the seventh trumpet, the work of God, the Word. Oh, here it is why the man wages war with the unfaithful man by this word and with the people of today, faithful to this word! This word will destroy lawlessness by its breath and the man who covers it in a way that it may not be seen. Amen.

And as for You, Lord, be a fulfiller, for Your apostles have prophesied this because You filled them with power from above, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who protects Yours under Your mantel. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people, here it is why the lawless man gets his dogs and teaches them to bark and teaches them to bite the peace into your midst! The breath of My mouth makes him burn, it tightens him in his ties and he is angry. However, you shall stand fast in your faith, because I ask you this, and stay quietly, for I protect you because you are faithful. Seek to have a clean heart, for this means to be a man with clean hands, and I will take care of you all the time, but you shall not lose faith in My protection upon you. Remain under My mantel, for you are very small. Remain a child so that I may protect you. Remain near Me, My people, for everything comes to an end and the Lord and His people will remain. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, I would stay with you in the word longer, beloved people, but those who stay as My gates are weakened, they are tired under spiritual afflictions. Remain in a spirit of Epiphany, for I am your tabernacle. I am Who I am, My people. I am. Amen.

07/20-01-2009.

The Sunday of the tax collector and the Pharisee

Peace to you, My people! The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit strengthen your faith and faithfulness, your patience and wisdom and then your peace and love, for the days are bad.

Peace to you, My people of today! It is a great wonder for the man to be God's child. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, come to you as word and strengthen you within the work of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, as there will no longer be comfort for man on earth and man will face the sufferance which he does not expect, because the father of lie, the devil, will no longer have power to give his lying comfort to the man, and I am speaking now over every faithful soul to receive power from the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who was glorified and will be glorified on earth through the prophets and by His speech announced by the prophets, for all the prophets had spoken about the time of yesterday and about the time of today, and they had spoken by the Holy Spirit. I, the Lord, have always relied on man to be able to speak on earth, for I made the man to be My dwelling and then My help, so that man may be able to help man and thus the man may not be without God on earth, because it is hard without the Lord on earth for man, oh, it is very hard and the poor man does not know where this difficulty comes from; where does pain and sadness come from, his weakness and unbelief, his wandering away and then his punishment through these.

Oh, peace to you, My people! I am the Word of God and I have spoken in the midst of the Romanian people. I have drawn you to My spring to be My people close to the voice of My word. Oh, if had not seated you to be faithful before Me, I would have not been able to speak on earth, because I have to speak to the man when I speak, and My peace has to be between Me and him to be able to speak to him. Those without My peace between them and I can hardly listen to the entire word of My mouth, for they have as their peace on earth the lie born of man and fed by itself, for the devil has power through the man to make the man his servant, and he deceitfully feeds him with all his things hiding his lying face from man, because the devil cannot give life to man. Oh, it is only I Who can give life to man, even to the one who exalts himself, not only to the one who humbles himself before Me and before man, and two thousand years ago I spoke to the people of Israel about the one who exalted himself and about the one who humbled himself, and I taught him what life was when I spoke this to him, and he who had years to hear heard and was saved, for when the wisdom from above comes upon man and the man takes it in him, it is that which hears in man and which makes Me dwell and glorifies Me in man. Amen.

On this Sunday, My word of two thousand years ago is being read in churches, by which I spoke to those who pretended to be righteous before other people on whom they looked down from the height of their pride, and I spoke to them about two people who met in the temple for prayer: a Pharisee and a tax collector. The Pharisee was thanking and reminding God of everything he was doing good and of everything he was not doing evil as other people were doing or like that tax collector he saw him praying in the temple, who standing far away would not even dare lift up his eyes to the sky, but he only beat his breast saying: «God, be merciful to me, a sinner!». And I told the Israel's people that this one went to his house justified rather than the Pharisee, because with the Lord the man is different than as he lives on earth, for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and he who humbles himself will be exalted and this is how justice is with God for man.

Oh, My people, I have strengthened My descent to you and I have worked this through angels, for the heavenly powers serve Me the fulfillment of the Scriptures, and it is written in the Scriptures for Me to come and to rule over the nations with an iron rod and it is also written that My name is called the Word of God, and that is why I have been delivering My word into your midst, turning My name into deed over the earth and speaking into your midst and giving Myself to the sides for those who take Me from you and are nourished with My comfort, and blessed are those who bow to take in order to become wise through My spring upon you!

The haughty man does not love My wonder upon you and also the haughty man speaks evil of you, My people. Because of My word upon you, the man who exalts himself before Me and yours speaks evil of you. However, you should be good, son, and stay under My mantel, stay within the Lord your God, Who feeds you with a spirit of life giving, for the time on earth is as in the end, and it is as the man has made it against himself, because the man without God does the work of the devil on earth, and the devil is My adversary and his time is coming to an end, for the time has been coming close, and he has been trying to strengthen himself by his last powers that are against Me. However, I am the little Lamb of the Father and I will overcome the devil and all his angels and we will set on earth the song of victory, as it is written, for I will judge the immorality on earth and its entire body and I will avenge the blood of the saints, and there will be My wedding with My bride prepared to Me and with all those who are blessed, for it is written:

«Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding of the Lamb, and these are God's true words», because I am called the Faithful and True One, and My name is called the Word of God, the King of the kings and the Lord of the lords, and those who think they are the kings of the earth and who try to wage war with Me, will be overcome together with their life and will be thrown into the lake of fire, where brimstone burns, as it is written, for My word is a sword which comes out of My mouth to do justice to My saints. Amen.

Oh, My people, watch, and watch with Me for victory is needed, son! Give the Holy Spirit the Comforter to your soul to be diligent within these days, for you need to bring up prayers before God for all those that are oppressed on earth. Oh, remember the weakness of My disciples whom I asked to watch together with Me when I prayed to the Father in the garden of Gethsemane, and they could not stay awake because they were tired of sadness. I left them and prayed in tears to the Father and then I came back again to wake them up, for they were sleeping and I told them: «What couldn't watch with Me for one hour. Watch and pray that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit is indeed willing, but the flesh is weak». (Matt. 26:40, 41)

Oh, pray, My people, for you and for all those that are oppressed on earth, for I have also prayed to My Father for the comfort of those who are oppressed from all the evil things that are done into their midst. My angels go with Me and put a mark those who are oppressed, for it is written to be so and to protect those who are Mine, but behold, I come and teach them from My mouth and I speak this way to them:

You those who want to learn from God your salvation from the hour of temptation, which is to come on earth to test all people, oh, fill your hearts with the love of God and then with true faith! Get seated in faith and then in prayer and fasting, fulfilling the commandments of life with love! I, the Lord, protect you from the hour of temptation that is to come to test all people if you bring your hearts before Me, and your perseverance in watching with Me for your life with God. Leave off the pleasures for they are deceitful! Give up the lying teaching, for only God will be true on earth, and you will see this! Oh, give up all your sins, for they work death in man! Get rid of the sin and live in holiness, for without holiness no one will see the salvation that comes from Me, as this is written! Oh, it is the time to watch together with Me, the Lamb of the Father, to overcome the lie together with those who are lovers of God and to have victory over the satanic work on earth. Stop sinning so that you may be able to help God for your salvation! Keep a holy fasting, not only fasting[102] from food! Fast from sins and put away your unbelief, for the time is with unbelief in it, and the unfaithful people make it to be and that is why it is. Instead of being afraid of the satanic work, which tries to put its mark on your body, secretly worked out in such a way that you may not be able to perceive it when it comes to you, oh, keep a holy fasting and watch with prayer in your voice and sigh after God, so that He may come to protect you from the hour of temptation, for you are weak. Take an example of My word of two thousand years ago, spoken over the people of Israel, for this is what I said then: «Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted». Amen.

Oh, you cannot overcome the hour of temptation without God! Arm yourselves, therefore, with God, and do not forget about the sign of the holy cross; make the sign of it on your forehead and all over your body with three fingers close together, in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, so that satan's work may not have any effect on you! Be careful with your hand to make the sign of the holy cross[103], and make a cross upon you with your hand, and make it a great deal and make this sign all the time, for satan has great power among those who are baptized but who do no longer make the sign of the cross over their body and over all their things by the three fingers of the right hand closed together, confessing God, glorified and worshipped into the Trinity by your hand and praising Him within your heart forever! Light candles with oil into your houses (Candle - vigil lamp, r.n.) and become chrism bearers, soak it into your candles always burning, put a mark on your body and walk with the sign of the holy cross, and look for oil not passed through fire, for the fire must not touch the oil, but the oil has to touch the fire instead through the snuff which gets its burning from it, its light for the house of My Christians, (Normally in the lamp is used only pure oil, cold pressed oil – „untdelemn" in Romanian, not refined, not pass through the fire, light of the candle represents wisdom born of love for God proved by fulfilling the word, as the flame of the oil lamp is born, r.n.) because the candle lighted by a slip, written on it with the name of the Father, the Son and of the Holy Spirit, serves on behalf of the Lord over those who are faithful and holy, who wait for the Lord as their salvation. This is how you are to watch with Me, the Lamb of the Father, in time of trial, and this how we are to be victorious. Amen. Set a holy fast upon you, fast from sins and fleeting pleasures and very much deceiving, and then set upon you a fast from food and fast for three days in a row: Monday, for the protecting angel, and Wednesday and Friday for Me, so that I may have disciples on earth, for this kind of the devils in these days cannot be overcome but only as I overcame them, with holy fast and holy prayer, with a life full of the Holy Spirit in it and over it. Oh, come back to the Christian garment, put away all the temporary ornaments and dress up with propriety within your spirit and body, loving and feeding with My entire word and getting used to eat in this way, for the soul needs food to be able to live bodily and for the Lord. Come to holy wisdom, come, sons, and learn from My spring by which I come on earth to you to teach you the work of salvation concerning the time of trial, which is now on earth with its face hidden from your eyes and mind. I am the Word of God and I am in My second coming from the Father to man to teach him My coming with the saints, to get the man used to God on earth, with My kingdom in the midst of the people. Oh, clean yourselves of the snares you are in and which are set for you, for behold, I have given you holy advice; receive it in you, for it is as sweet as My life loved by the man who loves God! Bring your hearts to God! I, the Lord will exhort you with mercy and will make you God's sons, if you take in you this power, My teaching word upon man. Amen.

[102] See the selection topic: „About fasting and almsgiving", r.n.
[103] See the selection topic: „About the graven image and the sign of the cross", r.n.

Oh, My people, you are My path to the people, son. You are God's kingdom on earth, and I come out of you to the people to have mercy on them giving them awakening and then watching instruction. Be strengthened to help Me. I am the little Lamb of the Father and I have to overcome with those who are Mine the entire lying prophecy and all its working. Amen.

I have taught the Romanian people and all those who receive from My teaching, I have taught them to keep a holy fast and I still teach them no longer to kill in order to eat from the living beings killed by man. I urge the man to eat[104] as I commanded the man to eat in paradise[105] for what he was supposed to eat, for the time of nowadays catches the man in its trap as well.

Oh, it is the time for fasting and prayer and for holy watch, and as for you, shepherds of flocks, this is how you are supposed to teach the people, for the most pleasant sacrifice to Me from man is his humble spirit, by which the man is able to serve the Lord and then the Lord to serve man. It is written that everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. This Gospel is for the teaching of life and let the man learn from it the protection of his life. Amen.

[104] See the selection topic: „What defiles a man, what enters or what comes out of him?", r.n.

[105] «God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the surface of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food. » (Gen. 1/29.)

I am the Word of God, I am the little Lamb of the Father Sabaoth, and I have spoken to you on a Sunday, in a day of teaching, My people, and everyone who believes in Me, I, the Lord, will draw him to the Father and I will make him a son of My Father as I have promised by My word spoken over the man two thousand years ago.

Peace to you, My people! Be good! Peace to you, peace to you, peace to you, My people! Amen, amen, amen.

26-01/08-02-2009.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I am the Good Shepherd and I announce Myself Who I am, the One Who speaks. Amen.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I come down on earth as word, and I announce Myself when I descend to shepherd the man, for I ascended to the Father to come back, and I do not stay in heaven but I work on earth, for I am Shepherd.

Open to Me, you those who stand before Me when I announce Myself that I am descending as word in My book of today, for you are My way to man, as Father has ordained it. The Lord is coming to feed His people, for today is a feast of heavenly bishops, and I am coming with them into the book and we are speaking over the earth! Peace to you!

Peace to you, My people! I am with you in the word. I am the God of the living ones, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and of all those who have listened to My word in time, and I am the God of Basil, Gregory and John, and I am coming on earth with My saints and I am speaking with them and they with Me and with My people on earth and with every man who humbles himself to hear from heaven, for he who hears only from the earth with his ears, that one does no longer have ears to hear those in heaven.

Peace to you, My people of the Romanians set aside by the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who teaches the man from God! It is My feast with you and of My saints celebrated today within the synod in heaven and on earth. I have ordained these bishops to work during these days over the earth and to seal the beginning of My work of word by My trumpet Verginica fifty-five years ago. Then I gave them word to come down from heaven, from among saints, and to come and bless My descend of these days and to bless the vessel by which I, the Lord, had to trumpet over the earth by the sixth trumpet, so that I may become a river of word after that, and to seal a special place for Me and a little people, and to speak from over him and to set Myself as word into the book and to shepherd with an iron rod every man to whom it is given by God to hear the voice of the Shepherd with the cross. Amen.

I am the Good Shepherd. Two thousand years ago, I descended out of the heaven from the Father and I was born on earth of the virgin body and I had lived thirty-three years on earth, and in the end I laid My life on the cross for the sheep to become known as the Shepherd with the cross. Oh, how shall I not speak about whom I am whenever I come down on earth as word to shepherd with it? If it is written in the Scriptures to come and shepherd the nations with an iron rod, how shall I, the Lord, not fulfill those that were written about Me through the prophets? My iron rod is the word, and I am the mysterious Shepherd and I strengthen the man's faith when I speak to him. Oh, he who says that this word is not God, that one is written among those who are not faithful, who love falsehood, for the ruler of this age is the father of lie and he keeps the man in unbelief, and he gives this food to the man, the food of unbelief, but behold, I come and I feed the man, and each one gives the man what he has got. I am the One Who gives life to the man and I am the Word of God from the beginning, and life is within Me, and the life is the light of the people, as it is written.

I comfort Myself with the Father when I speak with the man on earth, and the faithful man is comforted with Me and with the Father, the man who waits for My coming with the saints, for I do not walk alone when I travel on My way to man, but I rather walk with the saints, for it is written: «He comes on a white horse and the armies that are in heaven follow Him on white horses, and His name is called 'The Word of God,' and He rules the nations with an iron rod and He is called Faithful and True». (See Apoc: 19/11-14) Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, God of Abraham, of Isaac and Jacob! Oh, our Lord, of Your saints after Your coming down on earth, born of the virgin body of Your mother, the Virgin! Oh, our Lord, of Basil, Gregory and John, You are the God of the living ones! The man on earth does not speak with the dead when he speaks with Your saints, asking them for help in his sufferance and in his trials of life on earth. All of Your saints are alive, just as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are very much alive, and there would not be any other happiness on earth for man as then when he speaks with You and with Your saints. You are the living One and so are Your saints, who have taken their life from You. You, Lord, are so mysterious and so great within Your saints! You, Lord, are the power of Your fulfilling word, but the ruler of this age, satan, has blinded the man so much, and soon, soon, he will come to an end with his pursuit after men's souls because of the spirit of envy in which he fell in the beginning when he fell from heaven through man, for the man built by Your hand became haughty at the beginning in such a way that he could not listen to You as You commanded him to obey, and by his disobedience the man fell from heaven and then the angel who served the man near him also fell, and once with him fell all his man-serving host, and since then he has been feeding with the spirit of envy against You, Lord, and since then he has been trying to draw the people to him and always to make his kingdom and with it to make war against you, but behold, You have armies of saints, and the prophets of all time have been Your dwelling places from where You have always, always spoken the word of Your victory against Your enemy, satan, to make him humble and to pull the man out of his dominion, out of his darkness, as You spoke to him two thousand years ago, a prophetic word through John, Your beloved one. Behold, we speak the word of teaching from near You over the faithful ones and over those who are not faithful on earth and we are Your witnesses, for Your testimony, Lord, is the spirit of prophecy, the spirit by which You worked and work over the earth. Amen.

We are the servants of the living One, of the One Faithful and True and we are His living saints, bishops in our rank according to His election, servants of the living God. Fifty five years ago, He gave us word to come down on earth and to establish the blessing of a bishop over His work of trumpeting in these days, and then we descended in our body (In physically manner, seen, r.n.) and blessed and gave of the holy mysteries (Holy Communion) to the one who was then to be the Lord's trumpet on earth before His coming with the mystery of the river of life. At the beginning of this trumpeting we were servants, and we were ordained to be the same afterwards, to seal today's little garden of the word of God and those that He, His today's witness in the church and we have established as servants of the Lord's church now, in the end, and we have worked mysteriously as the Lord worked mysteriously when He came and established His kingdom over His little ones two thousand years ago, because then, as now, He was not believed and received by those to whom He had come to give their salvation, which is His kingdom.

We are speaking to you, the Lord's people, taken out of the Romanian people and set aside by Him for His today's works, and we are speaking to the sons of men. Oh, those people who listen to God on earth, those are God's sons, and those who do not listen to Him on earth, those are men's sons and have the devil as their father, whom they serve, and there is no one to open their mind to understand and distinguish God's work from satan's work, for they have no teacher with mercy over them, and we are coming towards them to shepherd them and to tell them that the kingdom of the heavens is not of this world, but it is from the heaven from God for those who are His faithful ones and saints.

Oh, we are speaking to you, faithful people, and the son of God's word. Oh, set down to great watch, for you have to lift up a holy and strong prayer for all the sons of men so that the Lord may turn them to repentance to the forgiveness of their sins and to their illumination with the light from above, the light of the resurrection from the death of their sins, for sin is death upon man. Oh, strive, son, strive to a lively prayer, for you have to overcome with the Lord and with His saints satan's deceitful work, which works mysteriously to draw the people after him, for behold, he and his servants work hard to seal the people with his seal, but the Lord has always spoken over this nation to wake up and watch for the Lord's coming and for the coming of antichrist, and then for this nation to remain with the Lord and to listen to His voice of Shepherd. Amen.

We, the three bishops celebrated today within a synod of saints, leave a threefold blessing upon you, people with a new name of New Jerusalem on earth among people. We leave upon you the seal of the living God, and we put a mark upon you in a mysterious way in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit the Comforter, for we are chosen by the Lord to bless and to watch over His work of today and over its servants and over its faithful people. Be the sons of the holy and strong prayer, as by prayer with grace upon it you will be overcomers with the Lamb of the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ. Ask for the destruction of the work of satan's hidden things and ask from the Lord protection over His faithful people from everywhere and teach the people to mark themselves with the sign of the holy cross by the three fingers kept closely together within the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit the Comforter, and let them put this sign over their little houses and over all their things and works likewise, and let their works be the works of the Lord. Amen. The more the satanic spirit burns his spices to enchant those on earth to him, the more the Lord's people is to burn their candles with oil, with a written note in them within the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, to God's greatness for victory, and let the Lord's church strengthen themselves and cry out to God for the Lamb's victory and the victory of those who are redeemed by Him. Amen. Let the people stay having been sanctified with fasting and prayer before the Lord, and blessed is the one who is sanctified by this word, by which the Lord, Jesus Christ has shepherded on the earth. Amen.

Oh men's sons, God is not the God of the dead, but of the living ones. You shall not speak with the dead then when you pray and speak in prayer with the saints of the Lord, but you should rather speak with the living ones. We strengthen your faith within the Lord and within His saints. Be faithful! Those who are faithful lose nothing; those who know to have the Lord on their side by faith, placing His saints as their intercessors before Him. Be on the watch! The sin of the faith denial comes down on earth in a covered manner, and the Lord takes care to open your eyes to understand and to cry out to Him for your salvation from under satan's dominion. Oh, love poverty and little of everything, because the deceiving and passing riches do no good to you. Love holiness and stay awake so that your house may not be broken into, so that it may not enter your heart the deceiving spirit, which comes with a hidden face to you in such a way that you may not see his horn. The Lord has woken you up always, always by those who are His loved ones on earth.

Oh, Romanian people, stay awake, for you stay on the land of the country of brightness, prophesied by Daniel, the prophet, for the Lord stays on your hearth as the word of the Shepherd and He has been speaking on the earth in these days. Take heed at His voice of Shepherd! Watch out so that the thief may not come against your faith, and strengthen it to have it, to have grace by it and to have victory against satan by your faith. Amen.

And as for You, Lord, strengthen our word, the word of Your bishops over Your today's people and over the Romanian people, and wake him up to watch and to prevail against Your enemy and his into Your name. Give a strong faith to the Romanian people, for his holy ancestors stand before You for the hearth of the Romanian people, the citadel of Your coming as word on the earth now, in the end of the time. Give to the Romanian people a threefold blessing, and let his victory be great, oh, little Lamb of the Father! Oh, wake up the Romanian people and set him to watch and give him the victory, oh, Lord! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, beloved disciples, be servants on My behalf over My people and over My work of today! I strengthen and bless to fulfillment your speech over My people and over the Romanian people. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, all of your holy ancestors stand before Me for My victory and yours, for they see into your midst the work of God – The Word, Who strengthens your watch, faith and victory. Oh, son, watch, and I will give you the spirit of watch, I will also give you the gift of the holy faith, and I will shepherd you, as from among your shepherds, few, very few of them watch for your life so that the wolf may not come to tear something of it to pieces. Oh, stay with your candles burning, Romanian people. Let the candles be lighted in all your houses and let them burn with prayer in them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit for the destruction of satan's work. Amen.

Make the sign of the cross using your right hand, with three fingers kept closely together, Romanian sons! Keep your hand free to worship God with it making the sign of the holy cross, and dedicate your ways, your houses and food, your water, spirit, soul and body, for the time of faith denial has been hiding its face, but I am coming and teach you its face to know it and that you may come and stand before Me and to ask for your salvation, Romanian people, for I want to make out of your midst a new heaven and a new earth, and from place to place, from this beginning to set up My victory that has been waited for ages, and with it the man's blessing and then the salvation of My people Israel, the one who crucified Me on the cross two thousand years ago so that I could not be his God, but I am anyhow, according to the promises made to him by My prophets and his, and I want to wake him up for My coming again from the Father to man, for the heaven and the earth will pass away but not even a iota of My word will pass away without Me giving it all its fulfilling upon the earth and man. Amen.

Peace to you, Romanian nation! Stand on watch! Your God is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. From age to age, This was God in heaven and on earth. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, My people that I have taken into My service out of the midst of the Romanian people! Stand on watch son, and watch over this nation! You are specially blessed. Therefore, watch! I am your protector and I watch with your over the Romanian people and we watch in a heavenly way. Peace to you! Today is a feast of heavenly bishops into your midst. Amen.

Now, My trumpet Verginica (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) is preparing herself for her companion's place in heaven, given by Me to her at the beginning of this work and who then was taken away from near her by satan's work. She has come now and taken him to make him free from satan, who has kept him in bondage, for this one has not been able to be loosened otherwise from such strong bonds, by which satan has bound him. However, you three servants of the fire altar in the little garden of My today's word, call from now on the name of this son with prayer on the table during forty days in forty holy liturgies for him, as I have taught Mine to work for those who leave their bodies not being prepared. I, the Lord, will exhort you closely and we will overcome for the good way of this little soul to heaven, for satan is very upset now, when his victory has been spoiled through that which he has kept this son of Mine in his chains by the one that pulled him long, long time ago from My arm of Shepherd. Peace to you, sons! I have given you great help to be able to work for this son, released now from this bonds, so that you may put him back to his place, you, and not that who had brought him in bondage under satan, for I was not able to get him out otherwise but only as I have been working with him now. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Watch for My victory and yours! Be faithful and learn more and more to know how to receive Me when I come with news to you, for he who does not receive Me, that one does not know Me, because this is how he wants.

Peace to you, My people! I am the Good Shepherd, the Lord, Jesus Christ! I am your Shepherd, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

30-01/12-02-2009.

The feast of the Lord's meeting; the Sunday of the prodigal son

Today is a day of instruction and growth of My kingdom in those who are faithful, for I, the Lord, am the Teacher, and My people from the mouth of My spring of word is the one who is learning from Me. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I am your Lord and Teacher, son, for the time in which you live is the time of My coming as word on earth to make My people ready for the mystery of My appearance on the second time from the Father to man. I bind My time of two thousand years ago with My time during these days and I set you before Me to teach you that which the Israel people was not been able to learn then because of his haughtiness and envy. I came to him to make him gentle and humble in his heart as I was, and I taught him in love, but he left My teaching and walked according to his teaching. I taught him by My works and I wrote Myself down with him on the earth into his midst, and My works have remained as a testimony into his midst. In this day of feast, remembered today for the works of life, bring to memory about My submission of that time, for I was an infant, but I was the Son of the godly Trinity, and My parents took Me to the temple to dedicate Me to God as one Who was the first born, bringing an atonement sacrifice for My birth.

Oh, in this day you have to learn the gift of the holy faith, My people, for the old Simeon, whom the Holy Spirit told that he would see the Lord's Anointed One, was prompted to go to the temple even at that very moment when I was brought to be dedicated to God. Then the old Simeon took Me into his arms, blessed Me and announced Me that his eyes saw the salvation prophesied by the Lord in front of the nations, a light that was to be the light of the nations and to the glory of the people Israel.

Oh, My people, I have set into the midst of the Israel people the light of My coming, which was its glory among nations, but its unbelief was his carelessness. However, I have found in its midst the righteous Simeon and I had kept this one alive for many years to receive Me into his arms and to confess Me that I was meant for the falling and raising of many in Israel as a sign of denial. Oh, then I did not have a righteous man in Israel to believe and confess My coming in the flesh, and behold, I had found faith in old man and I had kept this one alive and by his faith to work a prophecy to the falling and raising of many in Israel and that he could fulfill those that were prophesied about Me and about Israel, and then again to find people to believe that I, the One Who was carried into the arms by old Simeon, was the Messiah, the Father's messenger.

Oh, My people, how much it means for God and for people to be a faithful man lead by the Sprit of God! Oh, son, what great is the mystery of faith! Truly, truly I said that the one who does not deny himself cannot come after Me; he cannot have faith and faithfulness. Oh, what a great mystery of life is for the man to give himself over to God! Then the Holy Spirit leads this one and the Lord does His work with the faithful one for those who will believe then in the true works of God. This is how I, the Lord, have also worked in your days, My people of today, and I have had hearts with faith in them and I have glorified Myself through them on the earth for those who have been faithful; however, two thousand years ago I said this: «When the Son of Man comes, when He comes again, will He find faith on earth?» (Luke: 18/8)

I want to get you used to gentleness, My people, for this gift is of great heavenly beauty in the heart of the faithful man. It is the warmth of the holy holiness and then it is its flame. It is this that I would like to sow in the people who try to get up to the glory of My today's work with you, My people. I have given to so many people the gift and the spirit of gentleness after Me and after you, My people, and they get together with gentleness near My spring in feasts and nourish their faith and life with faith. Oh, pray to receive this beauty, you and all those that will seek to understand what God on the earth within people and with people means, oh, My people. Amen.

On this Sunday I am teaching you, Israel of the Romanian nation, I am still teaching you the spirit of gentleness, and I am also teaching you its hostile face on him, for I want to grow you within the work of the Holy Spirit, son. I remind you of My parable of the prodigal son and about his brother, who remained faithful near his father with two sons. Oh, My people, the scribes and the Pharisees did not like My gentleness for the sinners, for I was telling them that if anyone of them who did not leave everything they had got, could not be My disciple, for the salt was a good thing, but if it lost its saltiness, how was it supposed to be made good again? It finds no longer its purpose, neither on earth nor in the manure, but is rather thrown outside. Oh, and who was to listen and have ears to hear from Me then? The tax collectors and sinners; they were staying around Me to listen to Me, and I was disregarded by the Pharisees and scribes, who were murmuring against Me saying that I received the sinners and I sat with them at the table. I wanted to get them used to the spirit of gentleness and I told them about the two brothers, one who went away and the other one, obedient to his father. The youngest of them asked for his inheritance, went for the pleasures' sake and wore out his life and everything he had until he came to be a stranger and hungry, and then he came to repentance to the gentleness of his father, who had to save him from his destruction. Oh, had the lost son not come back to his father, his father would have not turned to him with gentleness, and you have to learn a great lesson from this, My people, and deep wisdom as well. The man needs to have God come into his way and then to receive him when He comes, then when he falls away from His bosom and then when he comes again bowing his heart to his Father. However, behold, let the man who hears from Me receive great teaching, for the sin of envy is judged from man with God, and it is sin for the man to do so. The eldest son, however, got angry with this father when this one welcomed the prodigal son and then gave him back the sonship honor. Nevertheless, the father wanted to teach him and calm him down and therefore told him: «Oh, son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found». (Luke: 15/31, 32)

Oh, envy is not good, for it spoils the work of mercy and gentleness and it gives away to the sides the power of repentance from the one who is nourished with this murdering sin. I am He Who judges the man and the man is not supposed to do this.

Oh, you who are lovers of God on the earth, you do not have to call to account the way I work, for I am the One Who does this. Oh, keep away from your fallings from God, you, sons, lovers of God! I was sitting at the table with the tax collectors and sinners, and those who were murmuring against Me because I was doing all this, were of the Pharisees and scribes; they were of those who had no gentleness and pity as I had on every man crushed by weaknesses in order to give him My mercy and to make him get up and become a son of God. He who does not rejoice over a sinful man who gets up to come back to repentance, let that one come and learn what it means for man to become Christ's disciple, Who came into the world to save the sinners and to teach the repentance to the righteous ones.

I, the Lord, am full of mercy and gentleness for the man who is humbled because of his fallen life and reach out My hand after him, and I exhort you, My people, to be as much a savior as I am, son, for it is about these works that I will ask you when I come to see what kind of work the man did on earth. Let those who are My people and those who are born from now on be then; let all learn from Me that the sin of envy has its fruit and that all those who commit this sin will be known according to their fruit, for they have the spirit of discontentment, murmuring, self-love, self-righteousness, his neighbor's denigration, quarrel, and they also have the spirit of haughtiness from which the lie has been born.

I teach you, My people, to be like Me: gentle and humble in heart, merciful and affectionate with those who come to repentance, and to be full of patience and faith like the righteous Simeon, who did not doubt that the One he received into his arms he had to testify about was Messiah, the Savior of the people. Behold, this is how one is supposed to believe in God, like the righteous Simeon. Amen.

Oh, let the man be righteous in his soul and in this way he will have as a guide the Holy Spirit the Comforter, Who has mercy and gentleness by His work upon man. The broken and humble heart is God's way to man; it does not fall away from the way because the Lord supports it. It is for this that I have come on earth, My people. I have come for those who are humble and gentle in their heart, for those who are merciful and gentle in their spirit, for those with a fatherly and motherly heart for the fallen creature and without help on earth, for the man is fallen on the earth among thieves of soul. I have always settled on the earth the word of the man's resurrection, for My spring of word is the river of life, and I give to the man to drink of it if he wants to take. It is for this that I have become word on the earth, My people, and this is what I want to work with you before the nations. Keep yourself, son, within a spirit of faith, to be able to believe from God and then keep away from sin, for the sin of envy against God and against those like Him in mercy and affection, this sin has caused many to fall from My little boat with affectionate sons in it.

Let your affection be from heaven, sons. Let it be from heaven among you and let you also be from heaven through it. Grow through it to know God's mysterious ways, for this is how one believes, sons. By it you should love people, for them not for you, and by it you should forgive for you, sons, for he who forgives the one who has gone wrong against him, that one does to himself a lot of good. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, sons! I have filled Myself with comfort and with the joy from it because I could speak to you in a day of instruction. Do not murmur and love God and your brothers and this will strengthen you in your watch, sons. Those who are beautiful in their heart and mind are those who know to watch, and always, always I have given you instruction and I get comforted, those from heaven and I, when I speak to you on the earth. My speech is not long, but rather short, sons. My word has got life in it and the life is not much; however, much of it is needed and you should increase it within you from My word, sons. My table with you is My dwelling on the earth with the man; it is My coming again from the Father to man. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, your Teacher. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-02-2009.

The Sunday of the fearful judgment

I come down on earth with My glory and with all the holy angels, who serve My glory, and My glory is the word within My second coming from the Father. Little by little, and My greatness, which shines on the earth of My blessing from the midst of the Romanian land, will draw the nations to walk within the light of My citadel of New Jerusalem, and the kings of the earth will magnify this coming of Mine and will protect My citadel and its glory and they will get warmed under its torch, for I am its torch, the Lamb of the Father, and I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, and this is how I will appear for I am in My day of greatness. Amen.

I am coming, My people, to speak with you on a day of Sunday and so that we may also remember the promise of the glory of My coming, about which I spoke in parable two thousand years ago, and My speech of that time is testified by the Scriptures of that time, just as My speaking from today is being testified by My book of today, a book prophesied by the Scriptures to be, a book which stays open so that I may speak through it; the book with seven seals, which only I, the Lamb and the Word of the Father, have taken it from His hand to open its seals one by one, by My sacrifice and by the word of confession, to redeem people of every nation and language, people and tribe, and to make out of them a kingdom of priests to be on earth, as it is written to be fulfilled, and when the sky will be opened at sight, shaking the first creation, then the rulers of the earth will go into hiding from the wrath of My day, for I am sitting on the throne within these days and My book is open, and those who sit as rulers on the earth go into hiding, for My day is coming.

I am coming as word and I am coming to you, My people, for the other people on the earth hide from the face of My justice, for I sit on the throne; I sit in the book and speak from it and the rulers of the earth do not want Me and they hide from My face. However, receive Me and sanctify you and make room for Me with it and become a way of My coming, My people, for your faith in My coming make way to My word over the earth, and I will thank you with all the holy angels when the heaven will come into the open and I will say to you: «Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry, and you gave Me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; naked, sick and in prison, and you served Me». (See Matt: 25/34-36) And on that day all the nations of the earth will know you as My righteous ones, and the first heaven and the first earth will pass away, and there will be a new heaven and a new earth, and you will be My people and I will give you the new creation and we will grow with it and we will receive in it those who become holy for it, and this will not be a dream but it will be true, and blessed will be those who believe these words, prophesied two thousand years ago, and those who are unfaithful will act unfaithfully, as it is written.

Oh, My people, those in the tombs leap with comfort when they hear My voice into your midst, and behold, those on the earth are turning their years away before My speaking of today, which those in the tombs are hearing, son. My speech of today is the time of the judgment and it is preparing the waking up of those who are asleep, some to eternal life and some to eternal sufferance, as I spoke the word two thousand years ago. I exhort all those on the earth to their good work, which may make their way to their eternal life with joy. I exhort all people to seek after My Scriptures of two thousand years ago and help themselves with My teaching of that time, for he who reads in My Scriptures of that time finds the way.

Oh, read the book of My Gospel of that time, you, those on earth! Do not take to read only and only those written by people. Also take the word of My Gospel and you will find in it the way, the truth and the life, which will make you free. Worship with the sign of the holy cross and ask for the wisdom of God and then read the book of My Gospel and you will be revealed by it and you will love it, for My word is a life-giving spirit and drives away from man the unfaith and ignorance and replace them with the way, the truth and the life. Oh, seek to do good to Me so that I may be able to call you the blessed of My Father, for it will be painful for those who will be hearing on My day of glory when I will tell those who will have not loved Me: «Depart from Me, you cursed into the eternal fire, which is prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and thirsty, a stranger, naked, sick or in prison and you did not serve Me». (See Matt: 25/42-43) Oh, seek to understand what it means to love and serve God on the earth. Ask for this wisdom from Him, as because of the lack of God in man, the people do not understand God as it is to be understood the mystery of the love of God and its ministry for it. Behold, I, the Lord, am on the earth with My throne of teaching, from which I judge the works of the man's life so that the man to receive the wisdom of My word. The river of life is My word into the midst of the Romanian people and this is how the mystery from the Scriptures of the river of life has been fulfilled on earth, and on one side of the river and on the other the tree of life grows; God grows in the people and the Lord bears fruit and makes His disciples for the healing of the people as it is written. I do not shout in the streets but I work wonderfully, only for the man to come to believe and to drink and take and share and then this river to flow to the resurrection of many, for behold, the dead in the tombs leap with resurrection and confess, and I am the way of their confession, for they were remembered now, in the day past, on My altar of new Jerusalem, and they were released to come and sit at the table of My people, at the table of My church, at the table of My wedding with My bride.

Oh, catch voice, sons, suffering of waiting! I make you all into one spirit to be able to speak as one and from there to bear testimony of God to those on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, who is as great as our God? He is the wonderful God within His saints and for His mercy for the sinners and crushed by their sins both in the time of their body and after their passing away from their body. Oh, the work of His coming on earth as word is great, and those who have got eyes and ears from Him see and hear, and behold, we, those who are asleep, we, those from the tombs, have eyes to see and ears to hear and we see and hear His coming of today on earth, the work for our salvation and yours, of those on the earth. Oh, do no longer commit sins! Sin has brought death into the people, for the wages of sin is death, and the Lord, Jesus Christ came two thousand years ago on the earth with His resurrection from the dead and gave it to them. Live on earth for the memorial of those who are asleep, seeking after the Lord with prayer for their resurrection, with prayer, not with other works, not with other sacrifices, but with faith and affection and with brotherly and fatherly tears for the resurrection of those asleep and for their life without sigh, for the life is that after the passing away of the body; it is not that in the time of the body, as this one is only for the preparation of the man's real life. Oh, do no longer live temporarily on the earth, but rather live eternally in your time in the flesh as well! Live with eternity not with temporariness, which leads the man to ignorance and from it to unbelief, for woe to those who do not follow the Lord on the earth!

There has been decreased a lot the woe of those who have been waiting in the dwelling of the dead since the Lord set on its rock His church on the earth, from where those who serve in it have called the Lord for the salvation of those who are asleep, prepared and unprepared, at their leaving from the earth. Every day, more and more, their suffering and their expectation are getting smaller and the spirit of the holy joy has been increasing over those who wait for the hope of resurrection.

Oh, do no longer sin! Sanctify yourselves! This is the wisdom of life. Speak to each other with the heavenly and holy things, cleanse each other in your mind and soul, and mention by your speaking and prayers the invisible world and the world of those asleep, so that the heavenly kingdom on the earth may appear in a good land within its work of new heaven and new earth. Oh, the Scriptures of the new making and that of the resurrection of the dead are not hard to understand, but they are not read and wanted by the people, for the people do not have among them those that are supposed to exhort them. We, those in the tombs, exhort you; we exhort you for you and for us, open to God's kingdom on earth! Open to the Lord when He knocks! He speaks from the midst of the angels and this is heard on the earth, and blessed are those who have ears to hear from God! Man is not master on the earth, but only God is the Master, for the man can do nothing because the sin in him. Love life by loving the Lord! Exhort one another to love the Lord and to leave off the hidden and visible sin, for sin is death, it is not comfort as the man feels it to be. Sin is the hell in which man burns, we tell you, those who suffered in this way on the earth and we still suffer until the whole salvation by the Lord, Jesus Christ is done, and by the perseverance of His church on the earth. Let the holy one be holy still and let him work hard for the resurrection of the dead, and also let him hear then, in the Lord's day, the calling for those who are blessed, who worked for those who were hungry and thirsty, for those who were strangers and naked, for those who suffered and in prison, to be released from their burden! Oh, wipe out the tears of those who have been waiting for their resurrection and put an end to their sigh, for your reward is great in heavens! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, men's sons! You, those on the earth, hear the voice of those in the tombs, released by Me, the Lord, so that it may speak in their day of memorial! As the saints have days of memorial on the earth, the same have those asleep, for this is how the work of the church is, and it is the time when those in the tombs hear the voice of the Son of God, My today's voice, which makes the end of the ages and the new beginning of God's mysteries come near. I, the Lord, am full of mercy for those who suffer and I come as Savior on the earth for those alive and for those asleep, who hear My voice more than those who are alive, for those who are alive close their ears not to hear from the Lord and thus to turn back from their ways so that I may heal them from themselves. I, the Lord, am the man's way to God. I get in as word to the people on earth, and soon, soon, it will be for the nations to walk within the light of the citadel of My word, that from the midst of the Romanian people, and kings of the earth will get warmed under its torch, for I, the Lamb and the Word of the Father, am its torch, and this is how I will appear that I am in My day of glory. Oh, come to the spring of the river of life, clear spring, oh, men's sons! Come sons, and become God's sons on earth, for the Lord is Master in heaven and on earth, and you live on His earth! Come, come, sons, and know the Lord! Amen.

And as for you, My people, stay as the way of My coming, live faithfully and truthfully like the Lord, your God, for it is not good for the man to live otherwise on the earth. With every passing day, brother to brother, become more and more spiritual, and invite Me to sit at your brotherly table and give Me rest. Always, always, I have given you a spring of Holy Spirit. Become Holy Spirit, become God by grace, son, for the gift that I am coming to give you - and you should receive it to be like Him - is the Holy Spirit, My people; it is My gift for you. Oh, share Me among brothers and share Me in abundance, and your obedience will give forth fruit hundredfold on the earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

09/22-02-2009.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the One with a life-giving spirit for man. I am descending on earth as word and I am served by all holy angels, as it is written about My coming again on earth after the man for the reward of the man's faith or unfaith, who has loved or not loved Me, who has suffered with Me or not suffered until the victory for endurance, and the endurance of the saints has been in all the times My salvation in time and the victory over the angels of the darkness, who, because of the man's haughtiness, fell from near Me, for they left Me for man.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and the Father suffers and I am the Son of sufferance and I suffer just as My Father does, for I and the Father are One in heaven and on earth, and We suffer because of the lack of faith on the earth, as man feeds his unbelief with everything which is temporary, and the holy angels bear Our pain between heaven and earth to be able to help the man to come back to God with faith and in such a way that he may also know what this wonder means, which has been waited by the heavenly world, and which is not seen by those who are in the flesh on earth, but that which is true.

I am descending with a great sigh and with great brokenness of spirit and body; I am descending to the people of My word, which believes in My coming having long endurance for My pains and asking from Me powers, comforts and My coming to him to comfort him always in his endurance and wounds, for I am the endless mercy and I watch with great mercy for those who mourn and cry under all that strike against them because of the envy of the opposing devil, who has served man in his most painful moment for God, for the man I set in paradise was disobedient to God and listened to himself, and the angels served him as they served Me, and since then man has been doing Me harm. Since then there have been black angels as well, who pull the man out from Me, as the man paved the way for their falling from the light, from the ministry they were dedicating to Me closer than any other angelic armies, and behold, those who were My closest servants caused Me the greatest sufferance and since then they have been hostile to Me, for they fell into the man's service, which punished Me by his fall from paradise, for the self-will took the man out of My arm and threw him down on earth.

Oh, the earth is full of unfaithful men who have not got any steadfastness in their life from above for man on earth! Oh, the earth is full of sins, it is full everywhere! In the world and in all its ways there are lots and lots of Sodom and Gomorrah's dead men, and those who are Mine have to stay within Me lest they may fall from the life in the time of nowadays with its darkness hiding that the holy angels shudder because of it, for they serve Me in heaven, in the sky and on the earth, and they serve to My coming. Oh, it is not possible for the man to remain unbitten in his heart into the midst of the emptiness on earth, and every evil thing that bites the man has hidden work so that the man may not come back from it and then come to his salvation, again and again to his salvation, and to see his sins, for this means the man to get rid of the darkness and then to be able to see again, for he who really comes closer to God among people is the one who sees his sins very well and how deep they are in his being, oh, and how weak the man is for this work of his resurrection from God! The man's heart is divided into many little pieces, not only in two, for when the man stays like that, he is always pulled out from God's bosom, Who always tries to take the man within Himself; however, the man is so small in virtue, even if he knows what its work is, for man loves anything more than God, like Adam in paradise, and he has more mercy on man than on God.

I, the Lord, have been speaking on the earth during these days and given the man the word of life and of the resurrection from the dead, and he who hears it and believes it but does not always take from it to look well at what is written in it, that one falls from God, and a man like that falls in his self, he falls in ignorance and then he despises the instruction of My mouth, finding fault in My teaching, and the disobedience makes the man free from God and the man does no longer have the white angel as his strong angel but he has the black angel as his counselor instead, and the face of the people on earth proves this out like their mind as well, like their work and of the work of the angels chosen by them to take care of them.

Oh, I feel like getting angry for My pains from those who know this word and leave it off for their human mind, but love tells Me that it is long-enduring and it does not get angry, but it humbles itself being long-enduring.

Oh, My people, I am full of pain and My pain comes down to you so that I may bear it with you for you to be My disciples in pains, to be like your Teacher, son. The opposing spirit to Me, the one works through the black angels, always shoot arrows into My face and glory, for these have rebelled against Me since then, since they, together with the man as well, lost their glory and light once with the man's disobedience, and since then the man has a white and a black angel for him, and few of them, very few are those who are led by their white angel, because the man's lack of God has always weakened his waiting, patience and then his faith, as it happened to poor Adam when he fell by his haughtiness and fell from paradise and entered the time; he got out of eternity and since then the time of the man has given Me the pain and has put an end to My rest and joy for the man's creation out of the dust and out of living soul by My breath upon him. The man lives on earth by My breath upon him, and if he had not had breath from Me, the man would have not been able to live on earth, but behold, the man's ingratitude keeps Me away from him, it keeps Me fallen in man.

However, what does the white angel from man's life mean? Oh, the one who is led by his white angel, that one lives only in the love of God and in his obedience over his life with Me, and the calmness is on his face and in his heart and no evil from the earth and in man puts him down, and he does good around him by the work of the white angel, who serves the gentle and humble one in his heart, who, by his love within Me, is long enduring and does not judge or gets angry but rather humbles and lives by his humility, for this is the living life in man, served by the white angel.

There was once a very beautiful disciple and he was beautiful in everything he has got, and he had always got on his tongue a very beautiful word and this word was saying: "Bless, father!" And in this way he was blessed in all his inclinations, in all his thoughts, in all his moments, in all his works, and his counselor was his intercessor with Me, and this disciple was calm and very beautiful and he did not know what sadness was, because he always lived in humbleness, and humbleness means heaven, just as heaven means humbleness. Oh, what a beautiful life, what a soul away from the devils, what a blessed air was around them for the spoken word of the blessing, air full of holy angels! Behold, this is what Adam could not do; and Adam was in paradise not on the earth, and being in paradise he hid within himself, and the black angel was serving him, for his haughtiness made the angels who were serving him fall into his darkness, the first host of God's angels, and when I, the Lord, pulled Adam out of himself to put him face to face with himself and with the deed of his disobedience to Me, which gave birth to darkness for his angels, Adam punished Me with his separation from Me, instead of punishing his hiding from Me, for he separated himself from Me and not I from him, when that happened, and then the black angel always has led him, while the white one, has been overcome by him and by the devil.

Oh, with whom shall I cry over My wound of that time and up to this day, and always, always renewed within Me by all those who separate from Me on the earth, being served by the evil angels? Oh, with whom shall I bear My wound, with whom in heaven and with whom on earth? With whom, oh, with whom?

The holy angels are coming with Me on the earth and they are keeping Me to speak about My wound to the man, and together with Us the man built by My hand and then set in paradise is coming as well. Amen, amen, amen.

– Your word full of Your tears, as great as my sin, Lord, fell then in paradise before me, face to face with me, and I found You guilty for my deed and I gave voice to my revenge, trying to justify myself before You, and then Your word fell in tears on me, on my spirit, soul and body, oh, Lord, because I did not receive You, with my repentance, with my waking up from the sin of haughtiness, but even more, I sunk deeper within this sin, and since then and up to this day the haughty man is the one who has not received You when You have tried to speak to him about his disobedience to his resurrection from it, to his not separating himself from You, but, on the contrary, he has found You guilty and has not received You or wanted Your sweet life with obedience in him, with humility and by bowing before You. For because of the sin of his haughtiness, the man tries to tell that You are not the One Who wants to open his hearing and sight, and behold, the man lives and dies in haughtiness, for the sweet humility, the servant of the white and harmless angel does not have a sweet taste and holy in man, and the man spit over this sweetness, and he takes into his heart and on his tongue the bitter taste of the black angel and that of the sin of haughtiness and thus he lets himself be led astray that way. After seven thousand years, I am crying with You, looking at the man's spirit of haughtiness, who takes from himself for his steps without God, as I did, and the man's black angel carries the man the way he wants, while the white angel is overcome and drowned in shame and tears because of the haughty one who wants to be victorious.

Oh, with whom should You cry over Your wound, always renewed in You because of man's haughtiness, by all those who depart from You on the earth, being served by the evil angels? Oh, with whom shall you bear Your wound? With whom in heaven and with whom on the earth? With me, You Lord, bear it, within the sons in heaven, who have been aggrieved from my sin in paradise and from the man's entire sin from that time and up to this day, and from the earth You have borne Your pain with those in whom You have put it to bear and to be painful in them, for You can no longer bear it, as suffering as You have been for seven thousand years. Oh, make those with whom You bear Your very much pain the man's saviors, for You love them as Your most sweet ones, who bear You with faith in people on earth; however, I, before my falling on the earth, raised against You in paradise and then I fell as I found You guilty because of the deed of my disobedience.

Oh, may the son of Your today's people and every son who hears Your word from Your mouth come closer and closer to You, Your word which has been flowing like a river over the people in these days! Those who have come near to You are those who see their sins more and more and deeper and deeper, but woe, how far away is the human kind from this holy work of the sight of their sins! Oh, it is hard for the man, which becomes intelligent within himself, for such a man sets himself wiser than God on the earth and lets the Lord be small, and then the black angel leads him and all his work against God! Even from his birth the man has a white and a black angel, and it is known when one or another leads him.

*Oh, do not seek revenge yourselves, you, the Lord's sons, and you, men's sons! Be servants of love! It is patient and kind, it does not get angry but it humbles itself and is not proud. Oh, sons of the Lord's word, take care of the fruit of your prayer! Do not let the devil take revenge in you while you are praying, for those who take revenge turn their prayer into sin. If you deeply make the Holy Spirit of your brothers suffer, you pray in vain to the Lord in the time of your prayer. Do not be troubled but rather be content in your prayer lest it may be born in you the spirit of revenge against brothers while you are praying, for this is the devil's will. Oh, do not blame your neighbors or yourselves when revenge comes into your heart! The holy fathers of Christ's church are setting in this day over the church the memorial of the Lord's Gospel about prayer and fasting, as on this day one announces that a fifty-day fasting begins for the preparation of soul, body and spirit of the faithful and holy man and of the faithful and sinful man through weaknesses, so that he may have control over the weak things in him, at least as long as time announces fasting and prayer, as the man knows it from the fathers. Oh, how beautiful it was on that day when the Lord took His disciples with Him and went up on the mountain to teach the crowds speaking to them about those who were blessed within Him and His pains, and then how beautiful He taught them how to do the works of mercy in secret for its reward then and how to pray to the Father to keep them from temptations and to forgive the mistakes of their neighbors in such a way that their Father might also forgive their mistakes as well, because if the man did not forget his neighbors, the Father would not forget his mistakes either; oh, and then He was teaching them all and He was teaching them from the mountain and He was speaking to them to fast in secret during the days of fasting, with their serene face and their anointed head for the Father to reward them, and He also taught them not to receive anything from the earth to their heart lest their treasure may be on earth, for the man does not believe that he cannot serve two masters, but they had better leave their Father to give their necessary things, and they should seek after the Father's kingdom with them, and He will take care of everything necessary for the sons of obedience, and then the Lord also spoke to the crowds: «Do not judge, so that you won't be judged. For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you measure, it will be measured to you». (Matt. 7:1, 2) And then He taught them about love and its fruit, and all of them were amazed of His teaching, as One Who had power and not as their teachers. Behold what a sweet remembrance of Jesus Christ, the Lord, He Who sat in counsel with the Father at the beginning of the creature and then He took the dust into His hand and kneaded me in His image and after His likeness and then He breathed from Him a living soul over me, and I stood before him, listening to His word spoken upon me, and which I trampled down afterwards, because violation against God is death. Now I come with the Lord and behold, I am speaking to the crowds on the earth. Oh, if only they heard my testimony full of sigh!

Oh, the Lord has got great pain now in the midst of His people and He is afraid to speak about it; the Lord is afraid of the revenge from man. Oh, the Lord has caught fear of man and He takes care to protect this work by which He walks on earth to draw everyone to the Father, as it is written, for if He did not come now, no one, no one on earth would call out to the people anymore to come back to the Father, for all people do something else on earth and the Lord is not guilty that the man does not want to fulfill His word and will, for man is guilty on earth, as I was in paradise.

Oh, live in fear of God, sons of His word, and live under His blessing, sons, for he who comes out from God's blessing dies, sons, because the world is death for those who are lovers of God on the earth, but those who are poor in spirit remain with the Lord, sons, they remain with His grace. Amen.

Oh, my Lord and my God, I have mourned with You in the word over Your heavy wound from me and from man, to be able to bear with You the heavy wound. Oh, You can no longer bear it and it makes You feel like getting angry from Your suffering from man. Your sigh is suppressed because You can no longer speak, Lord. Oh, peace to You! Oh, You have mercy on the man who despises You and on the son who punishes You striking into Your glory! You are the slaughtered Lamb and You are always pierced by man. Peace to You from those who have been long-suffering together with You on earth, but also give them peace as a good thing, because You are so merciful! Work out salvation from above for them, their salvation from pains, oh, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, you who have comforted Me in My wound as you could not do then in paradise after you wounded Me leaving Me sighing after you, and now behold you have comforted Me in My wound, for you have been drinking much pain for a long time. Oh, I have been waiting for oil on the wounds, but only the forgiven sinners know the power of pain and the power of healing upon wounds then. You have come closer to Me and told My people about the day when I went up into the mountain and spoke about the happiness of those who were happy with Me and about all the works of My righteous ones, which, those who are saved have to work. Now, I am speaking again to My people and exhorting it to a blessed life for its steps. Amen

My people, oh, My people, listen to the Gospel of My love! Open My Gospel on a Sunday day and live with Me the days of that time when the crowds taught by Me were sitting down marveled at My teaching full of power. Oh, today I have been teaching in the same way those who have heard Me from this spring, but the rebellion of today against My work done on behalf of the black angels who lead those who are doubtful, this rebellion shoots arrows against Me. However, the Father fills Me with power to give teaching to the man; I and those from heaven. Amen.

And now, you, those anointed in My little garden of word, servants of prayer before Me, start with a sacrifice on the altar for the soul that has left not being prepared from the earth now, for Verginica's companion, sons. This son was weak, poor of him and fell under the guidance of the black angel, and his white angel sighed all his life near him afterwards. The power of witchcraft and charming, under which he was kept after his falling out of My arm and My trumpet, did not give Me any chance to release him otherwise but by his taking up from the earth so that I might fight with heavenly weapons to cleanse him from earth and up to heaven, for his disobedience and his walking from place to place without blessing made him fall among thieves, who could hardly, hardly left any life in him in his time on the earth. I always called him but he was tied up with black bonds and he could not help Me break them open from him. Now, you have been bringing, from this day and up to the celebration of My resurrection, sacrifice of prayer for his cleansing, candles, communion bread and wine on the altar and also prayer for his release from the bonds. Make a special mention for his name with rebuke over the black devil, who led him and then we will have victory, anointed sons. Oh, you have suffered greatly. I will try to comfort you, sons. I will fight for you and for My work and I will destroy the haughtiness that strikes in you from everywhere, inside and outside, and soon, soon I will show how true I am within this coming of Mine, for I have to show to those who doubt that the Lord is this word, that I, the Lord, am He Who speaks, and that they do not gain anything against Me or you; those who want to say that I am not the word of today, which is coming with the clouds, for this is how I am coming and I am coming with all My angels within My coming, as it is written.

Oh, My people, as often as possible and well prepared, have communion with My body and My blood, for no one can overcome on the earth except through Me, through My body and blood, for this is written for those who are victorious, who have confessed My work and word of yesterday and today. Oh, I feel like getting angry, I feel like giving those who rebel the biting rod. I can no longer bear this pain on My torn cheek and My Spirit, humiliated and overcome by man. Shall I really stay like that, so overcome by man? Shall I play to man's liking? Oh, I cannot protect from falls and destruction those who fall from My arm and striking Me on it and giving Me away from the whelm of their watch for them. Oh, let the rebellious ones repent! I, the Lord, give them power to repent and deny themselves and who do not throw their cross away but rather walk after My, with their cross and with their love for it. Amen. I, the Lord, invite those who are guided by black angels and who have power by the rebellion of the man's heart and by man's self-mind, I invited them on to the way of the cross, the way with a spirit of life giving on it, the way of My today's word, for sufferance is that which always, always gives life to man in God. Amen.

Oh, do not flee from sufferance, My people! Those who run away fall and earn nothing but sufferance for eternity. Oh, stay within My painful arm and do not strike on it to hurt Me, and thus putting Me away from you! Oh, I cannot help protecting you within Me and in the midst of My work, son. Repent from everything you have done against Me and bite the tongue of your spirit and body when you receive advice from the black angel to rebel and in this way to stagger away from My today's way, son! The black angel nourishes the man's mind when the man separates from Me, but I deal with the man by the wisdom from above and I show him through it the white angel, whom he is supposed to listen to and follow and not to let himself be overcome by the black angel of the man's life. Oh, if the man saw the work of the angels that lead him, then he would have the whole wisdom and would fight by it, but he who believes what I tell him, that one is he who sees. Amen.

Oh, aggrieved sons of My people, bear with patience all the things of today's time, which beat from the inside and outside against you. Strengthen Me upon you, for to those who have staggered within Me and you, I, the Lord, will open their eyes wide to see with them, for I cannot bear the pain and My torn cheek and My Spirit, humiliated and overcome by man.

I wait for comfort from those who make Me suffer. I wait and exhort My people to patience, to justice, to great faith, to prayer and fast, and their fast should be fed with more word from heaven, for he who does not read My word falls down and wanders away, and the written word judges the man. Oh, I long, I very much long for the comfort of those who inflict a severe wound on Me!

Let the time of My people be blessed, that up to the feast of the resurrection! I, the Lord, tell you, My people; I tell you from now on the wish of the resurrection to comfort you and the evil angels to hear, and I tell you: Christ has risen! Christ has risen! Christ has risen! It is a time of great trial, but listen to Me in everything to be the one blessed by My word for those who listen to it, for those who do not forsake Me and you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

16-02/01-03-2009

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the right faith

(Excerpt)

I am going to speak with you too, sons, and I am going to strengthen you specially, because the time is hard for My walking with you, and you have to sit in council with Me for your progressing, sons. The world speaks evil of us, and those who are reluctant tremble on earth, but faith and steadfastness with Me are nourished only out of My love in you. Make much room to My love in you and among you, sons. You should love nothing else and no one else on earth, but only what I advise you to do. I will give you advice, I will take counsel with you, I will comfort you, I will teach you and I will grow you for My things, and happy will be those who will grow for My things, and they will be My fruit, as My work with you is for the resurrection of the dead and they will get up and confess God and My today's work with you. Amen.

23-02/08-03-2009.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the holy cross; the feast of the forty holy martyrs from the lake of Sebaste

I announce Myself at the gates to come as word into My book of these days and I strengthen under the cross the people of My today's word. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who was crucified two thousand years ago by the Jewish people, after I was charged by it that I broke its law from the fathers, its house of worship and its honor from God on the earth. I am the Lord, Who was laid on the cross between two thieves, and one of them repented and joined in with Me giving his spirit into My hand before his death, and the other one blasphemed Me, as he heard the scribes and the rulers of the Jews blaspheming Me in the time of My death on Golgotha.

I become word of feast and spirit of rest of your souls, for I stay in your midst as word, sons of My people, and Father is in Me when I speak with you. I come at your table with the martyrs who confessed their holy faith for which they remained Mine in the time of persecution and confessed Me by their death of martyr in the lake of Sebaste[106], and My holy confessors long after you and are happy because they died within Christ and are alive forever like Me, as there is no death among those who are alive but it is life and resurrection instead, as it is written. Amen.

I am coming to you with the feast of the cross, sons, for the holy fathers of the faith have laid, in the time of the fasting for the preparation of the souls before the celebration of My resurrection, they have laid the cross of pain resting, the cross by which the man passes to be with Me then, and no one, no one is able to taste of his rest from Me but only if I see that he has got his cross and that he puts it down when he comes to the rest of his tiring works, as the forty saints have celebrated today, passed and come to their rest with Me, for these sons loved Me with faith. I am coming to you as word of comfort to give you powers, and happy you are if you take holy powers of My word, faith and spiritual love among you, hope and steadfastness on your way with Me and self-denial by the way of the cross, for the cross helps the man not to fall and not to get out from under it, and the lack of the cross makes the man fall into himself and the man loses his patience and then he loses his way with Me, for the man alone cannot make the cross for the faithful one within Me, because I give it to him, according to what I consider that each man needs for his salvation and the power which washes man's sins away, for each sinful man is in need of the atonement of his sin and of the cleansing by the cross, as the forty saints from Sebaste were saved from their sins by the cross of their faith and then they came back into My arm saving of sons. It is written that whoever loses his soul for Me and for My Gospel that one will be saved, and the one who will be ashamed of Me and of My words into the midst of the sinful and sexually immoral people, I will also be ashamed of him when I come within the greatness of My Father with the holy angels. No matter how wrong the man might be before Me, if he loses his soul because of the confession of My word, not being ashamed of Me in the midst of the people, to that one I will give his salvation, especially if he brings Me fruit of souls that get up to believe and then to do My will, to a life under cross, to a spirit of obedience with love, for he who does not listen with love, that one loses his obedience and he loses his cross and remains without the staff; he remains without My exhortation upon him.

[106] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Forty_Martyrs_of_Sebaste

Oh, I suffer because the man does not know what cross is so that he may love for him the life under the cross. Oh, and I suffer even more from those who come out of My cross! Oh, how shall I do with those who come out from Me and do not confess My word, which calls the man from death to life? Oh, My people, love with power the life under the cross and do not be afraid of the cross, for woe to the one who does not have to bear pains! Nothing whitens the man's life and spirit more than the pain under the cross, and he who suffers with love because of the preaching of My Gospel on to the people, because it was for this that I came on the earth, and the one who is faithful to Me among people should live for this, too.

Oh, My people, sanctify your spirit, tongue and love by confessing Me, and I will reward you, son. Oh, son, set your faith in Me to work and pray to Me for it so that satan may not crush it, for no one leaves Me but only after satan crushes his faith, well sons. Your faith saves you and therefore do not lose it from your heart, for I have given you great wealth; I have given you My holy word to live according to it on the earth, and in order for you to do this, you have to believe in My word of yesterday and today, My people. Oh, get cleaned of unbelief, son, and ask medicine from Me, for you cannot help yourself. Oh, do not seek to fall in pains to believe and to want like Me! Your faith has to be proved out before Me. Let the angels and the saints see the power of your faith, and let them know by it that you are Mine. Behold, there is great, great darkness outside and there is not light on My way to man, for the man who sits upon people does not have from Me, and he who does not have God is blind. Oh, become godly, My people, for everything, everything has been shaken on the earth, and shaking like this has never been since ages, and as for you, hold tight to Me, have My word upon you which takes care of the sons, for the evil spirit hides his face and you should strengthen My Spirit upon you, son of today. Oh, you should not come out from under the cross, My people. The earth has been shaken everywhere with every man on it, but he who lies on the cross does not stagger but is rather saved by it, for the cross means salvation, son. You have as a thrilling example the one who came out from under the cross among the forty who suffered for My name in the lake from Sebaste and who lost the salvation of his soul. I strengthen your faith and steadfastness, My people; only do not forget the word that I have spoken to you. He who does not read My word with love, he who does not seek after it with longing, that one falls, sons. Oh, it is a great mystery to know how to read My word. While My crucifixion, hanging on the cross between the two thieves, one of them knew how to rely on Me, and the other one did not, poor of him, and if he did not understood that day and its word then he lost his faith.

I teach you, My people, the love under the cross and its wisdom and patience. Oh, do not choose your cross, do not choose it. It is better for Me to choose it for you. Each man needs a doctor. It is better that the one who sees to choose for you, the one who knows from above, and behold, haughtiness does not let the man allow the Lord to have control over his life, and the man guides himself even in his faith, but the faith is that which brings fruit, and it does not have a reward otherwise, for its fruit are its reward on the earth and then in heaven, and you should open the book of My word and take medicine from it for you, My people, for there is no sickness without a remedy, only for you to take remedy from the book. Amen.

And now, My people, behold, Verginica stays between you and Me with the one who was her companion on the earth at the beginning of My work with her and who was now taken up from his tent. (In the time of Saint Virginia's earthly life some of the instruments of the dictatorship of the communist red beast compelled her to get married, otherwise they would put her into a psychiatric hospital, and this one was her "husband" in front of authorities and her companion day by day, by common assent, by the faith in the word coming from the Lord, r.n.) Forty days had passed since he was taken up and now she is standing before Me and before you with him. I weigh her works, but more than that I weigh his faith in the work of My word and his repentance before his end of life. Verginica[107] weighs on scales his great love and obedience at his beginning within My work, because after that he came out of obedience and was pulled out of My arm. I have spoken now the word that an atonement and reconciliation sacrifice may be brought for him for forty days, until the feast of My resurrection, and My work is great, and by it, with My power, I have set an order of prayer and sacrifice of reconciliation for the creature before Me, and everything that has been established by Me word has power in it by Me, and he who passes with his body into My people sees this, and the resurrection of the dead is a great mystery, only that the man is small in his faith and does not understand the mystery of the resurrection of those who are asleep. I have also told this to those who carry Me as the word from the Father to man and I have told them that the man's body keeps his soul in it in the same way as the chick, which has not come out of its egg shell, stays and becomes perfect in its shell while the hen warms up the egg with her body and with her sacrificing love so that the life of her chick may grow within the egg, and then the chick to be able to come out from the egg, and upon its coming, it pecks with its beak the shell that covers it and breaks it open to come out and have life within the light. Oh, this is how the man's coming out of his body to his post-body life has to be understood, and happy are those who have the Lord as their nurse in their life in the flesh, because even after that they have Him as their comfort, as the growth of their life with happiness forever, and behold, we cook food and comfort on the earth so that the one who leaves his body may have, and then to feed him from heaven to grow perfectly and to become a full citizen of the heaven, together with those who are rested within Christ!

Oh, My mercy is without limits but My justice also works near it. Behold, I have given a word into your midst, My people, to be remembered in the little garden of My word, on the altar of the godly liturgy, My bloodless sacrifice, and with it to be named the forgiveness of this little soul who left the earth unprepared, for he was weak for himself, for the body and for the soul, because satan had put him in bondage by his disobedience and then by his lack of power to get up from his weaknesses, from the trap of the devil, in which he was stayed being caught up to the end of this body, for the bonds put over him were great by the one who pulled him out from near My trumpet, for all the time the evil spirit had been taking revenge against My vessel by which I had My Spirit and word come down on the earth. I, the Lord, am going to work now great salvation for this little soul and then I will refresh him in the day of the feast of My resurrection, and by that time, I have asked to be brought an atonement sacrifice for him here, in the little garden of My word, on the altar of the reconciliation of the man to the Father, through Me, the slaughtered Lamb, for the faithful ones.

[107] Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet (See selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.)

